SECOND STREET

Campbell River Showing Signs of Activity.

Victoria, B.C., March 18—It was announced to-day that the purchase of a right of way from Union Bay to Oyster river for the projected northern extension of the E. & N. railway has been about completed, and construction will shortly commence.

We are pleased to hear that everything points to a very active time at Campbell river this summer. Parties are busy drilling for coal, and we understand that a power plant will shortly be erected and will make use of the immense water power available in the near vicinity,

We understand that the C.P.R. will commence immediately to construct the E. & N. railway extension from Union Bay to Oyster river and thence to Campbell river.

There is a rumor current that large iron deposits will be opened up before long. We think that without doubt there will be a boom at the River this summer and there is good reason for one, too. It is a good place to invest in now, before the price of land soars sky high.

Mrs. R. Stratton, died on Thursday last at C. & U. Hospital after a protracted illness. The deceased lady was a native of Scotland. The funeral took place on Saturday afternoon last, Rev. H. S. Hastings, officiating.

Mr. Graham, representing the C. P. R., visited this district last week, negotiating for rights of way for that company.

M. Manson, M. L. A. on his way home to Cortez Island, from his legislative duties, paid Cumberland a visit last week.

Cardiff, Wales, March 22.—The prolonged negottations over the new wage agreement between the South Wales coal miners and the owners have been broken off and a strike of 200,000 miners is regarded as inevitabe on March 21st. This strike will affect altogether one million workers, including railway and dock employees, and others dependent upon the collieries.

Nanaimo, March 22.—The funeral of Gordon Planta, son of Mayor Planta, took place on Sunday and was largely attended,

The deceased had been in ill health for some time and had just returned from Kamloops, where he had spent some time for his health. He was nineteen years of age.

Sonoma, Cal., March 20.—Homesick and grieving for her mother who died two months ago, Agnes Kennedy, a 13-year old girl, took her life on Thursday in an orphan's home here, by swallowing carbolic acid.

Wouldn't Dunsmuir Avenue be the better for a little brushing up?

Firemen's Masquerade Ball.

The firemen's masqueaade ball held on the evening of March 17th was a grand success, large numbers of spectators and masqueraders attending, The hall was very prettily decorated with bunting, and brilliantly lighted. The music supplied by Messrs Roy, Morgan and Monte, was all that could be desired. The firemen are to be congratulated on the success of their annual ball. Owing to list of prize winners not being handed in as promised, we are unable to publish it this issue.

Washington, D. C., March 21.—The United States cruiser Birmingham has been ordered to proceed forthwith to Monrovia, Liberia, upon the urgent request of the government of Liberia, which has represented to the state department that it is powerless to hold in check the rebellious tribes now in revolt against it. It appears that the tribes of the Grebbos, a powerful people inhabiting the regions of the Cabelly river, adjoining French territory to the southwest of Liberia, have rebelled against the Liberian government, and are besieging the town of Harger, at Cape Palmas, where there are considerable missionary interests. The object of the insurrection seems to be to force the Liberian government to purchase peace.

Mrs. D. Anthony arrived home from Vancouver by Friday's boat.

Victoria, March 22.—H. . Beasley, Supt. of E. & N. Railway, who has just returned from east coast points of the Island, makes the important announcement that very shortly the company will commence actual work on the extension of the line to the Comox District. During his trip, he completed negotiations for the purchase of a right of way, from Union Bay, to Oyster River, a distance of twenty-five miles. As soon as property is secured, tenders will be invited for clearing, and the work pushed with all speed. The announcement of this move on the part of the C. P. R., is an important one in that it implies that shortly the land of the Comox valley will brought into direct touch with the Pacific north western centres, by means of railway transportation facilities.

London, March 19.—That King Edward is seriously ill at Barritz to-day from bronchial trouble is generally believed here.

The King's physicians have reported that he is in a better condition, though still confined to his room.

Mr. C. Segrave, of this office, is confined to his home with an attack of la grippe.

The Oliver Typewriter for 17 Cents a day!

Please read the headline over again. Then its tremendous significance will dawn upon you.

An Oliver Typewriter—the standard visible writer—the most highly perfected typewriter on the market—yours for 17 cent a day!

The typewriter whose conquest of the commercial world is a matter of business history—yours for 17 cents a day!

The typewriter that is equipped with scors of such conveniences as "The Balance Shift"—"The Ruling Device"—The Double Release"—"The Locomotive Base"—"The Automatic Spacer"—The Automatic Tabulator" "The Disappearing Indicator"—"The Adjustable Paper Fingers"—"The Scientific Condensed Keyboard"—all.

Yours For 17 Cents a Day!

We announced this new sales plan recently, just to feel the pulse of the people. Simply a small cash payment—then 17 cents a day. That is the plan in a nutshell.

The result has been such a deluge of applications for machines that we are simply astounded.

The demand comes from people of all classes, all ages, all occupations.

The majority of inquiries has come from people of knowing financial standing who were attracted by the novelty of the proposition. An impressive demonstration of the immense popularity of the Oliver Typewriter.

A startling confirmation of our belief that the Era of Universal Typewriting is at hand.

A Quarter of a Million People are Making MONEY with The OLIVER Typewriter

THE STANDARD VISIBLE WRITER

The Oliver Typewriter is a money-maker right from the word "go!" So easy to run that beginners soon get in the "expert" class. Earn as you learn. Let the machine pay the 17 cents a day—and all above that is yours.

Wherever you are, there's work to be done and money to be made by using the Oliver. The business world is calling for Oliver operators. There are not enough to supply the demand. Their salaries are considerably above those of many classes of workers.

'An Oliver Typewriter in every home!'

That is our battle cry today. We have made the Oliver supreme in usefulness and absolutely indispensable in business. Now comes the conquest of the home.

The simplicity and strength of the Oliver fit it for family use. It is becoming an important factor in the home training of young people. An educator as well as a money maker.

Our new selling plan puts the Oliver on the threshold of every home in America. Will you close the door of your home or office on this remarkable Oliver opportunity.

For Heavy Work all men should wear the

AMES-HOLDEN PROSPECTOR SHOE

It's the shoe for the man who has work to do—prospectors, hunters, surveyors, etc. It is built of solid leather, choice upper stock, pure leather heel stiffener, solid leather heels and soles—both insoles and outsoles, every stitch perfect—a worker's boot throughout.

Good leather is essential in a boot of this kind, and in this you can rely on the Ames-Holden shoe every time. Yet we never hold that leather alone makes the shoe—there are slipshod, "[illegible]" shoes into which good leather has been put, and which may even fit perfectly, but they lack the touch of the real workman. Thread and nails won't hold a boot together and make it give perfect service—it must be bound together with integrity. The "unseen things" about a boot must be right—these count for much in the service you get, and it is just because of the hidden worth of the Ames-Holden shoe—because of the workmanship—the stitch on stitch attention to detail—the inspection at every step—that you get a bigger dollar's worth every time you insist upon buying the Ames-Holden Shoe—the perfect shoe for men.

Dated March 2nd 1910.

Mr. Jack Bristoe, who thinks his mission on earth is to go around righting wrongs, rode over a hundred miles to drop in on us last Monday. According to him, we are wrong, and he had a gun out to right us before we knew that he was in the sanctum. His shooting was so mighty poor that we were ashamed to have to split his right ear with a bullet and scare him out of the office and out of town. He doubtless means well, but he should explain his little jokes in advance.

ROMANCE OF HISTORY.

These Things Read Like Legends, but Are Matters of Fact.

A peasant girl called half witted did promise to defeat the victors of Agincourt and did it; it ought to be a legend, but it happens to be a fact. A poet and a poetess did fall in love and eloped secretly to a sunny clime; it is obviously a three volume novel, but it happened. Nelson did die in the act of winning the one battle that could change the world; it is a grossly improbable coincidence, but it is too late to alter it now. Napoleon did win the battle of Austerlitz; it is unnatural, but it is not my fault. When the general who had surrendered a republican town returned, saying easily, "I have done everything." Robespierre did ask, with an air of inquiry, "Are you dead?" When Robespierre coughed-in-his-cold-harangue-Garnier did say, "The blood of Danton chokes you." Strafford did say of his own desertion of parliament, "If I do it may my life and death be set on a hill for all men to wonder at." Disraeli did say, "The time will come when you shall hear me."

The heroic is a fact, even when it is a fact of coincidence or of miracle, and a fact is a thing which can be admitted without being explained.—G. K. Chesterton in London News.

No Drums in the Middle Ages.

As we come to the middle ages, when the nations of modern Europe were struggling into existence, we find that at first the drum was not used at all. So, although melody had been known and practiced for many centuries, rhythm had been quite forgotten, for what there is left to us of the music of the middle ages contains no bars, and we know that it was slowly and monotonously chanted, without the least accent.

In the eleventh century, however, things began to improve, more particularly as the crusaders brought into Europe all sorts of percussion instruments from the east. Various kinds of drums, tambourines and cymbals were then seen in Europe for the first time since the days of savages, and they have been used, with very little change, ever since.—St. Nicholas.

An Epistolary Hint.

In the letter from Boston was a special delivery stamp.

"What did she send that for?" the woman wondered. "The information she wants can be sent in an ordinary letter. It won't need to be sent special."

"That stamp," said the man, "is a delicate hint to be quick about answering. It is a hurry up device used by many men. It is very effective. A two cent stamp does not always spur one on to any special effort, but a special delivery stamp means that the writer wants what he wants when he wants it, and the most dilatory correspondent alive is not going to let any grass grow between the scratches of his pen when answering."

Mantle Rays.

"There are X rays and X rays, and there are also rays from those mantle things that you put on gas burners to improve the light." The speaker, a photographer, pointed to a batch of fogged plates. "I know to my cost that there are mantle rays," said he. "For a month I stored new plates in a closet along with a mantle, and all of them got fogged. The mantle, you see, contained thorium, a radio-active substance that penetrates a cardboard plate box as easily as it penetrates glass. I didn't know that till my doctor told me so last week. My ignorance cost me over a hundred plates."

Shunted.

Editor—Is this your first effort?

Budding Poet—Yes, sir. Is it worth anything to you?

Editor (with emotion)—It's worth a guinea if you will promise not to write anything more for publication until after this has been printed. I want your entire output, you understand.

Budding Poet—I promise that, all right. When will it be printed?

Editor—Never while I'm alive.—London Telegraph

A kindness done to the good is never lost.—Plautus.
