JOSEPH CHAMBERLIAN DEAD

Fought Gladstone on Irish Question—Policy Made South Africa Part of Empire—Was Tariff Reform Leader

London, July 3.—Right Hon. Joseph Chamberlain died here last night at the age of 78 years.

Chamberlain was the pioneer in Great Britain of tarriff reform, and the great advocate of imperialism. For 38 years with a brief interregnum, he represented Birmingham in parliament. In 1906 his career of stormy activities was ended by a stroke of paralysis, in the midst of a strenous campaign for the establishment of a protective tariff with preference for the British colonies.

Since that day the strong fighter had been an invalid, a pathetic onlooker, at the political game. His chief consolations were the growing political promence of his son, Austen Chamberlain, and the loyalty of his constituents. Birmingham would not despose her leader, although he was no longer able to represent her upon the floor of the House of Commons. In each election he was returned to his old seat, and appeared afterward in the house but once, when amid respectful silence he made his way to the speaker's desk on the arm of his son and took the oath of office. January 5th, 1913, Mr. Chamberlain wrote to his constituents, resigning his seat.

In 1876 he entered parliament, being elected without opposition as a Liberal from Birmingham. In his early years in the commons he sat among the home rule Liberals with whose aspirations he was supposed to sympathize, but a few years later he emphatically disabused his associates in the house of any notion they may have had on his belief in separate government for Ireland.

In less than four years he was a cabinet minister, entering Gladstone's government in 1880 as president of the board of trade, and in less than a decade his hold on popular opinion was almost as great as Gladstons's.

After the general election of 1885 he became president of the local government board, but by the spring of 1886 his and Gladstone's relations on the latter's Irish policy had become so strained that he broke with the great premier, resigned his place in the cabinet, and left the Liberal party, never to return to it.

He, Lord Hartingdon (afterwards the Duke of Devonshire), G. J. Goschen and others high in the Liberal party formed a new party. They called themselves Liberal-Unionists and anti-home rule was their tenet. Lord Hartington was the first leader, but later Mr. Chamberlain was chosen the party's chief.

Although delayed over a year in publication, owing to the extra printing entailed by the International Geological Congress meeting in Canada, the summary report of the Geological survey for 1912 contains much information of value to mining interests in British Columbia. The volume contains reports on the following areas: Princess Royal and Texada Islands and along route Grand Trunk Pacific Railway between Prince Rupert and Aldermere, by R. G. McConnell: Groundhog coal field, by G. H. Mallock; Vancouver and Graham Islands, by Dr. Clappp; gold-copper deposits of Similkameen and coal deposits of White Lake, Okanagan Valley, by Chas. Camsell; section on C. P. R. between Vancouver and Lytton, by N. L. Bowen; Bridge River and Chilco Lake, by A. M. Bateman; Kamloops Lake, by B. Rose; Thompson River, by C. W. Drysdale; southern British Columbia, by O. E. Leroy; Yellowhead Pass, by C. D. Walcott; Selkirk Mountain along C. P. R., by R. A. Daly; Rocky mountains between Golden and Banff by J. A. Allan; southern British Columbia, by S. J. Schofield, clay and shale deposits of British Columbia, by Prof. Heinrich Ries.

PROGRESS ON V. V. & E.

Tracklaying on Coalmont Line Will be Started Early Next Month

That tracklaying on the Coalmont section of the V. V. & E. line through the Similkameen is to be started early next month is the statement made by Mr. J. H. Kennedy, assistant chief engineer of the line, at Vancouver early this week. This portion of the railway is to be used jointly by the Kettle Valley Railway and the V. V & E., in accordance with an arrangement between the two companies.

The V. V. & E. portion of the line between Coalmont and Otter Summit is expected to be ready for traffic this summer. In order that structural work may be started at an early date on the bridge across the Fraser River near Hope, grading is being rushed on the connecting link between the C.P. R. and the bridge on the north side.

The substructure of the bridge has already been completed, and as soon as the mile and a half section of track which will be required to furnish the connection has been built, steel for the bridge will be transported to the scene. It is planned to start the erection of the structure within a month. Rails for the Hope-Coquihalla joint section will also be shipped via the C. P. R. and over the new bridge to Hope.

TROOPS READY TO SEND TO ULSTER

Commander-in Chief at Aldershot Has Received His Orders—No Movement to Be Made Except in Case of Necessity

London, June 3.—It is stated that confidential orders have been received by Lieutenant-General Sir Douglas Gaig, commander-in-chief at Aldershot, to hold certain troops in readiness to move out of the camp on short notice. Particularly indicated are the First Cavalry Brigade composed of the Second Dragoon Guards, the Fifth Dragoon Guards, the Eleventh Hussars and the Second Infantry Division. It is understood the north of Ireland is the destionation, but the troops will only be moved in the last necessity and will be marched out as for a regular campaign. There is no present intention of calling upon the reserves.

Enquiries at the Aldershot camp show that there will be no protests among the officers if they are sent to Ulster to keep the peace, but a very different situation will arise if they are called upon to attack Ulster volunteers or endeavor to enforce any general disarmament. This work, it is contended, is rightly that of the police, not of the military. Preparations of an important character are being made with the greatest secrecy.

STANDING TO ARMS

This Aldershot news reads ominously when taken in conjunction with the fact that Ireland, north, south and west, is practically standing to arms. Nevertheless the ministerialists still act as though peace were in sight.

The Daily Chronicle boldly asserts that civil war is off the stage, for settlement is now well within sight. "It is a settlement which won't really satisfy anybody," the Chronicle adds. "It will be a makeshift arrangement, avowedly temporary and only tolerable as an escape from worse evils. But for a time it will suffice."

This hopeful view arises because the Unionists Lords yesterday presented a practically united front for passing the second reading of the Home Rule Amending Bill. Not that they believe in its efficiency but in order to stave off civil war.

SCHEMES ADVANCED

Nobody seems to want the amending bill except to keep the Nationalists and Orangemen quiet until some sort of compromise is effected. Some talk of a statutory commission, others of a national convention. What is of first importance is Lord Lansdowne's admission in the Lords, which he practically controls, that do-nothingism is no policy for Ireland, that in his words "There is a great Irish problem requiring investigation and requiring to be handled with courage and smpathy. We can not fall back upon a mere policy of negation and destructive criticism."

William O'Brien wants both the Home Rule Bill and the Amending Bill deferred until October to enable an inter-party commission and an Irish conference to review the whole situation.—Province

DOMINION DAY AT PRINCETON

Largest Crowd Ever in Attendance—Weather Perfect—Good Program of Sports

The Dominion Day celebration in Princeton this year was the most successful ever held there.

Crowds of people from all parts of the valley were in attendance and it is estimated that fully two thousand people took part in the sports. The programme was excellent, the prizes good and every item was thoroughly enjoyed by all.

Hedley was well represented at the sports, a large crowd going up from here to help cheer the baseball boys and drillers on to victory.

In the drilling contest Griffin and Trewhella captured the first money, while Olsen and Liddicoat got sucond. Both teams were from Hedley. The first mentioned team drilled 33¼ inches and the latter 28 9-16 inches.

In the baseball tournament Copper Mountain succeeded in carrying of the bacon. In the draw, Guthrie, McDougall & Co. and Copper Mountain were drawn for the first game, Copper Mountain taking this game in a walk-away. Hedley was to play Keremeos, but as there was no Kerneos team Hedley got the game by default. Princeton and Tulameen then tried conclusions, Princeton winning. In the finals Hedley played Princeton in the morning and won this game and were therefore compelled to play two games on the same day. In the second game Copper Mountain succeeded in winning by a score of 14 to 6. This game was not as one sided as the score would indicate and was the best game of the lot the score standing 3 to 3 at the end of the sixth innings. In the seventh the jinks struck Hedley and before they could settle down again Copper Mountain had the game on ice.

Princeton won the lacrosse game from Keremeos after a hard game by a score of 5 to 2.

Following are the results of the sports.

WHITNEY HAS LARGE MARJORITY

Abolish the Bar Policy is Beaten—Conservatives Again Sweep Ontario and Have Marjority of Fifty-five

Toronto, June 29.—After one of the bitterest contests in the history of Ontario politics, a Herculean effort on the part of the Liberal opposition to greatly reduce the Conservative majority in the legislature, or even get into power, failed today. What made the contest so heated was the issue which was the slogan of the Liberals, "Abolish the bar." By insistence on the fact that prohibition of the liquor traffic in Ontario was the supreme issue in the campaign, the parties were actually aligned as for or against the prohibition of the retail trade in liquor in the province.

As a result of today's voting, which was heavy, more especially in the rural constituencies, the Liberal opposition gained 13 seats in the new legislature, the Conservatives gained nine seats and the Independents two. The new house will be composed of 83 Conservatives, 25 Liberals, two Independents and one Labor man.

Sir James Witney, the former premier of the province, and the leader of the government party, had his majority in Dundas reduced by nearly 500. Hon. Dr. Beaume, former minister of public works, was the only member of the former cabinet to be defeated. A three corned fight in Windsor resulted in his elimination and the election of Rev. J. C. Tolmie, a Liberal.

ROWELL HAS SMALL MAJORITY

N. W. Rowell, leader of the Liberals, had a narrow escape from defeat in his riding, North Oxford, as he was elected by only 98 majority.

Following were the seats gained by the Liberals: North Brant, South Brant, Cochrane (new), North Essex, South Essex, North Middlesex, East Ottawa, West Ottawa, West Peterboro, Windsor (new), Lincoln (new), South Wellington and Prince Edward.

The Conservatives gained the following seats; South Bruce, Haldimand, East Lambton, South Ontario, North Wentworth, Parkdale (new Toronto seat), Riverdale (new Toronto seat), Niagara Falls (new).

The Independents gained Prescott.

Toronto, which for years has been the Conservative stronghold, held out some hope for the Liberals, as there have been two new seats created, but the Conservatives no only held the eight old seats, but they also captured the two new ones.

LIBERAL VOTE GAINS

There was one satisfactory feature in the fight for the Liberals and that is that they made a big increase in their vote. This year the liberal vote was over twice as large as in the previous election.

Out of four glergymen who were candidates in the campaign only one was elected, Rev. J. C. Tolmie, the Presbyterian minister of Windsor, who defeated the cabinet minister.

GLORIOUS VICTORY, SAYS SIR JAMES

"It was a glorious victory, just what I expected,' was the brief comment of Sir James Whitney late tonight, when asked for a statement for the press.

During the latter part of the evening when most of the returns were in Sir James was literally deluged by telegrams of congratulations, a number of which, it was said, came from Liberals.

Mr. Rowell received the results at the Woodstock Young Liberal clubrooms and made the following statement:

"It is gratifying to find that, notwithstanding the whole weight of the government forces, aided by the organized liquor interests, we have improved our position in the house. For the sake of the policy for which we are fighting I regret that our gains were not more numerous. We were greatly handicapped by the short period we had to prepare for the election. One lesson of the campaign is that we must perfect our organization in all the constituences of the province and we should commence to do so at once."

LATE JOSEPH CHAMBERLAIN

The death of Right Hon. Joseph Chamberlain removes one of the foremost figures of the British Empire. He was a great imperialist and as such attracted not only empire-wide but also world-wide attention. What he might have accomplished in the way of the unification of the empire had he retained his health for a few years longer is impossible to say. Stricken down in the midst of his campaign for tariff reform, which included a scheme of imperial preference, Mr. Chamberlain during his declining years has had to watch the cause which he had so much at heart being relegated to the background in favor of other political issues.

One of the issues particularly which has had an influence in halting the course of tariff reform has been the Home Rule bill and therein lies a striking example of the irony of fate. Mr. Chamberlain, it may be remembered, broke with his leader, the Right Hon. William Ewart Gladstone, on the Home Rule issue, taking with him sufficient of the Liberal strength in parliament to force the government's retirement. Following this it was thought by many that Home Rule was dead for all time. Events, however, have shown that this was a mistaken view. Home Rule, it now appears certain, is going to go into effect while tariff reform and imperial preference have to wait their turn, if indeed they are to come to the fore at all again as living issues in British politics.

It was as colonial secretary that Mr. Chamberlain was brought most closely in touch with the people of the overseas dominions. No colonial secretary before or since has occupied such a place as did Mr. Chamberlain in the eyes and in the hearts of Britons beyond the seas. His ideas on all, or practically all the larger questions of imperial import were theirs. Had he remained an active force in the politics of the Mother Country it is, therefore, hard to see what changes might have been brought around by this time.

But whatever changes might or might not have been effected in this way had Mr. Chamberlain's health held out, the empire will mourn his death and in no place will he be mourned more sincerely than in the great self-governing dominions beyond the seas, the spirit of whose people was so closely allied with his vision of the empire's future.

Mr. A. Horswill left on Monday for Nelson where he intends to undergo an operation before returning home. We wish him a complete and speedy recovery and hope to see him back again soon.

The sidewalks are receiving some badly need repairs this week. They were getting in pretty bad shape and it is a wonder that some accident or other had not happened from the condition they were in.

All members under the jurisdiction of the Similkameen County Loyal Orange Lodge, No. c98, will meet at Fraternity Hall on Sundly evening at 7 o'clock p.m. for Church parade. By order, H. F. Jones, C. M.

Mr. and Mrs. T. Walter Beam and daughter came in on Saturday last and intend spending the summer months here. They have taken up their residence in Mr. F. H. French's house on Kingston avenne.

Mr. J. Kearns, newly appointed secy-treasurer of the British Columbia Portland Cement Co., was a visitor to the town and district last week. While in the valley Mr. Kearns had a look over the plant at East Princeton.

Burns Bowerman came in from Vancouver last Saturday for a short visit to friends and relatives in town. He has been prospecting in the north country for the past year and a half and is glad to get back and see all his old friends here again.

Mrs. J. W. Wirth and children left on Saturday for Keremeos. Mrs. Wirth visited over the week-end and returned home on Monday, but the kiddies are going to spend some of their summer holidays visiting their aunt, Mrs. E. M. Daly, at the "Willows".

Don't forget to take in the concert in Fraternity hall on Monday evening, July 13th. Mrs. Brown, Miss Daly and Mr. Edmunds of Keremeos have kindly consented to sing a couple of solos. Madame Yzonne of New York has also kindly consented to assist in the evening's enjoyment and will introduce in Hedley some of the latest New York dances, including the hesitation waltz, the tango and the naxixe.

G. H. Whiteman will shortly take up his residence in Spokane, Wash., as representive therefor the Princeton Coal and Land Co. Mr. Whiteman's promotion is well deserved. He has always been unfailingly courteous and obliging in the company's office here and has made a host of friends who will be loath to part with him.—Star.

H. A. Turner, road supervisor took a trip up the valley on Tuesday to have a look over the work being done in this part of the district. The roads in this district have the name of being among the best in the province and it is through the untiring efforts of Mr. Turner and Mr. Shatford that has brought them up to this standard.

Some of the flower gardens around Hedley are very pretty these days with their great profusion of flowers and variety of colors and the people who spent time and money on them are now being amply paid. It is not many years ago that it was thought that roses could not be raised in Hedley but some of the gardens now show the falsity of the statement.

Mr. J. Cosgrove has installed a gasoline engine and pump at his place up the river and it is now in first-class working order and is giving the utmost satisfaction. He is able to get as much as six hundred gallons an hour up on the flat at his residence. He has a small garden planted up at his place and next year intends to get more land under cultivation.

The Similkameen County Loyal Orange Lodge will hold a big celebration here on Monday, July 13th. The special features will be a lacrosse game between Keremeos and Princeton, two games of baseball, Keremeos vs. Hedley, and Copper Mountain vs. Hedley; foot races and other athletic sports. A grand concert and dance in the evening will finish the day. J. W. Whiteley, supreme grand lodge lecturer, will be the chief speaker of the day.

Riverside now boasts of one of the best equipped garages in the valley since J. T. Naff has moved into his new quarters and fitted them up for business. Mr. Naff's equipment has been the best in the county ever since starting in business here. His new quarters are large enough to accomodate any class of work and he also has room for the storing of a large number of autos. A large banner denoting his business has been placed across the street in front of the shop.—Riverside Argus

Parker Williams, Socialist member in the House at Victoria, spoke to a small audience in the Star Theatre here on Wednesday evening of last week. Mr. Williams did not touch on anything new, as he was running down the conservative government and the opposition press has been doing that since Sir Richard McBride first became leader of his party. His criticisms of Mr. Shatford were uncalled for, and as for Mr. Shatford being a poor speaker in the House, the people of his constituency do not care if he talks at all or not as long as he produces beneficial results. It is well known that the most efficient members of the House are not the most talkative and that some of the best workers are seldom heard. Ever since Mr. Shatford was elected to the House he has done splendid service for his constituency and has been very successful in obtaining grants and providing for the requirements of his constituents.

Herbert Silvernail, of the G. N. R. service, was a visitor to town the second. We were all pleased to see Silver on deck once more after his narrow escape.

Last week Jack Blough, and old timer of Bridesville, passed away at Hallans Farm. He was well known by many of the old timers in this district who will be sorry to hear of his death.

James Callaghan of Vancouver spent the week end on his farm which is managed by Geo. Tickell. While here he was pleased with the progress and development made and hopes to return in a few months.

Joe Armstrong of Chopeca was a visitor to town Monday and reports he had a very narrow escape from being drowned while fording the river. He has about fourteen hundred head of sheep now pasturing on the Juniper Mountain.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Armstrong arrived Saturday from the coast to spend a week here. While here Mr. Armstrong let a contract to build a house for his caretaker, who will look after the grounds and his large bungalow when it is unoccupied.

Mr. and Mrs. Wallis B. Knowles are now in Denver, Colorado, the old home of Mr. Knowles. They sent word saying that they had a most enjoyable trip having visited the B. C. coast cities and the principal ports of California. They expect to be back in the valley about the first of August.

The Similkameen Loyal Orange Lodges will hold thier annual picnic at Hedley on the 13th of July. Arrangements have been made with the G. N. R. to hold the train over at Hedley so that a good day can be assurred. There will be a grand dance and concert in the evening. Tickets can be had from H.C.N. Etches at the P. O.

A party including Mrs. James Innis, her sons, Hill and Alex, and daughter, Annie, Misses Eva and Kathleen Gibson, Cargill Armstrong, and Albert and Arthur Mattice are camped out on the Ashnola River about four miles from its mouth. Reports coming in say they are having a regular good time.

We are sorry to report the sad death of Mrs. Margaret Cameron in her eighty-seventh year on Wednesday the 1st. Mrs. Cameron had been ailing for some time but it was hoped she would rally but such was not to be and the dear old lady passed away to her peaceful rest. She leaves behind her here Mrs. W. H. Cameron and Miss Cameron and with whom we desire to express our heartfelt sympathy in this their very sad bereavement. The funeral took place at the Cemetery on Friday, the 3rd, and was followed by many ofher beloved friends. The Rector Mr. Hewitt officiated.

Parker Williams, Socialist member for Newcastle, in the Provincial House spoke in Richters Hall last Thursday the second, before about sixty citizens. He was accompanied by E. Winch, Social Democratic organizer. L. N. Northey of Ollala was in the chair. Mr. Winch was the first to address the meeting, putting forward the aims and ambitions of the Socialist party. Mr. Williams then spoke at some length on conditions said to exist. Personality was his strong point however, which we think could have been greatly eliminated.

Dr. McEwen accompanied by his son, Gordon, Mrs. Wirth, Miss Dolly Sinclair, and Mr. E. D. Swazyie, motored over from Hedley and after taking dinner at the Keremeos Hotel proceeded to the Willows where they spent a very enjoyable time. George and Lena, son and daughter of Mrs. Wirth are spending their vacation on the ranch and are having a swell time.

CARD OF THANKS

The undersigned wishes to thank the people of Keremeos for their kindness and sympathy shown in her recent bereavement in the death of her mother.

You Can Thank Advertising

NEXT time you step into the corner store, take a look around. Of all the articles on the shelves, how many were on your shopping list five years ago? Make it ten years, and you will find that most of the things you buy to-day—and could not do without—were not even made then.

You men and women who buy things, let this sink in. You are better men and women because of advertising. You eat more wholesome food. You wear better clothes. Your home is better furnished. You have cleaner and more sanitary houses. You read better books and magazines. You seek more healthful amusements.

Your whole standard of living has been raised—and why? Because the men who make these better things are telling you that you will be more comfortable, happier and healthier if you use these higher grade goods.

It is advertising that makes it possible for you to buy "the best" right at your corner store. It is advertising that encourages the inventor to make new comforts and new utilities and enables you to buy them almost immediately after they are perfected.

J. J. Hill says this "high living" costs more. True for J. J.—but it is worth more. And leaving the cost aside, do you want to go back to buying jam out of a pail, oatmeal out of a barrel, raisins out of sticky boxes, or tea exposed in an open chest?

Do you regret the money you paid for a Player Piano?

Would you forego the new style razor?

Isn't a Tungsten worth a thousand candles?

Would you now be enjoying these if enterprising manufacturers had not told you about them in their advertisements?

Isn't life brighter because we have new and higher standards of living?

Let us thank advertising for it.

Advice regarding your advertising problems is available through any good advertising agency or the Secretary of the Canadian Press Association, Room 503, Lumsden Building, Toronto. Enquiry involves no obligation on your part—so write if interested.
