THE NEWS.

Further Details of the Hawaiian Muddle.

The Sultan Still Refuses to Sign.—Boiler Explosion.

Colliery on Fire.—Malicious Reports About the Mexicans.

OTHER ITEMS OF INTEREST.

By Associated Press.

A BOILER ENPLOSION.

REDWOOD CITY, July 12.—At an early hour this morning the residents here were awakened by a loud report that shook the ground and rattled the windows. The boiler of the threshing engine belonging to Alexander Gordon, of this place, had blown up on his farm, a short distance from town, instantly killing Mr. Carr, engineer, and fatally injuring Louis Solicita, the foreman. Carr was standing at his post and had just started the engine for the day's work when the explosion took place. He was blown to pieces and all portions of his remains have not been found. Solicita was considerably further away from the engine, but he is frightfully mangled and death is thought to be but a matter of a few hours. Another account from San Jose says that Louis Solicita, foreman, was killed and Ed. Carr, engineer, and the nephew of Jesse D. Carr was fatally injured.

ORANGEMEN IN LINE.

TORONTO, July 12.—The Orange demonstration to-day was a great success. There were 53 lodges and between 3000 and 4000 men in the procession.

A COLLIERY ON FIRE.

POTTSVILLE, Pa., July 12.—One of the best collieries of the Philadelphia and Reading Co. is on fire and probably doomed to destruction, entailing a loss approximating $100,000. Three hundred men and boys will probably be thrown out of employment.

ON HER WAY HOME.

NEW YORK, July 12.—Queen Kapaloni kept in her hotel to-day and rested previous to going on the journey to San Francisco. This evening the queen and party will leave on the six p.m. train and it is not intended to make any break on the journey between points.

DILLON ON THE LAND BILL.

LONDON, July 12.—Dillon resumed the debate on the land bill in the commons to-night. He said he rejected the measure with contempt as utterly inadequate to meet the needs of Irish tenantry. Attacking the clauses of the bill seriatim, Dillon declared the first, dealing with the case of lease-holders, the only one which promised to be beneficial in its operation. The others would make evictions easy and destroy the confidence of the tenantry in the land court.

MALICIOUS REPORTS ABOUT THE MEXICANS.

EL PASO, Texas, July 12.—A package of circulars was received here yesterday morning intended to stir up a feeling against Mexicans. The circulars began: "Official Bulletin No. 1, head-quarters America and Northern Mexican A. & D. Co., New York city, July 1st, 1887." Under this announcement, which appears in glaring type is the following:

"AMERICANS, READ AND ACT.

"The latest Mexican outrage is on an American, his wife and daughter, who have just returned from a Mexican dungeon, a small peat-black hole at Paso Del Norte, Mexico." Then follows a telegram from Wicheta, June 28th, stating that A. Bird, of New York city, manager of an opera troupe, has been thrown into jail at Paso Del Norte and confined for a long time. Four of the company are dying with small-pox. The bulletin closes with this language: "The above associated press telegram was published in the daily press on Wednesday, June 29, but closely followed by a special telegram from Washington with consoling information that the state department poop-poohed at this last reported Mexican outrage. Since the advent of the present Democratic administration a half hundred cases of false imprisonment and murder of American citizens in semi barbaric Mexico, accompanied by the sworn statements of many witnesses, have been officially reported to the state department at Washington, and up to this moment no reparation, no satisfaction whatever has been demanded of Mexico by our government. It is now time for all true Americans to rise in their might and call 'Halt' to the greaser of Mexico and again administer the lesson of 1884 and '86 and let it be a lesson that will never have its scar effaced nor its efficacy questioned. (Signed)

"BY ORDER OF THE EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE."

When the Wicheta dispatch was first published the mayor of the province of Paso Del Norte and Consul Brigham were interviewed and both pronounced the Bird story a malicious lie. The grain of truth in this falsehood is this: Last January a company of young men from the city of Mexico calling themselves "Spanish students" arrived at Paso Del Norte after a tour through Mexico. They were under contract to play at Paso Del Norte. On the evening set for the performance an audience assembled, but owing to some disagreement in payment the "students" refused to sing and, according to Mexican statute were thrown into jail. A member of the company named Suarco, who is now employed in a store in Paso Del Norte, was interviewed to-day and said: "We were in jail about an hour when all were liberated on bail, wealthy Spaniards going on our bonds. The troupe consisted of nine Spaniards and five Mexicans, but no Americans. Two days after our imprisonment the entire troupe performed in El Paso and later at Paso Del Norte, where the company broke up. Six of the Spaniards are going to California and from there to Denver. The remainder of the company, except myself, went back to the City of Mexico. No one by the name of Bird was connected with the company and it is supposed that Cutting is flooding the frontier with these bulletins, calculating to arouse the animosity of the citizens of El Paso and Paso Del Norte."

PREPARING FOR THE SECOND READING.

LONDON, July 12.—The division on the second reading of the land bill will take place in the house of commons on The government has secured a mechanical majority of the Conservatives which promises important amendments. They say that the bankruptcy clauses will be abandoned in committee, and that an amendment will be introduced giving the court of judges power to receive judicial rents and they claim that these alterations in the bill will modify the opposition of the Parnellite members to the measure.

FROM THE FAR EAST.

LONDON, July 12.—Cholera has broken out in Gardinia. A dispatch from Candia, Crete, says the Christian deputies have withdrawn the anti-tax manifesto and appealed to the Sultan for redress. It is expected the settlement of the trouble in Crete can now be reached.

THE DUBLIN ELECTION.

DUBLIN, July 12.—The election for a seat for the Dublin university, made vacant by the elevation of Attorney-General Holmes to the Irish bench, took place to-day. Two candidates stood, Madden and Hon. Richard Cledeharsons, both Conservatives. Madden was elected, receiving 1376 votes against 710 for his opponent.

THE NEW BULGARIAN CABINET.

TIRNOVA, July 12.—A new cabinet for Bulggaria has been formed. Mr. Stocloff, president of the council, and A. D. Interim, minister of finance; M. Ettchevis, minister of foreign affairs; M. Tachomakoff, minister of public instruction; M. Strausky, minister of the interior; Major Petroff, minister of war. M. Stocloff has telegraphed to the prefects of the departments ordering them to release political prisoners.

HONOLULU INTELLIGENCE.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 13.—The steamship Australia arrived here this morning from Honolulu, sailing from that point at noon of July 5th and bringing Hawaiian intelligence down to that time. No further outbreaks or demonstrations of any character occurred after those described as having taken place on Friday and Saturday, June 30th and July 1st, which resulted in the overturning of the Gibson ministry and the written pledge from King Kakalua to promote constitutional reforms and submit to the will of the people. The military continues to remain on duty but no further public assemblages have been held. The new ministry has assumed control and the new constitution was to be laid before the king as the steamship sailed. Ex-premier Gibson and his son-in-law, F. H. Selden, who were arrested on June 30, were held in jail until Saturday night, July 2nd, when, owing to the years of Gibson, he was taken to his home by order of the new attorney-general, where he remains under military guard. His trial was set for July 6th. Cyprian Cobb, secretary to the ex-minister of foreign affairs, who was also arrested was released on bail. The excitement in the kingdom has apparently so thoroughly subsided that on Monday, July 4th, the celebration in honor of America's natal day occurred at Honolulu. It was attended by fully five thousand people. Patriotic addresses were made by Honorable G. W. Murrell, American minister, and Honorable George E. Whitney, of California. The national salute was fired from the stone battery. During the afternoon the American minister held a reception which was attended by King Kalakaua and members of his staff and a ball was given at night at the Music Hall which was attended by the naval officers of the U.S. and representatives of the foreign embassies, together with a large representation of citizens of Honolulu. Honolulu papers in commenting upon the change of administration predict that no further public outbreaks are expected, provided a new constitution is adopted and reforms inaugurated. The Hawaiian Gazette in an editorial says: "The word of the king cannot be taken by his people. It has been proved again and again that it is not worth the paper it is written on. In fact we remember circumstances so well that we are not going to be deceived again." In reviewing the occurrence at Honolulu, which resulted in the collapse of the ministry and the arrest of the chief advisers of Kalakaua for alleged malfeasance of money and other crimes, it appears that the king was inclined to make a stand against the populace, but was quickly disabused of the idea that he could make a successful fight. When the steamship Australia arrived from San Francisco with nearly ten thousand stand of arms the populace [illegible] ing was called which sent the ultimatum to the king. All approaches to the palace were barricaded and the Gatling guns had been placed in the palace, together with a considerable quantity of fire-arms, but when it became known that the populace really meant to fight, the retainers of the king began quickly to disappear and he had no alternative but to make a sudden resolve to concede everything, and even then appeared to fear his life was in danger, which caused him to ask the American and other foreign government representatives to assume the control of affairs temporarily. On Saturday night, July 1st, peace having been thoroughly restored, the citizens' committee posted a proclamation declaring that the Honolulu rifles could maintain order and requesting citizens not to appear on the streets armed until further orther orders. The new ministry, it is declared, has already discovered that all public funds have been exhausted. The daily Bulletin declares that in addition to the regular revenue all Postal savings bank deposits have disappeared and that it was owing to this fact that the king feared personal violence.

THE SULTAN STILL KICKS.

CONSTANTINOPLE, July 13.—The sultan still persists in his refusal to sign the convention with England in reference to Egypt in its present, notwithstanding he is urgently advised to ratify it both by Germany and Italy.

FRENCH HATE.

PARIS, July 13.—German residents have been ordered to remain in-doors to-morrow, as it is feared that they would be attacked if they appeared on the streets during the celebration of the anniversary of the fall of Bastile. The patriotic league have announced that they will make a demonstration to-morrow morning in the Place de La Concorde and another in the Boise de Boulogne in the afternoon. It is feared that these meetings will give rise to disorder, and the police and military authorities are making preparations to maintain peace.

Col. Snort Discouraged.

Not long since Col. Snort, who was reading a New York paper, somewhat astonished Johnny Fizzletop, his young assistant, by throwing down the paper and bursting into a flood of tears.

"Why, Col. Snort, what is the matter?"

"Johnny," replied the Colonel, dashing aside a manly tear, "you know how hard I've tried to build up the Crosby County Clarion and Farmers' Vindicator and make it a power in the land?"

"Yes," replied John, "if the paper is not what it should be it's not your fault. You have tried to make it interesting. Why, in last week's issue you said that the Houston Tooter represented that element in journalism that was always hankering after a free meal—skirmishing around for a free pass."

"I did that very thing, Johnny, and last spring I called the editor of the San Antonia Daily Tocsin a little lick-spittle greaser with a thimbleful of brains."

"And how you paralyzed the editor of the Dallas Howler by calling him a slimy reptile wallowing in the filth that gave him birth. And you laid out the editor of the Fort Worth Bazoo by calling him a bald-headed baboon, whose frothy ravings and outlandish gibberish made him an object of melancholy derision to his friends."

"And that was a pretty sorry lick I hit the Austin Demagogue when I called him a slimy viper, whose only live ad. was paid for in stomach bitters."

"Well, Colonel, if as you say you have done so much to elevate the lofty mission of the press, why are you discouraged?"

"Because, Johnny, it is useless for a little Texas country paper like the Crosby County Clarion and Farmers' Vindicator to try to compete with the great New York dailies. Just read what Mr. Pulitzer says about Mr. Dana, and what Mr. Dana says in reply. It's no use, Johnny, we can't compete with the great New York journalists. I can't find any language that in point of vituperation equals that of the New York press. Take the bucket, Johnny, and go for some beer."—Texas Siftings.

Mrs. A. Nelson, Brantford, writes:—"I was a sufferer from chronic dyspepsia for eleven years. Always after eating, an intense burning sensation in the stomach, at times very distressing, caused a drooping and languid feeling, which would last for several hours after eating. I was recommended by Mr. Popplewell, chemist, of our city, to try Northrop & Lyman's Vegetable Discovery and Dyspeptic Cure, and I am thankful to say that I have not been better for years; that burning sensation and languid feeling has all gone, and food does not lie heavy on my stomach. Others of my family have used it with best results.

Daily British Columbian

Wednesday Evening, July 13, 1887.

The River Mouth.

It is stated on authority which cannot be doubted that the condition of matters at the mouth of Fraser River is worse now than it has been for years. The three outside buoys which are supposed to mark the entrance to the main channel are so far out of place that they cannot be taken as guides to the channel at all. Vessels entering are obliged to grope about with line and lead and find deep water as best they may. This condition of things has existed for some weeks, and although representations have been made to the proper authorities nothing has been done. There is no lack of water, because 15 feet is the shallowest place found at about half tide, and if a more complete examination were made it is not improbable that a channel still deeper could be found. At the entrance to the north arm the most important beacons were carried away last winter and have [illegible] This is a matter which demands immediate and careful attention. The Fraser River is incomparably the most important river in British Columbia, and if the people of the mainland sit still and allow the entrance to be neglected and the obstacles to navigation to accumulate, they will very soon find trade leaving the river altogether and making for itself new channels elsewhere. The government steamer Sir James Douglas and the snag boat Samson are supposed to be available at all times for the purpose of keeping the buoys in place and clearing away dangerous snags, and it is supposed to be the business of the marine and fishery agent to see that every obstacle to the safe navigation of these waters is removed. The Samson is lying idle at the wharf opposite this city, and where the Douglas is we do not know. In the mean time some vessel attempting to enter the river in a storm will be wrecked, and the responsibility will be laid at the door of the government and its agents. It seems impossible ever to secure promptness in matters relating to the mainland when the official agency is in Victoria. When Capt. Lewis obtained the appointment of marine agent it was hoped things would be different; but it is to be feared he is drifting into the old condition of inaction which made his predecessor so unpopular. Either that, or the regulations by which his actions are governed are quite unsuited to the circumstances, and need immediate revision. Matters pertaining to the navigation of mainland rivers ought to be under control of a mainland officer, and nothing less than this will meet mainland necessities.

American Pacific Squadron.

The statement made by an American officer respecting the Pacific squadron of the United States, which appeared in our despatches of yesterday, is not very complimentary to a great, powerful, progressive nation of over 60,000,000 inhabitants. To a question concerning the U. S. force on the Pacific he replied: "We haven't any; at least none to speak of!" The vessels of the U. S. Pacific squadron are in quality and quantity so inferior, that if congregated together for any serious business they would become a target for absolute ridicule. The guns are of the old-fashioned smoothbore kind, utterly useless in modern warfare, and the whole fleet musters only about 1300 men, including the crews. Moreover, it would require a long time to concentrate these obsolete vessels anywhere and to put them in fighting trim. One fairly good man-of-war, built and supplied after the modern pattern, would have no difficulty at all in sinking the whole U. S. navy on the Pacific. This is not creditable to a nation of such population and resources, and having a surplus of something like one hundred million dollars a year. The interests of the United States on the Pacific ought to be even larger than those of Great Britain, and her naval power should be proportionately great. But while Britain has on this coast a well-equipped and powerful navy, the United States is practically defenceless on sea and land. Fortunately the relations between the two countries are of the most friendly kind, and the navies have always shown a praiseworthy disposition to assist each other when required; and in the case of the Hawaiian revolution we doubt not that British vessels will be found defending the rights of American citizens if necessary. We hope these friendly sentiments will grow larger and not less, and that it may come to be within the range of possibility that a very firm treaty of alliance offensive and defensive may be entered into between the two nations. There are in the United States certain elements of internal danger which, if not regulated with a strong hand, may some day become very serious. The foreign population is large and heterogeneous, and generally antagonistic to the spirit of American institutions. Communism is not an American organization, but it is assuming proportions and practising methods that are incompatible with true liberty. The United States is not a military nation, but it is in danger of neglecting the ordinary safeguards which are always necessary to stable government and public safety.

Messrs. Parker & Laird, of Hillsdale, writes: Our Mr. Laird having occasion to visit Scotland, and knowing the excellent qualities of Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil, concluded to take some with him, and the result has been very astonishing. We may say that in several instances it has effected cures when ailments had been pronounced incurable by eminent practitioners.

WHAT PHYSICIANS SAY ABOUT THE STARR KIDNEY PAD.

"Treatment by Absorption has for some time been recognized by Medical Men to be the most simple and effectual means of conveying to Diseased Organs, "Curatives," but in cases of Kidney Disease and Complaints attendant thereon, successful treatment was practicably impossible until the introduction of the Starr Kidney Pad. It costs less than a single prescription and is immeasurably more decisive and effective than any quantity of internal Medicinal dosing. Work immediately over the seat of Disease, its curative properties become absorbed by the diseased and enfeebled Organs, continuously and directly, as required to insure in return their healthy action and original vigour. It is comfortable to the patient and pleasant in its effects, and cures when nothing else can. The Starr Kidney Pad accomplishes positive, decisive results. A more valuable discovery as a true remedy for Kidney Diseases was never made.—Medical Gazette

The Starr Kidney Pad, manufactured in Toronto, is a permanent sure cure for diseases, disorders and ailments of the Kidneys, Bladder and urinary secretive system, or attendant complaints, causing pain in the small of the back, sides, etc., producing urinary disorders, such as too frequent, scanty, difficult, painful or copious micturition, inability of retention and sedimentary urine, dropsical symptoms, etc., denoting the presence in the system of diseases common to the urinary secretive organs—known as gravel, catarrh of the bladder and passages, Bright's disease, diabetes, dropsy, piles, nervous debility, etc. Send for pamphlet to LANGLEY & CO., Wholesale Agents, Victoria. A JAPANESE ACCOUNT OF FANS.

Probably a Chinese Invention—Fans for Ceremonious Occasions.

Dr. D. B. McCartee, for many years a missionary and educator in China and Japan, and now a resident of Washington, District of Columbia, has favored us with a translation he has made of a Japanese account of the fans of that nation. Dr. McCartee is one of the most accomplished Chinese and Japanese scholars in America, and his views on any Oriental custom carry the weight of authority.

The present communication is a translation from the French of Mr. Matsugata's report entitled "Le Japon a L'Exposition Universelle de 1878."

There are in Japan two kinds of fans; one called sensu (Chinese Shen-tizu), which folds up and is easily carried; the other of a round shape and which does not fold up.

No one knows exactly the origin of fans in Japan, but the traditions have uniformly taught us that about the year 670 (A.D.), during the reign of the emperor Tenji (who adopted many of the institutions and customs of the Chinese), an inhabitant of Tamba, looking at bats folding and unfolding their wings, conceived the idea of making fans of leaves, which from that circumstance bore the name of kuwa hori, which means a bat.

The fan called Hi gi [or Hitree fan] was made from the leaves of the Hi-no-ki (Chamacyparis obtusa). The leaves were tied to each other by threads.

Another kind of fan called Chukei (Chinese Chu Kin, lit. bamboo tendons or veins) is made of bamboo. It has the appearance of being half open when it is shut. These two kinds of fans are only carried on the occasion of great ceremonies.

The ordinary fans are made in Kioto, Osaka and Owari; but the better kinds are made in Tokio. The leaves (ribs, bones, sticks or stays) of fans are made of bamboo, but ivory, shell and shitan wood (imported from China) are also used.

They are decorated with mother-of-pearl, coral and lacquer work. The paper which covers the "bones" of the fan is frequently ornamented with gold leaf, drawings, flowers, birds, etc.

It is sometimes necessary to give the paper a coating of shiber (or varnish made from the juice of the raw persimmon) to give it greater solidity or firmness.

There is also a kind of fan very rich in quality and of a larger size, which is used by dancers to beat time, or in making graceful motions.

The Achiwa, or fans which do not fold up, come principally from Nara, some twenty miles or so from Kioto. They are generally made of paper, but sometimes of silk.

About 1660 (A.D.), during the period called Kuambun, a (Buddhist) preacher named Gensel, noted for his artistic taste, and who was also a poet, devoted himself at Fukakusa, in the province of Yamashiro, to the making of fans, which were very beautiful and in perfect good taste.

These fans, which acquired a great reputation, were known as Fukakusa Uchiwa. They are one of the principal products of that province. The best Uchiwa are made at Tokio, but as the varieties of this kind of fans are very numerous, we will not weary our readers by enumerating them in detail.

[NOTE.—The translator does not hold himself responsible for the inconsistencies of this account. The emperor, Tenji, introduced many of the Chinese manners and customs into Japan and many imitations of the Chinese official forms and offices. Calendars, almanacs, and the mode of denominating the year, were all introduced about the same time from China and fans probably at the same time also. The Chinese name used in Japan would confirm the supposition that the better kinds of fans, at least, were introduced from China.—D. B. McC.]—[New York Commercial Advertiser.

To Make Clothing Waterproof.

It is found that when paraffine is thoroughly mixed with linseed oil, cast into small blocks, and cooled, it may be used to make any fabric, as clothfelt, and leather, waterproof, by rubbing it with such a block, and ironing afterward to equalize the distribution of the material in the pores.

If too much is not put on, the material may be made to be only impervious to water, but not to air, the small greasy pores repelling water, but not air.

School Boy's Paradise.

What wouldn't the average boy give if his pa would only send him to the Fort Wrangel training school in Alaska?

The newspaper of that place says that the boys of the school last year killed for the use of the institution 121 deer, 11 seals, 1 bear, about 150 wild geese, over 300 ducks, and numerous grouse, porcupines, marmots and snipe, and caught all the salmon, trout, herring, flounders, crabs, and clams they needed.

The One Thing to Teach Daughters.

There never was better advice given than that which Washington Irving once gave a lady:

"Don't be too anxious about the education of your daughters; they will do very well; don't teach them so many things; teach them one thing."

"What is that, Mr. Irving?" she asked.

"Teach them," he said, "to be easily pleased."

Hunting In North Africa.

The larger animals are being rapidly exterminated in Algeria, and the lion of the desert is fast becoming a myth.

During the eleven years from 1873 to 1884, bounty was paid on 202 lions, 1,314 panthers, 1,882 hyenas and 27,000 jackals.

A Thrifty Indian.

A half-breed Indian in Montana began a few years ago with two or three head of cattle the business of raising stock.

Yearly he has disposed of his increase, and recently he sold his herd for $22,000.

JOHN SLY'S COMMISSION.

He Has Some Experience As a Detective.

John Sly lives in a romantic village in the State of Ohio. There is also a great deal of romance about John. That is, he has lately had a great deal of romance knocked out of him.

John was a hostler at the village hotel barn, but while he did his work in a satisfactory manner, he was by no means satisfied. He compared himself to an eagle chained by the leg to a hen coop. He longed to break his bonds and soar.

He was undecided whether to join a circus or hire out on a steamboat when fortune decided his fate.

He received a circular from "The Great International Detective Agency" of Cincinnati, explaining that the secretary of that organization had heard of his natural detective talents, and was desirous of giving him an appointment. The said appointment carried a commission with it, and this commission would be sent on as soon as John Sly had forwarded the sum of $5.

Any one who imagines that the hostler was over thirty minutes mailing his money for that commission is greatly mistaken.

In thirty minutes more he had quit his job, and his friends could see that a great change had come over him. He had a knowing look. He suddenly became reserved. He began to glide about like a cat.

In due time the commission arrived, and a letter with it, warning John to be on the watch for counterfeiters, horse thieves, bank burglars and other wicked folks.

They had struck the right man. Inside of an hour he had a pair of handcuffs and a revolver strapped to him and was out on the watch.

Suspicion soon began to thrill his soul. The Mayor of the town had a wicked, depraved look; several merchants seemed to be startled when suddenly addressed; the village blacksmith was seen hanging around the bank as if making an examination of the windows.

For two or three days and nights John Sly nursed his suspicions and kept his eyes open. Then it struck him that a real detective ought to turn up something startling in order to clinch his reputation, and he arrested the chief of the fire department, two members of the council and the bank cashier, and marched them in a body to the jail.

His first surprise came in when the jailer wouldn't receive them, his second when they laughed at his commission, his third when a constable and a warrant landed him in a cell for illegally impersonating an officer.

John Sly is in jail yet, and four men go around howling for his blood. They don't want his blood exactly, but they are determined to send him either to a lunatic asylum or State prison.

The days come and go, and the nights show up with great regularity, and John sly reads and re-reads that commission, gives himself a vigorous kicking, and cries out in plaintive tones:

"Oh, why didn't someone come to me and tell me that I was born a fool?"

OUTWARD BOUND.

I sit and watch the ships go out
Across the widening sea;
How one by one, in shimmering sun,
They sail away from me.
I know not to what lands they sail,
Nor what the freight they bear;
I only know they outward go,
While all the winds are fair.

Beyond the low horizon line
Where my short sight must fall,
Some other eyes a watch will keep,
Where'er the ships may sail;
By night, by day, or near, or far,
O'er narrow seas or wide,
These follow still, at love's sweet will,
Whatever may betide.

So round the world the ships all sail,
To dreary lands or fair;
So with them go, for weal or woe,
Some dear ones everywhere.
How will there speed each lagging keel,
When homeward it is laid;
Or watch will keep, o'er surges deep,
If there a grave be made!

O human love, so tried, so true,
That knows not mete nor bound,
But follows with unwearied watch
Our daily changing round!
O Love divine, O Love supreme,
What matter where I sail,
So I but know, where'er I go,
Thy watch will never fail?

—[Anson D. F. Randolph.

The Coming Centennial.

The next great centennial in this country will be that of the inauguration, as President, of George Washington, who took the oath of office in this city, where the Sub-Treasury building now stands, April 30, 1789.

The day was the commencement of Constitutional government in the United States, and it is to be commemorated by an imposing celebration in 1889.

A Shepherd's Rich Discovery.

Once a shepherd, caught out upon the hills by night, built a fire under the lee of a pile of stones that he had tossed together. The heat split some of the stones, and in the morning the man saw within one of the cracks a piece of shining silver ore. That happened in Peru, and thus was discovered the mines of the Cerro de Pasco, which have yielded $400,000,000.

Touching Incident.

A touching incident is related of a recent shipwreck on the New England coast. The captain's wife and children were lost. They had on board a few tame doves.

When the body of the wife was found on the shore a dove was on the body and flew to the house to which the remains of the drowned woman were conveyed, and pecking at the window gained admission.

Baby's Prayer.

A little New York boy, whose conduct made his mother say that she feared he did not pray, replied:

"Yes, I do; I pray every night that God will make you and pa like my ways better."—[Shoe and Leather Reporter.

Fire! Fire!

TESTIMONIAL!

Vancouver, 23rd June, 1886.

MR. G. ROBERTSON,
Vancouver:
Representing Goldie & McCulloch,
Galt, Ont.

SIR,—We the undersigned having witnessed the terrible fire which wiped out of existence the young city of Vancouver, on the 13th inst., have, after the fire, examined the safes sold by you, some of which were put to the most severe test, having been surrounded by large quantities of lard and bacon, and we are pleased to testify to the remarkable manner in which every Safe sold by you preserved its contents, not only books and papers, but also thousands of dollars in paper money were taken out in perfect condition. We can, therefore, with the greatest confidence, recommend them as thoroughly fire proof:

L. A. Hamilton, for the Canadian Pacific Railway Company; M. A. MacLean, Mayor; John J. Blake, Stipendiary Magistrate; Richd. Alexander, Justice of the Peace; John Boultbee, Police Magistrate, City of Vancouver; Thomas Dunn, Justice of the Peace; Isaac Johns, Col.; Edward E. Rand, Real Estate Broker; R. Balfour, Alderman; John Rankin, Real Estate Broker; Pither & Edson, Royal Hotel; H. F. Keefer, Contractor, C. P. R.; J. W. McFarladd, Port Moody, to Vancouver and English Bay; F. C. Innes & Co., Real Estate Brokers; A. W. Ross, Real Estate Broker; Gravely & Spinks, Real Estate Brokers; R. C. Ferguson, Mgr. R. C. P. Mills. je30tc

1873. GRIP! 1887.

CANADA'S COMIC JOURNAL

GREAT IMPROVEMENTS FOR 1887.

THE AIM OF "GRIP" is to set forth, in an impartial and independent manner, the passing events of Canadian political and social life. Its Cartoons speak more definitely and more pleasingly than whole columns of editorial. In this pungent, easily appreciable, and artistic style of presenting a subject, the whole situation is revealed at a glance. The success of Grip shows how well this fact is appreciated—its Cartoons on the passing political events of the country being even more eagerly sought after than the chaste and humorous letter-press of the paper,—though the latter is equal to that of any similar publication on the continent.

The publishers of Grip are making extensive improvements for 1886. The old cover is to be discarded, and the journal will hereafter comprise 12 pages, and be printed on heavy toned and calendered paper,—every number being so artistically executed as to compare favorably with the best papers on the continent. The advts. will be compressed and more systematically arranged; while similar improvements will be made as to the letter-press. A new and handsome design will adorn the title page; while the Cartoons will certainly not suffer from extensive improvements in the artistic department.

The price of Grip will hereafter be $2 a year, which is lower than that of any paper of its kind in America,—most of them selling for $5. Single numbers of Grip will be 10 cents.

Twice a year, at Midsummer and Christmas, a beautiful special number will be issued, the number of pages being increased, and special features introduced; particulars of which will be given in preceding issues. These numbers will be presented to subscribers without extra charge.

GRIP'S PLATFORM:

Humor without Vulgarity;
Patriotism without Partizanship;
Truth without Temper.

Only $2 a Year, Postage Free.

THE BRITISH COLUMBIAN

Printing Company

(LIMITED.)

ON THE 10TH OF JANUARY, 1887, the COLUMBIAN Newspaper and Printing Concern was purchased by a joint stock company composed of citizens of New Westminster, to be known as the "British Columbian Printing Co., Limited." The concern has been for nearly a year owned and controlled by the British Columbia Stationery and Printing Company, of New Westminster, Victoria and Vancouver. The object of the new company is to continue the publication of the BRITISH COLUMBIAN newspaper and carry on a general printing and publishing concern, controlled entirely by those whose individual interest it will be to promote the development, especially of the Mainland. There will be no slackening of the energy hitherto displayed in the management of the establishment, and its patrons may rely upon receiving full value for their money. The COLUMBIAN will continue to be entirely independent in both Dominion and provincial politics, and will devote itself to the advancement of such schemes as may be considered in the public interest. The concern is now entirely separate from any other business, the book and stationery establishment in this city having been taken over by Mr. T. R. Pearson, who will continue to carry it on in his own name and for his own benefit. It is desirable that a daily newspaper should be maintained in this city, and the new company asks for public patronage on the ground that it is engaged in an enterprise calculated to promote the public welfare. It asks that the COLUMBIAN be judged on its own merits and supported only so long as its policy is consistent with its professions. In consequence of this business change all accounts due the concern must be settled without delay so that the books of the former company may be adjusted and closed. Address all communications and remittances to

HEAD OFFICE, TORONTO, CANADA

A HOME COMPANY.

This Association merits the confidence the Public is reposing in it from the following FACTS:—

The Security offered to policy holders is unsurpassed by any Company doing business in Canada.

It has no schemes of insurance, but the well-established lines, hence the policy holders cannot be misled as to their contracts.

Its statements to the public can be readily understood, its cash statement showing every item of income and how expended.

Its position is ascertained annually from a detailed valuation in which every item of liability is included.

Its progress has been unexampled in the history of insurance in Canada.

Its policies are indisputable after three years, and non-forfeitable after two years' existence.

Its profits are distributed upon an equitable basis. The profits to one class of policy holders are not lessened to give larger profits to any other class, which method affords superior advantages over the uniform bonus plan of distribution.

Liberal Conditions as to Residence and Travel.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS THIS DAY.

Daily British Columbian

Wednesday Evening, July 13, 1887.

A car of brick arrived from Haney yesterday for Beckett & Co.

School election at 11 o'clock to-morrow morning at the Hyack Hall.

Remember the entertainment in the Baptist church at 8 o'clock to-night.

F. & W. Wallace, shipbuilders, of St. John, N.F., have made an assignment.

A land-slide at Zug, Switzerland, carried twenty-seven houses and twenty people into the lake.

Edison is at work on a contrivance for sending messages from vessel to vessel through the water.

The Indians are bringing in large quantities of wild blackberries, for which they find ready sale.

Messrs. E. S. Scoullar & Co. received to-day about a thousand feet of rubber hose from the east.

Carpenters are at work building a dye and wash house for the woollen mills to the east of the main building.

Mr. R. S. Cawston arrived to-day from the Similkameen with another lot of beef cattle, about 118 in number.

8 cars of freight arrived early this morning from the far east. Among the lot is 3 carloads of whiskey for Victoria.

Parties wishing fruits for preserving should place their orders at once. Special rates on quantities for putting up.—C. J. ROBSON. djy11t3

There were 53 lodges of Orangemen represented at the 12th of July gathering in Toronto yesterday, and upwards of 4,000 in the procession.

An evening's entertainment will be given in the basement of the Baptist Church on Wednesday (July 13), at 8 o'clock. Cake and fruit will be served. Admission 25 cts. djy12t2

The C.P.R. is offering special rates to Banff. From Winnipeg the return rate is placed at $50, and from points in British Columbia at $30. This will doubtless induce many to visit this famous health resort.

Mr. Van Horne is the authority for saying the mayors of Montreal, Toronto, and London will be knighted in honor of the Queen's jubilee. He says he has seen a telegram from Windsor Castle to that effect.

There are two broken planks in the sidewalk in front of the Drill Shed inviting immediate attention from the board of works. It is a dangerous place, and has been in a dangerous condition now for some weeks.

The str. Parthia was delayed 12 hours at Victoria because she could not obtain a ton of potatoes. She had to wait for the str. Elder from San Francisco. If the Parthia had come to New Westminster she could have got a load of potatoes.

Sir Charles Tupper's budget speech has been printed in pamphlet form for general distribution. It is a very comprehensive speech, and is accompanied by lithographed plates showing many interesting stastics of trade and development. We have to thank Sir Charles for a copy.

Hyder Bux, the East Indian in search of his father, left for Winnipeg to-day via the C.P.R. Pursuant to Mayor Dickinson's request, Mr. Abbot, of the C.P.R., kindly consented to allow him a half fare ticket, and a sum sufficient to defray this expense was readily subscribed by the citizens.

The William Irving arrived from up-river ports at 1 o'clock. She brought down a good cargo of freight, including 3 tons of oats from Langley, and 118 cattle from the Similkameen district, belonging to Mr. R. S. Cawston. She reports that the river has been rising at Hope during the recent warm spell.

At a meeting of the council of the Westminster board of trade held yesterday, Mr. D. Chisholm, M.P., made a statement respecting various matters which had engaged his attention at Ottawa. After hearing the statement a resolution was unanimously passed by the council expressing approval of the action taken by Mr. Chisholm.

The banquet given in the Orange Hall last evening was very successful. Over 100 people were present, and the evening was merrily spent. Mr. Wm. Johnson, district grand master, presided in the chair. Toasts were given and songs sung. After the banquet was ended the tables were cleared away and dancing was indulged in until near morning.

SCHOOL ELECTION.—An election to fill the vacancy on the school board caused by the resignation of Mr. Clute will be held to-morrow at 11 a.m. It is to be hoped the ratepayers will take sufficient interest in this matter to secure the election of a proper person to fill this important position. The educational matters of the city are too important to be neglected.

A MATRIMONIAL BOOM.—It is reported that the next few days will witness a boom in the matrimonial market. At least three weddings are looked for very shortly. One will take place next week, and by it Westminster will lose one of her fairest daughters, as the gentleman, who will fill the part of bridegroom lives in the east, and is already on his way west to claim his bride.

A TRUE WOLF STORY.—Yesterday evening Mr. C. G. Major and Mr. A. E. Hill, C. E., were driving along the Burrard Inlet road towards this city, a short distance beyond Burnaby Lake, when they observed two black wolves on the road. Presently a white wolf stepped on to the road, and the three caught sight of the team and scampered away as fast as their legs could carry them. They were full grown animals, and the gentlemen declare there is no mistake about their being wolves. Now, where are our Nimods!

PAINFUL ACCIDENT.—Tuesday afternoon while Mr. Jas. Orr, M.P.P., was was walking down Alexander street, near the railroad crossing, the toe of his boot caught against a long sliver in a plank on the sidewalk, which had the effect of throwing him suddenly forward and severely spraining the left knee. Had it not been for the timely assistance of a gentleman walking with Mr. Orr at the time the accident would have been much worse and probably of a serious nature. It is likely Mr. Orr will be confined to the house for several days.—Vancouver News.

SUICIDE AT GOLDEN CITY.—Sergt.-Major Lake, of D. Division, N. W. mounted police, while in camp at Golden City, suicided on Friday last by shooting himself. He complained of a severe attack of neuralgia. At night he retired as usual. Early in the morning one of his comrades heard a pistol shot. He got up and looked into the sergeant's tent, but saw him apparently asleep. It was not learned what had happened until about 6 o'clock in the morning. When he did not come out to join the force some of the men went to his tent and found him dead. The bullet passed through the front of the head, entered the right temple and came out at the left. He was buried at Golden City on Sunday.

THE FRASER MOUTH.—We are informed that the buoys at the entrance to the Fraser River, both north and south arms, are very badly out of place, and that great inconvenience is experienced by navigators in consequence. The channel at the south arm has slipped considerably outside of No. 7 buoy, and between the first two buoys there is only about 8 feet of water at low tide. On the sand heads there are two rows of buoys and between these the channel is supposed to be; but it is found necessary now to enter about 100 yards north of No. 1 buoy, and to keep to the north of Nos. 2 and 3 as well. After passing No. 3 there is water enough between the two rows of buoys, but No. 5 is 100 yds. too far north, and No. 6 is too far north by 250 yds. Vessels coming in find it necessary to take soundings and feel their way as best they can. There seems to be no lack of water, as there is a depth of at least 15 feet at half tide in the shallowest place, and if the real channel were properly surveyed probably even a greater depth would be found. The buoys at the outer entrance are not sufficiently conspicuous. At the north arm three of the most important beacons were carried away last winter, and have never been replaced. There are also several dangerous snags in the river. These matters ought to be promptly attended to by the proper authorities. We understand that the board of trade has been put in possession of the facts, and will make such representations to the minister at Ottawa as may produce the desired result.

Ill-fitting boots and shoes cause corns. Holloway's Corn Cure is the article to use. Get a bottle at once and cure your corns.

Personal.

R. S. Cawston, of Similkameen, is in the city.

A. E. Hill, of Vancouver, is in the city to-day.

Rev. Patterson and wife of Chilliwhack are in the city.

J. R. Forsyth, of Chilliwhack, and his three daughters, came down on the Irving.

Geo. Howison, of Maple Ridge, is visiting his father, W. J. Howison, in this city.

Rev. C. Bryant and Mrs. Bryant left on the train to-day for England, where they expect to remain about a year.

Passengers per str. Irving to-day: R. L. Cawston, Williams, Rev. Mr. Patterson and wife, G. Forsyth, J. R. Forsyth and 3 daughters, A. McDonald, B. McNeil, Rev. Father Chirouse, R. Drummer, J. Ibbotson.

Lieutenant-Governor Aikens, Mrs. Aikens, Miss Somerset, and Mr. L. Clarke, who arrived in the city yesterday, left by train this afternoon for Winnipeg. His honor expressed himself well pleased with his trip.

W. J. Harris, H. Dawson, D. C. Webber, A. Docksteader, Jno. Trembath, and S. Edge arrived from Maple Ridge yesterday as a deputation to interview Deputy Minister Burgess who was expected here. The minister left for Ottawa on Saturday, however, and the errand of the deputation was fruitless.

If your children are troubled with worms, give them Mother Graves' Worm Exterminator; safe, sure, and effectual. Try it, and mark the improvement in your child.

Surrey Council.

Council met pursuant to adjournment. Members present, the reeve, Couns. Punch, Stewart, Dafoe and Watson. Several communications were received and filed, and action was deferred on several until next meeting. Couns. Punch, Stewart and Dafoe reported their action in awarding contracts in wards 2, 3, and 4, as instructed at last meeting. On motion the reports were received and ordered filed. The time for which tenders will be received for proposed improvements and repairs on the Hall's Prairie road is extended until next meeting. The clerk to forward the following resolution: That this council most emphatically protests against the establishment of an Indian reserve at the mouth of Campbell River, in ward 5, believing such reserve will be inimical to the interests of the settlers located in the southern portion of the corporation. Mr. W. C. McDougall addressed the council relative to the construction of a flour, oatmeal and sawmill at Elgin, and the desirability of the council granting a bonus toward such mill. On motion, Couns. Punch, Stewart and Cann were appointed a committee to draft a scheme for the proposed mill and for opening and developing the road system of the corporation, and that a public meeting be held at 1 o'clock sharp on Saturday, July 23rd, to consider said scheme. Council adjourned until Saturday, July 23rd, at 2 o'clock, p.m.

Dont's Worth Remembering.

Don't say "You're a liar," unless you are talking to a sick woman or a cripple.

Don't say "I'll see your bet and go you ten better," unless you dealt the hand yourself.

Don't say "I will kick your lung in," because not being an acrobat you are likely to fail.

Don't begin a story, "I heard a good story the other day," unless you have a strong grip on your victim's coat collar.

Don't say "I've sworn off and never will take another drink," unless you are talking to a man that doesn't know you.

Don't insist upon paying a man more than he says is due him. He may object to lending money to an idiot next time.

F. Burrows, of Wilkesport, writes that he was cured of a very dangerous case of inflammation of the lungs, solely by the use of five bottles of Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil. Feels great pleasure in recommending it to the public, as he had proved it (for many of the diseases it mentions to cure) through his friends, and in nearly every instance it was effectual. Do not be deceived by any imitations of Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil. Be sure you get the genuine.

A woman tramp was discovered on a train Laramie, Wyo., after an all night rain. She was soaking wet, having sat on one of the pieces of wood above the coupler. She looked to be about 30 years of age and respectable. Her destination was Washington Territory, and she said that was the way she intended to get there, as she had no money. A stock man on hearing of condition paid her way.

RESTLESSNESS, MORBID ANXIETY, and a fretful disposition, are usually met with in the dyspeptic. These mental indicia show how close is the connection between brain and stomach. Their most prolific cause, dyspepsia, is a complaint for which Northrop & Lyman's Vegetable Discovery and Blood Purifier is used with unvarying success. It also remedies Biliousness, Constipation, and Impurity of the Blood.

ESTABLISHED 1875.

The West Shore

FREE

For the balance of 1886, including the mammoth holiday number, to all who subscribe now for 1887.

With the January issue THE WEST SHORE will begin its twelfth year. Every number contains original illustrations of scenery, towns and industries in the Pacific Northwest, equaling in excellence the best productions of Eastern magazines. The contributed articles, general literature and stories are entertaining and carefully edited, making the magazine a chaste family visitor. The comments on events of interest to this region and the large amount of information concerning our various resources and the progress of development given in every number render it extremely valuable. No family can afford to do without it, and every one financially interested in the Pacific Northwest or desirous of learning its resources will find it invaluable.

If the subscription price ($2 per year) is sent in now you will be entered for 1887, and the remainder of 1886 will be sent as a premium.

"I take only one English weekly paper, The Spectator, and one Canadian, The Week, and as a rule I should be puzzled to say which I should miss most."—From a letter by Thomas Hughes, author of "Tom Brown's School Days."

The Week:

A Canadian Journal of Politics, Society and Literature.

PUBLISHED EVERY THURSDAY, AT $3.00 PER ANNUM.

Independent in politics, THE WEEK appeals by a comprehensive Table of Contents to the different tastes which exist within the circle of a cultured home.

An average of fifteen short, crisp Editorials is given in each number upon CANADIAN, AMERICAN, and ENGLISH POLITICS and LITERATURE.

Amongst the regular contributors is Professor Goldwin Smith; and a distinguished public man in London has kindly undertaken to supply regularly an English Letter. Paris and Washington Letters will appear at regular intervals.

In addition there are special contributions from some of the ablest writers in the Dominion and the United States.

THE WEEK

has now entered upon its third year with most encouraging prospects, and with many new features.
