ELECTION CARD.

To the Electors of New Westminster City and District.

GENTLEMEN:—At the urgent request of a large number of the Electors of the above Districts, I have consented to become a Candidate, and request your support and patronage.

My political banner is uplifted, and on it will be seen, printed in gold letters, "Straw Hats—good coverings for massive craniums; Men's Fancy Flannel Shirts; Balbriggan Underclothing; Summer Coats and Vests; Linen Dusters; Pique and Fancy Vests; White and Black Plug Hats;" all of which are very suitable wear for the present political campaign, which is liable to be very warm and close. (An endless variety of Men's and Boys' Suits, Felt Hats, etc.)

Electors, rally around this standard, and down with monopolists and—high prices.

I am perfectly sure I can give you better value for your money than any other candidate in the field.

Yours respectfully,

J. E. PHILLIPS,

Columbia St., New Westminster.

THE DUELLO.

An Exciting Revival of the Code by Two Kentucky Drummers.---Revolvers at Twenty Paces.

Sir J. Macdonald, Sir J. Pauncefort and Secretary Blaine Want Rowland, the Murderer, Pardoned.

The San Francisco Chronicle Cunningly Advocates Union Between Canada and the U. S.

Sublimely Ridiculous.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., June 2.—At 10:45 last night St. Louis cemetery, a place notorious for being dark and gloomy, was the scene of the first duel fought in Kentucky for many long years. The parties to the affair of honor were Thos. Overby, an advertising agent, who has been here only a few months, and Chas. Sanders, a travelling man for an Evansville clothing house. Sanders is engaged to be married to Miss Emma Sellar, a handsome young lady of Evansville, who is now visiting this city. Upon coming to see the young lady, Sanders discovered that Overby had supplanted him in her affections. A quarrel was followed by a fight in which Sanders was beaten. The men afterwards met at the Alexander Hotel and resumed the quarrel and finally decided to settle the affair according to code. Overby was represented by Frank Luttrel, a young man who lives in Indianapolis, while a travelling man from Cincinnati named Harvey Thomas acted as second for Sanders, accompanied by a medical student named James White, who acted as surgeon, and a reporter of the Courier Journal. The party secured a carriage and drove to St. Louis cemetery in the suburbs. The principals took position armed with 32 calibre Smith & Wesson revolvers, twenty paces apart. It was too dark to see the men plainly except at a short distance, but they both displayed great coolness. The seconds took their respective positions, after arranging that the firing should begin when the numbers one, two, three, had been counted. As the last number was called by the physician, who did the counting, a blaze of fire flashed from the muzzles of both pistols, and before one could see whether or not either man was wounded, four more reports rang out and Sanders staggered up to a tombstone near him and supported himself. Dr. White hastily examined him and found that one bullet had penetrated the right breast near the top of the shoulder, while another had made a slight flesh wound in the left arm; he had fired two shots while Overby had fired three. The man's wounds were dressed as quickly as possible and he was placed in the carriage and taken to New Albany, Ind., where he took the first train for his home in Evansville. The other participants in the affair all left the city. Sanders' wounds are not considered fatal.

A Sad Affair.

GLOBE, June 2.—A distressing accident happened at Wheatfields, twelve miles north of Globe, shortly after noon yesterday, resulting in the death of Jerry Ryan, sheriff of Gila County, and Miss Mary Frush. They were members of a picnicking party from Globe. Miss Frush and Addison Simmonds went boating on the Lake in a frail craft which capsized. Sheriff Ryan and W. Middleton went to the rescue and Ryan reached Miss Frush, but got entangled in the weeds and both were drowned. Middleton tried hard to save them, but was himself pulled under, and reached shore exhausted. Simmonds clung to the boat until rescued. The bodies were recovered after being in the water half an hour and were brought to Globe. Ryan is the third sheriff of Gila county who has met death while in office.

The Aftermath.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 2.—The funerals of Mrs. Bryan O'Connor, Martin Kelly and the Kearns sisters, all victims of the railroad accident at Oakland on Friday last, took place this morning and were largely attended.

Among the Heathen.

PROVIDENCE, R. I., June 2.—The first day of the enforcement of the Sunday law, resulted in the closing yesterday of all baker shops, groceries, meat shops, news and cigar stands.

Portland Wins.

PORTLAND, Or., June 2.—The baseball match—Spokanes vs. Portlands resulted in a score of 7 to 6 in favor of the Portlands.

Arctic Encroachments.

NEW YORK, June 2.—The schooner Hindoo, which arrived to-day from Hull, reports that on May 27 in lat. 40.50 mins., and long. 50, 28, she passed an iceberg 170 feet high and about 150 feet long. This berg is in a lower latitude than any heretofore reported; it is south of what is given by hydrographic officers as a safe steamer route on the last pilot chart. An idea of how far south ice in the north Atlantic extends can be gleaned by considering that this great mass of ice was in about the latitude of New York.

The Press and Citizens are Right.

HELENA, Mont., June, 2.—The Board of Pardons has refused to endorse Governor Toole's pardon for John A. Rowland. Rowland, who is a member of a distinguished Quebec family came to Butte six years ago. In April, 1888, while engaged in a drunken row in a saloon with the barkeeper, he fired at him and killed Joseph Bussiere, a bystander; Rowland was tried for the murder, convicted and sentenced to the penitentiary for life. Sir John A. Macdonald of Quebec and Sir Julian Pauncefort the British minister have been active in securing pardon for him and Secretary Blaine asked for pardon as an act of international courtesy. The press and citizens of Butte vigorously opposed this because is was a most brutal murder. It is said the case will now be carried to President Harrison.

A Great Siberian Railway.

NEW YORK, June 2.—The World's cable from St. Petersburg says: General Butterfield has been in St. Petersburg for some days. He is acting as the representative of a syndicate of American capitalists who wish to enter into negotiations with the Russian government in regard to the building of a great Siberian railroad from European Russia to the Pacific ocean. General Butterfield has had several interviews with General Annenkoff, builder of the trans-Asiatic road which now runs beyond Merv and though the press and many officials are opposed to the idea of a road being built by foreign capital the Czar himself is said to be favorable to it. Annenkoff is soon to visit Paris and it is said that he will also go to the United States on a mission connected with the projected railroad. The English newspapers are at present engaged in pooh pohing the scheme, but there is no doubt that if the railroad is once built across from the Oural mountains to the Pacific the development and prosperity of Siberia and Northern Central Asia will be immensely advanced.

Beg to be Excused.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 2.—The Chronicle this morning commenting on a despatch from Ottawa stating that in view of the large amount of smuggling along the frontier from Montana and North Dakota and the quantity of timber stolen form the forests of Manitoba, the Canadian Government has ordered the whole frontier from the Rocky Mountains to Manitoba to be patrolled by mounted police, of whom 800 will be detailed, and that these patrols will also prevent Canadian Indians from crossing into the United States on horse-stealing expeditions, says: "This will be a pretty expensive force for Canada to maintain, and when winter comes it will be next to impossible for them to do their duty. Probably the maintenance of this frontier patrol may operate to hasten the union of Canada and the United States. The Canadians ought to be able in a short time to see the supreme folly of keeping a little army of mounted men on the frontier when, by the simplest of all methods the frontier might be obliterated and both countries be under one flag and one government."

That Wag Wiggins.

OTTAWA, May 31.—Prof. Wiggins says Italy may be shaken to its very centre by an earthquake during the present summer. The earthquake in Armenia three days ago was caused, he says, by the same force that shook up Queen Charlotte Island. The planets are in nearly the same position as they were in A. D. 79, when Pompeii was overwhelmed by ashes and lava from Vesuvius.

Murderous Cobbler.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 31.—Jas. Hynes, a shoemaker, attempted to kill John Donohue in the latter's butcher shop last night; Hynes cut through Donohue's coat, vest and undercothing with a shoemaker's knife.

Unknown.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 31.—An unknown man was brought to the hospital last night. He died later in the night. The only clue to his identity was some letters found on his person, addressed to Michael Morse.

The Death of Heroes.

FORT WORTH, Texas, May 31.—Up to noon only two deaths had resulted from last night's fire. The deaths were caused by the jumping of men from the windows at Spring Palace after they had saved many women and children.

Governor of Alabama.

MONTGOMERY, Ala., May 31.—Shortly before noon to-day, Jones, of Montgomery, was nominated for Governor on the thirty-fourth. All the anti-Kolb men united on him.

Jumped Off a Moving Train.

LAPEER, Mich., May 31.—Two brothers named Raymond, living at Attica, were found dead beside the Chicago and Grand Trunk track at that place this morning. Both were terribly mutilated. It is supposed that they got on the train at Imlay City last night, and as it did not stop at Attica, they jumped off there.

The Engineer Safe.

ELDER CREEK, Cal., May 31.—Sam Dunn, the engineer of the train wrecked at Oakland yesterday, lives here with his family. It is reported that he was not hurt. He is said to be in San Francisco.

Slaughter of Railroad Men.

WASHINGTON, May 31.—The national convention of state railroad commissioners met to-day. Chairman Cooley, of the interstate commerce commission, presided. The report of the committee on legislation said the lack of uniformity in railway legislation was due first to the want of harmony between congress and the state legislatures; second, to want of harmony in the legislation of the different states. The report recommended that the main features of the interstate commerce law be made part of the laws of the different states, and that laws be enacted by congress securing uniformity in the various details of railroad equipment and management, with a view to greater safety. A public statement compiled by the interstate commerce commission showed that during the year ending June 30, 1889, there were killed on the railroads of the United States 5,823 people and 26,309 injured. Of the number killed, 1,972 were employees, 310 passengers and 3,541 denominated "other persons;" of the injured, 20,028 were employees, 2,146 passengers and 4,135 other persons. The number of railroad employees in the United States was given as 704,736.

Supplies for the Indians.

WASHINGTON, May 31.—The government is just now letting its contracts for supplies for Indians on the reservations for the coming year. It is a big job, involving the expenditure of many millions of dollars. Large sums are, of course, to be expended at the Indian schools of the various places throughout the east, and in some instances the material purchased is in open market, but the greater proportion of the cost goes for supplies, rations, agricultural implements, blankets and the like, for the reservations. After two or three days devoted to the examination of bids, the contracts were to-day awarded for the beef, which under the law and treaties is to be divided among the Indians in the coming year. The total gross quantity purchased is 34,505,000 pounds, at an aggregate cost of $880,631, for the rate of $2.57½ per 100 lbs. on the hoof. This is an increase over the average price of last year by 8½ per cent. The increase is due not to the high price in the market for beef on the hoof, but to the additional condition imposed on purchasers by the government in an effort to protect the Indian from getting swindled out of a part of his treaty rights.

The Oakland Smash-Up.

OAKLAND, Cal., May 31.—The first report heard this morning was that 3 more bodies had been recovered from the estuary, but the morgue officers promptly announced that there was no truth in the story. Mingled with the comment, to-day there is a good deal of criticism of the company, and it is said that it should maintain a better warning signal than a simple red flag, and that a similar accident nearly happened a while ago because the wind blew the flag in such a direction that the engineer could see only the stick and not the flag. The engineer and firemen have not yet been found, but there seems to be some cause to believe the charge that the engineer was drunk is true. Many railroad train men contradict the statement that Engineer Dunn was a drinking man. He had been an engineer for years and was considered an experienced employee. The opinion that seems to be generally held by railroad men is that Dunn saw that the bridge was open and was quite well aware of the danger, but calculated that the draw would be closed by the time he got there. It seems that engineers have been in the habit of doing this, only they calculated their speed and distance better than Dunn did.

CORRESPONDENCE.

SYMPATHIZING AND POLITE.

EDITOR COLUMBIAN—Sir: We wish to say a few sympathizing words to our friend who got left one morning in coming to Westminster on the Fairy Queen. We feel sorry for him; he needs sympathy, for he felt badly. He says the people are restricted by water as well as by land, and wished the captain of the Fairy Queen to inform him on what days he intended running between the North Arm and Westminster. The captain of the Fairy Queen takes great pleasure in informing his friend that he will, as usual, run daily trips (Sundays excepted) between the North Arm and Westminster. Also some Saturdays our friend may come up to Westminster twice, should we feel so disposed, as we frequently make two trips on that day, that is providing he gets around in time and keeps wide awake, as we feel our friend is much in need of doing.

Kindly thanking you, Mr. Editor, for your very valuable space,

I remain,

C. S. YOUNG,

Captain of Steamer Fairy Queen.

The Princess Louise.

The str. Princess Louise arrived this morning from Victoria with a heavy cargo of general merchandise and the following passengers: Mr. and Mrs. T. F. Kirkland, Mr. and Miss Sotherby, M. Antoine. The Louise is on in place of the Yosemite, which has been chartered to take the Indian excursion from Vancouver to Sechelt and return.

The Spring Docket.

The docket for the spring assize which begins on Wednesday next is as follows:

Regina vs. Sam, Jim, Annie, Crazy Annie, Indians, for the murder of Sunbury at Vancouver; defended by Messrs. McFee & Blake.

Regina vs. Lakinitze, for murder at Cape Mudge; defended by A. E. Beck.

Regina vs. Wilson, for larceny at Vancouver; undefended.

Regina vs. Bradley, for prison breach; undefended.

Alex. Houston, murder, undefended.

In all the cases Mr. A. St. G. Hammersley will act for the crown.

The Sunbury murder case will come before Chief Justice McCreight while the others in the docket will come before Chief Justice Sir M. B. Begbie, who will arrive from Victoria on Wednesday morning.

COUNTY COURT.

The County Court, which will be held to-morrow morning, has the following cases on the list: Johnson vs. Corporation of Surrey, Spring vs. Alexander et al, two suits; Atkinson vs. Feller, Freeman & Co., Kong Tee Chung vs. Sinclair, Wise vs. Cunningham, Andrews vs. Leamy, Harling vs. Tiernay, Bole vs. Gibson et al, Walworth vs. Gordon, Morton vs. Lemon & Bradshaw, Lee Coy vs. Rasure, Shadwell vs. D. The majority of the cases have been settled out of court.

Westminster Rowing Club.

The meeting of the Westminster Rowing Club on Saturday night in the City Hall was not, as far as numbers go, a success. About twelve boating enthusiasts occupied the vacant chairs of the worthy aldermen, and the adjacent benches, and Mayor Brown kindly consented to act as chairman. Mr. L. P. Eckstein, secretary of the Club, read the report of the committee appointed to enquire regarding prices of boats and probable expenditures, also a number of communications from City boat-builders and the captains of clubs in the neighboring cities. Mr. F. G. Walker, who was present, said from appearances it seemed as if the club were being got up for the purpose of buying a boat and boat-house for four oarsmen to practice racing, and he did not think the public of Westminster would support an institution of that kind. There ought to be a considerable number of pleasure boats for the ordinary members of the club, besides the racing craft for those who were training for races. He did not think it possible to start and maintain a boating club in this city under any other conditions. People were not going to pay their money merely to see four oarsmen practicing in a shell; they wanted to row themselves and get some exercise, recreation and general benefit out of the club. The chairman was also of opinion that the club would have to be popularised by the addition of a number of pleasure boats before it could be made to pay its own way. Mr. C. E. Townley explained that there never had been any intention to do anything else; the racing part of the club would be an adjunct and was a usual feature in all rowing clubs, and although it might appear to be a little expensive at first would be of great benefit to the club in every way. Westminster should be represented on the water and at the provincial regattas by bona fide amateur oarsmen. The celebrity which the four would bring upon the club would serve to popularise it and induce people to join who would have nothing to do with a mere boating institution. Other gentlemen argued on the same line. Mr. Eckstein proposed appointing a committee to go around and solicit subscriptions from the citizens. A committee was accordingly appointed as follows: Messrs. Port, Sloan, Thompson, McKenzie and Clinton. The chairman proposed that the committee should make the terms fifty cents entrance fee and $10 per annum; the fifty cents to be paid at once and the $10 at some future time. With 50 subscribers the chairman thought this would put the club on a paying basis at once. This proposition was objected to on the ground that many would be ready enough to pay the fifty cents, but when it came to the $10 it would be another thing. The committee will, however, interview the public and lay before them a well-matured scheme that will no doubt meet with the public's approval. The meeting dispersed shortly after nine o'clock to meet again this week.

He Cannot Complain.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 2.—A. S. Mendoza, the young barber convicted of manslaughter for killing his wife because she left him to lead a dissolute life, was this morning sentenced to 8 years in state prison at hard labor.

PERSONAL.

Mr. R. Tuthell, of Toronto, is stopping at the Colonial.

Mr. J. A. Black, of San Francisco, is a guest at the Colonial.

Mr. and Mrs. T. F. Sinclair, of Victoria, are in the city.

Mr. L. Guichon, of Guichon's Landing, was in the city to-day.

Mr. A. W. Vowell, of Victoria is registered at the Colonial.

Mr. and Mrs. Sotherby came up to-day on the Louise and are visiting friends in the city.

Mrs. T. R. McInnes returned from Vancouver this afternoon by the 2:30 o'clock train.

Judge Drake, accompanied by his lady came up from the capital this morning on the Louise.

Messrs. Rawlingson and Green, two prosperous Langley farmers, are registered at the Queen's.

Mr. W. H. Ladner returned from the landing this morning and seems full of business of a political kind.

Mr. John Kirkland took a run up to-day. He is looking well and ready for the political fray next week.

Mr. T. H. Miller, of Detroit, Mich., is in the Province on a business and pleasure trip and is at present in this city.

Mr. John S. Clute, jr., who has been ill for some time, is progressing very favorably, though still confined to his room.

Mr. Delaware Shiles, son of Alderman Shiles, returned home yesterday after several months absence in the eastern states.

Mr. C. Warwick, the Government agent, has gone up the line as far as Agassiz, to arrange election matters. He returns on Wednesday.

The Rev. Mr. Schofield went up to Chilliwack on Saturday last to act as substitute for the Rev. Baugh-Allen who is lying seriously ill with typhoid fever.

Mr. J. H. Mackenzie, of Toronto, brother to Mr. W. G. Mackenzie, of this city, arrived to-day by the Pacific express and is registered at the Colonial.

Mr. F. R. Glover, city editor of THE COLUMBIAN, went up to Chilliwack this morning, in company with the District candidates and will accompany them on their election tour round the District.

POLITICAL NOTES.

The candidates nominated in Esquimalt are Hans Helgesen, C. E. Pooley and D. W. Higgins. Mr. Helgesen, the Opposition candidate, has excellent prospects for election. The farmers and resident electors will give him a generous support. The voter's list contains the names of about 150 absentees and dead men, and it is difficult to form an estimate of the voting strength of the several candidates; but this fact is generally admitted, Mr. Higgins' former majority is at present absent from the country. They were railway and dry-dock employees.—Times of Saturday.

All of the District candidates, with the exception of Hon. John Robson, that is, eight of them, to wit, Messrs. Kitchen, Punch, Sword, Kirkland, Henderson, Capt. Thompson, Herring and Sinclair, left this morning, from this city and various places along the river, for Chilliwack, their first place of rendezvous on their ten days' tour of the District. A public meeting was to be held at Centreville on the arrival of the steamer there, and another meeting at Sumas this evening at 8 o'clock. A special correspondent of THE COLUMBIAN accompanies the expedition so that our readers will be kept informed of its progress and doings.

By a special notice in the local columns it will be seen that Mr. Brown's big meeting will take place to-morrow (Tuesday) evening, in the Opera House. Mr. Cunningham is invited to be present, and will, of course, have an opportunity to speak after Mr. Brown. This will be Mr. Brown's first opportunity to address a meeting of his own since the opening of the campaign. He may, therefore be expected to touch upon all the principal phases of the provincial political situation. Politics is the engrossing subject just now, and an overflowing meeting may be expected.

Mayor Brown's canvass is progressing most favorably. It is only a question of rolling up a good rousing majority, and this object is of sufficient importance to stimulate everyone who is on the right side to the most enthusiastic efforts.

One of the busiest men in the city at the present time is Mr. W. B. Townsend; he is leaving no stone unturned that may do any good at election time.

Mr. Marshall Sinclair's tall graceful figure may be noted at all hours of the day in all parts of the city holding earnest converse with men of all shades of opinion. His theme just now is politics and plenty of it.

Hon. John Robson, according to the World, went over to Victoria by the Islander on Saturday afternoon, and intends to return this week and hold meetings throughout the district.

The Mission of the Bear.

The Port Townsend Leader says: The revenue cutter Rush, which is now in San Francisco, will leave that city in a few days for the Behring's Sea. She will be relieved at Ounalaska by the Bear between the second and tenth of September. She will then proceed to Sitka, as she has done in the past, to be present at the trial of such illegal sealers as may have been captured during the season. Notwithstanding published reports, opinions are freely advanced along the water front that the first instructions received by the Bear are to be the vessel's final ones, despite the despatches published from Washington. When the Bear left San Francisco it was for Ounalaska, her orders being to proceed from there to Behring's Sea through the Arctic ocean. She has on board supplies and building material for the whaling station to be established at Point Barrow. Her business has always been to look after the whalers, and should she be withdrawn from the Arctic there would be no protection for the whaling fleet. The Bear is still at Seattle.

"The City of Seattle."

The New York Times of May 14 says: The new iron steamship City of Seattle, built for the Puget Sound and Alaska Steamship Company, was launched yesterday at Neafie & Deavy's shipyard, Philadelphia. The new vessel is constructed of steel, 275 feet in length, 40 feet beam and 17 feet in the hold. She registers 1,500 tons. There are three decks, the two upper ones being built of wood. The vessel has a large freight capacity, besides accommodations for 250 passengers. The passenger saloon is on the second deck and is 150 feet long, with staterooms on both sides. The dining-room, which will be situated on the main deck aft, will be finished in hard wood, with nickel mountings. The vessel will carry all the modern improvements and appliances of ocean vessels, including electric lights. She will be supplied with a compound engine, 32 and 60 inches, with 3 feet stroke. There will be two steel boilers, each 13½ feet in diameter by 13 feet long, carrying 145 pounds of steam, and she will have a speed of twenty miles an hour. She will be fully completed by the 1st of August, when she will take her departure on a 16,000-mile voyage to Seattle.

THE DAILY COLUMBIAN

MONDAY EVENING, JUNE 2, 1890.

SATAN PLAYING CENSOR.

THE Vancouver World, which we have caught and exposed in deliberate and wicked attempts at misrepresentation since the opening of the present campaign, endeavors to retaliate in a feeble lic way in its issue of Saturday, by laying two charges against this paper. The first is that THE COLUMBIAN did not give a sufficiently full or particular report of the Premier's speech at Brownsville on nomination day. The second is that THE COLUMBIAN had copied an item from the News-Advertiser last week, to the effect that Hon. John Robson had paid a visit to Alderman Horne's committee rooms on Wednesday last, but that we had not copied the paragraph in the World contradicting the New's statement.

We shall have not the slightest trouble in refuting both of the World's unjust imputations that THE COLUMBIAN has resorted to unfairness in the instances mentioned, and casting the same in its teeth. In the first place, our Vancouver cotemporary is probably comparing our report of Hon. Mr. Robson's hustings speech with its own, but the World will note that our report of the nomination speeches was published on the evening (Friday) of the same afternoon on which the nominations took place (and was, therefore, necessarily as brief as possible), while the World did not print its report of the same proceedings until twenty-four hours later (Saturday evening). We devoted nearly three columns to the City and District nominations on the day mentioned, and the hustings addresses of the City candidates being obtainable earlier in the afternoon, had more space accorded them. If the World will examine our report of the District candidates' speeches, it will see that considerable more space is devoted to Mr. Robson's speech than to any of the other candidates'. Our report of the nominations and the speeches could not possibly have been any longer than it was, under the circumstances. As it was, the paper was rather late in the evening on account of it. The World, being a kind of a newspaper, understands these practical difficulties as well as we do, and it also knows better than to attempt to argue that we should have returned to the subject the next day.

The World's charge of unfairness against this journal towards the Premier, it will be seen, thus utterly falls to the ground upon this count, and becomes all the more absurd when a glance at our files, since we have differed with the Premier on the redistribution question, will show that we have published his speeches and explanations very fully, both those delivered in the House and the one at this city recently, although there is a great deal of repetition in his later utterances.

As to the second charge, that is, failing to publish a contradiction in the World to an item in the News-Advertiser, we published the first statement from the News as a simple item of news, having no particular significance that we could see, and certainly not reflecting injuriously (so far as we could see) upon either the Premier or Alderman Horne. We, therefore, saw no necessity for publishing the World's contradiction, more especially as the News had a counter contradiction to that again.

And now, if our cotemporary will get its little slate—or borrow the off side of the Colonist's blackboard—we will give it a few examples in simple puzzleology:

(1.) What possible signification (we ask from mere curiosity) can attach to the Premier's alleged visit to Alderman Horne's committee rooms in Vancouver, last week, that would make our failure to copy a contradiction of the alleged visit "very unfair?"

(2.) To whom was it unfair, to the Premier, or Alderman Horne?

(3.) Was there anything illicit in the Premier making, or Alderman Horne receiving, such a call? (The World's tenderness on the point would seem to argue so.)

Fourthly and lastly: Does the World expect us to accept a contradiction in its columns as true, against a statement and a counter contradiction in the News, when the former paper (the World) has been convicted of knowingly and deliberately going out of its way to scandalously misrepresent a speech delivered in Vancouver recently by Mayor Brown, of this city; and when, instead of acknowledging its error, when called to its notice, it wrote a letter to itself sneakingly endeavoring to fortify what it knew to be an untruth; and when it has so discredited itself in a general sense as to be striving, by any means, foul or fair, to return nothing but Government supporters from the Lower Mainland, to prove the complete acquiescence of the electors of these three constituencies in a Government measure passed at the fag end of last session, which the World itself characterized, only a little over a month ago, as "the foulest gerrymander scheme ever perpetrated in any country?"

Next!

LABOR AND ITS FLAG.

"WHAT" asks a cotemporary, "is the "true labor color?" in the course of an article upon the European May Day demonstration. From the remotest antiquity it has been red. The gentes, or non-toilers, affected white, striped with azure, and the banners of the Greeks and Romans at the great slave insurrection, about the year 150 B. C., were of that hue. But the day came when the workers acquired military and political importance, and they insisted that their vexillum of red should receive public recognition. The Roman generals knew their men, and frequently would order the red flag to be tossed among the ranks of the enemy in order to stimulate the rank and file to desperate deeds of daring in order to recover it.

The red flag of the modern democracy is usually associated with thoughts of riot, rebellion and blood spilling, but it had its origin more probably in blood making. Ceres and Minerva, the presiding deities of labor and industry, were portrayed as wearing robes of flaming red, and the toilers adopted that hue as their sacred color. It was the symbol of their protectors among the innumerable divinities ruling over the destinies of mankind.

Tyrian, red and purple thus became the emblem of the communes of the ancient world. But there came a day when the half-emancipated people were re-enslaved, and then a law was passed making it a crime for any but nobles to use the beautiful Tyrian red. The color had kept the people hopeful, reminding them of their stolen liberties. For this reason they were deprived of the red. In Phœnicia the workmen completely lost their business, so that even the secret of the ancient colors was lost, and has never been recovered to this day.

Who can tell whether at some future time the long lost art will be rediscovered, and it may be that the true and beautiful Tyrian red, once the admiration of the civilized world, will yet wave above the heads of the workers as it did over those of their prototypes, two thousand five hundred years ago.

TO THE ELECTORS OF
New Westminster District.

GENTLEMEN:—I come before you as an Independent candidate on the platform of the Mainland Association to represent this District in Provincial Legislature.

As it is impossible to see every elector before the polling day, I take this mode of placing before you some of my views. I will pledge myself to no party, but will support measures, and not party. I will support all just and beneficial legislation.

I will do my utmost to obtain a Redistribution Bill that will be fair to the Mainland upon the basis of population, area and resources, without regard to the balance of power theory, as soon as possible after the census.

I hold that the Agricultural lands of this Province should be held for actual settlers, and not be sold to speculators in large blocks, and that such unimproved land held in large blocks should be heavily taxed, so as to compel the owners to improve them or sell them to those that will.

I believe it would be to the interests of the country that money should be borrowed on the credit of the Province, and loaned at the same rate of interest for the purposes of reclamation on the security of the land reclaimed.

That there should be a liberal expenditure of money on roads, bridges, &c., and, if necessary, that money should be borrowed for the purpose, provided that the Mainland could get its proper proportion of it;

That the building of railroads should be encouraged, in order to open up what are at present inaccessible regions;

That all Government money spent within municipalities should be placed at the disposal of Municipal Councils.

I am, Gentlemen,
Yours respectfully,
THOS. E. KITCHEN.
May 30th, 1890. my31-dtf-w2t

TO THE ELECTORS OF Westminster District.

GENTLEMEN:—At the earnest request of a large number of the Electors of New Westminster District, I have consented to become a candidate to represent you in the Provincial Parliament.

I will endeavor to briefly present to you some of the principal points in my platform.

1st. I am in favor of representation by population and will consider it my first duty to secure a fair and just representation for the Mainland.

2nd. I am in favor of dividing the District into Ridings.

3rd. I will endeavor to increase the grant to municipalities from $1,000 to $3,000 per annum.

4th. I would also be in favor of raising the tax on wild lands to such an extent as would pro*hibit speculators from holding large tracts of* land, to the detriment of actual settlers.

5th. I am in favor of the Government adopting a public works policy and borrowing a million dollars, and expending the same on roads and bridges throughout the District and also on a scheme for the reclamation of overflowed lands.

6th. I would strongly urge upon the Provincial and Dominion Governments the necessity of aiding the City of Westminster in the immediate construction of a Traffic Bridge across the Fraser River.

7th. I would also use my best endeavors to have a railroad constructed from Popcum to the Delta.

8th. To repeal clause 9 of the Public Schools Act.

9th. The cutting of a Canal from Mud Bay to the Fraser, thereby draining a large portion of the Delta, and avoiding the dangers of Point Roberts.

10th. The erection of a Traffic Bridge at Pitt River and the extension of the Westminster road through to Agassiz.

I shall also endeavor, if elected, to visit all portions of the District prior to the meeting of Parliament to learn your wants, so as to be in a position to discuss the same intelligently during the session.

In conclusion, gentlemen, I would ask you for your votes, confidence and support at the forthcoming election.

I remain,
Yours faithfully,
dmy31td ARTHUR M. HERRING.

TONS OF NEWSPAPERS.

Journals of the United Kingdom on File at the British Museum.

Since October, 1888, an important work in connection with the cataloguing and rearranging of the files of the newspapers of the United Kingdom has been going on at the British Museum. The work has now been brought down to 1873. Every volume has been carefully examined, and all the important points in regard to it indicated in the catalogue. Much labor has been spent in sizing and arranging the papers year by year. By this means a considerable amount of press-room has been gained.

The papers are arranged according to date. Every volume is numbered outside. Each year has a distinct set of numbers, except in the case of the earlier dates, where the number of volumes in a year is so small as to make this unnecessary. The year 1831 is represented by only 41 volumes, each volume containing the files of from two to five newspapers, while 1840 has 86 volumes, 1850 has 130 volumes, 1860 has 258 volumes and 1870 has 327 volumes; while for 1887 there are no fewer than 372 volumes; 1847 takes up 3 presses occupying a space of 59 square feet, while 1887 requires 16 presses and occupies 367 square feet. There are more than 1,200 distinct papers for 1887, while for 1847 the number did not exceed 300.

The approximate weight of English, Scotch and Irish papers in the presses at the museum is 450 tons. The files for thirteen years have still to be gone through before the work is complete. As soon as this is done a list of the new papers, with their respective numbers, will be placed in the reading-room, and it will then be as easy to obtain the file of a newspaper of a hundred years ago as it now is to procure any book in the reading-room. It may be explained that all the London newspapers since 1800 are kept quite distinct from the provincial journals. They are contained in the west wing, where the same plan of sizing, numbering and cataloguing has been carried out as has been adopted in connection with the provincial papers. The London daily papers, however, are arranged in sets on the ground floor, and are obtainable at once.—Manchester Examiner.

A DRUMMER'S STORY.

Two Georgia Gentlemen Play Turn About with a Whip.

"Before the war," said a veteran commercial traveler the other evening, "I was traveling through the South. One day I stood on the veranda of a small town in Georgia waiting for train time. Suddenly a man dashed past me out of the hotel with a cocked revolver in one hand and a cowhide whip in the other, and rushing up to a gentlemanly-looking fellow slowly coming down the street, covered him with the pistol, crying savagely: 'Fold your arms. I am going to thrash you.'

"The young fellow complied, and the other began to rain blows all over his face, neck and shoulders. The rough edges of the strips of rawhide cut and tore the flesh and burned like hot irons. But the victim bravely stood his ground, showing only by his pallor and involuntary twitchings of the mouth and eyes the awful agony he was suffering. Presently the other began to tire and ceased to strike.

"'Have you finished now?' calmly asked the young man.

"'Yes,' sullenly growled the other.

"'Then put up your gun.'

"No sooner was the revolver restored to its place than, quick as flash, the young man whipped from his hip pocket a pistol of large caliber and, with a look of fierce determination, cried: 'Now give me that whip and fold your arms.'

"And what a thrashing he gave him," exclaimed the drummer. "The fellow cried and begged for mercy and threw his arms to protect his face, but all in vain. The avenger cut and cut until he was tired out, then with a swift motion he turned the whip in his hand and struck a heavy blow on the temple with the heavily-loaded butt. The man fell senseless to the ground. The other threw the whip down on his prostrate body and walked into the hotel to wash the blood from his face and neck."—Chicago Journal.

NEW NOTES OF INTEREST.

There are 208,749 railroad bridges in the United States, spanning 3,213 miles.

Nebraska offers a cent a pound bounty on sugar made within its boundaries, and the beet is crowding the succulent sorghum-stalk on the prairies of the West.

The Chinese Minister at Washington has so far overcome his national prejudices that he has consented to allow his wife to hold a reception after the American fashion. In China a woman of the upper classes never thinks of such a thing.

The new State of Washington is not favored with a very dignified set of legislators. Thirty members of the Legislature went to the theater a few nights ago and threw paper balls, rubber overshoes and orange peelings at each other and hooted and guyed the players.

The Fellowcraft Club, of New York, has put Stanley on the honorary list of life members. President Richard Watson Gilder will notify Mr. Stanley of the honor conferred upon him by this club of his brethren in America. The only other honorary member is Mr. James Russell Lowell.

There are now thirteen monitors lying idle, the original cost of which was nearly $7,000,000. In their present condition they are not only useless, but a source of expense, and Rear Admiral Jouett favors a plan for converting them into floating batteries for coast and harbor defense, which could be done at an estimated cost of $1,000,000.

The Bismarckskopf is the name given to a mountain in the neighborhood of Ems, Germany, because it so much resembles Bismarck in its outlines. Mount Valerian bears a striking resemblance to M. Thiers. Mount Blanc and several mountains in the Pyrenees and elsewhere were supposed to furnish good portraits of the first Napoleon. A hillside in the Isle of Wight is said to furnish a very striking likeness of Lord Brougham.

The city of Mexico is to have the finest hotel on the American continent, according to present plans and estimates. It will cost $2,000,000, and among the attractive features mentioned is a Turkish bath apartment the fixtures in which will cost $35,000 and a bar upon the fittings of which $80,000 will be expended. With such provisions for his mental and physical enjoyment and welfare, the guest will probably be perfectly satisfied with the other arrangements, which are of little moment.

Some descendants of the mutineers of the Bounty, living on Pitcairn Island in the South Pacific, some months ago boarded the barque Carrie Winslow, which arrived at Philadelphia from Valparaiso recently. They had with them a bundle of letters which they wanted forwarded, and two boatloads of tropical fruit. The latter they wished to exchange for any thing on the vessel they could get, and flour, clothing, etc., were given them. The islanders number one hundred and twenty persons. They said their only fear was that their ocean home would become over-populated. It is only three and a half miles long and a mile wide, and is incapable of producing much more than enough to supply the wants of its present population.

TO THE ELECTORS OF

New Westminster City.

GENTLEMEN:—In response to a requisition, numerously signed, which has been presented to me, I beg to offer myself as representative of this City in the Provincial Legislature.

I frankly confess that, aside from the great question of the just distribution of legislative power, I would scarcely care to be a candidate. If you do me the honor to elect me I shall make that question my first consideration at all times, and in order to do this it is essential that I keep quite free from any entangling alliances with either Government or Opposition. But to the people and the advocacy of the rights of the people, in this matter and in all others, I can fully and freely pledge myself; and with those, be they on what side of the House they may, who are animated by a similar spirit, I will work cordially.

The present crisis demands special treatment. We of the Lower Mainland are denied our just share of legislative power, and so long as that is the case our true policy, in my opinion—nay, the policy which our own self-respect compels us to adopt—is to return no man to the Legislature who will not make the righting of that wrong his first business. It may safely be assumed that those who shall be found willing to do right in this matter, will be the most likely to do right in others also.

Notwithstanding the utmost devotion to this first question, your representative will have to deal with many other matters, and perhaps it will be sufficient now to say on this point that I believe there is room for a good deal of work before the administration of public affairs can claim to be what it should be—government by the people for the people. I should earnestly endeavor to do my share of that work.

I believe I may safely assume that you need no assurance of my deep and abiding interest in everything that makes for the prosperity of New Westminster City.

I am, Gentlemen,
Very truly yours,
dmy16tc J. C. BROWN.

TO THE ELECTORS

—OF THE—

Westminster Electoral District.

GENTLEMEN:—As it is difficult to arrange to see each individual elector before election day, I wish to put before you the platform on which I stand whilst seeking your support.

Up to the introduction of the Constitution Amendment Act, I should have supported the present Government, but I now stand independent of all parties on that measure, pledged to obtain a fair and just Redistribution Act immediately after the publication of the census returns; such act to be based as nearly as possible upon population, the abolition of the balance of power and the division of districts into one member constituencies. Outside this pledge I claim the privilege of being allowed to support any legislation of a just and beneficial nature which may be introduced by the Government. I will endeavor to impress upon the Government the necessity of the utmost liberality in the expenditure for the opening up of all agricultural districts and even, if necessary, to borrow money for this purpose.

The conservation of all public lands for actual settlement, and the abolition of all sales of land in large areas, will be one of the chief objects I shall hold in view, and to also assist in the greatest amount of land being brought into cultivation. I would advocate the Wild Land Tax being raised to 25 cents per acre.

It will also be my endeavor to impress upon the Government the absolute necessity of taking steps to assist in the reclamation of the large area of land subject to overflow by the Fraser, so as to render it all fit for cultivation, feeling sure that any money spent in that direction will be a good investment, as the lands will be greatly enhanced in value for assessment.

From the above you will see I stand as a supporter of the Government, except on one measure, and feel sure that you will see that as I am a resident farmer in the district our interests are identical, and I hope to be able to materially advance the interests of the district should you honor me as your representative.

I am, Gentlemen,
Yours Obediently,

LIVINGSTON THOMPSON.

By Private Sale.---Bargains.

I HAVE RECEIVED INSTRUCTIONS FROM Mrs. A. M. Johnstone, of Mud Bay, to dispose of her Homestead, which consists of 272 acres of Land, good Dwelling House, excellent Barn and Stabling for 40 head of stock, good Dairy and an abundance of Spring Water.

The property is situated on the sunny side of Mud Bay, the land is second to none anywhere, and parties wanting an investment for their capital cannot do better than take a look at this before investing elsewhere.

Stock and implements can go with Ranch if desired.

TERMS—One-third cash; balance to suit purchaser, at 8 per cent. per annum.

ALSO FOR SALE—THE FOLLOWING:

The West Fractional Half of Section 29, Mud Bay, bounded by the Nicomekl River and the Sea—108 acres.

184 acres, adjoining Sections 16 and 25, Township 4, very near N. W. City.

The North-West corner of Section 68, adjoining the Hastings Townsite—54 acres.

The North-West ¼ of Section XI., Township 2, 160 acres, all first-class land, 10 acres improved and sown to timothy pasture. Log house. Good creek runs along line of property, also the Johnstone Road. This is an excellent ranch.

Lot 261, Group I., Pitt Meadows; 80 acres prairie; 70 acres high brush land. Half of the prairie can be ploughed, and is all hard land. 2 miles from Railway Station.

Stave River Stock and Dairy Ranch. This Ranch consists of 387 acres of land, being Sections 483 and 487, Townships 14 and 15.

This property is situated on the Stave River with a frontage on the Fraser River, at which point the C. P. R. Road passes through property. There is one large 2-storey Frame Dwelling House, hard finished, nearly new, worth $1,500. This is elegantly situated on rising ground and commands a view of the C. P. R., the Fraser River and the surrounding neighborhood. The greater part of the land is Prairie, subject to overflow, a good deal of the high land has been improved and fenced, and there are a large number of young Fruit Trees and the usual Out Buildings in the way of Barns, &c. There is excellent Trout Fishing and Hunting on premises and any party or Company seeking a Stock Farm or Dairy Ranch could not be better situated. Coal croppings of unusual promise have been discovered on the Property. This is to be secured at a bargain, and further particulars can be had of the undersigned or of Mr. Clement Stickney at Wharnock Station, who will show any intending purchaser over the same.

For further particulars apply to

T. J. TRAPP,
New West.

A large number of miners left Comox Saturday and went to Victoria, says the Nanaimo Free Press. When asked the cause of their leaving the Union mines, they stated they had been "sacked," but were at a loss to know what it was for.

The Scots have a great meeting in the Orange Hall to-night for the purpose of re-organizing the Caledonian and St. Andrew's Society. An overflowing meeting is expected as many have promised to be present. Some rousing speeches have also been prepared and there is every indication of an encouraging prospect for the future of this old and honorable society.

The book-sellers and stationers have adopted the half-holiday system and close their places of business on Saturdays from 1 p. m. until 6 p. m. This arrangement is to hold good for the summer months and will no doubt prove most acceptable to the clerks and other employees, while not interfering with business. The hours of closing are the quietest of the day.

In regard to the meteorological phenomenon noted in last issue and commented on in the Church street morning thunderer, it might be cogent to remark that it is better to have "considerable coagulated blood around the dexter optic cord" (sic) than a lot of free, cheap whisky and beer, got by bumming around the City bar-rooms, a living target for the question, "what 'll you have?"

The street car shed is now up, but the inside is yet to be completed. All the machinery is now to hand and is being placed in position as quickly as possible. Fires have been put under the boilers and the street cars are to-day being unloaded from the railway cars at Carrall Street, and put on the track. Notwithstanding all these preparations it is not expected that the cars will be running for a fortnight yet anyway.—World of Saturday.

The Rev. J. H. Best, the lately installed pastor of the Olivet Baptist church, preached his initial sermon to a large congregation yesterday morning and made a very favorable impression. On Wednesday evening next an entertainment will be held in the church and it will assume the form of a reception to the new pastor and a farewell to Mr. Fisher, who has so faithfully fulfilled the duties of pastor since the resignation of Mr. Baldwin.

The two smartest steam launches on the river, Mr. Bonson's and the Rev. Mr. Croucher's, had a slight trial of speed on Saturday, but the race was undecided owing to the Eirene, Mr. Croucher's boat, meeting with an accident to her crank-pin and having to put in shore. Those who witnessed the race say it was one of the most exciting things they ever saw. The next regatta committee might incorporate a steam launch race in their programme. Course from Lulu Island to Ross-McLaren's and back.

Conversazione.

A Church of England conversazione will take place on Thursday evening next, at St. Leonard's Hall, when it is expected that some new features will be introduced. The last one held by the congregation of Holy Trinity church in Herring's Opero House some time ago was a decided success, and it is a foregone conclusion that Thursday's conversazione will be all that is hoped for.

Mr. Chisholm's Will.

Mr. John Chisholm went over to Victoria this afternoon by the steamer Louise to consult the firm of Eberts & Taylor concerning the legality of the will of the late D. Chisholm. In conversation with a COLUMBIAN reporter this morning Mr. Chisholm said he would endeavor to have his brother's will set aside on the ground that undue influence had been brought to bear by certain persons on the late Mr. Chisholm, which caused him to show partiality when disposing of his property.

Sad Death.

At an early hour this morning Miss May Giles, late of Victoria, died of galloping consumption at the residence of Mr. George Mead, on Columbia Street. The deceased young lady, who was only 18 years of age and was an adopted daughter of Mrs. Giles, of Victoria, sister to Mrs. Mead, of this city, but a few months since enjoyed the very best of health until a bad cold, contracted during the la grippe season, ended in the disease which caused her early demise. The body was taken to Victoria this afternoon by the Louise for interment.

One Year.

On Friday last, Alexander Ross, the individual who tried to destroy the police station by fire a week ago, was brought up before Mr. Justice McCreight under the Speedy Trials Act, and, after pleading guilty, was sentenced to imprisonment for one year in the provincial gaol. It appears that the unfortunate man has a chronic affection of the ears causing complete deafness, which rendered him wholly unable to keep what few jobs he managed to obtain. He has therefore been arrested several times both here and in Vancouver on the one charge—vagrancy.

Presentation.

On Wednesday evening last, Mr. F. W. Harris bandmaster of the Delta brass band, Ladner's Landing, was presented with a handsome baton by the members. The presentation was made by Mr. F. Lord, honorary secretary, with a suitable address. Mr. Harris, replying, said he hoped the time was not far distant when Ladner's Landing will be able to boast of as good a band as the larger towns, which continued energy and renewed vigor would accomplish, and expressed his determination to stand by it as long as circumstances will permit until such end is attained.

Should be Stopped.

On Saturday last, during the progress of the lacrosse match between the seniors and juniors, at the park, two youngsters were noticed marching up and down a portion of the flower gorden recently laid out by Mr. P. Latham, at the expense of the city, and were evidently highly delighted in doing so. Notwithstanding the fact that there was all the rest of the park, and, indeed, all the forest as far back as Port Moody on which the boys could play as they thought fit, yet they found it necessary to trample down the seeds and plants on this small piece which has been so carefully tilled; and when told to desist their mischievous work by a gentleman who stood near by, he was treated to a shower of impudent threats which could come only from the mouth of a Westminster boy. The park keeper will take the matter in hand in future and the small boy, mischievously inclined, had better take warning.

What Might it Have Been?

While the morning local train from Vancouver was approaching that portion of Front street known as Chinatown, a Chinaman, who, judging from the appearance of his outer man must have been a recent arrival from the flowery kingdom, wished to affect a singularity by stepping off the rear platform of the last coach, thereby saving himself the trouble of a long walk from the depot to his place of abode. Not being accustomed to jumping on and off trains while in motion John stepped off the lower step with the left foot instead of the right, touched the ground, whirled around about 'steen times in the air and landed upon the small island of hair on the top of his head directly across the track. The well-shaken up Mongolian was not much injured, but had he jumped from one of the front platforms of the train there is no doubt but that we would have been obliged to chronicle the circumstances of another horrible accident.

A New Church.

A Methodist mission church for the Indians has just been completed and is situated right in the heart of the "dismal swamp" at the west end. The building is small but pretty, and is intended for the summer; it will accomodate about one hundred persons, and is comfortably fitted up inside. This frontier station of the city church is to form the nucleus of a large west end place of worship, to be erected some time in the near future. A fine broad sidewalk about ten feet above the level of the swamp, leads right up to the door of the church so that no inconvenience will be experienced by those who wish to attend.

Tour of the Commons Candidates.

Messrs. Ladner, Townsend and Corbould, the Commons' candidates, have organized to hold a series of public meetings throughout New Westminster district as follows:

Wednesday, 4th June, 10:30 a. m.—Steveston Opera House; Richmond Town Hall at 8:30 p. m.

Thursday, 5th June, 8 p. m.—Maple Ridge Town Hall.

Friday, 6th June, 1:30 p. m.—Mission school house; 8 a. m., Johnson's Landing school house.

Monday, 9th June, 8 p. m.—Chilliwack.

Tuesday, 10th June, 1:30 p. m.—Maclure's house; 6:30 p. m., York's house.

Friday, 13th June, 2 p. m.—Lehman's Landing school house; 8 p. m., Shortreed's house, Aldergrove.

Saturday, 14th June, 11 a. m.—Langley Prairie school house; 8 p. m., Langley Town Hall.

Monday, 16th June, 10 a. m.—Surrey Centre; 8 p. m., Delta Town Hall.

Tuesday, 17th June, 2 p. m.—Port Moody; 8 p. m., Vancouver.

Wednesday, 18th June, 8 p. m.—New Westminster.

Dashed to Pieces.

C. Redmond, the famous æronaut and parachute jumper with McMahon's circus, was instantly killed the other evening at Snohomish, Wash. He made a splendid ascension, but the balloon was carried away to the east of the town, where it lit on a very large pine tree. Redmond was thrown out and fell fully seventy feet, killing him instantly. Before going up he said it was the most dangerous piece of country he had ascended from, and he bade good-bye to some friends who were with him. Many will remember Redmond's daring ascent here from the circus grounds in this City last week. His ascent here was a very fine one and his feats on the bar when in mid-air about 1,000 feet were admired by every spectator of the daring feat. His descent here was made in perfect safety and he received a shower of congratulations on his arrival on terra firma. It is understood that Redmond's neck was broken when he alighted from the tree at Snohomish. The authorities in England have interfered to prevent such hazardous exhibitions and those of the United States and Canada might do worse than follow the example.

The Inter-Urban Tramway.

The promoters of the Westminster and Vancouver Electric Street Railway Company held a meeting in the secretary's office on Saturday evening. The object of the meeting was principally the election of a board of directors and the appointment of general officers. The following gentlemen were elected as directors: Mr. D. Oppenheimer, of Vancouver, president of the board; S. Oppenheimer, Vancouver; B. Douglas, H. V. Edmonds, E. A. Jenns, Westminster. The following gentlemen were elected as officers: Secretary, Mr. S. T. McIntosh; treasurer, Mr. J. G. Jaques; bankers, the Bank of B. C.; solicitors, Messrs. Armstrong, Eckstein & Gaynor. A committee was appointed to draft a constitution and by-laws. It was arranged that a general meeting of the company will be held on Saturday, June 7; and in the meantime arrangements for taking the preliminary surveys of the line will be made. The principal matter for consideration at the next meeting will be the question of the survey. The officers were directed to open up the books and get the company's affairs into good running order, so that the directors may lay their plans at the next meeting. A general talk over of matters in the interests of the company was indulged in and the meeting then adjourned until the 7th. It is reported that the work of building the track will be commenced at an early date, and the prospects for having the cars running before very long, are bright.

An Owner Wanted.

Chief Sheppard having communicated with the chief of police at New Westminster, with respect to an English chronometer which had been lost by its owner, received a reply that "the watch in their possession was a new P. S. Bartlett Waltham, in gold case, with a chain, apparently of gold, with flat links, somewhat carved, in the centre of the link being a square black inset and having a small stone in the middle. There was also attached a square locket, opening in the centre." It is thought the man in whose possession the jewelry was found was in company with the circus. He is now in jail undergoing punishment for some offence. The chief will be glad if any one having any claim on these articles will communicate with him.—Sunday's Colonist.

TO THE ELECTORS OF

New Westminster District

GENTLEMEN:—I offer myself as a candidate to represent you in the Provincial Legislature, on the platform suggested by the Mainland Association, free from any pledge to either party.

I hold myself at liberty to give an independent support to any Government that may be chosen by the people. As an elector, I think the District would make a mistake should the electors condone last session's Redistribution Bill, by returning either the Hon. Mr. Robson, or candidates hampered by pledges to support his Government, as representatives of this constituency.

Mr. Robson is standing for Cariboo as well as for Westminster District, so there is no need to fear that the Province will be deprived of his services should the majority of the electors agree with me on this point.

I am in favor of dividing Westminster District into ridings.

Any measures that appear to me to be for the benefit of the Province would have my support, and I think that some safe scheme might be devised by which the credit of the Province might be lent for local improvements.

The contract system ought to be more strictly carried out.

I should also like to see some modification of the municipal system, by which localities outside of municipalities might have more direct control of the expenditures in their neighborhoods, so as to secure the most economical and efficient disposal of such funds and relieve the central Government from the invidious task of deciding between different claims.

Speculation in wild lands, whether lumber, agricultural, or mineral, should be discouraged.

Should you elect me I will do my duty to the best of my ability, and trust you will give me credit for honesty of purpose, even should you dissent from my judgment.

Your Obedient Servant,
C. B. SWORD.

TO THE ELECTORS OF

New Westminster District

GENTLEMEN:—I beg to announce myself as an independent candidate for the Legislative Assembly at the coming election.

As most of you are aware, I am an old resident of the District, and largely interested in its growth and prosperity.

I am in favor of the division of the District into ridings, and shall insist upon our having our fair share of representation, according to our population and resources, in the Legislature.

As this District contributes very largely to the revenue, it is clearly entitled to large appropriations for public works, and substantial grants to the various municipalities.

I am a strong advocate of a free traffic bridge across the Fraser at Brownsville, and should urge that the Government subsidise that work, and I should also press for the construction of a bridge across the Pitt River.

I am utterly opposed to the immigration of Chinese, and their employment on public works of any character.

I am strongly in favor of borrowing the money necessary to develop the agricultural country by opening up roads along the section lines.

I should advocate any reasonable assistance to a railway from Hope down the south side of the Fraser, as such a line would give a vast impetus to the development of our District.

If you do me the honor to elect me I shall do my best to advance our interests in these and other matters.

I am, Gentlemen,
Yours sincerely,
JAMES PUNCH.
