Tuesday Evening, Sept. 13, 1887.

W. C. T. U. Convention.

WEDNESDAY, Sept. 7.—The afternoon session opened with devotional exercises and reading of the 146th Psalm. After preliminaries the election of officers took place and resulted as follows: President, Mrs. James Cunningham, Westminster; 1st vice-president, Mrs. Jenkins, Victoria; 2nd vice, Mrs. Tate, Chilliwhack; Cor. Sec., Miss Barbara McDougall, Westminster; Rec. Sec., Mrs. C. Spafford, Victoria; treas., Mrs. Hemlaw, Maple Ridge. The following superintendents of departments were elected: Scientific instruction in schools, Mrs. J. Hall; literature and woman's journal, Mrs. G. Grant; influencing the press, Mrs. G. A. Sargison; work among sailors, lumbermen, miners, Mrs. M. Thain; work among railway employees, Mrs. Seccombe; unfermented wine at the Lord's table, Mrs. Weisl; legislation, petitions, franchise, Mrs. H. Hall; heredity and hygiene, Mrs. Scouler; evangelistic work, Mrs. T. W. Hall; prison work Mrs. McCutcheon; hospital work, Mrs. D. McNaughten; young women's work, Mrs. A. J. Clyde; juvenile work, Mrs. W. H. Spafford; work among Indians, Mrs. T. Crosby; white cross, Mrs. A. J. McLellan; mainland organizer, Mrs; Jas. Cunningham; island organizer, Mrs. C. Spafford. The committee on courtesies introduced to the president a delegation of ministers, consisting of Rev. R. B. Hemlaw of Maple Ridge, Rev. J. H. White of Westminster, Rev. W. B. Seccombe of Ladners, and Rev. Mr. Patterson of Mount Lehman. The convention received them by standing. An invitation to hold the next convention in Victoria was unanimously accepted. Mrs. Jenkins of Victoria was appointed local union private correspondent. After a few kind remarks from the president, the convention was closed by singing: "Blest be the tie that binds, Our Christian hearts in one; The fellowship of Christian minds, Like heaven on earth begun;" after which "mizpah" was given as the watchword until next meeting, and its signification repeated by each member of the convention. The benediction was then pronounced. In the evening a general mass meeting under the auspices of the W. C. T. U. was held in the hall, presided over by the president. Addresses, very lively and excellent, were given by Rev. J. H. White of Westminter and Rev. E. Robson of Vancouver, interspersed with suitable music. The benedication was pronounced by Rev. R. B. Hemlaw of Maple Ridge.

New Metlakahtla.

The Boscowitz, which arrived at Victoria the other day, reports as follows: "The principal topic in the north is the emigration of the Metlakahtlans into Alaskan territory. They left with their all, being towed on several trips by the missionary steamer Glad Tidings, 70 canoes on one occasion and 30 on another. They have evidently become quite Americanized, the stars and stripes being floated to the breeze every morning, a salute fired from the gun, and in the evening the band plays "Hail Columbia." Metlakahtla is virtually deserted, the Indians having torn down their houses and taken them along. About 150 remain, being composed principally of the chiefs, their families and the few followers that remain to them and the Bishop. It is stated that none of the chiefs have accompanied the party. Mr. Duncan having always made it a policy never to give them any position of importance or trust in the church or community, and this broke their power over the tribes. The queen who once reigned supreme, and who, it is said, on one occasion shot down two men on the bench for disobeying her, is now simply a klootchman at Fort Simpson with none of her former prestige remaining. The great chief, her husband, is working on the wharf at one dollar per day. The great majority of the white residents are a unit in regretting that the Metlakahtlans have departed, friends and opponents of Mr. Duncan alike. There is now some talk among the Indians around Fort Simpson taking a similar step to those of Metlakahtla. It is supposed, however, that this will subside. It is also thought that the village deserted by Metlakahtlans will be again occupied, probably by some interior tribe."

LAST NIGHT'S DESPATCHES.

THE BOUNDARY RAILWAY.

WINNIPEG, Sept. 12.—It is reported that Mr. Lariviere has succeeded in securing sufficient money to release some two miles of the Red River Valley rails which will go forward at once. It is reported that Mr. Norquay wired them from New York that at any sacrifice enough rails must be sent to Winnipeg to make a showing.

GEN. BULLER DISGUSTED.

DUBLIN, Sept. 12.—General Buller has definitely resigned his post at Mitchelstown in consequence of Friday's affair.

O'BRIEN TAKEN TO MITCHELSTOWN.

DUBLIN, Sept. 12.—Editor O'Brien, who was arrested at Kingstown yesterday, was conveyed to Mitchelstown this morning in the custody of an officer.

BRITISH POLITICS.

LONDON, Sept. 13.—The appropriation bill passed its second reading in the House of Commons last evening. After the debate on the bill the Mitchelstown and Ennis incidents were brought up, and speeches were made by Harcourt, Balfour, Gladstone, Churchill and others. When the bill comes up for its third reading to-day, Parnell will make a motion for a sworn enquiry into the Mitchelstown affair. Lord Hartington's constituents have inaugurated a series of meetings expressive of their disapproval of his course.

THIS AFTERNOON'S DESPATCHES.

TREMENDOUS WASHOUT.

TUCSON, Ariz., Sept. 13.—The heavy rains of last night extended into Sonora, where five miles of track and three bridges were washed away. Damage over $200,000.

SWORN IN.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 13.—Lieut.-Gov. R. W. Waterman was inaugurated governor of California, this morning in the parlor of the Occident hotel, Chief Justice Mc McFarland administering the oath of office. After the latter had been taken the new governor in a tremulous voice read his address, the greater portion of which was a glowing tribute of the state's deceased executive. The inaugural address was followed by a proclamation announcing Governor Bartlett's death, and recommending that on the day of his funeral all business throughout the state be suspended. The funeral will take place on Friday at 11 a.m. from Pioneer Hall.

WILL FIGHT IF NECESSARY.

WINNIPEG, Sept. 13.—Open rebellion is everywhere talked of against the arbitrary conduct of the Dominion government applying for injunctions to stop building operation, and the Red River people are preparing to organize in order to be ready in case of emergency. It is stated this morning on excellent authority that Sir John A. Macdonald has written to several Conservatives threatening to execute vengeance on the people of the province if they do not submit. He is denounced on all hands and will be burned in effigy at a proposed demonstration shortly to be held. All newspapers in the province, Conservative and Reform, denounce the Dominion government, and call upon the people to stand firm and defend their rights with their blood if necessary.

A BIG SALE.

TUCSON, Sept. 13.—The Elcarmen mine in Arizepa district, Sonora, has been sold to Baron Rothschild of London for $162,000.

KILLED INSTANTLY.

CHEHALIS, W. T., Sept. 13.—This morning at 8 o'clock, one mile south of the Columbia, on a road crossing, the engine of train No. 2 struck a wagon and instantly killed the driver, G. L. Bingham. The whistle was blown and the bell rung. The man had stopped his team as if to wait; he then whipped his horses and tried to cross.

LIKELY TO FALL THROUGH.

CHICAGO, Sept. 13.—There are hints that the administration's fisheries commission scheme may fall through entirely. One reason is the trouble in finding men who will go on the commission, and another is the probability that before the commission got fairly under way it would be met with a resolution from the senate denouncing the whole business. It cannot be learned whom the president and Secretary Bayard invited to act as American commissioners, but they are all said to be distinguished. The matter of pay probably had nothing to do with their refusal to serve, as there are enough contingent funds out of which the secretary of state could squeeze their allowance.

NEW YORK, Sept. 13.—In a trial race to-day between the Volunteer and Mayflower, the former crossed the line 45 seconds ahead of the Mayflower. They were followed by the Thistle.

LONDON, Sept. 13.—The British bark Balaklava, from London for San Francisco, was dismasted in a gale on July 29th, near the straits of Magellan. Ten of the crew were lost overboard.

LONG LIVE BULGARIA!

SOFIA, Sept. 13.—A meeting of the National party was held yesterday. 800 persons were present. After the meeting a procession was formed and marched to the palace, where they cheered Prince Ferdinand, thence they proceeded to the residence of M. Karaveloff and threw stones at the windows. The police were unable to quell the disturbance, and many of them were injured. The mob then visited the offices of opposition journals and smashed the windows, shouting "Down with traitors," then they returned to the palace where Prince Ferdinand appeared upon a balcony. The resolutions adopted at the meeting were read to him and in reply he said: "Love me, be good patriots. Long live Bulgaria." The crowd then dispersed, singing the national anthem.

Russia's Military Railway.

From the Caspian to the Pacific Ocean.

PARIS, Sept. 5.—Despatches from St. Petersburg state that the plans for the construction of a Russian military railway from the Caspian Sea to Vladivostock, on the Pacific, drawn up last winter by General Obrutscheff, chief of the Russian General Staff, and General Annenkoff, of the Russian Engineer corps, have received the final sanction of the Czar, and the whole work has now been entrusted to General Annenkoff, who built with much rapidity and brilliant success the military railway from Krasnovodsk, on the Caspian Sea, to Sarakhsand, Merv. It is firmly believed in military circles here that this railway, uniting by rail the Atlantic and Pacific, will be completed before October 1, 1891.

Comenting upon this news the Temps says:—"This immense railway system is directed defensively and offensively toward China. Besides its commercial advantages it will permit Russia to effectively protect, in case of aggression, both the Amour territory, and the Oussouri territory, which are constantly threatened by the proximity of Manchouria and by the fact that Muscovite colonies are lost there amid the yellow-skinned population.

"Moreover, the possibility of rapidly concentrating a Russian army either near Kuldscha by a branch line from Omsk or upon the Corean frontier will give an occasion to the St. Petersburg Government for profiting by any favorable opportunity to invite either of these two countries, especially the second, where Russia—as is well known—covets for her Pacific Ocean fleet a harbor better situated and freer ice than that of Vladivostock—Port Luzanef, for instance, or the Bay of Ouensan. By means of the new railway Russia will become established in a more formidable position in Asia. She will be able to launch forth her armies at pleasure either upon the frontier of India or upon the frontier of China. She will be able to attach the English either in Afghanistan or on the Pacific without it being in the power of anyone to hinder or interfere with her any way."

Maple Ridge Council.

Council met on the 3rd inst. All members present. Communications were read as follows: From Charles E. Woods, C.E., re survey of roads; from Drake, Jackson & Helmcken, re assessment of railway property; from Corbould & McColl, re Dawson & Ferguson vs. municipality; from Hon. H. P. P. Crease, re his assessment; from John Pemberty, C. E., submitting plan of road survey; from Mrs. Mohun, re removal of bridge plank. Reports of road committees were received, considered and accepted, and the following orders were issued: J. M. Webster, $75, road work; Thomas Bosomworth, $50, road work; Andrew Anderson, $11.87, expenses of surveyor; W. Hampton, $30, road work; Jno. Hinch, $25, do; COLUMBIAN, $26.06, printing; Robert Blackstock, $95, road work; Alex. McDonald, $6, do; Angus Ferguson, $6, do; John Duity, $1.50, lumber; W. J. Harris, $16, expenses; John Dawson, $56, road work; John McKenney, $36, do. Collector reported having collected during August $200. It was resolved that Mr. Callaghan be instructed to remove the plank mentioned in Mrs. Mohun's communication as soon as new road is passable for teams. The Collector was instructed to reply to communications of Hon. H. P. P. Crease and Messrs. Drake, Jackson & Helmcken, and clerk requested to apply for a detailed statement of assessment of costs of Ferguson & Dawson vs. municipality. It was reported that Samuel Edge's contract of Lillooet bridge be cancelled and Mr. John Carlson's tender for bridge be accepted. A communication from Mr. Howison asking the council to take steps to remove Chinese from public cemetery was read; also a communication requesting cemetery road to be fenced and line between section 25 and lot 244 to be surveyed by a competent surveyor. Clerk requested to reply. It was resolved that the Dominion land agent be asked to notify loggers on the Lillooet that they will be held responsible for the destruction of municipal property caused by their logs. Bridge by-law and road by-law No. 2 received their second readings. Coun. Dockstader gave notice that at next meeting he will bring in a ward by-law. Council then adjourned.

Mr. H. McCaw, Custom House, Toronto, writes: "My wife was troubled with Dyspepsia and Rheumatism for a long time; she tried many different medicines, but did not get any relief until she used Northrop & Lyman's Vegetable Discovery and Dyspeptic Cure. She has taken two bottles of it, and now finds herself in better health than she has been for years."

Daily British Columbian

Tuesday Evening, Sept. 13, 1887.

Wants the World!

When it was announced a few days ago that an arrangement had been finally made by which the China steamships would call at Esquimalt on the inward and outward voyage, we expressed the opinion that the people of Victoria would now be content. In this we were mistaken. The Colonist, without authority we are sure, claims that Sir Arthur Blackwood recommended an imperial subsidy to the line "with a stipulation that Victoria or Esquimalt should be made the terminus of the route." We are persuaded that Sir Arthur never thought of such a stipulation, and that neither the C. P. R. nor the steamship company will ever consent to it. A line of steamers from China with its eastern terminus eighty miles from the railway might be perfectly satisfactory to Victoria's ambition, but it would be anything but satisfactory to the railway or to the people of the mainland. It is quite evident that there are people in Victoria who will not be satisfied until they get the whole earth, and of this class the Colonist seems to be the organ. Not satisfied with the concessions made by the company, it proposes to grasp for very much more. "Much has already been accomplished by the earnest efforts of a few men in our midst," it says, "but much more remains to be done. There is no reason why the China ships should not discharge here when they are being coaled!" There is the programme as laid out by the Victoria organ of this unspeakably selfish crowd! "The measure of success so far reached is large," continues the organ, "but the agitation cannot cease until the last point in dispute shall have been conceded. The future of the island town seems brighter than ever; but none should rest on his oars. As eternal vigilance is the price of liberty, so continual agitation is the price of the China steamship terminus." And by what means does the Colonist and its friends propose to reach this selfish end? It deliberately proposes to magnify the dangers attending the navigation of the straits of Georgia! Listen: "As winter approaches, fogs and storms will largely increase the liability of these great ships to detention if not disaster while threading their way through the intricate channels that lie between the island and the mainland, and it will shortly be found cheaper, safer and more expeditious to land everything and to coal here. It will be the duty of our public and commercial men and of the local papers to point this out to the company." Now, this is carrying things just a little too far. The Colonist has developed a wonderful concern for the safety of the China steamers which, a few days ago, it was denouncing and calling upon the people of Victoria to boycott as a public enemy! No words could be too strong to apply to such a proposal as that which the Colonist suggests, and it is time for the people of the mainland to consider whether they shall sit still and permit the public mind to be poisoned and their magnificent channels of navigation libeled without rebuke. Our cotemporary appealed to the boycott in the interest of its narrow and selfish schemes: the people of the mainland may find the boycott a useful weapon against the unworthy tactics of a journal which deliberately plots for the destruction of their legitimate shipping interests! At last session of the provincial legislature a resolution was proposed asking the federal and imperial authorities to make it a condition of their subsidies that the China steamer should call at Victoria or Esquimalt on the inward and outward voyage. This resolution received the support of the mainland members, including the vote of the member for this city. Now, see how the Colonist proposes to reward our generosity! It proposes to prevent the China steamers from coming to the mainland at all; and to accomplish this it calls upon the press and the men of influence to magnify the dangers of navigation beyond Victoria in the hope that underwriters may be induced to put an extra insurance rate on vessels going to mainland ports! If the plan proposed by the Colonist succeeds, our shipping interests will receive a blow from which they may never recover. John Webster speaks of a man whom if you "Give an inch, he'll take an ell." There seem to be a good many of this sort in Victoria, and they need very careful watching. No sooner does the steamship company agree to let its ships call there than these people begin to lay plans to prevent the steamships going any farther! Nothing could be more appropriate than the memorable words uttered in the legislature last session by Hon. Robt. Dunsmuir, now president of the executive council: "Although I live in the city (Victoria) I know it is the most sectional and selfish place in the province. It wants to get everything and give nothing!" Saepe interesunt alias meditantes necem!

Much distress and sickness in children is caused by worms. Mother Graves' Worm Exterminator gives relief by removing the cause. Give it a trial and be convinced.

NOTICE.

To Bridge Engineers and Contractors.

THE HONORABLE THE CHIEF COMMissioner of Lands and Works hereby invites Bridge Contractors to submit plans, details, specifications, straining sheets, and tender for the construction of a Traffic Bridge, to cross the Fraser River at Lillooet, up to noon of Saturday, 29th of October next.

Required—One clear span of 300 feet in length; approach (on the west side) three spans of 54 feet each; width of roadway, 18 feet; live load, 1,000 lbs. per foot; factor of safety, 5.

False work can only be erected in winter when the river is frozen over.

The bridge site is about 55 miles from Ashcroft Station, on the Canadian Pacific Railway, with which it is connected by wagon road.

Each tender must be accompanied by an accepted bank cheque for $500, payable to the Honorable Chief Commissioner of Lands and Works, which will be returned to unsuccessful competitors, but will be forfeited by any bidder who may decline to execute a contract if called upon to do so.

The contractor will be required to give satisfactory security, amounting to half the contract price, for the due fulfilment of the contract, and for the maintenance of the bridge for a period of six months from the date of the completion of the work.

A plan and profile of the site can be seen at the office of the undersigned.

TALE OF A GLOVE.

Unfailing Symptoms of a Severe Case of Love-Sickness.

It was an odor of roses about my nephew that led to the discovery of the glove. Up to his nineteenth birthday, which arrived a month ago, he had gone through life contemptuous of button-holes; and I was a little taken aback about that time when I ran against him at a corner with a Marshal Niel at his breast. He whipped it hurriedly into his pocket, and, being a kindly old gentleman, I pretended not to notice. But my faith in him was profoundly shaken. This was the boy who had refused point-blank to carry a bouquet down the street at a bribe of half a guinea. Soon I learned that he was conveying tasteful little button-holes into the house up his coat sleeve; and he blushed when he was asked about a tumbler in his bed-room. Then his mother found a six-button glove, size five and a half, in his pocket, which none of us could identify. For some days he had only had one glove himself, which he carried spread out in his hand to look like two. We could not think that this was its long-lost companion.

Pending investigations the glove was replaced in Albert's pocket in the nice little piece of tissue-paper which protected it. Then we watched Albert. Hitherto he had a habit of leaving the room when the conversation took a feminine turn, but now a change came over him. He sat on when his mother talked with his aunt over the relative merits of the waterfall back and the Norfolk blouse, and it was observed that though he pretended to be reading his book he was really drinking in the conversation. On one occasion he came out of his shell in a remarkable manner. The two ladies were asking each other what was the other name for the waterfall back, and Albert, carried away by his interest in the discussion, murmured "Redingote." His mother and his aunt looked at him in amazement, which made Albert turn both white and red. Not long afterward it leaked out that he knew what "sailor collars" were, and liked pale-pink ones.

Albert even began to take an interest in his sisters dresses. His sisters are much younger than himself, and there is a story in the family that about the time he was saving up for some coveted little treasure he would not let them kiss him under six pence each. It was statistical information about his sisters that Albert now asked for in a casual sort of way that did not deceive his relatives. Once he was discovered trying to ascertain for himself how much Gertrude, who is fourteen, measures around the waist. Not being accustomed to those attentions, Gertrude liked them at first; but it was soon borne in upon her—though she was only fourteen—that her brother was experimenting on her for private reasons of his own. Albert was also curious to know what size in boots Gertrude required, and smiled to himself when told. Gertrude, who has known since she was fourteen that she has large feet, did not like this. It must, I think, have been a week after the discovery of the glove in Albert's pocket that he asked his mother, with an artificial yawn, whether five and a half was not a small size in gloves for a lady. Then his mother asked me to go delicately to work and find out what was Albert's condition, and who she was.

I thought I would leave it to Albert to tell me who she was, but I experimented on him to discover his condition. Nothing, I feel, could have been more delicate than the way I set about it. The glove became, so to speak, the means of communication between me and Albert. First, I removed it from his pocket one day when Albert lay dreaming on the couch. I took the tissue paper off and then gently returned the naked glove to its slumbering owner. That evening Albert asked me for the key of the book-case. This is because I have literary leanings and mediate writing a great book when I settle down and have time. Albert, however, so seldom asks for the key to the book-case—indeed, it is rarely to be found when wanted—that I invited his confidence as to what book he required. To my surprise he said "the large Shakespeare." This large Shakespeare is a sore subject with me. It is in so many great volumes that the shelf it rests on frequently gives way. It is also gorgeously illustrated. Albert took away one of the volumes, and I sat pondering what he could want it for. Doubtless Albert's sudden devotion to Shakespeare had something to do with the glove, but where the connection came it was not evident. By and by Albert brought the volume back. When he had gone I looked through it, but could discover nothing. Next morning Albert's mother puzzled me by remarking that she thought that I had taken the tissue paper off the glove. On being asked for an explanation, she said that she had looked to see, and that the glove was still in its wrapper. At this I went straight to the book-case and again took down that volume of Shakespeare. It was as I suspected: Albert had torn out the tissue paper protecting one of the illustrations—the play scene in "Hamlet."

The next experiment I tried was also a simple one. He carried the glove in an inside pocket, over the spot where Albert thought his heart was. Taking advantage of a favorable moment, I got at the coat and changed the glove to another pocket. The next time I had an opportunity of feeling for it, it was back in the old place again. This happened several times; Albert, who is a simple youth for all his cunning, evidently thinking that he had put the glove into the wrong pocket. Then I hazarded a bolder step. Again taking possession of the glove, I dropped it in a corner of the drawing-room.

That evening Albert came back from the office in a perturbed state of mind. I watched him on his knees in the hall looking for something, and when he saw me he pretended to be unlacing his shoes. He wandered from room to room, and was subsequently heard flinging his things about in his bedroom. He said not a word about his loss, however, to any one. Next morning I was surprised to see him bright and cheerful. I went into the drawing-room, and, behold, the glove was gone. From the way in which the unsuspecting Albert was incessantly putting his hand into that inside pocket, I saw that there was once more a five-and-a-half glove in it. I had feared that Albert would treasure it somewhere else now, but no, he evidently thought that he had dropped it in the drawing-room accidentally perhaps after passionately gazing on it in secret.

But the awakening came when I concealed the little glove in a vase on the smoking-room mantelpiece. Albert ran it to earth in a day and a half without saying a word on the subject to anybody, unless possibly the housemaid. When next I felt for it in his pocket it was not there. From that time Albert and I were playing at hide-and-seek. When I was not looking for the glove he was. I found it inside the case of his cricket-bat and dropped it behind the piano. Albert searched it out, and soon afterward I got it under a corner of the carpet in his bedroom. Then I hid it among some music, knowing that Albert would look there last. All this time I did not know if he suspected who it was that was playing with him. I do not know now, for we have never opened our minds on the subject.

Albert did not find the glove among the music. When two days had passed I put it in an easier place, for Albert was bearing his disappointment bravely. Still he did not find it. Next I flung it on the floor of his bedroom, and Albert did not seem to see it. I laid it on his mantlepiece and he let it remain there. At last it struck me to look in Albert's pocket again. There was another glove in it; size six and a quarter, eight buttons.

Then I went to Albert's mother and told her he was cured.

JOHN'S COUNTRY CUSTOMER.

John Harvey had been a clerk in a country store in Vermont since he was fifteen years old, and he was now over twenty. He had been reared and educated by his mother, who was no longer very young when John was born, and consequently entered upon the infirmities of old age when her boy had arrived at the age of manhood. Her husband was long since dead.

John was a handsome country lad, active, obliging and courteous. These qualities attracted the attention of a New York merchant who was spending a summer month in Vermont, and he offered him a situation in his store.

Although John's mother knew how more than lonely she would be without her boy, she felt how valuable this change would prove to him, and gave her consent to his going.

"I know my boy will not forget his mother," she said. "And one thing, my child, let me impress upon you. You will be surrounded by giddy fellow clerks, many who will look with contempt on the humbly-clad people who come to buy, and only serve them with reluctance—perhaps rudeness. Never forget your mother, and that the humblest woman may be somebody's dear old mother. And remember, too, what you have read in the school reader, that 'appearances are often deceiving,' and that 'a well-filled purse may lie in the pocket of a rusty coat.'"

That was the mother's advice, and it turned out that John heeded it.

The great iron dry goods shop in Broadway, with its white facade and its counters inside heaped high with marvellously beautiful fabrics, was indeed a change to John, and the richly and astonishingly dressed women in great contrast to the country dames in sunbonnets and gingham gowns that he had been accustomed to serve.

But now and then came customers from the country; there was no mistaking them. Their dresses had a home-made look, and their bonnets utterly lacked the peculiar audacity of city hats. They preferred their requests in a timid way, as if feeling lost and strange, and uncertain if they had any right in so grand a store. The clerks snubbed them or were insolent. But to John the country faces were always pleasant, and he was invariably so noticeably kind to rural customers that his counter very soon became the centre of country custom. His fellow clerks would cry out when there was an appearance of "country cousins."—

"Customers for you, Harvey!"

But one day the country women missed the very obliging clerk, and upon inquiry were told that he had been transferred to the cloak department. Very well! one old lady who had a young girl with her, said she wanted to buy a cloak.

So up stairs they went—a quaint-looking pair that set the clerks in a giggle, and they slyly winked as they sent around the password: "Harvey's friends."

"Good luck to you, Harvey," laughed one. "Now's your chance to get rid of those last year's beaver sacques! Maybe they will go as high as ten dollars."

But if the old lady and her niece had been dowager and princess, they could not have been more courteously treated than they were by John.

"She's somebody's dear old mother, I'll warrant," he said to himself, and then in a pleasant manner he asked the old lady what she would like to see.

"Velvet cloaks," she replied.

John took from the hooks of the wardrobes cloaks varying in price from fifty to three hundred dollars. The clerks kept up their fun at John's expense, but he did not care.

After considerable delay in making up her mind, the old lady said she wanted to see how some furs would look over a velvet cloak valued at two hundred and fifty dollars. John readily gratified her with dressing up a lay figure with the cloak and a four hundred dollar set of furs. After a little his customer said they suited her, and asked how much all would be. John made a feint at counting up the figures, and said it was six hundred and fifty dollars.

"Very well; I will take them," she said, and drawing a rusty pocket-book from her petticoat proceeded to count out the money.

As the bills were mostly fives and tens, they made a noble pile, and as John took them from her hand, he held them purposely so as to exaggerate their appearance and skipped around among the clerks with great gusto.

"Nearly seven hundred dollars from my rural friends," he exulted. "No last year beavers for them, if you please, and the girl is as sweet as the roses and pinks in my mother's garden."

That day's sale was a coup de bonheur for John Harvey. It gave him an importance in the eyes of his employers, who increased his salary and placed him at the head of his department.

Two years later he wooed and won the girl "sweet as the pinks and roses," who brought him, beside her sweetness and beauty, a snug little fortune, which seemed all the better from having been accumulated where the pinks and roses bloom. He then returned to Vermont to remain with his mother during her remaining years, not as a clerk in the old country store, but as its owner and proprietor, and which is today, because of its neatness and tasteful ordering, and abundant furnishing, noted the country round as the "best store in the State." The villagers, too, like John's wife, because of her simple and sweet way; and it was her aunt—the old lady herself—who told me the story of John's good fortune, which all grew out of well directed kindness to country people.

Silver spoons that have become discolored in contact with cooked eggs, may be easily brightened by rubbing with common salt. A lump of gum camphor in the closet where silver or plated ware is kept, will do much toward preventing tarnish. Coal gas, and the near presence of rubber in any form, are two things that cause silver to tarnish quickly. The rubber ring around the neck of a fruit jar will tarnish a closet full of silver in the space of one night, while a silver spoon left for an hour in the mouth of such a jar will be found possessed of truly rainbow tints next day.

What Physicians Say About the STARR KIDNEY PAD.
"Treatment by Absorption has for some time been recognized by Medical Men to be the most simple and effectual means of conveying to Diseased Organs, "Curatives," but in cases of Kidney Disease and Complaints attendant thereon, successful treatment was practically impossible until the introduction of the Starr Kidney Pad. It costs less than a single prescription and is immeasurably more decisive and effective than any quantity of internal Medicinal dosing. Worn immediately over the seat of Disease, its curative properties become absorbed by the diseased and enfeebled Organs, continuously and directly, as required to insure in return their healthy action and original vigour. It is comfortable to the patient and pleasant in its effects, and cures when nothing else can. The Starr Kidney Pad accomplishes positive, decisive results. A more valuable discovery as a true remedy for Kidney Diseases was never made.—Medical Gazette
The Starr Kidney Pad, manufactured in Toronto, is a permanent sure cure for diseases, disorders and ailments of the Kidneys, Bladder and urinary secretive system, or attendant complaints, causing pain in the small of the back, sides, etc., producing urinary disorders, such as too frequent, scanty, difficult, painful or copious micturition, inability of retention and sedimentary urine, dropsical symptoms, etc., denoting the presence in the system of diseases common to the urinary secretive organs—known as gravel, catarrh of the bladder and passages, Bright's disease, diabetes, dropsy, piles, nervous debility, etc. Send for pamphlet to LANGLEY & CO., Wholesale Agents, Victoria. HEAD OFFICE, TORONTO, CANADA
A HOME COMPANY.
This Association merits the confidence the Public is reposing in it from the following FACTS:—
The Security offered to policy holders is unsurpassed by any Company doing business in Canada.
It has no schemes of insurance, but the well-established lines, hence the policy holders cannot be misled as to their contracts.
Its statements to the public can be readily understood, its cash statement showing every item of income and how expended.
Its position is ascertained annually from a detailed valuation in which every item of liability is included.
Its progress has been unexampled in the history of insurance in Canada.
Its policies are indisputable after three years, and non-forfeitable after two years' existence.
Its profits are distributed upon an equitable basis. The profits to one class of policy holders are not lessened to give larger profits to any other class, which method affords superior advantages over the uniform bonus plan of distribution.
Liberal Conditions as to Residence and Travel.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS THIS DAY.

Stock Ranch for Sale.....T. J. Trapp

Tuesday Evening, Sept. 13, 1887.

It is reported that the Egyptian cotton crop is excellent.

Five car loads of cattle arrived at 3 o'clock this afternoon from Kamloops.

County court opens to-morrow morning at 11 o'clock, his lordship Mr. Justice McCreight presiding.

Ogle, Campbell & Co. are showing this week a beautiful line of Ladies' Gossamers. Call and see them. dse13t5

Attention is called to the auction sale of the Pitt Prairie Stock Ranch advertised by Mr. T. J. Trapp in this issue.

The steamer Rainbow arrived at 4 o'clock, from Victoria being the fastest trip she has made since taking this route.

The sockeyes and cohoes are still continuing to run in fair numbers. Last night the average was from 50 to 60 to a boat.

The steamer Wm. Irving cleared for up river ports this morning at 7 o'clock, taking 25 passengers and 20 tons of freight.

Temperture to-day: Maximum 61 degs. Minimum 51 degs. Probabilities for next 24 hours, fine weather with light winds.

It is expected the battery will shortly commence their annual drill; orders to that effect have not been issued yet, but are expected daily.

Eleven cars of salmon were shipped east to day via C. P. R. Montreal, Hamilton, London and Toronto being the principal points of destination.

The steamer Dunsmuir leaves tomorrow morning for Nanaimo and intermediate ports. She will take a large quantity of eastern freight for Nanaimo.

The R. B. George Co. will be glad to meet all members of the convention in the basement of the Methodist church on Wednesday evening, Sept. 14th. Bring your books.

The snag boat Samson will proceed up river to remove some dangerous snags as soon as a crew can be obtained. Capt. Grant reports good men very difficult to secure.

At their meeting last night the council resolved upon selling some more land, and a resolution, in the prescribed form, will be introduced next Monday night for that purpose.

Last evening one of W. H. Vianen's boats brought in a sturgeon which measured 13 feet in length, 5½ feet in girth, and weighed 750lbs. This of course is not what we consider a large fish still it is worthy of note.

A despatch from Ottawa states that ex-Gov. Cornwall has been appointed Dominion commissioner to accompany the provincial commissioner to the Nass River district to enquire into the Indian grievances.

The rifle company, under Capt. Scoullar, will parade at the Drill Shed to-morrow evening for drill. It is the duty of every man to attend all parades, not only that he may become efficient himself, but from the fact that a poor turn out is apt to have a dampening effect on the enthusiasm of those who otherwise would make excellent soldiers. In a militia company no man should be kept on the roll who misses two parades in succession, unless the very best of reasons can be given for such absence.

Holloway's Corn Cure destroys all kinds of corns and warts, root and branch. Who then would endure them with such a cheap and effectual remedy within reach?

IN MEMORIAM.—A largely attended and impressive service was held at the Y. M. C. A. rooms on Sunday afternoon in memory of the late S. L. Coffin, in which Rev. Thos. Scouler Rev. J. H. White, and Messrs. D. S. Curtis, W. R. Austin, and Wm. Turpin took part. Mrs. Lund sang "What shall the Harvest be?" Mr. Geo. Lyal sang "The Christian's Good Night," and Mr. H. L. DeBeck sang, "Will Jesus find us Watching!"

GOOD NEWS.—The city has redeemed debentures No. 39, 40, and 41 of $500 each of the railroad bonus. This makes 41 in all redeemed and 34 yet to be taken up. Debenture No. 4 of the 1883 loan for $500 has also been redeemed, and the interest paid on the loan up till Sept. 1st. This will be very gratifying news to property owners and tax-payers, as it shows the sound financial condition of the city and its ability to meet all payments and even to clear off debts not yet due, thus saving a large amount of interest to the ratepayers.

B. C. M. & M. Co.—It is understood that the report of Mr. Parish, the San Francisco expert sent up to examine the workings of the mine of the B. C. M. & M. Co., was of a character which did not warrant the directors in continuing the work at the spot being operated when Mr. Parish was there. H recommended another locality as in his judgment giving better indications of rich quartz. Accordingly the directors will withdraw from where operations have been carried on by them lately and open elsewhere on their property.—Vic. Times.

AT ST. ALICE HOTEL.—The following are late arrivals at St. Alice Hotel, Harrison Hot Springs: D. McNair, J. Armstrong, John Sprott, E. Roland, Sheriff Armstrong and wife, John E. Insley, E. W. Ogle, Westminster; E. Tan, J. M. Horne, H. R. Ceperly, wife and children, Mrs. E. D. Edwards, W. C. Anderson, A. J. Dana, H. E. Corman, I. Leask, H. Thingess, Vancouver; Rev. A. Beanslands and wf., Mrs. Ray, Mrs. Miles, G. Williams, Mrs. Goepel, Mrs. Grant, Miss Watkins, Miss Whistons, Jas. D. Robinson, Victoria; E. Johnson, I. S. Lawrence, North Bend; C. E. Williams, A. McKenzie, Geo. Edgar, Shuswap; A. D. Wright, Ernest Ingersoll, Montreal; F. J. Martin, Harrison River; R. Madden, Revelstoke; Senator Dickey, Ottawa; Basil Eagle, 150 Mile House; Wm. Powers, Moodyville.

A SERSIBLE LUNATIC.—On Friday last a man named De Lancy M. Steves who is well known about town, appeared at the police station and asked chief Devlin to lock him up as he was crazy. The chief found that the man had been drinking heavily and feeling that it would not be safe to allow him at large locked the poor fellow up. On Saturday morning Mr. Atkinson ordered a medical examination to be held on Steves which was done by Doctors Trew & McLean. Steves was so very sensible on most subjects that the medical examiners were not fully satisfied that the man was really insane and remanded him until yesterday to allow the case to develop. Yesterday he was examined again and found insane on which the doctors commited him as a lunatic. Steves has been removed to the jail there being no room at present in the asylum.

Geo. Dodge, sr., a well-known citizen of Emporium, writes that one of his men (Sam Lewis) whilst working in the woods so severely sprained his ankle that he could scarcely get home, but after one or two applications of Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil he was able to go to work next day.

Our Railway Traffic.

The following figures will show the amount of freight handled by the Canadian Pacific Railway in this city for the week ending Sept. 10th: Amount of freight forwarded, 475,860 lbs.; charges on same, $3,214.17; amount of freight received, 518,690 lbs.; charges on same, $4,807.40. This makes a total for week of 994,550 lbs. of freight, on which the charges were $8,021.57.

The River Mouth.

Capt. Grant, who, with the snag boat Samson, has been for some weeks engaged in placing the buoys at the sandheads, reports the channel in excellent condition. The lowest water anywhere is 14 feet. The work of blocking up the old channel seems to have accomplished all that was expected of it, for it has materially deepened the north channel, and the deepening process still goes on. Not long ago there was a shallow bar in this channel about three-quarters of a mile in width. This has disappeared until it is now only about two or three hundred yards wide. We are glad to see that tenders are asked for a lot of material with which to proceed with the work of damming up the old channel. When this work has been completed Captain Grant thinks the north channel can easily be deepened so as to admit any vessel, and when once this is accomplished there will probably be no more filling up to speak of, and very little shifting.

Vedder Creek Bridge.

On two different occasions we have referred to the importance of having the bridge over Vedder Creek replaced without delay so that people may be able to attend the provincial exhibition. We find that this work is within Chilliwhack municipality, and is, therefore, a matter with which it is the business of the municipal council to deal. Moreover, the government agent at this city has in his possession an official letter in which the following paragraph occurs: "The council of Chilliwhack have been authorized to let a contract for repairs of Vedder Creek bridge to Theo. Witte for $313" This letter is dated the 21st April last. It seems, therefore, that the government nearly six months ago set apart $313 for the construction of this bridge (which really is a municipal work), and we presume the amount was judged sufficient to cover the job. The responsibility for the failure to bridge Vedder's Creek, therefore, seems to lie upon the municipality of Chilliwhack, which will need to explain why that work has not been done, and why the government grant of $313 has been permitted so long to lie unexpended!

Job printing of all kinds neatly done at the COLUMBIAN office. Prices will be found as low as at any other office in the province.—Adv

County Court.

The following cases will come before his lordship Mr. Justice McCreight, to-morrow, at the adjourned sitting of the county court:

Collins vs. Street & Thompson, Howison vs. Martin, Howison vs. Swan, Ah Wing vs. Revesbeck, McNeil vs. Van Volkenburgh, Laydon vs. Lundbom, Murphy vs. Hawkins, Wark vs. Morrison, Henderson vs. Hodgson, Wise vs. McBride, Brewester vs. Sevier, Law vs. Woollen Mill Co., French vs. Insley, Leiser vs. Thornber, Chung vs. Welsh, Hutcheson & Young vs. Green, Cunningham vs. Brighouse; corporation of New Westminster vs. Moresby, French, Ross, Smith & Jackson, Kenyon, Hurd, Franks, Johnson; Elliott vs. Henderson, Hall & Goepel vs. Currie, Edmunds vs. French, Hop Foo vs. Shudhi, Collins vs. Tiernan.

Police Court.

(Before T. C. Atkinson, P.M.)

Lee Ho alias Jim charged with attemping to criminally assault Mrs. Kitty George.

Mr. Cochrane appeared for the prisoner and pleaded guilty to the charge and asked that the fine be made as light as possible, the prisoners previous character having been very good.

His Honor said the charge was of a very serious nature and he did not feel justified in simply fining the prisoner without hearing the evidence which he intended hearing in full.

Mr. Cochrane then asked for an adjournment until Thursday to prepare his case.

His Honor with some reluctance accordingly adjourned the case until Thursday morning at 10 o'clock as requested.

Personal.

C. Z. Perry left this morning for Victoria.

Mr. Justice McCreight arrived home this morning from Vancouver.

M. Phillips returned yesterday from a camping out expedition on Harrison Lake.

Hon. A. E. B. Davie and wife left for the Island this morning via Vancouver.

Henry Mathers went over to the salt water terminus this morning on a short visit.

Mrs. John Calbick returned home to-day from Ontario where she has been spending some weeks.

Capt. Stewart of the steamer Alice returned yesterday from an extended visit to his old home in the east.

Mrs. Jowett (mother of C. J. Robson, of this city) arrived to-day from Goderich, Ont., accompanied by her son William.

W. H. Redmond, of the Ames Holden Co., Victoria, arrived from the interior yesterday and left for the capital this morning.

T. R. Pearson left for Kamloops today in the interest of the Confederation Life Assurance Co. He expects to be absent about three or four weeks.

Guests at the Colonial: Alex. E. B. Davies & wife, W. H. Redmond, Victoria, R. E. Gibson Langley, T. C. Hill Portland, J. B. Ball Sterling, James O'Tool Vancouver, J. A. Clarke Port Moody, Wm McKee Ladners, L. A. Agassiz, Ferney Combe, H. J. A. Burnett Mount Lehman, Capt. Wardersser England, H. E. Wordersser St. John N. B., James McIntosh Kamloops, B. Douglas City.

The Tables Turned.

The police have lately been furnished with an instrument for catching unlicensed dogs, which to the common observer looks like an ordinary scoop net; and such it really is, for with it the wily policeman "scoops" in the unsuspecting dog. To handle this new instrument requires considerable knack and experience, for although it covers a great deal of ground when in action, a miss with it is as good as a mile, and the trusting dog can never be induced to approach the snare again. This morning one of our gallant force, being in want of a little excitement, took the net and meandered forth to capture the unlicensed canine that unlawfully roams the city streets. Luck seemed to be poor, every dog met with had a tag, and it looked as if the fisherman would return empty handed, until, when slowly wending his way up Mary street, the officer saw a small unlicensed cur playing with Mr. J. W. Harvey's watch dog. The folds of the net were instantly shaken out, and with a benevolent smile on his face the fisherman prepared to make a cast as soon as proper range was reached. Down came the net with a crash, but unfortunately the shot fell short, and with a howl of terror the small dog left for parts unknown. Not so with the watch dog; he was evidently annoyed at being disturbed so unceremoniously, and before the policeman could raise his weapon again the dog had a few of his pet grinders neatly imprinted in the fisherman's leg. The grip was soon relaxed, and the officer left at a 5-minute gait for headquarters to await further orders, the dog out of politeness kindly escorting him the greater part of the way, a most unnecessary though delicate attention on the part of the animal.

City Council.

The council met last evening in the City Hall at the usual hour for their regular weekly meeting. Present Councillors Bonson, Jaques, Curtis, Reid, Duncan.

His worship Mayor Dickinson in the chair.

The minutes of last meeting were read and approved.

His worship asked the city clerk what he had done on Wednesday night when no members turned up.

The city clerk stated he had remained until 10 o'clock and as no one came he then went home.

His worship said it was the duty of the clerk to adjourn the meeting in such a case, for as the council could only meet every second Monday except for an adjourned or special meeting it would prevent them transacting any business of importance at this sitting, as it was not regular.

COMMUNICATIONS.

From James Draper, of the woollen mills, stating that the mill was now in full running order in compliance with the bonus by-law statutes, and asked that the $1000 bonus be placed to their credit. Referred to the city solicitor.

From H. M. Turner, asking for information towards procuring a peddlar's liscense.

Communication referred to government agent.

The following tenders were received for the proposed improvements on Montreal and Fortescue sts.: E. B. Keith, $690; Finlay, McIntosh & Murray, $690; John Patterson, $590; W. L. Smith and Eli Ladner, $650. Laid over till next meeting.

From S. H. Webb, notifying the council that he had given a billiard table and set of chess men and board to the Hyack Fire Co., and asking an acknowledgement of the same.

The city clerk was instructed to write Mr. Webb in the name of the city thanking him for the gift.

From F. Welcome McCrady, sending in his account for street improvements.

From Jos. M. Wise, asking for permission to lay a pipe across Douglas st. Leave granted.

From W. Turpin, secretary Y.M.C.A., asking that the $10 liscense paid for by the association for Wad el Ward's lecture be returned. Ordered to be refunded.

From S. H. Webb, chief of fire brigade, asking for certain improvements in connection with fire hall. Referred to fire committee.

From E. S. Scoullar asking permission to cut down the maple tree opposite his new building. Leave granted.

BILLS AND ACCOUNTS.

The following bills and accounts were read:

Frank Forrest, $80; H. Kent, $51.75; J. Prestidge, $25.50; C. Blair, $38.25; M. Martin, $58.50; J. Jensen, $58.50; W. Dyker, $51.75; W. James, $48.93; D. Sullivan, $56; W. Whitmayer, $22.50; Gas Co., $183; Z. Hall, $19.50; B. C. Ptg. Co., $8.52; H. M. Cunningham, $7; J. Wise, $148.50; J. E. Lord, $5; B. C. Gazette, 10; Frank Devlin, $9.50.

Ordered to be paid if found correct.

F. Welcome McCrady, $248; W. Moresby, $300; Gas Co., $13.46; T. J. Trapp, $5.50; James Cunningham, $30.51; G. Pittendrigh, $3.

Referred to committees.

A communication from James Turnbull asking permission to place building material on certain streets. Granted.

The report of the finance committee was handed in and read.

His worship suggested it would be well to put some more land on the market.

It was agreed that a motion to that effect would be introduced next Monday night.

Coun. Reid asked for permission to use the street for building material as he was about to build a house. Leave granted.

Coun. Jaques asked if anything had been done towards widening Columbia st. near the mills.

Coun. Bonson said the work was a very necessary one and should be proceeded with at once.

Coun. Duncan also agreed the work was necessary and thought the expense would not be great.

His worship said the present state of the street was not safe and the improvement should be made.

Moved by Coun. Duncan, seconded by Coun. Bonson, that the board of works bring in a report on this subject, also on cost of filling in the south end of Douglas st. Carried.

Coun. Reid said as the engineer of the fire department had left town another should be selected to act during his absence. Referred to fire committee.

Moved by Coun. Jaques, seconded by Coun. Curtis, that Mr. Turner's report on drain from St. Mary's hospital be adopted and that the board of works be instructed to have the work done as soon as possible. Carried.

Moved by Coun. Curtis, seconded by Coun. Jaques, that the board of works be instructed to open the ditch on Montreal and St. Patrick sts. in such a way that the water will not run on private property. Mr. Oliver complains that the water from Montreal st. runs over and damages his property. Carried.

Moved by Coun. Curtis, seconded by Coun. Reid, that the board of works be authorized to give grade of Clarkson st. to enable Mr. Wintemute to build a bridge. Carried.

Moved by Coun. Bonson, seconded by Coun. Duncan, that the board of works be instructed to furnish material for constructing a drain on Fife street. Carried.

There being no further business to transact the council adjourned.

PEOPLE WHO RESIDE OR SOJOURN in regions of country where fever and ague and bilious remittent fever are prevalent, should be particularly careful to regulate digestion, the liver and the bowels, before the approach of the season for the periodic malady. The timely use of Northrop & Lyman's Vegetable Discovery and Dyspeptic Cure is a valuable safeguard against the malarial scourge. It is acknowledged to be the best blood purifier in the market.
