MR. RETALLACK'S ADDRESS.

TO THE ELECTORS OF THE SLOCAN RIDING OF WEST KOOTENAY ELECTORAL DISTRICT.

GENTLEMEN,—At the request of a large proportion of the community representing every section of the Riding, I beg to announce myself as a candidate for your suffrages in the coming elections.

In respectfully soliciting your votes and support I declare myself a supporter and follower of the Hon. J. H. Turner as the Leader of the only Party in this Province with a defined policy and coherent existence.

During my eight years residence in this District I have been a consistent supporter of his party in recognition of their attitude in meeting, and in cases anticipating, the requirements and expansion of this great mining region.

I am in favor of the following reforms:—

1. The abolition of the Tax upon working miners.

2. The abolition of the Mortgage Tax.

3. The distribution of seats in the Legislature in direct proportion to population.

4. I do not approve of the policy of the late Legislative Assembly in using their influence to exclude foreign railroads, such as the proposed railroad to Boundary Creek.

5. I favor certain revisions in the Mineral and Land Acts, particularly of some easy plan by which the holders of claims can advertize out their defaulting co-owners.

6. In filling all government appointments I am in favor of appointing bona fide residents of the district in all cases where such can be found competent to act.

7. I believe that the Provincial Legislature should bring all the aid and influence at its command to the assistance of the lead mining industry, especially in the direction of obtaining stronger recognition from the Federal Government at Ottawa of the importance of this industry and the disadvantages under which it now labors.

If you do me the honor to elect me as your representative I will at all times endeavor to protect and further the interests not only of the prospector but also of all those employed in and around our mines, recognizing that our entire community is dependant upon the mining industry.

I am, Gentlemen,
Your obedient servant,
JOHN L. RETALLACK.

PROVINCIAL SECRETARY'S OFFICE.

HIS HONOUR the Lieutenant-Governor has been pleased to make the following appointments:

30th June, 1898.

ALEXANDER SPROAT, of the Town of New Denver, Esquire, to be a Gold Commissioner at New Denver, a Stipendiary Magistrate within and for the County of Kootenay, and a Deputy Registrar of the County Court of Kootenay, holden at New Denver.

HOW IT WAS WON.

Spaniards Could Not Withstand American Gunnery.

Playa Del Esta, via Kingston, Jamaica, July 4.—The three Spanish cruisers and the two torpedo boat destroyers that were bottled up in Santiago harbor were pounded into helpless hulks by the guns of Sampson's fleet on Sunday, in a vain attempt to escape from the harbor. The vessels were finally beached in a last effort to save the lives of as many of the crews as possible.

Cervera on board the Cistobol Colon, headed his fleet in an attempt to get away at about half-past 9 o'clock in the morning. So little were the Americans expecting the dash that the New York, cruising up the coast to the east, returned only in time to see the finish of the fight, and to fire a shot or two at the torpedo boat destroyers.

The Iowa, the Indiana, the Oregon, the Massachusetts, the Texas, the Brooklyn and the converted yacht Glouster formed in position to give battle as soon as the Colon was sighted rounding the wreck of the Merrimac.

The American vessels did not open fire at once.

They waited until Cevera's ships were out of the range of Morro's guns before giving battle.

Cervera headed to the west, with the Colon in the lead, followed by the Vizcaya, the Oquendo and the torpedo boat destroyers, all firing rapidly.

All the American battleships opened fire at once and the Spanish were soon in a hurricane of shot and shell, but the Colon kept bravely on until within about ten miles westward from Morro castle, Admiral Cervera turned his vessel to shore and beached her.

She was blazing in a score of places, but her guns kept at work and the white flag never showed until she was completely disabled.

The Oquendo and the Vizcaya, which were opposed by the Iowa, the Texas and the Indiana, went down to defeat with fearful swiftness, covering only half the distance made by the Colon before their captains ran them ashore.

Their crews fought with desperate bravery, but ther courage was no match for our men, and their superior gunnery.

The Spanish shells went wide for the most part, but the American gun fire was marked by merceless precision at the two cruisers, the Oquendo and the Vizcaya, both of which were beached not more than a quarter of a mile apart.

The most dramatic feature of the battle was the contest between the torpedo boat destroyers and the Glouster. The latter was struck several times and is the only American vessel reported damaged.

At the first Glouster fired upon them with her six pounders, but they ran past her and engaged the battleships. Finding the fire too hot they turned and attacked the Glouster again until both destroyers were afire and had to be beached while their crews threw themselves into the surf to save their lives.

Just before this the New York came up and assisted in giving the finishing touch to the destroyers.

There was explosion after explosion from the beached vessels.

It was at first reported that Cervera was dead, but this was afterwards denied.

NEW CYLINDER INVENTION.

To be Adopted on Government Railway Engines—Speed of 100 Miles an Hour.

The department of railways and canals of the Dominion government have decided to fit out all locomotives on the government road with the Cleveland cylinder for their engines, a new Canadian invention by which it is claimed that the speed of trains can be increased at a less cost of fuel. There have been extensive trials on the Intercolonial, which have proven satisfactory. Mr. A. M. Peterson, of Port Colborne, late of Brandon, is completeing arrangements with the Intercolonial for its adoption on that system.

Speaking to a representative of the Montreal Star, Mr. Peterson stated that the main features of the device were a double piston, large central exhaust, and the application of the suction of the inductive principle to the nozzle. Each cylinder had two piston heads on one rod, and consequently the cylinder was longer than that ordinarily in use on locomotives. Near the centre of the cylinder a grove was cut in its wall of sufficient area to afford an example exhaust under any conditions. As the piston passed over this point the exhaust assumed the characteristic of an explosion rather than anything else, opening as it did into the chamber between the two pistons, which was in constant communication with the smoke stacks. As the piston passed back on the return of the stroke and covered the main exhaust port. The valve or supplementary exhaust passed out through the nozzle in such a way that the main exhaust operated to create a vacuum in the cylinder. The valve and valve motion of the ordinary engine could be used in the device.

In answer to a question Mr. Peterson remarked that the device was a Canadian invention, the inventors being Messrs. E.W. and W.F. Cleveland, both Canadian citizens. Up to the present Canadian money had developed it, and Canadian manufacturers and the management of the Intercolonial railway had assisted greatly in bringing it up to its present stage.

The advantages claimed for the device over the ordinary cylinder were: The back pressure is overcome, and there is no condensation. If water could accumulate in the cylinder, each stroke of the piston would sweep it into exhaust. The compressor is controllable so that a beautiful indicator card can be produced.

The speed said Mr. Peterson, would be limited only by the condition of the road and the reciprocating parts and the brakes. There was no reason why many of the roads now in operation could not run their trains on the straighter portions of their lines at the rate of 100 miles an hour. The device further enabled the engineer to get his train under speed promptly. The strength developed would be proportionate to the speed and would greatly increase the tractive power of the locomotive. The resulting smoothness of operation, continued the speaker, following the application to the device to an engine on the Intercolonial road had been favorably commented on by the drivers who had used the engine, and who explained it by the absence of opposition in the cylinder. As a consequence, there was far less strain on the reciprocating parts, and the wear and tear on the road bed as well as the cost of repairs would be greatly reduced. A saving in fuel of from 25 to 40 per cent. would be effected, and a like saving would be made in water evaporation.

Mr. Peterson added that the device might be applied to anything intended to develop steam power, such as portable traction, electric, stationary and marine engines and locomotives.

Whitewater.

Since the Whitewater Deep company made their recent purchases in the place it has made rapid advances.

The Whitewater hotel is being overhauled and improved. The company are erecting a large club room and assay office and several residences are under way.

Politics are raging here as elsewhere. Messrs. Buchanan and Retallack addressed a public meeting on Friday, and Messrs Green, Cliffe and Carney one on Saturday with Mr. Fraser in the chair. We are not gifted with the spirit of prophecy but we fairly believe that out of the 70 votes in the place Mr. Retallack will not poll a dozen. This is probably why in the first draft of polling places Whitewater was ignored. It was only through the exertions of Mr. Green that Whitewater was given a polling place

MISSIONARIES IN GENORA.

The Church in the Pioneer Days of the Stickine Route.

The pioneer church of Glenora is the tented house of worship of James Pringle, Presbyterian missionary of the Presbytery of Canada. Rev. Pringle reached Glenora early last month, and has already formed the acquaintance of every man in town. He holds services every Sunday in the tent—when he can't get a crowd to come to the tent he hunts them up and addresses them on the street. He is an old hand at pioneer missionary work— was at Winnipeg from 1882 to 1886, and at Port Arthur from 1886 to 1893.

Bishop Ridley, of New Westminster, held Episcopal services in the Clearihue store in Glenora last Sunday. Rev. Mr. Appleyard and wife are stationed here to represent the Episcopal church.

Father Corqel represents the Catholic church in Glenora, and holds services Sunday morning in the Nugget hotel. He has been here two weeks awaiting companions, and instructions from his church, and will go to Teslin when they come.—Glenora News.

MR. GREEN'S PLATFORM.

M. L. GRIMMETT,

CHAIRMAN OF THE CONVENTION OF INDEPENDENT ELECTORS, AND FELLOW ELECTORS OF THE SLOCAN RIDING OF WEST KOOTENAY:

Having been nominated by a representative convention of the Independent electors of the Slocan Riding of West Kootenay, over which you presided, as a candidate for the representation of the riding in the Legislative Assembly, I beg leave to accept the high honor thus conferred upon me, and to assure you that if elected, as I feel confident that with your active assistance and support I shall be, I proposed to labor earnestly and constantly for the promotion of the material interests of the riding without distinction of locality, and of the Province of British Columbia generally.

In accepting the nomination thus offered me I desire to state briefly the position which I shall assume upon questions affecting district and provincial interests.

I believe that the so-called Turner Government has not dealt fairly with the question of representation. Representation by population is the only fair and equitable manner in which the Legislative Assembly may be constituted. The necessities of an ephemeral government should form no element in acting upon such an important question.

Expenditure upon public works should I believe, except in extreme and important cases, be kept fairly within the provincial revenues, and in most cases necessary works and improvements of local interest should be decided upon and recommend by local advisory boards, and undertaken under the supervision of the provincial engineer and not left to the tender mercies of a gold commissioner other similar officer.

I believe that there should be revision of the methods in which the provincial accounts are kept, and such system adopted as will eliminate all doubtful and worthless assets and such true and plain statement of expenditure and assets be made as will truly and fully indicate to the plain and average citizen the condition of the provincial finances.

I believe that there should be such laws enacted and promulgated as will entirely prevent the competition of cheap oriental labor with that of the white citizen.

I believe that legislation, hitherto prevented by the local government, should be adopted to remove the unjust tax imposed upon the mine laborer, and the industry of the worker in metalliferous mines be placed in the same position as that of any other classes of laborers.

I believe that encouragement should be given for the construction of railways intended to develop the resources of the province, and that the railways bonused by the province should be under provincial control as to time allowed for construction, freight and passenger rates, and such other regulations as will protect and guard the best interests of the public whose funds have contributed to the roads constructed.

I believe that the interests of the province and of each of its constituent parts will be best promoted by an entire divorce of the local goverment from all close corporations and companies which find profit in preying on the provincial resources without making any adequate or even small return for the benefits which they eno.

I believe that the mortgage tax imposed by the Turner government is unjust, inequitable and unfair; a direct imposition upon the infortunate debtor temporarily compelled to place a charge upon his property. I should, therefore, in common with some of the foremost provincial financiers labor for its prompt removal.

I believe that West Kootenay, which contributes so largely to the provincial revenue, should receive a larger sum for the development of the district than has been hitherto allowed by the government, and the provincial revenues should be expended within the province and no devoted to extra provincial schemes as has been pleged by the Turner government.

I believe that no important amendments should be made to the Mineral Act affecting the prospector or mineral claim owner until the great body of miners in every section of the province has been consulted and their views ascertained.

I have the honor to be, gentlemen,
Your obedient servant,
R. F. GREEN.

Campaign Notes.

The Kootenaian prophesies that R. F. Green is a defeated man, as it can already be seen in his bearing. If the Kootenaian would only observe the rousing receptions that has been accorded Mr. Green all over the constituency it could not help but see that Mr. Green must feel anything but depressed in spirits.

The Kootenaian excuses Mr. Retallack's Sunday meeting at Three Forks on the ground that it is the only day miners are free. Are not the miners of Three Forks subject to the same regulations as those of the rest of the Slocan? Was it not the party's convenience, and not the miners', the promoters had in view.

It is hard to imagine what would be the outcome of Mr. Retallack's paradoxical position, should he by any chance be elected. He is professedly a consistent follower of the Turner government, while attempting to stand on the more popular opposition platform. If he should stay by his platform he would be false to his leader and should he be true to his leader he must betray the electorate that would give him their confidence.

Some one with more zeal than discretion posted up on the bulletin board, near the Sandon post office a special of the Kaslo News purporting to be a report of Mr. Carney's speech at the opposition meeting here, but which was so twisted and doctored as to be unrecognizable by the one supposed to have given voice to it, or, indeed, by any one else who attended the meeting. But, like the boomerang in the hands of the small boy, its only effect will be against the party in whose interest the misguided heeler threw the missle. Several on both sides were heard condemning the "dirty work," and, at least, one voter was heard to say, "Well, Mr. Retallack won't get my vote now."

The tactics employed by some of the government press to prove their zeal and, assuredly, their disintered interest, are very amusing. It was this which led the Kootenaian, in reporting the meeting in the Virginia hall, to proclaim it a "rousing government meeting," when every one, not so biased could see that it decidedly turned in favor of Mr. Green from the moment of that gentleman's appearance on the platform. The fact that at the close of the meeting, of the two cheers given one was for Mr. Green the other for the chairman showed which way the wind blew. Strange that this same Kootenaian should call Mr. Green "the school boy," not because of inability to put his views and pledges before the electors—which he certainly did in a claer and convincing manber—but because, perhaps he did not soar into the realms of oratory. From the sorry plight in which the government candidate found himself when attempting to corner Mr. Cotton on the question of the opposition leadership, and the comments of some of the assembly, it would appear the shoe should go on the other foot, if it should be worn at all. As to the comments and attempted criticisms of the fly-sheet up the gulch we will treat them with the notice they deserve, and as we are assured the intelligent electors and public do, silent contempt. When a print, to gain attention, has to resort to personal comments and falsifications it is time to call in a washer-woman.

BROOKLYN GROWING.

Fifty-Three New Buildings Built Since June.

Fifty-three new buildings have been erected since the 15th of June, and many more are in the course of construction. The estimated population at present is about 800. All lines of business are fairly represented, and at least seven business houses are doing business in unfinished buildings. Mr. Parker the townsite owner, has the largest store in the town and is doing the best business. The steamer Lytton makes daily trips from Robson. No Chinamen are allowed to land at Brooklyn.

Sovereign Strike.

June 24 this mine at a depth of 500 feet and in 800 feet on the tunnel struck five inches of 220 oz. lead ore. This is regarded a very rich strike.

WHO WILL GOVERN?

Anything we may say at this late hour can have but little influence upon the elections. We took a stand, as we are convinced, in the interest of the people and the country, and we did the best we could for our candidate, and we await the results of Saturday's polling. We are satisfied the verdict will be in favor of Mr. Green; but if it should be otherwise we must bow to the will of the people, a will that uninfluenced must always be respected. We have during the contest scrupulously avoided every thing of a personal nature, and kept our criticisms carefully to the matter before us—the record of the government. That there were many who differed with us we readily admit, and for those who differed from honest conviction, we entertain the highest respect. That there were pressing influences brought to bear on many to mould the results, such as the expenditure of public money at the eleventh hour, is but too apparent; but for the credit of the country and the fair name of the electorate we hope they will have no effect.

From a careful examination of the records of the government, we are convinced that the revenues of the country have not been expended in the best interests of the people. As there are no party politics in the provincial legislature, which is of itself a fortunate circumstance, it is immaterial to us who leads in the government so long as the business of the country is properly managed. We would just as soon see Mr. Turner as any one else at the head of affairs if things were properly done; but to be properly managed there must be radical reforms. There is a crying necessity for a cessation of expenditures on non-productive investments, diminished grants, and on more careful lines, to public enterprises and wholesale reductions on our ordinary, every day expenditures. We, therefore, hope that no matter who may govern for the next four years, as the result of to-day's (Saturday) polling, the reforms we have indicated will be effectually made. If they are we shall be fully satisfied.

HOPE IT MAY BE SATISFACTORY.

It will be a matter for congratulation to many if the sale of the LeRoi mine to the B. A. company takes place in the end. It is patent to many that the deals of their purchasing agent to the present are, to say the least of some of them, really venturesome; and this country cannot afford to have the results unsatisfactory. The company is one the strongest concerns in the world financially; and its pleasure, therefore, becomes a matter of serious moment to this country. In short it is a matter of the greatest importance to the mining interests of the Kootenay that their interests now secured should give them, at least, reasonable satisfaction. Unsatisfactory results to them means a serious set-back to the Kootenay, while satisfactory returns means the ready flow of English capital this way.

The LeRoi is now a successful enterprise, and in the purchase of that mine the company would have at least one remunerative investment, which would do much to counteract the dissatisfaction with some others of Mr. McIntosh's purchases that must certainly follow.

There is no denying now that the Kootenay offers a most promising field for safe investments, but everything offered cannot possibly be remunerative, and many think the purchases for the B. A. C. have not been made with the greatest care. All, however, hope that enough of them will turn out well to establish the confidence of the company in the country. And so may it be.

THE LAST WORD.

We have from the start given Mr. Green a reasonable and consistent support, simply because in the interest of the country we see the absolute necessity for a change in the methods of the government. With current expenditures as extravagantly made in the future, as they have been in the past, and ordinary expenditures on public works kept up, further borrowing is inevitable, and with borrowing comes interest, which will, as things are going, shortly overtake the revenue. We were unable to gether one word from the premier while here, to show us any sensible changes were to be made. We were, in fact, led to infer that the record of the past is to be continued in the future, and that continuance means inevitable disaster. If the people of this country do not want to see disaster they must return candidates like Mr. Green, who, while they want to see public works, employing labor, diligently continued, want to see fewer slices of the public funds wasted on railways, our public lands conserved and the expenses of government at Victoria reasonably curtailed. Electors of Slocan, you have now an opportunity at hand to cast a ballot for proper government. Will you do it?

Electors!

Do you approve of the policy of the present government? If not then vote for Mr. Green.

Do you approve of the employment of Chinese labor? If not then vote for Mr. Green, who will support the opposition in framing laws to restrict the same.

Do you wish to see extravagance continued and unequal, and altogether unfair, appropriations of public monies made? If not, vote for Mr. Green.

Do you want to have representation by population? Then support the man who will stand by the opposition—if still the opppsition—in securing this measure of reform—Mr. Green.

Do you aprove of the Miners' Tax and the Mortgage Tax? If not then vote for the man who advocates these reforms and who, not being pledged to support the government which upholds these injustices, will be able to fulfil his promises—Mr. Green.

"A word to the wise is sufficient."

Here is what Peter Cooper, who died worth millions, said of a newspaper: "In all the towns where a newspaper is published, every man should advertise in it, if nothing more than a card stating his name and the business he is in. It does not only pay to advertise, but it lets people at a distance know that the town in which you reside is a prosperous community of business men. As the seeds are sown so the seed recompenses. Never pull down your sign while you expect to do business."

CHEATED AT POKER.

A PAGE FROM THE UNWRITTEN HISTORY OF A UNIVERSITY.

Punishment Meted Out to a Dishonest Student by Society and the Faculty—A Young Man Who Kept Step With His Not Brilliant Antecedents.

"Talking about poker," said a middle aged man to a coterie at Chamberlin's, "reminds me of something that occurred about 20 years ago at the University of Virginia. That was about the liveliest epoch in the history of the university since the war, or for that matter of that before it, when the life led by the students is taken into consideration. There was a big crowd of devil may care young men there, most of them with plenty of money, and they made Charlottesville and surrounding Albemarle fairly hum. These kindred spirits formed a society which took the name of 'Eli Bananas.'"

Here the speaker smiled at evidently amusing reminiscences. "There is no telling what the 'Eli Bananas' didn't do. For the quintessence of mischief and devilment they took the laurels. There was nothing downright bad about them, but their antics were awful. Fantastic were the tricks they played and grotesque their jokes. Between freaks the Elis were prone to poker, and it was customary down there for the players to assemble at this or that student's room. That brings me to my story. One coterie of poker players comprised sons of some of the best known and wealthiest men in the south, and into it was introduced a young Virginian who was gifted with many attractive traits apparently, but whose antecedents were not particularly brilliant. I'll call him Dick Lurk, but that wasn't his name.

"Most of the other fellows in the coterie had roommates who were boning up for the final examinations. It was well along in the spring, and Lurk had quarters to himself on East Lawn. Consequently the poker began to be played exclusively in his room. When the evening seemed propitious, the word would be passed around at supper that 'three Kentuck' would be in order, and at 8 o'clock or thereabout the players would assemble at Lurk's. Lurk's luck was stupendous. He won steadily, and as the game was pretty stiff his winnings were substantial. It was noticed after awhile that he always passed out when somebody had a particularly big hand on somebody else's deal, but that he always held a top hand when there were big ones out against each other on his own deal. Then somebody noticed that the seals were always broken on the half dozen new decks of cards provided each night before the game began and that Lurk in dealing always closely scrutinized the cards as he gave them out.

"At last one night the son of a famous Confederate general who now lives in Baltimore became convinced that Lurk was cheating. Picking up the deck that Lurk had just dealt and out of which he had got a hand with four queens against an ace full held by a young Kentuckian the young man said quietly:

"'Some one is cheating at this game, and, Lurk, I think it's you.'

"Now, at the University of Virginia such a declaration, if improved, meant somebody's death to a certainty, and in an instant the party was on its feet.

"'Just wait a minute, gentlemen,' said the accuser quietly. 'I've been watching this man. Let some one examine the backs of these cards with this magnifying glass.'

"The Kentuckian took the glass and closely scanned the geometrical designs on the backs of the cards.

"'By Cæsar!' he ejaculated. 'Every court card is distinctly marked!' Examination by the other players quickly proved the truth of this.

"There was a consultation over what should be done with Lurk, who stood with head hung down, overwhelmed with the proof against him. It was decided that he was not worth calling out, as he was not a gentleman, and the verdict was that he should make restitution of all the money he had won since his participation in the game and suffer ostracism in the university. He was compelled to sit down and write out a check for all the money he had won, the memorandum books of the other players showing the amounts they had lost at various times, and he was kept under surveillance until the Charlottesville bank, in which he kept a heavy account, opened next morning. One of the party rode down to Charlottesville and cashed the check, and then the sentence of ostracism went into effect.

"That fellow had the unheard of effrontery to remain at the university until the finals were completed. He was there six weeks. No student or professor or servant or townsman, no man or woman, white or black, spoke to him or took any notice of him. He attended the final balls, and no one recognized him. He was not quizzed in a lecture room or addressed by a professor. Still he remained until the university closed for the season, but he might as well have been in the middle of the Sahara desert so far as intercourse with people was concerned."—Washington Star.

STOLE A $10,000 OPINION.

The Widow of a Famous General Who Needed Money to Dress Well.

Some years ago, the widow of a famous Union general was intimate with the wife and daughters of a justice of the supreme court and was as familiar with their home as with her own, which was in the immediate neighborhood. She was also intimate with the family of a prominent and popular lobbyist, who was supposed to represent Jay Gould, C. P. Huntington and other men of large interests whenever anything concerned them in congress. All the parties are now dead, except the lady in the case, whom I will call Mrs. Smith. She was a handsome, ambitious and frivolous woman, whose husband committed suicide by drowning himself in his bathtub. She lived a gay life afterward, but managed to keep many of her old friends. Knowing her love of money and the fact that her income did not keep pace with her expenses, the lobbyist told her that he would give her $10,000 if she could get him a copy of the opinion which the justice was expected to deliver in the supreme court on the following Monday, involving the constitutionality of the Thurman Pacific railroad law. He told her that he know the opinion was in manuscript and believed that the judge had it locked up in the desk in his library.

Sunday morning, as soon as she saw the justice and his family start for church, she went across the street, around Thomas circle, rang the bell and told the servant that she wanted to look at a book in the justice's library. As she was accustomed to go about the house almost daily they thought nothing of it, and she was allowed to remain undisturbed in the same room with the decision for nearly two hours. It is supposed that she had a set of false keys, for the justice said that the opinion was locked up in his desk and could not have been reached otherwise. But at any rate the lobbyist is known to have obtained the opinion in advance, and the woman was shortly after able to pay off some pressing obligations. An investigation disclosed the facts I have stated, and it seemed to be the only possible way the opinion could have been obtained. Of course the incident terminated relations between the two families, and when the story got out about town Mrs. Smith found it more comfortable to rent her Washington residence and remove to New York.—Chicago Record.

HANDKERCHIEFS WE USE.

328,500,000 Single Ones Consumed In the Trade Yearly In This Country.

"Very few people outside the trade," said a leading wholesale dealer in handkerchiefs in New York to a reporter recently, "are aware that the consumption of handkerchiefs throughout the United States amounts to about 75,000 dozen daily. This means 27,375,000 dozen yearly, or 328,500,000 single handkerchiefs. To satisfy this enormous demand there are always kept in stock in this city at least 350,000,000 handkerchiefs. It would be extremely difficult to say what such a supply of goods is worth in the aggregate, as handkerchiefs sell at wholesale at anywhere from 30 cents to $40 per dozen, according to quality and finish. But the figures which I have given you are not exaggerated, and they throw a strong light on the gigantic dimensions of an important branch of the dry goods business.

"A comparatively small number of handkerchiefs are manufactured in this country, and those that are made here are mostly of the cotton and inferior silk variety. The finest silk goods are imported principally from Japan, which country sends us annually between 17,000,000 and 18,000,000 'Japanese pongees.' The best cambric article comes from France and Belgium, and linen handkerchiefs come from the north of Ireland and also from St. Gall, Switzerland. Japanese silk handkerchiefs are worth from $3 to $40 per dozen, while the imported cambrics from Brussels sell for from $5 to $7 a dozen, and the cotton product manufactured in Pennsylvania and New Jersey may be had for 30 cents per dozen.

"The capital invested in this business is immense. It may possibly amount to $100,000,000, but owing to the fact that the trade is distributed nothing like accurate figures can be given. There are six or seven firms in the dry goods district which deal exclusively in handkerchiefs. But only two of these houses handle the domestic article extensively. Most of the large American factories are located outside of the city, but New York, as in several other branches of the dry goods business, is the great distributing center for the trade."—Washington Star.

Chimney or Hearth Money.

What you call "chimney money" is the same as the house tax called "hearth money." It was established as a means of making up the deficiency in the revenue granted after the restoration to Charles II. It was repealed by I and II William and Mary, c. 10, but was reimposed in Scotland in September, 1690, at the rate of 1s. 2d. for every hearth. The repeal was one of the first boons conceded by William on his arrival.—"History of Taxation," by Dowell.

Navies of the World.

The Army and Navy Year Book rates the navies of the world as follows: 1, Great Britain; 2, France; 3, Russia; 4, Italy; 5, United States; 6, Germany; 7, Spain; 8, Japan; 9, Austria; 10, Netherlands. Under present naval contracts Japan in 1899 will go to the fifth place, crowding down the United States and Germany one point.

The oldest emblem of royalty in existence is the iron crown of the Lombards. The inner strip of iron, according to tradition, was beaten out of one of the nails used at the crucifixion. Its most distinguished wearers have been Charlemagne, Charles V and Napoleon.

One of a healthy woman's principal charms is her vivacity of carriage—the dainty, springy steps with which she walks. The woman who suffers from weakness and disease of the distinctly feminine organism, who is troubled with backaches, stitches in the sides, dragging down or burning sensations, sick headaches and the multitude of other ills that accompany these disorders, cannot have the dainty, bounding carriage of a healthy woman. She will show in every movement that she is a sufferer.

There is a wonderful medicine for troubles of this description, that has stood the test for thirty years, and has been used successfully by many thousands of women. It is Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. It acts directly on the delicate and important organs concerned and makes them strong, healthy and vigorous. It allays inflammation, heals ulceration and soothes pain. It tones and builds up the nerves. It is the discovery of Dr. R. V. Pierce, an eminent and skillful specialist, for thirty years chief consulting physician to the Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute, at Buffalo, N. Y. This is one of the greatest medical institutions in the whole world. During the thirty years that Dr. Pierce has been at its head he has gained the unbounded respect of his fellow citizens at Buffalo, and they showed it by making him their representative in the National Congress, from which position he resigned to give the remainder of his life to the practice of his chosen profession. He will cheerfully answer, free of charge, any letters written to him by suffering women. Address, as above.

"A few years ago," writes Mrs. W. R. Bates, of Dilworth, Trumbull Co., Ohio, "I took Doctor Pierce's Favorite Prescription, which has been a great benefit to me. I am in excellent health now. I hope that every woman, who is troubled with 'women's ills,' will try the 'Prescription' and be benefited as I have been."

WHAT A DINNER COSTS.

A Curious Calculation, Showing the Cost of an Ordinary Meal.

Recently a gentleman who is fond of arithmetic made up his mind that he would find out how much a dinner really cost. This gentleman asked how much a simple dinner (that he was eating) cost, and he was told 75 cents.

He contradicted this and then made out the following statement about the cost of that dinner: The pepper, he said, came from 10,000 miles away. It grew on a little bush about 8 feet high, which must have had a growth of at least five years. The pepper was picked green. It had to be dried in the sun, and this meant employing women. It took one ship and 1,000 miles of railroad to bring the pepper to the United States. The flour of which the bread was made came from Dakota. Some one owned the land and that meant the investing of capital, and then he had also to pay wages to workingmen. The flour had to be ground, and the building of the mill and the plant or machinery meant more money invested. The millers had to be paid, coopers had to be paid for making the barrels and, of course, the wood of which the barrels were made had to be cut and sawed and shaped, and this meant the employing of more men. Then the flour had to be shipped over the railroad and handled again by cartmen before it came into the house.

The tea on the table came from China and the coffee from South America. The codfish had to be brought from Maine. Men had to be employed to catch the fish. Other men and women were employed in drying, packing and boxing it and it, too, had to make a long railroad journey.

The salt came from the Indian reservation in the northwestern part of New York state. The spices in the cake came from the Spice islands in the Indian archipelago. The canned peaches came from California, and they, too, represented the employment of capital and labor. The little dinner represented, directly or indirectly, the employment of $500,000,000 of capital and 5,000,000 men.—Chicago News.

It is said that when whisky is used instead of water in making glue the mixture will remain unaltered for years, will remain perfectly liquid and is ready for use without heating.

The city of Damascus, in Syria, is so ancient that no record of its origin can be discovered in any written histories.

SCROFULA.

"My little boy, aged 7 years and 15 months, was a victim of Scrofula on the face, which all the doctors said was incurable. To tell the truth he was so bad that I could not bear to look at him. At last I tried a bottle of Burdock Blood Bitters, and before it was half used he was gaining, and by the time he had three bottles used he was completely cured. I cannot say too much in recommendation of B.B.B. to all who suffer as he did." JOSEPH P. LABELLE, Maniwake P.O., Que.

There can be no question about it. Burdock Blood Bitters has no equal for the cure of Sores and Ulcers of the most chronic and malignant nature. Through its powerful blood purifying properties, it gets at the source of disease and completely eradicates it from the system.

They cannot digest it.

It upsets the stomach.

Knowing these things, we have digested the oil in Scott's Emulsion of Cod-liver Oil with Hypophosphites; that is, we have broken it up into little globules, or droplets.

We use machinery to do the work of the digestive organs, and you obtain the good effects of the digested oil at once. That is why you can take Scott's Emulsion.

Copper Stocks Booming.

The market for copper stocks is booming. While the Maine explosion caused all other securities to rapidly decline they showed unparalled strength. The non-dividend payers even are advancing. Copper has advanced 12 cents all round, which means enormous profits. Consumption of copper is greater than its production. During January this country produced 17,744 tons, an increase of only 107 tons over January, 1897, while our exports were 11,030 tons, an increase of 1375 tons. In this same month the European output decreased from 6695 tons a year ago to 5556 now. Yet England, France, and Germany consumed more copper by 4473 tons than the entire production of the United States. The visible supply in England and France decreased 2693 tons during January and February.

Higher prices for copper stocks are confidently predicted. Boston and Montana has advanced from 15 in July, 1893, to 1.88 in March, 1898, and Calumet and Hecla between the same periods from 2.47 to 5.40.—Mining Industry and Review.

The War Situation.

Following the news of the heavy loss to the Americans of over 1,000 men near Santiago, comes word that on July 3rd the Spanish fleet under Cervera was, with the exception of one vessel, completely destroyed by the Americans under Sampson. Some vessels were sunk others burned. No further particulars were given. Santiago de Cuba was expected to surrender on the 4th as a result of this engagement.

The above report has been confirmed but nothing further has been learned as to the engagement.

The safe arrival of the American transports at Manilla is announced.

Rosebery Townsite.

The many advantages enjoyed by Rosebery put before the public, CLAIMED WITHOUT OPPOSITION.

Its Advantages as a Distributing Center.

Rosebery is the only town in Kootenay having both railroad and steamboat connection that can ship goods daily to ten different towns, whereby the shipper can see his wares leave his hands and that they will be received by the consignee within two hours.

Its Advantages as a Railroad Center.

Rosebery enjoys the position of king of the funnell as it were, for the railroad business of the whole of the Kootenays. All ore and matter for shipment from Nelson, Trail Creek and the Slocan must, and is now passing out this way to the main line of the C. P. R., as well as all goods coming in from Revelstoke to the Kootenay country.

NOTE. To substantiate this: The C. P. R. are now putting in track weigh scales at Rosebery, the first and only scales that has been put in on any of the C. P. R. branches in Kootenay—which goes to show the importance of this point by the Canadian Pacific Railway Company's actions.

Its Advantages as a Steamboat Point.

Rosebery claims, without opposition, of being the only junction on the lake, unlike Slocan City, where you can step off the steamer to a waiting train and continue your journey. You can take either a north or south train at this terminus; consequently Rosebery is the best transient town in the race. Nervertheless we claim Slocan City second in importance, and would say watch the head and foot of Slocan Lake, viz.—

ROSEBERY AND SLOCAN CITY.

Its Advantages as a Manufacturing Center.

As a manufacturing center Rosebery claims to have demonstrated the fact that after the careful observation of the Denver (Colorado) Ore Coy's manager, as the natural advantages of all points in Kootenay for the treatment of ores the cheapest, Rosebery was selected, and they now are erecting works, with a capacity of 250 tons per day, which will be in operation within 90 days; and it is their intention to pay out monthly in the vicinity of $100,000. I might also add Rosebery has the largest water power from Wilson river flowing into Slocan Lake.

AS TO CLIMATE.

Rosebery claims the mildest climate on Slocan Lake, from its admirable southern exposure and absolute shelter from the north; snow always leaves the place about the 15th of March.

AS A TOWNSITE.

As a townsite, Rosebery is without a peer. It is possessed of all the flat land available at the mouth of the Wilson river leading to the valley—mining region—consequently there is no danger of any contagion. The title is a Crown Grant and is perfect. All purchasers of lots are safe in this respect. The only safe speculative townsite in the Slocan is Rosebery.

Why should I say the only safe speculative townsite in the Slocan? Because Rosebery business lots to-day are only $150 to $200 each and are bound to increase rapidly this summer. These figures can, and will, double before long. The time to buy is now. Don't wait till they are from $700 to $1,000, as you did in Slocan City last May, go in on the ground floor and make a few dollars in speculation; if you want to invest go to Vancouver or Winnipeg; if you want to speculate and and clean up money go quick to Rosebery before lots are out of sight.

What's Wanted in Rosebery.

We want a restaurant.
We want a good hotel right away.
We want a first-class general store.
We want a butcher shop.

Anyone looking for an opening spy out this place at once.

Maps and price-lists on application; prices run from $75 to $200.

TERMS: One-third cash, balance 3 and 6 months. For actual builders special terms can be arranged for a few lots by applying to

The Montezuma has now six feet of ore at a depth of 500 feet. It is not the intention to resume operations in the mill until enough ore is blocked out to warrant them to do so.

Ladies, take the best. If you are troubled with constipation, sallow skin, and a tired feeling, take Karl's Clover Tea. It is pleasant to take. Sold at McQueen's Drug Store.

Karl's Clover Root Tea is a pleasant laxative. Regulates the bowels, purifies the blood. Clears the complexion. Easy to take and pleasant to take. 25 cts. Sold at McQueen's Drug Store.

S. Ukita, secretary to Hon. S. Shimizu, the Japinese consul at Vancouver, is visiting the Slocan, collecting data about the minen, and looking after the welfare of the few Japanesese throughout the province.

The Sunday schools of Silverton and New Denver have chartered the Slocan steamer for an excursion to the head of the lake and have asked the Sandon school to join them, which they have excepted. Further particulars later.

The Roman Catholics of the city propose giving the second concert of the season on the 15th inst. Besides many of the local musicians and singers a number of outsiders will take part, which will ensure a first-class entertainment.

A miner named Allan Boyne got his leg badly smashed between the knee and the ankle at the Reco on Sunday last. He was brought down on a stretcher and attended by Dr. Young. His case is a bad one, but is believed he will pull through all right in time.

EVERY LADY'S HAIR requires attention at times. Let Prof. Dorenwend point out what to do to preserve it and dress it by means of his very beautiful art special styles in bangs, wavey fronts, switches, etc. Fashion hinges on his advice at the Grand View hotel, Brandon, on Wednesday and Thursday, July 20 and 21st.

The manager of the Hotel Reco is putting forth every effort to make the hostelry attractive and convenient. Carpenters and painters have been kept busy of late on the exterior. A planked walk from the C. P. R. depot to the steps at the rear and the broad balcony leading to the front will make a convenient entrance for travellers.

DREADFULLY NERVOUS.

GENTS:—I was dreadfully nervous, and for relief took your Karl's Clover Root Tea. It quieted my nerves and strengthened my whole nervous system. I was troubled with constipation, kidney and bowel trouble. Your Tea soon cleansed my system so thoroughly that I rapidly regained health and strength. Mrs. S. A. Sweet, Hartford, Conn. Sold at McQueen's Drug Store.

Cure that cough with Shiloh's Cure. The best cough cure. Relieves croup promptly. One million bottles sold last year. 40 doses for 25 cts. Sold at McQueen's Drug Store.

CHURCH NOTES.

METHODIST, Rev. A. M. Sanford, A.B., pastor.—Regular services will be held to-morrow at 11 a. m. and 7.30 p. m. Subject for the morning, "The Rechabites," evening, "Tomorrow dependent upon to-day."

PRESBYTERIAN—Services in Virginia hall to-morrow at 11 a. m. 7.30 p. m.—Preacher, Rev. J. A. Cleland. Holy Communion in the morning.

The K. of P. Memorial Service.

The Knights of Pythias of the city held a memorial service, in Spencer's hall Wednesday evening, to pay tribute to their late departed brother, Jas. Wright, who died at Nelson a few weeks ago. It was also the annual commemoration of the death of the founder of the order, Mr. Rathbone. The service is a very appropriate one and was conducted with order and due solemnity. While the Dead March was being played, the members of the order marched in and took their places, forming the triangle. After the opening ceremonies, the quartette, composed of Mrs Pitts and Mrs. Oscar White and Messrs. Fallows and Webb, sang "I would not live alway." Rev. J. A. Cleland delivered a touching address which was much appreciated by the Knights and their invited guests. After a short intermission the officers for the ensuing term were installed. Considering the nature of the affair those present were very pleasantly entertained.

The decorations of the hall were in keeping with the services. The beautiful green festoon dotted with bright flowers, showing the touch of woman's deft fingers, over the altar was admired by all. The whole effect was pretty indeed.

The following were the officers installed for the ensuing term:

Chas. Culver, C. C.
W. E. Goom, V. C.
A. Shelland, Prelate.
L. Doolan, M. W.
E. Emerson, K. R. S.
J. McLaughlin, M. F.

Gentlemen, Are You Bald?

Don't miss seeing Prof. Dorenwend's famous Art Hair Coverings, demonstrated at the Grand View hotel, Brandon, on Wednesday and Thursday, July 20 and 21st with toupees and wigs that are so perfect in construction that when placen in position on any head will defy detection. Over 35,000 gentlemen of every profession in life enjoy the wearing of these goods to-day. They are a protection and comfort to the head and beneficial to health. Gentlemen, throw off those old style grandfather's caps you are wearing in your stores, offices and residences and get nature's own protection for baldness, hair, as invented by Prof. Dorenwend. If you value health, youthful and nice appearance do not stand back, but investigate for yourself, as no charges are made for full illustration. Remember Grand View hotel, Brandon.

Big Time at McGuigan.

July 4th was celebrated at McGuigan by a grand ball. The elite of Whitewater, Three Forks and Sandon were represented, and dancing was indulged in until the "wee smi hours." Mine host Brown, of the McGuigan house, served a sumptuous supper at 11 o'clock. The Whitewater string band was in attendance and rendered sweet music during the evening.

TOBACCO HEART.

HAVE you been smoking a good deal lately and feel an occasional twinge of pain round your heart Are you short of breath, nerves unhinged, sensation of pins and needles going through your arm and fingers? Better take a box or two of Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills and get cured before things become too serious. Here's what Mr. John James, of Caledonia, Ont. has to say about them: "I have had serious heart trouble for four years, caused by excessive use of tobacco. At times my heart would beat very rapidly and then seemed to stop beating only to commence again with unnatural rapidity.

"This unhealthy action of my heart caused shortness of breath, weakness and debility. I tried many medicines and spent a great deal of money but could not get any help.

Last November, however, I read of a man, afflicted like myself, being cured by Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills. I went to Roper's drug store and bought a box. When I had finished taking it I was so much better I bought another box and this completed the cure. My heart has not bothered me since, and I strongly recommend all sufferers from heart and nerve trouble, caused by excessive use of tobacco, to give Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills a fair and faithful trial."

Price 50c. a box or 3 boxes for $1.25, all druggists. T. Milburn & Co., Toronto, Ont.
