A Call To Public Service

One of the outstanding addresses before the recent conference of Boards of Trade and Chambers of Commerce at Winnipeg, to which reference was made in this column last week, was delivered by President Beatty of the C.P.R. As was natural Mr. Beatty dealt largely with the subject of transportation, and in doing so traced the history of both the Canadian Pacific and Canadian National from their inception. He discussed the transportation problem from its broad national aspect and in a manner worthy of the position he occupies, frankly outlining past mistakes and indicating lines of action which will make for future growth and success.

More transportation history is yet to be written in respect of Canada, said Mr. Beatty, but, he added, "with all due modesty I beg to say that the Canadians of today have just as much virility, courage and enterprise as the Canadians of thirty and forty years ago." Pointing out that Canada occupies a great expanse of territory with a fewer number of people per mile of railway than any other country, and consequently with less density and diversity of traffic, and enjoying, generally speaking, the lowest transportation rates in the world, the railways nevertheless had to be equipped to carry the traffic and provide the services which the people demanded and the interests of the Dominion made necessary. Despite the most rigid economy being practised the fact was that no change in improvement is possible without greater traffic and that means greater production and more people.

Mr. Beatty then came to the crux of his address; its constructive part, namely, the need of all parts of Canada for a larger population, and to attain that he submitted that a need existed for a change in colonizing Canada and that it was imperative both east and west. Continuing, Mr. Beatty said:

"My suggestion in respect to this much discussed question of immigration is that we should take it out of the field of statistics and place it in the field of human relations. The visitor coming to us from overseas in search of information is literally swamped with statistics presented in the form of bulletins, circulars, pamphlets, newspaper articles and what not, dealing with Canadian activities. We are apt to forget that people coming to our shore are human beings, members of families, often whole families who have torn themselves from old homes, homes in some cases centuries old, to come and live in Canada, to be neighbors if we are willing to be neighborly and to become good citizens if we only hold out the welcoming hand."

"More forethought," continued Mr. Beatty, "must be taken to secure the placing of the immigrants in advance of their arrival so that the little capital they bring with them may not be frittered away, but may be devoted to its proper purpose and original intention. Now in that preliminary organization of opportunities the boards of trade throughout Canada can play a highly important part, and indeed in the prairie provinces they already are playing an important part. Already thirty local colonization boards have been organized through the medium of local boards of trade and these, during the past year, have been of marked assistance in securing positions, providing information as to available farms, receiving and welcoming the new comers and generally co-operating in the successful settlement of approximately three thousand immigrants. Now if that example were followed throughout the Dominion from coast to coast, the impetus given to the soundest of all methods of immigration would be enormous, for the result would be immediate absorption of a large additional population with the least danger of congestion at any one particular point."

In other words, Mr. Beatty clearly favors the creation of machinery somewhat along the lines of the original Soldier Settlement Board, and now being carried out by the Land Settlement Branch of the Department of Immigration and Colonization with respect to those families coming to Canada under the British Empire Settlement Scheme. Such a system should be created to deal with all immigrants and not merely selected groups.

Mr. Beatty further contemplates that in the carrying out of such a plan, local bodies such as boards of trade and the many public service clubs should take an active part. It is not enough that an immigrant arrive and then be allowed to shift for himself. An intelligent and active interest in his welfare and success is all important, and this friendly and helpful assistance must come from the whole community. What Mr. Beatty had to say on this phase of the immigration problem is deserving of repetition and should be heeded by all public bodies and citizens generally. He said:

"Most important of all the results of such Dominion-wide co-operation would be widening of the personal interest in this vital matter of immigration. During such campaigns as that of the Patriotic Fund, the men and women who served on committees found that the education gained by such service was of incalculable value, giving them a new vision of life and of their responsibility towards their fellow citizens. The education of public service is, to my mind, the finest education in the world. We talk a lot about national unity, but before we can understand what national unity means we must surely educate ourselves as to the racial elements that form our nation, and such education can only be achieved by personal contact with our fellow citizens, whether these citizens are native born or new Canadians. There can be no national unity except on the ultimate basis of community spirit."

Ontario to Raise a $500,000 Endowment Fund For This Purpose

Sir Adam Beck's death-bed appeal to the people of Ontario to raise a $500,000 endowment fund for Queen Alexandra sanatorium and its fight against tuberculosis, is meeting with province-wide support. The mayors of 21 cities in Ontario have responded to the first call to organize for the campaign. The province chambers of commerce and boards of trade, Rotary, Kiwanis and Lions Clubs, and public service organizations generally are swelling the personnel for united effort. Provincial Boy Scout Commissioner H. A. Laurence, of Toronto, has approved the enlistment of 17,000 Boy Scouts, in 300 cities, towns and villages in Ontario, for a certain phase of the work, and scout troops are expected all to be in action on the opening day, assisting the publicity bureau.

Stomach Cramps Yield to "Nerviline"

When doubled up at midnight with cramps you don't feel like experimenting; what you want is something to remove the cramp. Nothing acts so effectively as Nerviline. Take twenty drops in a little sweetened water, and quick as wink the cramp is gone. Nerviline is about five times as strong as most medicines, and because so strong, only a small dose is required to give instant effect. For stomach, gas, fermentation, cramps, etc., Nerviline should be kept in every home. For sure protection, get "Nerviline" to-day. 35c at dealers.

MOTHERS WHO HAVE USED BABY'S OWN TABLETS

Always Strongly Recommend Them to Other Mothers

Once a mother has used Baby's Own Tablets for her little ones she will use nothing else — actual experience teaches her that there is no other medicine to equal them for any of the minor ailments from which her baby or little ones suffer. Having found the value of the Tablets in her own home, she is always anxious that other mothers should share her knowledge. That is why Mrs. Creighton White, North Noel Road, N.S., writes the following:—"I have a baby seventeen months old and have given him nothing but Baby's Own Tablets ever since he was a week old. I know of no other medicine to equal them, and it is certainly a pleasure to recommend them to other mothers."

Baby's Own Tablets are a mild but thorough laxative that regulate the stomach and bowels; banish constipation and indigestion; break up colds and simple fevers and make the sickly baby well and happy again. They are sold by medicine dealers or by mail at 25 cents a box from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

DECEMBER 13

PAUL IN MELITA AND ROME

Golden Text: I am not ashamed of the gospel: for it is the power of God unto salvation to every one that believeth. Romans 1.16.

Lesson: Acts 28.1-31.

Devotional Reading: Romans 12.1-8.

The Text Explained and Illumined

The Arrival At Rome, verse 16.—Upon reaching Rome, Paul was allowed to live by himself, though placed under the guard of a soldier, to whom he was probably chained. Soldiers relieved one another in this duty, and thus Paul became known throughout the Prætorian Guard, Phil. 1.12, 13. Paul never described himself as a prisoner of Rome, but always as the prisoner of Jesus Christ.

"The most galling chains about our wrists are not there without the will of our Father, the Lord of heaven and earth; and His will is not only to be taken patiently as something we are to be resigned to, but to be acquiesced in gladly. The Best of Fathers would not have handed us the cup had it not been the best cup for us, nor forged the shackle had it not meant our widest and largest usefulness" (Dr. Henry Sloane Coffin).

Key to World Peace

Countries Must Cease Coveting Goods Of Their Neighbors

Statistics recently issued by the Canadian Government show that during the past summer no fewer than 2,000,000 automobiles crossed the Canadian border from the United States, carrying, in all, some 9,000,000 passengers. For the most part they were tourists who travelled far afield, seeing the sights and enjoying all the freedom which comes from a common language, similarity of tastes and ideals. They came and saw and went home again—nine millions of them; a number, curiously enough, almost exactly equaling the total population of Canada.

In almost any other part of the world a similar invasion of one country by another would have occasioned grave misgivings. Why did Canada view it with equanimity and the United States take it as a matter of course? Because, as one writer has well pointed out, politically Canada and America keep the Tenth Commandment; the "bugaboo of annexation," as President Hardy so justly styled it in his speech in Canada just before his death, is long since vanished, and in no direction does either people covet his neighbor's goods, "neither his ox, nor his ass, nor anything that is his."

It has been more than once truly observed that here lies the key to the whole problem of world peace; if the countries of the Old World really ceased to covet their neighbors' goods, the world's munition factories might close their doors.—The Outlook, New York.

Says Ears Getting Larger

Radio and Jazz Causing Change Says Vienna Doctor

Big ears are an outcropping of the present jazz era—in another million years humans probably will have aurical appendages as large as elephants, according to Dr. P. O. Pfuffer, Viennese aurist.

"Ears of the city dweller gradually are getting thinner and broader," the Viennese expert said. "It is due to evolution and the tremendous din and conflict of complex noises in which we exist.

"A constant jazz diet causes a rearrangement of the cochlea," Dr. Pfuffer explained. "The cochlea is a snail-like structure of the inner ear containing 3,000 harp-like strings.

"Jazz and other din increases the number of strings."

Dr. Pfuffer said it was not improbable that in the course of centuries human beings will develop "radio ears," great flappers capable of receiving radio messages directly from the air.

Some of Surprises Which Strike Vistors to Capital

A German newspaper has been collectng views on what particularly strikes German visitors to London.

Here are a few of the surprises which Fatherlanders experience in the capital.

That the taximen are geniuses, and not always using their hooters.

That smoking is allowed in theatres. That, in a theatre, you generally put hat and coat under the seat instead of leaving them in the cloakroom.

That even old, white-haired ladies have their hair bobbed, and that even city clerks boast a "smoking." (A "smoking" is a dinner-jacket suit, every German being convinced that that is the proper English name for it. An Englishman who says it is not, simply does not know his own language.)

Shrewdness Of Kruger

"Oom Paul" Showed Wisdom of Solomon Over Division of Ranch

The centenary of the birth of "Oom Paul" Kruger was celebrated at Pretoria on the 10th of last month by the unveiling of a statue of the old Boer president. The occasion revives one good yarn illustrating the Solomon like shrewdness that often characterized his decisions. It concerns two Boer brothers who were quarrelling over the division of their father's ranch. The matter was referred to Kruger. "Since there is no agreement," he said, "it is right that the elder brother shall divide the farm."

"Just what I maintained," applauded the elder brother.

"And when that is done," continued the old president, ignoring the interruption, "the young brother shall choose which half he wants."—London Observer.

Restoring Nelson's Flagship

Decks Will Be Shown Cleared For Action With Guns Out

Nelson's famous flagship is being restored at Plymouth, and will be completed in another year. When she is restored, the decks will be shown cleared for action, with all her guns run out. The Victory's probable armament at Trafalgar was thirty long 32-pounders on the lower deck, twenty-eight long 24-pounders on the middle deck, thirty long 12-pounders on the main deck, twelve short 12-pounders on the quarter deck, and two long 12-pounders and two 68-pounders carronades in the forecastle. Eight of the 32-pounders on the lower deck and four of the 24-pounders on the middle deck are in the ship; the others will have to be replaced by models.

Villagers Believe Prophecy Fulfilled

Once Thriving Ontario Town Is Now But a Memory

Once a thriving village with mills, stores and fine houses, Cashmere is now a quiet, backward hamlet, and the villagers lay their plight to a curse placed on the town 40 years ago by Corporal Smythe, a young Englishman, who tried to establish a branch of the Salvation Army there, and was "ducked" by the misguided but zealous village youth, in the River Thames. He contracted a cold, and died a few weeks later.

According to local tradition, he said as he lay on his deathbed:

"I came, but they would receive me not. Like Sodom and Gomorrah of old, this place shall fade from the face of God's earth, until no brick or board shall rest one upon another. Even the mighty dam will be swept away and the woodthrush and the robin will build their nests and rear their young in the village, unmolested and unseen. And over the place the harrow and the plow will pass to and fro, and corn shall grow where a city might have flourished. And the place shall be no more, save this house, which in the years to come shall stand sentinel over these solitudes."

It was in late November that Corporal Smythe died, and the house which gave him shelter when all others refused him admittance, still stands, as he said it would, and it looks good for a hundred years more.

It is village history that one by one the mills closed their doors, and the people left, their houses falling into decay. At last only the great dam remained in the river, and it made it possible for a few fishermen to make a living out of the fish in the stream.

But the government, which had been restocking the river, blew up the dam wth dynamite, so as to permit the fish to go upstream and spawn, and so the last of the prophecy of the Salvation Army officer has been fulfilled. The fishermen moved away and the place is now almost as silent as the cities and villages of the dead.

The ex-Kaiser will have a fortune of approximately $300,000,000. His annual income from his huge estates and forests will be nearly $2,000,000. NEW STRENGTH FOR WEAK STOMACHS

Indigestion Disappears When the Blood Is Enriched

The urgent need of all who suffer from indigestion is a tonic to enrich the blood. Pain and distress after eating is the way the stomach shows that it is too weak to perform the work of digesting the food taken. In this condition some people foolishly resort to purgatives, but these only further aggravate the trouble.

New strength is given weak stomachs by Dr. Williams' Pink Pills because these pills enrich and purify the blood. This is the natural process of giving strength and tone to the stomach, and it accounts for the speedy relief in stomach disorders that follow the use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. The appetite revives, food can be taken without discomfort and the burden and pains of indigestion are dispelled. The following statement from Mr. Donald L. Latter, Lakeville, N.S., proves the value of these pills in cases of this kind. He says:—"A couple of years ago I had a bad attack of indigestion. I had little or no appetite, and what I did eat did not agree with me and caused me much pain. As a result of this trouble my general health broke down, and I finally had to give up my work. I had taken doctor's medicine but it did not give me any relief. Then a friend advised me to give Dr. Williams' Pink Pills a trial, and I got six boxes. Before I had completed the third box I found that they were helping me and by the time I had taken the six boxes every symptom of indigestion had disappeared, my general health had improved and I have since been in the very best of health. I look upon Dr. Williams' Pink Pills as a wonderful medicine for all who are run-down."

You can get these pills from any medicine dealer or by mail at 50 cents a box from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

MILBURN'S HEART AND NERVE PILLS

Mrs. F. H. Miller, 1843-11th Ave. East, Vancouver, B.C., writes:—"Five years ago my husband suffered terribly with severe attacks of palpitation of the heart and smothering spells, and two doctors stated that he could not possibly live six months.

A friend recommended Milburn's H. and N. Pills, with the result that my husband is still enjoying life at the age of 84 years.

He has improved so wonderfully that he can now climb the stairs without having those awful pains in his heart."

An Amazing Experiment

New York Doctor Kept Fowl's Heart Alive Since 1913

A bit of tissue from a chicken's heart, kept alive since 1913 as part of an experiment begun at that time by Dr. Alexis Carrel, would have grown large enough to blanket Manhattan had it not been cut every twenty-four hours, according to Professor Arthur G. Green.

Professor Green said a motion picture record of what actually occurs as the tissue grows has been made by the Rockefeller Institute, where the experiment was conducted.

"It was one of the most amazing things I ever saw," Professor Green said. "The film of the growth of the tissue was taken during twenty hours and must have involved a vast amount of reel. What takes place in the twenty-four hours is reduced in it to a comparatively few minutes.

"You see on the screen a growth and a development nothing short of cosmic. Combustions, spirals, pulsations—all the marvels of biology seem to condense themselves into those few minutes.

"Dr. Carrel introduced immortality in a physical sense. It is there before your eyes, and so long as this tissue is nurtured and irrigated it will live. It cannot die. Its growth is so enormous that it doubles itself every twenty-four hours, and if it had not been pared down each day since the experiment began it would now be a colossal monster overspreading all New York."

Professor Green formerly was professor of chemistry at Leeds University, and for many years director of research for the British Dyestuffs Corporation.

The Oil for the Athlete.—In rubbing down, the athlete will find Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil an excellent article. It renders the muscles and sinews pliable, takes the soreness out of them and strengthens them for strains that may be put upon them. It stands pre-eminent for this purpose, and athletes who for years, have been using it can testify to its value as a lubricant.

Jolly Shower

The home of Mrs. James Kerr was the scene of a lovely shower on Tuesday night when the many friends of Mrs. A. W. McDonald (nee Daisie Axam) gathered to offer their congratulations on her marriage, which event took place in Trail last Saturday. Margaret McCurrach and Donna Spence drew in a wagon loaded with useful and beautiful gifts. After the gifts were examined and laid on the table Mr. McDonald made a brief speech in which he thanked those present for their kindness and said that he thought Mrs. McDonald could say more than he. Mrs. McDonald was delighted with the reception and she said that words could not express her appreciation of the kindness shown to her. Everybody then sang "For they are jolly good fellows." Tea and cake were served after which cards were played and a merry dance followed.

The donors of the presents are: Miss Tillie McDonell, Miss Georgina Lee, Ladies Aid, Mr. and Mrs. K. M. Spence, Kerr family, Mrs. E. Pope, Mrs. A. J. Morrison, N. E. Morrison, Mr. and Mrs. Gus. Laid Peacefully to Rest

"Mr. Jas. The presence of so many immediate relatives; the nicely ordered ceremony, and the attractive surroundings in which the departed one was laid to rest, according to Mr. Henderson, all contributed to remove from the sorrowful occasion much of its sting.

The floral tokens of regard and sympathy were many and beautiful and included wreaths from Princess Patricia Lodge No. 238 Daughters of St. George; The Milton Sons of St. George; Pythian Sisters, Greenwood Temple No. 12, and Island Temple Lodge No. 8, Pythian Sisters."—The Princeton Star.

SYNOPSIS OF LAND ACT AMENDMENTS

PRE-EMPTIONS

Vacant, unreserved, surveyed Crown lands may be pre-empted by British subjects over 18 years of age, and by aliens on declaring intention to become British subjects, conditional upon residence, occupation, and improvement for agricultural purposes.

Full information concerning regulations regarding pre-emptions is given in Bulletin No. 1, Land Series, "How to Pre-empt Land," copies of which can be obtained free of charge by addressing the Department of Lands, Victoria, B.C., or to any Government Agent.

Records will be granted covering only land suitable for agricultural purposes, and which is not timberland, i.e., carrying over 8,000 board feet per acre west of the Coast Range and 5,000 feet per acre east of that Range.

Applications for pre-emptions are to be addressed to the Land Commissioner of the Land Recording Division, in which the land applied for is situated, and are made on printed forms, copies of which can be obtained from the Land Commissioner.

Pre-emptions must be occupied for five years and improvements made to value of $10 per acre, including clearing and cultivating at least five acres, before a Crown Grant can be received.

For more detailed information see the Bulletin, "How to Pre-empt Land."

PURCHASE

Applications are received for purchase of vacant and unreserved Crown lands, not being timberland, for agricultural purposes; minimum price for first-class (arable) land is $5 per acre, and second-class (grazing) land $2.50 per acre. Further information regarding purchase or lease of Crown lands is given in Bulletin No. 10, Land Series, "Purchase and Lease of Crown Lands."

Mill, factory, or industrial sites on timber land, not exceeding 40 acres, may be purchased or leased, the conditions including payment of stumpage.

HOMESITE LEASES

Unsurveyed areas, not exceeding 20 acres, may be leased as homesites, conditional upon a dwelling being erected in the first year, title being obtainable after residence and improvement conditions are fulfilled and land has been surveyed.

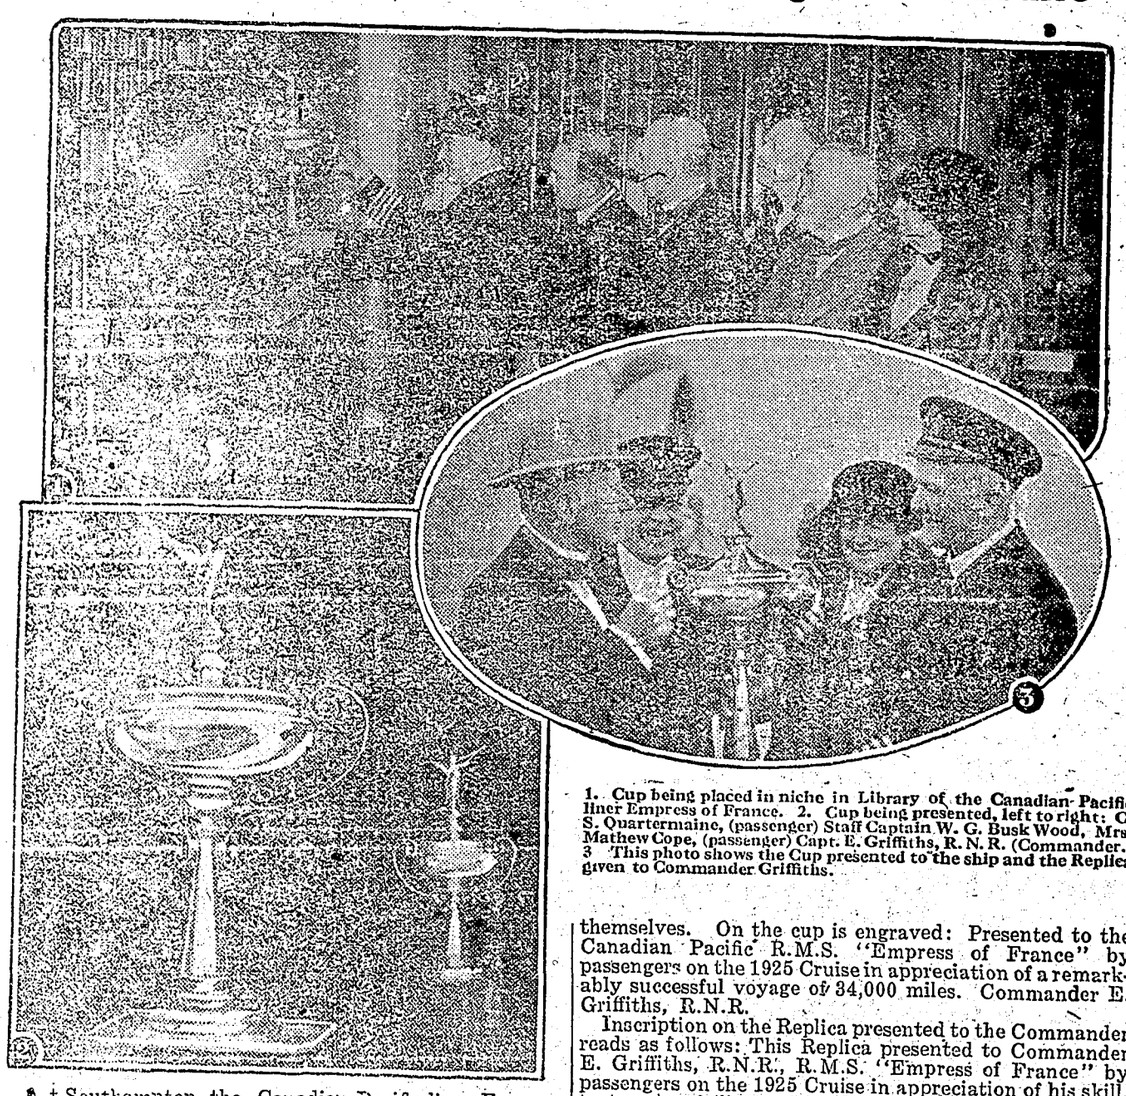
LEASES

For grazing and industrial purposes areas not exceeding 640 acres may be leased by one person or a company.

GRAZING

Under the Grazing Act the Province is divided into grazing districts and the range administered under a Grazing Commissioner. Annual grazing permits are issued based on numbers ranged, priority being given to established owners. Stock-owners may form associations for range management. Free, or partly free, permits are available for settlers, campers and travellers, up to ten head.

Handsome Cup for C. P. Liner Making World Cruise



1. Cup being placed in niche in Library of the Canadian Pacific liner Empress of France. 2. Cup being presented, left to right: C. S. Quartermaine, (passenger) Staff Captain W. G. Busk Wood, Mrs. Mathew Cope, (passenger) Capt. E. Griffiths, R. N. R. (Commander.) 3 This photo shows the Cup presented to the ship and the Replica given to Commander Griffiths.

At Southampton, the Canadian Pacific liner Empress of France was presented with a silver cup 27 inches high weighing 157 ounces on Friday, October 30 by C. S. Quartermaine on behalf of the Round the World Cruising Party on this ship during the winter 1924-25. The cup is a copy of the Gold Entente Cordiale Cup presented to France by His Majesty King Edward VII and was given as a token of their appreciation for the splendid time the passengers enjoyed on their long cruise. The Cup, with suitable inscription, was placed in a niche in the library of the ship and a replica of it was presented to the Commander of the ship, E. Griffiths, R.N.R.

This memento has a specially high value in the eyes of the officers of the ship as it represents the satisfaction of passengers who had made a three months voyage of 34,000 miles under their care. The inscriptions speak for themselves. On the cup is engraved: Presented to the Canadian Pacific R.M.S. "Empress of France" by passengers on the 1925 Cruise in appreciation of a remarkably successful voyage of 34,000 miles. Commander E. Griffiths, R.N.R.

Inscription on the Replica presented to the Commander reads as follows: This Replica presented to Commander E. Griffiths, R.N.R., R.M.S. "Empress of France" by passengers on the 1925 Cruise in appreciation of his skill, tact and unfailing courtesy throughout a most wonderfully successful voyage of 34,000 miles.

With even greater comforts on board the palatial ocean liners than any to be had on shore it is not surprising that cruising has seized the popular fancy. This year many will avail themselves of the opportunity of making the Round the World Cruise on the Canadian Pacific liner, Empress of Scotland.

The liner leaves New York on December 3 and returns April 10 via the Panama Canal after visiting over 20 countries en route, including 26 ports of call, and arriving in the Holyland on Christmas Day. Cruise members proceed to Jerusalem and Bethlehem by train after disembarking at Haifa. After a day and half visiting scenes made memorable by the life of Our Saviour the party goes on to Cairo by train.
