Daily British Columbian

Thursday Evening, June 30, 1887.

When the exalted position of a woman serves, as it has served with Queen Victoria, to make conspicuous her womanly and domestic virtues, the monarchy becomes a symbol in which the nation may take pride, and upon which it may be honestly congratulated by other nations, as all civilized nations join in congratulating England upon the jubilee of Queen Victoria.—N. Y. Times.

Since Prince Albert's death it has been learned that he was influenced in his feelings towards this country by the Queen. Victoria was always friendly toward the United States, and she showed this friendliness on many occasions during and subsequent to the rebellion. The close approach of the jubilee to the Queen renders this a good time for Americans to recall those facts.—St. Louis Globe-Democrat.

If there be an Englishmen, or the descendant of an Englishman, who is not proud that the land of his birth, or of his ancestry, is able to present in a woman of Victoria's universally conceded virtues a sovereign who has successfully reigned for half a century, he is an object of suspicion rather than of admiration. We would not like to trust such a man anywhere or with anything.—Rochester Union.

For fifty years Victoria has sat upon the British throne, and not once during all that time has anything occurred to give this country just cause of complaint against her personal or official conduct. On the contrary she has always been a friend of America, showing no trace of the Georgic animosity to the States. And now is a fit occasion to recall this feature of her semi-centennial reign.—Chicago Tribune.

The sentiment of the jubilee sermons preached in Chicago yesterday was an American home sentiment. All the ministers directed attention to the Queen of England as a high minded, fair-minded and earnest woman, who has been queen of the home as well as of an empire. In this character Victoria presents herself to the world, and certainly home lovers in America need not hesitate to honor the woman "who is an ideal mother, was an ideal wife, and is a broad, sincere and spiritual Christian."—Chicago Inter-Ocean.

The half century of Queen Victoria's reign has been one of the most brilliant epochs in English history, and—even were there no other reason—the ruling monarch during such a term of prosperity would command the enthusiasm of her subjects. But Queen Victoria has shown herself exceptionally worthy of esteem and admiration, even though affection may be lacking. She has been a thoughtful and prudent queen, a devoted wife and a good mother. Her people have every reason to sing "God Save the Queen."—New York Herald.

The imposing concourse which rides in state to-day is rightly thronged with royalty, for the woman the kingly caste of Europe meets to honor has taught all the republican modern world, seething with unrest and bristling with impatience of personal ascendancy, how an hereditary Queen through half a century could be a mighty and commanding influence, exercising a power limited, it may be, but still great, wielding a prerogative disguised but still real and profoundly modifying the lives, the manners, the morals, the life of millions by virtue of a royal power the age has not yet outgrown.—Philadelphia Press.

An English empire that is ruled by an absolute committee of the house of commons is calculated to tax the wisdom, tact, resources and courage of the ablest and most sagacious figurehead queen. Has not Victoria a long record of earnest attempts to so use the few and slight remaining prerogatives of the crown as to promote the good government of an empire larger and more difficult to govern than that of Rome in its palmiest days? The Queen, as the devoted wife and inconsolable widow, the model mother and the exemplar of the virtues that make the family the safe foundation of the State, needs no eulogium, for all these important regards she is known and honored the world over. May she live and rule many years more and lend her personal influence and example to all good causes and in support of what is best and soundest in English institutions!—N. Y. Mail and Express.

O. E. Comstock, Caledonia, Minn., writes: I was suffering the most excruciating pains from inflammatory rheumatism. One application of Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil afforded almost instant relief, and two bottles effected a permanent cure.

VICTORIA'S GARDEN PARTY.

LONDON, June 29.—The Queen came from Windsor to Buckingham palace to-day to attend the royal garden party. Seven thousand invitations were issued and the attendance was correspondingly large. The Crown Prince of Germany was among the first arrivals and was received with marked honor by the Queen. All the royal visitors in town were present. The Marquis of Salisbury and prominent statesmen of both parties attended. The day was clear and sunny and a cool breeze tempered the scene, and the party was a complete success.

UNCLE SAM'S SURPLUS.

WASHINGTON, June 29.—To-morrow is the last day of the current fiscal year. The new appropriations become available and in many ways is the close of the year very important. The last month of the year will show receipts of about a million dollars per day with small expenditures. The reduction of the debt has been immense and the treasury surplus has been slightly increased. The customs receipts for the year will $218,000,000, an unusually large amount. The internal revenue receipts are $118,000,000.

THE CHICAGO ANARCHISTS.

CHICAGO, June 29.—The seven condemned anarchists were excited to-day over the report of a new trial being granted them. Parsons believes it, although his counsel, Leonard Swett, denies it. While they were musing a young woman's voice was heard at the iron door. The door was unbarred and like a sudden flood of sunlight Miss Nina Van Zandt, dressed in attractive summer costume, flitted through the doorway and hastened into the visitors' quarters. She opened her eyes wide and glanced hurriedly around, then rushed up to the place where Spies was standing on the other side. She wanted to tell him how glad it made her to hear that the new trial was granted. They chatted pleasantly together. Miss Van Zandt brought nothing with her save her fresh looking face and pleasant smiles. The lock up keeper said she had quit bringing fruits and such things to her August, because some reporter always put something in the paper about it.

THE LAST OF THE BOODLE TRIALS.

NEW YORK, June 29.—The jury came into court, and upon the judge asking the foreman, "Is it guilty or not guilty?" he replied, "Not guilty; I mean, guilty, your honor, guilty." Sharp's head dropped upon his breast. "Jacob Sharp," said the clerk, "How old are you?" "Seventy years next month." "Where do you live?" "33 West 23rd street." The jurors here consulted for a moment or so, and recommended the prisoner to mercy. The jury was polled and every man said "guilty." Justice Barrett said it was with a sense of relief that he discharged the jury who had so acceptably performed their duty. The jurors hurried out of court and declined to discuss the verdict. Messrs. Parsons, Stickney, Nelson and Mitchell then gathered around the judge and told a pitiful tale of the condition of their client and Judge Barrett, ordered that he be returned to Ludlow street jail. After some debate the court adjourned until July 13th, when sentence will be passed. The penalty is not more than ten years at hard labor, nor more than $5000 fine, or both. A new trial will be moved for. Sharp heard the verdict with no apparent trepidation. In fact the lawyers for the defence evinced more chagrin at the result than he. When the sheriff notified Sharp to join him the prisoner arose coolly and shook hands with his counsel all around. As the carriage drove off with him the hundreds that lingered on the sidewalks gave expressions to various sentiments, among them being some of sympathy.

PROMOTIONS.

DUBLIN, June 29.—It is stated that Holmes, attorney-general for Ireland, is about to be raised to the Irish bench as justice of the court of common pleas, and that Gibson, now solicitor-general for Ireland, will succeed him as attorney-general and that Sergt. Peter O'Brien will become solicitor-general.

WHOLESALE CONVICTIONS.

ST. PETERSBURG, June 29.—The official messenger announces that 21 persons were tried at St. Petersburg between the 7th and 16th inst., on charges of being active members of the society called "Will of the people," of complicity in several murders including that of Col. Sudelka, and participation in a number of robberies and dynamite outrages. Three of the prisoners were acquitted, but all the others were sentenced to death. Death sentences were, however, commuted in the cases of two prisoners to exile in Siberia and in those of others to imprisonment and hard labor.

THE NEW STEAMSHIP ROUTE.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 29.—The steamship City of Topeka has been cleared and repaired throughout during the past four days. She is soon to start for San Diego and will go at once on the Atchison, Topeka & Santa Fe Co.'s line to Honolulu. The company will run three steamers on the route, but the others have not been selected.

THE LANGTRY A U.S. CITIZEN.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 29.—Mrs. Langtry, having announced her intention to become a citizen of the United States, the chairman of the local fourth of July committee has addressed her an invitation to recite a patriotic poem at the Grand Opera House on the national day.

NOT YET RESCUED.

VIRGINIA, Nev., June 29.—Nothing has yet been heard from the imprisoned men in the Gould & Curry mine. The bottom of the rescue drift is within 8 feet of connection with the Best & Belcher drift, where the miners are supposed to be. Drills have been sent ahead and connection is looked for every minute. Rumors of all kinds have been afloat since midnight,—that connections having been made the miners were found dead, etc.,—but there is no truth in them.

ENGINEERS IN SESSION.

OTTAWA, Ont., 29.—The brotherhood of locomotive engineers opened their annual convention here this morning under the auspices of the Canadian division. Nearly 400 visitors are in attendance.

EARTHQUAKE SHAKINGS.

GUAYQUIL, (via Galveston), June 29.—The most violent earthquake experienced here since '58 occurred at 6:20 this morning causing a great alarm among the people. The shock lasted two minutes and 20 seconds, and the direction of the movement was from north-east to south-west. All clocks in the city were stopped at the moment of the shock. A number of ceilings were shaken down and several buildings demolished. As far as reported no one was injured.

MEXICAN MATTERS.

CITY OF MEXICO, June. 30.—The new customs tariff and reformed international revenue system will go into effect Friday. The new tariff is regarded as a great improvement and is likely to stimulate trade with the United States. A new postal treaty with the United States also become operative on Friday, and American merchants may easily build up a retail trade here.

A STOCK DEAL.

NEW YORK, June 30.—The World this morning says: Cyrus W. Field turned over the remainder of his Manhattan stock to Gould yesterday. The amount was 20,000 shares, which, with 50,000 shares previously disposed of by Field, shows a total holding of 70,000 shares. The value of the stock marked at prices before the downward movement was $11,200,000. He now has no interest in Manhattan and will retire from the board of directors. Gould will keep the 50,000 shares to add to his own holding, making his total $10,000,000.

IMPROVED IN HEALTH.

LONDON, June 30.—Canon Wilberforce arrived at South Hampton to-day much improved in health. Queen Kapalina will sail for New York on the Servia July 2nd.

CHURCH AND STATE.

PARIS, June 30.—A majority of the committee in the chamber of deputies appointed to study the question of the separation of church and state, approved by Zetta, are in favor of the project for the abrogation of Concordat Min articles, and the scheme providing that the republic shall recognize all religions, but grant special privileges to none. The various regulations and laws are to be repealed. The departments and communes will retake possession of the various religious edifices and real and personal property.

What Toronto's well-known Good Samaritan says: "I have been troubled with Dyspepsia and Liver Complaint for over 20 years, and have tried many remedies, but never found an article that has done me as much good as Northrop & Lyman's Vegetable Discovery and Dyspeptic Cure." CLARA E. PORTER.

Victoria and Her Jubilee.

Queen Victoria is only 5 ft. high.

There are 2,116 precious stones of all sizes in Queen Victoria's crown, worth $565,000.

At Mme. Toussaud's exhibition in London are Queen Victoria's first doll, first shoes, first gloves, besides a withered, dried and ossified fragment of her wedding cake.

The two copies of the Bible used at Queen Victoria's coronation are still in existence. One is an heirloom in the family of the late Dr. Summer, bishop of Winchester, and the other is preserved in the cathedral of Norwich.

Among curious suggestions made for the celebration of the Queen's jubilee is the proposal that precisely at noon on June 21 private individuals should play on pianos or other instruments, "God Save the Queen," and that all the bands of the kingdom should publicly produce the national anthem —Ex.

Cattle at Large.

We are not sure but the time has arrived for the adoption of a by-law to prevent cattle and horses from running at large within the city limits. The practice has hitherto been allowed to prevail because it would be a hardship to some people if such restrictive legislation were to be enforced. But it has become a great nuisance, and very soon, if not at once, it will have to be suppressed. The animals that are prowling about the city both day and night are often a source of great annoyance. Cow-bells clatter during the whole night, keeping awake those whose daily toils demand undisturbed repose. They sometimes enter gates which, by native genius and patient practice, they have acquired the art of unfastening, and commit depredations in gardens that are extremely annoying. Besides this they commit nusiances on the sidewalks and endanger the lives of children who have ventured beyond the protection of enclosure. These animals are also exposed to danger themselves, because they are sometimes found devouring garbage on the streets which cannot be promotive of constitutional vigor. A person who keeps a cow or a horse should also keep pasture, and the whole community should not be made to suffer because of the convenience of a very limited number.

Through Traffic.

A great diversity of opinion has always existed respecting the advantages of through foreign traffic on the transcontinental railways. Not many years ago a San Francisco paper asserted that the profits of all the Asiatic trade passing over the railway would not be much more than sufficient to pay for the grease expended on the trains. This was probably an extreme view. We know that all transcontinental roads are reaching out for this very trade and incurring large expenditures in the hope of securing it; and although the profits may be comparatively small, they must be something worth while. The San Francisco Bulletin of a late date publishes an article on the arrival of the steamship Abyssinia with the first cargo of Chinese and Japanese goods for the C. P. R., in which the opinion is expressed that the new route will not to any extent interfere with the through traffic hitherto transhipped at San Francisco. The invoice of the Abyssinia, it says, comprised 2,830 pkgs. for eastern cities and 9,563 pkgs. for San Francisco. For these 9,563 pkgs., it adds, the Burrard Inlet route is not the shortest. It will be necessary to forward these pkgs. by special conveyance to their destination, and the cost of this must come from the profits of the whole tariff. The Bulletin thinks that it will be difficult, also, to obtain return cargoes at Vancouver. For the present it certainly will, but there is no reason why it should be much more difficult to get return cargoes at Vancouver than at San Francisco when the route has become properly established and advertised. Our San Francisco cotemporary observes: "For the present we have lost the handling of some tea destined for eastern cities. There is nothing more, however, in that loss than the employment of a few stevedores, more or less." It may seem a small thing to the people of San Francisco that the energy and resources of the C. P. R. are beginning to turn into other channels that trade of which the bay city has hitherto claimed a monopoly. A few stevedores may be thrown out of employment, but what of that, asks our cotemporary. Well, stevedores are neither better nor worse than other persons; and as it is always desirable to obtain and retain people who are engaged in honest and useful employment, the loss of even a few stevedores must be a loss to the city. But the stevedore loss is not by any means the only disadvantage that follows the loss of shipping. Such a vessel as the Abyssinia requires a large quantity of supplies before starting upon a voyage to China, and for these supplies a considerable sum of money is disbursed. Moreover, these steamship lines to foreign ports are an important item in the opening up and development of foreign trade, because they bring to our very doors first-class opportunities for the shipment of goods. It would be rather awkward for the people of San Francisco if they were forced to make their shipments of goods to China via Vancouver, for example, because there was no China steamer running to San Francisco! The Bulletin evidently means to make light of the advantages of the through trade just now when that trade is in danger of slipping out of the hands of its citizens, but it is nevertheless a trade that would be eagerly sought and gladly welcomed by any port. At the same time we believe the advantages accruing from this trade have been greatly overestimated in many quarters. It is an item not to be despised; but it is, after all, a poor consideration upon which to lay the foundations of a city.

WHAT PHYSICIANS SAY ABOUT THE STARR KIDNEY PAD.

"Treatment by Absorption has for some time been recognized by Medical Men to be the most simple and effectual means of conveying to Diseased Organs, "Curatives," but in cases of Kidney Disease and Complaints attendant thereon, successful treatment was practicably impossible until the introduction of the Starr Kidney Pad. It costs less than a single prescription and is immeasurably more decisive and effective than any quantity of internal Medicinal dosing. Worn immediately over the seat of Disease, its curative properties become absorbed by the diseased and enfeebled Organs, continuously and directly, as required to insure in return their healthy action and original vigour. It is comfortable to the patient and pleasant in its effects, and cures when nothing else can. The Starr Kidney Pad accomplishes positive, decisive results. A more valuable discovery as a true remedy for Kidney Diseases was never made.—Medical Gazette

The Starr Kidney Pad, manufactured in Toronto, is a permanent sure cure for diseases, disorders and ailments of the Kidneys, Bladder and urinary secretive system, or attendant complaints, causing pain in the small of the back, sides, etc., producing urinary disorders, such as too frequent, scanty, difficult, painful or copious micturition, inability of retention and sedimentary urine, dropsical symptoms, etc., denoting the presence in the system of diseases common to the urinary secretive organs—known as gravel, catarrh of the bladder and passages, Bright's disease, diabetes, dropsy, piles, nervous debility, etc. Send for pamphlet to LANGLEY & CO., Wholesale Agents, Victoria. "DAT ALTERS DE CASE."

As we rode out from a town in Mississippi to view a plantation a commercial traveler for a New York house expressed a desire to go along. He procured a horse and joined the party, and his company was welcomed. A mile and a half from town we came to a written notice, posted on a board, and everybody stopped to read it. It was a notice of sheriff's sale, and the colored man who tacked it up was still on the ground. The notice was badly written and worse spelled, and the drummer laughed loud and long over "cat" for calf, "det" for debt and "sheruf" for sheriff.

"What's wrong wid dat notis?" asked the colored man in a very edgy voice.

"It's too funny for anything," was the reply. "Some one had better go to school."

"Dat's me, sah. I'm a constable an' I writ dat off."

"Oh, you did? Well, I hope the c-a-f will be sold."

"Yes, sah. You come along wid me, sah."

"With you?"

"Yes, sah. I'rest you, sah."

"What for?"

"Contempt of court, sah! Come right along."

"Where?"

"Befo' de Justiss, sah! We'll see about dat caf!"

The drummer was advised against resistance and finally permitted himself to be taken before a colored Justice nearly two miles from the spot. The Constable had picked up a colored man on the way, who made and swore to a complaint, and the drummer was arraigned on the charge, although his Honor seemed very uneasy about it. The Colonel acted as counsel for the prisoner. When the case was ready he said:

"Your Honor, who is this court."

"I is, sah," was the dignified reply.

"Has this man shown any contempt for you?"

"No, sah."

"Then how can you try him for contempt of court?"

The old man scratched his head, opened a law book wrong side up, and finally replied:

"De prisoner am discharged, but will hev to pay $1 costs."

"But if he is discharged because of his innocence, where do you get the right to put costs onto him?" asked the Colonel.

"Where do I? Why in the law book."

"Which one?"

"De one at home."

"I take exceptions, your Honor, and shall carry this case to the Supreme Court," said the Colonel.

"Umph! Dat alters de case. De prisoner am discharged from his fine of $1, an de constable am fined $2 for making a fo' of hisself an' gettin' dis court all twisted up in a hard knot afore white folks!"—[Detroit Free Press.

THE BOY AND THE BULL-DOG.

Once upon a time a certain little boy Observed his sister curling her hair around a hot poker, and When he saw her golden ringlets twist up like Georgia pine shavings, what he considered an over-bright Idea struck Him.

"The folks next door say their pug is better than our bull-dog, because its tail curls over Its back so tight. I'll just curl the bull-dog's tail Now, and run him up and down in front of their house, and make them feel Mean."

So he called the Dog, and heated the poker until it was almost red, in order to get a Good curl. Grasping the dog's tail, he quickly Wound it around the Poker; but it was not wound Around the poker half as quickly as the dog was wound around the boy. He picked him up by the Small of his back, and shook him out of his Clothes, and left nothing on him But his freckles and a look of terror. The boy was Then obliged to lie in bed until his father could Afford to get him a new suit of clothes, which was a month Later.

The Moral of this little fable teaches us Two Things; first, that bright, original ideas are dangerous in the hands of people who don't know how to use them, and, second, that when we experiment with a bull-dog we should muzzle him before beginning.—[Puck.

"Straight Down, Sir."

Passenger: "Captain how far are we from land?" Captain: "About two miles." Passenger: "But I can't see it. In what direction is it?" Captain: "Straight down, sir."—[Harper's Bazar.

Who Was Crying.

"Mamma," said little Edith, "What do you suppose it was I heard crying out in the grass just now? Do you think it was the flowers I just cut the heads off of."

"Perhaps it was, darling."

"No, it wasn't, mamma; it was my little kitty."

The Salad of Life.

"Women," quoth Jones, "are the salad of life,
At once a boon and a blessing."
In one way they're salad, indeed," replied Brown,
"They take so much time in their dressing."

Just Where the Difficulty Was.

Sober passenger, sugrily: "Look where you stop, man!" Tipsy passenger, apologetically—"Y-yes, I do; the trouble is to—hic—stop where I look."—[Bloomington Eye.

APPETIZERS.

The Origin.

A fight between two prominent Memphis business men originated in this way:

Cagle: "The first case of yellow fever that developed in this city was a negro woman at my house."

Boyle: "No, the first case was a negro boy at my house."

C.: "You are mistaken."

B.: "I tell you that I know."

C.: "I ought to know, for I was there."

B.: "Reckon I was there."

C.: "I doubt it. You ran away before the alarm was given."

B.: "Who did?"

C.: "You did."

B.: "Liar!"

C.: "Liar!"

Note in daily paper:

"The firm of Cagle & Boyle, so well and favorably known in this city, has dissolved by mutual consent. The strongest friendship existed between the two partners, and the dissolution took place in the best of good humor."

Local paragraph:

"Yes erday while the Hon. Peter Cagle was going down in the cellar, he fell over an obstruction, struck a barrel, and blacked one of his eyes; and, singular to relate, shortly afterward Colonel Boyle slipped on the sidewalk and seriously bruised his nose. At the present writing both gentlemen are doing well, and will, we trust, be out again in a few days."—[Arkansaw Traveler.

The Cause of Education.

One morning this week the son of a prominent Estelline man arrived at school about a half hour late.

"See here," said the teacher with considerable emphasis, "you're tardy just thirty minutes. Have you an excuse?"

"Why, yes, sir, you-er—you know some fellars was having a little horse race down at the track, and I went down and——"

"Been to a horse race, have you? come here, sir!" and he grasped the boy by the collar.

"W-w-w-y, I-I t-thought you wouldn't care," blubbered the youngster, "if I only stayed just a few minutes!"

"Thought I wouldn't care—well, I'll show you. Why didn't you come up and let me know about the race and I would have dismissed school so we all could have seen it? I'll teach you to remember next time when there is a chance for the scholars to improve their minds!" and he reached for a two-foot rule.—[Estelline Bell.

What She Found To Be Funny.

The other day an estimable lady was induced after much persuasion, to accompany some friends to a matinee at which was to be presented one of the prevalent combinations of burlesque and buffoonery, a plotless panorama of fun, "constructed for laughing purposes only," &c.

She bore it patiently, and while her companions were hysterical with laughter, she sat observing the actors with a faint look of disgust at what she termed their "silly actions."

An elderly gentleman directly in front of her had placed his overcoat and silk hat in the unoccupied seat next him. He was rocking to and fro with convulsive mirth.

Suddenly the hat, becoming disturbed in some way, fell to the floor and in his unwitting applause he brought his foot directly upon it and crushed it flat.

That did touch the springs of her sense of the ridiculous, and for a moment her laughter extinguished that of her mates.

Encouragement for Musicians.

An advertisement in a New York paper read:

"Wanted, an accordion player; apply at the shooting gallery, at No. — Third Avenue."

The accordion players saw through the scheme right away, and not one answered the advertisement.

The object was to get all the accordion players in the city to apply to the shooting gallery, and use them as targets as fast as they entered the room.

It is greatly to be regretted that the ruse miscarried.—[Norristown Herald.

Boston's Fashionable Foibles.

"Where have you been, dear?"

"Down to the Science Matinee."

"Did you like it, dear?"

"It was just splendid. Prof. Bottles gave a lecture on 'The Advisability of Prolonged Anæsthetization.' It was simply lovely; and Dr. Nester's paper on 'The Hemostatic Properties of Ambrosia Artemesiefolia' was just too sweet for anything.

"You must be sure and come down with me next week."—[Puck.

His Inconsistency.

They were discussing at the dinner-table the question of capital punishment.

A young physician, who was a warm partisan of the side which favored its abolition, cried out:

"It is a barbarous custom. One man has no right to take the life of his fellow."

A young lady on the other side:

'Nevertheless, monsieur, you are a doctor!"

Mercantile Maiden.

Burlington girls are of a decidedly business-like turn of mind.

"May I aspire to your hand?" asked a dude of one of our prettiest belles the other day.

"You may have the refusal of it for an indefinite period," was the prompt reply.—[Burlington Free Press.

Blissful Anticipation.

Lily (to her governess): "You say, Mademoiselle, that when I go to heaven I shall be perfectly happy."

TESTIMONIAL!

Vancouver, 23rd June, 1886.

MR. G. ROBERTSON,
Vancouver;
Representing Goldie & McCulloch,
Galt, Ont.

SIR.—We the undersigned having witnessed the terrible fire which wiped out of existence the young city of Vancouver, on the 13th inst., have, after the fire, examined the safes sold by you, some of which were put to the most severe test, having been surrounded by large quantities of lard and bacon, and we are pleased to testify to the remarkable manner in which every Safe sold by you preserved its contents, not only books and papers, but also thousands of dollars in paper money were taken out in perfect condition. We can, therefore, with the greatest confidence, recommend them as thoroughly fire proof:

1873. GRIP! 1887.

CANADA'S COMIC JOURNAL

GREAT IMPROVEMENTS FOR 1887.

THE AIM OF "GRIP" is to set forth, in in an impartial and independent manner, the passing events of Canadian political and social life. Its Cartoons speak more definitely and more pleasingly than whole columns of editorial. In this pungent, easily appreciable, and artistic style of presenting a subject, the whole situation is revealed at a glance. The success of Grip shows how well this fact is appreciated—its Cartoons on the passing political events of the country being even more eagerly sought after than the chaste and humorous letter-press of the paper,—though the latter is equal to that of any similar publication on the continent.

The publishers of Grip are making extensive improvements for 1886. The old cover is to be discarded, and the journal will hereafter comprise 12 pages, and be printed on heavy toned and calendered paper,—every number being so artistically executed as to compare favorably with the best papers on the continent. The advts. will be compressed and more systematically arranged; while similar improvements will be made as to the letter-press. A new and handsome design will adorn the title page; while the Cartoons will certainly not suffer from extensive improvements in the artistic department.

The price of Grip will hereafter be $2 a year, which is lower than that of any paper of its kind in America,—most of them selling for $5. Single numbers of Grip will be 10 cents.

Twice a year, at Midsummer and Christmas, a beautiful special number will be issued, the number of pages being increased, and pleasing features introduced, particulars of which will be given in preceding issues. These numbers will be presented to subscribers without extra charge.

GRIP'S PLATFORM:

Humor without Vulgarity;
Patriotism without Partizanship;
Truth without Temper.

Only $2 a Year, Postage Free.

THE BRITISH COLUMBIAN Printing Company

(LIMITED.)

ON THE 10TH OF JANUARY, 1887, the COLUMBIAN Newspaper and Printing Concern was purchased by a joint stock company composed of citizens of New Westminster, to be known as the "British Columbian Printing Co., Limited." The concern has been for nearly a year owned and controlled by the British Columbia Stationery and Printing Company, of New Westminster, Victoria and Vancouver. The object of the new company is to continue the publication of the BRITISH COLUMBIAN newspaper and carry on a general printing and publishing concern, controlled entirely by those whose individual interest it will be to promote the development, especially of the Mainland. There will be no slackening of the energy hitherto displayed in the management of the establishment, and its patrons may rely upon receiving full value for their money. The COLUMBIAN will continue to be entirely independent in both Dominion and provincial politics, and will devote itself to the advancement of such schemes as may be considered in the public interest. The concern is now entirely separate from any other business, the book and stationery establishment in this city having been taken over by Mr. T. R. Pearson, who will continue to carry it on in his own name and for his own benefit. It is desirable that a daily newspaper should be maintained in this city, and the new company asks for public patronage on the ground that it is engaged in an enterprise calculated to promote the public welfare. It asks that the COLUMBIAN be judged on its own merits and supported only so long as its policy is enconsistt with its professions. In consequence of this business change all accounts due the concern must be settled without delay so that the books of the former company may be adjusted and closed. A HOME COMPANY.

This Association merits the confidence the Public is reposing in it from the following FACTS:—

The Security offered to policy holders is unsurpassed by any Company doing business in Canada,

It has no schemes of insurance, but the well-established lines, hence the policy holders cannot be misled as to their contracts.

Its statements to the public can be readily understood, its cash statement showing every item of income and how expended.

Its position is ascertained annually from a detailed valuation in which every item of liability is included.

Its progress has been unexampled in the history of insurance in Canada.

Its policies are indisputable after three years, and non-forfeitable after two years' existence.

Its profits are distributed upon an equitable basis. The profits to one class of policy holders are not lessened to give larger profits to any other class, which method affords superior advantages over the uniform bonus plan of distribution.

Liberal Conditions as to Residence and Travel.

Daily British Columbian

Thursday Evening, June 30, 1887.

The Rithet left at 7 o'clock for Victoria.

The William Irving went up-river this morning.

10 cars of freight arrived from the east yesterday.

The old jail and lockup is to be pulled down by July 25th.

The advance sale of seats for "Prince Methusalem" is very large.

The Pyke Opera Co., 35 in number, arrived by train to-day from Vancouver.

The Royal City Baseball Club will play the Vancouver club at 4 o'clock to-morrow in Vancouver.

To-morrow is Dominion Day and a public holiday. There will be no COLUMBIAN issued on that day.

Two Indians appeared before the court this morning on a charge of drunkenness. They will languish in jail for a month's time.

The militia will parade at the Drill Shed at 6:30 to-morrow morning and afterwards march to the depot and take train for Vancouver.

Mr. Blake's physical condition is such as to leave no hope of his ever assuming the Liberal leadership, and Mr. Laurier has consented to accept the position unconditionally.

Messrs. D. Drysdale & Co. announce a removal sale to begin on the 1st July, when the whole of this large stock will be offered at greatly reduced prices. See advertisement in another column.

This seems to be the fashionable time for offering bargains. The Bon Marche is to-day added to the list of dry-goods establishments engaged in selling off, and offering special inducements to customers.

At Vancouver there are now lying two hundred tons of freight consigned to the Treadwell mine, Douglas Island, Alaska, from the east via the C. P. R. It will be called for by the Ancon on her next northward trip.

We are requested to remind those concerned that the Methodist Sabbath school pic-nic will leave the C. P. N. wharf at 8 o'clock sharp to-morrow morning. Those who come after that hour may expect to be left.

Three vessels left San Francisco last week for Honolulu loaded with firearms and ammunition. H. M. S. Conquest will, it is believed, start for for Honolulu on Saturday and it is reported the Triumph will shortly follow.

Central Music Hall was packed to witness the grand opening night of Lew Johnson Black Baby Boy Combination. The performance was excellent and the company certainly deserve their place in the front rank of the profession.—Chicago Inter-Ocean.

The new steel steamer for the C. P. N. Co. is now having the finishing touches put on her hull at the Union Iron Works ship-yard, San Francisco, prior to being launched. It is understood that she will be appropriately named the Victoria.—Vic. Times.

The queen regent of Spain has sent to Queen Victoria for a jubilee gift a widow's cap of priceless old Spanish lace, with an embroidered veil reaching to the ground and a pearl diadem, the jewels of which were embroidered on the lace by Queen Christiana herself.

It is believed that the danger of extensive floods is over for this season. The highest water was very little above the maximum of last year, and damage occurred only on the low lands. Quite a number of new settlers who have taken up low lands have been flooded out.

Advices were received the other day from General Freight Manager George Olds, of the C.P.R., to the effect that as soon as the new freight rates are issued, about July 1st, it would be seen that rates to all points in British Columbia from the Pacific coast had been greatly reduced.

Yesterday evening Mr. Thos. Spence and Mr. Jos. Wise were going to Vancouver in a buggy drawn by a spirited horse, when, from some unaccountable cause, the horse became frightened and ran away. Both the occupants were thrown out. Mr. Spence fell against a stump and severely hurt his side, while Mr. Wise got off better. Mr. Spence was brought back to his home in this city and had his injuries attended to. It will probably be a week or more before he shall have completely recovered.

Mr. Pyke, of the Pyke Opera Co., informs us that the company will not *play here on Saturday night as adver*tised. He wishes to reach Tacoma on Monday and for that reason will have to leave here on the Rithet Saturday morning

There were about 150 people present at the garden party given last night on Mr. C. G. Major's grounds, Agnes st. The grounds were lighted up with Chinese lanterns, and looked very inviting. Strawberries and cream were served on the lawn, and the proceedings were enlivened by music from the band, as well as the piano.

The government agent in this city has been instructed to sell by auction the old gaol buildings and fixtures, the condition being, we believe, that they shall be removed from the premises within a specified time. This is in accordance with the understanding arrived at between the provincial secretary and the council a short time ago.

The passengers by the Abyssinia from Yokohama arrived in Montreal in 5 days and 15 hours from Vancouver, making a total of 20 days from Yokohama. It is expected Liverpool would be reached in 7 days from New York, and New York in 6 days from Vancouver, or a total of 28 days from Yokohama to Liverpool. The distance covered is about 10,500 miles. This is truly quick traveling, but it is the intention to further reduce the time by two days. As it is this will be the fastest time on record by 3 days.

Coroner Wise held an inquest at Yale on Saturday, 25th inst., upon the body of Jacob Reynolds, otherwise Jacob Clinger, lately employed as a blacksmith on the C.P.R., who committed suicide by hanging himself in his dwelling place on the night of the 23rd inst. From the evidence it appeared that the deceased had been drinking very hard during the week, and the jury found a verdict of felo de se. The deceased came from St. Louis, Mo., U. S. A. He leaves a wife and one child.

There are a number of varieties of corns. Holloway's Corn Cure will remove any of them. Call on your druggist and get a bottle at once.

CUSTOMS COLLECTIONS.—The collections at this port for the month of June amount to $3,919.04, a decrease of $257.76 as compared with the same period of last year.

BETTER STEAMBOATS NEEDED. — Though often differing with our friend the Daily Columbian on other points, on the matter of the unfitness of the C. P. N. Co's. steamers for the services they are performing, we are hand and glove with him. The boats of this company, both on the Westminster route as well as the Vancouver route, are notoriously unfit for the service in which they are placed. They were never designed for gulf service, being intended by their builders for river service only, and it is a miracle almost that some disaster has not overtaken one of their number long ere this. The postal department ought to take this up, as the idea of the payment of the large subsidies received by this company for carrying the mails entitles us to a better service.—Vancouver Herald.

Do not delay in getting relief for the little folks. Mother Graves' Worm Exterminator is a pleasant and sure cure. If you love your child why do you let it suffer when a remedy is so near at hand?

Personal.

Chester Chadsey and Mrs. Chadsey, of Sumas, arrived yesterday and will take in the Vancouver celebration to-morrow.

D. Drysdale, of the firm of D. Drysdale & Co., left to-day per C.P.R. for Montreal on a business trip. He expects to return next month.

The following members of the Pyke Opera Co. are registered at the Colonial: Miss Jennie Winston, Miss Louise Manfred, C. M. Pyke, Harry Norman, Louis De Lange, Alex. Clarke, Miss Genieve Reynolds, Miss Marchi E. A. Pyke, Miss Bageard, Chas. Colby, F. E Reynolds, W. Roberts, Miss Kate Powell, Jas. Peteriel, Miss Jennie Easton, Miss Earl, Miss K. Lowell, C. H. "Prince Methusalem."

To-night, for the first time, the Pyke Opera Co. will appear before a Westminster audience. The opera selected for the occasion is Strauss' Prince Methusalem. The plot is of the slenderest description but serves well on which to hang a lot of bright and sparkling music. The scene is laid in the dukedom of Trocedora, the reigning sovereign of which, the illustrious Sagismond, has by dint of exercising much diplomacy succeeded in arranging a match between his daughter Pulcinela and the son of the neighboring duke of Ricarac, Prince Methusalem. On the arrival of the latter with his father and mother at the court of Sagismond the usual amount of festivities are indulged in, a special cantata having been written for the occasion by Trombonius "the composer of the future." In the midst of the festivities a despatch is received by Count Volcanio, the grand chamberlain, stating that a revolution had broken out in Ricarac, and that Cyprian had been deposed, he communicates this to Sagismond, and that wily sovereign immediately tries to break off the match, but the marriage has already taken place, and he is at his wits' end to know what to do. He succeeds, however, in separating the happy couple for a while, but meantime a revolution in Trocedora itself has been fomented by Trombonius, who has been disappointed in not receiving his promised reward, and Sagismond finds that he too has been driven from his throne principally on account of excessive taxation (a warning to city councils). The opera, however, is brought to a close by Prince Methusalem being proclaimed duke and recovering his lost bride.

Presbyterians on the Liquor Question.

The following was the deliverance of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in Canada at Winnipeg the other day:

REPORT ON TEMPERANCE.

The report of the committee on temperance was submitted by the Rev. P. Wright, and dealt with the replies sent in by Synods to the various questions submitted by the committee in respect to the different branches of the temperance work. It concluded with the following recommendations:—

First—That, since Christ alone can uplift and bless the race, purify and save society, and make of us a temperate and peaceable people, we give ourselves, in promoting with renewed consecration to the preaching of the Gospel; and that we hold up Christ in our pulpits, prayer meetings, Sabbath schools, Bible classes and families as the only Saviour from sin and the only Guide to true character.

Second—That this Assembly views with gladness and gratitude the cheering progress of temperance and prohibition principles throughout the land; that it records its thankful acknowledgement of the assistance rendered by the press and the various temperance societies in forming and educating public opinion on this question; and that it cordially endorses the action of such provincial parliaments as have enacted laws requiring instruction in our public schools as to the effects of alcohol and other narcotics on the human system.

Third—That this assembly again declares its conviction that the liquor traffic is contrary to the word of God, and to the spirit of the Christian religion; that is right in principle; that it is the duty of the State to pass a prohibitory law; and that this result is to be earnestly sought by all right means. And further, that this assembly declares its readiness to co-operate with the other Christian denominations of this Dominion in an earnest and united effort to hold fast that which we have, and to obtain at the earliest possible day, an efficient law for the entire suppression of the liquor traffic.

Fourth—That this assembly, with renewed earnestness and emphasis, again express the hope that electors in their choice of representatives will elect only able and good men who are well known to be in sympathy with prohibitory legislation.

Fifth—That this assembly calls on all its pastors, elders, teachers and members to use their utmost influence against the deadly power of the saloon, by their public utterances and private life; by personal effort and example on behalf of temperance; and by a watchful care of the young gathered in our Sabbath schools and homes, so as to awaken the conscience of the indifferent, and save those who are tempted or fallen.

The recommendations were then adopted.

Also an additional recommendation, to the effect that the assembly should urge the need of petitioning the Dominion legislature in favor of total prohibition of the liquor traffic, and that *signatures be obtained in all the con*gregations to a petition to be sent to Ottawa praying for this boon to the country.

And that the Dominion government be called upon to enforce the provisions of the Canada Temperance Act.

MALADIES MULTIPLY ONE ANOTHER. A simple fit of digestion may—especially if the constitution is not naturally vigorous—throw the entire mechanism of the liver and bowels out of gear. Sick headache follows, poisoning of the blood by bile ensues, and there is grave and serious disturbance of the entire system. Check the threatened dangers at the outset with Northrop & Lyman's Vegetable Discovery and Dyspeptic Cure, the medicine that drives every impurity from the blood.

"I take only one English weekly paper, The Spectator, and one Canadian, The Week; and as a rule I should be puzzled to say which I should miss most."—From a letter by Thomas Hughes, author of "Tom Brown's School Days."

The Week:

A Canadian Journal of Politics, Society and Literature.

PUBLISHED EVERY THURSDAY, AT $3.00 PER ANNUM.

Independent in politics, THE WEEK appeals by a comprehensive Table of Contents to the different tastes which exist within the circle of a cultured home.

An average of fifteen short, crisp Editorials is given in each number upon CANADIAN, AMERICAN, and ENGLISH POLITICS and LITERATURE.

Amongst the regular contributors is Professor Goldwin Smith; and a distinguished public man in London has kindly undertaken to supply regularly an English Letter. Paris and Washington Letters will appear at regular intervals.

In addition there are special contributions from some of the ablest writers in the Dominion and the United States.

THE WEEK

has now entered upon its third year with most encouraging prospects, and with many new features.
