DAILY BRITISH COLUMBIAN.

VOLUME 1 — NEW WESTMINSTER, B. C., TUESDAY EVENING, AUGUST 24, 1886. — NUMBER 21

Daily British Columbian

Tuesday Evening, August 24, 1886.

The assessment returns for the city of Montreal furnish some interesting statistics. The city's population is 140,747, of whom 103,579 are Roman Catholics and 37,168 Protestants. Of the Protestants, 14,338 are adherents of the Church of England, 11,597 Presbyterians, and 5,227 Methodists. The total assessed value of real estate is $87,227,000. Of this the Catholics own $30,619,800 and the Protestants $34,813,700.

Confucius lived 500 years before Christ and his teachings and precepts from the Chinese Bible held worldly advancement of little account and sought to attain rather the moral than the material elevation of mankind. Even now few Chinese will admit that the European standard of morality is equal to their own. Christianity they consider to be a good enough religion in as far as, like Buddhism and other native cults, it teaches men to do good, but they cannot see that in practice it has made much impression upon the nations of Europe. Their own country has seldom waged an offensive war, while all Europe appears to them an armed encampment. England prides herself upon her religion and her big ships of war; France sends her missionaries far into the interior, and her torpedo boats cruise around the coast and sink all the unoffending junks that come in their way. This is, of course, the unfavorable side of European character as it presents itself to the ordinary Chinaman. He does not, however, fail to discern our good as well as our bad points. That we are truthful he knows well by experience, and that no bribe will tempt an Englishman is a thing he often regrets, but never fails to admire. Though he does not altogether accept our ideas of progress, still he is willing to adopt some of our inventions. Steamers are rapidly supplanting the clumsy junks, and one very large and flourishing line is entirely supported by native capital and conducted by native talent.—The Nineteenth Century.

All that the Tory party could do to excite the more inflammable portion of the Ulster Orangemen was done. They were told by the local Tory chiefs, scions of the Tory houses of Abercorn and Enniskillen, etc., that their liberties, civil and religious, were in danger; that the Catholics meant to establish home rule, to break up the empire, to make Ireland the basis of hostile military operations against England, to deprive all Protestants of their property, and reduce them to a condition worse than slavery. Lord Randolph Churchill and Lord Hartington made violent speeches in Belfast. And Lord Salisbury himself, when at a London meeting Major Saunderson talked of lining the roads from Belfast to the Boyne with armed Orangemen, declared that he believed that these Orangemen meant what they said, and spoke approvingly of it. One of Lord Randolph's sayings was, "Ulster will fight, Ulster will be right." Lord Salisbury really said as much. Yet now, because a few thousand of the inhabitants of one city thus prepared to do battle, have indulged in murderous rioting, Lord Salisbury said at the Lord Mayor's banquet, "Every day's news reminds us that Ireland is not yet inhabited by a concordant and homogenous people." When he spoke of "relieving the loyal people of Ireland from the constraint exercised upon them by riot or by outrage and intimidation," every one must have felt that he included amongst those he called loyal, the men who attacked the police so furiously in the streets of Belfast, and the landlords, their agents and myrmidons, who are even now busy in all the provinces evicting unfortunate tenants, whom the payment of exorbitant rents has kept for years on the verge of starvation. These only he intimates are to be protected.—Globe.

An international conference has just taken place at Amsterdam which was summoned to arrange for the suppression of the floating drinking saloons which have been creating such havoc among the seamen of the fishing fleets in the North Sea. These saloons were fitted up on vessels specially arranged for the purpose and were provided with distilleries on board so as to avoid paying any duty. The delegates of the British, German, French, Dutch and Belgian governments have now decided that any retailing of liquor to the fishing-boat fleets at sea shall be considered as a felony and punishable as such. But if it is bad for the fishermen on the seas, isn't it bad also for the people on land?

The Most Liberal, Straightforward, Unexceptional Accident Policy in Existence.
The following are a few of the points of superiority:
FIFTEEN DAYS OF GRACE are allowed. (See condition 1). No other Company in America allows one hour.
BONUS—Should no claim be made for five years, the sixth year's assurance will be allowed free of charge, if the age is under 65. (See condition 2). Very few other Companies give this privilege.
POLICIES NOT VOIDED by engaging in a more hazardous occupation than that assured against. For particulars see Policy. This advantage can be obtained hardly anywhere else.
RESIDENCE—More liberal conditions than given by any other Company in America.

Experimental Fish Growing.

We learn from Mr. Mowatt, inspector of fisheries, that it is the intention of the fisheries department to experiment in the matter of growing lobsters in these waters. A few will be brought out next spring and placed in Bodwell Bay, Burrard Inlet, and Saanich Arm, Vancouver Island, to test the feasibility of transporting them across the continent in a healthy condition. An attempt will also be made to cultivate in some of the bodies of fresh water in the province white fish, which are caught in the great Canadian lakes. The eggs of these fish will be brought out here and placed in the hatchery where they will be cared for till sufficiently grown to fight their own way through the world. It is also the intention of the department to introduce sockeye salmon and speckled trout, peculiar to this province, into the waters of the eastern part of the Dominion.

Mails and Mail Clerks.

On account of an edict of the postal department which requires the mail clerk to "stay with" the Victoria mail bag, the eastern mail for this city did not arrive till 22 o'clock last night, over eight hours behind time. The Victoria bag stopped at Port Hammond to be placed on the Rithet, and as the mail clerk had to stop with it, there was no one to deliver the Port Moody, Vancouver, and New Westminster mails when the train arrived at Port Moody. Such delays, especially in the matter of mails, are exceedingly annoying to the public, and as they are unnecessary it is to be hoped this thing will not be repeated. By the way, the order for the mail clerks to proceed to Victoria is a little remarkable, seeing that they have nothing to do over there and that their expenses are greatly increased in consequence. It would be interesting to have some one explain why the order is made and for whose benefit. When the winter months come on and the Victoria boat has to encounter a north easter or the tail end of a Manitoba blizzard in the gulf, and the train goes off without connecting with her and without a mail clerk on board, it will show how beneficial is the order that makes this official travel on each trip 170 miles more than is necessary, and that at the expense of his rest and pocket and the public interest.

A Boom Town.

When everything was booming in Manitoba a few years ago, and everybody believed himself to be within easy reach of a magnificent fortune, Portage La Prairie went ahead with wonderful strides. The country all around for miles was laid out as a city plot, lots were sold at fabulous prices, immense blocks were erected in out-of-the-way places, and heavy investors sat and waited for customers and for spoils. But they waited in vain. The great boom collapsed before Portage La Prairie had expanded sufficiently or taken root enough to give it the air of a permanent institution, and it was left high and dry when the flood evaporated. A few days ago the municipal council met to consider the financial situation and decided to resign because there seemed no possible hope of meeting the obligations of the municipality. We believe the debt of Portage La Prairie is something over $260,000, and the revenue is so small that it does little more than cover running expenses. The money was lent by Englishmen who are now pressing for payment, and who seem disposed to squeeze every possible farthing out of the treasury. We are told that there are a number of large and substantial business blocks standing in the unoccupied streets of this boom town, that never had a tenant. They were built on faith, and they stand as costly monuments to the folly of those who suffer themselves to be blinded by a popular craze. The people of New Westminster may well be thankful that this city has never experienced a boom. They need not go very far to observe the effects of these financial tornadoes which scoop wealth into the pockets of a few and leave devastation and ruin in their track. The people of this city want no boom.

A lady from Syracuse writes: "For about seven years before taking Northrop & Lyman's Vegetable Discovery and Dyspepsia Cure, I suffered from a complaint very prevalent with our sex. I was unable to walk any distance or stand on my feet for more than a few minutes at a time without feeling exhausted, but now I am thankful to say, I can walk two miles without feeling the least inconvenience." For Female Complaints it has no equal.

No, it is not hard to write funny paragraphs. All you have to do is to procure a pen, some paper and ink and then sit down and write them as they occur to you. It is not the writing, but the occurring that is hard.

Tenders for a License to cut Timber on Dominion Lands in the Province of British Columbia.

SEALED TENDERS ADDRESSED TO the undersigned and marked "Tender of a Timber Berth," will be received at this Office until noon on Monday, the 1st day of November next, for four timber berths of ten square miles each, more or less, numbered respectively 4, 5, 8 and 9, situated on Kicking Horse River, and Otter Tail Creek, a tributary of the Kicking Horse River, near Field and Otter Tail Stations, on the line of the Canadian Pacific Railway, in the Province of British Columbia.

Sketches shewing the position, approximately, of these berths, together with the conditions on which they will be licensed, may be obtained at this Department or at the Crown Timber Offices, Winnipeg, Calgary, N. W. T., and New Westminster, British Columbia.

Public Notice

New Westminster Public Library.

THE UNDERSIGNED THANKS TO the kindness and permission of the Mayor and City Council) two weeks ago re-opened the Public Library, and takes this opportunity to offer an invitation to residents of New Westminster to pay him a visit. Papers and Magazines from all directions are received for patrons and visitors, and more will be added in case a reasonable support is obtained. The terms are 50 cents a month, in advance, as papers, &c., are paid for in advance. This will amount to about 2 cents a day, or the cost of one cigar for seven days permission to see news from all over the world, and elegant books which may be changed every 24 hours! There is no compulsion about this, but those who believe in getting in out of the rain and who can enjoy a decent fire will doubtless appreciate this institution. Ladies and strangers are free, so doubtless all the parties who believe in Blue Ribbon will come forward at once and join this attractive affair, both for their own credit and that of others. Come one, come all, and you will be attended to by one who can soap all classes, viz.:

Yours Respectfully,
HENRY W. HUGHES.

Surface Indications

What a miner would very properly term "surface indications" of what is beneath, are the Pimples, Sties, Sore Eyes, Boils, and Cutaneous Eruptions with which people are annoyed in spring and early summer. The effete matter accumulated during the winter months, now makes its presence felt, through Nature's endeavors to expel it from the system. While it remains, it is a poison that festers in the blood and may develop into Scrofula. This condition causes derangement of the digestive and assimilatory organs, with a feeling of enervation, languor, and weariness—often lightly spoken of as "only spring fever." These are evidences that Nature is not able, unaided, to throw off the corrupt atoms which weaken the vital forces. To regain health, Nature must be aided by a thorough blood-purifying medicine; and nothing else is so effective as which is sufficiently powerful to expel from the system even the taint of Hereditary Scrofula.

The medical profession indorse AYER'S SARSAPARILLA, and many attestations of the cures effected by it come from all parts of the world. It is, in the language of the Hon. Francis Jewett, ex-State Senator of Massachusetts and ex-Mayor of Lowell, "the only preparation that does real, lasting good."

"I take only one English weekly paper, The Spectator, and one Canadian, The Week, and as a rule I should be puzzled to say which I should miss most."—From a letter by Thomas Hughes, author of "Tom Brown's School Days."

The Week:

A Canadian Journal of Politics, Society and Literature.

PUBLISHED EVERY THURSDAY, AT $3.00 PER ANNUM.

Independent in politics, THE WEEK appeals by a comprehensive Table of Contents to the different tastes which exist within the circle of a cultured home.

An average of fifteen short, crisp Editorials is given in each number upon CANADIAN, AMERICAN, and ENGLISH POLITICS and LITERATURE.

Amongst the regular contributors is Professor Goldwin Smith; and a distinguished public man in London has kindly undertaken to supply regularly an English Letter. Paris and Washington Letters will appear at regular intervals.

In addition there are special contributions from some of the ablest writers in the Dominion and the United States.

A lot of imported thoroughbred cattle in quarantine at Quebec lately became affected with disease and it is feared the whole batch, valued at $300,000, would have to be slaughtered and burned.

The road leading to the cemeteries at Sappeaton very much needs improvement. That part above St. Mary's Mount becomes shockingly bad in wet weather, and ought to be attended to now, before the rainy season begins. The cost would be trifling.

For its soothing and grateful influence on the scalp, and for the removal and prevention of dandruff, Ayer's Hair Vigor has no equal. It restores faded or gray hair to its original dark color, stimulates the growth of the hair, and gives it a beautiful, soft, glossy and silken appearance.

PEACHES.—Mr. C. G. Major, of Agnes st., has a peach tree that produces as fine fruit, probably, as can be found anywhere on the coast. The fruit has just been gathered, and we have seen nothing that will excel it.

TO-MORROW'S PROGRAMME.—The W. C.T.U. convention meets at 9:30 to-morrow morning. After opening exercises the election of officers will take place, to be followed by a report of the committee on the revision of the constitution, &c. In the afternoon unfinished business will be taken up and the standing committees will be appointed.

THE SPROULE CASE.—An order signed by Mr. Justice Henry, of the supreme court of Ottawa, for the summary release of the prisoner Sproule, has just been received by Sheriff McMillan. The order will be disregarded.—Colonist.

TAILORING.—Messrs D. Drysdale & Co. have purchased the fittings of the Mechanics' tailoring establishment, and propose running a first-class merchant tailoring business. They are showing a fine selection of new fall tweeds, coatings, overcoatings, etc.

THE BRANCH.—The construction train on the New Westminster branch was on this side of the Brunette at noon to-day. The rain this morning interfered with the work to such an extent that we are afraid the train will not reach the city to-morrow as was expected.

FINE PLUMS.—Mr. Jno. Reid a few days ago read an item about some large plums that the Victoria papers were blowing about. So he pulled 12 plums off one of his trees and sent them to this office. The 12 weighed 2¾ lbs., and were perfect both in appearance and flavor.

ALLEE SAME WHITE MAN.—In the supreme court the other day, Messrs. Justices Begbie, C. J. McCreight and Crease on the bench, Mr. Justice McCreight delivered judgment in the case attacking the constitutionality of clause fourteen of the "Act to regulate the Chinese population of British Columbia" and which clause fixed the sum payable by a Chinese for a free miner's certificate at $15 instead of $5 as paid by white miners. The judgment, which was concurred in by all the justices, declared the clause ultra vires and of no effect. In future Chinamen will only pay $5—"allee same as white man."—Times.

SUCCESSFUL OPERATION.—An exceedingly difficult yet highly successful surgical operation was performed this morning at the hospital by Drs. MacSwain and Bentley, Dr. Garrow assisting and administering the ether. The operation consisted in removing a tumor, growing in the neck, which had afflicted Mrs. Digby, wife of Mr. Chas. Digby, steward of the hospital, for the past ten years, and had heretofore baffled the surgical skill of the province. Practitioners have repeatedly refused to take the responsibility of removing it, and it had become so large and troublesome as seriously to interfere with breathing. This afternoon the patient was doing very well.

Ayer's Sarsaparilla is designed for those who need a medicine to purify their blood, build them up, increase their appetite and rejuvenate their whole system No other preparation so well meets this want It touches the exact spot Its record of forty years is one of constant triumph over disease.

Personal.

Mrs. Stirsky and son left by to-day's train for Halifax.

Dr. MacSwain left for Victoria this morning via Vancouver.

Mr. Grant Macdonald, of Toronto, accompanied by his son are in this city.

Messrs. J. M. Divan and A. D. Wright, of Manitoba, arrived to-day and are at the Colonial.

Messrs. J. J. Ibbotson, of San Rafael, and J. F. Sharpley, of San Francisco, who have been on a fishing excursion up the Coquitlam, returned to-day. They have lashed this beautiful tributary of the Fraser with good success and say they don't want any better sport.

City Council.

The regular meeting of the city council was held last evening, his worship Mayor Dickinson in the chair. Present, Couns. Bonson, Lord, Douglas, and Elliott.

COMMUNICATIONS

were read as follows:

From G. B. Murray, applying to the council for permission to place building material on Front street for purposes of removal. Granted subject to consent of board of works.

From Royal City Planing Mills asking permission to move two buildings on Richard street. Leave granted.

From Alexander Ewen, asking permission to open part of Begbie and Montreal streets. Permission granted.

From A. M. Herring, asking the council to have certain pegs, removed from Lots 21 and 22 while council were constructing Provost street, replaced. Request not granted, as council did not think it advisable to have another survey.

REPORTS, ETC.

His worship reported that he had received a similar notification from Mr. Blackie to that received from Mr. Edmonds, intimating that he would not allow the council to interfere with his property. This was in connection with the branch railway line.

The city clerk's financial statement for July showed the municipal receipts for the month to have been $1,531.18; disbursments, $781.27. Report received.

At the request of Capt. Pittendrigh the sum of $5 was ordered to be paid to Mr. Moresby for acting as interpreter.

Coun. Elliott, chairman of the board of works, asked authority to purchase lumber for culverts for street improvement. Granted.

The board of works were authorized to dispose of the gravel on Front street removed in railway construction.

Council adjourned till 21 o'clock this evening.

VOLUMES OF BOMBAST have been published about the multifarious and irreconcilable effects of many proprietary remedies. The proprietors of Northrop & Lyman's Vegetable Discovery content themselves with facts susceptible of proof. They state their Purifier to be what it has proved itself to be, an eradicator of Dyspepsia, Constipation, Liver and Kidney troubles, and a fine general alterative.

W. C. T. U. Convention.

FIRST DAY.

The third annual convention of the W. C. T. U. met at 9:30 a. m., at the Methodist church, on Monday, Aug. 23rd.

Meeting opened with devotional exercises, led by Mrs. D. Spencer, of Victoria. Mrs. Spafford, president of the provincial union, occupied the chair. Mrs. Youmans, president of the Dominion W. T. C. U., together with other officers of the P. U., occupied seats on the platform. The roll of officers and delegates was called, and, with one or two exceptions, all responded to their names. The officers and delegates in attendance were as follows: From Victoria: Mrs. H. Spafford, president; Mrs Sargison, 1st vice; Mrs D. Spencer, 2nd vice; Mrs Walker, cor. sec.; Mrs Ethridge, treas; Mrs Humber, Mrs Gerow, Mrs McNaughten, Mrs Dr. Clark, Mrs Flett. New Westminster: Mrs Jas. Cunningham, Mrs Rev. C. Watson, Mrs D. Robson, Mrs D. S. Curtis, Mrs J. W. Sexsmith, Miss McDougall. Chilliwhack: Mrs A. C. Wells, Mrs Tate, Mrs McGillivray, Mrs. C. Chadsey, Mrs Geo. Chadsey. Vancouver: Mrs. Hall. Maple Ridge: MrsGeo Howison.

The following committees were then appointed: On credentials and courtesy, Mrs C. Chadsey, Mrs D. Robson and Mrs Hall; for revising provincial constitution and by-laws, also for providing a constitution for local unions, the president of the provincial union, with the presidents of local unions; committee on resolutions, Mrs Cunningham, Mrs Sargison, Mrs Howison, Mrs Tate and Mrs Spencer; committee on finance, Mrs Sargison, Mrs Humber, Mrs Robson, Mrs G. Chadsey and Mrs Ethridge.

The prov. sec. being absent, Miss McDougall was appointed to that office pro tem.

Considerable discussion took place as to the rights of honorary members and the election of delegates.

The synopsis of minutes of prov. executive was then read and adopted.

The subject of the world's petition for prohibiting evil both socially and morally was introduced by Mrs. Cunningham and discussed at considerable length by the convention.

During the session some good advice was given and useful information imparted to the convention by Mrs. Youmans. Before the close of the session a few minutes' silent prayer was allowed, and the convention adjourned till 3:30 p. m.

The adjourned meeting of the convention took place in the Drill Shed at 3:30 p. m., when the Band of Hope and a large number of the school children and a few of the parents assembled and listened to a very instructive address by Mrs Youmans, illustrated by charts and experiments showing the effects of alcohol on various organs of the body. The children evidently enjoyed and appreciated the address, also the singing, led by Mrs. D. Robson. The meeting was closed by Rev Mr Hall pronouncing the benediction.

In the evening a public meeting was held in the Methodist church at 8 o'clock. The meeting was opened by singing and prayer by Rev Thos. Haddon. Miss McDougall read the address of welcome, which was replied to by Mrs Wells of Chilliwhack, after which the president delivered an address. Brief addresses were made by Rev. Messrs. Ladner and Haddon, and Mrs Youmans then opened the question box and disposed of the various questions asked, in which she was assisted by Hon. John Robson. The meeting closed about 10 o'clock.

Mr. Peter Vermett, Hochelaga, P.Q., writes: "Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil cured me of Rheumatism after I tried many medicines to no purpose. It is a good medicine." Just think of it—you can relieve the twinges of rheumatism, or the most painful attack of neuralgia—you can check a cough, and heal bruised or broken skin, with a bottle of Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil, costing only 25 cents.

LAST NIGHT'S DESPATCHES.

Special to the Columbian.

OTTAWA, Aug. 23.—In consequence of the outbreak of pleuro-pneumonia among cattle in quarantine at Quebec, an order has been passed in council prohibiting the importation of live stock from infected counties in England.

BERLIN, Aug. 23 – Official estimates of Prussian crops state that the wheat yield will equal 95 per cent. of an average crop; rye 87, barley 97, oats 101.

BUCHAREST, Aug. 23.—Advices from Sofia say that M. Kaaravloff and provisional government, realizing that public sentiment remained favorable to Prince Alexander, caused a circular to be distributed among the people called the ministerial list, containing the names of prominent men of all parties who, the document declared, were in the movement, the purpose being to cause a belief that the government was receiving general support. The garrison at Shumla remains faithful to Prince Alexander, and refuses to recognize the provisional government. A number of Bulgarians and prominent Russo-phobists have already fled to Roumania. The fugitives include in their number many Russian nihilists who were serving as officers on the Bulgarian flotilla. It is now believed that Prince Alexander is confined in a monastery near Sofia. It is rumored that Premier Kaaravloff has been placed under arrest. Only certain telegrams for Russia are permitted to leave Bulgarian territory.

PARIS, Aug. 23.—Le Temps considers England has received a rebuff, and it fears that events will arouse differences which have been dormant for two years, It is stated that the government has decided to appoint a commission to inquire into the expenditures of the principal departments of state, and that Mr Chamberlain will probably be chairman The statement is also made that a small royal commission on the currency question will be appointed, with Mr Goschen as chairman.

LONDON, Aug. 23.—At the usual weekly meeting of the executive council of the socialistic league to-day the following resolution was adopted: "That the council expresses its abhorrence of the cowardly conduct of the movement of Illinois in passing sentence for murder against men who have proved their sympathy with the suffering masses."

LONDON, Aug. 23.—Latest advices from Japan state that rioting between Chinese and Japanese at Nagsaki was caused by a fight between 18 Chinese sailors and the Japanese police. It was a case of simply disorderly conduct on the part of the sailors and an attempt to suppress it by the police without any admixture whatever of politics. 8 men were killed and 300 wounded, most of the wounded being Chinese.

BELFAST, (7:30 p.m.) Aug. 23.—This evening a detachment of police made an attempt to disperse a mob on Shank Hill. The mob becoming infuriated threw volley after volley of stones at the policemen and routed them. The mob then completely wrecked the barracks, which was defended by twenty policemen. Military reinforcements are hurrying to the spot.

PARIS, Aug. 23.—The fall of Prince Alexander has been the absorbing topic of discussion in Paris ever since the reception of first news concerning it. France has determined to observe and expectant attitude. President Grevy keeps in continuous communication with all the members of the French ministry

LONDON, Aug. 23.—Pursuant to instructions from the war office various generals of army districts have ordered volunteers to practice picket and be in readiness to quell rioting. During ensuing autumn manœuvres each volunteer is to be supplied with 20 ball cartridges. It is understood that this action is taken under expectancy of a renewal of dynamite outrages and Irish disorders in the northern and middle towns of England.

LONDON, Aug. 23.—Ministerialists admit that the deposition of Prince Alexander is a matter of extreme gravity, but say that even if it be proved that Russia instigated the movement it will be difficult for England to interfere because it is generally assumed that Austria and Germany acquiesce in Alexander's overthrow. It is considered improbable by Conservatives that the government will enter a protest in the matter. The government has been reliably informed that Prince Alexander is safe and well in Roumania.

John Hays, Credit P.O., says: "His shoulder was so lame for nine months that he could not raise his hand to his head, but by the use of Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil the pain and lameness disappeared, and although three months has elapsed, he has not had an attack of it since."

This Afternoon's Despatches.

LONDON, Aug. 24.—The prefect of Varnar received on Friday evening a circular signed by Karavloff, Rankaffr, Storloff and Eladishoff, ordering him to inform the people that Prince Alexander had been deposed. All the towns in Bulgaria and Roumelia except Widden are in a state of siege. It is rumored at Bastien that Alexander was compelled to abdicate by a threat of death.

LONDON, Aug. 24.—Authoritative despatches from Sofia show that the deposition of Prince Alexander of Bulgaria was accomplished during the night. According to these advices, one thoroughly Russianized regiment of cavalry was detained in the city after nightfall, when the other troops had retired to their barracks. This regiment, which was perfectly under the control of the revolutionists, surrounded the palace about two hours past midnight. Alexander was in bed and the palace closed. The revolutionary leaders, with the assistance of the soldiers, forced their way into the building, went to the prince's antechamber, and had him aroused. They bluntly made known the purpose of their intrusion. He was stunned, having been taken completely unawares. When he recovered his self control and realized the helplessness of his situation he bitterly reproached his captors for their treachery. What followed is still rather obscure. The revolutionists declare that Alexander signed a formal abdication of the throne. Others, however, assert that he firmly declined to sign an abdication, and that in consequence of his refusal he was made prisoner and confined in a remote prison, being told he would be kept there until he complied with the demands of the revolutionists. The prince was removed from Sofia under a cavalry escort before daybreak, and the people did not become acquainted with the fact of a coup d'etat until several hours after the prince was removed from the palace. Telegrams from Widden say advices received there from Bulgaria say there is much discontent among the troops over the change in government. The large proportion of troops are disposed to restore Alexander.

PARIS, Aug. 24.—Reports are current here that Servia has begun to place her army on a war footing.

MANDALAY, Aug. 24.—One of the embankments of the Irrawady river burst in this city yesterday. The break is 300 yards in length, and so rapid was the flow of water that in a few minutes the whole district was flooded from four to ten feet deep. Engineers at once cut the dam south of the city to allow the waters to subside, but the result of this is as yet unknown. Fifty thousand people are to-day homeless in the city, their houses and possessions having either been destroyed or submerged. A number of persons were drowned, but how many is not yet known. The flooded district had within its territory many of the food supplying stores, and all of these were swept away. The result will be an approach to famine among the homeless people. The river will not fall sufficiently to permit any attempts at reconstruction of the broken embankment until November. British military operations are seriously interfered with by the overflow.

ST. PETERSBURG, Aug. 24.—The Journal de St. Petersburg, commenting on the Bulgarian crisis, says it hopes the politicians of Bulgaria and Roumelia will have wisdom to understand that the destinies of both nations depend on the behavior of the people. "The powers with whom rests the decision of their destinies," adds the Journal, "desire above all things peace, and the good will of these powers should be secured. Politicians should abstain from agitation, and should not attempt to hamper their good intentions. The Russian press do not generally believe that any foreign powers will interfere with Russia's direct pacification of Bulgaria. Novoe Vremia advocates sending a Russian dignitary to maintain order until a successor to Prince Alexander be chosen.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Aug. 24.—The porte has sent a circular to the powers concerning the Bulgarian crisis. The circular says the deposition of Alexander has left Bulgaria in a position which interests the powers as much as it does Turkey, and asks to be informed of their intentions and opinions respecting the situation as soon as possible. The troops in eastern Roumelia and at Shumla disapprove of the deposition. Two thousand people who openly favor the restoration of Alexander met yesterday in front of the Russian consulate in Phillippopolis, the capital of eastern Roumelia, and made a public demonstration of their wishes. The deposition has divided the population of Sofia into two hostile parties. The partizanship on both sides has become dangerously heated already, and it is feared party conflicts of a serious nature will ensue. The railway service between Constantinople and Roumelia has been suspended. Orders have been sent to Adrianople suspending the issue of tickets beyond the frontier.

LONDON, Aug. 24.—The under-secretary for foreign affairs, replying to a question in the commons this afternoon, stated that the government had no additional news from Bulgaria. The government, he said, viewed the events in that country with the gravest fears. He declined to state whether Russia was implicated in this event. The question as to Russia's complicity will be renewed to-morrow.

BELFAST, Aug. 24.—9 policemen recently arrested and charged with murder for firing upon and, as alleged, killing a number of people during the late riots, were brought up for examination to-day in the criminal court. They all swore they fired over the heads of the people. Judge Munro granted the policemen release on bail with two sureties for £750 in each case. Six of the men who took conspicuous parts in the riots were to-day committed for trial. The committing magistrate announced that it was the intention to treat all rioters in the same way.

Pleasant as syrup; nothing equals it as a worm medicine; the name is Mother Graves' Worm Exterminator. The greatest worm destroyer of the age.

An Efficient Remedy.

In all cases of Bronchial and Pulmonary Affections is AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL. As such it is recognized and prescribed by the medical profession, and in many thousands of families, for the past forty years, it has been regarded as an invaluable household remedy. It is a preparation that only requires to be taken in very small quantities, and a few doses of it administered in the early stages of a cold or cough will effect a speedy cure, and may, very possibly, save life. There is no doubt whatever that

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral

Has preserved the lives of great numbers of persons, by arresting the development of Laryngitis, Bronchitis, Pneumonia, and Pulmonary Consumption, and by the cure of those dangerous maladies. It should be kept ready for use in every family where there are children, as it is a medicine far superior to all others in the treatment of Croup, the alleviation of Whooping Cough, and the cure of Colds and Influenza, ailments peculiarly incidental to childhood and youth. Promptitude in dealing with all diseases of this class is of the utmost importance. The loss of a single day may, in many cases, entail fatal consequences. Do not waste precious time in experimenting with medicines of doubtful efficacy, while the malady is constantly gaining a deeper hold, but take at once the speediest and most certain to cure,

Latest by Telegraph

LAST NIGHT'S DESPATCHES.

Special to the Columbian.

LONDON, Aug. 23.—The Marquis of Salisbury returned to London this morning. He has had a long interview with the Earl of Iddlesleigh, foreign minister. The coup d'etat in Bulgaria was a complete surprise to to both ministers. Securities which were affected by the first receipt of news from Sofia are now recovering. A dispatch from Vienna to the Times contains the following: Prince Alexander was deposed by a conspiracy. He was escorted to Widden to embark thence on Sunday for Sevun in Wallachi, Roumania. A dispatch from Bucherest, the capital of Roumania, states that all news from Bulgaria comes at present through official sources, and that no private person is allowed to enter or leave Bulgaria. The telegraph lines, the dispatch adds, have all been stopped from operation. The story of the deposition is told as follows: Kaarvelof, the prime minister, entered the palace at Sofia and explained to Prince Alexander that public opinion in Bulgaria was dissatisfied with his policy, and demanded his deposition. Alexander said: "I see no friends: I cannot resist public opinion." Meetings have been held in Sofia and Rustichet, and in all of them the proclamation of the change of government was received with favor, the people rejoice over the coup which, they say, ended an intolerable situation. The Bulgarians are persuaded that Russia will now assist them to consummate a union which they think it is Turkey's design to frustrate. Alexander was taken completely by surprise. He was astounded at the sudden bursting of the plot upon him. Kaarveloff had managed the whole affair with such secrecy that the only indication of the coming storm was the mutinous spirit noticeable among the troops. Alexander had ordered the circulation of papers among them which declared that he was the only obstacle to union, but his orders in this regard had not been obeyed. The affection of the common people for Alexander personally remains undiminished. A telegram from Bucherest says the Roumanians are very much excited over the Bulgarian crisis. King Charles is personally presiding over a special meeting of the cabinet hastily convened, and Prince Bretanio is returning home from Goodra with all possible speed.

LONDON, Aug. 23.—News from Bulgaria severely depressed stocks on London exchange. British funds closed ¼ lower; Egyptian, Turkish, Russian, and Hungarian funds fell ¼, closing at lowest rates. At Newcastle freights were firmer all around.

ST. LOUIS, Aug. 23.—A dispatch from Elposo says Cutting has been released by the Chihuahua authorities.

DUBLIN, Aug. 23.—An immense meeting was held to-day at Carrick, on Seno, in aid of the Irish parliament fund. Resolutions were adopted declaring that the people would continue the home rule struggle for years if necessary. The wildest enthusiasm was exhibited, the audience standing with uncovered heads and singing "God save Ireland." Large sums of money were subscribed.

BERLIN, Aug. 23.—The North German Gazette says German interests are not touched by the Bulgarian accidents.

LONDON, Aug. 23.—A one-mile race at Lillie bridge to-day between George and Cummings was won by the former. The attendance was variously estimated at from 6,000 to 12,000. Cummings wore an elastic stocking in the race.

ST. PETERSBURG, Aug. 23.—The Russian press is less surprised at the deposition of Alexander than it was when Roumelia took precipitate action in 1883. Newspapers here generally, for some time past, have believed that the political tension in Bulgaria foreshadowed a catastrophe. Evanstra says Russia must now speak her weighty word if she does not wish to lose control of Bulgarian destinies. Novesta says it is highly probable that Russia will intervene directly and establish a new order of things in Bulgaria, and adds, "With Alexander deposed, Bulgarian sympathy with Russia will revive." Most of the Russian papers observe that the foreign papers manifest a confusion of ideas respecting the relations between the three emperors.

SOFIA, Aug. 23.—The government's proclamation announcing the deposition of Alexander and the reasons therefor declares that he rendered great services on the field of battle, but politically he had too little regard for Bulgaria's position as a Slav state and the maintenance of relations with Russia. His deposition on this account was necessary.

LONDON, Aug. 23.—The French feeling favors Prince Alexander's deposition, because the prince is a German. Frenchmen hope Russia's action in the emergency may embroil the central European powers. Nobody in Paris believes these powers connived at Prince Alexander's expulsion. The Times, commenting on the Bulgarian affair, says: "We fear it will be regarded, as far as Prince Alexander is concerned, as the end of the chapter. For him the general feeling will be one of respectful sympathy. The event must be regarded as a triumph of Russia in diplomacy, and a very impressive result. It is also, in a less degree, a reverse of England's diplomacy. It is only too clear that the marquis of Salisbury is confronted with all the dangers and difficulties in an aggravated form which he had to face on his first accession with the powers.

ST. PETERSBURG, Aug. 23.—The Messenger publishes an official communication stating that the relations between Russia and the other powers remain unaltered.

LONDON, Aug. 23.—When the news of Prince Alexander's deposition was received at the British foreign office yesterday the earl of Iddlesleigh, foreign minister, went during the evening to the foreign office and despatched messengers with the news to all the cabinet ministers known to be in the city, and sent special couriers to Salisbury at Hatfield house. There has been great activity at the foreign office all day, and almost continuous telegraph communication has been kept up with the foreign capitals.

SOFIA, Aug. 23.—The city has been declared in a state of siege.

LIVERPOOL, Aug. 23.—A special despatch to the Post from London states that Sir Michael Hicks-Beach, chief secretary for Ireland, regards the situation in Ireland with serious misgivings, and has become less sanguine about the success of any Irish policy based on "firmness and decision."

LONDON, Aug. 23.—In the house of commons to-night Mr. Labouchere, resuming the debate on the address in reply to the Queen's speech, said that Lord Randolph Churchill's recent electoral manifesto was an insult to the Radical party. He (Labouchere) was surprised that Hartington had never repudiated language applied by Churchill to Gladstone. He taunted the Whigs with being disguised, the Tories as well as the Whigs. He continued that there was a Birmingham gang under the leadership of Chamberlain. The family of the latter had doubtless done efficient municipal service, and Birmingham, therefore, out of sheer gratitude, had subordinated imperial interests to municipal gratitude. Outside of Birmingham the Chamberlainites had no influence whatever. Chamberlain thought no scheme could be a good one unless he himself was its author. Chamberlain could continue in his downward career until he should be gazetted Lord Chamberlain. (Laughter). The speaker urged Irishmen to continue their efforts by legitimate means to obtain their rights as a nation struggling to be free. (Cheers). The followers of Parnell had a right to be proud of their leader. The accusation that they were mercenary and receiving aid from America came with ill grace from English members who were not above pecuniary aid from the ducal house election fund. Continuing he said that winter was approaching, and the military were assisting in evictions of people many of whom were cast out on roadsides. Irishmen could not be blamed if they refused to submit tamely to such treatment, but he warned them that disorder would only serve as an excuse for resisting home rule and would insure coercion.

Sir Michael Hicks-Beach said it was the duty of the government to restore order and administer government in Ireland with the law as they found it. Why, he asked, did not Sir Wm. Harcourt move an amendment to the address instead of attempting to stab the government behind its back? If it was true that the government has encouraged outrage and promoted disorder in Ireland, they ought to be impeached. The government proposed two things, to administer the law and to consider carefully a scheme of decentralization in the direction of local self government, framed upon a popular basis. (Parnellite laughter.) The latter scheme would be framed as far as the people could go to meet the exigency of Ireland (cheers), but in accordance with the verdict of last elections. (Cheers.) That was their whole policy. The government hoped that when their tenure of office closed they would leave Ireland more peaceful and orderly and prosperous than they had found it. (Cheers.)

Mr. Morely, upon rising, was loudly cheered by the Parnellites. He said he had never denied that dissenters had a perfect right to discuss Mr. Gladstone's proposals freely. Lord Hartington was amply justified in disavowing any disrespect toward Mr. Gladstone, but the same could not be said of other parties to the controversy. He had observed little in the language of his noble friend to encourage a hope that the difficulty would be soon adjusted, and he maintained that a majority of Liberals with Gladstone must wait and see if it was possible to justify their past action. They should constantly spare no pains to convert the country to their way of thinking. (Cheers.) He admitted it was the duty of the government to suppress disorder, but he feared they would fail now as they had failed in 1885. He said that an increase of outrages always followed an increase of evictions. It was supposed that social order could be restored without dealing with the agrarian question. The government proposed to stop outrages on one hand and to encourage evictions on the other. (Cheers.) He doubted if any good would be accomplished by sending Sir Redverse Buller to Ireland, because that gentleman would be unable to devise any new means for the detection of crimes which the public desired to conceal. The league had done its utmost to prevent crime, and its failure was evidence of how deep rooted disorder was, but Mr. Parnell was right when he said, if under home rule outrages continue, the rest of Ireland would soon put a stop to them. The proposals of the late government had made the task of restoring order an easy one because they had given the Irish people a measure of patience which they had never had before. He was disappointed by the narrowness of the proposals which the government had produced. Moreover, the land commission would be likely to have a mischievous effect upon social order in October and November, as landlords would be tempted to extort the utmost in order to prove that rents were not too high, and tenants would have an equal interest in withholding rents for the opposite reason. If they were to have a land bill such as Lord Salisbury had foreshadowed, he believed the country would soon wish it had accepted Gladstone's measure. Continuing, Morely said that the appointment of a commission to enquire into the condition of Irish industries was entirely unnecessary, as all desired information on that subject was already in the hands of the government. He considered the proposal to spend millions of English money on public works in Ireland was of more doubtful expediency than any proposal that could have emanated from the government. Besides it was a measure of centralization, and was introduced at the same time that local government was promised. (Cheers.) In conclusion he said they would never be able to make a step toward permanent settlement till they had given Ireland a statutory parliament and an Irish executive. (Cheers.) Mr. Parnell adjourned the debate.
