(Correspondence of the Columbian.)

The installation of officers in Richmond lodge No. 12, I. O. G. T., took place on Monday evening, the 13th inst. The following is a list of the officers for the current term: Bro. Alex. Lochore, C. T.; Sist. I. Ferris, V.T.; Bro. F. Taylor, Sec.; Bro. J. McCallum, F. Sec.; Sist. M. Smith, Treas.; Bro. H. Vermilyea, M.; Bro. W. Vermilyea, Chap.; Bro. A. Robinson, Guard; Bro. T. Havelock, Sent.; Sist. M. L. Harding, A. Sec.; Bro. G. Wyatt, A. Mar.; Sist. McCleary, R.H.S.; Sist. Kilgour, L. H.S.; Bro. D. Waling, P.C.; Bro. O. D. Sweet, L.D. The lodge now numbers 42 members, with the prospect of several more soon. The lodge is in a flourishing condition. The programme committee manages to present something entertaining for the good of the order at nearly every meeting, in the way of recitations, singing, speeches, debates, etc. Total abstinence on the part of the individual and prohibition on the part of the country is our platform. This can be accomplished. Let us hasten the day when intoxication shall be driven from the land.

Langley Council.

Council met at the Town Hall on Saturday, Feb. 11th, pursuant to adjournment. Present the reeve and Couns. Houston, Mufford and Davie. On motion council determined to have a new assessment instead of resolving itself into committee and revising the roll, and H. Morrison was appointed assessor vice G. Rawlison. Clerk was instructed to apply to government for a grant of $4000 for general municipal purposes, and to notify A. Campbell to finish his contracts on graveyard and Holding's Hill by first Saturday in March. Board of works were instructed to examine contracts on Davis and St. Andrew's bridge and report at next meeting. On motion the sum of $5 was fixed for the rent of Town Hall for the day or night, payable in advance, public or religious meetings to be exempt. Council then adjourned until first Saturday in March.

Richmond Council.

Council met on Saturday, Feb. 18th. Present Thos. Kidd, reeve, and Couns. Kilgour, Quigley, Youdall and Reid. The following communications were read: From Hon. J. Robson respecting application to the Dominion government for permission to erect bridges across the North Arms of the Fraser River, and suggesting that said application be forwarded to him, and forwarded by him to the department at Ottawa, together with a minute of the executive council. From the C. M. C. of Chilliwhack requesting the council to co-operate with the council of Chilliwhack in endeavoring to have the municipality act amended so as not to be obliged to publish by-laws in the B. C. Gazette. From Jos. C. Armstrong respecting the proposed advertising folders with maps of the district for the purpose of setting forth the capabilities of the several municipalities in the district. On motion the communication from Hon. J. Robson was received and the clerk instructed to reply enclosing application as suggested; the communication from Chilliwhack council was received and co operation promised; the communication from J. C. Armstrong was received and laid over till next meeting for further consideration. A petition was read from Hector McDonald and 27 others asking the council to submit a loan by-law, for the purpose of raising money for the construction of roads and assisting the government in erecting bridges across the North Arms of the Fraser. On motion of Coun. Reid, seconded by Coun. Youdall, the petition was referred back for further circulation and signature. Coun. Youdall, however, submitted "The Richmond municipal loan by-law," which, on motion, was received and read the first time and laid over till next meeting. On motion the clerk was instructed to cause a notice to be inserted in the B. C. Gazette stating the intention of the council to make application to the chief commissioner of lands and works to have the following line of roadway declared a public highway, viz: Commencing at the Gulf of Georgia on the survey line between sections 4 and 9, B. 4 W., R. 7 W.; thence easterly along the survey line between sections 3 and 10, 2 and 11, and 1 and 12, B. 4 W.; R. 7 W.; thence between sections 6 and 7 and 5 and 8, B. 4 W., R. 6 W., to intersect road No 3, leading to the Town hall, 33 feet on each side of said survey line. On motion the application of C. Cornish for the use of the Town hall yard was referred to Coun. Youdall to be reported on at next meeting. The following bills were ordered paid: C. Cornish, $2.25; Alex. Mitchell, $25; Corbould & McColl, $11.50. The council adjourned to meet on the first Saturday in March next.

LAST NIGHT'S DESPATCHES.

THE RULES OF PROCEDURE ADOPTED.

LONDON, Feb. 24.—In the house of commons this evening Mr. W. H. Smith moved that the house should take into consideration the rules of proceedure in preference to all other business. Mr. Gladstone regretted that the government should have seen fit to propose urgency for the rules of proceedure, but since they have done so he would assist in expediting the discussion of them. Mr. Bradlaugh moved an amendment excluding Wednesdays from the operation of the rules, which was defeated by 247 to to 150. The house decided to meet hereafter at 3 p.m., and to close opposed business at midnight and adjourn at 1 a.m. Provision was made, however, to carry the consideration of important business beyond midnight. The reforms were adopted and voted into immediate operation.

PROTECTION IN ENGLAND.

LONDON, Feb. 24.—English journals, especially the provincial papers, view with increasing alarm the possibility of the surrender of Great Britain to a policy of partial protection in the shape of a tariff on imports. Lord Salisbury's avowal, made a short time ago to a fair trade delegation, that he thought a tariff might safely be put upon a few articles which now enter the English ports free, is taken as a legitimate ground for the feeling that the government may be induced to think as it does, and that the country may soon be committed to a sort of fair trade, if not to a more extensive tariff policy.

HUNTING POACHERS.

LONDON, Feb. 24.—In the case at Ipswich, between a gatekeeper and poacher, in which the poacher was charged with assulting the gatekeeper, Judge Denman held that gatekeepers had no right to arrest him and to hunt poachers as if they were wild beasts. He said that poaching was only a misdemeanor. The jury acquitteed the poacher who had severely wounded the gatekeeper claiming it was done in self-defence.

Advices from Lake Nyanza state that the Arabs had attacked the Scotch mission at that place in December, 1887, and set fire to the buildings. The white residents took refuge in the mud fort and remained there for five days when a force of friendly natives arrived and the Arabs retired.

THIS MORNING'S DESPATCHES.

CHINA NEWS.

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 25.—The steamer San Pablo arrived from China and Japan this morning, and, contrary to all expectations, did not bring any small-pox. She brings the following advices: Small-pox is still raging in Hongkong. During the first three weeks of the year 361 cases were reported and 227 deaths occurred. The spread of the disease has been somewhat checked.

Gideon Nye, vice-consul for the U. S. at Canton, the oldest foreign resident in China, is dead.

Two Buddhist priests were recently burned to death for an attempted assault on two nuns.

The Roman Catholics have had another riot, this time in the district of Chuntug. An American missionary was twice ejected from his house, beaten, stoned and trampled on by a mob of 200 heathens.

The Imperial commissioner went to examine the breach of the Yellow river. Two thousand bamboo rafts were made to fill up the gap. Four thousand workmen and three officials who were in charge of them, were all drowned.

The seventh prince, whose life was despaired of some weeks ago, is now said to be out of dange.

It is said the Chinese imperial government are beginning to undertake the opening of mines in different parts of the empire.

Two shocks of earthquake were felt at Yokohama on February 2nd.

A band of pirates, one hundred strong, penetrated into the heart of a town in Tokin, sacked three houses, killed one native, severely wounded several persons and carried off a girl.

BUILDINGS BURNED.

PITTSBURG, Feb. 25.—A fire last night destroyed Port & Co.'s building, on New Grant street, and two adjoining, and burned out several small dealers. Loss, $100,000.

ANOTHER ABSCONDER.

SCHUYLER, Neb., Feb. 25.—Ex-Treasurer John Lapache, of Colfax county, has absconded, leaving a deficit in the state funds of $18,000. He had held the office for two terms, was well known throughout the state, and had been talked of as a candidate for state treasurer.

RAILWAY ACCIDENT.

FORT WAYNE, Feb. 25.—Two freight trains on the Pitts, Fort Wayne, & Chicago road collided this morning at Etna Green, Ind. Fifteen loaded cars were demolished and Martin Golden and John Wallace, asleep in a box car, were killed. The train men jumped.

THE PRINCE BETTER.

SAN REMO, Feb. 25.—The official bulletin issued to-day states the Crown Prince slept well last night, and is better to-day. Coughing and expectorations lessened to-day. He appeared for a short time on the balcony outside his room, and watched the arrival of the British squadron in the harbor.

A GOOD MOVE.

NEW YORK, Feb. 25.—The Spanish consul-general received information from Havana to-day that the Spanish customs officers were about to take effective measures in regard to the opium frauds. They will arrest all of the consignees who swore before the U. S. consul they had received the opium, and will also seize and libel all of the vessels upon which opium was reported to be shipped to Havana.

RUSSIA ADDRESSES THE POWERS.

LONDON, Feb. 25.—The Times has a dispatch from Paris which states Russia has sent to the treaty powers two notes embodying her proposals with reference to Bulgaria.

THE UNION PACIFIC SETTLEMENTS.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 25.—Charles Francis Adams, president of Union Pacific, and Storey, counsel for the company, to-day were heard by the senate committee on Pacific railways, in support of the propositions made by the Union Pacific for settlements of its indebtedness to the government. The arguments are practically the same as made to the house. The senate committee next Saturday will hear Anderson and Littler, special Pacific railroad commissioners, and Joseph Johnson, railroad commissioner, on the same subjects.

WENT TO THE BOTTOM.

NEW ORLEANS, Feb. 25. — The French ship De Marthe sunk here yesterday, carrying down with her the Valletta dock and entailing a loss of $200,000. The vessel was formerly a steamship, but some years ago the machinery was taken out of her and she was fitted up as a sailing vessel. The change made her top-heavy and as she was being put in the floating dock for repairs she suddenly careened crushing through the side of the dock, sinking both in 75 feet of water.

A HEAVY INCREASE.

ST. PAUL, Feb. 25.—The most phenominal showing in the history of railroads was developed to-day in the report of the Northern Pacific. The business for the third week in February, in both freight and passenger earnings, over last year, was almost a hundred per cent. The total for freight and passenger business in 1887 being $155,485, and in 1888 over $254,000.

THIS AFTERNOON'S DESPATCHES.

CIVIL SERVICE MEN DISMISSED.

OTTAWA, Feb. 25.—Remi Tremblay, A. F. Povier and E. Tremblay, official translaters, have been dismissed the service by the speaker. This news caused quite a sensation among many members of the civil service, as it establishes a principle which may result in the dismissal of many more. At the last session these gentlemen were charged by Hon. Mr. Chapleau with having taken part in the last general election on behalf of certain opposition candidates. The charge was referred to a select committee of the house, which simply proved the charge and left the verdict in the hands of the speaker. Mr. Ouimet last night ordered the dismissal of the three, who are all Montrealers.

GREAT SNOW STORM IN ENGLAND.

LONDON, Feb. 25.—A severe snow storm has begun with terrible violence in England and all the roads and railway lines are rendered impassable. Outdoor work in the country is completely stopped.

THE ENGINEERS THREATEN TO STRIKE.

CHICAGO, Feb. 25.—Chief Arthur was asked this morning about the proposed strike of locomotive engineers and firemen on the Burlington system. He said he had given his consent to a general strike but men would not leave their posts to-day. He added that unless the differences between the men and officials were adjusted before Monday morning the locomotive engineers and firemen would leave their posts.

BULGARIAN AFFAIRS.

SOFIA, Feb. 25.—The opposers of the government are growing in power and the movement is advancing. M. Radaslaraff will shortly publish a newspaper called The People's Rights. The intrigues of M. Stranbouloff to prevent the election of opposition candidates to the sobranje, is the principle grievance.

UNCLE SAM BAFFLED.

KINGSTON, Feb. 25.—Much of the opium smuggled into New York state came first to Kingston from British Columbia, being carried by the Dominion Express Co. From here agents smuggled it across the line. The heavy seizure made at Redwin recently was despatched from here via Brockville. Special United States officers tracked matters down and found there was still some valuable packages of opium here and a careful watch was put on them, but the officers were not alert enough and last night the packages disappeared. The agents of the smugglers were here and just as soon as they discovered that the special officers had gone on a trip to Brockville they whipped out their trunks and made off with them. There are 450 pounds of opium in the trunks.

FRYE ON THE TREATY.

NEW YORK, Feb. 25.—The Tribune yesterday morning published an interview with Senator Frye in regard to the fisheries treaty. The Maine Senator criticizes the treaty severely. He says privileges have been surrendered, new exclusions introduced and the fisherman's necessities juggled with. The Tribune says: "In view of the fact that Mr. Frye's judgment in all matters relating to fisheries is paramount with his republican colleagues in the senate, it is not too much to say the fate of the treaty is sealed. It will be rejected by an over-whelming vote, the only question is by how large a majority it will be beaten."

Daily British Columbian

Saturday Evening, Feb. 25, 1888.

Our Mineral Wealth.

The first important fact that strikes one on opening the report of the minister of mines for 1887 is that gold mining in British Columbia is surely passing into the hands of the Chinese. Of the 2342 men employed in the gold mines during the past season, 495 were white men and 1847 were Chinese and Indians. The next fact is that the total product of gold reported amounts only to $693,709, which is the lowest since 1857. It may be said, however, that there is very great difficulty in ascertaining the amount of gold taken by the Chinese miners, as many of them carefully conceal their earnings. This may account partly for the smallness of the amount reported. Mr. Bowron, gold commissioner for Cariboo, intimates that another cause which operated against gold mining in many places was the unusual dryness of the season, many of the hydraulic claims being forced to shut down during a great part of the season for want of water. There were also a large number of men employed on quartz claims and in prospecting, none of whom have produced any gold to speak of during the season. The propecting of the season has not developed any new diggings of striking richness. Cayoosh Creek has produced a good deal of gold, with excellent prospects for the future, while in Cariboo, Kootenay, and other localities the field of operations has been considerably extended, and the belief is confirmed that the country still contains enormous wealth in gold. The results of operations on the various quartz ledges have not been as practical as it was hoped they would be. A great deal of labor and money have been expended on quartz ledges during the year, and in Cariboo alone 100 new quartz claims have been taken up. In Lillooet, Kootenay, Kamloops and Similkameen districts, also, many promising quartz claims have been located. The Illecillewaet division of Kootenay district has become famous for its rich deposits of argentiferous galena, of which our readers have already heard a great deal. But there are very few private individuals with means enough to utilize the valuable ore, as large expenditures will be necessary to profitable mining. A good many of those who held claims here have sold them at very moderate figures. The largest transaction recorded is the sale of a two-thirds interest for $16,000. The value of ore shipped from these mines is estimated at about $21,000. Some of the companies are spending a good deal of money on their claims. Several new discoveries of gold, silver and lead are reported from Kootenay, but the actual yield has not been large. In part of the Rocky Mountains known as the Crow's Nest, lying within Kootenay district, very valuable seams of coal have been found. Gold Commissioner Vowell reports that there are 15 seams in sight, three of which are respectively 14, 25, and 30 feet in width. These are all situated on one hill. The coal has been classified by Mr. Dawson as a species of anthracite. The approximate value of gold produced in the principal gold producing districts is reported as follows: Barkerville, $79,373; Lightning Creek, $30,700; Quesnellemouth, $51,000; Keithley Creek, $66,600; other places, $20,000; total for Cariboo district, $247,673. Cassiar, $60,485; Kootenay. $37,900; Lillooet, $106,000; Omineca, $13,000; Yale, $158,200, of which $90,000 came from Granite Creek, and $128,000 from the Similkameen district. The coal mines of the province show a larger yield than on any previous year, namely 413,360 tons, an increase of 86,724 over 1886. The amount exported was 334,839, and about 96,855 tons were used in the province. Three mines were in operation, employing 777 white men, 525 Chinese, 2 Indians, and 11 boys. Wages paid to white men, from $2 to $3.75 per day; to Chinamen, $1 to $1.25. Value of machinery and plant, $719,000. The explosion which occurred on May 3rd interfered considerably with the out-put of coal, and resulted in the loss of 147 lives. It was thought by some that the importation of anthracite coal from Anthracite might affect the demand for British Columbia coal, but this has not been the case. The anthracite coal has not given satisfaction, and if no accident should occur the out-put of our mines this year is likely to be far in excess of 1887.

Jas. Shannon, Leaskdale, writes: "For many years my wife was troubled with chilblains, and could get no relief until about two years ago; she was then not able to walk, and the pain was then so excruciating that she could not sleep at night. Your agent was then on his regular trip, and she asked him if he could cure her. He told her Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil was a sure cure. She tried it, and judge of her astonishment when in a few days the pain was all allayed and the foot restored to its natural condition. It is also the best remedy for burns and bruises I ever used."

EDITOR TEMPERANCE COLUMN.—Perhaps some of your readers have not heard of the Juvenile Temple in this city.

This temperance organization was organized under the auspices of the I. O. G. T. last June, and we now number nearly 100 boys and girls who have pledged themselves to abstain from intoxicants, tobacco, and impure language. We meet in the Orange Hall every Wednesday afternoon at 3 o'clock.

At one regular meeting, Wednesday, Feb. 1st, the following officers were installed: Emerson Gilley, C. T.; Lizzie Rankin, R. H. S.; Mary Elliott, L. H. S.; James McMurphy, F.S.; May Douglas, Treas.; Myrtie Ackerman, V. F.; Clarence Ackerman, M.; Marion McMurphy, Assist. M.; Lizzie Latham, C.; Edith Robinson, Sec.; May Raith, Asst. Sec.; Ernest Kelly, P. C. T.; Robert Galbraith, O. G.; John McMartin, I.G.

Elkanah Watson on Temperance.

Elkanah Watson, in his "Memoirs of Men and Times of the Revolution," speaks of temperance as follows:

"In my travels in Europe I found the northern nations much addicted to intemperance, but the southern almost free from the fatal vice. In evidence of this truth, it is said that by the laws of Spain no man can give testimony who has once been detected in liquor.

"I can truly say, and say with great pleasure, that during a residence of five years in France I saw but two men disguised by liquor, and they were of the very dregs of society. No decent men could be thus exposed without being banished from all female society without indelible marks of disgrace."

Mr. Watson attempts to trace the national habit of intemperance to our origin as colonies

In the year 1791 my destiny carried me by water from Schenectady to Seneca Lake. It was then like a voyage to the East Indies; few had made it except Indian traders. I went in an open bateau to spy out the wilderness and to ascertain the practicability of canals to connect the great western waters with the Atlantic Ocean, was compelled to use impure water, and had for six weeks no covering but the blue canopy of heaven, spangled with stars except an occasional shelter. Under these circumstances I for the first time contracted the habit of grog-drinking; fortunately for me and mine it was but temporary. On my return to my family I regularly took my 4 o'clock grog, then 4 and 6 o'clock, and soon 4, 6 and 8 o'clock. When I reached this point my best friend, justly alarmed, gave me a gentle wrap over the knuckles. I instantly put my foot down, determined that the love of liquor should never be my master. It is in this way by indulgence in the habit that drunkards are made."

There is a very important remark Mr. Watson made in the above in which he states that it is his belief that the national habit of intemperance came over from England with the Puritans. Mr. Watson was a descendant from an old Puritan.

The Power of Example.

At a large boarding-house in the south, a guest was asked at dinner if she would have some plum-pudding with wine sauce. "I will have some of the plum pudding, but none of the wine sauce," was her reply. Her friends laughed at her, and insisted that she should take some, but she replied, "I decline upon principle; I take no alcohol in any form."

The conversation turned to other topics, but after dinner a young man whom she had noticed sitting opposite her at dinner, approached her, and, requesting a word with her said: "I want to tell you how much good you did me to-day by your prompt and decided rejection of the wine-pudding sauce. I had been deliberating what I would do, being strongly tempted by the smell of it, which reached me. I think I should have yielded to my de*sire and the solicitations of my friends*, who called my resolution a whim, if I had not heard your refusal. That gave me the courage to resist the temptation. I have an inherited appetite for liquor, but by the grace of God I have been enabled to control it; but if I had got a taste of wine to-day, I feel confident I should have fallen again."

It was a very light thing for that woman to put aside an indulgence which cost her no sacrifice whatever. But by so doing she gave strength and courage to one whose feet had well-nigh slipped. We need not look at these things, not merely in the light of personal desires or personal experience, but with reference to the condition and dangers of others around us. We know not who may be benefited or injured by our actions. Our decision, which may be but a passing, transient choice, may forge the fetter which shall bind some other soul in bonds never to be broken. "It is good neither to eat flesh, nor to drink wine, nor anything whereby thy brother stumbleth, or is offended, or is made weak" (Rom. xiv. 21). "We then that are strong ought to bear the infirmities of the weak, and not to please ourselves" (Rom. xv 1).

Col. W. F. Cody, of the Wild West show, is a teetotaler, and says that all the members of the company are abstainers generally, their hazardous work requiring complete self-possession at all times. All the great marksmen of the world are abstainers, the use of stimulants being fatal to a steady aim.

Scrofula

Is one of the most fatal scourges which afflict mankind. It is often inherited, but may be the result of improper vaccination, mercurial poison, uncleanliness, and various other causes. Chronic Sores, Ulcers, Abscesses, Cancerous Humors, and, in some cases, Emaciation and Consumption, result from a scrofulous condition of the blood. This disease can be cured by the use of Ayer's Sarsaparilla.

I inherited a scrofulous condition of the blood, which caused a derangement of my whole system. After taking less than four bottles of Ayer's Sarsaparilla I am and, for the past year, have not found it necessary to use any medicine whatever. I am now in better health, and stronger, than ever before.—O. A. Willard, 218 Tremont st., Boston, Mass.

I was troubled with Scrofulous Sores for five years; but, after using a few bottles of Ayer's Sarsaparilla, the sores healed, and I have now good health.—Elizabeth Warnock, 54 Appleton street, Lowell, Mass.

Some months ago I was troubled with Scrofulous Sores on my leg. The limb was badly swollen and inflamed, and the sores discharged large quantities of offensive matter. Every remedy failed until I used Ayer's Sarsaparilla. By taking three bottles of this medicine the sores have been healed, and my health is restored. I am grateful for the good it has done me.—Mrs. Ann O'Brian, 158 Sullivan st., New York. ††

D. ROBSON,
Manager.

The Marine Service.

"As soon as the recruits, attracted by the manifold consideration set forth on the poster outside, come in to us," the officer said, "they are examined by our physician who test their constitutions in every possible manner. In case they pass this ordeal, which is very severe, they are examined as to their mental qualifications, to ascertain whether they are able to read and write, as required. Those who come through this are then allowed to enlist for five years' service in the corps."

"Do any of the men re-enlist after serving the full period?" asked the reporter.

"Oh, yes," was the reply. "I should say that a majority of them do so. You must not understand that all who enlist serve five years, for a large number of them desert after a few months. They are a poor lot, those fellows, and only come into the service as a sort of make-shift, when they have nothing else to do. We do not care much when they desert, for we always aim to keep the corps full of good men who will stay. As an inducement for them to remain in the service, we offer increased pay for each succeeding term they serve. When a man has served for thirty years, that is, for six periods, he may retire on three-quarters of the pay allowances to which he was entitled during his last enlistment. A large number have been retired.

Young Married Folk.

In this country, many matrimonial engagements are broken off because the families are antagonistic. The young people may love each other, but one future mother-in-law hates the other, and hence there is quarrel, discussion, and separation. "My daughter shall not live with Mrs. So-and-so," says Mrs. This-or-that. They manage this thing better abroad, by deciding that the young couple shall live in their own house, have their own income, and be not dependent on either mother-in-law. While the family relations are kept up with even greater vigor than with us, yet the independence of the parties to be married is respected. In this one respect the etiquette of engagements abroad is far better than ours. It is a sensible outlook, perhaps lacking that wild romance which is supposed to accompany a true-love match, but it has its advantages in the happiness of security. Nothing is left to chance or caprice, and the "too much mother-in-law," which sometimes wrecks the happiness of young people both before and after marriage in America, is carefully guarded against.

He didn't want to be a Knight.

Two tricyclers chanced to halt by the roadside for a brief rest just as a group of Irish laborers were passing on their way home from work. Attracted by the bright new machines, two of the men paused a moment to look at them.

"If you only had a tricycle, Pat," said one of the 'cyclers to the nearer of the men, "you could ride to and from your employment."

"Ride is it yo say, thin? said Pat, with a contemptuous look at the combination of man and wheels. "Do yo think I cam' from the ould country to drive a donkey-cart, bedad, and be me own horse?"

Table-Cover.

The ingenuity of woman is taxed to the utmost to invent some new way of bordering a table-cover. Here is a pretty and simple way: Suppose the cloth is of dark crimson or cardinal; cut the edge in large scallops, and pink the scallops, then around the edge and below it, so that it may be seen for about four inches below the cardinal scallops, put a strip of blue either of felt or flannel. Scallop and pink the edge of this. The strip may be of velveteen if you choose. The corners of the spread may be embroidered, and for a square table this makes an effective covering.

An Excellent Nervine.

Onions are about the best nervine known. No medicine is really so efficacious in case of nervous prostration, as they tone up a worn-out system in a very short time. Their absorbent powers are also most valuable, especially in times of epidemic. It has been repeatedly observed that an onion patch in the immediate vicinity of a house, acts as a shield against the pestilence which is very apt to pass over the inmates of that house. Sliced onions in a sick room absorb all the germs of contagion. During an epidemic the confirmed onion-eater should, however, eschew his usual diet, as the germs of disease are present in the onion and contagion can easily result.

Nice Hard Butter.

To have nice hard butter for the table in summer, without the use of ice, put a trivet, or any open flat thing with legs, in a saucer; put on this trivet the plate of butter, and fill the saucer with water; turn a common flower-pot so that its edges shall be within the saucer and under the water. Plug the hole in the flower-pot with a cork, then drench the flower-pot with water, set in a good cool place until morning, or if done at breakfast the butter will be hard at supper time.

A Pleasant Lemonade.

very thinly the rind
Lemons, so as to have none of the white pith; cut it in small pieces and put in a bottle with two cloves and a half pint of hot water. Let the bottle stand in a pan of boiling water near the fire for two hours, strain and add to the infusion thus made the juice of the lemons and half a pint of sugar, with twenty drops of orange flower water; stir well together, and put to it two quarts of cold water.

Lounge Pillows.

Some fragrant little pillows made for ladies' lounges consist of an oblong flannel bag, about sixteen inches long and ten wide. This is filled with powdered pine cones and bits of aromatic fir and balsam, and covered with cream-colored momie cloth on which there is embroidered in point Russe and antique lettering, "Give me of thy balm, O pine."

In the discussion that followed Superintendent Larned's paper on "Library Architecture" at the late Librarians' meeting, speaking of fire-proof buildings, Mr. Edmunds of Philadelphia remarked that in case of fire much more damage was done by water thrown to extinguish it than by the fire itself. In the case of a fire at the Mercantile Library at Philadelphia $30,000 insurance had been recovered for damages when not more than five books had been damaged by the fire.

A LITTLE Lowell girl, who had been carefully trained by her mother, was being dressed for church Sunday. The gown had been put on and the little one surveyed herself with evident satisfaction. "Mamma," she said, "does God see everything?" "Certainly, dear," said the mother. "Does He see me now?" "Why, yes," replied the astonished mamma. "Well, then, He sees a pretty neat looking little girl, doesn't He, mamma."

—The loss of life in India from wild beasts and snakes is still enormous. Eleven thousand eight hundred and twenty-three persons were killed in Bengal alone during the past year.

"It Saved My Life"

Is a common expression, often heard from those who have realized, by personal use, the curative powers of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. "I cannot say enough in praise of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral, believing as I do that, but for its use, I should long since have died from lung troubles.—E. Bragdon, Palestine, Tex.

About six months ago I had a severe Hemorrhage of the Lungs, brought on by a distressing Cough, which deprived me of sleep and rest. I had used various cough balsams and expectorants, without obtaining relief. A friend advised me to try

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral.

I did so, and am happy to say that it helped me at once. By continued use this medicine cured my cough, and, I am satisfied, saved my life.—Mrs. E. Coburn, 18 Second st., Lowell, Mass.

I have used Ayer's Cherry Pectoral for over a year, and sincerely believe I should have been in my grave, had it not been for this medicine. It has cured me of a dangerous affection of the lungs, for which I had almost despaired of ever finding a remedy.—D. A. McMullen, Windsor, Province of Ontario.

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral saved my life. Two years ago I took a very severe Cold which settled on my lungs. I consulted physicians, and took the remedies they prescribed, but failed to obtain relief until I began using Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. Two bottles of this medicine completely restored my health.—Lizzie M. Allen, West Lancaster, Ohio. tt

HEAD OFFICE, TORONTO, CANADA

A HOME COMPANY.

This Association merits the confidence the Public is reposing in it from the following FACTS:—

The Security offered to policy holders is unsurpassed by any Company doing business in Canada.

It has no schemes of insurance, but the well-established lines, hence the policy holders cannot be misled as to their contracts.

Its statements to the public can be readily understood, its cash statement showing every item of income and how expended.

Its position is ascertained annually from a detailed valuation in which every item of liability is included.

Its progress has been unexampled in the history of insurance in Canada.

Its policies are indisputable after three years, and non-forfeitable after two years' existence.

Its profits are distributed upon an equitable basis. The profits to one class of policy holders are not lessened to give larger profits to any other class, which method affords superior advantages over the uniform bonus plan of distribution.

Liberal Conditions as to Residence and Travel.

Saturday Evening, Feb. 25, 1888.

Another beautiful spring day.

No mail arrived yesterday or to-day.

Six carloads of freight arrived from the east this afternoon.

Work has commenced on the C.P.R. wharf extension in Vancouver.

The Royal City Planing mills shipped 9 carloads of square timber east to-day.

Mrs. E. J. Miller will re-open classes March 1st at Mrs. T. L. Briggs, Royal Avenue. dfe23t3

The steamer Rainbow left for Victoria this morning with freight and passengers.

In the police court this morning W. H. Jenkins was fined $10 for being drunk and disorderly.

The steamer Richmond came up from the North Arm this morning and returned this afternoon.

For Sale—½ Lot 14, block VI, sub'rbs; frontage on Fraser River; a bargain. Apply to Woods, Turner & Gamble. *

The S. S. Abyssinia is expected in Vancouver to-morrow from Hongkong. There will be no stop at Victoria this trip.

Wholesale and retail depot for F. Coutts & Sons guaranteed pure Acetic Acid. D. Lyal & Co., New Westminster. dfe25t3

The str. Adelaide arrived from up-river ports this afternoon with a large quantity of farm produce and 20 passengers.

The Acid Cure, by F. Coutts & Sons, London, England. Pamphlets to be had gratis at D. Lyal & Co's. book store. dfe25t3

F. Coutts & Sons Acetic Acid is used and recommended by the leading doctors in Great Britain, Australia, New Zealand, etc., for rheumatism and nervous debility. dfe25t3

It is a good rule to accept only such medicines as are known to be worthy of confidence. It has been the experience of thousands that Ayer's Cherry Pectoral is the best medicine ever used for throat and lung diseases.

The Atlantic express ran into a mud slide on Monday about 10 miles east of Donald. The engine jumped from the track and would have plunged into the Columbia river but for the strength of the coupling link, which held it fast to the train. The slide caused a delay of 24 hours.

Everybody needs a spring medicine. By using Ayer's Sarsaparilla, the blood is thoroughly cleansed and invigorated, the appetite stimulated, and the system prepared to resist the diseases peculiar to the summer months. Ask for Ayer's Sarsaparilla. Take no other.

The machinery for B. Young's tug and D. W. Port & Co's. steamer, which will be fitted in next week, was supplied by Fraser & Leonard, Vancouver, agents for the makers, Doty & Son, Toronto. Mr. Leonard is in the city to-day and reports that business is very brisk in machinery supplies.

Mr. Jenkins wishes to correct the statement made in yesterday's issue that he was chasing a cow on Front street, and endeavoring to secure a hold of its tail. Mr. Jenkins says it was a steer he chased and that he would scorn to chase a cow, but as he was unable to steer a particularly straight course at the time, we hold the first statement correct.

Complaints keep coming in about the dangerous condition of Vedder's Creek, where the bridge was carried away about a year ago. There is no way of crossing the place, and lately some persons who attempted it came very near losing their lives. We hope prompt steps will be taken to have a bridge built across the creek.

Chief Engineer Corbett, of the fire department, called a meeting for last night in Hyack Hall for the purpose of organising a hook and ladder company. The chief, assistant chief, and a member of the Hyack Co. were the only persons who turned up, not a volunteer offering himself. This is rather a bad state of affairs, and it seems rather strange if out of all the able bodied young men in the city, a sufficient number cannot be found who are willing to lend their services for the protection of the city.

Job printing of all kinds neatly done at the COLUMBIAN office. Prices will be found as low as at any other office in the district.—Adv.

The Legislature.

The most interesting part of yesterday's performance was the presentation of a report from the committee appointed to investigate the charges of disloyalty brought against Hon. Mr. Dunsmuir. The report stated that Mr. Dunsmuir had appeared before the committee and proved to its satisfaction that he was innocent of the charge, and it recommended that the impeachment resolution be expunged from the printed proceedings of the house. The speaker asked to be allowed a day or two to decide whether the house had such authority. Mr. Humphreys did not go before the committee. The resolution to remove Hon. Mr. Turner from the cabinet because he signed the Duncan letter was voted down on a division of 8 to 15.

The Parting Tribute.

The banquet tendered Mr. L. L. Doane at the Colonial last night was a perfect success in every way, and it is safe to say the house never contained a more jovial or enthusiastic gathering than on this occasion. The gentlemen present represented almost every profession and branch of business in the city, and few of Westminster's representative citizen's were absent from the board. The table, which ran the length of the dining room, was most artistically laid out and fairly groaned under the array of good things set upon it. The menu provided embraced almost every imaginable luxury, and, without exception a better dinner was never sat down to in New Westminster. Mr. I. B. Fisher graced the head of the table and performed the duties of chairman in a very able manner. On his right sat the guest of the evening, Mr. Doane, and on the left Mr. Townsend, inspector of the Bank of British Columbia. Capt. Scoullar filled the vice-chair, and was supported on the right by Mr. J.C. Keith, of Vancouver. At the request of the chairman all militia officers were in uniform, it being probably the last occasion on which Mr. Doane would appear as an officer of the rifles.

"The Queen," proposed by the chairman, and the "Governor-General" and "Lieut.-Governor," proposed by the vice-chairman were the first toasts of the evening, and received the usual honors.

"The Canadian Militia" was proposed by Mr. Peter Grant in a very witty speech, in which he made reference to his own services on behalf of the country. Capt. Scoullar, Lieut. Mowat and Lieut. Glover responded, after which Mr. Rickman sang, "Old King Cole" in rattling style.

The toast of the evening, "Our Guest," was proposed by Mr. J. S. Clute in an excellent speech in which he referred to Mr. Doane's popularity and the general regret that he was being removed from Westminster. As a proof of the estimation Mr. Doane was held in, the speaker alluded to the petition, signed by every prominent citizen, requesting that he be allowed to remain. The toast was drank amidst the greatest enthusiasm and "He's a Jolly Good Fellow" was concluded with three times three and a "tiger."

Mr. Doane said no one regretted his leaving Westminster as much as he did himself, but as the change meant promotion and he was trying to reach the top of the ladder it was for the best that he should go. In a very feeling speech Mr. Doane referred to his many pleasant associations in Westminster, and the cordial way he had been treated in both business and social circles. He also referred to his connection with the rifle company and Union Lodge, both of which he parted from with the deepest regret. In conclusion the speaker expressed his thanks to the gentlemen assembled for the banquet given in his honor, and took his seat amidst much applause.

Mr. Keary sang a song in excellent style, after which Mr. Grant proposed "The land he leaves and the land he's going to."

Mr. Townsend responded in a very happy speech, and explained that though he had given the petition on Mr. Doane's behalf every consideration yet he could not grant the petitioners' request, for the change meant promotion; and when the bank had an officer so deserving as Mr. Doane, he must be pushed ahead. The directors were aware of Mr. Doane's efficiency and his interests would be well watched.

Songs were sung by Dr. Smith and Mr. Rickman, and applauded to the echo.

"The Learned Professions" brought out speeches from Mr. McColl, Mr. Eckstein and Mr. Armstrong, and the ladies were most lovingly mentioned by Messrs. Parkes, Eckstein and Ogle.

The healths of Mr. Fisher and Mr. Keith were received and drank very enthusiastically and neat speeches were made by both gentlemen. Song and story followed until two o'clock, when "Auld Long Syne" and a hearty good-bye to "Our Guest," brought the banquet to a close.

Upper Nicola Mines.

The Nicola mines are having a big boom at present. Messrs. Marks and Rutledge are among the first to take steps to develope their most promising quartz claim, which is in the vicinity of Mr. G. Henderson's "Star" mine, which is, without doubt, the best mine on Mineral Hill. Judging by the gang of men and plant employed by M. and R., they will soon know what is at the 100 foot level. If it proves one half as good as the "Star," it is a veritable bonanza.

Mr. J. Hepberne is still pushing things on Idaho Hill, as only Jack can push them. With several good ledges, and lots of A1 muscle, he is sure of success.

The Nicola Mining Co. is still grinding along at their usual rate. Their new McAroney & Armstrong power is not a success, as they cannot get tubs small enough for the power.

The weather is just too awfully nice for anywhere but in B.C., and the white robe Mother Earth put on last winter is very ragged, only a few flounces and frills remaining, which makes the farmer talk of his spring work.—Times Cor.

Much distress and sickness in children is caused by worms. Mother Graves' Worm Exterminator gives relief by removing the cause. Give it a trial and be convinced.

Personal.

D. McGillivray, of Sumas, arrived in the city last night.

W. L. Leonard, of Fraser & Leonard, Vancouver, is in the city.

D. Gillanders, of Chilliwhack, returned from Victoria yesterday.

L. L. Doane left for Victoria this morning on the steamer Rainbow.

J. C. Henderson, of Chilliwhack, arrived down by the Adelaide this afternoon.

J. C. Keith, manager Bank of British Columbia, Vancouver, attended the banquet to Mr. Doane last night and returned to the terminal city this morning.

FAGGED OUT.—None but those who have become fagged out know what a depressed, miserable feeling it is. All strength is gone, and despondency has taken hold of the sufferers. They feel as though there is nothing to live for. There, however, is a cure—one box of Parmelee's Vegetable Pills will do wonders in restoring health and strength. Mandrake and Dandelion are two of the articles entering into the composition of Parmelee's Pills.

City Council.

A special meeting of the city council was held on Thursday evening to consider a communication received from W. N. Bole, M. P. P., recommending the council to take immediate steps to define the limits intended to be included in the new charter now before the house, and asking the council to remit $205, being the amount payable to the clerk of the house as fees for the passing of the bill. Present: His Worship Mayor Dickinson, Councillors Hoy, DeBeck, Ovens, Calhick, Shiles and Elliott.

Moved by Councillor DeBeck, seconded by Coun. Calbick, that Mr. Bole be instructed to insert the following as the proposed boundaries in the new charter for the city of New Westminster, viz., commencing at a point on the Fraser river at the southwestern boundary of lot 1, suburban block 9, thence northwest to Thorn's road, thence northeast along Thorn's road to where it intersects North road, thence north to the northeast corner of lot 11, suburban block 2, thence east to the Brunette river, thence down the said Brunette river to the northeast corner of lot 7, suburban block 8, thence south to the Fraser river. And should he not be able to get the proposed charter through the house, including the territory described above, he is hereby directed to adopt the same limits as described in our present charter, giving the city power to extend the limits by the consent of the governor in council. Carried.

On motion the resolution with map was ordered to be forwarded to Mr. Bole also the $205 for fees.

On motion it was decided that Mr. Turner should be employed to give tracings of the proposed city limits showing water front on extension.

The council then adjourned.

Surrey Council.

Council met pursuant to adjournment on the 18th inst. Communications were received from Messrs. Corbould & McColl, J. Boothroyd, A. P. Anderson, W. J. Robinson, Chilliwhack council. The reeve and Couns. Shannon and Stevenson were appointed a committee to act in conjunction with a committee of the Westminster council to inquire into and report upon the steam ferry. Couns. Cann and Stevenson reported having inspected A. C. Huck's contract on the Johnston road, but as said contract was incomplete they could not accept it. The highway and assessment by-laws passed the final reading. Mr. J. C. Armstrong appeared before the council in support of the folder advertising scheme for the city and district. The council passed a resolution endorsing the scheme and pledging its assistance and support in carrying out the object of the promoters in advertising the resources of the city and district. The clerk was instructed to have a scraper repaired, also to have the culvert on Hall's Prairie road repaired, and timber removed off the road in ward 5. Coun. Shannon was instructed to inspect the contracts recently executed in ward 5, and if according to specifications to issue vouchers for payment of same. The clerk was authorized to procure a copying press. Council adjourned until Saturday, March 24th, at 1 o'clock.

Mr. R. A. Harrison, Chemist and Druggist, Dunnville, Ont., writes: "I can with confidence recommend Northrop & Lyman's Vegetable Discovery and Dyspeptic Cure for Dyspepsia, Impure Blood, Pimples on the Face, Biliousness and Constipation—such cases having come under my personal observation."

Late Canadian News.

Winnipeg, Feb. 20.—It is expected that the grain blockade on the C.P. R. will be removed to-day. The Free Press makes the charge to-day that the grain blockade has been intensified by the use of C. P. R. cars on the "Soo" road.

Shaughnessy, assistant general superintendent of the C. P. R., is in the city. The Canadian Pacific Railway Co. has issued a circular to the farmers urging them to hold back their wheat until the Keewatin mill is completed, as it is believed they will be able to realize better prices.

Major Bell will arrive in the city tomorrow from Ottawa, whither he has been in connection with the Ontario, Manitoba & Western railroad project. This involves the building of a line from Port Arthur to Moosomin, touching at Portage la Prairie and Brandon, branching off to Turtle Mountain, connecting with Duluth and Iron Range and embracing the purchase of the Red River Valley road. Assistance will be asked from the Dominion, Ontario and Manitoba governments. Mr. Bell believes that the Dominion government have decided to offer no further opposition to the R. R. V. R.

J. G. Mills, the well-known tea merchant, skipped across the line to-day, leaving creditors here to the amount of some $9,000.

M. A. St. Mars, St. Boniface, Manitoba, writes: "Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil is a public benefit. Is has done wonders here, and has cured myself of a bad cold in one day. Can be relied upon to remove pain, heal sores of various kinds, and benefit any inflamed portion of the body to which it is applied.

Late Despatches.

DRAWING ROOM.

LONDON, Feb. 24. — The Queen's drawing room held at Buckingham Palace to-day was rather slimly attended, owing in a great measure to the fact that the weather was about as disagreeable as it could be. The principal feature in the affair of any interest to Americans was the presentation to her majesty by Mrs. Phelps of Miss Louisa Bonynge, of San Francisco, whose dress and diamonds attracted general attention.

A RADICAL BLACKBALLED.

LONDON, Feb. 24.—The action of the Athæneum Club in blackballing the Radical Canon McColl on political grounds, despite the influence of his aristocratic supporters, has created a good deal of talk and stir, if not a little bad blood. The lords and gentlemen who voted and worked for his election were of all shades of politics, it is understood that a great stress was laid, as an argument in favor of his becoming a member of the club, upon his fame in connection with the Bulgarian atrocities agitation, his eminent services in the cause of humanity upon that and other occasions powerfully appealed to Mr. John Bright and others who have for many years posed as philanthropists par excellence. But the Birmingham statesman's breadth of views has in these days become woefully contracted by the fog of intolerant opposition to Home Rule and the Canon fell a victim to the purblind prejudice of himself and his coterie.

Holloway's Corn Cure destroys all kinds of corns and warts, root and branch. Who then would endure them with such a cheap and effectual remedy within reach?
