QUIETING DOWN.

The French Fisheries Troubles in Newfoundland are Over for the Present.

A Desperate Glove Fight Between Two Eastern Prize Fighters for Small Stakes

Vessels are Set to Work to Dredge for Millions of Lost Spanish Gold.

Magnifying the Trouble.

NEW YORK, June 17.—The Herald's special from Bay St. George, dated June 16th, says: I have just reached this out of the way place after a 600-mile voyage in the steamer from St. Johns at the other end of the Island of Newfoundland. I find the feeling here much stronger against the home country than against France, caused by the apathy in not trying to modify the fishing treaty, or at least to compel France to adhere strictly to it. All is quiet here now, and for the present season, so far as St. George is concerned, the crisis is over. The French fishing vessels have all gone, and the natives are left to fish in peace. There are no French war ships in the harbor. The Pelican, a British war ship, Capt. Riddle, is the only one here. There is much indignation here over the modus vivendi, and ominous troubles are reported elsewhere. News has just reached here of an outbreak at Lascie, a small fishing town on the northeast coast within the French treaty limits. The inhabitants attacked a French fishing establishment, consisting of bateaux and fishing boats, net sheds, drying flakes and other property left there by the French fishing schooners since last year. They set fire to the place and destroyed all the property. The local magistrates were powerless to interfere. The French fishing vessels had not yet arrived at Lascie for the season's work, and the property destroyed was not valuable, but the occurrences is significant as showing the intense feeling of the natives against the French. Lascie is several hundred miles from here, and beyond the telegraph. The outbreak occurred on May 15th, and the news has just been brought in by a fishing boat. It is quite likely similar affairs have occurred around the north and east coasts, and the northern half of the west coast, where there is no telegraph, but it may be weeks before a chance fishing boat brings the news. It is not likely that France will make a claim for damages. If she does they cannot be maintained, as under the Treaty of Utrecht the French fishermen are not permitted to have permanent structures on the strand, and must take away their boats, etc., when they go at the end of the season. For years they have been in the habit of leaving their boats in the care of the Newfoundlanders during the winter. It is probable that the British war ship Emerald heard of the affair at Lascie and proceeded there. She left here two weeks ago for Port Saunders, on the north coast, to meet the French man-of-war LePerouse.

A Glove Fight.

NEW YORK, June 17.—Paddy McBride of Philadelphia, and Jimmy Lynch, of this city, met in a skin tight glove fight to a finish this morning at Oak Point, Long Island Sound, and one of the most desperate contests in the ring in this vicinity for many years was witnessed by over 2,000 enthusiastic spectators. The battle was for $1,000 stake money and a purse of $500 procured from the sale of tickets at ten dollars each. Oak Point, the scene of the contest, was reached about midnight after a pleasant sail by the steamer. The ring was pitched in the dancing pavilion and large lamps with reflectors gave plenty of light for the combatants to see the mark. Jack McAuliffe, the lightweight champion, Jack Quinn, the Scotch athlete, Esquire Lynch and Denny Corrigan kept the time. McBride was attended by Jack Fogarty, who gave "Nonpareil" Dempsey such a hard battle; Dick McGrath held the watch for him. Both contestants wore blue fighting trunks and canvas shoes, and were in the pink of condition at the call of time. McBride from the outset was handicapped with a sprained arm, but fought rather than forfeit. In the first round Lynch clearly showed that he was a far more scientific man than his adversary. He landed repeatedly upon McBride without return. McBride took his punishment like a Spartan, but did not seem able to deliver any blows with his left. Lynch, up to the twelfth round, clearly overmatched his adversary, who defended entirely on his right, but could get no opportunity to use it on acount of Lynch's shifty tactics. In the second round Lynch landed a terrible left handed swinging blow on McBride's eye which he visited again and again, finally closing it completely. P. McBride made a desperate rally after being receiver general in the twelfth round, and landed a hot one on Lynch knocking him almost over the ropes. Notwithstanding this the betting which had always been in Lynch's favor still stood two to one. The 13th, 14th and 15th rounds were fast and furious, each contestant trying to land a right hand swinging blow on the point of the jaw. McBride was very weak from loss of blood, but his indomitable pluck and gameness won him many friends. The 16th round was very tame, both separating for a final effort in the next. In the 17th round the men fought like tigers, and it was either man's chance to get in a knock-out blow. McBride, when he went to his corner, looked like a butchered bullock. In the 18th and last round, after a terrific rally, Lynch swung his right on McBride's jaw, sending the latter through the ropes into the crowd. The referee gave his decision to Lynch.

Searching for Gold.

NEW YORK, June 12.—The wrecking steamer Rescue, of the Merrit Wrecking Company, under the command of Capt. Demorest, has sailed for Cape Henlopen to begin operations for the recovery of the British ship of war DeBraak, which was capsized off Delaware in 1798. It is believed that $10,000,000 in Spanish gold is in the hold of the sunken vessel. In 1880 a contract was made by the United States Government with the International Submarine Company, of New Haven, Conn., giving it the exclusive right to search for the treasure. Under this contract the Ocean Wrecking Company, of Philadelphia, which has secured the services of the Merrit Wrecking Company, will carry on the work. In a fortnight several other wrecking vessels will join the Rescue. On May 25th, 1798, the De Braak arrived at Cape Henlopen in company with a captured Spanish vessel called the Snow, whose valuable treasures were secured in Captain Drew's cabin. The object of the De Braak's commander was to obtain water and provisions for his crew, who numbered 213. While casting anchor about a mile from the lighthouse a sudden squall came up and laid her on her beam ends when she immediately filled and went down with the captain and 66 officers, seamen and marines. The rest of the ship's company, including the boatswain, escaped.

The Coming Cricket Match.

The following gentlemen form the team which is to meet the Vancouver cricket team at Queen's Park next Saturday. Messrs. Clinton, Irwin, Coulthard, Malins, Raymond, Ransome, Gifford, Brine, Powers, Newington, Woods, 1st. reserve, Barry, 2nd. reserve, T. O. Townley. Mr. Clinton is trying to make arrangements for a match between the second elevens of the two cities, to take place on the same day. It is quite likely that this desirable arrangement will be consummated. At the present time the Vancouver club is the champion cricket club of the Province, having easily defeated both Westminster and Victoria. And more than that they seem determined to retain their laurels, as it is understood they are faithfully practicing and keeping themselves in grand form. The Westminster cricketers do not seem to be animated by any great fears about their performances on match days, and with the exception of one or two who do turn out regularly to practice, the home cricketers do not seem to care a straw whether they win or not. One thing these gentleman can safely make up their minds to, and that is that they can not win if they do not practice. No stroke of good luck can possibly save them if they go against trained men. A cricket match is something made up of steady gains; it is not the phenomenal scoring of one or two men that goes to win the match, but the harmonious working of the whole team, each adding his fair average to the score. There is the better part of a week before the home team yet and if they really desire to check the Vancouvers in their couquering march, let every man get out and do some honest hard practice. If the high spirit of the race inspires them, the spirit that doggedly determines that it shall not be beaten, our cricketers would not deem it foolish or exaggerated to get out on the crease at 5 o'clock every morning as well as in the evening up to the day of the match.

DONALD DOINGS.

(From the Sentinel.)

A committee has been organized consisting of Messrs. G. Sutherland, Capt. Mathewson, J. C. Steen (treas.,) and F. Calder (sec.,) to arrange for the holding of general sports on Dominion Day, including horse and boat racing, baseball, cricket and other popular amusements. The committee have met with considerable success, and expect to be in a position to offer upwards of $400 in prizes. Some $300 of this amount has already been subscribed, and a successful day is assured.

An Assize Court, the first in two years, was to be held in Donald on Monday, at which Mr. Justice Walkem was expected to preside. The docket was light, the only case of importance being that of Frank Provost, charged with the killing of one LePage, of the Kootenay country. It appears that both parties had been drinking in the hotel, when an altercation arose, the accused striking the deceased on the arm with a billiard cue—it is alleged in self defence. The cue splintered, inflicting a wound upon Le Page's forehead. The wounded man died shortly afterwards and was buried, the wound being thought in no way to have contributed to his death. Provost was subsequently arrested charged with murder. The body was exhumed and a post mortem held, when the medical man gave it as his opinion that the deceased had died from heart disease, the wound not being sufficient to cause death. The accused was thereupon liberated under bonds of $1,000 to appear for trial.

Fatal Accident at Vancouver.

An accident in which one man lost his life, a second was so seriously injured that his recovery is doubtful, and two other men were badly though not dangerously hurt, occurred last evening shortly before 6 o'clock, at the C. P. R. wharf. The hulk, Robert Kerr, is lying alongside the Parthia, loading her with coal for her voyage, and during the day the men had been pretty hard at work. The coal is hoisted out of the hold of the Robert Kerr in a large bucket, which takes half a ton on each trip. The bucket after being filled is hoisted by means of a derrick on the Parthia, and in order to be clear of all impediments reaches a height of about 40 feet before being swung around. When the accident happened it is thought that the hook which is attached to the bucket was not properly fastened and allowed the bucket, in consequence, enough room to turn. Whatever was the cause, the bucket, when at its highest point and just before the derrick was going to swing it on the Parthia, turned and emptied the contents. The men working below were not looking at the time, not expecting anything of the kind, and the coal, in which were many large pieces, came among them. Two of them were struck on the arms and body, and bruised but not stunned or badly hurt. Two others, brothers, Frank and John Pratt, were struck on the head and rendered unconscious. They were at once picked up and taken on board the Parthia where they were laid on some tarpaulin. Dr. Robertson was then sent for and came without delay. It was found on examination that Frank Pratt was the most seriously injured of the two. The blood was pouring from the back of his head caused by fracture of the bone of the skull. His collar bone was also broken and his back badly bruised. The other one was also suffering from a fracture of the skull, the break being near the crown. Both men were placed on an express wagon and taken to the hospital, where they received all the attention possible. A couple of hours later Frank died from his wounds. Till a late hour the other man was living, but little hopes were entertained of saving his life.—News-Advertiser.

There will be a general meeting of the Westminster lacrosse club at Messrs. Mowat & Sloan's office this evening, at 8 o'clock sharp. The business is very important and every member is expected to be present.

Ever Extending.

NEW YORK, June 17.—A special despatch to the Times from Bangor, Me., says that President Van Horne, of the Canadian Pacific, and Sir Geo. The Canadian Pacific Co. will assume full control of the New Brunswick road on July 1st. Frank W. Cram, general manager of the N. B. R. VICTORIA NEWS.

Captain Jacobs Released from Jail after Six Month's Imprisonment.--Large Tourist Traffic Expected this Year. Shipping Movements.

(From Our Own Correspondent.)

VICTORIA, June 17.—Capt. Sol. Jacobs was released from the Provincial gaol today after an incarceration of six months. He was captain of the American sealing schooner Mollie Adams, now the E. B. RESOLUTIONS.

Moved by Ald. Shiles, seconded by Ald. Hoy, that the Mayor and Aldermen Johnson, Shiles, Smither and Hoy be a committee to take the steps necessary to put full information on the question of building a traffic bridge across the Fraser River, before the ratepayers at the earliest possible date. Carried.

Moved by Ald. Hoy, seconded by Ald. Shiles, that the Board of Works be authorized to invite architects to send in plans for the new Mechanics Institute building. The author of the accepted plan to be paid regular rates for his work, which will include superintendence of the building; and $35 to be paid for the second best, and $15 for the third best plan. Carried.

Ald. McPhaden complained that one could not get across the river on a Sunday, and it was impossible to get over the river without great trouble and expense. He thought some accommodation should be provided.

Ald. Sinclair said he had advocated this service before, but the Mayor and Ald. Johnson had objected to it.

Ald. Johnson said he was of the same opinion still and thought if the ferry ran all day Sunday it might be used for trade and the Sabbath day should be observed as far as possible.

His worship the mayor was of the same mind, and said he did not believe in trains or steamboats running on Sunday, and believed men could earn enough in six days to rest all Sunday. The clerk said some owners of water lots had been asking if any of the taxes thereon would be remitted this year. Referred to the Finance committee for report at next meeting.

Ald. Shiles asked if anything had been done about the disputed taxes paid last year to the Government. His worship said nothing had done although Government had promised to look into the matter.

Ald. Johnson thought the City would be able to collect this year's taxes. Referred to the Finance committee.

Ald. Sinclair wanted to know if St. George's street would be carried through to Thorne Road.

Ald. Hoy said the appropriation was too small, but the street would be carried through to the North Arm road.

Council adjourned at 9:30.

Lillooet Gold Mines.

Mr. Andrew C. Lawson's scientific report upon the claims of the Lillooet Hydraulic Mining Company, which are situated on the west bank of the Fraser River, about one mile above the town of Lillooet, well known as the old Dickey Ranche, and consisting of about 320 acres of bench land at an altitude of 250 feet above the river level, will be found very interesting in mining circles. The eastern boundary of the old ranche fronts on the Fraser. Steps are being taken by the company to control a water frontage one mile in extent on the Fraser, and of an average width of over half a mile. It is this block of land which it is proposed to subject to hydraulic mining to recover the gold contained in the gravel of which both the upper benches are composed. Mr. Lawson has carefully examined the location with the object of proving, first, to what extent it is adapted to hydraulic methods of mining. In the early days of placer mining in British Columbia, the ground was occupied by numbers of miners who, by the crude methods at their disposal, were taking out gold from the surface layers of gravel at the rate of $16 per man per day, according to information furnished by Mr. Smith, M.P.P., who resided there at the time, and who has lived there ever since. At the time of the Cariboo excitement in 1862 this ground was suddenly abandoned by the miners, who went north, and white men never returned to the district in any force, but the ground has been mined in a desultory way by Chinamen, who, not having complied with the regulations of the Mining Act, lost their claims. The difficulty of obtaining a supply of water has been a hindrance to more vigorous work. The past history of this location has gone to show that it contains gold in sufficient quantities to repay work of the crudest sort. Mr. Lawson received the assurance of an experienced placer miner who had carefully prospected the locality, that there was "color" in every pan of gravel he had washed. The present company have made two trial pits on the lower bench, one of which represents the removal of about 3,500 cubic yards of gravel yielding $700—equal to an average of twenty cents per cubic yard. There seems to be no doubt as to the auriferous properties of the gravel in paying quantities. It is estimated that this bench contains 60,000,000 cubic yards of gold bearing gravel. This quantity at only ten cents per yard represents $6,000,000. All the conditions of the ground appear from the expert's report to be well adapted for hydraulic mining, the gravel composing the benches being stream-bedded and easily washed down and quite free from cemented conglomerate. And the mine being situated on a powerful stream like the Fraser assists easy development. The company controls six hundred inches of water and any pressure can be obtained up to 600 feet. The above records of the mining expert bears out the testimony of Mr. A. McNaughton, of Quesnelle, Cariboo, who has been for 36 years in the mines, as to the richness of undeveloped gold creeks in the Lillooet District, which he predicts will yet eclipse the past record of the great Cariboo country. The public will await with interest the result of the operations of the Hydraulic Mining Company on the Fraser.—Sentinel.

THE RECOUNT.

THE official recount of the ballots cast at the various polling places in Westminster District took place yesterday, at Brownsville, under direction of Mr. Chas. Warwick, Returning Officer. A number of the candidates were present or represented by their agents, and representatives of the press were also present. Before the recount the total vote stood as follows: Kitchen, 515; Robson, 506; Punch, 486; Sword, 462; Kirkland, 409; Henderson, 346; Herring, 77; Sinclair, 66. After the recount it stood: Robson, 506; Kitchen, 503; Punch, 484; Sword, 461; Kirkland, 420; Henderson, 349; Herring, 81; Sinclair, 62. The only change in the relative positions of the candidates made by the recount, it will be seen, is to put Mr. Robson at the head of the poll, by a majority of 3, whereas the first figures placed Mr. Kitchen at the head of the poll by a majority over Mr. Robson, the next in order, of 9.

This change was brought about by counting out spoiled ballots, of which there were 19 found altogether, and by a strange fatality most of these spoiled ballots had been marked for the Independent candidates. On a mere technicality, therefore, Mr. Robson heads the poll, while it is questionable if, on the same grounds, he might not properly have been placed third on the list, which would have been the case had the total Richmond vote been thrown out, for the reason that the name of Capt. Thompson, the retired candidate, was found to be pencil scored on every ballot. This technical objection, however, the Returning Officer overruled in the case of the Richmond ballots.

Although declared to be at the head of the poll, then, by the official recount, by the actual vote of the electors of the District Mr. Robson is not only not at the head, but in reality not elected; for the recount also showed, what we anticipated, that a majority of the votes cast for Herring and Sinclair would have gone to the Independent ticket, had those gentlemen not been in the field. The returns from the District conclusively show THAT THE ACTUAL MAJORITY OF THE ELECTORS WERE IN FAVOR OF THE INDEPENDENT TICKET, recounts, technicalities, and unpatriotic vote splitting to the contrary notwithstanding.

THE DOMINION ELECTIONS.

THE engrossing subject of the Provincial general elections has cast into the shade almost entirely the Dominion bye-election which has been progressing almost concurrently with the former and more important event. Thursday last was nomination day for the Dominion election, and we are reminded that the election itself is right upon us, as polling will take place on Thursday of the present week, June 19th.

As our readers will all be aware, three candidates are seeking the suffrages of the electors in this election, Messrs. Corbould, Townsend and Ladner. There is not time, neither do we perceive that there is sufficient cause, for going exhaustively into the merits and demerits, records and policies, of the different aspirants for the honor of representing this large and important District in the Dominion House of Commons. As we have already expressed to our WEEKLY readers, so far as platforms or policies are concerned, as exhibited in the addresses of the three candidates, we cannot see that there is any particular choice.

Without any disparagement of any of the three candidates, we submit that there must be a final choice between them on some grounds. On personal grounds, then, viewed from a public standpoint, we think the choice ought to fall upon Mr. Corbould as the most able man of the three, the candidate who has by long odds the best personal address (no small thing in an assembly like the House of Commons of Canada), and who, we should judge, for the reasons we have mentioned, would command more of the respect and attention of the House and the Government than either of his opponents.

An attempt appears to have been put forward to injure Mr. Corbould's cause by means of bogus letters published in the News-Advertiser, of Vancouver, and the Truth, of this city. Both letters referred to are signed "A Workingman." The letters are identical, and were published in the News-Advertiser yesterday morning and in Truth this morning, the object apparently being, in this fraudulent manner, to injure Mr. Corbould with the workingmen in both places.

As to the reference in the letter in question, that Mr. Corbould has not formerly taken an active part in public affairs, the objection is a very threadbare and nonsensical one, when it comes to be examined. The same objection was attempted to be used against Mr. Brown in the recent City election, and everyone is aware how little came of it. Every man has to begin some time if he is to enter upon any course or enterprise. But to entertain the objection for a moment, for purposes of comparison, Mr. Corbould certainly occupies a position practically of equality with Mr. Townsend in this respect, and certainly no magnificent results have characterized Mr. Ladner's public career.

As to the assertion of the letter that Mr. Corbould has never taken "even an "ordinary citizen's interest" in the progress of the City or District, or "looked to the people's welfare where "it did not redound directly to his "pockets," we think his disinterested and public spirited labors on behalf of the Royal Columbian Hospital establishment in this City is a sufficient contradiction. Not a small share of credit is due to him, we are in a position to state, for the very satisfactory footing upon which that lately moribund, but necessary and beneficent, institution has been placed.

We do not wish to impose our opinion upon the electors, nor to disparage in the slightest either of the other two candidates, but we honestly believe that Mr. Corbould will make the best, the ablest, and the most useful representative for this District in the House of Commons.

THE TROUBLE IN NEWFOUNDLAND.

THE latest phase of the vexed question regarding certain treaties between England and France turns upon the disputed claim of the French to fish for lobsters and can them for exportation as preserved food "in the seas and upon "the shores of a great part of Newfound-"land." Mixed up with this is the question whether or no the French have the right to exclude British fishermen from participation in these businesses. There are very few people nowadays in the mother country who are interested sufficiently in "the oldest colony" to know much more concerning it than that it gives its name to a fine breed of dogs. The proverbial ignorance of Englishmen concerning the colonies is most pronounced in regard to this, one of the twelve largest islands in the world. Newfoundland was formerly "a great "naval nursery for England," which country has in time past drawn great wealth from her fisheries.

By the right of discovery Labrador and Newfoundland came into the possession of the British Crown as long ago as in 1497. In the reign of Edward the Sixth was passed the first act dealing with Newfoundland fisheries, and in 1583, on the 5th August, England, in the person of Sir Humphrey Gilbert, first set up rights of government, the subjects of other nations doing homage on the occasion. Nothing particular happened until the Treaty of Utrecht was signed in 1713, "in which is to be "found the roots of the present difficul-"ties." The French had been for some time trading and fishing, and had paid license for that privilege to the British, but William the Third, in his declaration of war, complained that their encroachments had been "like the inva-"sions of an enemy," and gave it plainly to be understood that they enjoyed the advantage of fishing "only by "permission." The Treaty of Utrecht set forth definitely that Newfoundland and the islands adjacent "shall from "this time forward belong of right "wholly to Britain." The thirteenth clause of the treaty, however, permitted the French "to catch fish "and dry them on land," upon a specified part of the coast. The Treaty of Versailes (1783) changed somewhat the coast limits of the French rights, and emphatically guaranteed the protection of the French by the British authorities. The treaty limits within which the French are permitted to fish are from Cape St. John, on the east coast, to Cape Ray, at the southwest end of the island.

The extreme British view of the case claims a concurrent right on their part with the French to the extent of fishing in common with them. The French claim an exclusive right within the limits laid down. The British Government, as far as anybody seems to know, does not seem to have arrived at any opinion at all except this, that the British crown is "the boss, anyhow." The French fishing actually does not amount to very much now, but as time has gone on British subjects have fished at stations which the French claimed, but which they seldom or never used. From this has arisen a chronic state of contest. The immediate and present difficulty arises from the passing of a Bait Act by the Newfounland Legislature, preventing the French from purchasing bait from the colonists. The French fisheries within the limits, upon this Act becoming law, received an immediate stimulus for the purpose of securing bait for their Great Bank fisheries. About the same time the British were busy with their lobster canning, the right to pursue which the French contested upon the ground that it interferes with their summer operations.

Such briefly told is the gist of the Newfoundland trouble, which, like diseased blood, is ever "breaking out in "another place." "If," says the London Times, "the altercations about bait and "lobsters should be pacified, others on "fresh subjects would speedily break out. "The final results must be as evident "to Frenchmen as to Englishmen. In "the nature of things it is evident which "will have to succumb, a transient body "of foreign fishermen, or the entire "body of inhabitants, whom the stran-"gers shut out of the improvement of "half their coast." Unfortunately, the dilatory tactics of the mother country are fast driving the colony into the arms of Uncle Sam. It really is time that the British Ministry showed some kind of statesmanship in dealing alike with this and the Behring Sea trouble.

SOME FUEGIAN TRAITS.

Degraded Human Beings Who Are Experts Only in Begging.

When a song was struck up by our own party, I thought the Fuegians would have fallen down with astonishment. With equal surprise they viewed our dancing; but one of the young men, when asked, had no objection to a little waltzing. Little accustomed to Europeans as they appeared to be, yet they knew and dreaded our fire-arms; nothing would tempt them to take a gun in their hands. They begged for knives, calling them by the Spanish word cuchillo. They explained also what they wanted, by acting as if they had a piece of blubber in their mouths, and then pretending to cut instead of tear it.

It was as easy to please as it was difficult to satisfy these savages. Young and old, men and children, never ceased repeating the word yammerschooner, which means "give me." After pointing to almost every object, one after the other, even to the buttons on our coats, and saying their favorite word in as many intonations as possible, they would then use it in a neuter sense, and vacantly repeat yammerschooner. After yammerschoonering for any article very eagerly, they would by a simple artifice point to their young women or little children, as much as to say: "If you will not give it me, surely you will to such as these."—Popular Science Monthly.

—He Understood—"Miss Laura," said the young man softly, "you have never yet called me by my first name. It would seem so much more—more friendly if you would sometimes call me William." "You have a middle name, have you not?" inquired the beautiful girl. "Yes, but I never use it," he replied. "I always write my name William D. Shackelford." "Ah, yes," she murmured. "The D. I dare say, stands for Dennis." Mr. Shackelford did not stay long after that.—Chicago Tribune.

Our citizens are requested to call at the post office for their letters. The boxes are quite obercrowded with today's heavy mail.

Last Saturday's excursion to Harrison Hot Springs is to be repeated a week from next Saturday, and the people can govern themselves accordingly.

The Sons of England have their grand parade and banquet to-morrow evening. A contingent from Vancouver participates and the city band supplies the music.

The city architects will be invited to send in plans and specifications for the new public library, which is to take the place of the ruin now occupying so much valuable space.

The Ladies Auxiliary of the Y. M. C. A. will give a literary entertainment and strawberry festival on Friday evening next. See advertisement. A fine time may be expected.

A lecture on the "Single Tax" will be delivered at Herring's Opera House on Friday evening by Mr. B. H. West, of Victoria. Mayor Brown will occupy the chair. No admission fee will be charged.

There will be some attractions in Westminster on Dominion Day after all. A junior lacrosse match is spoken of, and the return Victoria-Westminster cricket match will be played over that date.

Unless fine weather comes immediately the small fruit crop will be almost entirely ruined. The rain has already played sad havoc with strawberry beds, and the crop will be a complete loss if the wet weather continues.

A committee has been appointed by the City Council to obtain the fullest possible particulars regarding a bridge across the Fraser opposite Westminster, and to lay the same before the ratepayers at the earliest possible date.

Caroline Gage and Harry F. Keene's Company of players, who played a two night's engagement in this city in December last, are going to the Banff Hotel for a six weeks vacation, and on their way east will stop at New Westminster for two nights, playing "Queena" and "Mr. Barnes, of N. Y."

Chipman, Morgan & Co., of Vancouver, shipping, insurance, general commission agents and real estate estate brokers, have opened a branch office in this city. Their local office is in the Bank of B.C. building, and is under the able and efficient management of Mr. Elliott Bell.

Eighty-eight head of cattle were unloaded at the C.P.N. wharf this morning. They came by way of the C.P.R. from the Similkameen ranches, and were in fine condition. Most of them go to Victoria to-morrow. One carload of calves arrived for the city at the same time and proved to be excellent stock.

The Artillery Band held a practice in the drill shed last evening under their able leader, Mr. Watson. The band is soon to be improved by the addition of several of the softer toned instruments, such as the clarionet and euphonium. The organization is at present in a very flourishing condition and great progress is being made in the musical studies.

In our report of the lacrosse match on Saturday, reference to the playing of the artillery band was omitted. The band played selections during the intervals between the games, and the music was very much appreciated, and highly spoken of by the large audience on the field. It seems, at last, as if Westminster is going to have a really good band.

The Dominion candidates' great meeting takes place in the Opera House tomorrow night. The eloquent gentlemen are said to be in fine condition for speaking, and no doubt will delight their audience with a fine discourse. It is unfortunate that the Sons of England, of which Messrs. Townsend and Corbould are members, have their demonstration the same evening. But no doubt the political meeting will be over in time to allow everybody to see the grand show which the Englishmen are going to make.

Messrs. Poingdestre & Co., the enterprising tobacconists, have imported a large mixed order of English goods that ought to make the eyes of smokers sparkle. Among other things received were a lot of fashionable walking-sticks. One of these has been put on exhibition in the window. In the language of Dick Swiveller it is "a crusher and no mistake." If there are any Cantabs or Oxonians in the city it must call up fond recollections of the days when Gown and Town met on anything but terms of brotherly love. In certain parts of the old country this gentle persuader would have been facetiously ticketted, "Very latest thing in election goods."

Grand Lodge Meeting.

The annual meeting of the Grand Lodge A. F. & A. M. of British Columbia, will be held at Vancouver on Thursday, commencing at 3 p. m. There will be a full attendance of grand lodge officers and delegates. During the past twelve months the order has made great progress in this province, has accomplished much good under cover of its secret working, and stands to-day preeminently the foremost and best of all societies in the country. The reports of the Grand Secretary and Grand Treasurer will show that the affairs of the order are in a most flourishing condition.

PERSONAL.

Mrs. J. A. R. Homer is spending a few days at St. Alice Hotel, Harrison Hot Springs.

Capt. and Mrs. Soule, of Vancouver, are among the guests at Harrison Hot Springs.

Mrs. J. C. Armstrong and Miss Laura Lewis have returned from a three weeks visit to the Hot Springs.

Mr. C. J. Sim, of Matsqui, who has been in the city for a few days on a pleasure visit, left for home this afternoon.

Mr, C. B. Sword returned to Matsqui this afternoon. He is not at all dejected over his defeat at the polls, but on the contrary feels highly gratified that so many of his fellow electors honored him with their confidence on the 13th. Mr. Sword is too good a man to be left in private life. At the first by-election he will be forced out again and returned triumphantly at the head of the polls.

Hot Spring Bubbles.

HARRISON HOT SPRINGS, June 16.—The str. Delaware arrived from Westminster on Saturday evening, bringing about 100 excursionists to visit this famous resort. On Sunday the Delaware took a run up to Port Douglas, at the head of the lake. She made the run of 45 miles in two hours and twenty minutes, the fastest time ever made on the lake. About 75 ladies and gentlemen took part in the excursion to Port Douglas.

On Sunday His Lordship Bishop Sillitoe held divine service morning and evening in the pavilion. Both services were largely attended.

The St. Alice is well filled with guests at present, many of these being prominent Americans.

The str. Mountain Belle is ready for action at last. It did seem as if she would not be out until October, but miracles are becoming common here.

Fishing is fair at present; trolling in the lake is first rate.

The water in Harrison Lake is as low at present as it was last August.

The Robertson ranche, located near the Springs, has been purchased by a syndicate and will be cut up into 10-acre plots for fruit growing.

The Flags are Furled.

The Gorrie flags have fluttered their last flutter in the Westminster breeze, and now they are hauled down, folded up and stowed away in the locker of oblivion. Last October Mr. Gorrie sent a lot of flags over from Victoria for use at our exhibition, but he sent a bill for $150 at the same time. The latter act rather staggered our city fathers, much and all as they wanted the flags, and they could not be induced even to look at the gay streamers, so the box, with its contents, was re-shipped to Victoria unopened. Mr. Gorrie had counted on receiving $150 for the use of his flags, and when the box reached him unopened he still determined to obtain that sum. The council refused to pay it, and Mr. Gorrie employed the services of a legal firm to press his claim. Finally ex-mayor Townsend offered on behalf of the city to compromise the matter by paying $40, but this was indignantly refused. The flags flaunted bravely in the breeze, neither side evincing any desire to make any further concessions until a few days ago, when Mayor Brown and the committee appointed to settle the matter came to an understanding with Mr. Gorrie, the latter gentleman agreeing to accept the $40 and be satisfied.

The Official Recount.

The official recount of District votes was made at Brownsville yesterday by Mr. Chas. Warwick, returning officer. Before the recount the total figures for the respective candidates were: Kitchen, 515; Robson, 506; Punch, 486; Sword, 462; Kirkland, 409; Henderson, 346; Herring, 77; Sinclair, 66. The recount changes the figures as follows, by the counting out of 19 spoiled ballots, most of which, unfortunately, were for the Independent candidates: Robson, 506; Kitchen, 503; Punch, 484; Sword, 461; Kirkland, 420; Henderson, 349; Herring, 81; Sinclair, 62. The only material result of the recount, it will be seen, is to place Mr. Robson at the head of the poll by a majority of 3, whereas, technicalities out of the question, Mr. Kitchen headed the poll by 9. There is a nice little techinicality with respect to the entire Richmond vote for the lawyers to decide. The recount showed that every ballot from this polling place had the name of Capt. Thompson, the retired candidate, scored out. The returning officer, however, allowed these ballots to pass, and they were mostly in favor of the Government candidates. The recount showed that the total number of votes cast in the District including the 19 spoiled ones, was 1077, only a little over half the number on the register.

A Prosperous Merchant.

Mr. P. P. Peebles, the popular art furniture manufacturer, is now comfortably settled in his fine new quarters on Douglas street, and has filled his spacious ware rooms with a stock of furniture which he claims is second to to none in the Province. The building occupied by Mr. Peebles is 33x66 and two stories high. The front room down stairs is devoted to finished stock and is the sale room. Here one can find suites of all kinds and prices, from the cheapest bed room outfit to the finest drawing room furniture. Up stairs are the cabinet making, fitting and mattress making departments; all large, commodious, rooms, well fitted and well ventilated. The upholstering department is at the rear of the building on the first floor and has every accommodation for speedy and first class work. In the basement will be stored the lumber, wool and other material of the business, as also the surplus stock, for which there is found to be no room up stairs. Mr. Peebles intends in the course of time to introduce what will be a novelty in this city. This will be a part of the store fixed up as a drawing room, carpetted, and with tiled fire-place, mirrors, pianos and organs, wall and ceiling decorations, and every other ornament and article of luxury usually found in the houses of well-to-do people. Mr. Peebles has also on view at his store a fine lot of handsome engravings. He reports business very good and thinks Douglas street will be a great business thoroughfare before long.

Canada's Pictorial.

The last issue of the Dominion Illustrated is rich both in portraits and in local scenes. The fine view of the Abyssinia, as it arrived at Vancouver, B.C., is seasonable and sure to be appreciated. The portraits of the Newfoundland delegates mark an event which is of historical importance, as the present crisis in the island colony, with which their visit was associated, is certain to be memorable in colonial annals. In the views of the exterior and interior of King's College, Windsor, N.S., we are reminded of the dawn of higher education in what is now the Dominion—King's being the oldest of our universities. The Collingwood scenes are timely and admirable, and the cricket match between Lennoxville and McGill will be prized by younger readers. Altogether a fine number. The next number will be entirely devoted to Victoria—especially in connection with the Royal visit—the representative of the Dominion Illustrated having taken special pains to secure the best possible photographs of the receptions, games, festivities, etc., in that thriving insular capital. It is sure to be of unusual interest to all Canadians. Address: The Dominion Illustrated, 73 St. James street, Montreal.

Lessons in Decorative Art.

Mrs. I. L. Dias is prepared to give lessons, at the Russel House, to a number of pupils, in decorative art, landscape and flower painting, point lace and various kinds of embroidery. Work can be seen at Ogle, Campbell & Freeman's and Jas. Ellard & Co.'s. *t6

Westminster District—It will be seen by the above tabulated statement that Robson (Gov.), KITCHEN (Ind.), and PUNCH (Ind.), are duly elected in Westminster District, and in the order given.

Vancouver City — COTTON and HORNE [Ind.]

Victoria City—Grant, Beaven and Milne [Opp.], and Turner [Gov.]

Nanaimo City—KEITH [Ind.]

Nanaimo District—FOSTER [Ind.] and McKenzie [Opp.]

Victoria District—Eberts and Anderson [Gov.]

Esquimalt — Higgins and Pooley [Gov.]

Cowichan—Davie and Croft [Gov.]

Comox—Hunter [Gov.]

Alberni—Either Mollett or Fletcher (both Gov.).

Gulf Islands—Booth (Gov.).

Lillooet—Stoddart and Smith (Gov.). Stoddart was first supposed to be Opposition, but the Colonist now claims him as Government.

Yale—Vernon and Martin (Gov.), and Semlin (Opp.).

Cariboo—Mason, Rogers and Robson (Gov.).

East Kootenay—Returns not complete, but KELLIE (Ind.) almost certain to be elected from the present outlook.

West Kootenay—Returns not complete, but LAW (Ind) almost certain to be returned.

Cassiar—Election has not yet taken place, but Cunningham (Opp.) very likely to be returned.

Should East and West Kootenay go Independent, which it is expected the full returns, to be received in two or three days, will show, and Cassiar return an Oppositionist, as it has in the past, the relative strength of the three parties in the next Provincial Parliament will be: Government, 18; Opposition, 6; Independents, 9. After deducting the Speaker from the Government side of the House, it will be seen that the Government will just have a majority of two over the combined Oppositionists and Independents, which cannot be called a working majority, so that the Independents will actually hold the balance of power.

COLUMBIAN SUPPLEMENT.

VOLUME VIII. NEW WESTMINSTER, B. C., JUNE 17, 1890. NUMBER 115.

Parliamentary Election, 1890

To the Electors of New Westminster District:

GENTLEMEN:—Having been requested by a large number of electors of this District to offer myself as a candidate to represent you in the House of Commons, to which request I have much pleasure in complying, I beg to state that should you do me the honor to elect me as your representative whilst giving the present Government my free and independent support, I would do my utmost to favor the following amongst the many measures that I consider would be beneficial to the interests of this Province and the Dominion at large.

To urge the further improvements of the navigation of the Fraser and other rivers, the protection of their banks, the improvement of any harbors in this District, and the construction of canals where necessary for the purpose of allowing farmers and others every facility to reach market.

To encourage agriculture by protecting all such articles as can be produced in this Province, and to lower duties on all that cannot, and which are absolutely the necessaries of life, and increase the tariff on luxuries so that the consumer would be even taxed less than at present.

To increase the representation in proportion to the wealth and importance of this District.

To increase and have adequate mail service to all portions of the Province and free letter delivery in cities.

No diminution in the Chinese Restriction Act.

To have the Fishing Regulations amended to meet the requirements of this Province.

To have a Dry-Dock constructed at some suitable point on the Mainland to meet the growing demands of this District.

To urge the exchange of Lands in Peace River for the Lands in the Railway Belt;

And that Mining Machinery be admitted free of duty until such is manufactured in the Dominion.

To appoint efficient Immigration agents in all important localities.

To urge the Dominion Government to contribute to make Roads and Bridges through Dominion lands.

To urge immediate aid in any measure to prevent the overflowing of Dominion lands in this Province and to reclaim those subject to inundation.

Having been a resident of this District for over twenty years and knowing its requirements, I should be in a position to advocate your interests, and also my having had the honor to be your representative for the last four years in the Provincial Legislature would place me in a position of knowing something of Legislative routine.

I hope to visit each polling station during the canvass and more fully explain my views on the various topics of the day, which would be impossible to do in a short address.

I have the honor to be,

Gentlemen,

Your obedient servant,

dwmy13tc WM. H. LADNER.

TO THE ELECTORS
—OF—
New Westminster District.

GENTLEMEN:—As I have already announced, I beg to offer myself as a candidate for the seat in the Commons made vacant by the death of our late member, and I come before you as a supporter of the Government of Sir John Macdonald, reserving to myself, of course, the right to act independently should the action of the Government in any matter seem prejudical to our interests.

I would strongly urge immediate attention to the improvement of the River where required, for the protection of the rich agricultural lands of the District, and if elected, I shall at once proceed to Ottawa and leave no stone unturned to secure the immediate appointment of a competent engineer with a view to the prompt undertaking of this most important work.

As you are aware, the duty on certain kinds of mining machinery has been remitted in this Province as a special concession to British Columbia on account of the special conditions obtaining here. I would strongly urge the further application of this principle of special tariff arrangements, so as to relieve consumers of goods which must be imported, while preserving the protection of our agricultural and other interests.

The land laws of the Dominion, having been framed without close consideration of our requirements, are in many points unsuitable, for example in the conditions as to clearing. I would endeavor to secure immediate reform in this important matter.

Subsidies having been granted to railways in the various Provinces of the Dominion, I should urgently present the claims to similar assistance of railways within our own Province.

Should the City of New Westminster decide to build a bridge across the Fraser, I should use my best endeavors to obtain a substantial subsidy for the work, urging that an undertaking of this character should rank with canals and railways as one entitled to national aid.

The next census will undoubtedly show such an increase in the wealth and population of this District as will constitute an undeniable claim to increased representation in the Commons. That claim, if elected, I shall support to the utmost of my ability.

Although, with the growth of the District, the mail service has been improved and extended, it still lags far behind our requirements. I should give special attention to this part of your representative's work, feeling that it is one which is of vital importance.

I should urge the enactment of such fishery regulations, especially in the issuing of licences, as would, without any injustice to the canneries, the importance of which to the prosperity of the District all must recognize, fully protect the free fishermen, and encourage the settlement amongst us of the greatest possible number of that industrious and hardy class of men.

All enactments and regulations for the protection of white labor would receive my hearty support.

Continued work towards the improvement of the harbors of New Westminster and Vancouver, and the efficient lighting and buoying of the same, is a matter which would have my closest attention at all times.

In a word, I should constantly urge upon the Government the wisdom of a liberal policy in public works in this District, the vast resources of which make it certain that such a policy would be amply justified by results.

Trusting to have the opportunity of seeing every elector before polling day,

I am, Gentlemen,

Very sincerely yours,

dwmy14tc GORDON E. CORBOULD.

By Private Sale.---Bargains.

I HAVE RECEIVED INSTRUCTIONS FROM Mrs. A. M. JOHNSTONE, of Mud Bay, to dispose of her Homestead, which consists of 272 acres of Land, good Dwelling House, excellent Barn and Stabling for 40 head of stock, good Dairy and an abundance of Spring Water.

The property is situated on the sunny side of Mud Bay, the land is second to none anywhere, and parties wanting an investment for their capital cannot do better than take a look at this before investing elsewhere.

Stock and implements can go with Ranch if desired.

TERMS--One-third cash; balance to suit purchaser, at 8 per cent. per annum.

ALSO FOR SALE—THE FOLLOWING:

The West Fractional Half of Section 29, Mud Bay, bounded by the Nicomekl River and the Sea—108 acres.

184 acres, adjoining Sections 16 and 25, Township 4, very near N. W. City.

The North-West corner of Section 68, adjoining the Hastings Townsite—54 acres.

The North-West ¼ of Section XI., Township 2, 160 acres, all first-class land, 10 acres improved and sown to timothy pasture. Log house. Good creek runs along line of property, also the Johnstone Road. This is an excellent ranch.

Lot 261, Group I., Pitt Meadows; 80 acres prairie; 70 acres high brush land. Half of the prairie can be ploughed, and is all hard land. 2 miles from Railway Station.

Stave River Stock and Dairy Ranch. This Ranch consists of 387 acres of land, being Sections 433 and 437, Townships 14 and 15.

This property is situated on the Stave River with a frontage on the Fraser River, at which point the C. P. R. Road passes through property. There is one large 2-storey Frame Dwelling House, hard finished, nearly new, worth $1,500. This is elegantly situated on rising ground and commands a view of the C. P. R., the Fraser River and the surrounding neighborhood. The greater part of the land is Prairie, subject to overflow, a good deal of the high land has been improved and fenced, and there are a large number of young Fruit Trees and the usual Out Buildings in the way of Barns, &c. There is excellent Trout Fishing and Hunting on premises and any party or Company seeking a Stock Farm or Dairy Ranch could not be better situated. Coal croppings of unusual promise have been discovered on the Property. This is to be secured at a bargain, and further particulars can be had of the undersigned or of Mr. Clement Stickney at Wharnock Station, who will show any intending purchaser over the same.

For further particulars apply to

T. J. TRAPP,
New West.
