THE BORIS HAMBOURG CO. AUDITORIUM, THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 19TH

BORIS HAMBOURG, the world's renowned 'cellist, needs no introduction to lovers of the more advanced art of music. Not only does this excellent company render exclusive compositions, of the most difficult, they inspire you with many of the best of popular melodies that will ring your whole being with music, such as you have never listened to before.

Mabel Manley-Pickard, styled as at the head of all Canadian sopranos, is of an extremely sweet voice of wide range and is more than making an impression throughout the tour,while Madge Williamson, pianiste, will meet with warm welcome, being remembered from Mr. Hambourg,s tour 3 years ago.

Such an excellent company as Mr. Hambourg carries this season will leave a lasting impression with those who attend this high class concert.

LANCE-CORPORAL IZZARD KILLED IN ACTION

Mr. Frank Izzard, of the Herald staff has received word that his brother was killed in action on Sunday, August 18th.

Lance-Corporal Bertram John Izzard was a native of Woodstock,Ont. He enlisted with the 92nd Highlanders of Toronto in the early stages of the war and was afterwards transferred to the 42nd Battalion. He was for two years in the trenches and during that time he had but ten days leave of absence, suffering from a flesh wound in the arm.

There are few families in Canada who have no honored dead sleeping beneath the poppies in Flanders fields.

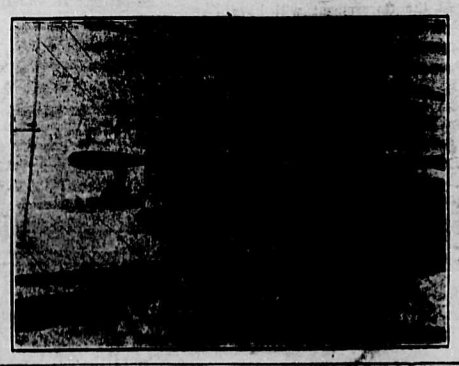
WOMEN'S INSTITUTE MONTHLY MEETING

The regular monthly meeting of the Women's Institute was held at the Parish Hall on Tuesday, Sept. 3rd, with the President, Mrs. E. H. Leaman in the chair.

Arising out of the minutes the question of a Tag Day was resumed and it was decided to hold it on one of the Fair days, arrangements being left in the hands of the directors. Since this meeting, however, the date has been fixed for Saturday, September 28th, owing to the St. John Ambulance having previously prepared for a tag at the Fair dates.

The secretary, Mrs. J. W. Burton, gave a report of the Flower Show, showing an income of $110 00, which was considerably larger than any previous year, and when all expenses have been paid there will be about $50.00 profit to purchase yarn for socks. It was explained that the prize money will not be distributed until the grant comes as allotted by the agricultural department at the rate of 25c. per capita. This was deemed to be advisable in order to permit the Institute to purchase Red Cross materials which are ever increasing in cost and scarce in supply.

A. SANDHOFFER, INSTRUCTOR OF THE SPOKANE AVIATION SCHOOL WILL FLY BOTH AFTERNOONS AT THE FAIR



Quite a number of ladies expressed the wish that their prize money be used for patriotic purposes.

The chairman expressed her satisfaction with all the various committees, the judges, those who entertained musically and to all who helped make the show a success. On motion of Mesdames Erickson and Thompson a vote of thanks was passed to those who kindly assisted Mrs. McBride with the War Relics, donors of relics, those who lent flags and bunting, Mr. Coutts, who decorated and Mr. Cameron and Mrs. Wolfer for loan of cars.

Under communications a letter was read from the department inviting the Institute to name a lady to represent the district of the Kootenay and Boundary Institutes on the Advisory Board, the same to be elected at the forthcoming conference. A second and third choice was made in case the first was not available.

Mrs. R. T. Williams reported having collected $10.10 and Mrs. Fyles that another shipment of 500 personal property bags could very soon be despatched. Mrs. S. H. Thompson, for the knitting committee, reported 30 pairs of socks turned in and 30 pairs shipped to Red Cross; Mrs. Drummond for the cook book committee $3.00, and the collection for Prisoners War Fund $3.30.

The roll call was answered by "My Pet Economy," and several novel and thoughtful replies were given.

The question of collecting paper, rubber, tn foil, etc., was discussed and the delegates who will attend the music conference promised to bring up the matter with a view of collecting these substances to ship in car loads from the Insttutes in the district..

With regard to serving refreshments on the Fair grounds the members felt that owing to scarcity of food and the restrictions entailed and also to the extra demand in canvassing from the citizens for food, etc., they decided not to handle it this year deavor to enlist their co-operation in connection with the live stock sale at the Fair.

We expect many exhibits from our good Creston people this year, not only in fruit and vegetables but also in other classes, particularly the ladies' fancy department. Cranbrook ladies look to your laurels.

Our Vice-President Mr. W. E. Worden, visited the Spokane Fair last week and had the pleasure of calling on our aviator, who expressed himself as being delighted to have the opportunity of making flights at the biggest and best fair in the interior of B. C. This should help some.

Those who are desirous of having prize lists and entry forms should apply to the secretary now.

THE HOME-COMING OF CAPTAIN EDDIE DOOLAN

Three years ago Eddie Doolan went away as a private with the 54th Battalion; he returned on Sunday as a captain.

Eddie Doolan was born and brought up in the city of Cranbrook. He was a popular, good natured boy, and as he grew to manhood these qualities grew with him. When the war broke out he enlisted. He proved himself a soldier worthy of the profession of arms and made rapid progress in the army. He rose to the rank of captain and became a superintendent of transport.

He became married, but unfortunately his wife died in childbirth. The child was saved and he got leave of absence for a while. He came home on furlough and intended to bring the baby with him. The mother of the soldier and grandmother of the baby was at the station to welcome the son and cuddle the grandchild, but the baby didn't come. The father was not allowed to bring him.

Captain Eddie Doolan was met at the station by a great many friends. He embraced his mother, kissed all the pretty girls on the platform—not on the cheek, but with a resounding smack right on the rosy red lips—and shook hands with his men friends.

Three cheers and a tiger were given for Captain Doolan, who expressed his thanks before being rolled away in an auto to the privacy of his home.

The police made a raid on Saturday night on what was supposed to be a booze selling joint, but they failed to get the goods. There was all kinds of evidence except the hard stuff itself. The liquor law seems to be very hard to enforce. It should be made workable or be wiped off the statute book.

THE FRENCH FARMERS SAVED THE DAY

The saving farmer is a national asset. Canadian progress today in all lines attests magnificently to the splendid qualities of thrift that have marked the farmers in all the provinces. The total returns from field crops and animal produce have been only possible because of he disposition to make use in an economical way of all the wonderful gifts of Providence in this good land of ours.

The same was abundanly true after 1870 in France when the frugal, thrifty farmers of thatfair land made it possible for the Republic to pay off that hated German war indemnity of two billion francs levied against them. The same spirit of national thrift built up France for the extreme test today—a test that is being tried by fire.

Thanks be, French heroism is proving true. The line is holding. The blood of the farmers is flowing equally as well through the veins of France's daughters of the soil and so the national strength bends but does not break.

Canada is reaping her harvests of increased returns and money is being made as never before. Our farmers are earning the gratitude of all in their splendid efforts at production. That they will carry into their savings an equal foresight in conserving their surplusses against the future days of darkness and lower prices will be equally praiseworthy. He is well advised who saves his extra dollar until he sees which way the winds of tomorrow will blow. Adversity bolws a chill blast where there is no dollar in the savings.

Returning to the Castle Hall services were concluded with a memoriam to the Brothers who have made the supreme sacrifice for universal democracy and brotherhood. AN IMPROVED MAIL SERVICE

After many months of persistant effort on the part of the Retail Merchants Association and the Cranbrook Board of Trade to have the present Mail service on the Kootenay Central placed under a more satisfactory system, the Hon. Postmaster General has finally issued instructions for the establishment of a new service by which all mails between Cranbrook and Kootenay Central points will be conveyed out of Cranbrook on Mondays and Thursdays by the K. C. trains and a return service on the same trains.

The agitation for this change was inaugurated by the Retail Mercchants Association at one of their meetings held last January and after enlisting the co-operation of the Cranbrook and Windermere Boards of Trade these three associations have been persistant in their demands for a change ever since, but without apparent success, until some time in August when at a meeting of the Directors of the Board of Trade the Secretary was instructed to wire Dr. S. Bonnell to find out definitely what the intention of the Post Office department were in this connection.

The following communications from Dr. Bonnell by the secretary to which was attached a letter from the Hon. Postmaster General are self explanatory.

Conrad W. Johnson, of Vancouver, is making a two weeks' visit to Cranbrook. He is greatly pleased with the prospects of the city. He expects to see Cranbrook grow into a large and prosperous business centre of South-eastern British Columbia. He incidentally complimented the Herald on the tone, force, value and interest of its editorial and news columns.

The monument to the memory of the late Nils Hanson has arrived and has been erected in the Cranbrook cemetery. It is made of a special quality and character of granite and is patterned after the most conspicuous monument in Vancouver. The delay in getting the monument ready was caused by the factory having difficulty in securing the stone. It is the first monument to be erected here with the letters inlaid in lead instead of cut and gilded.

Dr. Rutledge, inspector of the local dairies, reported at the regular meeting of the council last month that he had made inspection of the various dairies supplying milk in the city and that after certain suggestions which he had made and which had been complied with he was able to say that the dairies under his inspection were in good condtion. Since that time the milk has been tested by Mr. A. P. Noble and the following report is now submitted by him:—Atchison, 4.2 butter fat; Austin, 4 per cent; Godderis, 4 per cent.

Fine weather and good prospects for the Fair. Will you be there?

CRANBROOK, BRITISH COLUMBIA, THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 12th, 1918

MUNICIPAL BOARD OF CONTROL

The city council discussed at their session on Monday night some proposed amendments to the municipal act that take a great deal of power out of the hands of a city or municipal council and centralize it in a board of control in Victoria. There are many objections to offer to such a change. The Vancouver World makes the following criticism on the proposed change:

Proposals to change radically the present system of local government in British Columbia are afoot. We are told that the local government board to be set in authority over local bodies will "have practically the same powers as the British Local Government Board." This is sweeping. The Local Government Board of England and Wales controls county, urban and rural councils in matters of finance, police, public health, education, poor law relief local improvements and general administration. As government grants are made for a variety of purposes to these local bodies, centralization of authority is rarely questioned. On the whole there is little friction and the system generally has proved efficient.

Whether that system in great part is suited to conditions in British Columbia, however, remains to be demonstrated. One effect of its introduction here will be to centralize in the hands of a government department at Victoria extensive powers of controling local affairs. This is a tendency that should be carefully watched.

It would be well for the British Columbia Union of Municipalities to cause the scheme to be placed before the press and public before it is accepted or condemned. If it cannot stand constructive criticism it should be held in abeyance, for the present at any rate.

"Rush legislation" benefits only the legal profession.

INDUSTRY, THRIFT, VICTORY AND JUBILATION

Ever since the war began the Canadian people have been urged to increase production to the limit, to save every dollar, to eliminate all extravagance and waste, to use as sparingly as possible every kind of food and material that the soldiers overseas require, as by so doing they trod the path to victory and jubilation.

The Canadians as a whole set themselves heartily to carry out this program. The rule was to sacrifice, to deny one's self of all luxuries and of many things that used to be looked upon as real necessities. Thousands of people who have never been in the limelight, of whose sacrifices nobody has ever heard, whose heroic deeds have never been recorded—unless, indeed, they are recorded in heaven--have won service medals.Much has been accomplished through sacrificial love that never will acquire any individuality, but it has helped to win the war. Very much more than the yarn has gone into the many thousands of hand-knitted socks that have warmed and protected the feet of the sodiers in the trenches. The sustenance and the benefits of the comforts sent to the men over there cannot be measured in calories. There is a guardian angel that sticks as close as a shadow to every boy in kahki.

But Canada cannot afford to relax her efforts to maintain her full fighting strength. She must continue to produce and to save. Every ounce of bread or meat or cheese or butter that is saved is an ounce produced. In this sense everybody is a producer. Let us produce as much as we can—we can't produce too much. What if you have saved and your neighbor hasn't? That much has been saved and if you continue to save your greedy neighbor may yet do so also.

Every man, every woman, every dollar—all are required in the service of King and country. Let us not waver, let us not slacken, let us not grow weary in well doing.

The crucial period in the tug-of-war has arrived and the fall of the enemy is at hand. Let us anchor ourselves with THRIFT and victory is ours and the hour of jubilation will soon be celebrated.

DEPUTY MINISTER OF AGRICULTURE SUPERANNUATED

W. E. Scott, for the past ten years deputy minister of agriculture in the provincial government, has been superannuated with an allowance of $100.00 a month. He recently went through a severe illness, which has incapacitated him for work. His successor has not yet been appointed.

This superannuation law is wrong in its administration. If any men are to be superannuated when they become incapacitated for work, all men should be. If there is to be any discrimination it should be in favor of the men who haveworked hard a lltheir lives for less than a living wage and not in favor of the men who have been drawing from the accumulated wealth of the nation thousands of dollars every year. There is no justice in sending a man who has been a producer of national wealth all his life to the poor house when his energy is all gone and giving another man whose main effort has been to direct the extravagant expenditure of the people's money a pension of $100.00 a month. At least not in a democratic country.

OLD KING COAL IS A FAT OLD SOUL

The report of the minister of mines for the year ending Dec. 31st, 1917, with an accompanying map, showing the mining divisions of the province has recently been received at this office. There was not as great mining activity throughout the province as might have been expected, considering the high prices being paid and the almost unlimited demand for many kinds of ore that British Columbia produces. Nevertheless the province has made a good showing. The report shows that one of the most active companies in the province was the Consolidated Mining & Smelting Company, which operates the Sullivan mine in this district.

The Sullivan mine produced by far the largest tonnage of any mine in the Kootenays. The smelter receipts for the year show 112,000 tons to the credit of this property. Of this about 90,000 tons were zinc ore for the electrolytic plant, 5,000 tons of pyrite for the acid plant, and the balance silver lead ore. The usual amount of mine development was carried on.

The Silver Slocan ought to come into its own again with silver $1 an ounce.

Since mining first started in British Columbia, about 60 years ago, nearly $600,000,000.00 has been taken out of the beds of the rivers and the bowels of the mountains. The bald-headed old mountains that frown on the many but favor the few have given up a tremendous amount of wealth and their iron bound chests are still full of treasure and is given up liberally to the men who go after it with hammer and steel, with pick and shovel, with powder. caps and fuse.

Many a hardy prospector has found the hills grow steeper until h has finally prospected his last mountain since mining first began in the province.

The lure of gold has resulted in the production of $169,000,000 00 from the gold treasures of this province, but coal heads it off in value, the production of the black diamond totalling $175,000,000.00. Copper takes the third place with a total value of over $130,000,000.00.

The total mineral production of the province last year was $37,010,392.00, copper heading the list and followed in order by, coal, gold, zinc, lead, silver, coke and miscellaneous.

British Columbia is a great mineral producing province and some of the finest men in the world are those who have pioneered in this industry and who are still prospecting the hills and bringing new treasures to light.

From the Victoria Colonist.

Back from a two weeks' trip which took them along the line of the G. T. P. railway from Prince Rupert to Prince George and thence south along the route of the P. G. E. railway, the Government road, to Quesnel and on to Ashcroft, Hon. J. H. King, Minister of Public Works, and Hon. J. W. de B. Farris, Attorney-General, were enthusiastic over the immense potentialities of the vast territory served by the two railways, its possibilities as a future home for hundreds of thousands of settlers, and the vast natural resources which are awaiting the influx of man power to develop what is today practically virgin territory.

It was Hon. Dr. King's first visit to centres along the G. T. P. line and to the territory which will be served by the P. G. E. As Minister of Public Works he paid first attention to the needs of the territory from the standpoint of his department and he stated that undoubtedly as settlement advanced the Government will have to spend large sums in providing those facilities required in progressive communities. Even today the funds at the dsposal of the Government for necessary public works in that section are wholly inadequate and as time progresses the demands upon his department will steadily increase. But with the advent of settlers the Government will undoubtedly keep abreast of the demands and seek to its utmost to encourage settlement.

"The great need of that country is settlement," said the Doctor, "and to my mind there is no doubt but that after the war there will be a great influx of settlers into those great areas now awaiting development."

Hon Dr. King and Hon. Mr. Farris made a leisurely trip south along the proposed route of the P. G E to Quesnel, and paid a visit to Harper's camp, where gold dredging operations are under way, a company of Victoria men now operating at that point.

There is marked activity in the lumber and fishing industries at and n the vicinity of Prince Rupert and settlers are daly arriving at points along the line of the G. T. P. lookng for land.

HOW IT HAPPENED

Two British soldiers went into a restaurant at Salonika and asked for Turkey and Greece. The waiter said: I'm sorry gentlemen but I can't Servia," whereupon the Tommies cried: "Fetch the Bosphorus,, When that gentleman arrived and heard the complaint, he said: "Well gentlemen, I don't like to Russia, but you can't Roumania." And so the poor Tommies had to go away Hungary."

R. M. Let us live while we live, for life is short and we will be a long time dead

The officers of the local Farmers' Institute very urgently ask the members to do all they can to make the Fall Fair a success. It is a busy time, but we believe that a year hence the time devoted to getting out what you have and yourself and family as well to this short holiday will not be regretted.

A. B. Smith says we have a lot of good live stock here and the livestock industry is a solid one for which the country is particularly adapted. The Hon. Minister of Agriculture is expected to be at the fair; let us show him what we have. The crops may be short this season, but the cattle and horses are looking well, let each one, even at some sacrifice, get out a small showing and the total will be well worth our efforts. Try getting behind and pushing—and push hard.

Cranbrook has had a drinking fountain for horses and other animals for a long time, but the two-legged animal has had to aswage his thirst at the bar or in an ice cream parlor, but now, thanks to Conrad W. Johnson, he can drink to his heart's content right out in the open. He can call on his imagination to provide him with champaign, rye, Scotch or beer, open the valve and drink all his tank will hold

The ministers of Cranbrook have formed themselves into a ministerial association, with Rev. H. Wright as president and Rev. John Sinclair as secretary. The first meeting was held in the Y. M. C. A. last Monday afternoon. The following were present, Rev Harrison, Rev. Pow, Rev. Lee, Rev. Wright and Rev. Sinclair. The president gave a very helpful address and discussion followed. The next meeting will be held on Monday 7th October, when Rev. Harrison will give the address.

INVERMERE NOTES

The Eighth Annual Fall Fair of the Lake Windermere District took place recently being held on the grounds of the Dominion Government experimental station and those of the Public School immediately adjoining the station. The exhibits this year were larger in number than at any previous exhibition and the attendance from outside points was good. The strongest part of the fair this year was the increase in the number of live stock. During the last few years several registered sires have been introduced amongst the cattle and the results of these importations were clearly evident in the type of animals exhibited

Prof. Saddler, of the University of British Columbia; E. M. Barlow, Asasistant Provincial Agriculturist; and Everett Hogan of the same department, acted as judges of the main exhibits. The ladies' work was judged by Mesdames Oliver B. Rickards, of Thunder Hill and Hume, of Wetaskiwin, Alberta. A complimentary dinner was tendered to the judges on the evening of the first day.

Captain E. H. Carlile, of Spillimachene, B. C., and of Wetaskiwin, son of Sir Hildred and Lady Carlile,who was first officially reported as missing, has since been reported as a prisoner in Germany.

In the judging of the field competitions for potatoes the honors were carried off by Jas. S. Johnston, with a total of 92 1-2 points out of a possible 100. Messrs. J. W. Crawford, of Fairmont Hot Springs, and Arthur J. Walker, of Invermere, secured 2nd and 3rd places with a score of 91 1-2 and 91 points respectively. There were ten competitors all told.

ELKO NOTES
By Fred Roo

Jim Thistlebeak says "Don't be a knocker."
Don't criticise your neighbor's faults
No matter what they do;
Don't ridicule the masses or
Malign the chosen few;
Don't think yourself the censor for
The silly human flock;
And just remember as you go
That any fool can knock.
Don't laugh at those who make mistakes
And stumble on the way;
For you are apt to follow them
And almost any day.
Don't think the others shifting sands
While you are solid rock;
And don't forget, for heaven's sake,
That any fool can knock.
Don't be a puller down of fame
On other men conferred;
Don't give a parting kick to one
Who fell because he erred.
Don't think that you are perfect and
The only size in stock;
And now once more, just bear in mind
That any fool can knock.

Baron Von Germhun, one time private secretary to Kaiser Bill, passed through Elko on his way to the United States where a warm reception awaits him, from the Morrissey internment camp.

Show this paper to your friends. They might have a few loose dollars about their persons and subscribe for it. You know that it pays to advertise.

Doctor and Mrs. Garner, Mrs. Cummings and Miss Langley, superintendent of the Fernie General Hospital, were Elko visitors this week.

Jolly th fellow who's down today,
Give him a smile for his sorrow;
The World sometimes has a funny way,
And you may be down tomorrow.

Fred Roo is down in the Roosville valley and Tobacco plains this week and seems to have a special commission for boosting the Cranbrook fair.

The Flagstone branch of the Tobacco plains and Roosville valley gave a special dance in honor of Miss Jenny Nichols, of Roosville, and Miss A. Moisio, of Flagstone, teachers on Saturday night, in Sunshine Hall, Flagstone, which was well attended and a social success.

The tiehack is a happy man,
And in the woods is free;
No foreman looking down his neck,
No need of boss has he.

On account of th big demand for ties several tie camps will be started in the Roosville valley this winter.

Mrs. A. Boss and daughter, of Riverside Park, left Sunday for Nelson, where they will in future reside. Miss L. Boss is attending high school in Nelson and left Elko some time ago.

On account of the big demand for lumber coming in the Downs and Rienecke mill in Roosville valley expects to start up again.

WARDNER NOTES

Sept 4.—Mrs. Longworth, of Elko, was in town visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. Wright.

The Big Red Cross dance given at the Club Hall on Friday evening,Aug. 30, proved a success in every way.The splendid music for the occasion was furnished by the Cranbrook orchestra. About 50 couples were present. A war time lunch was served at midnight at which all participated. At a late hour the dance broke up and everyone delcared that they had enjoyed themselves immensely.

Mr. and Mrs. Leard and children, and Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Sinclair and children all made a fishing trip out to the Big Sands on Saturday and returned home on Monday evening with a large catch.

Master Walter Martin returned home from Spokane last week, where he spent his summer vacation.

FORT STEELE NOTES

An Austrian named Fred Siderke was arrested last week by constable Walsh for violating certain regulations governing the movements of alien enemies in Canada. Siderke was brought before Justice of the Peace R. L. T. Galbraith, and was fined $50 and costs. The fine was paid.

The Fort Steele Public School was opened yesterday morning for the first time since the summer vacation. It was with some difficulty that a teacher was secured for the school. Miss Hand the new teacher arrived on the stage Monday.

Any person who doubts that the Canadian Y. M. C. A. in France is not all that "its crackedup about" just ask any C. E F. soldier that has been over there. In a letter from Pte. Albert Bell to his mother Mrs. A. J. Grez, referring to the Y. M. C. A. he writes: "They do great work over here, they furnish picture shows—they also build theatres for our concerts, parties and we have good shows over here equal to those played in England or Canada. I can tell you it helps out a whole lot when the boys come out of the trenches for a rest".

When Blue-nosers are called "doughheads" that settles it. The Mayor of Halifax called his aldermen "damn fools" and "dead men," but when he called them "doughheads" they all resigned.

The bride's lament—What fools we mortals be. We marry in haste and repent at leisure. It is easier to fall into the matrimonial trap than it is to get out of it. Why isn't divorce made just as easy as marriage? Why should we be allowed to get married at all? It may be all right that what the Lord joins together let no man put asunder, but the Devil, not the Lord, is at the bottom of a good many marriages.

The Germans make better swimmers than they do sailors. But a goodly number of their swimming tubs have gone to the bottom. Davy Jones,s locker will soon be full of them.

It is said that Hindenburg is not dead, but he might as well be. He is no longer directing the war operations—General Foch is doing that for him and doing it very well.

The Fochs are all very well, thank you; prosperous and happy.

It is reported that the Fins are all coming out on the side of Germany. What does the German porpoise want with fins? What he wants is a bladder to keep him afloat.

The Plain Truth about Shoe Prices

LEATHER is scarce and is growing scarcer. A large part of the available supply must be used for soldiers' boots. Importations have practically ceased and we are forced to depend upon the limited quantity of materials produced in Canada.

The cost of everything which goes into a pair of shoes is high, and is going higher. Workmen by the thousands have joined the colors, and labor is increasingly hard to get. It is not merely a matter of high prices, but of producing enough good quality shoes to go around.

These conditions are beyond the control of any man, or any group of men. They fall on all alike. No one is exempt—neither the manufacturer, the dealer, nor the consumer.

You must pay more today for shoes of the same quality than you did a year ago. Next Spring, prices will be higher still.

These are hard facts. They will not yield to argument. They cannot be glossed over. We cannot change them, much as we would wish to do so.

But you, as a wearer of shoes, can help to relieve them if you will exercise prudence and good judgment in purchasing. See that you get real value for your money. Spend enough to get it, but spend nothing for "frills."

See that the manufacturer's trade-mark is stamped upon the shoes you buy. High prices are a temptation to reduce the quality in order to make the price seem low. But no manufacturer will stamp his trade-mark upon a product which he is ashamed to acknowledge. Remember this, and look for the trade-mark. It is your best assurance of real value for your money.
