Public Notice

New Westminster Public Library.

THE UNDERSIGNED (THANKS TO the kindness and permission of the Mayor and City Council) two weeks ago re-opened the Public Library, and takes this opportunity to offer an invitation to residents of New Westminster to pay him a visit. Papers and Magazines from all directions are received for patrons and visitors, and more will be added in case a reasonable support is obtained. The terms are 50 cents a month, in advance, as papers, &c., are paid for in advance. This will amount to about 2 cents a day, or the cost of one cigar for seven days permission to see news from all over the world, and elegant books which may be changed every 24 hours! There is no compulsion about this, but those who believe in getting in out of the rain and who can enjoy a decent fire will doubtless appreciate this institution. Ladies and strangers are free, so doubtless all the parties who believe in Blue Ribbon will come forward at once and join this attractive affair, both for their own credit and that of others. Come one, come all, and you will be attended to by one who can soap all classes, viz.:

Yours Respectfully,

HENRY W. HUGHES.

Monday Evening, March 21, 1887.

PROVINCIAL LEGISLATURE.

On Thursday afternoon the debate on the estimates was continued, nearly every member taking part in it. The opposition members made a great many charges against the government and its supporters, which they on their part denied or explained, and in some instances the discussion grew warm and personal. Mr. Mason defended the proposed loan. He said the government might adopt the non-progressive policy of the late administration, collect all the money it could from the mainland and spend it about Victoria and the lower mainland, and leave the interior to look after itself. He for one would be sorry to see such a state of things come about. We were living in a progressive age, and he was glad to see we had a progressive government.—Mr. Theo. Davie made a very effective speech in which he exposed the inconsistency and insincerity of the opposition. He referred to the speech of Mr. Semlin in 1883, when he voted to turn out Mr. Beaven because his government was allowing roads and bridges everywhere to go to ruin; but now Mr. Semlin opposed the negotiation of a loan which was needed to keep the public works up to public requirements. What could he (Mr. Semlin) see in the leader of the opposition now that he failed to see in 1883?—Mr. Ladner complained that only $180,000 a year was being spent in roads and bridges, and the sum was too small. Many of the roads on the mainland were in a disgraceful condition. He then branched out into matters pertaining to the last election in Westminster district, and made statements which the provincial secretary flatly contradicted. He said the provincial secretary kissed all the babies in the district to secure his election. —Mr. Stenhouse offered a resolution affirming that the government ought not to continue to use the revenue for purposes of bribery. The resolution was seconded and supported by Mr. Ladner, and defeated on a vote of 6 to 13.—Hon. Mr. Robson in closing the debate on the estimates said that during the discussion a great many "sticks" had been thrown at him by the opposition, but they were harmless. He was sure they would not injure him with the public in general, with his constituents, or with the honorable gentlemen of the legislature, and he was quite sure they did not affect his private character. "The most sticks were always found at the foot of the best apple tree." Replying to the charge of the member for Westminster city, that constitutional government had been violated by members of the executive in taking their supporters into their confidence and consulting with them in regard to the requirements of their districts, it was, he claimed, customary for governments to meet their supporters in caucus to discuss matters of public policy and the formation of the estimates with them. The member for Westminster referred feelingly to the condition of the Vancouver road. He had no doubt but it was in a very bad condition, and he was in favor of making it a first-class road in every respect when the revenues would enable the work to be done. The same member had, child-like, challenged him to an election contest in Westminster. He repudiated the statement that the government were not sincere in their efforts to secure better rates on the Canadian Pacific. The middle member for Westminster complained that only $1000 was voted to repair the Yale trunk road. Last year $2000 was voted for that purpose, but for every year previous the sum was $1000. When that hon. gentleman complained of the ill-treatment of his district it was necessary for him to enquire a little into the past. In the four years of the Walkem-Beaven administration $28,904 was voted for roads, streets and bridges in that district, while during the four years which the present government held office the total sum spent there for precisely the same purposes was $266,205. The speech of the middle member for Cariboo district was characterized as one of the most remarkable ever delivered since the inauguration of constitutional government. The senior member for Yale had given the house a dissertation on electoral corruption. Everyone knew how anxious that hon. gentleman was at one time to be "corrupted," and because he could get no one to do it he crossed over to the other side of the house where all things are pure. The junior member for Westminster district had charged him with securing his election by bribery. It followed that if he had secured his election by bribery that the whole constituency was corrupt; and on behalf of the 420 who had voted for him he hurled the vile insinuation back. Referring to the Vancouver affair he said he had been charged with being wholly responsible for the recent legislation. He could not if he would, and would not if he could, state how the three ministers stood upon the question, but was prepared to take his full share of responsibility of that and all other acts of the government of which he was a member. He had been charged by the opposition newspapers with being an owner in the land which was being cleared by the Chinese. The contract made with Mr. McDougall for clearing the Brighouse estate was arranged at Vancouver by owners in that property. He was the last to sign the contract and had no reason to suppose that Chinese would be employed as the price agreed upon ($150 per acre) he considered ample to secure white labor, and that it was so was proved by the fact that the contract had been sub-let to Chinese at $90 per acre. Upon learning of the difficulty he wrote up to say that he was prepared to pay a higher price in order to secure white labor. The policy of the opposition was simply to get hold of the money bags: the policy of the government would be to conduct the province to that proud destiny for which nature had intended her.

THE MISSOURI FLOODS.

BISMARCK, Dak., Mar. 21.—The Missouri river has risen a foot here to day. The speed of the current is terrific and the situation generally grows worse. This rise is equal to twenty feet in the upper river, the water here being spread over six miles of country. Six inches of snow fell yesterday and this will add to the flood as soon as the weather grows warmer again. The heroes of the day are the rescuing party who went into the lowlands yesterday and saved the lives of seven persons, who were perched on the tops of houses and trees. Despatches from Fort Lincoln say that people can be seen standing on hay stacks and trees and, if not soon rescued, will perish in the flood. Many claim that the country opposite the fort contained many inhabitants who are still in great danger. The same reports come from Painted Woods. The report is denied that Supt. Graham, of the Northern Pacific, has been drowned. He telegraphed to Bismarck on Friday evening. The Sibley Island gorge remains firm and if affairs continue in the present state a week a permanent channel will be cut across the country two miles east of the old bed of the Missouri. Huge cakes of ice are coming down the river and landing on the meadow land of the settlers. It is impossible now to repair the Northern Pacific trestle on account of the flowing ice. The terrific rapidity of the rise of the river at Painted Woods is indicated by the experience of two families, who saw the flood in the distance and attempted to pack up their household goods, preparatory to moving back from the stream to the Buttes. 7 houses floated on the highest point of the lowland before the families were ready to start. The water was then within 6 feet of their house. 5 children were in the party and before the Buttes could be reached the flood overflowed them and the last part of the journey was made through three feet of water. One of the children narrowly escaped drowning. Another train load of eastern passengers, which arrived to-day will be compelled to remain here until it is possible to cross the Missouri. It is believed the Northern Pacific will be able to establish a transfer line of boats to-morrow.

A BAD FIRE.

BUFFALO, Mar. 21.—A special from Jamestown says: A fire at the Chautauqua assembly grounds early this morning destroyed 80 buildings, including several large boarding houses. The total loss will probably exceed $100,000. About 60 families remain on the grounds during the winter season. The fire swept everything before it, taking both sides of Simpson and Summerfield avenue from the auditorium to the hotel, and it was with great difficulty that the hotel was saved.

A REVOLUTIONARY REGIMENT.

ST. PETERSBURG, Mar. 21.—A sensation has been caused here by the removal of Col. Sassovitch from command of the grenadiers to a regiment on the Siberian frontier. The grenadiers, it is said, were becoming imbued with revolutionary ideas. Col. Sassovitch is brother of the famous Vera Sassovitch.

ITALIAN PRISONERS RELEASED.

ROME, Mar. 21.—A despatch from Massoian says: The general, in order to obtain the release of Italian prisoners, delivered up six men of the Assoitian tribe to Rasolata, who immediately beheaded them. That tribe then threatened to massacre the Italians, and a strong guard was therefore sent and brought them safely here. Abuta still retains Savoiroux as a hostage for further demands.

THE FIRE.

BUFFALO, Mar. 21.—No more bodies had been found in the ruins of the Richmond hotel up to noon to-day, when the searching party was withdrawn, owing to the shaky condition of the walls, which are to be pulled down at once. The hotel safe was removed this morning and its contents, including thirty to forty thousand dollars and diamonds, were found in good shape.

DOWN ON THE REPORTERS.

NEW YORK, Mar. 21.—At the trial of Ex.-Ald. Cleary this morning, a queer scene was enacted by Shaffer, his counsel. Shaffer spoke in terms of bitter invective against the proprietor of a morning paper of this city. He was brought to a stop by a sharp rap of the gavel. The court said the jurors knew nothing of paper assaults, and the counsel must desist. Turning upon the twenty reporters around the table, the advocate yelled: "There they are! There they are! There they are! Burning geniuses of the press! There isn't one of them you could trust in your house, except the fat man." Three or four flashy quill-pushers at the table, each taking this to himself, blushed confusedly.

FAVORABLE TO THE POPE.

ROME, Mar. 21.—The special delegate sent by the vatican to convey its congratulations to the Emperor William on his attainment to his 90th birthday, to-morrow, telegraphs from Berlin that he has been very favorably received.

BRIGHT ON HOME RULE.

LONDON, Mar. 21.—John Bright, in a letter with reference to home rule, says that the majority of the people in Ireland would vote that their country be made a state of the American union if the present leaders instructed them to do so, but that would be no reason why the kingdom should consent.

MORE ABOUT THE FLOODS—MAILS RETURNED.

MINNEAPOLIS, Mar. 21.—Judge Francis, of Dakota, who left Bismarck Saturday and returned here this morning, says the scenes in the flooded district defy description. Ice cakes, hundreds of feet square, are thrown high into the air when they strike obstacles. If the Missouri should now freeze up and the Yellowstone break away and pour its ice against the ice in the Missouri, the result at Mandan would be terrible. It seems strange to have that place in full view only five miles away, and yet less accessible to communication than London or Paris. The destruction of property will be great. Several sacks of western mails have been brought back from Bismarck to be sent around by the Union Pacific.

ALL EFFORTS FUTILE.

ST. PAUL, Mar. 21.—From Northern Pacific officials this morning it is learned that all efforts to dislodge the ice gorge above Mandan have been futile. The water is rising and sweeping over a larger area than yesterday, though how much damage is done is merely matter of conjecture. Telegraphic communication with Mandan has been cut off completely, and it is impossible to get news direct. The Northern Pacific bridge is not endangered as reported.

FOR THE PROTECTION OF FISH.

WASHINGTON, Mar. 20.—Acting Secretary Fairchilds has issued a circular to the customs officers promulgating the recent act of congress, authorizing the president to protect the rights of the American fishing vessels, American fishermen, and American trading and other vessels in certain cases, and the act relating to the importing and landing of mackerel, caught during the spring season, and calling particular attention to their provisions.

DEATH OF A BURGLAR.

SAN FRANCISCO, Mar. 20.—James Scott, a burglar, who was shot in the jaw about the 8th inst., while robbing a boarding house, kept at the corner of Francisco & Fillmore sts., by E. J. Wilkinson, died at the hospital this morning from the effects of the wound. Scott was formerly employed in the house.

A VILLAINOUS CRIME.

CHICAGO, March, 19.—The Times' Hastings, Neb., special says: Dr. W. W. Randall, of this city, was arrested on Wednesday night for committing rape upon the person of Miss Hart, of Edmore, a 12-year-old girl, who was placed under his care for treatment. The crime was committed last week ago and to-day he was arraigned. Just after the examination closed, and Randall had been placed under $2,000 bonds a brother of the girl pulled out a revolver and, before any person was aware of his intention, shot Randall dead. He then turned and walked out of the house and disappeared, and no person has taken the trouble to go for him, as the shooting is looked upon as justifiable. From the evidence produced it appears as though Randall and his wife, who was on trial with him, had made it a practice to ruin young girls and place them in houses of ill-fame. Mrs. Randall is now in custody of the sheriff. She is quartered in her boarding-house, which is surrounded by a large mob, who, though not violent, seemed determined to do something desperate and the chances are that, before to-morrow's sun she will have followed her husband.

Daily British Columbian

Monday Evening, March 21, 1887.

Our contemporary of the Vancouver Herald applauds the suggestion of our correspondent for the establishment of a Conservative association. While admitting that "party rancor in the east is a great drawback to intelligent and independent thought on political questions," he remarks that it is not necessary to run a party organization on these lines. Certainly it is not; but the question that comes up for answer is, What reason is there to suppose that party tactics in this province would be less open to objection than in other provinces? Human nature is much the same wherever one finds it, and we confess to a great deal of misgiving with respect to the advisability of providing here the very machinery that has been working mischief elsewhere. We admit at once that a Conservative association, or any other political association, if founded upon correct principles and conducted with an honest purpose to promote the public good, would be a most desirable organization. This was the character and aim of the association whose establishment we advocated, and to which our cotemporary refers; but it was not proposed that it should ally itself with any political party. It was to be an association with a single purpose—the greatest good to the greatest number. Nothing has come of the suggestion yet, but we are not without hope for the future.

The Vancouver Herald professes not to be able to see how the COLUMBIAN can be a consistent advocate of temperance while it accepts hotel advertisements, even with the whiskey part of the establishment expunged. "When our cotemporary can show" says the Herald, "that hotels are conducted without a bar, or that they could exist without one, and that the public in general understand that they are merely places where travellers eat and sleep, then he will have some grounds for his complaint." Well, that is easy enough. In proof of the fact that bars are not necessary appendages to hotels we may point to the fact that there are two excellent hotels in this city, the Farmer's Home and the City Hotel, where no liquors have ever been sold. Both these establishments have been carried on for many years, and both are paying concerns. With a great many people the idea of a hotel conveys no suggestion of whiskey, because they never patronize the bar at all. To say that advertising a hotel is advertising the liquor traffic is just as absurd as to say that one could not consistently advertise or recommend a city in which liquor is sold without becoming chargeable with encouraging the traffic! To our mind and conscience the distinction is clear enough, and it is here we have drawn the line. If our cotemporary finds that his conscience demands the exclusion even of hotel advertisements, by all means let him exclude them, and we shall applaud his devotion to consistency and conviction.

A writer in one of the Victoria papers the other day drew attention to the growing nuisance of "nameless letters," or letters which are made public without the author's name. If this system of annonymous scribbling is a nuisance to the public, it is not less so to the publishers. It has been considered the proper thing to admit annonymous communications when the matter therein contained relates to questions affecting the public good, and some papers even admit the most personal reflections to be made over a nom de plume. The practice among all respectable journalists of late years has been becoming more conservative, and many publishers resolutely refuse to take annonymous letters which contain personal allusions, no matter if the things referred to are in the public interest. We believe this restriction is quite proper. The liberty of irresponsible scribblers has been altogether too large, and it ought to be curtailed. The publisher of a newspaper has to stand behind every anonymous letter, and it sometimes happens that the responsibility he assumes is quite serious. It sometimes happens that persons writing for the press wish to do so under an assumed name for very good reasons, but the reason too often is a lack of courage. They wish to shield themselves from responsibility, and throw it on the shoulders of the publisher. And some of these people become quite indignant if a publisher declines to accept whatever they think proper to write! We are not sure that the best rule is to insist upon non-communication writing over proper names. If this rule were followed again, the number of letters appearing in the newspapers would be greatly reduced, and the people who are always ready to rush into print under an assumed name would, perhaps, think their rights were invaded.

1873. GRIP! 1887.
CANADA'S COMIC JOURNAL
GREAT IMPROVEMENTS FOR 1887.
THE AIM OF "GRIP" is to set forth, in an impartial and independent manner, the passing events of Canadian political and social life. Its Cartoons speak more definitely and more pleasingly than whole columns of editorial. In this pungent, easily appreciable, and artistic style of presenting a subject, the whole situation is revealed at a glance. The success of Grip shows how well this fact is appreciated—its Cartoons on the passing political events of the country being even more eagerly sought after than the chaste and humorous letter-press of the paper,—though the latter is equal to that of any similar publication on the continent.
The publishers of Grip are making extensive improvements for 1888. The old cover is to be discarded, and the journal will hereafter comprise 12 pages, and be printed on heavy toned and calendered paper,—every number being so artistically executed as to compare favorably with the best papers on the continent. The advts. will be compressed and more systematically arranged; while similar improvements will be made as to the letter-press. A new and handsome design will adorn the title page; while the Cartoons will certainly not suffer from extensive improvements in the artistic department.
The price of Grip will hereafter be $2 a year, which is lower than that of any paper of its kind in America,—most of them selling for $3. Single numbers of Grip will be 10 cents.
Twice a year, at Midsummer and Christmas, a beautiful special number will be issued, the number of pages being increased, and pleasing features introduced, particulars of which will be given in preceding issues. These numbers will be presented to subscribers without extra charge.
GRIP'S PLATFORM:
Humor without Vulgarity;
Patriotism without Partizanship;
Truth without Temper.
Only $2 a Year, Postage Free.
Address the Grip Printing and Publishing Company, 26 and 28 Front Street, West, Toronto; or leave your order with your bookseller or other local agent. fe14

Another Singular Letter.

Some time ago we published a summary of the correspondence which took place in connection with a certain lot on Lulu Island. In that correspondence occurred a letter from Mr. Bole, written on behalf of Mr. Jaques, who was his client, which contained insinuations against the honesty of the government that under the circumstances were nothing less than impertinent. The whole correspondence showed that the conduct of the government in that matter had been perfectly straightforward. In the legislative report which we published on Saturday Mr. Bole stated that Mr. Warwick, the government agent in this city, had made statements which were "false and malicious in the extreme." No person who knows Mr. Warwick will be apt to believe that he has been guilty of either falsehood or malice, and for the purpose of putting before our readers the facts of the matter we give below a summary of the correspondence published in connection with the application made by Mr. Bole, on behalf of Philip Kelly, for a piece of land on Burrard Inlet. The first letter is from Mr. Bole, and we must say that it does not show any improvement on the one we published a few weeks ago. The letter is dated Feb. 18th, 1887, and addressed to Hon. Wm. Smithe, chief commissioner of lands and works, and is as follows:

SIR,—I beg to call your attention to a most extraordinary circumstance which occurred, as I am informed by Mr. Kelly, in the land office here to-day. Mr. Philip Kelly, a client of mine, who has pre-empted a piece of land on Burrard Inlet, north of lot 204, group 1, New Westminster district, inadvertently placed on the counter of the office a document referring to said land, signed by one Stalker, and which Mr. Kelly had no intention of parting with or using. Mr. Warwick's name appeared in the document, and that gentleman seeing the document took it up and insisted on keeping it, notwithstanding Mr. Kelly's formal demand for the return thereof; Mr. Warwick further remarking, "that" (referring to the document in question) "will be sufficient to prove Henderson's claim." Mr. Kelly is, as you are already aware, the bona fide pre-emptor of the land in question, while Mr. Henderson is but a speculative purchaser, representing, probably, much bigger individuals in a convenient background. May I trust that you, officially, entertain as strong a repugnance to speculative land purchasers as Mr. Robson, on behalf of himself and his colleagues, from his place in the house, when discussing the Jacques claim, as if that gentleman, which I doubt, honestly meant what he said, his government has now an opportunity of proving their sincerity, and preferring the claim of the bona fide settler to the speculative purchaser. I am, therefore, to request that you will direct Mr. Warwick forthwith to return to me, on behalf of Mr. Kelly, the document above referred to. Your refusal to do so I must deem conclusive evidence that your government are siding with Mr. Henderson against Mr. Kelly, who is determined, however, to exhaust every legal remedy before he surrenders his just rights. May I venture to hope that in expecting an answer of some kind to this letter, that I am not imposing too severe a strain on your official courtesy. I am, etc., W. NORMAN BOLE.

The returns show that Mr. Warwick was asked to explain the circumstances referred to above, which he did in detail. On the 14th Feb. J. B. Henderson and Hugh Stalker applied for the land. Subsequently Philip Kelly applied in person and was told the land had been already applied for. Kelly was angry, as he claimed to have made improvements, and he handed the agent a letter from Stalker which, the agent remarked, would end the dispute between Stalker and Henderson. The agent refused to surrender the letter and promised to see Henderson with a view to having the matter amicably arranged. Shortly afterwards Kelly returned with Mr. Bole's clerk and made another unsuccessful attempt to get the letter, but the agent only allowed them to take a copy. The agent next day saw Henderson, who withdrew his claim, and he then entered Kelly for the land. The agent reported that the trouble had resulted from neglect on the part of Mr. Bole's office, as he had failed to make application on behalf of Kelly until after the claims of Henderson and Stalker had gone in. The reply of the chief commissioner to Mr. Bole's letter is as follows, dated Victoria, Mar. 5th:

SIR,—Your letter of the 18th ultimo was duly received, but I delayed answering it until the government agent complained against could have an opportunity of reporting upon the alleged facts. Having received the report of that officer, I find that the occurrence to which you are pleased to allude as "a most extraordinary circumstance" consisted simply in Mr. Warwick's most commendable determination to retain possession of a letter which, though addressed to himself, was not his personal property, but belonged to the archives of the office of which he is in charge. I also find that Mr. Warwick showed very proper courtesy in allowing your clerk to take a copy of the letter in question in the interest of your client, Mr. Kelly; but it seems to have been convenient to you to omit mention of that fact when preferring your complaint. In view of the fact that Mr. Warwick did nothing more than his duty in retaining possession of the letter in question, that he went beyond the requirements of his official duty and succeeded in arranging the matter in the interest of your client, I can only characterize the charge brought by you against that officer as frivolous, if not something worse. It is more difficult to find words in which to convey adequate censure of the tone of discourtesy—perhaps insolence would be the more appropriate expression—which pervades your letter; and this appears all the more inexcusable in the light of Mr. Warwick's explanatory note to the effect that Mr Kelly's troubles were the result of your own professional laziness in not having attended to his instructions at the proper time. This is not the first time I have received a letter from you of a character undeserving of reply; and I have to request that in any future correspondence with this department you will endeavor, as far as may be in your power, to observe those rules of politeness common among gentlemen. I have, etc., WM. SMITHE.

We may say that, on publication of this correspondence, Mr. Bole wrote to the Colonist denying that the fault lay with him.

WHAT PHYSICIANS SAY ABOUT THE STARR KIDNEY PAD.

"Treatment by Absorption has for some time been recognized by Medical Men to be the most simple and effectual means of conveying to Diseased Organs, "Curatives," but in cases of Kidney Disease and Complaints attendant thereon, successful treatment was practically impossible until the introduction of the Starr Kidney Pad. It costs less than a single prescription and is immeasurably more decisive and effective than any quantity of internal Medicinal dosing. Worn immediately over the seat of Disease, its curative properties become absorbed by the diseased and enfeebled Organs, continuously and directly, as required to insure in return their healthy action and original vigour. It is comfortable to the patient and pleasant in its effects, and cures when nothing else can. The Starr Kidney Pad accomplishes positive, decisive results. A more valuable discovery as a true remedy for Kidney Diseases was never made.—Medical Gazette

The Starr Kidney Pad, manufactured in Toronto, is a permanent sure cure for diseases, disorders and ailments of the Kidneys, Bladder and urinary secretive system, or attendant complaints, causing pain in the small of the back, sides, etc., producing urinary disorders, such as too frequent, scanty, difficult, painful or copious micturition, inability of retention and sedimentary urine, dropsical symptoms, etc., denoting the presence in the system of diseases common to the urinary secretive organs—known as gravel, catarrh of the bladder and passages, Bright's disease, diabetes, dropsy, piles, nervous debility, etc. Send for pamphlet to LANGLEY & CO., Wholesale Agents, Victoria. Vancouver, 23rd June, 1886.

MR. G. ROBERTSON,
Vancouver:

Representing Goldie & McCulloch, Galt, Ont.

SIR,—We the undersigned having witnessed the terrible fire which wiped out of existence the young city of Vancouver, on the 13th inst., have, after the fire, examined the safes sold by you, some of which were put to the most severe test, having been surrounded by large quantities of lard and bacon, and we are pleased to testify to the remarkable manner in which every Safe sold by you preserved its contents, not only books and papers, but also thousands of dollars in paper money were taken out in perfect condition. We can, therefore, with the greatest confidence, recommend them as thoroughly fire proof;

THE BRITISH COLUMBIAN Printing Company

(LIMITED.)

ON THE 10TH OF JANUARY, 1887, the COLUMBIAN Newspaper and Printing Concern was purchased by a joint stock company composed of citizens of New Westminster, to be known as the "British Columbian Printing Co., Limited." The concern has been for nearly a year owned and controlled by the British Columbia Stationery and Printing Company, of New Westminster, Victoria and Vancouver. The object of the new company is to continue the publication of the BRITISH COLUMBIAN newspaper and carry on a general printing and publishing concern, controlled entirely by those whose individual interest it will be to promote the development, especially of the Mainland. There will be no slackening of the energy hitherto displayed in the management of the establishment, and its patrons may rely upon receiving full value for their money. The COLUMBIAN will continue to be entirely independent in both Dominion and provincial politics, and will devote itself to the advancement of such schemes as may be considered in the public interest. The concern is now entirely separate from any other business, the book and stationery establishment in this city having been taken over by Mr. T. R. Pearson, who will continue to carry it on in his own name and for his own benefit. It is desirable that a daily newspaper should be maintained in this city, and the new company asks for public patronage on the ground that it is engaged in an enterprise calculated to promote the public welfare. It asks that the COLUMBIAN be judged on its own merits and supported only so long as its policy is enconsistt with its professions. In consequence of this business change all accounts due the concern must be settled without delay so that the books of the former company may be adjusted and closed. HEAD OFFICE, TORONTO, CANADA

A HOME COMPANY.

This Association merits the confidence the Public is reposing in it from the following FACTS:—

The Security offered to policy holders is unsurpassed by any Company doing business in Canada,

It has no schemes of insurance, but the well-established lines, hence the policy holders cannot be misled as to their contracts.

Its statements to the public can be readily understood, its cash statement showing every item of income and how expended.

Its position is ascertained annually from a detailed valuation in which every item of liability is included.

Its progress has been unexampled in the history of insurance in Canada.

Its policies are indisputable after three years, and non-forfeitable after two years' existence.

Its profits are distributed upon an equitable basis. The profits to one class of policy holders are not lessened to give larger profits to any other class, which method affords superior advantages over the uniform bonus plan of distribution.

Liberal Conditions as to Residence and Travel.

MOCK PARLIAMENT.—The committee have called another meeting at half-past seven to-morrow evening in Hyack hall, when it is expected the election of members will take place.

IMPORTANT SALE.—From an advertisement in another column it will be seen that T. J. Trapp has a very extensive auction sale on hand for the 30th inst., consisting of the stock-in-trade of the Kelly Bros. See adv. for particulars.

THE TIME-TABLE.—Another change is announced in the C. P. N. time-table. The steamers are to leave this city for Victoria on Mondays at 15 [illegible] and on Thursday and [illegible] steamers leave Victoria [illegible] this city at 7 o'clock Sunday, Wednesday and Friday.

TO BUILD A BOAT.—Mr. J. F. T. Mitchell, says the Seattle Post-Intelligencer, leaves next Monday for Vancouver, B. C., where he goes to build a tow-boat for the mill company, Messrs. Ladner & Kyle. The boat will be 80 feet in length and of the same make as the tug Queen City.

THE HARRIS MURDER.—The man [illegible], from whose evidence Maidment, Pound and Lee were held for trial, attempted on Friday to leave the province, although bound over to appear at the approaching assizes. He was promptly arrested by Officer Moresby's assistant near the boundary line, within a few hours from the time he left Ladners, and now lies in jail.

A GOOD MOVE.—Our local cotemporary does not seem to take kindly to the "mock parliament" which is being organized in this city, and the war correspondent from McKenzie st. says it will have no attraction. Perhaps not, for persons of his kind, but we apprehend that the organization will be generally regarded as a most excellent one. If properly conducted it should do a great deal of good, and we very heartily wish it success.

NO MORE ICE.—The C. P. N. Co have purchased the steamer Sardonyx and have placed her on the route between Victoria and Port Simpson for the present. She left Victoria yesterday for her northern destination with a large cargo, and had on board about 100 Chinamen to be employed in the canneries on the Skeena. On her return she will be thoroughly overhauled and repaired. We learn from official sources that in all probability she will ply between this city and Victoria during the winter season. As the Sardonyx is an iron steamer, we may confidently expect that whatever ice may form in the Fraser hereafter will form no obstacle in the way of river navigation on this particular route.

Mrs. Rudlin, wife of Capt. Rudlin of the Yosemite, came up on the boat yesterday and returned to day to Victoria.

A Pointer to the Council.

Referring to the resolution passed by the city council on the 28th ult., to the effect that the clerk be authorized to notify the police magistrate that he is not to allow any person to act with him upon the bench, while doing duty in the police court, and that no person shall act in his absence without his express authority, Capt. Pittendrigh, J.P., having laid the matter before the attorney-general, is in receipt of the following reply:

ATTORNEY-GENERAL'S DEPARTMENT,
Mar. 17th, 1887.

GEO. PITTENDRIGH, ESQ., J.P.
NEW WESTMINSTER.

DEAR SIR:—I have the honor to inform you, in answer to your letter of the 15th inst., that the attorney-general is of the opinion that the resolution mentioned in your letter does not prevent a Justice of the Peace, for the city of New Westminster, acting in his magisterial capacity, if applied to, and that a Justice of the Peace could be compelled, notwithstanding such resolution, by mandamus, to act.

I have the honor to be, Sir,
Your obedient servant,
(Signed) P. E. IRVINE,
Dy. Atty.-Genl.

The C.P.R. Blockade.

Some Items From the Snowy Regions.

Mr. Drummond, who arrived here Friday with the eastern letter mail, states that all the snow sheds through the mountain region are in good condition. It was reported that shed No. 19 had been badly damaged, but the damage, Mr. Drummond says, is very slight. It is not true, as reported, that the sheds have been forced out of position by the frost. The railway people have a force of 1000 men now between Illecillewaet and Six-Mile creek, and they are doing everything in their power to clear the track. The obstruction is nothing but snow, which came down from the mountains in immense quantities, and as it is soft and packed it has to be shoveled out. There is no rock or earth on the track, and the rails have not been carried away. In some places there was 15 feet of snow on the track. Our informant met Mr. Armstrong this side of Ross Peak siding with 400 men on his way to the summit. Mr. Drummond thinks the road will be ready for traffic in a week or so. In the meantime mails and passengers may be transferred without much trouble over the short distance still remaining blocked. It is expected that a through mail will be received here to-morrow. Mr. Drummond had his letter mail packed over a distance of about 20 miles.

Fun that was not Fun.

A Drunken Frolic that Resulted Almost Fatally.

On Friday evening, one of the firemen of the C.P.R. was laid off duty at North Bend and became intoxicated. Wandering around during the night he jammed his hand through one of the windows of the hotel, cutting his wrist and one of the arteries of his arm with the broken glass. Shortly after he tumbled into bed without paying any heed to his injured arm, allowing it to bleed as it would, and dozed away until morning in his drunken stupor. During the night the blood had been flowing freely from the wounded artery and when he awoke he found the bed and sheets completely saturated. He was very weak with loss of blood and it was with difficulty he could get down stairs and ask assistance to bandage his arm. The landlord and some of the boarders at the hotel attempted to stop the blood by wrapping cloths around his arm, but were unable to do so. His condition became so precarious that a light engine was dispatched to Hope for Dr. Robertson, one of the physicians of the C. P. R., who arrived just in time to save the man's life. He was brought down to Port Moody Saturday night and taken to the hospital in Vancouver yesterday. Dr. Robertson says had he arrived half an hour later nothing could have saved the wounded man's life.

Miss Mary Campbell, Elm, writes: "After taking four bottles of Northrop & Lyman's Vegetable Discovery and Dyspeptic Cure, I feel as if I were a new person. I had been troubled with Dyspepsia for a number of years, and tried many remedies, but of no avail, until I used this celebrated Dyspeptic Cure." For all Impurities of the Blood, Sick Headache, Liver and Kidney Complaints, Costiveness, etc., it is the best medicine known.

A Portland Maniac Attempts to Cut His Wife's Throat and is Prevented by Being Knocked Senseless.

HE TAKES THINGS INTO HIS OWN LIFE.

On Thursday, Christian Pelwanger, a policeman, of Portland, suddenly became insane and attempted to murder his wife with a razor. He pushed her back and she fell, her feet resting on the stairway landing, which is half-way up, and her head being but a few steps higher. She screamed for help but before anyone could come to her assistance Elwanger made several slashes with the razor at her throat. He is a very large and powerful man and it would have been useless to attempt to struggle with him, even had his insanity not lent him additional strength, so she held her hands to her throat and thus protected herself from vital injuries. He tried several times to tear her hands away with his left, but before he could reach her throat with the razor she got her hands back again. Neighbors, hearing the woman's screams, rushed in and one of them, picking up a baseball bat, dealt the would-be murderer a terrific blow on the head and knocked him prostrate on his back. Elwanger turned over on his face in a few moments, half raised himself on his elbow and drew the razor across his jugular vein. He died in about 20 minutes. It is not supposed Mrs. Elwanger can recover.

Thomas Myers, Bracebridge, writes: "Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil is the best medicine I sell. It always gives satisfaction, and in cases of coughs, colds, sore throat, &c., immediate relief has been received by those who use it."

TESTIMONIAL TO THE COMPANY FOR ITS KINDNESS.

Departure of the Passengers.

Yesterday noon witnessed the departure of the delayed passengers, 28 in number, D. E. Brown, agent at Moody, came into the city himself Saturday evening and informed them that every provision would be made for their comfort and convenience during the journey. G. E. Heintz, one of Mr. Brown's clerks, will accompany them through the mountains. The company has placed a Pullman car and a dining car at their disposal, and is doing all in its power in the way of kindness and accommodation to make amends for the delay. The following letter speaks for itself:

"EDITOR COLUMBIAN.—We, the undersigned delayed passengers, on the eve of our departure for the east, take this means of conveying to D. E. Brown, district passenger agent at Port Moody, and to W. L. Fagan, agent at this city, as representing the C. P. R., our appreciation and thanks for the uniform kindness and good treatment we have received from their hands, everything in their power having been done to make our sojourn here pleasant and agreeable. T. Sheppard, J. Lamb, J. B. Parish, M. L. Dougherty, Thos. Shore, M. McDougall, J. McMullen, G. H. White, Wm. Stewart, W. A. Hall, J. Crossland and family, John Leamy, F. M. Hall, Annie Caplice, Mrs. S. E. Hall."

Mr. Heter Vermet, Hochelaga, P. Q., writes: "Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil cured me of Rheumatism after I tried many medicines to no purpose. It is a good medicine." Just think of it—you can relieve the twinges of rheumatism, or the most painful attack of neuralgia—you can check a cough, and heal bruised or broken skin, with a bottle of Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil, costing only 25 cents.

It is expected that the government of France will dissolve the municipal council at Versailles because that body manifested the approval of the Paris commune of 1871.

The French cabinet have agreed upon a budget for 1888. A sum of 19,000,000 francs will be created to balance ordinary expenses. The extraordinary budget will be maintained. It will be covered by the issue of treasury bonds to the amount of 40,000,000 francs, redeemable in 70 years, and by a further issue of bonds to the amount of 8,000,000 francs, redeemable in 60 years.

A STINGING SENSATION IN THROAT AND PALATE called heartburn, and oppression at the pit of the stomach after eating, are both the offspring of dyspepsia. Alkaline salts like carbonate of soda may relieve but cannot remove the cause. A lasting remedy is to be found in Northrop & Lyman's Vegetable Discovery and Dyspeptic Cure. Those associate organs, the liver and bowels, benefit in common with their ally, the stomach, by the use of this benign and blood-purifying remedy.
