Powell River Defeat Locals At Soccer

Enjoyable Friendly Game Witnessed by Large Crowd

There was a real good turn-out at the soccer game held on the Recreation Ground, Sunday, when a strong Powell River team visited Cumberland. It is a good many years since the old Recreation Ground saw such a crowd as gathered together on Sunday last to witness a soccer game. It shows interest in the round ball game is not entirely dead in this district and whilst the brand of ball put up did not equal the ball of other days, nevertheless it was very enjoyable. Powell River had a slight edge and came out winners by three goals to one. The ground was not in the best of condition as play was started, many small stones bothering the players quite a lot. Both teams soon adapted themselves to the conditions, however, with the result that the ball travelled from endto end very rapidly.

A. S. Jones of Union Bay refereed and got the game started about two o'clock, halfan hour late. Cumberland immediately pressed, and Sandy Strang, the Westminster Royal player, who was assisting Cumberland, coming within an ace of scoring on several occasions. The half was fought out at a good pace, with the Cumberlanders showing real good form. The Powell River defence, however, prevailed and was able to withstand all onslaughts of the local forwards. Powell River forwards tested Watson on two or three occasions, the home custodian proving to be quite able to handle all shots directed at him. The persistency of the visitors was refarded close to half time when Watson was well beaten. The half ended with the papermakers one goal up.

The second half was nearly all Powell River, the locals showing a great lack of training, with the result that play was mostly confined to the Cumberland half. During the second period Jock Campbell scored for Cumberland and the visitors netted two more, giving them a victory by three goals to one. The game was thoroughly enjoyed by the large crowd present and as stated shows that soccer is still popular in the district.

The refereeing of A. S. Jones gave great satisfaction and the following did duty for Cumberland: Goal, H. Watson; backs, McFarlane and J. Brown; half-backs, E. Clark, G. McLellanand Amos Farmer; forwards, McFarland, H. Gibson, Sandy Strang, Jock Campbell and W. Abrams.

Strang, the Westminster Royal player who is working in the district at present, was a tower of strength to the local team and was most unfortunate in not bagging one or two goals in the opening half.

Davis, on behalf of the Welsh Society presented Mr. and Mrs. Morgan with a very lovely couch prettily covered with cretonne. The couple in a neat reply thaked the Society for their beautiful gift.

Salmon fishing at the various resorts on the Island is now in full swing, with the big annual run of spring and cohoes on, according to the weekly fishing gazette issued by the Victoria and Island Publicity Bureau.

Limit catches are being made in waters around Qualicum Beach, Comox Bay and Campbell River, the bulletin says:

Steelhead—Good sport on Stamp River. Wading, light tackle, fly.

Sea Trout—Good catches off Sooke, Jordan, Oystre and Litite Qualicum Rivers. These fish are sea-run cutthroats.

Badminton To Start At End Of September

The various badminton clubs in the district will be making a start for the season at the end of the present month with probably oneor two new clubs coming into existence. At Campbell River we are told a club will be formed at a meeting to be held within the next few days. There are a number of really good players up at the River and with the Community Hall having accommodation for two full size courts a fairly representative club can be formed.

The Whippets, a Cumberland club also intend to start as early as possible and there are very many rumours going around that the hall will be increased to take care of three courts. At the present time the Whippets boast two courts but so many applications have been received for membership in the club that it is quite possible that the Band Hall will be enlarged.

Of course the main place for Badminton for the district will be at the Imperial Pavilion at Royston, the home of the Big Imperial badminton club. In former years this club has always started early in October but up to the present time no word has been sent round just when play will start.

A new club might also be formed at Courtenay, using the Native Sons' Hall asa meeting place. There is not the slightest doubt that the popular indoor game will have a wonderful season in this district.

More than a little bored with vacation days,and glad to be back with playmates and companions at school, 429 students in the Cumberland Public School returned to their desks on Tuesday morning for enrollment; out of this number 34 new pupils presented themselves.

A teaching staff completed during the summer holidays, met the students,and active school work commenced on Tuesday afternoon. One or two changes have been made in the teaching staff, but everything went off on Tuesday without a hitch.

The task of receiving and placing the children from beginners of six years of age to seniors in high school did not take very long and by afternoon work was under way.

BILL MARTIN TRIPPLE WINNER IN TRAP SHOOT

Bill Martin, of Nanaimo, who was a visitor to Cumberland Rodand Gun club traps on Wednesday, made an unusual triple win on Monday at a trophy shoot in the hub city when he broke 69 birds out of 75. From the twenty-two yard line ina handicap match for the Dendoff cup he broke 23 straight, winning the cup. Immediately following he broke 23 in a row for the Saunder's trophy which he won outright. He also with a straight 23 won the general shoot of the day.

Mr. Martin shot at the Cumberland traps on Wednesday but was evidently a little stale as one of the Cumberland members beat him in a friendly shoot. Bill Martin was a well known shot overseas as a sergeant in the 72nd Canadian Seaforths he gained quitea reputation.

Mrs. Elsie Johnson, whose marriage to Mr. William Brown took place on Monday, was hostess to a number of friends and well-wishers who gathered at her home on Windermere avenue on Friday evening last, the visit being in the nature of a surprise party. During the evening whist was played, first prize being won by Mrs. Johnson with Mrs. Freeburn gaining the consolation. A candy eating contest caused much merriment. Mrs. Slaughter being adjudged the winner and Mrs. Johnson being awarded second prize. A guessing contest was won by Mrs. Tom Armstrong. Supper was served by Mesdames Walker, Westfield, Shearer and A. Williams, assisted by Miss Jean Johnson. BELIEVE IT OR NOT—

Fish Saidto Be Lured by Bagpipes

They say a modern Pied Piper has been found on the Clyde Coast, though it is not rats he lures, but fish. He is a scotch bagpipe player who has been engaged by a Port Bannatyne boat hirer to accompany his fishing expeditions. We thought there were no fishermen left in Scotland after the story got round that a shilling had been found in a herring caught off the coast of England.

This latest stunt of the boat-hirer engaging a piper to attract the fish is given out with great assurance and as proof that the music from the bagpipes does attract the fish, states that one of his fishing parties consisting of twenty people caught 1,000 fish in one evening by hand line.

If all the stories about the deadly effect of Scotland's national instrument are true, the pipes are nevertheless an attraction—a fatal one—and the unfortunate fish have possibly given themselves up to get put quickly out of misery.

He then introduced Lt.-Col. C. W. Villiers, general manager of the Canadian Collieries (D), Limited, who spoke briefly regarding the work being undertaken and expressed the hope that the future meets would be better attended by the general public. Trustees Discuss 2nd Year Studies

Matter to be Referred to Inspector Sullivan

The Cumberland Board of School Trustees met last night with all trustees present, except W. Henderson, who was prevented from attending, owing to business pressure. After the minutes of the last regular meeting had been read and adopted, applications from Miss Minnie Harrigan and Mr. Clifford Horwood were received asking for positons on the teaching staff. Both were ordered to be filed. The report of the medical health officer was received and proved to be very satisfactory, and bills and accounts received were ordered to be examined and if found correct paid.

Mr. Shenstone, principal of the high school also submitted his schedule of subjects for study when a heated discussion took place between the trustees. It was felt by some of the trustees that more opinion as to studies in second year high should be in evidence. The matter was eventually smothed over by having it referred to Inspector Sullivan. Miss Partridge of the high school staff asked the board to replace the basketball goal posts and the matter will be attended to immediately.

A request from the manual training teacher for more requirements was also received, when it was decided to purchase enough tools,and other equipment to carry on the work for the year.

Miss J. E. Graham Becomes Birde of Mr. H. C. Simms

Cumberland, Sep. 5.—The United Church, of Cumberland, was the scene of a very pretty wedding on Wednesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock when the Rev. J. R. Hewitt united in marriage Janet Eade, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Graham, of Cumberland, and Henry Charles, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Simms, of Royston.

The church decorations were charmingly arranged with ivy and a profusion of flowers covering the arch under which the bride and groom stood during the service. Several smaller arches, similarly decorated, marked off the section of the church set aside for the invited guests.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, made a lovely picture as she entered the church in her wedding gown of white crepe-back satin, the yoke and long sleeves being made of white rose point lace. The dress had a tight bodice, and the full skirt, which was trimmed with lace, had an uneven hemline, the back draping down to the heels. A white picture hat of lace and mohair with a long tulle streamer over one shoulder and white satin slippers completed a delightful attire. The bride's bouquet was of pink ophelia roses, white carnations and heather with maiden hair fern.

Miss Blanche Dando attended the bride and looked very beautiful in a pale yellow georgette dress trimmed with taffeta and hand made French flowers. Her dress also had a tight bodice and bouffant skirt, the back of which droped to the heels. She wore a picture hat of yellow and black mohair and slippers of parchment kid. She carried a bouquet of golden gladioli and mauve scabiosa with maidenhair fern.

Mr. T. Simms supported the groom and Messrs. S. Venables and T. R. S. Graham were the ushers.

Mr. W. A. Owen played Mendelssohn's Wedding March and during the signing of the register Miss Elizabeth Henderson sang "Oh, Promise Me."

Following the ceremony, a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents when Mrs. T. Graham and Mrs. C. Simms received the guests Mrs. Graham was gowned in a violet silk lace dress with cocktail jacket. She wore a black mohair hat and a corsage of pale pink ophelia roses. Mrs. Simms wore a black lace dress and black hat and a mauve and yellow corsage of sweet peas and tea roses.

The rooms were prettily decorated with various kinds of flowers, gladioli and sweet peas being in prominence. Mrs. J. Frame and Mrs. E. R. Hicks presided at the table, which was centred with the three tier wedding cake. White tulle was draped around the cake. Silver bud vases filled with mauve and pink sweet peas and silver sconces with mauve tapers completed the setting. The house and table decorations were under the direction of Mrs. A. Auchinvole, Sr.

After the reception the bride and groom left for Portland on their honeymoon trip. The bride's going-away costume was a figured crepe-de-chine dress and a fawn broadcloth coat with deep fox cuffs. With this she wore a brown felt hat.

On their return, Mr. and Mrs. Simms will take up their residence in Courtenay.

Canadian Firm Loses Contract On Alberni Job

Teachers Await Arrival of the Blackboards from U.S. as School Opens

Alberni, Sept. 3.—Changes in the equipment originally provided for by the contractors made it impossible for the new Alberni High School to be opened to receive pupils to-day with all appartus.

In the first place no blackboards were available. Blackboards made of British Columbia wood and of a type generally used throughout the Province had been provided for by the contractor and would have been ready for installation by school opening. Cancellation of the order for the British Columbia product and the substitution of a United States product was demanded at the last minute.

Further delay was also caused by a change ordered in plumbing equipment. In this case it is understood an order placed with a Canadian firm had to be cancelled and the order placed with a firm in England. Weeks of delay in waiting for the new equipment will leave the high school uncompleted for some time after the date it was anticipated it would be fully equipped for scholars.

MINDS STUFFED

NOW that school has started in earnest again for the fall term and most pupils have been advanced into a higher class parents and pupils will be a little worried over the outcome and wondering if a success can be made of the new term. In many of our schools nowadays there is too much cramming. Minds crammed with matter and not having the remotest idea as to its value or use. Page after page is gone over and learned "by heart". Books gone through and laid aside. Scholars tired and worn out and yet how little do they know. The most simple, practical things of life they cannot solve; are mere blanks and total failures. Minds stuffed and crammedand yet cannot apply it to anything. More teaching—causing to know—is what is wanted, and less cramming, and there will be less worry, less fatigue, less friction and more light hearts, brilliant minds and successes in life.

SWAT HIM

BECAUSE the fly is small and does not roar like a lion or devour its prey at a mouthful, mankind pays little attention to it. But the fly is as deadly a foe to civilization asany of the pests of more fearsome aspect, which man makes it his business to exterminate. The fly's attack is insidious and therefore the more to be guarded against. He buzzes into the house, and these chilly evenings will find him trying his best to get into a warm kitchen, drops his deadly germs where they will fertilize and buzzes out again the following day in the heat of the sun, to pick up a fresh cargo. Swat him, he is your enemy.

FRIENDLY RIVALS

IT IS interesting to note that the first message of congratulation received by the Bremen came from the officers of the Mauretania. In fact, there has been a fine spirit of good sportsmanship exhibited by both Germans and British in this latest ocean rivalry. For instance when the Bremen needed to go into drydock for a general cleaning up before her entrance into transatlantic service the only dock in Germany large enough was occupied by her sister ship, the Europa. The nearest available docks wereat Liverpool and Southampton. According to the account that appeared in The New York Journal of Commerce at the time, had the Bremen been put in the Liverpool drydock, the novel design of her hull could not have been kept secret. The German owners, however, chose the great floating dock at Southampton ,where the ship, "with all its mysteries of construction," was raised high above the water and exposed for days to full public view. Moreover, the proprietors invited the high officials and technical staffs of their great rivals, the Cunard and the White Star lines, to board the new vessel and study her lines both within and without. It was then an open secret that these two British companies contemplated building new shipsto meet the competition of the German superliner and her sister ship, but manifestly all is fair and nothing is hidden in warfare for maritime commerce.

Severe storm puts 90 telephones out of order

Telephone service in North Vancouver and district suffered on August 18, when lightning and rain put 90 telephones out of order.

Lightning struck a 100-pair aerial cable, burning through the metal sheaf in eight or ten places, and caused a suspension of service on 65 telephones. On the same day rain penetrated the sheath of another 100-pair cable, putting 25 telephones out of service.

Another example of the trouble with which telephone men have to contend in their efforts to maintain service.

HEALTH SERVICE
Canadian Medical Association

Questions concerning Health, addressed to the Canadian Medical Association, 184, College St., Toronto, will be answered personally by correspondence.

Why Be Vaccinated?

No one denies that small pox is a disease to which the adjective "loathsome may be fairly applied. It is a disease which not only destroys a number of those whom it attacks, but which also permanetly scars and disfigures, to a greater or less extent, those who survive the attacks Before vaccination was introduced, smallpox was a disease of childhood; it was then as common as measles is today. There were very few persons at that time who were not pock-marked,and about one death in ten was due to smallpox.

Since the year 1798, when vaccination was given to the world by Jenner, a great change has been gradually effected. In those centres where vaccination has been consistently carried out, smallpox has practically disappeared; in other places where it has not been thoroughly used, outbreaks occur from time to time. These outbreaks, as in the case of the other communicable diseases, vary greatly in severity. Sometimes the cases are mild and few deaths take place; at other times, the cases are severe and a number of death occur.

Recent successful vaccination is the only known method by which smallpox can be prevented. Not to be vaccinated isto gamble with a disease to which anyone is apt to be exposed. There are those who say that they will defer having it done until there isan epidemic, but such persons have no assurance that they will not be among the first victims of the epidemic and that they will not, therefore ,have any time in which to secure the protection which vaccination offers. These same persons are also rather selfish, because they are relying upon their neighbours being vaccinated, thus indirectly protecting them from the chance of exposure to the disease.

We repeat that recent successful vaccination is the only known method for the prevention o f smallpox. Smallpox can be conquered through vaccination.

Receipts Of Fall Fair In Excess Of Last Year's

Large Crowd Enjoys the Varied Exhibits and Fine Sports Programme

Actual receipts at the Courtenay Fair held on Monday last, Labor Day, totalled $738.95 as against $667.90 last year, proof conclusive that the day chosen Labor Day, was a much more suitable day than a mid-week day as has been the case for a number of years. Many of the residents of the valley raised the question of whether Labor Day was a good day to hold the fall fair or not. The gate receipts of last Monday indicate that the directors made no mistake in choosing the holiday date.

All arrangements for the comfort and accommodation of the exhibitors was about perfect, and many really good exhibits were noticed, more espesially in the hall exhibits. There appeared to be a decided falling off in the number of stock exhibits; the same applying to the poultry exhibits. Fruits and flowers again were very prominently displayed, these two sections having made considerable headway during the past few years.

A notable attraction at the fair was the tent housing the Women's Institute exhibits, Denman, Hornby and Comox being represented, the judges placing these institutes in order named.

At about 2 o'clock the fair was officially declared open by Dr. G. Kerr MacNaughton, M.L.A., who congratulated the directors on the excellent arrangements made for the comfort and convenience of both exhibitors and patrons. He had one disappointment, however to record, and that was in the matter of the baby show. He would very much have liked them to include one in this year's fair, but he had been told the directors had said they could not find a man brave enough to undertake the judging. He had looked over the various exhibits and was mighty proud of the many beautiful things exhibited, especially praising the fine work displayed by the Women's Institutes.

In addition to the various stock, fruit, flowers and vegetables on exhibition,a large and varied sports programme had been arranged. Housie-Housie, run by Jim Wilcox attracted a large number of patrons throughout the day, "Jim" reporting big business. Log rolling by the Baikie Bros, also attracted a number of interested ones, as also did the baseball games, the bucking bronchos. Bill Douglas running the "rolling-pin" throwing competition also reported good fun and lots of business. A novel competition in the form of calling "Henry" also drew many entries and caused lots of merriment. Keen competition was also witnessed in the Highland dancing, the following being returned the winners:

Seniors

Sword Dance—1st, Sadie Trotter; 2nd Helen Morrison; 3rd, Margaret Brown.

Highland Fling—1st, Margaret Brown 2nd, Sadie Trotter; 3rd, Mary Stewart.

Sean Truibhas—1st, Margaret Brown; 2nd, Helen Morrison; 3rd, Sadie Trotter.

Juniors

Sword Dance—1st, Wilda Handlen; 2nd, Dorothy Brown; 3rd, Beryl Bell.

Highland Fling—1st, Wilda Handlen 2nd, Dorothy Brown; 3rd, Beryl Bell.

Sean Truibhas—1st, Wilda Handlen; 2nd, Dorothy Brown; 3rd, Beryl Bell.

The committee in charge of this event wish to thank all who so generously assisted, financially and otherwise.

In the evening a monster dance was held at which a large number attended, rounding off one of the best days the Courtenay Fall Fair directors have ever had.
