Dear Mother,

Didn't get the card mailed yesterday as I had hoped, but will enclose so you will see the plane I came in. Had a good sleep here yesterday afternoon. Met many friends at dinner. Am now going downtown alone just to look at the shops and buy a nylon blouse.

While waiting my connection in N.Y. yesterday I booked my flight home via T.C.A. will arrive on Tues. the 6th around 3 P.M. the #5 flight from Toronto. Will get full particulars on Mon. or Tues. at the office & let you know. Eleanor wants to meet me & if you want to come with her that will be a convenient time.

I will have her next Sat. A.M. and spend Sat. & Sun. with Dot Clarke & Eleanor. Will have Mon. for my business in N.Y. Thought I might be able to do that on Fri., but am going to need the full working week here.

It is nice & cool this morning. Sunny now but rain predicted. Going to have lunch with one of the nurses. Already invited out to-night, to-morrow night, & Thurs. night. And there will be more in between. Alas for my figure.

Must go now. Will write next week.

Love, Lyle
