Daily British Columbian

Thursday Evening, Sept. 15, 1887.

A police functionary of high rank told me recently that the revolutionary move is increasing throughout Russia, despite the extremely severe measures adopted by the Government for some time past. The Minister of the Interior has issued orders to watch rigorously all academies and schools, as it has been discovered that the students are collecting money secretly for revolutionary purposes. I am informed on good authority from another source that the priests in several provinces of Russia are now among the most energetic members of the revolutionary party.—St Petersbury despatch to London Times.

It is stated that one of the amusing features of Pacific coast travel is a great number of Indian canoes and paddles which tourists bring from Alaska as old Indian relics. Most of these paddles are made and painted by Chinamen in San Francisco, shipped to Alaska points, and sold as Indian relics, brought down to Tacoma on the steamers, and carried thousands of miles away. The Atlantic side is not to be outdone in this regard, judging from the number of orange canes manufactured in New York that are daily sent away by thousands as souvenirs from Florida. Mr. Barnum was right when he remarked that the dear public loved to be humbugged.—Chicago Inter-Ocean.

On one occasion, while in a barroom, Van Amburgh, the great lion tamer, now dead, was asked now he got his wonderful power over the animals. He said: "It is by showing them that I'm not the least afraid of them, and by keeping my eye steadily on theirs. I'll give you an example of the power of my eye." Pointing to a loutish fellow who was sitting opposite, Van Amburgh said: "You see that fellow? He's a regular clown. I'll make him come across the room to me, and I won't say a word to him." Sitting down, he fixed his keen, steady eye on the man. Presently the fellow straightened himself gradually, got up, and came across to Van Amburgh. When he got close enough he drew back his arm and struck the tamer a tremendous blow under the chin, knocking him clear over the chair, with the remark, "I hope you'll know me ag'in." —New York Graphic.

"Two nations, but one people," let us hope will always be the keynote of Anglo-American policy. A third nation, but not another people, may Canada become in time—is already so, indeed, in a sense; and it is to to the honor of Mr. Cleveland's Administration that they have throughout steadily endeavored to compose a difference among these nations that has been a lasting danger to their agreement as a people. War for any cause among the nations of the Ango-Saxon race would be a staggering blow for civilization, and disgraceful to all concerned. Quarrels will arise, causes of war even be bred, in the friction of competition; but, as in this case of the fisheries, the two nations, of one blood, one speech, one system of laws, one habit of thinking, have only to carry their dispute into court to have it fairly adjudged, instead of coming to blows outside like les autres. Mr. Cleveland has done well in the fisheries matter; may he be able to complete the work, crowning his Presidency with honor, by the conclusion of a permanent arbitration treaty with England.—The Week.

The steamship Anchoria of the Anchor line, which arrived yesterday, met a tornado on Saturday, 180 miles from Sandy Hook. The wind came on from the north-east, and in a very short time there was a tremendous sea running. The rain came down in such floods that the crew were scarcely able to stand up on deck. The lightning poured in streams of a minute's duration from the clouds to the water, while globes of blue flame played up and down the rigging and danced along the yards, and leaped from masts incessantly, terrifying passengers and seamen alike. For about two hours the wind blew at eighty miles an hour. Neither lookout nor pilot could see beyond the ship's rail, because of the solid sheets of rain and flying clouds of spray in which the ship seemed to be walled up as by a fog. The engines were run dead slow, and the ship lay to head to the gale. At the end of two hours the gale broke and pleasant weather soon followed. No damage was done by either wind or electricity. The steamship Glenartney from Shanghai was in the same storm and had well-definited turfts of electric fire on each masthead.—New York Sun.

LAST NIGHT'S DESPATCHES.

MR. NORQUAY'S TROUBLES.

NEW YORK, Sept. 14.—Hon. John Norquay, premier of the province of Manitoba, was found at the Victoria Hotel by a press news reporter this afternoon. He said that he intended to remain in New York until next Wednesday. By that time, he said, he would have consummated one way or the other the business he is upon, which was to get capital to build the railway. He would know by Wednesday whether he could secure this capital or not. He said that capitalist bound up bankers had told him that funds were tied up tight, as investors had a fear of some impending crisis. Mr. Norquay added that he did not think this was said by the money lenders with a view to bluff him off. What the particulars of his work here was, he would not say, as it would be indiscreet for him to place his antagonists in possession of his schemes. The reporter interviewed a leading financial gentleman whose house is engaged in floating government, state and other securities. He said that there was little or no chance of money being raised in New York for such purposes as the construction of the Red River Valley road. In the first place, money was, as Mr. Norquay stated, tight; in the second place, no house of any standing would look at a loan of such a nature as this, which was surrounded with so many elements of risk and uncertainty.

THIS AFTERNOON'S DESPATCHES.

THE INJUNCTIONS WILL NOT STAND.

WINNIPEG, Sept. 15.—In the Browning injunction case this morning Chief Justice Wallbridge expressed his opinion that he would have to decide that the province has been proceeding legally in constructing the Red River Valley railroad under the public works act. This will probably throw out all private cases and leave the Dominion injunction against crossing its lands to be pitted against a properly legalized work.

CANADIAN STATESMEN ABROAD:

TORONTO, Sept. 15. — The Globe cable says: Sir Charles Tupper sails by str. Nova Scotian for Halifax on Tuesday. Mackenzie Bowell is now in Switzerland and returns at the end of the month.

THE TORONTO EXHIBITION.

TORONTO, Sept. 15.—This was farmers' day at the exhibition, and it was a great success, being the largest attendance since the opening, considerably over sixty thousand people being present. Governor Campbell, Hon. Messrs. Mowat, Hardy, and other notables were present. Mowat returned this morning from England, looking well and feeling much benefitted by his trip.

CALLED HIM A TYRANT.

SHERBROOKE, Sept. 15. — While Lord Lansdowne was speaking at the opening of the eastern township exhibition he was greatly interrupted by an Irishman named Michael Lynch, who called him tyrant and other names. The man was promptly arrested.

A WONDERFUL CHANGE.

OTTAWA, Sept. 15.—The local election in Ottawa county between Cormier, Conservative, and Rochon, Liberal, has resulted in a victory for Premier Mercier. Rochon's majority is 1141. It is over 30 years since the county returned a liberal candidate.

A gentleman who has been in Manitoba writes to the Free Press that he has been informed by head officials of the C.P.R. that the workshops will be removed to Fort William.

ANOTHER CONVERT.

LONDON, Sept. 15.—It is reported the Duke of Devonshire has been converted to Gladstone's Irish policy and is trying to induce his son, Lord Hartington, to abandon the dissentients party.

MORE HONORS FOR SIR JOHN.

TORONTO, Sept. 15.—The Young Men's Liberal-Conservative Association was in session here for the last two days elected Sir John and Meredith honorary presidents. Great regret was expressed at Sir John's inability to attend.

HORSES BURNED.

SHERBROOKE Sept. 15.—A fire broke out in the stables at the Exhibition grounds and before it could be stopped 30 valuable, horses were burned to death.

DIRECTORS ELECTED.

NEW YORK, Sept. 15.—The stock-holders of the Northern Pacific Railroad met to-day and voted for directors for the ensuing year. The meeting adjourned until to-morrow to give the tellers a chance to count votes. The following is the only ticket that was in the field and were immediately elected: August Belmont, Frederick Billings, John V. Brookman, Benj. P. Cheney, Robert Harris, Brayton Ives, Thomas F. Oaks, Chas. B. Wright, Henry Villard, Edwin H. Abbott, Chas. L. Colby, Colgate Hoyt, and John B. Trevor.

Geo. Dodge, sr., a well-known citizen of Emporium, writes that one of his men (Sam Lewis) whilst working in the woods so severely sprained his ankle that he could scarcely get home, but after one or two applications of Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil he was able to go to work next day.

Communications.

Another from Mr. Kennedy.

EDITOR COLUMBIAN.—I am happy to inform you that Woods, Turner & Gamble have at last deposited with the city clerk a profile of city grades. If this had been done when I went to get the grade of Mary street last June it would have saved me a very unpleasant duty. Why these profiles should have not been furnished to the public before now is a question which the public would like to have answered. I never held Woods, Turner & Gamble responsible. The Mayor and council are responsible to the ratepayers for anything that may be done, or left undone, which is against the public convenience. If Woods, Turner & Co. see fit to rush into a libel suit against me, for making public what every ratepayer should know, they are at liberty.

JAMES KENNEDY.

N. W., 15th Sept., 1887.

The Price of Sugar.

EDITOR COLUMBIAN,—In your last night's issue you have a paragraph to the effect that while in Britain granulated sugar can be bought at about 3½ cents per pound, in Canada it cannot be bought less than 7½ cents. That this is not quite correct (in spite of the efforts of the "combine") will be seen by the enclosed paragraph clipped from the Montreal Herald of Sept. 5th. Yours, &c., SACCHE.

ROUGH ON THE COMBINE.—Messrs. J. A. Mathewson & Co. will this morning land from the steamship Vancouver 250 barrels of pure cane Liverpool sugar, granulated, which they are prepared to sell at seven cents per lb. wholesale, and they are satisfied with the profit that this leaves them.

[There is something radically wrong in our commercial system when sugar can be imported from England and sold at a profit in Montreal.—ED.]

Fruit Culture.

EDITOR COLUMBIAN,—I think the time has arrived when the people of British Columbia should co-operate as one man in establishing our fruit growing industry on a thorough and solid basis. Prof. Saunders, on behalf of the Dominion government, is about to locate a site for a model farm. A model farm! Forsooth! It seems that nothing can be done in this Dominion unless it is following exactly in the footsteps of the Yankees. Because they started model farms, every province in the Dominion must follow suit and have a model farm too! I suppose if we were only a vast mining region still our model farm would be a sine qua non! But a truce to jesting when a matter of such serious import as the foundation of our future industry is at stake. In the interests, then, of the people of this province, I would suggest that a committee be formed of practical workers to wait on this gentleman and to tell him, in the name of the people what we want and what the government should do. Secondly, I would suggest that a British Columbia Fruit Growers Association be formed to act in conjunction with the government in establishing this industry. In conclusion, may I urge upon the people the importance of making a common cause in this respect, and by cheerful and hearty co-operation establishing that industry which can alone make our province second to none in the Dominion. Yours, &c.,

MAYNE ISLAND.

Mr. H. McCaw, Custom House, Toronto, writes: "My wife was troubled with Dyspepsia and Rheumatism for a long time; she tried many different medicines, but did not get any relief until she used Northrop & Lyman's Vegetable Discovery and Dyspeptic Cure. She has taken two bottles of it, and now finds herself in better health than she has been for years."

The Great French Remedy, Dr. Le-Duc's Periodical Pills. These Pills are compounded from the purest drugs, and from those only which are known to act upon the Generative Organs in Females. They are first enclosed in an air-tight capsule, and by this means made to retain their full strength for years in any climate. Ask us for private circular. A. M. HEARNE & D. S. Daily British Columbian

Thursday Evening, Sept. 15, 1887.

The uncertainties of law are beautifully illustrated in the case of the Northwestern Transportation Co. vs. Beatty, in which judgment was given a few days ago by the British Privy Council. The plaintiff in this case was Henry Beatty, manager of the C. P. R. steamship lines, and formerly manager of the Northwestern Transportation Co. It seems that J. H. Beatty, who held a large interest in the N.W.T. Co., and was one of the directors, sold the company his steamer the United Empire. The plaintiff in this case took action to set aside the sale on the ground that J. H. Beatty had no right as a director to become a party to the purchase of a steamer from himself. The matter first came before the chancellor of Ontario, who ordered the sale to be set aside. An appeal was taken to the court of appeal of Ontario, which ordered the plaintiff's bill to be dismissed with costs. Plaintiff then appealed to the supreme court of Canada, where the judgment of the Ontario court of appeal was reversed. Then the defendant carried the case to the Privy Council, where the Canadian supreme court's decision was set aside and the judgment of the Ontario court of appeal reaffirmed! The costs after such a series of reversals must have been enormous, and it is satisfactory to know that there are no other tribunals to which the matter may be carried.

In another column we publish a communication calling attention to the importance of developing fruit culture in this province. We are not prepared to say that the cultivation of fruit is our most important provincial industry, but it certainly is one which demands very serious attention. The testimony of those who have visited us, added to the experience of our own fruit growers, leaves no room to doubt the adaptability of our climate and soil and circumstances for the successful production of fruit. A large area of the southern portion of the province is admirably suited for this purpose, and there is no other place in Canada where fruit can be produced in such abundance and with so little labor. Moreover, we have an excellent and growing market conveniently adjacent, on the east side of the mountains, where the demand for fruit is always in excess of the supply. At present enormous quantities of fruit are being shipped from California to this province and the Northwest because our local producers are not able to meet even the local demand. The money that goes out of the country in payment for this fruit ought to go into the pockets of our own fruit growers—and it will just as soon as they are able to supply the market. Within the past two or three years a great deal of ground has been covered with fruit trees, and if the same enterprise continues we shall be able shortly to produce all the fruit required for ourselves and our nearest neighbors east of the mountains. It is important, however, to get the best kinds of fruit and adopt the best methods, and this can best be accomplished by organized effort.

A few days ago we pointed out the danger which threatened destruction to the old political parties in the United States through a multiplication of other organizations brought together with various objects in view. The New York Witness of the 7th inst. holds similar views. It says: "The Mugwump Democrats of Maryland are supporting the Republican ticket, and the liquor-loving members of the Republican party in Iowa are bolting their party platform and nominations. With two or three labor parties, a greenback party and a prohibition party in the field, it is becoming more and more evident that the old parties are not going to have all the fun between them much longer." Almost every day one hears of new divisions among the American politicians. Of late the reform party seems to have been losing faith in the honesty of President Cleveland. The first year or more of his administration was marked by a fairly honest application of the principle of civil service reform which had been a principal plank in the platform of his supporters. His firmness in resisting the importunities of Democratic machine politicians who were hungry for spoils was the very quality which had secured for him the votes of thousands of honest Republicans who had a higher regard for principle than for party. But, for reasons which no one has explained, many of the more recent appointments of the president have been anything but creditable to him. Especially in Maryland he has given offices of trust to spoils politicians whose record should have excluded them from all executive favor. As a result there is a split in the Democratic party of Maryland. Honorable men belonging to that party have become so disgusted at the presidential appointments that they have openly declared against the Democratic state ticket, and signified an intention to support the Republicans. If this serious defection is not healed, and others prevented, the outlook for the Democrats at the next election will be anything but hopeful.

PEOPLE WHO RESIDE OR SOJOURN in regions of country where fever and ague and bilious remittent fever are prevalent, should be particularly careful to regulate digestion, the liver and the bowels, before the approach of the season for the periodic malady. The timely use of Northrop & Lyman's Vegetable Discovery and Dyspeptic Cure is a valuable safeguard against the malarial scourge. It is acknowledged to be the best blood purifier in the market.

NOTICE

To Bridge Engineers and Contractors.

THE HONORABLE THE CHIEF COMmissioner of Lands and Works hereby invites Bridge Contractors to submit plans, details, specifications, straining sheets, and tender for the construction of a Traffic Bridge, to cross the Fraser River at Lillooet, up to noon of Saturday, 29th of October next.

Required—One clear span of 300 feet in length; approach (on the west side) three spans of 54 feet each; width of roadway, 15 feet; live load, 1,000 lbs. per foot; factor of safety, 5.

False work can only be erected in winter when the river is frozen over.

The bridge site is about 55 miles from Ashcroft Station, on the Canadian Pacific Railway, with which it is connected by wagon road.

Each tender must be accompanied by an accepted bank cheque for $500, payable to the Honorable Chief Commissioner of Lands and Works, which will be returned to unsuccessful competitors, but will be forfeited by any bidder who may decline to execute a contract if called upon to do so.

The contractor will be required to give satisfactory security, amounting to half the contract price, for the due fulfilment of the contract, and for the maintenance of the bridge for a period of six months from the date of the completion of the work.

A plan and profile of the site can be seen at the office of the undersigned.

TEMPERANCE.

A LAMENT.

The following poem was written by the late Richard Lyle, of Danville, Va., a lawyer of fine legal and literary attainments, who plunged himself into despair through the "sparkling glass."

I have been to the funeral of all my hopes,
And have entombed them one by one;
Not a word was said,
Not a tear was shed,
When the mournful task was done,

Slowly and sadly I turned me round
And sought my silent room,
And there alone
By the cold hearthstone
I wooed the midnight gloom,

And as the night wind's deepening shade
Lowered above my brow,
I went o'er days
When manhood's rays
Were brighter far than now.

The dying embers on the hearth
Gave out their flickering light,
As if to say,
This is the way
Thy life shall close in night.

I wept aloud in anguish sore
O'er the blight of prospects fair,
While demons laughed,
And eager quaffed
My tears like nectar rare.

Through hell's red halls an echo rang,
An echo loud and long,
As in the bowl
I plunged my soul
In might of madness strong.

And there within that sparkling glass
I knew the cause to lie:
This all men owe
From zone to zone,
Yet millions drink and die.

Richmond Christian Advocate.

A Bundle of papers was sent to one of the ladies in Cincinnati, who distributed them in the market, at the hospital and jail.

Two months afterwards she was stopped on the street by a German woman, who told her the following story:

"You shoost stop von minute vile I tells you vot is in mine heart. You come von day to mine stall in de market, you give mine old man a paper, and you gives me a paper. Ven I goes to mine home, mine children dey cries for dere dinner. I says: 'You shoost keep still, and I vill give you von paper a womans gave me in de market.' So dey spreads a paper on de floor, und dey kicks up their heels, und dey looks hard at de pictures.

"Vile I gets mine dinner, dey visper. Mine little poy he says: 'Dat is pap mid de bottle! dat leetle poy vot hides hind his mudder's dress is me, ven I'm skeered at pappy, und de baby is Helwig, cause dat is shoost de vay he hides hind mudder's ear when pappy's drunk.' Den dey say: 'Mudder, vat dat woman do mit de table?'

"I says: 'De temperance voman vants de man to sign de pledge, und say he vill drink no more beer or whisky; den his wife und children be no more feared of him.'

"Dey looks hard at de picter, den dey vispers und dey say: 'Mudder, will pappy look nice like de udder picter, would he sign de pledge?'

"Und I says: 'Yes, childrens, your fadder would look shoost like dat if he goes no more to saloons.'

"Mine old man den he comes into his dinner. He loves his children ven he is sober. My children dey see he no drunk, so dey runs to him mit de papers, und dey say: 'Pappy, dat is you mit the bottle, und dat voman is mudder, und de baby vot hides hind his mudder's ear is Helwig. Pappy vont you go to de temperance voman's mit de table, unt sign de pledge, und den you vill look shoost like dat nice man mit de cane, und Helwig he vill look shoost like dis baby vot tries to shump out his mudder's arms, und is so glad to see his pappy?'

"Mine old man he get so mat, und he says: 'I eat no dinner, I hates de temperance, I hates de temperance,' und my children dey cry dey be so scared. My old man he slams de door, und he goes off. He comes home to supper und he say de first ting: 'I hates de temperance, I hates de temperance,' und he no speak to the children dey be so skeered.

"After supper, mine old man he makes de children go to pet, und he smokes, und he scolds, und he gets so mat he no goes to de saloon, like he always does all his life mit me.

"Ven it was bedtime mine old man he lay down his pipe und he says: 'Old voman, I'se no been good to you; I gets drunk no more; I goes no more to saloons; mine heart is sick mit vat mine children say: I loves mine vife, I loves mine children ven I gets no drunk.' Den I put mine apron to mine eyes, und I cries, und mine old man he cries. Den we stand by de childer's bed, und mine old man he kiss me, und he kiss de children, und he says: 'Mine heart is so sick all de day mit vat de children says to me.'

"I tells you I loves dat leetle paper; mine heart is so glad dat you gives it to me. I folds it up shoost so nice, und I puts it mit a handkerchief round, und I puts it in mine under drawer in mine bureau, mit mine children's tings vat died."

Alcohol on the Muscle.

We put a drop of alcohol into a man's It poisons. We try it upon the of a living stomach. Again it it. We study, after death the hs of drinking men, and find alcoducces, in regular stages, redness, congestion, morbid secretions, hurt, destruction of parts, utter We study its influence upon the d strength of sailors and soldiers, it helps to freeze them in the egions and exhaust them in the We watch two regiments on a march in India, one with and the r without grog; and are driven to the nclusion that even moderate quantities of alcohol weaken the muscles and break the endurance. We visit the training ground of oarsmen, pedestrians and prize fighters, and learn everywhere the same lesson—alcohol is a poison to muscle and brain.—Dio Lewis' Nuggets.

Discoveries in Palestine.

Those who are working for the Palestine Exploration Fund in Jerusalem are, it is said, on the eve of most important discoveries. It is well known, writes the London correspondent of the Manchester Guardian, that there are three walls of Jerusalem, of which the first is attributed to the time of David, and the second to that of Nehemiah, while the third was much later, and not more than an unimportant outwork. In the days of Christ, the second was to all intents and purposes the city wall. Portions of a wall have lately been uncovered which, on account of its characteristic old Jewish workmanship, experts aver is beyond all doubt the second wall. Now this seems to travel in such a direction that the Holy Sepulchre would be included in its ambit. If further excavations should prove this conjecture to be true, it would be shown to demonstration that the so-called "holy places" cannot be what they are said to be, for it is certain that the Sepulchre must have been outside the walls.

A STAMPEDE.

Did you ever see a stampede of buffaloes? No! Well, the man who has seen one, and lived to tell of it, has witnessed a spectacle to be vividly remembered all his days.

A stampede was a common occurrence in the life of every western hunter twenty years ago; but no one will ever look upon one again. The hide hunters have not left a score of the animals alive.

What creates a stampede? Nothing—anything. While the buffalo is born in a wild state, and ought to get accustomed to storms, the sight of wolves, and all kinds of noises, he is the most timid animal on earth. I have seen the coming up of a dark cloud stampede ten thousand buffaloes. I have known the howl of a wolf to set a big herd in motion. A flash of lightning or a clap of thunder seemed to scare them half to death, although you would argue that they would get used to it. And once started nothing but a mountain could turn the great wave aside and only exhaustion would bring them back to their senses. After a herd had fairly started, terror seemed to take complete possession of them, and it was the devil seize the last one. Then it was woe to the pioneer or hunter who happened to be in their path without a grove to shelter them.

I saw, in 1867, on the Loup Fork of the Platte River, an emigrant camp which had been run over by a stampede. There had been seven wagons and 24 people, with about 30 head of horses and cattle. The rushing, terror-stricken herd struck the camp just at daybreak and was 15 or 20 minutes passing. Only one human being escaped—a man who was carried off on the back of a buffalo, and left at a spot 10 miles away. Not an animal was left, not a vehicle escaped destruction. I saw the site of the camp about noon of that day, and there wasn't a piece of any of the heavy wagons which I could not have carried off under my arm. The people had been tramped into the earth—annihilated—wiped out. The remains could scarcely be recognized as those of human beings.

But as to my own adventure. There were four hunters of us in the locality spoken of, killing various kinds of game and doing a little trapping, and though plenty of redskins were in that country, they did not get on to us for a week. We had a camp on a small run or creek, with a grove of about a dozen trees for shelter, and about two miles to the north was a spring and another grove.

The indians hadn't got hold of Winchesters and knew nothing of revolvers in those days, and a war party of less than 25 would have hesitated to attack four hunters. We kept our eyes open, however, and one was on the watch while the other three slept. We had been in camp nine or ten days, and constantly surrounded by buffaloes, when, one afternoon, just before sunset, it was apparent from the actions of the animals that something was in the wind. The detachments were consolidating, all stray bulls joining the herds, and almost every buffalo ceased feeding and acted anxiously and ill at ease.

That meant indians. Curious as you may think it, the presence of an indian will disturb the buffaloes sooner than that of the white man. We couldn't say whether it was a war party hanging around to attack us, or a hunting party hovering on the flanks of the great herd, but we made all preparations that night to defend ourselves.

I have spoken of the second grove. It was composed of a few stunted cottonwoods, and was in no sense a shelter. Now this is what happened during the night.—A war party of about 35 Indians took up their position in this little grove, calculating to sweep down on us at daybreak and carry our camp by storm. Along toward daylight they mounted and rode softly down to within a quarter of a mile of us, and there waited for day to break. They would be observed by the sentinel, but would make a rush and carry the camp. Well, it was just coming day, and five minutes more would have discovered them to the sentinel, when the big herd, which had been gathering to the north of us, began a stampede. The sentinel heard them at the first start off, and roused us up, and by the time we had our guns in hand we could see the indian war party. They knew what was up better than we did, but they were caught between two fires, and the chief was too slow-witted for the occasion. His policy should have been to charge us. He might have lost six or eight men, but the shelter of the grove would have saved the rest and given them our scalps to boot. He might not have known our strength, and so, after spending the valuable minutes in reflection, he ordered the party off to the left. The only hope they could have was in riding across the face of the herd, but that was out of the question. The front covered, as we afterward knew a distance of seven miles, and the indians had barely got started when the first buffaloes were in sight.

They came thicker than bees, their heads down, horns rubbing, and feet making a great clatter, and while we looked we saw the war party swallowed up in that great heaving sea of animal life. A moment later an old bull dashed into and through the grove, and every man sprang for a tree. As I was climbing up my feet struck a buffalo on the back, and before I was secure only the five largest trees in the grove were standing. All others had been uprooted by contact, and three crippled animals were lying on the ground beneath me. Our horses, camp, everything, went in two minutes. The noise was 10 times more deafening than a hurricane at sea, and the terror of the animals was something appalling.

I have told you that the front of the herd was seven miles across. You can judge what the depth must have been when I tell you that they were three hours in passing. Every animal was running for his life, and his pace could not have been less than 10 miles an hour. I shouldn't hesitate to make affidavit that the herd was a good 30 miles deep. The animals ran, as we afterward knew, fully 40 miles before they slowed down at all. When the last one had passed us the country about us was a sight to behold. There were at least 150 dead or crippled animals in sight, and there was a swath seven miles wide, which had cut the very life out of the prairie. Of all our camp equipage we could not find one solitary article of wood, or iron, or leather. All our horses had been trampled under within less than a mile of the grove, and their bodies were sights no one could look at twice. We spread out to see what fate had befallen the Indians, and we did not have to go far. They had been knocked down and stamped into the earth. A member of the same tribe, with whom I talked a year later, told me that not one survived, and the loss had almost demoralized the tribe.

A well-known Mrs. Malaprop in Washington society in speaking of a young friend said lately:

"I always felt especial interest in Mrs. —— because she was [illegible] tem child."—[Washington [illegible]

WHAT PHYSICIANS SAY ABOUT THE STARR KIDNEY PAD.

"Treatment by Absorption has for some time been recognized by Medical Men to be the most simple and effectual means of conveying to Diseased Organs, "Curatives," but in cases of Kidney Disease and Complaints attendant thereon, successful treatment was practically impossible until the introduction of the Starr Kidney Pad. It costs less than a single prescription and is immeasurably more decisive and effective than any quantity of internal Medicinal dosing. Worn immediately over the seat of Disease, its curative properties become absorbed by the diseased and enfeebled Organs, continuously and directly, as required to insure in return their healthy action and original vigour. It is comfortable to the patient and pleasant in its effects, and cures when nothing else can. The Starr Kidney Pad accomplishes positive, decisive results. A more valuable discovery as a true remedy for Kidney Diseases was never made.—Medical Gazette

The Starr Kidney Pad, manufactured in Toronto, is a permanent sure cure for diseases, disorders and ailments of the Kidneys, Bladder and urinary secretive system, or attendant complaints, causing pain in the small of the back, sides, etc., producing urinary disorders, such as too frequent, scanty, difficult, painful or copious micturition, inability of retention and sedimentary urine, dropsical symptoms, etc., denoting the presence in the system of diseases common to the urinary secretive organs—known as gravel, catarrh of the bladder and passages, Bright's disease, diabetes, dropsy, piles, nervous debility, etc. Send for pamphlet to LANGLEY & CO., Wholesale Agents, Victoria. HEAD OFFICE, TORONTO, CANADA

A HOME COMPANY.

This Association merits the confidence the Public is reposing in it from the following FACTS:—

The Security offered to policy holders is unsurpassed by any Company doing business in Canada.

It has no schemes of insurance, but the well-established lines, hence the policy holders cannot be misled as to their contracts.

Its statements to the public can be readily understood, its cash statement showing every item of income and how expended.

Its position is ascertained annually from a detailed valuation in which every item of liability is included.

Its progress has been unexampled in the history of insurance in Canada.

Its policies are indisputable after three years, and non-forfeitable after two years' existence.

Its profits are distributed upon an equitable basis. The profits to one class of policy holders are not lessened to give larger profits to any other class, which method affords superior advantages over the uniform bonus plan of distribution.

Liberal Conditions as to Residence and Travel.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS THIS DAY.

Delta Stock Yards.....H. N. Rich

Daily British Columbian

Thursday Evening, Sept. 15, 1887.

Seven carloads of eastern freight arrived this afternoon.

We regret to learn that Sergt-major McMurphy is seriously ill.

C. McDonough received a car load of merchandise from Montreal to-day.

The salmon run was a little better last night, the boats averaging about 30 each.

Five carloads of eastern freight arrived last night billed principally for Victoria.

A letter addressed to John Morrison, Victoria, is held for postage at Westminster postoffice.

The str. Irving cleared for Hope at 4 o'clock this morning, taking 20 passengers and 45 tons of freight.

Ogle, Campbell & Co. are showing this week a beautiful line of Ladies' Gossamers. Call and see them.
dse13t5

So much freight has accumulated on the C. P. N. Co's. wharf during the last few days that the Rithet could not carry it all away.

Messrs. Rand Bros. have closed their Victoria office and will confine their business hereafter to Westminster and Vancouver.

The wires went down east of Revelstroke this mornning and remained useless until 3 o'clock, when connection was again made with Winnipeg.

A man named Williams was fined $1 and costs by the police magistrate this morning for allowing his cow to roam at large with a bell round its neck, in contravention of the city by-law.

From an advertisement in another column it will be seen that Mr. H. N. Rich will hold the autumn stock and implement sale at the Delta Stock Yards, Ladners, on the 12th October.

The wet weather to-day caused a total suspension of all outside work on the numerous buildings now under construction. A few weeks more of fine weather is badly required by the contractors.

According to a parliamentary return, the British National debt decreased $29,199,518 during the last financial year, and $490,813,513 in the last thirty years. Present amount is $3,582,732,096.

A meeting of the projectors of the proposed fruit growers association will be held in the Club to-morrow evening at 8:30 o'clock. Everyone having the interests of fruit growing at heart is requested to attend.

The str. Rithet cleared for Victoria this morning at 7 o'clock with 20 passengers. Her freight list which was unusually large consisted of 40 head of cattle from Kamloops and 208 tons general merchandise from eastern points.

The report that the effort to establish a new Conservative newspaper in Toronto had failed is now contradicted. It is said that $150,000 of stock has already been subscribed, and as soon as $50,000 more has been taken the paper will be issued.

Rain is very welcome to persons whose fields are parched with draught, but builders do not regard it with much favor. A rainy day in this city, where building operations are being so extensively carried on, throws hundreds of men out of a day's work.

For two nights in succession the lamp on the waterside, near the C. P. R. freight sheds, has not been lighted, and for what reason cannot be learned. The spot is a very dangerous one, especially on dark nights, and if this negligence is allowed to be continued some serious accident will certainly happen. Let the authorities look too this matter in time to save a bill of damages.

PEOPLE WHO RESIDE OR SOJOURN in regions of country where fever and ague and bilious remittent fever are prevalent, should be particularly careful to regulate digestion, the liver and the bowels, before the approach of the season for the periodic malady. The timely use of Northrop & Lyman's Vegetable Discovery and Dyspeptic Cure is a valuable safeguard against the malarial scourge. It is acknowledged to be the best blood purifier in the market.

CONTRACT AWARDED.—The contract for Mr. James Harvey's brick block has been awarded to Jas. Turnbull. The building will be 45x60 ft.; the lot on which it will be built adjoins Mounce's bakery on Front street. Work will be commenced immediately and pushed through to completion.

STRUCK A SNAG.—Last evening while the snag boat Samson was backing out from its moorings it struck a snag in the shape of a salmon net which was floating peacefully down the stream in tow of a fishing boat. The wheel of the steamer got badly mixed up with the net and it required much delicate persuasion and some strong and forcible language to entice the wheel to let go its hold. Neither snag boat or net suffered any great amount of damage.

THE ROYAL CITY.—Notwithstanding the phenomenal strides Vancouver is making, Westminster is not going back. On the contrary her progress this year has been the greatest witnessed for many years. Magnificent blocks of buildings are raising their tops heavenwards, as are also villas and substantial residences throughout the city and in its proximity. All this indicates unmistakably a strong feeling of confidence on the part of the citizens in the stability of the place and its future prospects.—Vic. Times.

THE RIFLES PARADE.—The rifle company, under Capt. Scoullar, paraded last night at 8 o'clock for annual drill. The men turned out in good numbers and exhibited by their strict attention to drill and the manner in which the movements were performed that they are still determined to retain the proud distinction of "second to none." The Drill Shed is much too small, even for company drill, and a movement should be set on foot at once by our citizens to petition the government, through Mr. Chisholm, our member, for a larger and better appointed drill hall.

THE CRICKET MATCH.—The match on Saturday with the Vancouver club promises to be a very interesting event although our eleven aren ot likely to come out of the contest successful owing to lack of practice. The Vancouver club on the other hand has been practicing steadily for the last two months, during which time it has played a match almost every week, therefore they ought to play in splendid form on Saturday. The match will begin at 10:30 and two innings will be played. The following gentlemen will compose the Westminster eleven: Cotton, Monck, Woods, Falding, Dockrill, Read, Walker, H. Wilson, Lewis, Tyler, Fletcher. Spare men Gamble and Webb.

Much distress and sickness in children is caused by worms. Mother Graves' Worm Exterminator gives relief by removing the cause. Give it a trial and be convinced.

The Championship in Danger.

The municipal council of Victoria has gained a provincial notorety for the lively character of its proceedings. But it hasn't quite a monopoly of this kind of entertainment. At a meeting of the separate school board, held lately in the great moral city of Toronto, and presided over by the Rev. Vicar-General Rooney, some very lively work was done. It seems that the trustee board had taken part in the jubilee procession, and the result was a bill of $48 for cab hire. One of the trustees, Mulligan, stoutly opposed payment of this bill, and went so far as to say that the jubilee affair "was nothing more nor less than an Orange procession!" This brought every trustee to his feet, and Kennedy we are told, shouted across the table, at the top of his voice, "Mulligan, you're a liar; Mulligan you're a liar, and you know it! If I had you outside I would break your big long nose!" In vigor the language used by the Toronto trustee is quite up to anything hitherto reported from Victoria council; but if Mayor Fell and councillor Barnard remain in the council next year, we are inclined to think Kennedy will be nowhere.

Military Supper.

Last evening after parade the officers of the rifle company invited the non com. officers and men to a supper at the Club, where a very tempting table had been laid. Among the invited guests present were Capt. Peele, Capt. Bole, Lieut. Glover and Lieut. Mowat. Dr. Trew, surgeon of the rifles, was also present. Capt. Scoullar occupied the chair, and Lieut. Doane and Lieut. Rickman the vice chairs.

The table was laid out very prettily, and with the row of fine soldierly looking fellows on either side presented a view not soon to be forgotten. When desert had been brought in Captain Scoullar rose and proposed the "Queen," which was drank in the usual loyal manner, the whole company singing "God Save the Queen." Lieut. Doane the proposed the "Prince of Wales and Royal family," after drinking which Lieut. Rickman sang a very funny song in capital style. Songs from Capt. Peele, Lieut. Glover, Corp. Bonson, Privates Townsend, Bensen, Carroll and others followed, after which Capt. Scoullar rose and proposed the health of "Our Brother Officers," which was drank in true military style. Capt. Bole, Lieut. Glover and Lieut. Mowat replied to the toast and expressed their gratification at being present on the occasion.

Lieut. Rickman proposed the health of Capt Peele, who responded in a very neat speech reviewing the history of the company during the time he commanded it. In conclusion he cautioned the men to be careful with their drill, obey orders without a murmur, attend all parades and they would still be able to keep up the reputation already gained of being the best drilled company in the province.

Capt. Scoullar then made a very neat little speech in reply to the last speaker, and promised that the efforts of himself and his two able lieutenants would always be directed towards keeping up the discipline and efficiency of the company.

After singing "God Save the Queen" the company dispersed.

Personal.

Thos. Mowat returned to the city yesterday from Victoria.

A. F. Farwell, proprietor of the town of Revelstoke, is in the city.

C. G. Major left to-day for Harrison Hot Springs where he will remain some time for his health.

James Orr, M.P.P., went over to Vancouver this afternoon and will be absent for some time.

Rev. W. B. Secombe came down from Maple Ridge yesterday and left for Ladners this morning.

J. R. Southerly, of the Delta, was in the city to-day, and went over to Vancouver on a short visit.

Hon. C. E. Pooley, speaker of the provincial legislature, is in the city, and will remain a few days.

Guests at the Colonial Hotel: Thos. Mowat, city; A. Farwell, Victoria; John Crean, B. Young, Simon Leiser, Victoria; W. H. Howell, Hugh Pedley, Cobourg, Ont.

Thos. Cunningham, wife and daughter returned to-day from Harrison Hot Springs where they have spent several weeks. Mr. Cunningham has received great benefit from the Springs.

Rev. Hugh Pedley, Congregational minister of Cobourg, Ont., arrived in the city to-day. Mr. Pedley has been travelling about three months, and has visited San Francisco, Victoria, Vancouver, and other cities on the coast, with a view to ascertaining what are the prospects of establishing Congregational churches. He proceeds to Kamloops to morrow.

W. Norman Bole, Q.C., and family left this morning on the str. Irving for Hope, from which point Mrs. Bole and the children will cross the mountains into Similkameen. The health of Mrs. Bole has not been good for some time past and it is thought a winter spent in the bracing climate of Similkameen will have the desired effect of restoring her health again. Mr. Bole will be out of town for about a month on professional business.

County Court.

[Before Mr. Justice McCreight.]

Corporation of Westminster vs. Hird, Kenyon & Johnston—Action for recovery of arrears in taxes. Judgment for plaintiff in each case. Atkinson for plaintiffs.

Corporation of Westminster vs. Franks—Action for recovery of arrears taxes. A discussion took place between His Lordship and counsel for plaintiff as to jurisdiction of the County Court to sue the defendent who resides abroad. Adjourned for argument. Atkinson for plaintiff.

Charley Ah Wing vs. Revesbeck—Action for recovery of wages alleged to be due plaintiff as cook in the Depot Hotel, Yale. The defence was payment in full. The case was heard and judgment reserved. Jenns for plantiff. Atkinson for defence.

In the Supreme Court.

Before Hon. Mr. Justice McCreight.

Mr McColl moved for the discharge on habeas corpus of a half breed named Ibbotson who had been sentenced by Messrs W. H. Ladner and Jno. Kirkland J. P's., to a term of imprisonment in the New Westminster Gaol—The ground mentioned by counsel for the prisoner was that a fine having been imposed it was not within the power of the magistrates to commit the prisoner to gaol without first issuing a distress warrant which in this case they had neglected to do. His Lordship held the point well taken and discharged the prisoner without costs, the prisoner to bring no action against the Magistrates.

Mr. Cochrane (for Bole Q C.,) appeared on behalf of the Magistrates.

IN CHAMBERS.

Woods vs. Sevier—Plaintiff applied for judgment under rule 75 Defendent contended that his case was complicated with an action now pending in the County Court between Brewster and the defendent. His Lordship allowed an adjournment for the purpose of obtaining further affiidavits. E. A. Jenns (for Corbould & McColl) for plaintiff; L. P. Eckstein (for Bole Q. C.) for defendent.

Dockstader vs. McLearn—This was a motion by dependent to dissolve the injunction herein granted restraining him from setting fire to a kiln of bricks. By consent the application was adjourned till 19th to allow settlement if possible. Jenns (for Corbourld & McColl) for plaintiff Eckstein. (for Bole Q. C.) for defendent.

District Court.

(Before T. C. Atkinson, P.M.)

The adjourned case of Lee Hung, alias Jim, charged with attempting to criminally assault Mrs. Kitty George, was called but the complainant was not present to proceed with the prosecution.

Mr. Cochrane appeared for the defendant and announced his readiness to go on with the case. The plea of "guilty" was permitted to be withdrawn.

Chief of Police Devlin stated he had been informed that the Chinaman had paid Mrs. George $100 not to appear, and asked for a remand of one day to allow him to get at the bottom of the matter.

Mr. Cochrane argued that as the complainant did not turn up it was evident she took very little interest in the case, and as there was no excuse for mistaking the day fixed for hearing the case it should either be dismissed or proceeded with at once.

His Honor said it was evident something had induced the complainant not to appear, and he very much feared the statement made by the chief would turn out to be correct. The case was a most important one and required to be sifted to the bottom, and he intended doing so thoroughly. In this city Chinamen are employed by many families, and during the greater part of the day ladies are often left alone with these servants, and assaults similar to the one in question would not be long infrequent if they were not punished with the utmost severity. Apart from this His Honor did not propose the court should be trifled with and he would grant the request of the chief and remand the case for one day in order to summons the complainants and investigate the alleged bribery.

Chilliwhack Council.

At the regular September meeting there were present, his worship the reeve and all the councillors. Communications were received from W. E. Brooks, requesting the council to change the line of the Chilliwhack central road from the middle of his farm to the northern boundary; from Knight Bros., with regard to a last year's account; from George McKeever, offering to build a bridge on the Semiault road for $20; from Jeff Harrison and J. H. Ashwell, requesting leave to place stands on Wellington street during the fair; from W. Forsythe, applying for a road through Coun. Irwin's property. A petition was read from Wm. McDonald and others, protesting against the proposed Hope slough bridge being built at R. Williams'.

The following bills were read and ordered paid by order on the treasury: The COLUMBIAN, for printing, $12.50; P. McGrath, for plans, $7; Knight Bros., for planking, $25.75; W. Chadsey, contract on trunk road, $120; Kennedy and Cawley, work on Prest road, $40; A. H. Thompson, repairs to Dunville bridge, $15. The board of works was requested to examine the site of proposed bridge across the Semiault and report at next meeting.

Harrison & Ashwell's communication was laid over till next meeting. The reeve reported that one of the stringers of the Dunville bridge had fallen, and that he had employed A. H. Thomson to repair it. Report adopted. The board of works reported the Atchelity bridge in a safe condition since the braces were put on, and recommended that the council accept no reports from persons other than those appointed by the council, as they are liable to cause trouble. The board of works reported that they had let 3 bridges and 12½ rods of clearing and grading to J. A. Lumsden, for $100. The reports were adopted. Geo. Maloy's account was laid over for explanation. W. Forsythe was informed that the board of works had already inspected his road and thought it unnecessary to do so again. Coun. Wells was authorized to put on men and teams and repair the road between the Chilliwhack and Atchelity bridge. Coun. Banford was appointed to superintend the grading and gravelling on the trunk road from W. Cawley's to Centreville. Pathmasters were instructed to allow all squatters the privilege of working out their taxes on the roads, the work to be laid out by the councillor of the ward. Council then adjourned.

Mr. J. Leist, warehouseman for Lautz Bros., Buffalo, N. Y., says he had a swelling on his foot which he attributed to chilblains. He used Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil, and is troubled no longer. Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil may be imitated in its appearance and name, but not in its virtues.

PROVINCIAL SECRETARY'S OFFICE, 15th August, 1887.

HIS HONOUR THE LIEUTENANT-Governor has been pleased to make the following Rules of Court:

1. There shall be a vacation in the Supreme Court from the 16th day of August to the 8th day of October, 1887, both days inclusive, during which vacation no pleading shall be delivered or cause tried.

2. Nothing in these rules shall interfere with the delivery of pleadings or trial of causes triable or proposed to be tried elsewhere than at Victoria, New Westminster and Nanaimo.

3. Nothing in these rules shall interfere with the trials in vacation when such trials have been ordered before the commencement of such vacation, nor with any trial the hearing whereof has been begun before the commencement of such vacation, nor with the delivery of any judgment where such matter has been argued before the commencement of the vacation, nor with the taxation of costs and the signing of judgments.

4. Nothing in these rules shall interfere with applications for judgment under Rule 75 of the Supreme Court Rules, 1880.

5. Nothing in these rules shall interfere with the right of appeal to the Divisional Court from any interlocutory order, or the refusal of any interlocutory order.

6. These rules are substituted for the Rules of Court published in the "British Columbia Gazette" of 4th August, 1887, and may be cited as the "Long Vacation Rules, 1887."
