Daily British Columbian

Tuesday Evening, June 21, 1887.

On the very day of the appearance of the great solar disturbance first seen on Sunday, there was a disastrous cloud burst at Oberlin, Ohio. Nearly all of the town bridges were carried away. The damage is estimated at $20,000. At Zanesville the damage by lightning was $20,000. There was much loss from lightning throughout the state. The solar disturbance is the one which disappeared by rotation on the 22nd of May after a rapid development. At the time of disappearing it was of enormous dimensions.—Rochester Democrat.

Almost any Mexican would as leave go outdoors without his coat as without his pistol. He wears it to church, to the opera, to see his best girl—in short wherever he goes you may see a glistening bit of nickel-plated steel sticking out from under his coat-tail. Every day when my teacher of Spanish (a swarthy young man in jacket of yellow kid and pointed toed boots with enormously high heels) comes to give me the customary lesson he is obliged to unbutton his belt and deposit a big revolver upon my table before he can sit down to business. —Mexican Letter in Sacramento Record.

In London, the world's capital, this has been a day long to be remembered. Preparations for the observance of the queen's jubilee had been made on a most stupendous scale, and the day being fine, the attendance of visitors was enormous. At the present writing the day's festivities are being wound up, and it is certain that such an event never before occurred in the history of the British nation. Our telegraph connection, and the difference in time between Old Westminster and New Westminster, enable us to lay before the readers of the COLUMBIAN a report of the celebration at an earlier hour than it became known to the people of London. The kind words spoken of the queen by the foreign press must be particularly grateful to every loyal Briton.

The recent invasion of British villages in Sierra Leone was not designed as a centennial celebration of its settlement, but the colony was established just a hundred years ago, in 1787. The abolition of the slave trade, 20 years later, gave a lift to its population, since slaves captured by British cruisers were habitually transferred there. It also became the custom to collect other people of color from various sources, so that the original colony of less than 500 negroes had become a place of perhaps 20,000 in half a century. The motive of the recent attack of the surrounding savages upon the settlements of Sherbro and Sultyus is not fully explained, but perhaps it was chiefly that of plundering the factories with their merchandise. The pillage was accompanied with great cruelties, and the fate of the three hundred captives must have been melancholy. Perhaps a larger British protective force will now be stationed there.—N. Y. Times.

The disallowance agitation is extending to British Columbia. The Victoria Colonist says: "In no other country on the face of the earth can bull teams successfully compete with a railway for the carrying trade." Bull teams compete successfully with the Canadian Pacific in that province, "goods being freighted in waggons along the line traversed by the railway at a lower rate per pound than the railway charges for carrying the same description of goods." The people are determined to build an independent branch to the boundary. British Columbia is not covered by the monopoly clause, being like Manitoba in that respect; but "local charters will no doubt be vetoed at Ottawa in the interest of the syndicate," in which case the people there will join forces with the Manitobans. The state of things in Manitoba and British Columbia is without doubt more serious than the government imagines. It is impossible to coop up whole communities and say they shall not build independent railroads or trade with their nearest neighbors. We in Ontario would not tolerate such a ukase for an hour. How can we expect others to submit? Our policy is of a piece with that of the Romans, who, in order to keep up the price of Italian wine, prohibited their transalpine allies from raising grapes.—Toronto Mail.

Holloway's Corn Cure destroys all kinds of corns and warts, root and branch. Who then would endure them with such a cheap and effectual remedy within reach?

THE RUSSIAN PRESS ON THE JUBILEE.

ST. PETERSBURGH, June 20.—The Russian newspapers, commenting on Queen Victoria's jubilee, say the British people's love for their queen is merited by internal reforms and improvements in the condition of the mass which have been effected in England during the 50 years of her rule. Some papers take occasion to express regret at the relations between Russia and England.

THE AUSTRIAN PRESS ON THE JUBILEE.

VIENNA, June 20. — The official Gazette to-morrow will contain an article on the jubilee of Queen Victoria, and will say: "Millions of voices throughout her world wide empire will extol the queenly, womanly, virtuous Victoria. The day marks a long epoch in the political welfare of her realm. The whole world sympathizes with the festival for the fame of the queen's blessed rule reaches every quarter of the globe. This sympathy is most cordially shared in by the Austrian sovereign. The virtuous Victoria throughout the whole of her life recalls our own great empress, Maria Theresa. Both went through life showering blessings around them. Both were revered by their people. The memory of Victoria, like that Maria Theresa, will be blessed as long as history exists.

THE JUBILEE REHEARSAL.

LONDON, June 20.—The exercises attending the celebration of the jubilee were continued to-day. The order of exercises enables the officials to be present at the services at Westminster Abbey. The programmes everywhere are similar, — thanksgiving service, local receptions, and festivals. The children's private rehearsal was held in Westminster Abbey to-day in the presence of the Archbishop of Canterbury. The Dean of Westminster, a number of court officials, the Earl of Lathorne, Lord Chamberlain, Her Majesty's household and other state officers assisted in the ceremony of removing the coronation chair to the dias and placing it before the Queen's praying stool. The grand robes of state were brought forward by the Queen's robesman and handed to Lord Chamberlain by whom they were placed over the coronation chair. The choral service opened with a jubilee anthem which was more fervid and more operatic in character than usual in cathedral service. The grand "Te Deum," composed by the Prince Consort, followed. Then Bridge's anthem, composed especially for the jubilee ceremony, throughout which was interwoven the Prince Consort's choral, the whole ending with the national anthem. The rehearsal was a perfect success and the effect grand. At midnight crowds were still moving about the streets.

FRANCE ENVYS THE ENGLISH PEOPLE.

PARIS, June 21.—The Journal Des Debates in an article on the jubilee celebration says: "All cordially envy Englishmen and would give a great deal could we ever be what they are to-day—a people mad with joy and happiness. This universal homage is paid not only to the Queen but to the woman who has given an example of two great virtues of royalty—gravity and dignity. Her influence has been great and salutary. Her great merit is in using her prerogative for the public weal. She has never been tempted to strain its exercise.

AN AMERICAN OPINION.

BOSTON, June 21.—The Post says: "What makes Germany sympathetic as an onlooker at the jubilee is the plentitude of events which crowd the last half century. This is a period of importance in the world's history, not only for Englishmen but for the whole civilised world. The English people will feel they have great reason for gratitude which cannot be better expressed than by more and more farsighted and resolute facing of the great inevitable tasks of the future.

THE CEREMONIES AT THE ABBEY.

LONDON, June 21.—The first day of the 51st year of the reign of Queen Victoria opened with perfect summer weather. The thousands of people who yesterday selected locations along the route of to-day's procession, in order to retain them, occupied them all night. A steady stream of carriages and pedestrians poured constantly all night through the city in all directions. Towards the west end, at 9 o'clock, the line of the route was a compact mass of people. Everybody, despite the discomfort of crowding, manifested the most good humor. The scene at Westminster Abbey was most brilliant. Every seat was filled and every one present was a distinguished personage. It seemed as if every locality the world over had sent one or more of its representatives to do honors to England's queen. There never, probably, in modern times, assembled under one roof an audience so well, so brilliantly arranged. Every man present was entitled to wear uniform or decorations, and many wore both. When this audience was all seated the scene presented was incomparable.

When the Marquis of Salisbury and Mr. Gladstone entered Westminster Abbey they were both loudly cheered. Many lords and ladies were so anxious to secure their positions that they came without breakfasting. It was a strange sight to see flasks and sandwiches exchanged in the crowd of numberless aristocrats unable to withstand hunger or thirst. This business when added to the hum at times seemed irreverent even on jubilee day. The Westminster line of procession from Buckingham Palace to Westminster Abbey was as follows: From the palace along Constitution Hill, Piccadily, Regent street, Waterloo Place, Pall Mall, East Cockspur, Northumberland Avenue, Thames embankment, Bridge st., to the Abbey. The line of route was kept by nearly 10,000 troops representing all branches of the service. In addition 600 boys from the naval training ships were drawn up at the base of the Nelson monument. Beside the military, many thousand police, mounted and on foot, were on duty. A particular feature at the palace was that the two services were equally honored, the guards lining one side of the road at Buckingham Palace gates and on the other side the blue jackets were posted. The first of the royal procession was composed of Indian princes. Punctually at 11:15 a. m. the queen in open carriage emerged from the palace gates. At sight of her thousands of voices were lifted up in cheers, the applause being accompanied by music. Many military bands were stationed in front of the palace. The queen did not wear the state robes but was dressed in black. Her carriage was drawn by eight ponies. The Prince of Wales, Duke of Edinburgh, Duke of Connaught (her sons), the Crown Prince Imperial of Germany, Marquis of Lorne, Prince Christian of Schleswig-Holstein, and Prince Henry of Battenburg (her sons-in-law), and Prince Albert Victor and George of Wales, Prince Alfred of Edinburg, and Prince William of Prussia (her grandsons), attened in full uniform beside the queen's coach as a body guard. When the people at the palace gates had shouted themselves hoarse cheering they continued to cry out: "Long life to the Prince and Princess of Wales." The queen as she left the palace seemed to be in excellent spirits and she smiled and bowed graciously to the people on every side. The queen's carriage was a large one, of chocolate color, the wheels red, and the royal arms in gold were emblazoned upon the panels. Red morroco harness was used for the horses, which were also decorated with royal blue ribbon. All servants wore state liveries, scarlet and gold. Other carriages containing members of the royal family were of gorgeous character. The procession slowly made its way until the Wellington arch was reached, and then the first introduction to London streets ensued. Emerging from Wellington arch the first to greet the queen were the convalescent patients and others at St. George's hospital, which was packed from basement to roof, seats having been erected for many thousand over the roof of the hospital.

The Marquis of Hartington had a spacious gallery erected, from which hundreds of gaily dressed ladies waved their handkerchiefs and cheered the queen. From this point to Westminster Abbey every point of vantage had been seized by contractors to fix seats. Shops of artists and first floors were rented at from £20 to £60 each, and in some cases more. At St. James parish church 1,000 children were seated and sang "God Save the Queen." On reaching Regent Circuit, where 6 main sts. converge, the sight was memorable. The streets were all splendidly decorated. Many Americans had secured seats at the Palace Commercial Establishment in Waterloo Place and joined in the enthusiasm as warmly as the English. In Trafalgar Square nothing but heads were to be seen. The crowd here was tremendous, completely eclipsing any that ever assembled at any of the great political gatherings of recent years. When the procession reached the Thames embankment the enthusiasm was indescribable. All along the embankment, where not occupied by public gardens, seats and galleries had been erected. The ground floor of the Abbey was covered by "St. Margarets" seats, which sold for 5 guineas each. On the procession nearing the Abbey the troops saluted, guns were fired, church bells rang out merry peals, and flags were run up. The cheering became continuous till the Queen passed in the west door. After passing through the vestibule her majesty was conducted to the grand dais under the lantern tower. She was surrounded by thirty two members of the royal family. The scene in the Abbey when the Queen entered was dazzling. Ten thousand people were seated. They all rose. The women discarded wraps and revealed the full splendor of their beauty and attire. Three tiers of galleries had been built in the Abbey with seats for 10,000. The peers and their wives were seated in south transept. The embassadors and diplomatic corps were seated on the right and left, members of the house of commons were placed in the north transept. All the great learned societies and corporations were represented, while notables of law, science, art, and agriculture and working men's representatives from all parts of the kingdom had seats. The Queen was evidently profoundly impressed with the scene. She was noticeably pale. She soon, however, recovered and regained the bright and pleasant aspect she had borne all morning. When the services, which were conducted according to the programme, were completed, the Queen's sons knelt and kissed her hand. Then on their rising she kissed their cheeks. In turn the princesses were next to go through the osculatory exercises, the Queen kissed some of the latter twice.

The occupation of a judge is a trying one.

The Loan Scheme.

It is of very great importance that every freeholder should inform himself fully respecting the proposed loan scheme for this city. We have been pointing out for the past three or four years how necessary it is that certain schemes of improvement, for which the ordinary revenue of the city is entirely insufficient, should be undertaken. If the people of Westminster are content to sit serenely and see all the neighboring cities push ahead of her in the race for supremacy, they need not be surprised if they happen to wake up and find themselves left. It is a common remark among business men from the east that the old inhabitants of British Columbian cities are phlegmatic and proverbially slow. We are not sure but there may be a grain or two of truth in this undeserved stigma, and as there are new cities springing up with new blood to work out their destinies, we may as well consider whether it is not the part of wisdom candidly to contemplate our new circumstances and, if possible, adjust ourselves to them. The revenue of this city has always been small, and it seems to have been the policy of successive councils so to adjust annual expenditures as to keep them within the annual income. Until the time when railway construction had begun to shake up a little the lifeless atoms of which the business world was then composed, no council had dared to be so reckless as to propose a city loan. Within the past four years, however, we have gone into debt, and we think no business man who has observed the progress of events will dispute the wisdom of that policy. In the first place we have secured railway connection—a boon of vast importance to us, and without which the position and prospects of this city would be very different from what they now are. Besides this we have procured a first-class steam engine, secured a steam ferry across the river, assisted in the erection of a woollen mill and an agricultural hall and emigrant shed. It is now proposed to go forward, and to inaugurate other permanent improvements which seem to be necessary to the advancement of the city. The proposed by-law asks for a loan of $75,000. Of this sum $28,250 is to be applied towards redeeming all outstanding debentures, because the new debentures will bear only 6 per cent. interest, whereas we are now paying 8 per cent. In the next place it is proposed to set aside $15,000 for the erection of a city hall, lockup, police court, and market. Not long ago we stated that the government intended, with the approval of the council, to pull down the present lockup and remove the unsightly wall by which it is surrounded. It will become absolutely necessary, therefore, to provide a new lockup, as well as police office and court. We think no one will dispute the need of a city hall and public market. It is not creditable to us that we have existed as a city corporation for 27 years without a city hall. It should be said here that the city hall could be made a source of considerable revenue from the rent of offices as well as rent of the hall itself. A market is also of great importance both to the city and surrounding country, and Westminster can never hope to compete successfully for the country trade until it has been established. After having wiped off the present debt and established a city hall, market, lockup, etc., there will remain $31,750 for other improvements. Of this sum it is proposed to expend a considerable part in making streets. Agnes street, Royal Avenue, Queen's Avenue, Pelham street, and Montreal street, are to be opened throughout their entire length, and some of the principal streets intersecting these are to be completed. Among other works calling for immediate attention are the cribbing on the north side of Columbia st., opposite Messrs. Wintemute Bros., which is giving way and has become dangerous; Front st. opposite the foundry and woollen mill; the lower end of Douglas st., near the railway station; and Edinburgh street, so as to improve the connection with Vancouver road. These, we believe, are the principal schemes contemplated by the present loan scheme, and there are others of minor importance. It should not be forgotten that this scheme does not propose at all to increase the present rate of taxation. On the contrary, the $28,250 now outstanding is costing us a larger annual outlay for interest than the $75,000 will do. The outstanding loans require special levies for interest as follows: For the loan of 1883, $2.50 on every $1,000 of assessment; the loan of 1884, $1.50; 1885, railway and woollen mill bonus, $8.50; making a total of $12.50 on the $1,000. But the total levy to meet the proposed $75,000 loan will be $8 on the $1,000; so that the loan assessment rate will be reduced by $4.50 per $1,000. This is accomplished by the lower rate of interest, the longer period over which the loan extends, and the fact that the special tax for the new loan will be levied on public lands sold since the other loans were issued, and which are now exempt from the loan tax. It has been urged by some persons that a comprehensive sewerage system is urgently needed, and ought to be included in the enterprises contemplated by the scheme. We reply that the land sales by-law provided that after paying for the railway the balance was to be applied to water works and sewerage. If the railway debentures are redeemed by the new loan, the proceeds of land sales can then be devoted to sewerage, as the water works are not likely to cost us anything. We believe no one who carefully considers the scheme in the public interest will vote against it.

M. Sheehan, of Oscoda, Mich., writes: "I have used Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil on horses for different diseases, and found it to be just as you recommended. It has done justice to me every time, and it is the best Oil for horses I ever used." Observe that the name "Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil" is on front of the wrapper, as there are imitations of it.

WHAT PHYSICIANS SAY ABOUT THE
STARR KIDNEY PAD.

"Treatment by Absorption has for some time been recognized by Medical Men to be the most simple and effectual means of conveying to Diseased Organs, "Curatives," but in cases of Kidney Disease and Complaints attendant thereon, successful treatment was practicably impossible until the introduction of the Starr Kidney Pad. It costs less than a single prescription and is immeasurably more decisive and effective than any quantity of internal Medicinal dosing. Worn immediately over the seat of Disease, its curative properties become absorbed by the diseased and enfeebled Organs, continuously and directly, as required to insure in return their healthy action and original vigour. It is comfortable to the patient and pleasant in its effects, and cures when nothing else can. The Starr Kidney Pad accomplishes positive, decisive results. A more valuable discovery as a true remedy for Kidney Diseases was never made.—Medical Gazette

The Starr Kidney Pad, manufactured in Toronto, is a permanent sure cure for diseases, disorders and ailments of the Kidneys, Bladder and urinary secretive system, or attendant complaints, causing pain in the small of the back, sides, etc., producing urinary disorders, such as too frequent, scanty, difficult, painful or copious micturition, inability of retention and sedimentary urine, dropsical symptoms, etc., denoting the presence in the system of diseases common to the urinary secretive organs—known as gravel, catarrh of the bladder and passages, Bright's disease, diabetes, dropsy, piles, nervous debility, etc. Send for pamphlet to LANGLEY & CO., Wholesale Agents, Victoria. ## NEW ADVERTISEMENTS THIS DAY.

Daily British Columbian

Tuesday Evening, June 21, 1887.

The Gladys left for Chilliwhack this morning.

The William Irving came down from up river ports this moring.

Some of the piles in Mr. Scoullar's lot have been driven a depth of 31 ft.

Mr. Elliott has placed more men on his excavation contract on the Mason's lot.

To-day, the 21st of June, is the longest day in the year. It has also been the hottest so far.

The str. William Irving took down about 35 Chinamen this afternoon to Ben. Young's cannery, near Ladners.

The Eagle is a new paper just started at Colton, W.T. The Eagle is rather diminutive in size, but it "soars high."

The Royal City Mills sawed a log yesterday whose diameter at one end was 76 inches and at the other end 86 inches.

This is the sort of a day that a man grabs you on the street as you hurry along and asks, "Is it hot enough for you?"

Nearly 8000 immigrants have already arrived at Winnipeg this season. This is almost as many as came during the whole of last year.

The woman question, heard the most,
And one most apt to stir man's choler,
Because he hears it to his cost,
Is, "Husband, haven't you got a dollar?"

The str. Gipsy has been drawn up on the ways at the Royal City mills. The snag, which she ran foul of, pierced a hole through her hull.

The Royal city baseball club were out for practice last night. The boys handle the ball well, and before long, no doubt they will make themselves experts on the diamond.

A choral service was held in Holy Trinity Church this morning in honor of the Queen's jubilee. Ven. Archdeacon Woods preached a sermon appropriate for the occasion.

The Coquitlam Co. has tendered a water-works scheme to the city council. There being no meeting last night the scheme was not discussed, consequently we are not able to give the details of the proposal.

Canada's credit seems to be improving with rapid strides in London. Canadian 3½'s have reached 103¼'s, and 4's are bringing 109. It is only very recently that 3½'s reached par, and 11 years ago the 4's brought only 90.

There was no meeting of the council last evening. Three of the councillors were absent from the city, and the remainder deemed it unadvisable to carry on business during their absence, and so the meeting was postponed until next Monday night at 8 o'clock.

The Montreal Trade Bulletin says the feature in the the flour trade is the growing preference given to Manitoba brands in the market over both American and Ontario flour. Minnesota and St. Louis brands have been driven almost entirely out of the field.

This month has hitherto been exceptionally cool, but for the past few days the temperature has been much higher. A week of this weather will bring down abundance of water from the mountains, and may result in very great damage to property on the low lands.

"Here, Hanner," said old Moses Haynseed to his wife, "here's a two dollar bill. Git me three plugs of terbacker out of it and a couple of pair of summer socks and a pound of smokin' terbacker, and a couple of red cotton hank'chers, and a box of paper collars, and the rest you kin have to buy your summer clothes with."—Tid-bits.

The Toronto Mail cautions the the Dominion government against further increase to the public debt. It says the gross debt is $270,000,000; the net debt $225,000,000, and that the debt charges eat up a third of the revenue. While Canada's debt is rapidly growing the debt of the United States is being diminished at the rate of nearly $100,000,000 a year.

About four or five days ago Constable Allan, from the 150-mile post, arrived from Clinton in charge of four prisoners who had received sentences at the Clinton Assizes. Mr. Allan has been in Cariboo district a long time. During the last ten years he has lived near Cache Creek and has never been this side of Cache Creek and never further north than Barkerville during that time. This is his first visit to the coast.

CLOSED.—Nearly all places of business in the city are closed this afternoon in honor of the Queen's jubilee, and the city is adorned with flags.

NO PAPER.—This is jubilee week, and to-day and to-morrow being public holidays, there will be no issue of the DAILY COLUMBIAN to-morrow. The weekly edition will be issued as usual.

JUBILEE JOLLITIES. — The Jubilee issue of Grip's own Library, entitled Jubilee Jollities, has just been issued and is having a very large sale. In addition to a double-page cartoon, there are two full large cartoons, the words and music of a popular song by John Imrie, "Queen Victoria's Jubilee," and pictures on almost every page of the book. The price is only ten cents, and it may be had at all bookstores, or will be sent on receipt of price by the the publishers. Address GRIP, Toronto, Ont.

PUBLIC MARKET.—The following communication has been received by the city council from the secretary of the board of trade: "Gentlemen: At a convention between members of the New Westminster board of trade and delegates from the different municipalities of this district, on the 16th inst., the following resolution was unanimously passed: That this meeting would strongly urge upon the New Westminster city council the advisability of taking immediate action toward providing suitable market accommodation and establishing regular market days for convenience of both city and district."

AN UNEXPECTED RESPONSE.—Last evening the Rev. Mr. Starr in the course of his sermon at the Methodist Church remarked that many people were away who should be present, and again, many who were present might not have attended for years. The divine and the congregation were startled to hear a female voice from the body of the church respond: "I hope you are not alluding to me just because I haven't been here for seven years!" The person speaking turned out to be Margaret Wheeler, better known as "Nigger Mag," who was quietly, but firmly, led down the aisle and out of the church.—Vic. Times.

AN INFERNAL MACHINE.—Mr. G. E. Corbould who went to Vancouver this morning and returned on the noon train, informs us that in Vancouver he was shewn an infernal machine that had been in possession of one of the Italian navvies. The affair consists of a small six shooting revolver enclosed in a very pretty case. When closed, this case resembles an oblong box. A slight spring shows itself at one side of the box, which, when pressed, causes the revolver to go off. This spring is so placed that, any one in ignorance of the nature of the contrivance, would be sure to touch it. It is supposed that the machine was intended to destroy some of the railway contractors, with whom the Italians are on very unfriendly terms at present.

About a year ago he had an attack of bilious fever, and was afraid he was in for another, when I recommended this valuable medicine with such happy results."

Hotel Clerk—Well, how do you like New York?

Western Guest—Too slow!

Hotel Clerk—Too slow! Merciful heavens! what did you expect to see here?

Western Guest—A lynching every ten minutes. I was informed that this was a humping town. I tell you, stranger, I'm disappointed. You just want to come West if you want to see civilization at its height.

Jacob H. Bloomer, of Virgil, N.Y., writes: "Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil cured a badly swelled neck and sore throat on my son in forty-eight hours; one application also removed the pain from a sore toe; my wife's foot was also much inflamed—so much so that she could not walk about the house; she applied the Oil, and in twenty-four hours was entirely cured."

Last Words.

Last night the congregation of the Methodist Church assembled in the lecture room to bid adieu to their pastor (Rev. C. Watson) and his wife who left to-day for Toronto. After the meeting had been opened, Mr. C. G. Major, recording steward, read the following address:

REV. COVERDALE WATSON. REVEREND AND DEAR SIR.—On the eve of your departure from this city and province, the members of your congregtion desire to convey to you an expression of their esteem and confidence. In the three years during which you have been pastor of this church, your conduct in the pulpit and elsewhere has been such as to command our hearty approval. While fearlessly denouncing public evils, you have maintained always the dignity of the high and responsible office to which the Great Head of the Church has called you. Your able championship and defense of the temperance cause, and other reform movements, have been a source of great satisfaction and encouragement to all who are concerned for the best interests of the community, and have done much, we are sure, towards enlisting public sentiment on the side of right. Under your ministry the utmost harmony and goodwill have always existed between you and the church officers as well as the members of the church and congregation, and there has been a very substantial and gratifying increase in the membership, the congregation, and the financial income. We need not say that the severance of the tie that has bound us and you for the past three years is accompanied by the keenest regrets. Permit us to assure you that you and your estimable wife carry with you to your new field of labor our heartiest good-will; and we pray that the talents with which the Master has so richly endowed you may be employed always, and with still more marked success, in the noble work of winning precious souls for Him. Signed on behalf of the congregation,

C. G. MAJOR, Rec. Steward.

Rev. Mr. Watson replied at considerable length to this address. He thanked the congregation for their assurance of regard and approval of his work and methods, and expressed the hope that the church would continue to experience abundant prosperity.

Mr. Jas. Cunningham, on behalf of the congregation, presented the pastor with a purse containing $100 as a further expression of good-will. This gift was received with thanks, and after some further remarks the audience was dismissed with the benediction, and separated after taking leave of Rev. Mr. Watson and his wife.

TO ASSIST NATURE most effectually in her efforts to throw off or resist serious disease, it is essential that an impulse should be given to functions which growing in health suspends or weakens, namely, the action of the bowels, bilious secretion, and digestion. Oftentimes, though this is impracticable by the use of ordinary remedies, it proves an easy task when Northrop & Lyman's Vegetable Discovery and Dyspeptic Cure is resorted to.

A BARQUE WRECKED.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 20.—The British bark Afton, en route from Newcastle, N.S.W., to San Diego, was totally wrecked on May 26th on Linsinski Island, in the South Sea. She was 112 days out and considerably overdue. The crew were saved.

CHINESE ARRIVING.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 20.—The steamship City of Peking arrived in port yesterday, twenty-six days from Hongkong and 16½ days from Yokohama. The total number of Chinese on board was 1039. Out of this number there are 695 holding San Francisco custom house return certificates and 75 with guarantee letters for this port. Of the balance 16 go to Victoria 127 to Honolulu, 93 to Panama, and 3 to Havana.

RAILWAY COLLISION.

BERLIN, June 20.—A collision occurred to day between two trains at Pottsdam. One car was burned. The bodies of three persons killed, two women and one man were taken from the wreck. Several others were injured.

THE MARKET HEALTHY.

LONDON, June 20.—The coffee market this morning opened very strong to nearly 1¼ per cent. over closing prices Saturday. On first call bidding from start became sharp and soon ran points upward from 100 to 125. This was caused by very favorable reports from Havre, which showed an increase of 100 to 125 points in sympathy. New York followed. By 11:30 a.m. the sales were 22000 bags. Utmost confidence prevailed and rumors of another approaching panic were largely discountenanced.

A BOON TO MARINERS.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 20.—It is learned at the sub-office of the coast survey in this city that Assistant J. F. Pratt and Assistant Fremant Morse have finished a topographical reconnoissance of the coast line from Gray's harbor to Cape Flattery, including all outlying dangers and unknown stretches of coast along the Pacific seaboard. The difficulties encountered by the party have been very great. Within a month or two a preliminary report, giving to shipmasters running north of Columbia river valuable information concerning the exact position of Flattery rocks and other notable dangers, may be expected.

ENGLAND WON'T TOLERATE IT.

LONDON, June 20.—In the house of commons this evening Sir Henry Holland, secretary of state for the colonies, replying to Mr. Howard, said that Sir Samuel Rowe, governor of Sierra Leon, had informed the government that a conference held between the French and natives had resulted in the hoisting of the French flag at Baraboo, on Gambia River. While not under British protectorate he said Baraboo was within the sphere of British influence and the native chiefs were under treaty obligations to England. The establishment of French protectorate would have an important bearing on British influence in that territory. Sir Henry said that dispatches were being exchanged between British and French governments in regard to the matter.

NUMEROUS CONGRATULATIONS.

LONDON, June 21.—The press is requested to state that the number of congratulatory telegrams from public bodies and private individuals is so overwhelmingly large that it is impossible to answer them individually. The Queen is greatly touched and gratified by such expressions of loyalty and devotion from all classes of her subjects. On the advice of Lord Salisbury jubilee honors will be conferred on several Liberal-Unionists. The new peers to be created in honor of the Queen's jubilee will include Sir Wm. Armstrong, Sir James McNaughten, McGarel Hogg, and the Right Hon. Geo. Sclater Booth.
