ANARCHY RAMPANT

THREATENING TO BLOW UP MONTREAL CITY HALL.

Mayor Villeneuve Receives a Second Threatening Letter — Anarchists Have Also Appeared in New Orleans. Three Tobacco Manufacturers Have Been Threatened—Male Instead of Female Labor is Demanded—A Panic Occurs in One Factory—Some of the Employees Nearly Trampled to Death.

MONTREAL, March 14.—Mayor Villeneuve to-day received a letter containing a threat that the city hall would be blown up on Monday next if certain things were not done. This is the second letter of this nature received by the Mayor and he considers the matter so serious that he has placed the letter in the hands of the chief of police.

NEW ORLEANS, March 14.—Anarchists have put in their appearence in this city Three of the largest tobacco manufacturers in the city, W. W. Walls, W. R. Irby and the Hernsheims have received several anonymous letters declaring that unless they discharged all the girls employed in their factories and employed men in their places, the factories and proprietors residences would be blown up with dynamite. The matter was put in the hands of the police and kept very quiet. In the meantime, the several manufacturers, secured special details of officers to guard their residences. The publication of the facts nearly caused a disaster in the Hernsheims factory at noon to-day. A plank fell down the elevator shaft and the excited employees, thinking the anarchists had begun to carry out their threats, became panic stricken and fled pell-mell for the exits Half a dozen of the girls were hurt and one of them trampled almost to death.

A Salvage Suit.

ST JOHNS, Nfld., March 14.—The Newfoundland Coast Steamship Co., owners of the steamer Virginia Lake, libelled the British steamer Briscoe to-day, claiming $50,000 salvage on the vessel and cargo. The claim is based on the fact that the Briscoe was picked up by the Virginia Lake and that the Briscoe, having burned her coal and being without steam or sail and her bows being stove in and her bulkheads leaking, she could not remain above water more than a few days longer, and therefore, practically, was a derelict. The company also claims that the preparations to desert the Briscoe on Saturday constituted a virtual abandonment. The case has been entered for trial in the Newfoundland vice-admiralty court.

English Light Weight Backs Down.

NEW YORK, March 14,—Jack McAuliffe said to-day that he had received a telegram from Chicago saying that Stanton Abott, light-weight champion of England, had backed down and would not fight him.

Yacht Brittania Wins.

CANNES; March 14.—In the first race of to-day, the Brittania finished first and the Valkyrie second. In the race for the prix de Monte Carlo M. Rollandin's Cygne came in first and won the 1,200 franc prize. The Helma was second.

Some Railroads Will Not Exhibit.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 14.—It is stated that the arrangements made to have the Canadian Pacific railway send to the Exposition the exhibit it had at Chicago, and Vanderbilt's system to contribute the famous engine 999, a Wagner train of sleepers and the first engine used in railroading in the country, have fallen through. There is some secrecy about the reason of the failure of the eastern roads to exhibit, but it is said to be due to a charge of $2,500 for space made by the fair management. The eastern roads did not see that they were to be benefitted to that extent by sending their trains hither, so they will not come.

An Old Expression Resurrected.

WASHINGTON, March 14.—J. Marshall Wright, nominated to be Naval officer at Philadelphia, was confirmed this afternoon, but the president will not be notified at present as the case may be re-considered. It appears that the confirmation slipped through without objection on the part of the Republicans by inadvertence, although neither Senators Quay nor Cameron opposed it. The anonymous circular sent to the Senators some days ago, asserted that it was a matter of record that Wright expressed his delight that Lincoln was assassinated by Booth. Pending a motion to reconsider, the Republicans will endeavor to find this document,

More Jews Immigrating.

WASHINGTON, D. C. March 14.—Andrew D. White, United States Minister to Russia writing to the State Department, says that it is the intention of the promoters of the Baron Hirsch fund, according to a prominent German newspaper, to renew the immigration of Russian Hebrews to the Argentine Republic. The same paper says that only the better class of Hebrews will be sent to the South American republic and that those of an undesirable class will be sifted out and sent to the United States. Minister White does not express any opinion as to the credibility of the information transmitted, but simply forwards it that the immigration authorities may be on their guard. Instructions to keep a special look out for this class of immigration at New York and to the other commissioners at the principal Atlantic sea ports.

OPPOSITE OPINION.

Two London Papers Are Not Agreed as to the Government's Policy.

LONDON, March 15.—The Standard, Conservative, says of the Government course, in the House of Commons yesterday, "whatever applause the Government might have gained from certain quarters by denouncing the House of Lords, they have assuredly forfeited by his exposure of their insincerity. They have brought disaster upon themselves and they fully deserve the ridicule, which they will have to endure."

The Daily News, Liberal, says of the approval of the Cabinet's substitute address: "This solution of the difficulty is not only the best that could be found, but is also convincing proof that the defeat of the Government implies no split in the Liberal party."

THE STUPENDOUS STEAD SPEAKS.

He Compares America to Russia and Chicago With all That's Bad.

LONDON, March 14—The Daily News publishes to-day an interview with William T. Stead, who recently completed his studies of Chicago life. Mr. Stead made a violent and general onslaught on the corruptness of Chicago, its aldermen, law courts and other organs of authority. He said that Americans generally had more to learn from the Old World than the Old World had to learn from them. "In Russia one is more likely to be converted to Republicanism", he said, "than in the United States. Nothing in America strikes an Englishman more forcibly than the radical distrust of the sovereign people. One simply stands aghast upon coming to the country from England. I have never been in a more conservative country since I left Russia."

Caught Making Infernal Machines.

LONDON, March 14.—The Berlin correspondent to the Daily News gives an account of a fight between policemen and Nihilists in Warsaw, Russian Poland, last week. Most of the Nihilists were students, several of them were women. The policemen surprised them in an old convent, where all were busy printing revolutionary manifestos and making infernal machines. The Nihilists were armed and began firing the moment they found themselves surrounded. A female student emptied a revolver into a group of advancing policemen killing two outright. Three Nihilists were shot. The rest were captured and imprisoned in the Citadel. The correspondent has tried to confirm this story and obtain more details, but has been unable to do either.

Large Penalties Remitted.

WASHINGTON, March 14.—The committee on Naval Affairs, of the Senate to-day, made a favorable report on the bill remitting the penalties, amounting to $29,000 on the Vesuvius, assessed against the Cramps, the builders of the vessel.

Seven Suffered Broken Limbs.

WEST SUPERIOR, Wis., March 14.—Doud and Son's cooper shop burned down this afternoon and 40 men jumped twenty-five feet to escape the fire. Seven suffered broken limbs and other serious injury.

Corbett and Jackson Will Meet in England.

LONDON, March 14.—The Sportsman revives the statement made a short time ago that it has been virtually settled that the Jackson and Corbett fight will take place in the arena of the National Sporting Club.

Charged With Murder.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 14—Ernest Webber, one of the unemployed, who recently made raid on a Chinese store and in trying to get away with his plunder, about $1.50, shot and killed Su Hop the owner, was this afternoon held to answer the charge of murder.

At the Midwinter Fair.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 14.—The Russian section in the manufacturers and liberal arts building at the fair, was opened this afternoon, with appropriate exercises. This is the last foreign concession to be opened. Sierra County has its special celebration to-day. Formal exercises taking place in Festival hall this afternoon.

The Largest Lake Ship.

DETROIT, Mich., March 14.—The largest vessel on the lakes was successfully launched at the Wyandotte yards of the Detroit Drydocks Ship Building Company this afternoon. She was christened the "Harvey H. Brown." The Brown is 362 feet over all; 42 feet beam and 25 feet deep and will carry four thousand net tons of cargo.

Another Rio Despatch.

WASHINGTON, March 14.—Secretary Herbert to-night received a cablegram from Admiral Benham at Rio, dated to-day, stating that yesterday at 3 p. m., the city opened fire on the insurgent's forts and vessels. The fire was not returned. The insurgents' forts, position and vessels have been abandoned. The insurgent admiral and many followers have taken refuge on the Portuguese men-of-war. Despatch adds that the revolution is now confined to the southern states.

Insurgents and Da Gama Flown.

(Copyright 1894 by the United Press.)

RIO JANEIRO, March 14.—The Government forces began active operations against the insurgents at noon to-day, the 48 hours notice given by President Peixoto having expired. The hilltop batteries opened fire at 3 p.m. No reply was made by the insurgents. The government vessels entered the harbor at 5 o'clock but did not fire. They found Forts Villegaignon and Cobras abandoned by the insurgents. The fleet was greeted with cheers from thousands of people on the hilltop and with salutes from all the government forts. The insurgent ships meanwhile hid themselves among the merchant vessels lying in the bay. Admiral Da Gama is reported to have fled aboard the French warship.

A PHILATELISTS SCHEME

Of Robbing Uncle Sam's Postage Stamps Found Out.

ST. LOUIS, March 14.—An afternoon paper says: The postoffice inspectors have, within the past few days, unearthed a new and entirely novel scheme by which Uncle Sam's postal department is believed to have been swindled out of large sums of money. Three men are said to have been implicated in the unique scheme. One of them, H. L. Scott, was arrested last evening. Charles H. McKeel, of the McKeel Stamp and Printing Company, is also wanted, but is said to be in New York. The authorities refuse to divulge the name of the third man, but it is believed to be a postmaster of a small Illinois town. McKeel is a dealer in stamps of all kinds and he and his agents are said to have gone to some fourth class postmaster in Illinois and to have made a bargain with him to cancel so many Columbian stamps for him. They are alleged to have made a bargain with him whereby they received a part of his percentage on condition they sent stamps to a large amount through his office. The stamps would be affixed to packages large and heavy enough to warrant the use of a stamp of the value desired. The package would be mailed at the postoffice in question, the stamp would be cancelled by the postmaster, and would reach Mekeel again, having more value from a collector's point of view than it had originally.

To Pacific Coast Mariners.

WASHINGTON, D.C., March 15.—Notice is given that on February 24th, 1894, a second class whistling buoy, painted with black and white perpendicular stripes, and marked with the letter "T," in white, was established about half a mile outside of the bar, in 89 feet of water, off the entrance to Tillamook Bay, Oregon.

A New Warring Projectile.

WASHINGTON, D.C., March 14.—Navy ordnance officers think they have discovered an economical projectile which seems about as destructive as those heretofore used, which cost four times as much. One cast steel shell was fired out of a ten-inche rifle at the proving ground yesterday, which completely demolished the Harveyized Carnegie plate of 10½ inches thickness, going clear through the 36-inch backing. It took two eight-inch projectiles of the highest class to make any impression on the same plate last Saturday.

Permanganate of Potash Prevails.

PITTSBURG, Pa., March 14.—At 9 o'clock last night, George Dundear took five ounces of laudanaum with suicidal intent. Physicians used all the ordinary means for resuscitation, but with no avail. As a last resource Dundear was removed to the Homeopathic hospital. Notwithstanding the fact that the would-be suicide was blue in the face and his nervous system paralyzed, Doctors Moreland and Gregg, resolved to try the newly discovered antidote, permanganate of potash. The doctors had no data to go on and could only use experimental doses of the remedy. With the fifth injection, the muscles began to contract. Seven injections in all were made and then the patient was pronounced out of danger.

American New Warship.

PHILADELPHIA, March 14.—A forecast of the report the Naval Stability Board will make upon its examination of the battleship Indiana, which is now nearing completion at Cramp's shipyard, was announced to-day. The report will show that the vessel is perfectly seaworthy. The board visited Cramp's shipyard a month ago, and made extensive inspections and estimates as a basis for determining the metacentric height of the ship. A naval officer to-day summarized their labor as follows: "The calculations of the Stability Board on the measurements of the Indiana have progressed far enough to show that this class of vessel is a little better in every respect than was claimed for them when they were desired. The tests made show that these vessels can carry all their alloted weights on less than the draught estimated, and have the metacentric heights originally determined upon. The first of the 13-inch guns, which will be mounted on the Indiana, will shortly be tried at the naval ordnance proving grounds, Indian Head, West Virginia. Four of these guns, weighing with the carriage about 100 tons each and firing a shell 1,100 pounds in weight and 56 inches in length, will be carried in heavily armored turrets on the battleship.

Rio Janeiro in Peace Once More.

Copyright, 1894, by the United Press.]

RIO JANEIRO, March 14. — Floriano Peixoto, is triumphant. The insurgent vessels surrendered last night without having answered with a single shot, the cannonade from the Government hill top batteries. The report that Admiral DaGama had fled was confirmed this morning. He has sought safety on the French cruiser Magon. The American officers of the Government warships came ashore this afternoon. They report that the crews of the vessels are well and delighted that they won without a fight. Excepting the officers, nobody aboard Peixoto's man of war seems to have been eager for battle. In coming up the harbor this morning, the Government fleet saluted the United States flag and Rear-Admiral Benham. The United States fleet will disperse soon. The men aboard the American warships are in excellent health. The end of the insurgents' power in the harbor has been welcomed with joy in the city. The exchange has improved 25 per cent. Business is as usual. Not a sympton of disorder has appeared in the city. The people are preparing to celebrate the collapse of the insurrection. The Aquidaban and Republica, which constitute about all that is left of the insurgent cause, are reported to be in South Brazilian waters. Both are said to be disabled. Admiral Mello has just been seen in the streets of Monte Video. He has deserted his officers and men on the harbor fleet. The insurgent sailors here will be pardoned; the officers will be court martialed.

Lieut.-Col. Straubenzie, who was second in command at Batoche in the Northwest rebellion, is of the opinion that when Major General Middleton wrote a series of articles in an English publication on the Northwest rebellion he made a serious mistake. He ought to have been satisfied with the $20,000 bonus and let the matter rest.

On Saturday afternoon about 4 o'clock the four-year-old daughter of Mr. G. Ovens, of Farleighburg, Que., was missing. Search was at once made, and traces were found which lead to the belief that she had wandered to the river and had fallen in. The river is filled with floating ice. Although continuous search has been made no trace of the body can be found.

A Peculiar Contest Between a Couple of New Yorkers.

A hair-pulling match betweeen two men took place at an up-town resort on Saturday evening. The names of the contestants were Michael Keeling and Thomas Carney.

Both men pride themselves on their hair, and when Paderewski gave a concert in this city Keeling attended, and since that time he has been a changed person, cultivating a crop of hair that would make that distinguished artist envious. Nature has been very generous with Carney in the way of hair, and every new remedy that makes its appearance to promote the growth of hair finds a purchaser in Mr. Carney.

Keeling and Carney have been chaffing each other for a long time to test the strength of their hair, and when Keeling challenged Carney to a contest, he accepted, and Saturday evening was chosen as the time for the contest to take place.

Both Keeling and Carney were promptly on hand, and time being called a rush was made by the contestants, Carney slogging his opponent several times before the spectators could stop him. Finally they were parted, and Keeling, seeing an opportunity, entwined his fingers in the raven locks of Carney, and commenced to dance him up and down like a jumping jack. The latter tried every way to get at Keeling's hirsute adornment but failed, his opponent dragging him all over the room. The proprietor of the place then separated the men. It is stated that they will meet again to a finish. —Albany Argus.

Phonographic Love.

One of the Boston newspapers asserts that Mme. Calve, the renowned opera singer, is accompanied on all her travels by a carefully watched and kept phonograph, and that she devotes two hours of each day to it, while on Sundays, as soon as the French mail arrives, Mme. Calve shuts herself up in her room with her phonograph for the rest of the day.

The explanation, says the journal in question, is simple enough. Mme. Calve is engaged to be married to Henri Cain, the French painter. To a woman of her temperament letters are not only a bore, but positively aggravating, so when Calve left Paris she and her lover vowed they would talk to each other two hours every day. Every day Mme. Calve talks for two hours into the phonograph and sends the strips to Paris, while once a week she receives the spoken vows and protestations of affection from her lover in Paris.

M. J. H. Housser, of the Massey-Harris Company, was banquetted at Winnipeg previous to his departure for Brantford, where he takes the management of the company's works.

BOTTOM'S BI-MONTHLY BRAY.

Yesterday morning the proprietary of the emasculated evening press awoke and found a fluke on which it thought it might float to fame and make paper capital out of. Being closely identified with a Shakesperean character of asinine attributes, it is naturally conversant with Shakespear's sayings and forthwith paraphrased thusly: "There is a tide in the affairs of papers which taken at the flood leads on to fortune," and here is the tide in a strange coincidence. Soon the emissaries were out and about stirring up the muddy water on which this Boston float to fame was to be made. The result was one of those bi-monthly brays which are much appreciated by the reading community of this city. Its advent was predicted in this paper yesterday, the prediction being speedily fulfilled. Before closing this brief notice of our contemporary's mouse bearing labor, we must return thanks for the generous advertisement given this paper. But then, as a set off, there is the furnishing of so much copy to a distressed relative of the fourth-rate estate, and the account may be called "quits."

MR. BRYDEN'S NOMINATION.

The nomination of Mr. John Bryden to represent the district of North Nanimo in the Provincial Assembly is an event of some importance. Mr. Bryden's nomination took place at the meeting held in the Institute Hall at Wellington on Tuesday evening, and was unanimous, the meeting being most enthusiastic in his favor. Mr. Bryden's chances of election are considered to be remarkably good. In point of fact he is sure to be elected by a large majority, and may not even be opposed. He will run as a supporter of the Government, but does not pledge himself blindly to support all that they may propose. He reserves to himself the right to oppose any measures he believes not to be in the interests of the people. With this declaration of principles, the meeting appeared to be entirely satisfied. More could not be fairly asked of an honest man, such as Mr. Bryden is recognized to be by all who know him. In this important respect no man's reputation stands higher than Mr. Bryden's. The speakers at the Wellington meeting generally emphasised in their addresses the fact that a change in the representation was needed. Nanaimo district, as well as Nanaimo city, has too long been represented by men, who, calling themselves independents, have been simply virulent and persistent opponents of the Government. It is generally recognized that they have done nothing either for the city or the district—that they have in fact neglected the interests of both, and by their course in the House and elsewhere have made themselves obnoxious to the Government, so that if they had tried to do anything for the constituencies which they were elected to represent, their recommendations would have had very little weight. This may account for their neglect, but cannot excuse it. If they had given the Government an independent support, voted with them when they were right, instead of voting and speaking against their policy and measures on all occasions that they had opportunity to do so, they would have maintained their consistence as real independents, and would have retained their influence also. As it was they sacrificed the one and entirely lost the ether, and their constituencies might as well not have been represented for anything they did. It will not be so hereafter, we hope. Nanaimo city and district after the general election, we venture to say, will be represented by men who be something more and better than blind followers and admirers of Mr. Beaven, and still worse, of Messrs. Cotton and Brown. For representatives of this sort Nanaimo and the district no longer have any use. They will therefore be duly elected to stay at home, if they offer themselves at all. The electors have had enough of them, and will not again knowingly elect any more of their sort.

Mr. Bryden is one of the oldest and best known miners in this locality. He has been identified with the mining interests of Wellington for many years, and is very popular with the miners of the district, who know him to be an honest man that can be depended on to keep his pledges. It is to his credit that the position has sought him, not he the position. He is no trading politician, anxious for place. His election is, we believe, a foregone conclusion. He is confidently expected to make a worthy representative for the district. He is a Scotchman by birth, and like the poet Burns, is a native of Ayrshire. He was educated at the school of mines at Glasgow. North Nanaimo will honor itself in electing him.

BRITISH POLITICS.

Mr. John Morley is trying his hand at casting oil upon the troubled waters, but not, it is to be feared, with any remarkable success. In the House of Commons on Tuesday Mr. Morley said that there could be no injury to Ireland through a temporary suspension of the Home Rule Bill. This is no doubt true, and Mr. Morley would still have been within the limits of truth if he had gone a step farther, and said that there would be no injury to Ireland if the Home Rule Bill were suspended for all future time. This is the opinion of most well-informed men, even in Ireland itself. The evil that men do lives after them, and the mischief that Mr. Gladstone has caused, by his sudden conversion to Home Rule, whether his conversion was sincere as he and his friends allege, or was inspired by a desire to maintain himself in office by help of the Irish vote, as most of his opponents think, matters very little. It has thrown the political affairs of Great Britain into the utmost confusion, which may require more than one general election to restore to order. Mr. Gladstone's policy has armed class against class in England, and if finally successful will result in the overthrow of the British constitution, and very likely of British power and British prosperity also. On the other hand if his policy is defeated at the next general election, and set aside thereafter, the most probable result will be another rebellion in Ireland, much loss and damage to every interest in that country, and perhaps much bloodshed before the rebellion is suppressed. This is the logical result of the position now taken by the Parnellites, if Home Rule is not at once granted. On the other hand if it is granted England's Imperial position will thereafter be in the utmost peril. There is not the slightest security that the men whom John Redmond represents will not take the first opportunity after Home Rule is secured to declare Ireland an independent republic, and by placing it under the protection of the United States bring on a ruinous war between the two great branches of the Anglo-Saxon race. Great Britain would then be forced, under the gravest disadvantages, to fight for her life, as she did in the war with the First Napoleon.

John Morley is a revolutionary statesman of the most dangerous type, and the apologist of revolutionists. This is shown by his work on the French Revolution in which he tries to excuse the worst excesses of the Revolutionary party, excesses which decent devils would have been ashamed to commit, Mr. Morley ought not to have been placed in power at all. Even experience cannot teach him, he is too much convinced of the truth of his own theories to be taught by that to which all men bow who can be taught at all. His Irish administration has been a signal failure from first to last, in spite of the self-restraint which the Home Rulers, by the advice of moderate men among them like Mr. Justin McCarthy, have for some time been exercising, in order to throw dust in the eyes of the British Liberals, and procure if possible the final passing of the Home Rule bill. But John Morley excuses the unsuccess of his Irish administration by the plea that he was hampered by his English colleagues, and could not go far enough. What little success he had was due to the fact that in order to govern Ireland at all he was forced to fall back on Mr. Balfour's methods. But his theory of how it ought to be governed remained none the less true in his opinion. Mr. Redmond's repudiation of the Rosebery administration, because the Premier in replying to Lord Salisbury in the House of Lords on Monday said that he was in entire accord with him in thinking that Home Rule could only be conceded by the Imperial Parliament when England, as the predominating member of the partnership of the Three Kingdoms, was convinced of its justice. This Redmond denounced as insulting and humiliating to Ireland, which he claimed had alone the right to decide. This doctrine will not readily be accepted by England, and John Redmond, by proclaiming it, is doing his best to render the passage of the Home Rule bill impossible. But his uncompromising attitude, while it will certainly accomplish nothing for Home Rule, may lead to the defeat of the Government in the House of Commons at an early date, and bring on a dissolution and a general election. It will then be seen whether the English people will vote for Home Rule and separation, or for union and safety.

We note that Mr. Labouchre has succeeded in carrying his amendment to the address in reply to the Queen's speech by a majority of two. We do not yet know what the result of this will be, but the defeat of the Government in a vote on the address must be mortifying to Lord Rosebery and those of his colleagues who are loyal to the new administration. His enemies, however, both within the cabinet and outside it, will rejoice.

RELERRING to Hon. Joseph Royal's brochure on the subject of independence, Le Monde says that he deserves credit for his outspoken remarks. Yes, he ought to be rewarded, and the reward he deserves is banishment from the British Empire. He and all other traitors, who take advantage of its liberties to advocate its disintegration and overthrow, ought not to be permitted to abuse the freedom which they enjoy under the British crown. There is a handful of uneasy and discontented people in Canada, who will have to be taught sooner or later that the country does not belong to them, but is on the contrary a British possession—an integral portion of the empire.

WELLINGTON ITEMS.

Nothing new has been discovered in connection with the dynamite outrage. Many Wellingtonians would like to get hold of the culprit or culprits, not only for the sake of the handsome reward offered by the company and Government, but for the satisfaction of handing the villains to justice. The unwonted feeling of excitement has somewhat abated, although expression is made on every side, hoping for the speedy capture of the villanous perpetrators.

Another Polar Party.

NEW YORK, March 14.—The steamship Britannic, which sailed this morning for Liverpool, carried Walter Wellman and the American members of his party on the first stage of a journey which they hope will terminate at the North pole. The most original feature of the Wellman party is the equipment of aluminium boats and sledges. With these Mr. Wellman expects to skim the polar regions and get further north than any explorer has yet done. The travellers will go from Liverpool to Norway, and there will be joined by ten Norwegian scientists. They expect to sail about May 1st from Tromset for the island of Spitzbergen. Headquarters will be established at Danes Island, about 700 miles south of the pole. The dash north will be made soon after with the boats and sledges. Mr. Wellman expects to make about 25 miles a day, getting back to Spitzbergen in September. The American members of the party are Walter Wellman; Prof. Owen B. French, astronomical observer; Dr. Thomas B Mohuer, medical officer, and Charles C. Dodge, artist and photographer.

Lodi, Loaded With Morality.

STOCKTON, Cal. March 14.—The people of Lodi are greatly agitated over the recent elopement of Mr. Jacobson, with a horse trainer of that town, and as a sequel to this episode, a committee has been organized with the object to compel all people of questionable reputation to leave the town. A Mrs. Wallace was the first to hear from the committee. She has received the following letter, requesting her departure: "Mrs. Margaret Wallace, Madame. You will please take notice that your notorious scandalous and unlawful relations with one Charles Macgee, have come to the knowledge of the citizens of Lodi, and as such citizens we do not propose to suffer a continuance of your disreputable acts and you are hereby notified to leave this town within a reasonable time from the time of the service on you of this notice, or we will be compelled as honest citizens, for the sake of decency, to send you away in a manner which may not be agreeable to you. (Signed) Citizens Committee." Mrs. Wallace declares she will not obey the notice.

PROVINCIAL COMMENTARY.

The News-Advertiser of Vancouver says: "Mr. G. A. Jordan, the genial police magistrate, goes down to Victoria by the Premier, to be in attendance at a most importance union. Mr. Jordan will not return alone"

An anti-annexationist exchange remarks that Mr. Wiman is not going to trust "the tender mercies of the wicked," or rather the Americans. He has asked for six Canadians on the jury that tries his case. Mr. Wiman asked all Canada to trust the Americans, but he cannot trust them.

The following epigram was written on hearing that while clergymen were allowed to travel on freight trains, medical doctors were only allowed to travel on the regular passenger trains:

The doctors of souls, on freight trains are borne.
While of bodies the doctors for "passenger" wait.
By which it is clear that Mr. VanHorne.
Divinity classes with freight.

This was sent to Mr. VanHorne, who returned a humorous reply in which he indicated that the "anomaly" would be done away with.

A big battle was fought at the corner of Carnarvon and McInnes streets in New Westminster by a mob of Chinamen. It was difficult to ascertain the cause of the rumpus, but it had something to do with a labor contract, and is believed to have been a revolt of some coolies belonging to one of the big Chinese companies. The riot was a lively one while it lasted, and blows were dealt with hearty vigor on both sides. The revolters were beaten eventually, and gave in to the superior force brought against them. No arrests were made, as the police were not in sufficient force in that locality to deal with the combatants.

At an early hour on Sunday morning, a prize fight took place in a shed near the Junction Inn, on the Westminster road between Jim Reid and Ed. Cuff, who have claimed this city as their residence for some months past. Last fall the men met at the same place, but the results of the mill were not satisfactory, and ever since then both men have been longing to have another "go" at each other. The fight was accordingly arranged, and came off in the presence of about 60 "sports," who chipped in a contribution to make up a purse of $50. The fight was of a short duration, lasting but four rounds, and was of a very one sided description. Though Cuff tried to get in some telling blows, Reid was too nimble, and got out of his way every time, while he he severely punished his opponent. In the fourth round Cuff was knocked down, and claimed a foul. The referee decided that no foul had taken place, and as Cuff refused to come into the ring at the call of time, the purse went to Reid.

Six-ounce gloves were used by the men. The "sports" were loud in their expressione of regret that the fight had not lasted till a knock-out.—News-Advertiser.

Life Clubs.

A lady who has evidently thought much on the subject and whose communication is marked by perfect earnestness and sincerity, has written to the San Francisco Chronicle to invoke the aid of that paper in behalf of the suppression of the suicide clubs which, if current rumor may be trusted, have increased very rapidly in number during the last year or two. The correspondent says, with much truth, that the financial strain of the last year has been such as to try the courage and the nerve of the bravest, and that people need encouragement, or, as she phrases it, the formation of life clubs to offset the baneful maleficent influence of the suicide clubs. The Chronicle does not accord with the lady's views.

THE MERMAID.

The surface of Lake Superior is 603 feet above the ocean's level.

The maelstrom is not a whirlpool which sucks ships down into the depths of the ocean. It is an eddy, which in fair weather can be crossed in safety by any vessel.

Soup creek in West Virginia passes a hamlet called Vivian, and about a mile below returns, runs around a tract of land about a half mile wide, and then passes under itself. This freak is caused by the lay of the land, which sinks spirally.

The narrowest part of the strait of Florida, through which the gulf stream flows at the rate of five knots an hour, is 50 miles wide and has a mean depth of 350 fathoms. If this were stopped up, the climate of this country in winter would be totally changed.

A Seaside Reverie.

It's fun to lie upon the beach
And hear the breakers roar
And see the wavelets strive to reach
A higher point on shore.

It's fun to hoist a parasol
And dawdle all day long,
Regardless of what may befall
Amid the seething throng.

And yet with deeper joy it thrills
To smite with tireless hand
That witless wretch who comes and fills
Your bathing suit with sand.

LOCAL NEWS.

Another miner from Australia registered at the Central yesterday.

A Boston float is generally supposed to be a glass of water with a cinder in it.

The next company booked for the Opera House is the Carlton Opera Co., which is due on the 28th.

Notwithstanding the bad weather last night, the Spelling Bee at St. Alban's hall was fairly successful.

Three saloon licenses were transferred yesterday. They were the Central, Commercial and Provincial hotels.

A prediction made in these columns yesterday that an editorial would shortly appear on a certain subject in the opposition organ was speedily verified. How nicely the bait caught.

Contractor Williams is anxiously awaiting a scow load of piles which left Vancouver, in tow, on Friday last, and has not yet arrived. He supposes that they have taken shelter somewhere.

In the Canadian Magazine for this month there is an interesting paper by the Rev. H. H. Cowen, of New Westminster, on "Vancouver and Hawaii." Vancouver the voyager, not the island.

The Wallace Street Methodist Church had a good attendance at its social gathering last night notwithstanding the bad weather. The programme was first-class, refreshments being served at intervals.

In yesterday's police court, Kate Gardner was charged with being drunk. She was dismissed on her own recognizances. One Thomas Bolton, for a similar offence, paid the usual number of dollars.

It will be astonishing news to many that the Bicycle Manufactory in Yokohama is able now to export machines, yet such is the case. Six have gone to Russia and one each to Hawaii and Amoy. The factory is kept busy with numerous orders from the Japanese provinces, their cycles being cheaper than those imported.

PERSONALS.

The Bishop of Columbia will arrive from Victoria to-day.

Mr. K. K. Peiser of Victoria is up on a business trip. He is staying at the Wilson.

Messrs. A. M. Nelson and Geo. Bamford of Chilliwack are registered at the Wilson House.

Messrs. Chas. Dempsey and Harry Stoel went up to Comox yesterday on a trip for a few days.

Mr. F. C. Gamble, Dominion engineer, came over from Vancouver yesterday, and is registered at the Windsor.

St. Alban's To-night.

Bishop Perrin will speak at the temperance meeting at St. Alban's Hall to-night. Deputies from the various temperance bodies will be present and the subject will be fully discussed.

$1,000 Reward.

In addition to the company's reward of $500, the Government offers the above reward for the conviction of the perpetrator of the dynamite outrage at Wellington. They will also reward any accomplice who will give evidence leading to a conviction.

A Burglary of Cloth.

Messrs. Patterson & Buckle, tailors, on the Long Bridge, were the victims on Tuesday night of burglary. Yesterday morning, on arriving at the store, several lengths of cloth were missing. The door had been forced during the night and the robbery committed. Chief McKinnon has the matter in hand and will no doubt hunt the culprits down.

The Highest Authority in America.

Printers Ink, the highest newspaper authority in America, speaks thus of THE DAILY TELEGRAM:

"Did you ever hear of a place called Nanaimo? It is on the Island of Vancouver and 75 miles from Victoria. If you live in what you consider an enterprising city and believe that your local daily paper is first-class, write to the publisher of THE DAILY TELEGRAM, Nanaimo, British Columbia, and ask for a sample copy of his paper, and when you obtain it compare it with your home production. Go down and talk with the publisher about it afterwards, and ask him why it is that he can't print as good a paper, or obtain as good a local patronage, or have his paper as free from dead-head or objectionable advertisements? A useful lesson may be learned from Nanaimo."

Yes You Do.

You want office stationery and we know it. We have provided for your wants accordingly and can supply you with anything in the way of bill heads, envelopes, letter heads, posters, etc., etc., on the shortest notice, at reasonable prices. Don't forget the place—THE DAILY TELEGRAM.

The Canadian Magazine for March.

The Canadian Magazine for March is, as usual, full of entertaining matter from cover to cover; is well illustrated and contains several articles of striking interest. Mr. Arthur Harvey presents a curious combination of speculations under the title, "A Physical Catastrophe to America," picturing graphically a change supposed to begin in 1894, which rapidly leaves New York and Bosson high and dry and half in ruins, and sends the Gulf Stream over the Mississippi Valley into Hudson Bay. Tremendous and radical changes in social, industrial and political conditions, as a result of the catastrophe pictured, are discussed with quaint humor. Dr. John Ferguson writes ably in favor of abolishing the death penalty. John A. Cooper's "Premier and President" is an interesting constitutional study. The illustrated articles are "Mexico and Its People," by Dr. P. H. Bryce; "The Garden of British Columbia," by E. Molson Spragge, and Faith Fenton's charming description of "The Winter Carnival at Quebec." Other contributions are, "'Brummagem' Jewellery," by Bernard McEvoy; "Vancouver and Hawaii," by Rev. Herbert H. Gowen; "Lenten and Easter Observances," by Thos. E. Champion; "Canadian Art Schools," by J. A. Radford; "Milestone Moods and Memories," by David Boyle; "A Broken Chord," by A. H. Morrison, and "A Tale of Germany," by H. Cameron Nelles Wilson. Several of the poems are excellent. The magazine is published by the Ontario Publishing Co., Ltd., Toronto, $2.50 per annum.

NEWS NOTES FROM KASLO.

THE PROCESS OF RECOVERY FROM THE FIRE----SILVER PROSPECTS BRIGHT---THE KASLO & SLOCAN READY FOR GRADING.

(Special to The Colonist.)

KASLO, March 10.—The citizens of Kaslo are just now beginning to settle down to every day occupation after the excitement of the fire. It is not probable that much building will be done on the burnt area until the weather breaks for the Spring. Most of the business men burned out have secured temporary quarters on A avenue or Fourth street, and are making out very fairly, considering all things. Buchanan's saw mill has been working away energetically during the week, getting out material for the expected building boom a month or six weeks hence.

Already there are signs that the price of silver will improve—not only the dispatches from Europe and India regarding the changed feeling in Great Britain's Eastern Empire. The re-opening of the Indian mints to coinage of silver would stiffen up the market wonderfully, and the trend of events appears to be in that direction.

Considerable quantities of ore continue to come in daily.

Engineer McMillan, of the Kaslo & Slocan railway, returned from the Coast yesterday, and to-morrow will take out a large gang to resume work on bridge construction between here and Bear Lake. The right of way is now pretty nearly cleared from Kaslo to Sandon creek. All the contracts are through with but one, and this will be completed within a fortnight Everything is in readiness for grading when the snow goes off.

I shall start on Saturday, Feb. 10th, to clear out by Auction the entire stock of Dry Goods, Millinery, Mantles and Men's Furnishings, latelty bought from Mr. A. A. Richardson at a ridiculously low price previous to making an entire change in my business. I have secured the services of Mr. Dufour, an Auctioneer of over 20 years' experience in England and Canada, to conduct the auction branch of my business.

The Public of Nanaimo know that this stock is composed of really useful and serviceable goods, and this will offer them an opportunity of purchasing at their own prices. I ask one and all to be at the WESTEND on Saturday, Monday and following days, when the whole stock will be offered without reserve. Sale from 2 to 5 each day.

MEN'S ATTENTION! Auction of Stock of Mr. James Caldwell.
