ELECTION CARD.

To the Electors of New Westminster City and District.

GENTLEMEN:—At the urgent request of a large number of the Electors of the above Districts, I have consented to become a Candidate, and request your support and patronage.

My political banner is uplifted, and on it will be seen, printed in gold letters, "Straw Hats—good coverings for massive craniums; Men's Fancy Flannel Shirts; Balbriggan Underclothing; Summer Coats and Vests; Linen Dusters; Pique and Fancy Vests; White and Black Plug Hats;" all of which are very suitable wear for the present political campaign, which is liable to be very warm and close. (An endless variety of Men's and Boys' Suits, Felt Hats, etc.)

Electors, rally around this standard, and down with monopolists and—high prices.

I am perfectly sure I can give you better value for your money than any other candidate in the field.

"MR ROBSON'S MEETING."

The Premier Talks For Over Two Hours in the Opera House Last Night,

And a Very Patient and Orderly Hearing is Given Him Throughout.

After Concluding Mr. Robson Refuses to Hear a Word From Anybody Else.

Three Cheers and a Tiger for "The Queen and Liberty of Speech" Ends the Meeting.

Hon. Mr. Robson's meeting at the Opera House last night was very largely attended, at least a third of the electors being present. At the beginning of the meeting the hall was only partially filled, but people kept dropping in until 9 o'clock, when the auditorium was well packed. The audience was far from being enthusiastic at any stage of the proceedings, in fact was most apathetic throughout, and from which condition the Hon. Premier was unable to rouse it despite his brightest sallies and most telling remarks. The very best of order prevailed, and the Premier cannot claim that he was not given a patient hearing. The meeting was orderly to an unusual degree, and it was only at the close, when Mr. Robson declined to answer a question, that any uproar occurred. Mr. Robson said he spoke without notes prepared for the occasion, but he had a large bundle at his elbow, saved from previous meetings, and these together with a dozen or more copies of THE COLUMBIAN, served his purpose very well. Several chairs had been placed on the platform for any prominent gentlemen who wished to distinguish themselves by supporting the speaker, but all remained vacant with the exception of those occupied by the chairman and Mr. Thos. Cunningham. No provision was made for the press; perhaps newspaper men were not wanted.

During the whole evening numbers of the audience were continually leaving the building, and when the speaker wound up his remarks on the redistribution question fully half the gathering got up and left, forcing Mr. Robson to announce that if those remaining would bear patiently for a few minutes he would bring his speech to a speedy close.

A few minutes after 8 o'clock Mr. Thos. Cunningham took the platform and moved that Mr. D. S. Curtis take the chair.

Mr. Curtis came forward and said he had an important office to perform—that of introducing the Hon. John Robson to the meeting. He was sure all were anxious to hear the Premier speak, and it went without saying that a patient hearing would be given him. Mr. Curtis explained his position as chairman. He had no personal quarrel with Hon. Mr. Robson, and differed with him only on one question—redistribution. He wished it to be distinctly understood that in taking the chair he did not stultify his position as a member of the Mainland Association. Mr. Curtis concluded his remarks by asking a fair hearing for the speaker, and then introduced him to the audience.

Mr. Robson came forward with a copy of the evening's COLUMBIAN in his hand, which he took for his text for the next half hour. He first read and commented in strong terms on a letter signed "Elector," charging him with being a beggar seeking the suffrages of the electors. He denied the imputation, and called upon those who were acquainted with his history and career to witness that he had never been a beggar in any sense in this community or in the Province.

The honorable gentleman then turned his batteries on the editorial department of THE COLUMBIAN. That journal he said, had published a two-column editorial criticising his (the Premier's) Victoria speech, but had not printed a word of the speech. This was characterized as a most contemptible action, which could not commend itself to honest people. Another editorial, in Monday evening's paper, was then taken up [the honorable gentleman kept a complete file of THE COLUMBIAN in his capacious pockets, from which he produced them and to which he carefully returned them], which, the Premier said, might be summed up in the words: "Let the Lower Fraser give Mr. Robson the 'grand bounce' (laughter), and let Mr. Robson find a constituency elsewhere." This the speaker characterized as a most monstrous and cheeky proposition. He had done a great deal for Westminster District, but he did not believe he had magnanimity enough to stand this. It was too much for human nature, and he was very human. But he did not propose to seek re-election elsewhere. He had every reason to believe that he should be re-elected, and re-elected at the head of the poll, in his old constituency.

Continuing to criticize the same editorial, Mr. Robson said that there was an absolute misstatement in the article, printed in large type, quoting partly from the statement referred to, which in full is as follows: And the Government as a whole and the power behind the Government, which forced the outrageously unjust 'temporary' measure through the house and upon the country, are practically committed to putting through a permanent measure based upon the same principle!" This, Mr. Robson characterized again as an absolutely false statement.

Mr. Geo. Kennedy—It is perfectly true, sir.

DIVERS SUBJECTS.

The honorable gentleman referred to his convenient text again—THE COLUMBIAN—and read an item in which was expressed the hope that Mr. Robson "would not monopolize the whole evening, but give others a chance to speak." He had been specially invited by Mr. Thos. Cunningham to address the electors, and came with the distinct understanding that it was not to be an election meeting. He came to speak as Premier of the Province, not to discuss matters with other speakers. This was his meeting and no one's else, and if any gentleman got tired of listening he could get up and go out. He had intended making some notes, but hadn't a chance. However he had addressed audiences here before and would make no apologies. The News-Advertiser had termed his speech at Vancouver as "the same old re-hash" (broad smiles and general tittering), but every speech he made on the questions of the day must necessarily be a repetition one of the other. He was pleased to see a number of ladies present; he was in favor of enfranchising the fair sex for he felt certain their votes would be cast for him. The speaker then diverged to the matter of orderly meetings, and declared Westminster was notorious for its fairness to public speakers, which, unfortunately, was not the case in certain other cities he would not name. He had lived in Westminster for many years, and had, in fact, a decided preference for it in some ways over any other city in the Province. He preferred it to Victoria for several reasons. The climate was more healthy and invigorating (sarcastic laughter.) He was not giving "taffy," he declared, and was only telling the truth. He liked Westminster better than Victoria because the latter city had cold, raw winds and chilling blasts which made it a far less healthy place to reside in than Westminster. But he would continue to live in Victoria so long as he was a member of the Government. (More smiles.) The speaker then gave a short account of his early struggles, and how he got his foot cut with an axe while chopping a tree. He and the Rev. Mr. White were said to be the best axe-men in the Province. While laid up with the damaged foot some friends of his bought out the BRITISH COLUMBIAN and gave him the management of it. This paper he managed for many years and it grieved him sadly to see to what vile uses it had been turned. (Great laughter.) He then passed to the beauties and richness of the lower Fraser section, and his great attachment to the district generally.

THE REDISTRIBUTION BILL.

The hon. gentleman then came to two subjects which he said he felt would possess more than an ordinary interest for his hearers. These subjects were the Redistribution Bill and the Railway Aid Bill. For eight years he had labored and striven for the interests of the Province and particularly for the Lower Fraser and Westminster District, and it had come to be recognised throughout the Province that the Lower Fraser had actually got away with the lion's share of the appropriations. In fact, so much was this the case that it had often been a matter of considerable difficulty keeping down the mutinies in other constituencies. And yet, after all had been that done for this district he must acknowledge that it was one of the sorest periods of his life when he had found the people of that district turning round on him like a roaring lion to tear him because this measure had not come up to their expectations or was in their judgment the proper thing. But everyone knew that there was no such thing as gratitude in matters of this kind. During all those years he had worked hard for the District, and very often they had sent down members who weakened his hands instead of strengthening them. Some would have said after such treatment that they would have no more to do with such people. He had felt that sentiment after hearing the abuse that had been hurled at him in the severest language from the public platform and through the press. But calm afterthought had induced him to overlook this injustice. He had determined to come boldly forward and say to the electors, "I have come before you seeking re-election" but if they did not elect him he would say "good-day" and go and seek re-election elsewhere.

HIS DEAR OLD DISTRICT.

But he had no idea of deserting his dear old district and he felt confident that he would be elected by a larger majority than ever before, and a larger majority than he could get anywhere else. He had felt it due to them to explain matters in regard to this measure. At Kamloops he had intimated that it was the Government's intention to bring in a measure aiming at redistribution according to population. His idea at that time was 3 to Vancouver, 2 to Westminster and 2 for Kootenay; he thought he could get along with taking one from Vancouver and giving the seat to Alberni, as the importance of Alberni justified the act. He thought it better to thus take a moderate step at the present time, and deal with the matter more fully at a later and more convenient time. He found to his surprise when the Mainland members came down that they had an opposite opinion and they clamored for final redistribution at once. He had been asked on assuring the country that the matter of final redistribution was an impossibility at that time, why had he not resigned. But it would not have been in the interest of the Province as a whole for him to resign at the time.

THE INTEREST OF THE PROVINCE.

That, after all, was the great object, the interest of the Province. The Premier is, in a sense, the guardian of the interests of the whole Province. And had he wished to resign he would have found that a majority of the cabinet and the House was emphatically against him doing so. And what would the consequences have been had he resigned? The reins of the Government would have fallen into the hands of a party who would have pursued a line of policy not in the best interests of the Province; and certainly not nearly so favorable to the lower Fraser as that being followed by himself and the cabinet. For that and other reasons he could not resign, it was impossible. It would not have benefitted his own District. He had been asked why he did not frame his measure as he thought proper and bring it down to his cabinet and force it upon them. Telling them that was his ultimation and they were bound to take it or resign their positions. But no person who understood anything about the internal affairs of the Government would ever ask such a question. On the very face of it the idea was preposterous. Another view of the matter was that while it is true that the

of the Government, still, every member in the cabinet council assembled is as good as another and the Premier's vote is only as good and no better than another minister's. Did they suppose for a moment that if the Premier did attempt to thrust an objectionable measure upon them that they would endure it? If the Premier could do such things the Premier might as well constitute the whole cabinet himself and run things to suit his own sweet will. It would be instead of a five-man cabinet. He had been taunted with hanging on to and retaining his hold on power and position but it would not have helped the electors on the lower Fraser at all had he resigned his position. He would have been powerless to help them had he relinquished the reins of the Government. He had made a far greater personal sacrifice in remaining in his position. It required far more moral courage to take the course he had taken than the foolish course suggested by certain people and certain newspapers, namely, that of stepping down and out.

PLEDGED TO A FURTHER STEP.

By accepting a temporary measure that did not quite come up to even their own expectations, he and his colleagues were pledged to take a further step in this matter towards readjusting the question of redistribution. He had been reminded that the disparity between the population of the Island and that of the Mainland had not been justly recognized. The Island had far more members in proportion, it was said, than the Mainland. But had not the Island for many years worked along with fewer members than the Mainland, although the population was nearly equal, without complaining? But surely the promise that had been made that when the census was taken this matter would be set right, was enough for any reasonable man. He had been charged with being

"FOXY" IN THIS MATTER,"

But a very short time would suffice to show that nothing of the kind had characterized his policy. Where would they, the electors of the Lower Fraser have been had he not held on to the reins of power? Another party would have been in power who would not have had the best interests of the Lower Fraser nearly so much at heart. It had been advocated that he be chased from the Lower Fraser, but he would warn them to be very careful what they did.

HE WOULD NOT THREATEN,

there was no necessity for that, but he would tell them frankly not to alienate the rest of the Province from the Lower Fraser by any such dangerous action. He had been through the Province lately and he had found the sentiment against the Lower Fraser very strong. Should the electors of the Lower Fraser alienate the people in the rest of the Province, they might send their six solid representatives; they might send twelve, but it would be vain; what could they do against the mainland and island alienated from the interests of this part of the district? Nothing. The question had been asked him seriously, what would happen suppose you die? he had no doubt that were he taken away to-morrow his colleagues would faithfully carry out the policy they are now working upon. The party was going to be much stronger next session, stronger than ever it was before, there was no doubt about it. But when people got down to the ground of discussing what would be done should the premier die, he did not care to deal with the matter at all, at least, on the public political platform. He had under the circumstances. Had he thrown up the sponge and gone off at a tangent he would not have been able to carry out the schemes for the electors of Westminster city and district which by God's providence he intended to carry out. (Faint applause from one corner of the hall).

THE RAILWAY AID BILL.

The honorable gentleman then passed to an exposition of the Railway Aid Bill. He said this province was a "land of magnificent distances." Its wealth was, however, in its minerals. Could that wealth be brought into a general developement it would fairly astonish the world. That developement can never take place without railways. The Government had gone to capital and offered it 20,000 acres a mile, but capital had said that although that was a very liberal offer, yet, they asked what was the value of the land offered? That was the question. It depended entirely on the value of the land whether capital could be induced to take up the question of railway building in this province.

A FINE SCHEME.

Then the Government had discovered a fair scheme to solve the difficulty, namely, the alternate block system. The zig-zag principle as it were. That was a scheme profitable alike to the railway companies and to the Province. It was a desirable scheme looking at the land question alone. The honorable gentleman then went into the question of tariff on the produce of the mines, and the question of mining machinery, nearly all of which has appeared in these columns before. The miners of Kootenay had come to look at the alternate block system as a measure not hostile to the mining industry and were now well satisfied with it. (At this point the hon. gentleman paused to take a drink of water, and the spell being broken, more than half the audience rose and went home, the rest yawned and looked tired to death, good manners alone keeping them in their seats.)

CONCLUDING REMARKS.

The sudden exodus caused the Premier to look up in some surprise, and he hastily asked the audience to remain only a few minutes longer and he would bring his remarks to a speedy close. Continuing, he said the country was on the eve of the general elections, and it was the duty of the electors to use the franchise wisely. So far as his information went the Government would be stronger in the new House than in the old. Although the Government was strong, it had never abused its power, nor would it ever do so. Passing rapidly over the benefits of the railway bill, Hon. Mr. Robson tackled the mining question. He said no Government was perfection and that mistakes are always possible. There had been measures passed of an objectionable nature, but they were errors of the head, not of the heart. He referred to the clause in the mining act compelling the miner to pay $105 as soon as he had located his claim, and declared this was an order of the Dominion Government.

Mr. T. S. Higginson—That is not true.

Hon. Mr. Robson said it was true, and he was surprised at the cool audacity of Mr. Higginson in denying it.

Mr. Higginson—Read the clauses.

At this point Chief of Police Pearce stepped up and told Mr. Higginson that he would arrest him if he interrupted the speaker again. Of this impertinence Mr. Higginson wisely took no notice.

Hon. Mr. Robson concluded his remarks by asking the electors not to send down a delegation hostile to the Government, and appealed for support on the ground of past good services.

Before Mr. Robson had taken his seat, Mr. Geo. Kennedy, of THE COLUMBIAN, rose to a question of privilege and asked the Chairman if he would be permitted to reply to the mis-statements of Mr. Robson concerning THE COLUMBIAN.

Hon. Mr. Robson (putting on his coat)—You can speak here all night if you like; I'm going home.

Mr. Geo. Kennedy—I call the meeting to witness that Mr. Robson is a coward.

In the confusion which followed Mr. Joseph C. Armstrong mounted a bench and said: We will have a meeting next week and free speech will be allowed on both sides of the question, and no policemen will be present to lock up in a dungeon those who differ in opinion with any of the speakers.

He then called for three cheers for the Queen and liberty of speech. The cheers and a tiger were given right heartily and the meeting broke up in great disorder.

George's Little Boat.

LONDON, May 22.—The gunboat Thrush, commanded by Prince George, son of the Prince of Wales, sailed to join the British naval squadron in the North American waters.

Blackguards in Council.

NEW YORK, May 21.—Col. J. Bailey, of the Virginia Athletic Club, was in consultation with John L. Sullivan at the Astor House this morning. The result of the conference was that Sullivan agrees to fight "Joe" McAuliffe for $10,000 in July, and Jackson for $25,000 in August. Each battle will take place in Virginia under the auspices of the Virginia Athletic Club.

Love, Jealousy, Murder.

JESSUP, Ga., May 21.—At midnight last night a tragedy took place here which resulted in the death of Mrs. P. B. Littlefield and County Surveyor McColl, of Ware, at the hands of Mrs. Littlefield's husband. McColl came to Jessup last night and stopped at Littlefield's house. About eleven o'clock he retired to his room and undressed, but soon came out again and went down stairs and enquired for Mr. Littlefield. Not being able to find that gentleman he went to Mrs. Littlefield's room and was admitted. Mr. Littlefield, who had been on the front porch watching the pair, rushed into the room and shot his wife, killing her instantly. He then shot McColl four times, inflicting wounds from which he died a few hours later. Mr. McColl was about 50 years old and had a large family. Littlefield is about the same age and his wife five years younger. The family came originally from Massachusetts, but have lived in Jessup, where they were highly respected, for about 20 years.

PROPOSALS REJECTED.

The Proposals Made by Great Britian on the Behring Sea Settlement Rejected.

The United States Will Seize Every Sealer Found in Behring's Sea this Summer.

The Corruptness of the Mercier Government Fully Exposed by Whelan, the Contractor.

The Proposals Rejected.

NEW YORK, May 22.—The Herald's Washington special says: I learn that at the Cabinet meeting yesterday it was decided to reject the British proposition submitted three weeks ago for the settlement of the Behring Sea question. Secretary Windom, as I am informed, was decidedly opposed to the acceptance of the proposal; first, because its provisions were deemed by him entirely inadequate to secure the professed object of preserving seal life in Behring Sea, and second, because it wholly ignored the established position of the United States. The British proposal being without support from either of the two departments immediately concerned with it, necessarily met with rejection, a like fate with that which overtook the preceding American proposal in the council of the Governor-General of Canada.

Sealers will be Seized.

NEW YORK, May 22.—The World's Washington special says: Secretary Windom in conversation with the World's correspondent to-night gave a very emphatic denial to all reports indicating that there is to be any lack of vigor in the execution this summer of the law against seal poaching in the waters of Behring Sea. "If any modus vivendi has been arranged between England and the United States" said he "I don't know of it. If any arrangement has been made under which the execution of the law would be postponed I don't know of it. You can say positively that I have given no instructions against the seizure of vessels engaged in unlawful seal fishing. On the contrary three revenue marine vessels, the Rush, Bear and the Corwin have been ordered to Behring Sea to protect the seal fisheries, and as long as the revenue marine and the protection of the seal fisheries of Alaska remain in my charge, I will protect the fisheries and execute the laws to the best of my ability. Section three of the law of March 2nd, 1889, reads as follows: "That section 1956, revised statues of the United States is hereby declared to include and apply to all dominion of the United States in the water of Behring Sea, and it shall be the duty of the president at a timely season in each year to issue his proclamation and cause the same to be published for one month in at least one newspaper, if any such there be published at each United States port of entry on the Pacific coast, warning all persons against entering the said waters for the purpose of violating the provisions of said section, and he shall also cause one or more vessels of the United States to diligently cruise said waters and arrest all persons and seize all vessels found to be, or to have been, engaged in any violation of the laws of the United States therein. "The law is mandatory and very clear and emphatic," said the Secretary, "and it will be executed as long as it is law."

Not to be Caught.

NEW YORK, May 22.—The Herald's Washington special says: "I called at the British Legation to-night and submitted to Minister Pauncefote for his persual the instructions to Captain Healey, of the revenue cutter. He read them very carefully, but declined to express any opinion about them. He said he did not regard himself as either authorized or qualified to comment upon the domestic affairs of the Government to which he is accredited, and had not understood that the instructions to Captain Healey were in any way connected with the negotiations now in progress concerning the Behring Sea question.

Surprising Corruptness.

MONTREAL, May 22.—It now transpires that John P. Whelan, contractor for the Quebec court house, has paid over $100,000 to the Mercier government in the last few years to issue contracts for government work, at least $40,000 of which Whelan says was blackmailed out of him. The government still owes Whelan $257,000.

The Filibusters Busted.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 21.—A special despatch from Los Angeles this morning says that the complete details of the conspiracy to capture Lower California and found an independent republic has just been unearthed. The revelations made are of a most startling character, as they implicate a number of prominent capitalists interested in Lower California lands and mines, and also a number of well-known citizens of San Diego, which place seems to have been the headquarters of the filibusters. At that city all the plans were arranged by the conspirators whereby the present authorities governing the peninsula by virtue of appointment from President Porfirio Diaz, of Mexico, were to be overthrown and the republic of Lower California declared. For three months the filibusters had been busily engaged concentrating and perfecting all the details of their plot. This work was done at San Diego where numerous meetings of those interested were held. It was through one of the conspirators that the first intimation of the existence of the conspiracy reached a man who had not first been pledged never to reveal any of the subjects discussed at the meeting. The evidence to establish the truth of the revelations that are here given is in the possession of the proper government officers.

The great power behind this filibustering movement is the Mexican Land and Colonization Company. This corporation is composed of wealthy Englishmen, and they own and control concessions on the peninsula, made by the Mexican Government to the International Company of Mexico for several years. The affairs of both companies are in a most complicated condition. The officers of the corporation claim that this condition is due to the fact that the Mexican officials on the peninsula from the Governor down have been bleeding the life out of them by pursuing a policy in the management of governmental affairs, detrimental to the interests of the company. To circumvent this the company has been forced to expend thousands of of dollars, and the salvaton of the company, it is asserted, depends upon securing the annexation of Lower California to the United States. Paid lobbyists are now in Washington working under the direction of the corporation to bring this about, as prospects of any action being taken by Congress are decidedly slender, and as the disposition of the Mexican Government is to preserve its domain intact, the Mexican Land Colonization Company grasped at the filibustering scheme like a drowning man at a straw.

"MR ROBSON'S MEETING."

At the invitation, it would appear, of Mr. Thos. Cunningham, ex-M. P. P., Hon. Mr. Robson addressed a meeting of the electors of this City in the Opera House last night. A report of the meeting will be found elsewhere. It will be seen that Mr. Robson took the ground that the meeting was his own, and that, therefore, he would take no part in a fair and open discussion, nor listen to a word of reply to the many false statements and inaccuracies which he felt perfectly safe in perpetrating, on the strength of his determination to suppress free speech, and the elaborate police precautions taken to that end. Mr. Robson had a perfect right, we suppose, to consider the meeting as his own, and to retreat from the hall the moment he had done, He had a perfect right to proclaim himself a moral and a political coward, if he chose, but we would ask on whose authority the impudent and insulting police surveillance of last night was imposed upon the meeting, whereby the free citizens of the Royal City were threatened (literally) with the law and the lock-up, if they essayed so much as to dissent in an orderly manner to statements, or rather mis-statements, of the speaker of the evening? Nearly the whole police force of the City was massed in the Opera House last night (leaving the rest of the City unprotected). besides which, an attempt was made to swear in a number of special constables for the same duty, and the interference of the officers during the evening was most unwarrantable and an insult to the entire audience. Neither the Mayor nor the Police Committee gave orders for these extraordinary arrangements, and perhaps Hon. John Robson, or his henchman, Mr. Thos. Cunningham, can explain how they came about. Of one thing we can assure both these gentlemen, and that is, the studied insult given to the electors and citizens of New Westminster last night will not soon be forgotten. We may also state that, had the meeting not been generally considered as an open one, where both sides of the question would have been heard, Mr. Robson's audience would have been very small indeed. As to the speech itself, there was very little, if anything, new in it. We may in a future issue, when we have more time and space at our disposal, notice a few points in connection with the remarks on the redistribution question.

THE TICHBORNE ROMANCE.

The wisdom of the old adage, that "Truth is stranger than fiction," was never better shewn than in the story of the Tichborne family, which seems at last to have entered upon the third volume of events which might be believed to be utter impossibilities were they not well authenticated. The Tichbornes, as a landed English family, date from so far back as two hundred years before the Norman conquest of Britain, and in the reign of Henry II. the head of the house, Sir Roger, had a sick wife, who, lying on her deathbed, besought him to grant her the means of leaving behind her a charitable bequest of an annual dole of bread for the poor. Sir Roger promised as much land as the bedridden woman could crawl around whilst a torch was burning. The venerable dame managed to "do" several acres of fine land, which to this day retains the name of "The Crawls," and, fearing her lord would go back on the bargain, she, upon being conveyed to bed, predicted prosperity for the Tichbornes until such times as any of her descendants failed to carry out the yearly charity. Whenever the dole was abolished, she predicted that the estates would pass out of the family, and added that this calamity would be heralded by a generation of seven sons followed by a generation of seven daughters and no son. For six hundred years the custom was religiously observed on every 25th day of March, as it came round, until the year 1796 when, owing to the attraction it proved for loafers and tramps, it was abolished. The baronet of that day, Sir Henry Tichborne, had seven sons, Henry, Benjamin, Edward, James, John, George and Roger, and when the eldest of them, Henry, succeeded to the title he had seven daughters and no son, Eliza, Frances, Julia, Mary, Katharine Lucy, and Emily. The prophecy was apparently completely fulfilled by the change of name of the possessors of the estate to Doughty, in the person of Sir Edward Doughty, who had assumed the name under the will of a relative from whom he inherited certain property. This ended the first volume of the romantic history of the Tichbornes.

Roger Charles Tichborne, born in 1829, was, after his father, next heir to the estates and title of his uncle, Sir Edward Doughty. He went to France to be educated, and then entering the army, thought of marrying. He proposed to his cousin Kate, who rejected him, and so he resigned his commission, and, as a love-sick young man is expected to do, left his native land, disgusted with a hard, cold world. In 1854 he left Rio de Janeiro for New York in a vessel called the Bella, which was never more heard of and certainly reached no port. Roger's father died in 1862, and Roger being supposed drowned, his brother Alfred stepped into the heritage. In turn he, two, went over to the majority, and his baby son became baronet and owner of the broad acres. But the mother of the drowned Roger refused to believe her boy was dead, and advertised far and wide in the Australian and Colonial newspapers for her beloved son, with that pertinacity of hope and affection which makes a mother's love almost divine. In 1866 the seed so scattered bore fruit, and a huge, illiterate fellow came upon the scene, calling himself Roger Tichborne. The fellow was at once repudiated by the family, with the exception of Lady Tichborne, who saw in the impostor the hope of her prayers that the sea might restore her boy. A trial for the recovery of the estates was entered upon, and was the most remarkable event in British judicial history. It lasted one hundred and three days, and was only then brought to a conclusion by the jury announcing that they were perfectly satisfied that the claimant was not Roger Tichborne. Lady Tichborne, meanwhile, had died, and was saved the bitter humiliation of seeing the man she believed to be her son put upon trial for perjury and forgery. For one hundred and eight-eight days the case dragged its weary length, and the "claimant" at the end was sent to prison for fourteen years. All England, all the civilized world, took sides and discussed the great case during its continuance. Members of Parliament and county gentry ruined themselves in order to defend what they believed to be the just claims of an injured man, and at least one solicitor in excellent practice and reputation went to gaol rather than apologize for insulting the presiding judge.

Of Dr. Kenealy who can think but with a sigh? One of the most gifted of pleaders, a gentleman and a scholar, he was ruined, disbarred, and then cast out of society for his fidelity and zeal in the case of the villain whose case he argued with an intensity resulting from conviction of right. Subsequently he became M. P. for Stoke-upon-Trent, but the House of Commons would have none of him, and when he rose in his place to speak, he talked to empty benches. The end soon came, for, boycotted and in broken health, he one day rose to discuss some question before the House. The chamber at once became empty, and Kenealy, leaving his seat, put on his hat and went home. As he traversed one of the corriders he met the only man in the House who would speak to him, and to Joseph Cowan he said: "Good bye, Cowan they have at last "broken my heart." A few days afterwards Kenealy was laid at rest in the quiet of a Sussex churchyard.

With the death of Onslow, Whalley, and Kenealy, died the embers of the agitation for the release of the unfor- "tunate nobleman pining in Dartmour "prison." After a while "the unfortu- "nate nobleman" served his time and was released. He turned up lately to contest the constituency of his old advocate Kenealy, but, not being able to pay his share of the returning officer's fees, he retired into private life again, and so ended the second volume of this strange, true story.

Just as the heir has entered upon his majority, comes the announcement that further trouble may be expected. A new "claimant" has suddenly turned up and a letter has been received by a prominent counsellor in London, in which a harrowing tale is unfolded. Sir Roger, according to this story, was held prisoner in the bush for years by a band of Australian convicts, who tried to foist Arthur Orton on Lady Tichborne as her son. The conspirators died one by one, the last one a few months ago. This man left a will in which the whole demoniacal plot was fully confessed and laid bare. If there is truth in this, then our readers will agree that the great Tichborne romance will run into a most exciting and effective third volume.

That the estates are worth fighting for may be imagined. The defence of the claim set up by Orton cost the estate £100,000. The rent roll of Dorsetshire property is at least £20,000 a year, and that of the estate in London probably twice as much more.

A Unique Advertisement.

A Connecticut Granger, under the "Farm for Sale" head, makes the following lively announcement in a Waterbury exchange: "I would like $20,000 for my farm at Oakville, but will take one-half that sum if I can get it. I will sell it for a song, but don't try and sing too near the premises, as there is a cross-eyed dog on the place who is no judge of music. Go and look for the dog and you will see the farm, even if you don't find the dog. I bought it (the place, not the dog) for my wife's relations; it was a mistake; I should have bought only the dog. I was told when I purchased the farm that I could sell in Waterbury all that was raised on the premises. Now, if I could only sell in our blessed city but one-half the mischief that has been raised there since I bought it all the good Republicans in this town would be leaving Waterbury before night. If you don't want the farm I will lend you the dog should you need him."

Why She Was Happy.

"Oh, I think it's lovely to be married," said young Mrs. Tocker to the lady on whom she was calling, "especially when you have a husband who is not afraid to compliment you."

"What does your husband say?"

"He said yesterday that I was getting to be a perfect Xantippe."

"A Xantippe! Do you know who she was?"

"Oh, yes; I asked Charley afterward, and he told me she was the goddess of youth and beauty."—Merchant Traveler.

A One-Sided Discussion.

A Wisconsin court has decided that a man has a lawful right to open his wife's letters. Now, if we could get a binding judicial decision which would compel a husband to mail his wife's letters within a week after she gives them to him to post—but that would be requiring a moral impossibility

Railway Loan Appropriation By-Law, 1890

A By-Law to enable the Council of the City of New Westminster to appropriate to other purposes a portion of the $155,000 borrowed under authority of the "Railway Bonus By-Law, 1889."

WHEREAS, UNDER AUTHORITY OF A certain by-law entituled the "Railway Bonus ByLaw, 1889," passed by the Council of the City of New Westminster on the 14th day of October, 1889, the sum of $155,000 was borrowed for the purpose of assisting the Southern Railway Company by a bonus and otherwise;

AND WHEREAS the said sum of $155,000 has been placed on deposit in the Bank of British Columbia, where it now is;

AND WHEREAS the said Southern Railway Company has relinquished all claim to the said sum of $155,000, or any part thereof, and the said sum is not required for the purposes for which it was borrowed;

AND WHEREAS a by-law entituled the "Street Improvement Loan By-Law, 1890," empowering the Mayor of the said city to borrow the sum of $80,000 for certain street improvements, received the assent of the electors and was passed on the 28th day of April, 1890, but no debentures have been made or issued under authority of the said by-law;

AND WHEREAS it is expedient that a portion of the said sum of $155,000, namely the sum of $139,000, should be applied to public works and objects other than those for which it was borrowed;

THEREFORE the Mayor and Aldermen of the City of New Westminster, in Council assembled, enact as follows:

1. The "Street Improvement Loan By-Law, 1890," is hereby repealed, and no debentures shall be made or issued thereunder.

2. It shall be lawful for the Council to appropriate and apply $139,000 of the $155,000 borrowed under authority of the "Railway Bonus By-Law, 1889," to the works and objects hereinafter set out, that is to say:—

(a) The sum of $80,000, intended to be borrowed under authority of the said "Street Improvement Loan By-Law, 1890," together with the sum of $2,000 expected to be realized as premium on the debentures proposed to be issued under said by-law, making in all the sum of $82,000, may be applied to the improvement of certain streets and the formation of a Contingent Reserve Fund, as set out in the said "Street Improvement Loan By-Law, 1890," and the said sum of $82,000 shall be used only for works and objects mentioned in the said by-law, and shall be applied under the exact conditions therein set forth, as if the said by-law was still in force.

(b) The sum of $20,000 may be applied towards the establishment of an efficient Steam Ferry across Fraser River at the said city and the erection and equipment of such wharves and ways as may be necessary in connection therewith.

(c) The sum of $1,500 may be applied to the making of preliminary soundings and surveys and to the doing of other things necessary to ascertain the approximate cost of the construction of a traffic bridge over Fraser River at the said city.

(d) The sum of $5,000 may be applied to the procuring and equipment of a Rock Crushing Machine for the use of the said city.

(e) The sum of $4,000 may be applied towards the cost of procuring such lands as may be necessary for the extension of Columbia street towards the western limits of the city, and towards the procuring of a right of way for the Southern Railway.

(f) The sum of $2,500 may be applied towards protecting and improving that tract of land within the said city known as the Pleasure Grounds.

(g) The sum of $4,000 may be placed to the credit of the general revenue of the city, being the sum paid out of general revenue for the purchase of the ferry charter.

(h) The sum of $20,000 may be applied to the erection of a suitable building on Lot 2, Block 14, in said city and the equipment thereof as a public library, reading room, lockup, and police offices.

3. In the event of its being found that any of the sums appropriated under sub-sections b, c, d, e, f, and h, of Section 2 of this by-law are greater than may be required for the undertakings therein set out, it shall be lawful for the Council, by resolution, to apply the surplus remaining from any such appropriation to any of the other undertakings mentioned in said subsections if required for the efficient execution of the said undertakings; and if there should remain a surplus after the undertakings specified in said section 2 have been completed, such surplus may be placed at the credit of the general revenue of the city and may be applied in any way the Council may by resolution lawfully determine.

4. This by-law shall come into force on the [illegible]th day of June, 1890.

5. This by-law, before the final passing thereof, shall receive the assent of the electors of the city in the manner provided in the "New Westminster Act, 1888," and amending acts.

6. This by-law may be cited as the "Railway Loan Appropriation By-Law, 1890."

Read a first time on the 28th day of April 1890.

Read a second time on the 5th day of May, 1890.

NOTICE.

TAKE NOTICE THAT THE ABOVE IS A true copy of the proposed by-law which will be taken into consideration by the Municipal Council of the City of New Westminster after one month from the first publication thereof in the COLUMBIAN newspaper, which first publication took place on the 7th day of May, 1890, and that a vote of the electors of the city will be taken on said proposed by-law on the 9th day of June, 1890, between the hours of 9 o'clock a.m. and 5 o'clock p.m., at the following places, namely: In Ward No. 1, at the residence of S. Calbick, Fourteenth Street, in said ward; in Ward No. 2, at the office of the late Dominion Sawmill Co., Columbia Street, in said ward; in Ward No. 3, at the City Hall, in said ward; in Ward No. 4, at the residence of Henry Hoy, Dickinson Street, near Elliot street, in said ward.

Notice to the Public.

WE BEG TO NOTIFY THE PUBLIC THAT we have sold out our entire stock, in this city, consisting of Stoves, Tinware, House Furnishing Goods, &c., to Messrs. Cunningham Bros., of this city, and while thanking our customers for their liberal patronage during the time that we have been established, we would ask a continuance of the same for our successors.

E. S. SCOULLAR & CO.
17th May, 1890.

TO THE PUBLIC.

AS PUBLISHED IN THE ABOVE NOTICE we have bought out the business of Messrs. E. S. Scoullar & Co., in this city, and with this addition to the stock which we previously carried, as H. M. Cunningham & Co., we have no hesitancy in claiming the most complete general stock, in our line, in the Province, and it is our intention to keep our stock up to such a standard that our customers may have anything in our line which they may call for. Our advertisement will be found elsewhere in this issue.

CUNNINGHAM BROS.

TO THE ELECTORS OF New Westminster City.

GENTLEMEN:—In response to a requisition, numerously signed, which has been presented to me, I beg to offer myself as representative of this City in the Provincial Legislature.

I frankly confess that, aside from the great question of the just distribution of legislative power, I would scarcely care to be a candidate. If you do me the honor to elect me I shall make that question my first consideration at all times, and in order to do this it is essential that I keep quite free from any entangling alliances with either Government or Opposition. But to the people and the advocacy of the rights of the people, in this matter and in all others, I can fully and freely pledge myself; and with those, be they on what side of the House they may, who are animated by a similar spirit, I will work cordially.

The present crisis demands special treatment. We of the Lower Mainland are denied our just share of legislative power, and so long as that is the case our true policy, in my opinion—nay, the policy which our own self-respect compels us to adopt—is to return no man to the Legislature who will not make the righting of that wrong his first business. It may safely be assumed that those who shall be found willing to do right in this matter, will be the most likely to do right in others also.

Notwithstanding the utmost devotion to this first question, your representative will have to deal with many other matters, and perhaps it will be sufficient now to say on this point that I believe there is room for a good deal of work before the administration of public affairs can claim to be what it should be—government by the people for the people. I should earnestly endeavor to do my share of that work.

I believe I may safely assume that you need no assurance of my deep and abiding interest in everything that makes for the prosperity of New Westminster City.

I am, Gentlemen,
Very truly yours,
dmy16tc J. C. BROWN.

By Private Sale.---Bargains.

I HAVE RECEIVED INSTRUCTIONS FROM Mrs. A. M. JOHNSTONE, of Mud Bay, to dispose of her Homestead, which consists of 272 acres of Land, good Dwelling House, excellent Barn and Stabling for 40 head of stock, good Dairy and an abundance of Spring Water.

The property is situated on the sunny side of Mud Bay, the land is second to none anywhere, and parties wanting an investment for their capital cannot do better than take a look at this before investing elsewhere.

Stock and implements can go with Ranch if desired.

TERMS—One-third cash; balance to suit purchaser, at 8 per cent. per annum.

ALSO FOR SALE—THE FOLLOWING:

The West Fractional Half of Section 29, Mud Bay, bounded by the Nicomekl River and the Sea—108 acres.

184 acres, adjoining Sections 16 and 25, Township 4, very near N. W. City.

The North-West corner of Section 68, adjoining the Hastings Townsite—54 acres.

The North-West ¼ of Section XI., Township 2, 160 acres, all first-class land, 10 acres improved and sown to timothy pasture. Log house. Good creek runs along line of property, also the Johnstone Road. This is an excellent ranch.

Lot 261, Group I., Pitt Meadows; 80 acres prairie; 70 acres high brush land. Half of the prairie can be ploughed, and is all hard land. 2 miles from Railway Station.

Stave River Stock and Dairy Ranch. This Ranch consists of 337 acres of land, being Sections 433 and 437, Townships 14 and 15.

This property is situated on the Stave River with a frontage on the Fraser River, at which point the C. P. R. Road passes through property. There is one large 2-storey Frame Dwelling House, hard finished, nearly new, worth $1,500. This is elegantly situated on rising ground and commands a view of the C. P. R., the Fraser River and the surrounding neighborhood. The greater part of the land is Prairie, subject to overflow, a good deal of the high land has been improved and fenced, and there are a large number of young Fruit Trees and the usual Out Buildings in the way of Barns, &c. There is excellent Trout Fishing and Hunting on premises and any party or Company seeking a Stock Farm or Dairy Ranch could not be better situated. Coal croppings of unusual promise have been discovered on the Property. This is to be secured at a bargain, and further particulars can be had of the undersigned or of Mr. Clement Stickney at Wharnock Station, who will show any intending purchaser over the same.

For further particulars apply to
T. J. TRAPP,
New West.

Several other Farms at Langley and other parts of the District at private bargain.

The river rose two inches last night and stood exactly 10 feet 2 inches at 11 o'clock this morning. Capt. Peele thinks that last night's very heavy and general rain will have some effect in heightening the river, but he anticipates nothing serious.

The str. Yosemite cleared this morning at an early hour for Victoria. She had a very large passenger list and a considerable amount of freight. The reason for the steamer leaving so early was to allow those travelling by her to arrive in Victoria in time to participate in the festivities which are going forward there to-day.

The fact that not the slightest accommodation had been provided for the press at last night's meeting, was, perhaps, not very remarkable, for it was quite in consonance with the domineering, autocratic arrogance that characterized the proceedings of the evening. And surely the press could not complain in a case where the barbarous method of the brutal Russian despotism, muzzling the public, was so freely resorted to. He has need to be a very strong man who can thus with impunity pour insolence upon the public and contempt upon the press.

The First Strawberries.

Mr. Wm. McDonald laid on our table to-day a basket of beautiful, large and luscious strawberries, garden variety, which, it is safe to say, are the first of the season so far as British Columbia is concerned. The strawberries were grown in the open air in Mr. McDonald's garden on Edinburgh street, and he has lots more as large and fine as the samples laid on our table. Mr. McDonald says he will begin marketing the fruit on Monday.

Broke His Arm.

Last evening several boys were playing at leap-frog near the residence of Mr. Benjamin Douglas. Among the lads was Richard, second son of Mr. Douglas, and as he was taking a leap over the shoulders of one of his companions he either miscalculated his distance or the boy under him moved the result being that he rolled to the ground snapping one of the two bones of the fore-arm. The break is a clean one and under the skilful medical care and good nursing he will enjoy, Dick will be around again in a very few weeks with the arm as strong as ever.

Another New Steamer.

The smart little craft which Capt. Terhune has been so busy on at Sapperton for the past few months, was launched last evening with great eclat and without a hitch or accident of any kind. The staunch little steamer glided down the ways into the river and floated there like a duck. The engines and boiler, propeller and all other machinery were placed in position last week, and her deck houses are nearly completed, only requiring painting and varnishing. A very large crowd of people had gathered to see the launch and their enthusiasm at the pretty sight found vent in hearty cheers. After the launch the vessel was towed down the river to a point just below the C.P.N. dock, where she was moored for the night. The appearance of the boat was very favorably commented upon by those who went down to have a look at her to-day. She will be called the "Harvest Home," and will be devoted principally to the general river traffic.

Bumptious Officialism.

A more bumptious and impertinent piece of officiousness was never displayed in public in this city than by Chief Pearce at the political meeting last night. It was an ignorant display of the power the Chief probably thinks is vested in him, and a proceeding that will not be tolerated again under similar circumstances. By what right Chief Pearce can put a gentleman under arrest for making a quiet mark of dissent to the speaker at a public meeting, is not known to the general public, nor for that part to any one else. Had Chief Pearce carried his threat of arrest into effect he would have found himself in a most unenviable position to-day. As it is he has proved himself most profoundly ignorant of the commonest rules regarding the regulation of order at a public meeting, and his impertinence last night carried him far beyond the scope which the ratepayers, his masters, ever intended his powers should go. The public rightly ask: By what authority did Chief Pearce act last night? By what authority did he withdraw his men from their regular beats and have them present in force in the Opera house? Was any riot expected? Did the Chief ever before make such great efforts to maintain order at any public gathering? These are questions the Chief should be called on to answer. It might also be asked, by what right Chief Pearce attempted to suppress free speech at a public meeting, and threaten to put under arrest anyone who dared to interrupt the speaker; also by what right policemen were withdrawn from their beats and the city left unguarded and a prey to lawlessness? It simply amounts to this, that if Chief Pearce does not know his duty and how to perform it quietly and decently, he must be taught it, and that quickly. There is not a ratepayer in the city who will submit to be bullied in such an impertinent manner, even if the Chief of Police is the offender.

POLITICAL NOTES.

Mr. Thos. Cunningham, ex-M. P. P., was the only person on the platform last night besides Hon. Mr. Robson and the chairman; but whether Mr. Cunningham was under Mr. Robson's wing, or Mr Robson under Mr. Cunningham's wing, is a question that remains to be answered.

Hon Mr. Robson stated last night that the Government, and every member of the Government, were pledged to abolish the "balance of power" theory in the new redistribution measure to be brought in after the census. The honorable gentleman can reply to these questions at his leisure: Who pledged the Government to this? Where were they pledged? When? And to whom? Mr. Robson certainly made no pledges last night, but contented himself with saying that the Government were pledged. All the records, however, go to show the contrary. But, even if the Premier had taken upon himself to pledge the whole Government last night to the public meeting in the Opera House, such a pledge would not be worth a straw; for Mr. Robson, in another breath, told the meeting that he, as Premier, had no more voice in the Cabinet than any other individual member—it was the majority that ruled. Until Mr. Robson answers the questions above, it will still remain an undeniable fact, that the Government as a whole is not pledged to abolish the "balance of power" theory, but, on the contrary, stands committed to it, despite Mr. Robson's individual and impotent dissent.

Mr. Robson said at the meeting last night that he would not have time to make a thorough canvass of the district, but would hold a series of meetings, one at each of the municipal centres, and he wanted this to be made as generally public as possible. We take these means of complying with his wishes. From his remarks on this subject it is quite evident that the hon. Premier does not intend to face his political opponents on the platform. No, he will hold a series of "Mr. Robson's meetings," where he can attack anyone and make all manner of statements without fear of contradiction, which will exactly suit his case in the present instance.

One would have imagined by the extreme satisfaction displayed by the Honorable Premier, in begging and praying his audience to come forward and fill the many vacant front seats that he really had something to tell them. Only when the meeting was over did those unfortunates find that their trouble had been for nothing.

Two speeches were made at the Opera House last night, one by the Hon. Premier and the other by Mr. Joseph C. Armstrong. The Premier in a long, dull outpouring of words, lasting two hours, failed to create the slightest enthusiasm in his hearers; Mr. Armstrong, in a speech of not more than two minutes' duration, carried the house by storm, and made the old walls ring again with the echoes of the cheering.

Alderman Horne, of Vancouver, will stand for election to represent the terminal city.

The names of two gentlemen, more or less directly connected with the lumber interest, was freely mentioned yesterday as possible government candidates for Vancouver. There appears to be great reluctance, however, on the part of anyone to fight a hopeless battle, even though in the way of business, it might be profitable.—News-Advertiser.

Hon. John Robson was very uneasy last evening and acted as if he were expecting something awful to occur. The gas flickered unsteadily for a moment, causing the Hon. Premier to start, and exclaim nervously, "I hope there's no enemy at the meter." The audience smiled at the exhibition of nervousness and relapsed again into apathy.

Last night's proceedings were not entirely of a serious character. For instance, there was something intensely ludicrous in the spectacle of about half the audience solemnly rising to their feet and filing out of the hall as quickly as possible when the Premier stopped to take a drink of water.

CORRESPONDENCE.

AN OPEN LETTER.

To John Hendry, Esq.—Sir—I am informed you publicly stated last night, that I was the writer of a letter headed "Another Repudiation," and signed "Citizen," which appeared in the Daily Columbian of Friday evening last.

I knew nothing whatever of the letter until it appeared in the paper, and did not approve of it when I did see it; nor do I conduct my political battles in that fashion.

I look to you, therefore, to retract your statement.

Yours &c.,
J. C. Brown.

Westminster, May 22, 1890.

[Mr. Brown had nothing at all to do with the letter in question—Ed.]

A FEW OBSERVATIONS.

Editor Columbian—Sir:—Perhaps you are in a position to inform a citizen how it came to pass that the police force of this City were specially detailed to watch over the meeting last night at the Opera House. Can it be possible that John Robson did not consider himself safe amongst his old-time friends in the Royal City? Badly as he has betrayed the interests of the City and District, on several occasions, he has no reason to suppose that the people would defile themselves by laying violent hands on him. Whoever was the means of calling out the police on such an occasion was the greatest enemy of peace and good order, for had the policeman put a hand on Mr. Higginson when he corrected Mr. Robson's mis-statement re the Dominion land laws, it would have caused such a storm as has never been witnessed in Westminster. Mr. Robson, with the assistance of a few Tom Titmouses, is driving the nails in his own political coffin at a rapid rate. The Czar of all the Russias could not begin to act the part of a petty tyrant in comparison with this modern Herod.

THE MINING QUESTION.

Editor Columbian—Sir:—As many of your readers may not be conversant with the particulars of the Mining question, alluded to by John Robson at the Opera House last evening. I will briefly explain the matter.

The Dominion and Provincial Governments are joint owners of the land in the 40-mile belt in this way: The minerals are the property of the Province, while the land or surface rights belong to the Dominion, and in order to facilitate and encourage the development of the mining interests of the Province, the Dominion Government some months ago made the following proposition to the local Government: "We will allow you to deal with all the Mining lands as if your own, and when a miner has developed his mine and is entitled to his patent, which is in five years from date of record, have it surveyed, and apply to us, and we will issue a patent upon payment of $5 per acre—a mining location being 21 acres—or $105."

The miners unanimously approved of this proposition, and considered the Dominion Government were acting with great generosity, wisdom and prudence.

During the last few days of the last session, Robson, Minister of Mines, introduced and passed a most extraordinay mining act, the substance of which is as follows, and which if carried out would have paralyzed the mining industry of the Province. This act reads to the following effect: That the poor miner, when recording his claim, must pay into the Provincial Government the value of the surface rights, $105—this aroused the miners to such an extent that, under threats of violence to his person at the hands af the enraged miners, Robson was compelled to remain over at Revelstoke, 24 hours last week and attend a meeting to explain this extraordinary, murderous piece of legislation. He was compelled to acknowledge that the act was one of the blunders of his government, and promised to communicate with the Dominion, and have it repealed. This he stated at the meeting last night he had done.

Now, Mr. Editor, this statement made by a man who has a reputation of being a God-fearing man, and in the presence of the Most High, he knew was a deliberate falsehood, and was made for the purpose of elevating himself at the expense of an injury to the Dominion Government, and I consider that great credit is due to Mr. Higginson for having stated at the meeting to him that his statement was not correct, and to ask him to read the agreement between the Governments, which, instead of doing, he lost his temper and indulged in a Billingsgate harangue.

To prove the correctness of Mr. Higginson's assertion, that the Dominion Government never stipulated that the $105 should be paid in advance by the poor miner, I enclose copy of a telegram sent to the Dominion Government by the News-Advertiser, of Vancouver, on the 20th instant, and the reply of the Deputy Minister of the Interior, and comments of the Editor, which will convince even Mr. Robson's friends that his statement was a direct contradiction of facts, and was made on the deliberate intention of injuring the Dominion Government at the next general election.

An Old Miner.

(Extract from News-Advertiser.)

In view of the bitter attack made by the Premier last evening on the News-Advertiser, for its adverse criticism on the new Mineral Act, as regards the demand for $105 from a miner immediately on the location of a claim, the following copy of a telegram from the Deputy Minister of the Interior will prove very interesting:

Ottawa, May 20, 1890.

F. C. Cotton,
Editor News-Advertiser,
Vancouver, B.C.

When Local Government applies here patent will issue to anyone they name, covering land and base metals. Price $5 per acre. All other arrangements are between Province and prospectors.

(Signed.) A. M. Burgess.
Deputy Minister of the Interior.

This telegram was in answer to one sent by the News-Advertiser as follows:

A. M. Burgess, Esq.,
Deputy Minister of the Interior,
Ottawa:

Management with Local Government, re surface rights, precious metals in belt, did your Government stipulate that prospector, when recording must deposit value of land, previous to development and survey.

(Signed.) F. C. Cotton,
Editor News-Advertiser.

That the Dominion Government should insist on such a monstrous regulation as that set out in the "Mineral Act" of this Province was so improbable that the News-Advertiser, unable to get a complete copy of the amended Act, decided to apply direct to Ottawa. The result convicts Mr. Robson and his colleagues of either gross stupidity or a desire to misrepresent things to the great and permanent injury of the miner and prospector. They can choose either alternative.

Mr. Moresby returned yesterday to Vancouver from Fort Rupert, having been successful in capturing Jim and Sam, the murderers of Henry T. Sunbury at Vancouver about six weeks ago. The capture was very cleverly made, and Mr. Moresby is deserving of the very highest credit for the complete success that attended his trip.

She Carries the Broom.

At a quarter of three this afternoon the familiar toot of the steamer Islander's whistle was heard as that vessel entered the harbor from her trip across the Sound. In a few moments a large crowd gathered at the C. P. N. Company's wharves, everybody eager to get particulars of the race, as a broom carried at the Islander's foremast showed there had been one. When the vessel was fast to the wharf it was learned that she had left Tacoma at 8:10 this morning, with the Olympian some distance ahead. The Islander soon settled down to business, her engines running 116 revolutions a minute. She rapidly gained on the Olympian, and passed that vessel off Seattle at 9:35 o'clock. The speed of the engines was then reduced and Port Townsend was reached at 11:40, the run from Tacoma being made in three hours and thirty minutes. A stop of an hour was made at Port Townsend, and at half past 12 o'clock she left for Victoria, reaching here at fifty minutes past 2 o'clock, making the run over in two hours and twenty minutes. Mr. M. Shanks, the chief engineer, says he could have increased the speed of the engines, but that it was not thought desirable to do so by Capt. Irving, who was on board the Islander. The engines worked splendidly the whole trip, not the slightest trace of a hot bearing been found. The fires were not urged, and beyond a sharp run the first hour, no great effort was made to get big speed.—Tuesday's Times.

TO THE ELECTORS OF

New Westminster District

GENTLEMEN:—At the request of many friends from all sections of the district I beg to offer myself as a candidate for a seat in the legislature at the approaching provincial elections.

I shall if elected be a supporter of the present Government, in so far as in my judgment their measures are just to all portions of the province.

The conventional allotment of representation agreed upon at the time of confederation I conceive to have been based upon what was deemed an equitable adjustment at that period of our history, subject to such subsequent revision as our altered circumstances might from time to time necessitate. Any delineation of political lines of demarcation between Vancouver Island and the Mainland to be observed in perpetuity would have been antagonistic to the principles of free government and would be a fatal barrier to the future harmony, prosperity, and well-being of the province. Holding these views I shall, if elected, strenuously oppose any measure for the further redistribution of the representation which does not aim at the complete obliteration of all existing sectional boundaries.

I shall advocate a more conservative policy in the disposal of our timber lands, and support any judicious measure to prevent the destruction of timber by forest fires.

I will support a liberal expenditure in the opening up for settlement our agricultural lands and the development of our mineral resources.

Upwards of eighteen years of active pioneer life in the District have made me familiar with the wants and difficulties incident to the common lot of every settler, and should I be returned as one of your representatives, I will endeavor to do my part to give each portion of the District due recognition.

I shall endeavor to meet as many of the electors as possible during the canvass, and shall be glad to explain further my views on public questions.

I have the honor to be,
Gentlemen,
Your Obedient Servant,
my22d2tw3t JOHN KIRKLAND.

PROPOSALS

The corporation of the city of New Westminster having acquired a Crown Grant of a portion of the easterly end of Lulu Island, now known as Lot 757, Group I, New Westminster District, in consideration of which it has given bonds to carry out certain works on and about said lands, proposals are hereby invited for the performance of the aforesaid works, which are as follows:

1. To erect and maintain a good and substantial traffic bridge, with draw, suitable for passengers and waggons, between said lands and that portion of the City of New Westminster which is situate on the north bank of the Fraser River, said bridge to be constricted in accordance with plans and specifications approved of by the Chief Commissioner of Lands and Works;

2. To construct and keep in repair, to the satisfaction of the Chief Commissioner of Lands and Works, a good and substantial waggon road, not less than twenty feet wide, from said bridge through Lulu Island to the boundary of the Municipality of Richmond;

3. To construct all canals, drains, ditches, and dykes necessary for draining the Government Reserve;

4. All said works to be completed to the satisfaction of the Chief Commissioner of Lands and Works for the time being.

Persons proposing to construct and maintain the works above set out are required to submit plans and details of work they propose to do, and state toll (if any) proposed to be charged on the bridge; also to state date on which they will have the works completed; and to state the least quantity of land on said reserve they will take in full consideration of said undertakings, and the person whose proposal is accepted (if any) will be required to give security to the satisfaction of the Corporation for the performance of said undertaking. Proposals will be received at the City Clerk's Office, up to 4 p.m. on Monday the 30th day of June, 1890, and must state the nature of the security proposed to be given. Tenders to be marked "Tender for Lulu Island."

The lowest or any tender not necessarily accepted.

D. ROBSON,
City Clerk.

COLUMBIAN SUPPLEMENT.

VOLUME VIII. NEW WESTMINSTER, B. C., MAY 22, 1890. NUMBER 94.

TO THE ELECTORS

—OF—

New Westminster District.

GENTLEMEN:—In view of the near approach of the election to fill the vacancy caused by the death of our late representative (the much-respected D. Chisholm) and as I have stated in my card to you that I am a candidate for that honor, I will now lay before you some of my views on the leading questions which I consider will arise in the near future for consideration.

I have been asked what I mean when I announce myself as a Liberal-Conservative; I reply, "That by nature and education I am a Conservative, but a residence of over 30 years in this Province and much intercourse with our American cousins has had the effect of changing many of my views, and given me liberal ideas, therefore I claim I am a Liberal-Conservative." Owing to the fact that party lines are not defined in British Columbia as they are in the older provinces, I consider that our representatives are not in duty bound to give a through-thick-and-thin support to any party, but they should go to Ottawa prepared to give a generous support to all GOOD measures which may be brought before them, and to consider the prosperity of the Dominion as a whole, but our own Province in particular, and should a measure come before them which they consider in any way detrimental to the interests of this Province they should take their stand like true men and vote against it.

I am opposed to a certain extent, to the Tariff, or National Policy as applied to British Columbia. We are a long way from the centres of manufacture in the East, and many articles of every-day use to our Farmers and others, and which we cannot produce at home can be obtained more readily and at shorter notice from our near neighbors over the line, and in many cases the articles are better adapted to our needs than those brought from the Eastern Provinces; in fact, much of our Farming and Mining Machinery, Wooden Ware and other articles are brought from the States, although the duties are so heavy. Again regarding our food supply; we do not raise enough to supply our wants, and are obliged to cross the border for it, and are met with such heavy duties that heads of families in this Province pay more than ten to one compared to their compeers in Eastern Provinces. We have had example to the point during the last three months. If we had not received a good supply from California there would have been a meat famine; as it is we are now and have been paying 25 cents per pound for mutton, which is more than ordinary mortals like to pay, and the same state of affairs is likely to obtain again after any long and severe winter, for in spite of "Protection" for the last eleven years our stock raisers are little better prepared to meet hard winters than they were before, and to my mind the only ones who have reaped the benefit of the N. P. are the manufacturers. As a true Britisher I should like to see "Free Trade," but as that seems out of the question, I would advocate "Reciprocity" in many articles which are at present in the Tariff lists, as I think it would be beneficial to both countries, and the working man would not have to go down so deep into his pockets to buy what he needs to eat and wear. I am aware the Government must have a revenue to carry on the affairs of the country, but I would have "luxuries" pay more and get at the pockets of the richer classes who can better afford to pay taxes.

Owing to the long continued sickness of the late Mr. Chisholm, he was unable to be in his place this session, and very little during the previous one, so we of this District have been practically unrepresented, and our local wants have not been brought before the notice of the House. Had he (Mr. Chisholm) been in his seat, I do not think the Postmaster-General would have been left so much in the dark concerning the necessity of regular mail facilities on the Lower Fraser as he seems to have been when he proposed to cut off the mail subsidy from that important route, and there are other places in the District which need better postal facilities, which I consider should receive that gentleman's earliest attention.

I hope that in the near future our District will reach that point that we may look for it to be divided and receive another representative. At present I think it is the largest constituency in the Dominion, extending over 1500 miles of territory, and when the census returns are in I think the necessary number of population will be found to demand such additional representation.

The protection of the river banks at Chilliwack, Sumas, Burton's Prairie and other places should receive my earnest attention, also the works for improving the channel at the Sandheads, in view of the expected increase in our shipping interests.

I consider the Province should have control over all railway charters and privileges within our borders.

Our Fishing interests, being of such great importance to this District in particular, I feel should receive more than ordinary attention.

I would urge the cutting of a canal through the Delta lands from the mouth of the Serpentine to Fraser River, also to enquire into the question of cutting one from the Fraser River to Port Moody, which has often been suggested to me.

Immigration, I consider, should be fostered, and encouraged judiciously. Just at present it is coming here fast enough; I would not like to see a large influx pour in at once, as many would be disappointed and go away disgusted and probably give our glorious Province a bad name.

There are many other matters I should like to touch upon, but it would make this address too long. I hope to see as many as possible before the election, when I shall be prepared to lay my views more fully before them and answer any questions. As soon as possible after the arrival of the writ I will arrange for a personal canvass and will send due notice of time and place of meetings.

During my long residence in the Province I have travelled through much of it, from Victoria to Cariboo, and have noted its growth and requirements, therefore, I feel fully competent to bring such matters before the notice of the House in a practical, business-like manner.

Should I have the honor to be elected I assure you I shall watch over the interests of this District faithfully and to the best of my ability, not forgetting that I also go as a true British Columbian and to do my duty as such.

Yours faithfully,
WM. B. TOWNSEND.

Parliamentary Election, 1890

To the Electors of New Westminster District:

GENTLEMEN:—Having been requested by a large number of electors of this District to offer myself as a candidate to represent you in the House of Commons, to which request I have much pleasure in complying, I beg to state that should you do me the honor to elect me as your representative whilst giving the present Government my free and independent support, I would do my utmost to favor the following amongst the many measures that I consider would be beneficial to the interests of this Province and the Dominion at large.

To urge the further improvements of the navigation of the Fraser and other rivers, the protection of their banks, the improvement of any harbors in this District, and the construction of canals where necessary for the purpose of allowing farmers and others every facility to reach market.

To encourage agriculture by protecting all such articles as can be produced in this Province, and to lower duties on all that cannot, and which are absolutely the necessaries of life, and increase the tariff on luxuries so that the consumer would be even taxed less than at present.

To increase the representation in proportion to the wealth and importance of this District.

To increase and have adequate mail service to all portions of the Province and free letter delivery in cities.

No diminution in the Chinese Restriction Act.

To have the Fishing Regulations amended to meet the requirements of this Province.

To have a Dry-Dock constructed at some suitable point on the Mainland to meet the growing demands of this District.

To urge the exchange of Lands in Peace River for the Lands in the Railway Belt:

And that Mining Machinery be admitted free of duty until such is manufactured in the Dominion.

To appoint efficient Immigration agents in all important localities.

To urge the Dominion Government to contribute to make Roads and Bridges through Dominion lands.

To urge immediate aid in any measure to prevent the overflowing of Dominion lands in this Province and to reclaim those subject to inundation.

Having been a resident of this District for over twenty years and knowing its requirements, I should be in a position to advocate your interests, and also my having had the honor to be your representative for the last four years in the Provincial Legislature would place me in a position of knowing something of Legislative routine.

I hope to visit each polling station during the canvass and more fully explain my views on the various topics of the day, which would be impossible to do in a short address.

I have the honor to be,

Gentlemen,

Your obedient servant,

dwmy13tc WM. H. LADNER.

TO THE ELECTORS

—OF—

New Westminster District.

GENTLEMEN:—As I have already announced, I beg to offer myself as a candidate for the seat in the Commons made vacant by the death of our late member, and I come before you as a supporter of the Government of Sir John Macdonald, reserving to myself, of course, the right to act independently should the action of the Government in any matter seem prejudical to our interests.

I would strongly urge immediate attention to the improvement of the River where required, for the protection of the rich agricultural lands of the District, and if elected, I shall at once proceed to Ottawa and leave no stone unturned to secure the immediate appointment of a competent engineer with a view to the prompt undertaking of this most important work.

As you are aware, the duty on certain kinds of mining machinery has been remitted in this Province as a special concession to British Columbia on account of the special conditions obtaining here. I would strongly urge the further application of this principle of special tariff arrangements, so as to relieve consumers of goods which must be imported, while preserving the protection of our agricultural and other interests.

The land laws of the Dominion, having been framed without close consideration of our requirements, are in many points unsuitable, for example in the conditions as to clearing. I would endeavor to secure immediate reform in this important matter.

Subsidies having been granted to railways in the various Provinces of the Dominion, I should urgently present the claims to similar assistance of railways within our own Province.

Should the City of New Westminster decide to build a bridge across the Fraser, I should use my best endeavors to obtain a substantial subsidy for the work, urging that an undertaking of this character should rank with canals and railways as one entitled to national aid.

The next census will undoubtedly show such an increase in the wealth and population of this District as will constitute an indentiable claim to increased representation in the Commons. That claim, if elected, I shall support to the utmost of my ability.

Although, with the growth of the District, the mail service has been improved and ex*tended, it still lags far behind our requirements.* I should give special attention to this part of your representative's work, feeling that it is one which is of vital importance.

I should urge the enactment of such fishery regulations, especially in the issuing of licences, as would, without any injustice to the canneries, the importance of which to the prosperity of the District all must recognize, fully protect the free fishermen, and encourage the settlement amongst us of the greatest possible number of that industrious and hardy class of men.

All enactments and regulations for the protection of white labor would receive my hearty support.

Continued work towards the improvement of the harbors of New Westminster and Vancouver, and the efficient lighting and buoying of the same, is a matter which would have my closest attention at all times.

In a word, I should constantly urge upon the Government the wisdom of a liberal policy in public works in this District, the vast resources of which make it certain that such a policy would be amply justified by results.

Trusting to have the opportunity of seeing every elector before polling day,

I am, Gentlemen,

Very sincerely yours,

dwmy14tc GORDON E. CORBOULD.
