Public Notice
New Westminster Public Library.

THE UNDERSIGNED (THANKS TO the kindness and permission of the Mayor and City Council) two weeks ago re-opened the Public Library, and takes this opportunity to offer an invitation to residents of New Westminster to pay him a visit. Papers and Magazines from all directions are received for patrons and visitors, and more will be added in case a reasonable support is obtained. The terms are 50 cents a month, in advance, as papers, &c., are paid for in advance. This will amount to about 2 cents a day, or the cost of one cigar for seven days permission to see news from all over the world, and elegant books which may be changed every 24 hours! There is no compulsion about this, but those who believe in getting in out of the rain and who can enjoy a decent fire will doubtless appreciate this institution. Ladies and strangers are free, so doubtless all the parties who believe in Blue Ribbon will come forward at once and join this attractive school, both for their own credit and that of others. Come one, come all, and you will be attended to by one who can soap all classes, viz.:

Yours Respectfully,

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS THIS DAY.

For Sale.....Brunette Sawmills
Appointments.....Prov. Sec.

Daily British Columbian

Saturday Evening, January 8, 1887.

It is proposed to send the Queen's Own regiment from Toronto to London next summer to take part in celebrating the queen's jubilee. The regiment is willing to pay all the expenses of its trip, and it is contended that its presence in London would attract universal attention and impress foreign representatives with a proper idea of the military importance of Canada as a part of the British Empire. The Queen's Own is one of the finest, if not the finest, of the Canadian regiments, and it could go to the world's metropolis as a worthy representative of Canada's soldiers. The idea is an excellent one.

Yesterday we pointed out some of the advantages that would accrue to this city and district if the navigation of the sandheads was improved so as to admit vessels of heavy tonnage. There is another matter connected with our trade which ought not to escape attention, and that is the establishment of wholesale houses in this city. The bulk of our goods come over the C. P. R., and they will continue to come by that route at least until the opening of the Nicaragua canal. There is no city more favorably situated than this, therefore, for doing a wholesale business, because eastern goods are laid down at our doors without transhipment. It is well known that wholesale merchants can buy at lower figures than retail dealers, and by importing in large quantities they are enabled to get the lowest possible freight rates. A few first-class wholesale houses would not only be a great accommodation to retail merchants on the mainland, but they would be a very profitable investment for their owners.

As evidence of the great change that is taking place in Ontario on the question of temperance and other moral reforms, it is worth while to remark that all the daily newspapers of Toronto except one are supporting Mr. Howland as candidate for mayor of the city. Mr. Howland is the avowed representative of temperance people and the party of moral reform, and his opponent, Mr. Blain, is receiving the vote which is usually found opposing the moral element. The Toronto Telegram, which will never be charged with "rushing a reform," heartily supports Mr. Howland, and says: "It is no reflection on Mr. Blain to say that Mr. Howland represents the better elements in the community. The liquor interest is all on Mr. Blain's side, and the liquor interest is too big a load for any man to carry in the race for public preferment. Time was when the support of the liquor interest was a help rather than a hindrance, but that was when the control of civic affairs was in the hands of a different class of citizens from those who are to the front to-day."

Cash vs. Credit.

We have already referred in these columns to the injustice and evil results of the practice of giving long credits, and we think it would be in the interest of all parties if merchants would meet together and come to some understanding with a view to reducing the evils of the system. It often happens that men entering upon a new undertaking must have credit, because they have not sufficient capital to carry them through until returns begin to come in from their venture. The refusal of credit would undoubtedly in some cases, therefore, produce embarrassment and absolutely prevent the undertaking of certain enterprises. But the evils of the system are so numerous and positive that the adoption of cash as the basis of all mercantile transactions would unquestionably prove a general public benefit. There are many merchants who know of cases where customers have run up big accounts and then gone with cash to rival houses when closely pressed for a settlement! In a credit business the merchant is obliged to take a percentage of profit sufficiently large to cover the interest he pays. He must also have enough to recoup him him for bad debts, which no credit business can avoid. He finds it necessary, also, to pay a large salary to book-keepers and collectors, and he is not able to avail himself of the large discounts which are allowed to merchants who buy their goods for cash. All these unnecessary costs come out of the customer, who has to pay from 10 to 20 per cent. more than he would pay under a cash system. If a dishonest customer fails to pay, the honest customers must make up the loss; and in a great many shops the customer who pays cash has to pay a proportion of all the expenses to which the establishment is put in connection with both its credit customers and its customers who fail to pay at all. If the costs of a credit business were compared with those of a business conducted on the cash principle, we believe the difference would amount to from 10 to 20 per cent., and the adoption of the cash system would enable the customer to receive the benefit of this large percentage.

NOTICE to CONTRACTORS

SEALED TENDERS, ADDRESSED TO the Dominion Government Agent, and endorsed "Tender for Laundry and Bake House, Penitentiary, New Westminster, B. C.," will be received at this office until noon of MONDAY, the 17th instant, inclusively, for the erection and completion of a Laundry and Bake House at British Columbia Penitentiary.

Plans and specifications can be seen at this office and at the Post Office, New Westminster, on and after the 5th instant.

Each tender must be accompanied by an accepted bank cheque made payable to the order of the Dominion Government Agent, equal to five per cent. of the amount of the tender, which will be forfeited if the party declines to enter into a contract when called upon to do so, or if he fail to complete the work contracted for.

The department will not be bound to accept the lowest or any tender.

E. M. BOVILL,

Dominion Government Agent's Office,
Victoria, B. C., 4th January, 1887.
dja5t4

To the Electors of the District of New Westminster.

GENTLEMEN,—In offering myself to the District of Westminster to represent you in the Commons this coming opening of the House, I do so in all sincerity, believing that I can do more for your interests than any of the gentlemen that have come forward so far. I am a thorough Conservative and in entire sympathy with the present government, who have proved themselves the friend in need and in deed to British Columbia.

Gentlemen, I have my private feelings and opinions on most of the questions of the day, but if I go to the House by your sanction to represent you, I shall submit to your commands and directions which you can send me as the different questions of the day present themselves and as circumstances, interests and opinions change on the spot, to be represented; for I hold that in going to parliament by your vote and pleasure, I go as your trusted agent and not as your lord and master, as some have thought and acted accordingly when out of your reach.

Temperance, gentlemen, is one of the questions that trouble the district at the present time. Now, gentlemen, when the right time arrives for us to receive prohibition none will be found to work for that measure with more sincerity or energy than I, and no government on earth will be more happy to grant that measure than they; but the time has not arrived yet, I am sorry to say, and I say further, that the time for prohibition entirely rests with the temperance people themselves, for as soon as they prove their sincerity in the cause by petitioning parliament to put a tax on tea, coffee and other articles, and on income if necessary, thereby providing revenue to carry on the government, then and then only can they succeed in their cause, then and then only can the government comply with their wishes. Money is the root of all evil, so parsons tell us, and money is the mighty lever that is going to lift you into that haven of temperance you all so desire and dream of.

Gentlemen, I fully realize the importance of your selecting a good and proper man to represent you at Ottawa, and I also fully realize the fact that I am so great distance am working to a great disadvantage; but, gentlemen, I trust to your intelligence and to the friendship of my old friends, and feel satisfied you will do justice to yourselves who are to be benefitted or injured by your selection.

In conclusion, gentlemen, I undertake to serve you sincerely and faithfully in all things if sent to the Commons to represent you there, and if you do not I can stop at home, help you when I can, and sincerely wish you may be as well served as I would like to serve you myself.

Gentlemen, you can give me my answer at the polls, and whether I go or stay I shall always remain
Yours truly and sincerely, de24-d1ew-wtc JAMES CODVILLE.

WEEK OF PRAYER.—At the last of the union meetings, held in the Presbyterian church last night, there was a good attendance, and earnest addresses were delivered by Rev. Robt Lennie and Mr. Wm. Turpin. The meetings have been the most successful union services ever held in this city, and the interest taken in them seems to have been increasing from the first.

A COLD WAVE.—A cold wave seems to be sweeping over the interior, as shown by despatches received this afternoon. Bridge Creek reports weather clear and thermometer 20 below zero; Quesnelle, clear and 12 below; Clinton, bright and 10 below; Ashcroft, clear and very cold. Here the temperature has been moderate to-day, but there are signs of coming change.

CHILLIWHACK FAIR GROUNDS.—These grounds are to be much enlarged by the addition of a large plot of land bought by the Chilliwhack Agricultural Society from Mr. I. Kipp. Towards the needed improvements a concert was to take place on the 6th inst. in Henderson's Hall. The people of Chilliwhack seem to have determined to make all necessary preparations for the next provincial show.

THE EXTENSION MATTER.—We understand that it is not yet decided by the Port Moody property owners whether their cases will be appealed to the full court of the province or to the supreme court of Canada. It is the intention ultimately to carry them to the Privy Council of Great Britain, but it will first be necessary, or at least politic, to use all the machinery of the courts of Canada. Mr. Edmonds, who is the leader in the fight against the railway company, was interviewed to-day regarding the matter, but declined to say much about it, or whether in his opinion the injunctions will be extended pending the settlement of the appeal.

GLADSTONE ON TENNYSON.—Mr. Gladstone, in his article in the Nineteenth Century on "Locksley Hall and the Jubilee," after praising the Laureate's verse, deals with the teaching of the poem. Mr. Gladstone admits that no greater calamity could happen to a people than that of breaking utterly from its past. This applies, however, he says, more to the aggregate than the immediate past. In the first three decades of this century England won great military glory, but her industry was brought to the lowest point of degradation. With the history of these three decades, he says, the history of the last fifty years contrasts favorably. He expresses the hope that his article will show that England is still young, though old, and in her latest days has not been unworthy of herself. Justice, he adds, forbids that the jubilee of the Queen should be marred by tragic tones.

A CELESTIAL GIN-MILL.—On entering the police court this morning the reporter discovered the magistrate almost hidden behind an array of bottles and demijohns, with a glass standing in a suggestive position to one side. It was supposed at first that some of the friends of the bench of licensing magistrates had been showing their good will by making a present, or that the magistrates were only now having their New Year. It transpired, however, that one Hung Jon, a celestial sojourner in this land of promise, had been hauled up for operating a gin-mill without a license, and that the bottles and demijohns and glass were there that the court might satisfy itself that it was the real old tangle-leg that was being sold. The test proved quite sufficient to convict the prisoner. One of their honors, taking from his pocket a cork-screw, with that ease and dignity of a man who knows what he is about, pulled the cork from one of the bottles. Anyone who has smelled Chinese whisky at short range will understand what was the result. The smell, pungent and aggressive, which arose almost knocked the court down, and their honors felt it necessary to at once adjourn the court and seek a homeopathic cure. The case would have been adjourned anyhow. As it is it comes up on Tuesday next, when Hung John will probably be fined and sentenced to drink his own whisky.

ANOTHER PACIFIC MAIL SERVICE.—An interesting item in the mail news yesterday was the announcement that the Canadian Pacific Railway Company is pushing on the building, on the Clyde of six new steamers, to establish a line of mail communication between British Columbia, Australia, China and Japan. This will be a formidable rival to the San Francisco service so far as Australia is concerned, but we doubt whether New Zealand will much benefit from the service. If, as is probable, the Sandwich Islands form a stage of the journey, we fear no New Zealand port will be visited. The new steamers are more likely to call at Fiji, and go thence direct to Melbourne. It will be a matter of regret if we are left out of the direct service of this new line of communication, but we fear the colony is not able to subsidize the service in order to induce the steamers to call at our ports. No doubt the Canadian line would, for many reasons, be of more benefit to New Zealand than the present line via San Francisco. The overland route would be entirely through British territory, and in speed it will compete with, if not surpass, the Californian service, but the colony cannot afford to subsidize two Pacific mail services, and we fear that the influences in favor of continuing to subsidize the existing service are too strong to allow of the subsidy being diverted. It would be well, however, for politicians and commercial men to take the subject into consideration, with a view to seeing if by any means this colony can be admitted to a participation in the benefits likely the accrue from the establishment of the Canadian-Australian mail service.—Wellington, New Zealand, Post.

P. M. Markell, West Jeddore, N. S., writes: I wish to inform you of the wonderful unalities of Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil. I had a horse so lame that he could scarcely walk; the trouble was in the knee; and two or three applications completely cured him."

Chilliwhack New Year's Dinner.

(Correspondence of the Columbian.)

This annual festival of the Chilliwhack and Sumas Methodist circuit was held last Saturday, being New Year's day, at Henderson's Hall, Centreville, where an unusually large gathering of settlers from all parts of the neighborhood assembled at noon, and spent the afternoon very happily, returning to their homes at dusk. The tables for dinner were spread in the upper hall and so numerous were the guests that the tables were twice filled to do justice to the sumptuous repast provided by the Chilliwhack and Sumas ladies. Afterwards the company met in the large hall upon the ground floor and under the direction of the pastor, Rev. C. Bryant, were treated to a rich and varied programme of musical and literary pieces which were skillfully rendered, as follows:—Opening chorus, by the choir; address, by the chairman; solo, Miss McCutcheon; instrumental solo, Master Geo. Ashwell; reading, the chairman; solo, Mr. Isaac Henderson; solo, Miss Evans; instrumental duet on violin and piano, Mr. G. W. Chadsey and Miss Gussie Chadsey; duet, Mrs. C. Chadsey and Miss Clara Chadsey; instrumental duet, Mrs. and Miss McGillivray; solo "Ring the Bell Watchman," Miss Henderson; recitation, Mr. J. Maynard; solo, Miss Branchflower; solo, Mrs. C. Chadsey; dialogue, Mr. Jos. Gillanders and Mr. J. Maynard; solo, Mr. Chas. H. Evans; instrumental duet, Mr. G. W. and Miss G. Chadsey. Piano accompaniments were ably rendered by various lady performers. The interest of the entertainment was well sustained to the close, when, after a vote of thanks to the ladies the dinner, to the committee of management, and to all who assisted in the programme, the chairman announced the net results to the circuit funds as having reached the handsome figure of $105.

A Crooked Arrangement.

EDITOR COLUMBIAN.—The Dominion government have called for tenders for the erection of a laundry and bake house at the penitentiary, but have made private arrangements with the Royal City Planing Mills for supplying the contractor with lumber, shingles, doors, and windows. In this province this is a most unusual course to pursue in the letting of government contracts, and as it is unjustifiable as it is unusual, it demands some explanation. There is certainly, Mr. Editor, something very suggestive of crookedness about the transaction.

This Afternoon's Despatches.

Press Despatches.

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 8.—Near midnight last night a crowd of car strikers left their meeting hal and walked up Mason street. About fifteen minutes later a car of the Sutter street line was coming down hill and as it crossed Mason street the strikers sallied forth with sticks and stones and attacked the conductor, gripman and passengers on the dummy. One of the passengers was dealt a heavy blow on the head with an iron bar cutting a deep gash in the scalp which bled profusely. Simultaneously the conductor on the rear platform was on the head with a club and on the knee with a rock. The gripman was also struck and severely bruised. The attack was so quickly done that no arrests could be made.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Jan. 8.—At the sultan's request Sir Wm. White, British ambassador to the porte, recently had two hours' private audience with his majesty. The sultan expressed his gratification at the appointment of Sir William as ambassador, and entrusted him with a cordial New Year's message to the queen.

NEW HAVEN, Jan. 8.—In the Wallace-Opdyke conspiracy case to-day the judge in his decision said he was clearly of opinion that a conspiracy designed to hinder any man from putting his labor on the market when, where and for such compensation as he may agree for, is equally criminal with any conspiracy designed to hinder the sale of the merchandise of any producer or dealer, and is more disastrous in effect than any other form of conspiracy except to take life. To convict of such conspiracy circumstantial evidence is competent and may be conclusive. It is sufficient as showing that the parties had a mutual understanding and common design. The court is satisfied that Wallace and Opdyke had a mutual understanding that a man not approved by one should not be employed by the other. This was to all intents and purposes a boycott upon individuals. The defendants were fined $50 each.

UNVEILING A SIOUX IDOL.—A rock, which the Sioux Indians near Fort Yates, D.T., have worshipped for generations as the petrified form of a young squaw, was formally unveiled the other day and dedicated to peace and plenty. It appears that the white settlers in the vicinity have long supposed that this specimen of Nature's art work exerted a restraining influence on the Indians, but of late the rock has been removed from its original resting-place, and it was feared that with its removal its charm had disappeared. So the suggestion was made to Sitting Bull that the statue be placed upon a permanent pedestal and unveiled with appropriate ceremonies. This pleased the chieftain, and 5,000 Indians assembled to take part in the strange medley of Christian and Pagan rites by which the unveiling was accompanied.

The Confederation Life.

The annual report of this solidly prosperous Canadian institution will be found in another column. The facts revealed in the accounts and the Directors' report thoroughly justify the ecomiums which the shareholders present bestowed upon the management. Thanks to the resolute manner in which the Company has declined to embark upon extravagant methods of procuring business, the working expenses of the company bear to the total income the very small ratio of between 17 and 18 per cent. A point attesting the soundness of the finances of the Company is the fact that the interest income is sufficient to pay the death claims—which in a company of the age of the Confederation Life is something to be proud of. The ass ts and liabilities are set forth in minute detail, and the tables show that, after making allowance for all possible contingencies and providing for every debt, there is a surplus of $282,199 over liabilities and capital combined. The increase in the assets in the last year was $260,390. So much for what can be done by rigid adherence to what the President defined as the true policy of the Company, viz:—"To keep its balance sheet right and avoid unnecessary, unwise, or extravagant expenditure for the sake merely of increasing new business."—Toronto Globe. T. CLEVELAND, Ohio, Jan. 7.—An inquest into the cause of the Baltimore & Ohio wreck at Republic, Ohio, was begun at 2 o'clock this afternoon at Tiffin. A special to the Leader says that the city hall where the inquest is being held was crowded. The first witness examined was L. Fletcher, conductor of the freight train. He said "Ed. Fletcher was engineer of the freight and W. J. Cullison fireman. We ran from Tiffin to Seneca siding, about three and one-half miles, and side-tracked for the eastern express. After this train passed we had 45 minutes in which to make Republic siding. We left this place with one hundred and forty pounds of steam but after getting two miles I noticed that the train was slacking. I went forward over the cars, 18 in number to the engine to see what was wrong. I found that the steam had run down to 40 pounds. I opened the door of the furnace and looked at the fire and then looked at my watch and saw that we had but 4 minutes until the No. 6 west bound express was due. I took a red flag and white lamps and ran ahead to flag her. I got about one hundred yards in the curve and signalled to stop. As the express approached I noticed that the engineer had reversed the engine. In the meantime the freight had come to a stand and the engineer had shut off the steam and jumped off, when the collision occurred. The engineer had been drinking. I saw him take two drinks of whiskey at Bloomdale and at Fostoria. When I saw we had but 4 minutes to make the siding at Republic the engineer did not seem to realize the danger ahead.

MADRAS, Jan. 7.—It is officially stated that 405 persons were burned to death in the incendiary fire which destroyed the reserve enclosures in People's park last night.

TUNIS, Jan. 7.—The village of Djemel was severely shaken by earthquake to-day. A number of houses fell and seven persons were killed and many hurt.

BERNE, Jan. 7.—Numerous avalanches occurred in the Cantons Luchre, Schytz and Uri. Several villages have been completely cut off from communication with the outer world. A number of houses were destroyed and many cattle were killed.

POKEEPSIE, N. Y., Jan. 7.—The burial of Bishop Potter took place at the cemetery at 3 p.m. The grave was lined with evergreens. The services were very simple.

BALTIMORE, Jan. 7.—Rev. J. J. Glossbrenner, Bishop of Meritus, of the United Brethren Church died this a.m. at Churchville, Va., aged 74 years. He was one of the best known clergymen of his denomination in the country. He was elected bishop in 1845 and was made Bishop of Meritus 2 years ago.

ST. PETERSBURG, Jan. 1.—The government has suppressed Russkoi Delio for publishing an article violently attacking Germany.

ROME, Jan. 7.—The pope will present $100,000 to the congregation of De Propaganda Fide on the occasion of the coming jubilee.

OTTAWA, Jan. 7.—It is stated that a very pressing invitation has been sent from Rideau Hall to the President and Mrs. Cleveland and members of the United States cabinet to become guests of the governor-general at Montreal during the carnival.

PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 7.—This afternoon a policeman forced an entrance to the rear of a frame dwelling, 1025 Locust st., and discovered the dead bodies of two old misers, Joseph Perry aged 75 years, and Robt. Price aged 65 years. Perry's wealth was variously estimated at from $100,000 to $250,000. Both men were terribly emaciated and had every appearance of having been starved to death.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Jan. 7. — The Courier-Journal of Morgantown, Butler county, Ky., gives revolting details of the suicide of S. M. Sterritt. Sterritt was a man 40 years of age and had just married. His mother and sister objected to the match and refused to allow him to bring his bride to their house. He told them if he could not live there he would not live anywhere. He went to his room and secured a razor but was prevented from using it upon himself by his brother. He then left, vowing he would carry out his purpose. Friends who had learned his state of mind followed him on horseback and coming up with him at a point in sight of the house where he had left his bride of 24 hours, Sterritt called out for them not to approach him and, before his pursuers could prevent him, seized his chin whiskers at the same time raising his neck and slashing it across several times with the razor. Sterritt then walked about 200 yards and dropped dead.

NEW ORLEANS, Jan. 7.—A special from Shreveport says: Jim Jones, colored was hanged at Bellevue to-day for the murder of Emma Edwards, his paramour, whom he sh t in a fit of jealous rage in Nov. 1884. Jones was calm and self-possessed on the gallows. He admitted firing the shot. His neck was not broken, death ensuing from strangulation.

NEW YORK, Jan. 7.—An Ottawa special says several important cases of smuggling are being settled by the collector of customs. They involve several New York and Chicago houses. They are cases where fraudulent invoices have been passed through the custom house. So general has this practice become that the government, it is understood, will publish a black list of Dominion dealers who have supplied these fraudulent invoices.

An epidemic of small-pox is feared in Brooklyn. The first cases occurred a month or more ago in a densely populated section of the city, where there are 100,000 people in houses badly built on land which has been reclaimed from a swamp. It is openly charged that the board of health has been derelict in the matter; that it has suffered a number of cases of small-pox to pass unnoticed. A vigorous course of vaccination is now being applied.

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 7.—The steamer Peking arrived this evening with Hong Kong dates to Dec. 14th, Yokohama dates to the 22nd.

Tsung Li Yamen, of China, has agreed to pay $25,000 to American missionaries who suffered losses during the recent riots at Chung Ling. The settlement is effected through the efforts of Minister Derby.

Thos. Stevens, the celebrated bicyclist who left the city on a bicycle tour around the world April 18th, 1884, arrived to-day from Japan on the steamer City of Peking. He will be tendered a reception and banquet by the bicycle club of this city.

By the City of Peking it is learned that Capt. Drake, of the British steamer Normanton, which was wrecked off the Japanese coast near Kobe, entailing the loss of 26 Japanese passengers, has been found guilty of manslaughter in abandoning the vessel while the passengers were still aboard, and sentenced to three months imprisonment.

Hong Kong mail by City of Peking says the troubles on the frontier of Tonquin and China have assumed most serious proportions. News has been brought from Hakhai to Hong Kong by the German steamer Signal that large bodies of Chinese pirates attacked a French garrison at Hakhoi on the 24th November, and after a three days' siege completely annihilated it. They attacked Mong Kai, with a similar result. The latter is a town ten miles from the coast, on the border line of China and Tonquin. No particulars of the massacre which occurred at Mong Kai were given. Hakoi is about 30 miles south of Mong Kai, on the coast. The French had a small fortification there, with a garrison of 60 men, under command of Lieut. McMahon, nephew of Marshal McMahon. After three days' siege only 23 of the garrison remained alive. These made a sortie, but not one survived. The latest information states that Hakoi and Mong Kai are in flames. It is believed that the same forces which captured the boundary commissioners perpetrated these massacres.

A preliminary examination this evening of U. S. Moak, charged with complicity in the murder of W. Dolan, the hackman, resulted in the discharge of the prisoner from custody.

LONDON, Jan. 7.—Prince Alexander of Battenburg authorizes the announcement that he is about to make a prolonged tour of Egypt and the east, in order to put an end to the rumors that he intends to return to Bulgaria.

The duke of Bedford has remitted the whole amount of the rents of tenants on his Bedfordshire estate for the current half-year.

It is reported Sir Henry Holland has been appointed secretary of the colonies. A cabinet council convened for to-morrow has been further postponed. Lord Salisbury informed the queen that he hopes the cabinet will be completed by Tuesday. The Privy Council has been called to meet at Osborne on Wednesday, when the new minister will kiss the queen's hand. Sir Wm. Vernon Harcourt, Sir Trevylian Morley, and Chamberlain open a reunion conference at the house of Baron Herschill on Thursday. Baron Herschill presides. Gladstone and Chamberlain are exchanging friendly letters on the subject.

One thousand tin-plate workers who have been on strike have arranged terms with the masters and will resume work on Monday.

The Bulgarian delegates have expressed willingness to accept the duke of Luchtenberg, the latest candidate proposed for the Bulgarian throne, who it is rumored is favored by Russia.

The vatican has made an arrangement with Prince Monaco by which in the event of an outbreak of war, involving Italy, the pope with his ministers and prefects of congregations will remove their residence to the principal city of Monaco and there transact all business until peace shall have been restored. Some kind of European agreement has been obtained guaranteeing the independence of the holy see in its dealings with the Catholic world. A special clause of the convention with the prince pledges the abolition of gaming tables. It is expected that adequate compensation for the loss of revenue thus involved will be afforded by the crowds of visitors or by indemnity to the prince.

The marriage-license clerk in St. Louis says: "I issue marriage licenses to people who have been divorced almost daily. A moment ago I issued a license to a couple who had just been divorced. They had got rid of their former partners and arranged to marry each other at the same time I always ask applicants for licenses whether they have been married before, and elicit from them whether they are widows or widowers. 'I have been married and divorced' is a response I receive about as often as any other. These people do not appear to consider a divorce any more discreditable than to be a widow or a widower. It looks as if divorces were really fashionable." Poor old Missouri.

WHAT PHYSICIANS SAY ABOUT THE

STARR KIDNEY PAD.

"Treatment by Absorption has for some time been recognized by Medical Men to be the most simple and effectual means of conveying to Diseased Organs, "Curatives," but in cases of Kidney Disease and Complaints attendant thereon, successful treatment was practically impossible until the introduction of the Starr Kidney Pad. It costs less than a single prescription and is immeasurably more decisive and effective than any quantity of internal Medicinal dosing. Worn immediately over the seat of Disease, its curative properties become absorbed by the diseased and enfeebled Organs, continuously and directly, as required to insure in return their healthy action and original vigour. It is comfortable to the patient and pleasant in its effects, and cures when nothing else can. The Starr Kidney Pad accomplishes positive, decisive results. A more valuable discovery as a true remedy for Kidney Diseases was never made.—Medical Gazette

The Starr Kidney Pad, manufactured in Toronto, is a permanent sure cure for diseases, disorders and ailments of the Kidneys, Bladder and urinary secretive system, or attendant complaints, causing pain in the small of the back, sides, etc., producing urinary disorders, such as too frequent, scanty, difficult, painful or copious micturition, inability of retention and sedimentary urine, dropsical symptoms, etc., denoting the presence in the system of diseases common to the urinary secretive organs—known as gravel, catarrh of the bladder and passages, Bright's disease, diabetes, dropsy, piles, nervous debility, etc. Send for pamphlet to LANGLEY & CO., Wholesale Agents, Victoria.
