A Disturbing Factor.

The aggressive policy of the Canadian Pacific railway in its competition with the transcontinental lines to the south of it is causing no small amount of uneasiness among those interested in the matter. The Canadian road is pushing its rivals at every available point. Arrangements have already been made, or are being made, for connection with San Francisco and Portland by way of Puget Sound, for steamships from Asia and from Europe, for lines of rail connecting the system with the great flour and wheat centres of the American North-West, for direct communication between Montreal and Boston; and a line touching Michigan at Detroit and New York State at the Niagara River is spoken of as more than a possibility of the near future. "As a disturbing factor in our railway arrangements, says the Iron Age, the "Canadian Pacific has not its equal among Amercian roads, and the problems raised by its policy are of the greatest importance." The explanation of this, of course, lies in the fact that the Canadian road has government backing, while the trunk lines with which it competes east of the Missouri River were built and are supported by private capital; and its transcontinental rivals, though subsidized with grants of land, do not, like it, possess independent access to both seaboards. Add to all this the fact that England has at last begun to show a practical interest in the Canadian road, and it is not difficult to understand the alarm manifested by our neighbors. In continuing its remarks on the subject, the Iron Age says: "This competition of the Candian Pacific may yet have an important bearing upon the question of Commercial Union with Canada, under decisions of late. Under the influence of Canadian competition and of other factors in the problem of scarcely less importance—such as the improvements in Sault Ste. Marie Canal—we are rapidly solving the question of quick time and low freights between the Pacific and the Atlantic. In this, as in all other lines of trade, what is to the advantage of the people at large may be severe upon those injuriously affected. It is hard to find a remedy for this. We, of course, would prefer our American lines, but what if the Canadian road is cheaper? Should not our manufacturing interests take advantage of low rates? As to further aid to American lines from government, it is not expected, and our transcontinental roads which have allowed government gifts to be diverted from their treasury may yet wish they had reserved to themselves the money once theirs." This we take to mean that the American roads have little hope of ever being able to offer better rates or quicker transportation to either seaboard for the products of an important area of the United States than the Canadian road offers; and that, inasmuch as the United States is morally bound to afford those products every prossible facility for reaching foreign markets, it should take measures to secure the wiping out of the customs barrier which now prevents access to the shorter and cheaper route. It may be, therefore, as our contemporary says, that the competition of the Canadian Pacific with the railway system of the United States will have an important bearing upon the question of Commercial Union.—Mail.

Columbus will no doubt get all the credit, at the proposed quadricentennial celebration in 1892, of of having discovered America; but the fact is now almost undisputed that Leif Erickson, the Norseman, had nearly 500 years start of him. "There is no historical fact in the world better established than that America was discovered by the Icelanders in the year A. D. 1001," writes Prof. Majunssun, of Cambridge University Library, in England, and he adds: "There is not a learned body in Europe that ever breathes a doubt about it. The saga of the discovery is no legend; it is sober historical narrative. It can be read in the "Antiquitates Americonæ," published by the Royal Society of Antiquaries of Copenhagen, a copy of which, no doubt, adorns the shelves of the Massachusetts Historical Society." It is also a well-authenticated historic fact that Columbus visited Iceland in 1477 and learned of Erickson's discovery, the records of which had been preserved.—Mail.

LAST NIGHT'S DESPATCHES.

ANOTHER SHUFFLE.

WINNIPEG, Oct. 31.—There is nothing new in railroad circles. Negotiations are off and no prospect of the road this year. Holt the contractor, leaves for New York to-day.

THE STORMS CONTINUE.

NORFOLK, Va., Nov. 1.—The storm which visited this section on Sunday and Monday, has proven most disastrous. Although the telegraph lines along the coast are down, yet the meagre reports received indicate that at least fifty vessels are ashore, many of them total wrecks. As yet no lives have been reported lost. A steamship is reported ashore at Ocean View, 15 miles from this point.

GOOD RIDDANCE.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 1.—The str. Gaelic will sail for China on the 9th inst. with the largest lot of departing Chinese that has left this coast for several years. Over 1200 men and a few women will return on that day to their native land. This sudden departure of the Mongolians is due to the impending New Year which is celebrated with effect in the flowery kingdom.

O'BRIEN IN JAIL.

COBH, Nov. 1.—Attempts were made to-day in jail to compel Wm. O'Brien, sentenced to 3 months imprisonment under the Crimes Act for the use of seditious language at the Mitchelstown mass meeting, to undergo treatment as an ordinary prisoner. O'Brien said such treatment was an outrage, and he will die before he submits to the humiliation. He passed an almost sleepless night, and looks weary and worn after the great excitement and strain he has undergone during the past 24 hours. The governor of the jail sent a special messenger to Dublin castle asking for instructions. Should the answer be to treat O'Brien as any other prisoner, his hair will be cut in the prison cut, and he be placed on the ordinary fare, and compelled to undergo the usual discipline, and be one of the jail's regular inmates. The press of this city denounce the treatment of the distinguished editor from first to last as a piece of sovereign injustice.

CANTERBURY ON THE PEACE MEMORIAL.

LONDON, Nov. 1.—The Archbishop of Canterbury has written a letter concerning the American peace memorial, in which he says: "If America saw her way about this, English Christians would be eager to accept. I would myself." Cardinal Manning hopes that the president and congress will give effect to the petition, and says that war between "the United States and our brethern in America would be fratricide."

DILLON ON THE STUMP.

DUBLIN, Nov. 1.—Mr. Dillon, speaking at a League meeting in Limerick to-day, said that a partisan judge had confirmed the Mitchelstown sentence upon O'Brien under circumstances astounding to those unaccustomed to the mockery of law prevailing in the Irish courts. If O'Brien's friends had had force enough to prevent this, they would have rescued him at any cost. He would scorn people, who, having the power to procure liberty, would submit to such brutal tyranny.

Mr. Parpetus Boileau, Ottawa, says:—"I was radically cured of piles, from which I had been suffering for over two months, by the use of Thomas' Eclectric Oil. I used it both internally and externally, taking it in small doses before meals and on retiring to bed. In one week I was cured, and have had no trouble since. I believe it saved my life."

THIS MORNING'S DESPATCHES.

AN UNLUCKY EDITOR.

NEW YORK, Nov. 2.—A Long Branch special says: Clifton W. Tayleur, the sixty year old editor of Long Branch News, was severely beaten in the News office yesterday forenoon by Dr. C. Pemberton, Dr. Hunt the attending physician says that Teyleur is fatally injured. Tayleur was weak and ill when assaulted but his assailant was in prime condition. Pemberton says: "Tayleur wrote me an offensive letter." Pemberton is fifty seven years old; prior to the last few weeks the combatants were on the most friendly terms.

JEFF DAVIS DYING.

MACON, Ga., Nov. 2.—There are considerable doubts as to whether Jefferson Davis will return to his isolated home at Beauvoir Miss. alive. His condition is pronounced to-day extremely precarious; for several years he has been troubled with a serious affection of the heart, which the excitement of the last week served only to aggravate. Since Saturday he has been confined to his bed and physicians have been in daily attendance. It is understood that his daughters who are guests of the city of Macon, have been summoned to their fathers bedside. The end is expected any moment.

WILL HAND HIM OVER.

TUCSON, Ariz. Nov, 2.—Information has been received here that the Governor of Sonora has made a proposition to the authorities of California to deliver to them the jury briber Dick Creighton although the offense charged against him is not on the list of those extraditable.

AN INSANE OLD WOMAN.

CINCINNATI, Nov. 2.—Mrs. Mary Barkers was arrested here yesterday on charge of murder. Last December Charles Cedilate died under very mysterious circumstances he was supposed to have been poisoned as his wife and child were very sick at a time. Yesterday Mrs. Cedilate and her little son were again taken very sick and but for the prompt assistance of a physician both would have died. It has since been discovered that arsenic was placed in some cranberry pie by Mrs. Parker, mother of Mrs. Cedilate. There is no longer any doubt in the minds of the authorities, that the two poisonings were the work of the old woman. Mrs. Parker is 60 years old and as she is believed to be insane, She will be sent to the asylum.

A SPLENDID SHOWING.

MONTREAL, Nov. 2.—The gross earnings of the Canadian Pacific railway for September were $1,063,208 and expenses $685,239 leaving a net profit of $377,966 against a net profit of $375,189 for September last year.

RE-ORGANIZATION SCHEME.

NEW YORK, Nov. 2.—A meeting of the proferred stock holders of the Northern Pacific railroad company will be held to-day to authorize a new issue of bonds. By the plan of reorganization, no bonds in addition to the $200,000 per mile provided by it can be issued without the assent of at least three fourths of the preferred stock. The necessity of extending dividend certificates which mature at the end of the year and of raising funds for the completion of the Cascade tunnel has led to a proposal by the directors to issue not over $12,000,000 bonds for these and other purposes.

D. Sullivan, Malcolm, Ontario, writes: "I have been selling Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil for some years, and have no hesitation in saying that it has given better satisfaction than any other medicine I have ever sold. I consider it the only patent medicine that cures more than it is recommended to cure." Unprincipled persons are selling imitations of Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil. Do not be deceived.

THIS AFTERNOON'S DESPATCHES.

THE ANARCHISTS MUST HANG.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 2.—Chief Justice Waite to-day delivered the opinion of the U. S. supreme court in the case of the seven condemned Chicago anarchists. The decision affirms the judgment of the lower court denying the application of the writ of error and says that the Illinois jury laws are constitutional. Chief Justice Waite in a long and carefully prepared opinion, which occupied 35 minutes in reading, read the decision of the court. The court holds in brief: 1st. That the first ten amendments to the constitution are limitations upon the federal and and not upon the state action. 2nd. That the jury law of the state of Illinois is upon its face valid and on all points similar to the powers with the constitutional provisions to the statute of Utah, which was sustained in this court in the case of Hoft vs. the territory of Utah. 3rd. That it does not appear in record that upon evidence at the trial the court should have declared Juror Sanford incompetent. 4th. That the objection to the admission of John Most's letter and the cross-examination of Spies which counsel for the prisoners virtually compelled them to testify against themselves, were not objected to in the trial court, and that therefore no foundation was laid for the exercise of this jurisdiction. 5th. That the questions raised by Gen. Butler in the cases of Spies and Fielden upon the basis of their foreign nationality were neither raised nor decided in the state courts and therefore cannot be considered here. The writ of error prayed for must consequently be denied. There was no dissenting opinion.

NATIONALISTS MEETING.

DUBLIN, Nov. 2.—At Limerick today there was a big demonstration; there were four members of parliament present, one being John Dillon. Numerous branches of the National League were represented belonging to Clare, Limerick and Tipperary and parts of Cork and Derry, portions of which counties are proclaimed in the districts under the coercion act. The The demonstration was a big one, 10,000 at least being present.

THE B. C.-ALASKAN BOUNDARY.

OTTAWA, Nov. 2.—Mr. Ogilvie, of the geographical survey, who will winter in northern British Columbia, will take observations for the purpose of defining the 141st meridian which will form a basis for determining the boundary line between Alaska and British Columbia.

THE ANARCHISTS RECEIVE THE NEWS COOLLY.

CHICAGO, Nov. 2.—The jail authorities did not evince any surprise when informed of the anarchists decision. "It was just what we expected," said Jailer Folz. The anarchists received the news unmoved and refused to express any opinion in the matter.

THE FAMOUS SINGER DEAD.

LONDON, Nov. 2.—Jenny Lind, the celebrated Swedish singer is dead, aged 68 years. She has been seriously ill for some weeks.

JEFF IS ALL RIGHT.

MACON, Ga., Nov. 2.—The reports that Jefferson Davis is in a precarious condition are not correct. His health is better than it has been at any time since he left Beauvoir.

Wednesday Evening, Nov. 2, 1887.

Notable Events.

In our last issue we referred to the fact that yesterday was the anniversary of events which are among the most important in the history of the city. On the 1st of November, 1886, the first passenger train for this city came over the C. P. R., and we were at once placed in direct railway connection with the whole American continent. To this result, the people of Westminster had been looking forward for many years. It was felt by everybody that we should be left far behind in the race for supremacy without direct and easy connection with the railway systems of the continent. Flowing past our doors were the waters of our great river, the natural highway of commerce for this district, and a resource from which we derived no small advantage; but the river without the railway could never make this city the commercial centre for which nature designed it. The people of Westminster were not content to play second fiddle to any other portion of the province, and they were determined that, if it were possible, their city should be put in possession of first-class advantages in the way of trade. It cost us a large sum of money to secure the railway—larger than it ought to have cost—but we are sure no one will now say that the amount has been expended in a project from which there was no adequate return. In the whole history of this city there has never been a year of more substantial and satisfactory progress. We have been brought into touch with parts of the province with which, without the railway, we could not expect to acquire or maintain satisfactory business relations. We have opened up to us possible markets of vast extent in eastern Asia, by means of the transpacific steamship line. We have found a large and growing market in the interior and east of the Rocky Mountains for our surplus lumber, our fish, and our fruit. We have secured a place on the great avenues of commerce which enables us to enter into competition, on equitable terms, with any producing or distributing centre on the Pacific coast. These are some of the direct benefits coming to us from the completion and operation of the Canadian Pacific Railway to this city; and the confidence in our future inspired by the event shows itself in the substantial buildings and improvements of a costly and permanent character everywhere to be seen in the city. And what has been done this year is possibly but the beginning. The erection of one fine substantial place of business makes it necessary that others of a like character should be erected. The wooden shops which still remain a disfigurement to our principal business streets must give way to more pretentious structures which shall be more in keeping with the general character of the new and improved order of architecture. Indeed, it is even now stated that next spring nearly the whole south side of Columbia st. will be adorned with massive brick blocks, and the north side will certainly have to follow the example of the south, or lose its business. It is the opinion of many citizens that the coming year will see a more general development of the city than has taken place this year, and the second anniversary of the opening of our railway will find a city which the residents of 1886 would hardly be able to recognize. We hope it will also find our citizens enjoying the fruits of many new enterprises. Westminster enjoys beyond question the most favorable situation for the establishment of wholesale houses in British Columbia. With the railway and the river at her very doors, no other city should be able to compete with her successfully in this branch of trade. Goods are laid down here in bulk as cheaply as they can be laid down anywhere else, and our facilities for distributing them cheaply and promptly are unequalled. We shall be glad to state, on the second anniversary of the opening of the railway, that the year has been marked by the establishment of wholesale houses carrying the leading lines of merchandise at least. We hope also to say that the corporation of this city has shown an enterprise in keeping with the enterprise of private citizens, and endeavored to keep pace with the new order of advancement. A city loan should be negotiated early next year, and by means of this loan the appearance of the streets and parks of the city should be greatly improved. There should be erected a city hall of which the people of the royal city need not be ashamed. It is to be hoped also that a market will be established so as to facilitate the exchange of produce and other things brought from the surrounding country. The opening of the gas works, although not of such importance as the railway, is, nevertheless, an incident that has given character to our city, which is rapidly assuming a metropolitan appearance. The first year of railway and gas has been wonderfully satisfactory: we hope the second will be even more so.

A Sluggish Liver

Causes the Stomach and Bowels to become disordered, and the whole system to suffer from debility. In all such cases Ayer's Pills give prompt relief.

After much suffering from Liver and Stomach troubles, I have finally been cured by taking Ayer's Cathartic Pills. I always find them prompt and thorough in their action, and their occasional use keeps me in a perfectly healthy condition.—Ralph Weeman, Annapolis, Md.

Twenty-five years ago I suffered from a torpid liver, which was restored to healthy action by taking Ayer's Pills. Since that time I have never been without them. They regulate the bowels, assist digestion, and increase the appetite, more surely than any other medicine.—Paul Churchill, Haverhill, Mass.

INVIGORATED.

I know of no remedy equal to Ayer's Pills for Stomach and Liver disorders. I suffered from a Torpid Liver, and Dyspepsia, for eighteen months. My skin was yellow, and my tongue coated. I had no appetite, suffered from Headache, was pale and emaciated. A few boxes of Ayer's Pills, taken in moderate doses, restored me to perfect health.—Waldo Miles, Oberlin, Ohio.

Ayer's Pills are a superior family medicine. They strengthen and invigorate the digestive organs, create an appetite, and remove the horrible depression and despondency resulting from Liver Complaint. I have used these Pills in my family, for years, and they never fail to give entire satisfaction.—Otto Montgomery, Oshkosh, Wis. ††

IMPORTANT AND PEREMPTORY

Auction Sale

—OF—

FARMING LANDS.

We will sell by Auction at our Sales-Rooms,

Cordova St., Vancouver, B. C.,

—ON—

WEDNESDAY, NOV. 16TH,

AT 7 P. M.,

By order of HENRY MATHERS, Esq., of New Westminster, nearly

6000 ACRES

CHOICE FARMING LANDS

The Property consists of 640 acres in Section 8, 640 acres in Section 9, 640 acres in Sec. 16, 640 acres in Sec. 17, 309 acres in Sec. 18, 620 acres in Sec. 19, 500 acres in Sec. 20, 640 acres in Sec. 21, 285 acres in Sec. 27, 640 acres in Sec. 28, and 240 acres in Sec. 29.

Owing to a combination of circumstances the property has to be realized upon this season, and this is a rare opportunity to obtain valuable land either to settle upon or for speculation. Township 14 is situated between Langley and Matsqui, two of the most flourishing settlements in the Province, and the soil is the richest of prairie and alder bottom, than which there is no better farming land on the continent. Some of the land is situated on the banks of the river and at the present time a road is being built through the property from the river to the Yale wagon road. It will be sold in block or sub-divisions to suit purchasers. The terms are extremely liberal, viz.: one-fourth cash, the balance in five yearly instalments with interest at 7 per cent. Title is the Crown Grants.

In view of the steadily increasing value of land in this part of the Province, we would respectfully call the attention of farmers and speculators to this sale.

AFRICAN "BLOOD BROTHERHOOD."

In about half an hour the king came. He was attended by a body-guard of 100 soldiers armed for combat. The introduction was unceremonious, because the two men could not speak a common language. The bishop relieved the situation of any awkwardness by stepping forward quickly and extending his hand to royalty, saying as he did so, "I'm glad to meet you." The king received the proffered hand with dignity, and when the bishop's words had been translated to him he responded:

"I have heard of the old white man, well digger, long walker, who speaks kind words. What would the old white man do in Mambalungo?"

"I am on my way," explained the bishop, "to Malange, where friends will follow me and stay."

"You are welcome to Mambalungo," continued the king. "Why not stay here with us rather than journey on to Malange?"

I have many places to visit, O king, but my friends who will follow me will visit you. You are now at war; when there is peace again you may see much of us."

The answer was well understood by the African, but he made no objection. In a moment he continued: "Tell me what it is that the old white man, well digger, long walker, and his friends would do in this land?"

"We come to live among you, to bring you peace and to tell you of many good things."

The king was impressed deeply with the idea that the bishop and his friends had come to stay and to work for themselves upon the soil instead of trading. As he talked with the bishop he grew to like the old white man more and more, and at last he said: "We have heard that the men of Kumbua are coming to make war upon us.

They lie between here and Malange. You will not venture to continue your journey before we have defeated them and brought about a peace?"

"Yes, O king," replied the bishop. "I shall go on as soon as I can. I am a friend to the people of Mambalungo and their king, but I am also a friend to the Kumbuans and their king likewise. There is no danger for me from them any more than there is danger from you. There is One above me to guard and protect me."

"The white man's God is indeed very powerful," assented the king, gravely, "and the white man speaks bravely and frankly. None other would I permit to pass from our town to the army of the Kumbuans. I believe you are my friend and I will show you that I am yours."

He thereupon summoned his chief lieutenant, and after a brief talk with him sat down on the floor of the hut and beckoned the bishop to sit beside him. The lieutenant then did some talking, the purport of which was that the king desired to cement the friendship he had formed for the white man by having the ceremony of blood brotherhood performed upon them. The bishop consented, although he knew little of the ceremony.

The lieutenant produced a sharp pointed knife, highly polished, which he touched upon his tongue, whether to test its sharpness, after the manner of barbers, or to give proof that it was not poisoned the bishop could not be certain. Then, standing up before the king and the bishop, he made an impressive address, which the bishop learned later was about the relations that ought to maintain between brothers. Then he knelt by the king, who raised his robes slightly so as to disclose his leg bare to the knee.

The lieutenant pricked the calf with the point of his knife, so that a few drops of blood ran. He caught them in his left hand and turned to the bishop, who, comprehending the situation, rolled his trousers part way up his legs. The lieutenant made a similar incision upon the bishop's calf and caught the dropping blood in the same hand that held the king's blood. Then he stood up again and rubbed the palm of his hands together, so that the blood was thoroughly mixed, after which he spatted both hands violently upon the ground, rubbing off all traces of the blood with dust, saying as he did so:

The king arose, reached out his hand to the bishop, who extended his own hand, and they shook solemnly, and the ceremony was over.

Old Fashioned Tooth Pulling

I remember having a tooth pulled once by the old doctor. His wife seated herself in a chair, and placed me on the floor with my head clasped between her knees. Then the doctor brought out his turnkey—which was constructed somewhat like one of the levers with a movable hook used for the rolling of logs—and fished from his pocket an old bandana handkerchief, which had done service for mouth, nose and perspiration for a month or two, and wadded it about the handle of the machine. This bundle he pushed in my mouth, after having lanced the gums, and commenced working to get the end of the hook under the tooth. Having accomplished this, he began to grind on the handle, and at the same moment the old lady tightened her grasp on my head. The top of my head seemed being pried off, and all the marrow in my bones seemed to be pulled up in strings toward my neck. Crack! the instrument slipped off. Again it was fixed, and again the top of my head was turned upward with a violent crash, and again the reluctant marrow was drawn out in strings. Three times did the machine slip; the fourth trial was made, the top of my head was wrenched entirely off, and the marrow in my system, my boots, bones, and all, appeared to be drawn up with a terrific pull, and the molar was extracted.

It was not an uncommon occurrence in those days for the doctor, when trying to locate his hook beyond the space filled by the handkerchief, to hitch on the wrong tooth, and to jerk out a grinder in place of the real offender. In such a case the sufferer took it all good naturedly, and underwent with equal endurance as he could the correction of the blunder.

Popular Summer Dresses.

Foulards and India silks are among the most popular and at the same time comfortable dresses for summer wear. The red foulards and China silks, so popular with French women, are also worn here. Velvet is much used as a trimming for these soft silk dresses, the velvet being employed for collar, cuffs, vest and plastron.

ABOUT WOMEN.

—The W. C. T. U., of Troy, New York, have begun an earnest effort to secure jail and police matrons.

—Miss Alice Jordan has been admitted to practice at the bar of the Superior Court of Michigan. She was made LD. B., at Yale last year.

—Mrs. Potter Palmer read a paper on "Some of the Tendencies of Modern Culture," at the last meeting of the "Chicago Friday Club."

—At the twenty-fourth annual commencement of the New York Medical College for Women, which took place recently, fourteen ladies were graduated.

—The young women of Newton, N. J., have formed a league and pledged themselves to refuse the attentions of young men who use alcohol or tobacco.

Mrs. M. Louise Thomas, president of Sorosis, has been one of the most successful bee-keepers in the country, making ten thousand pounds of honey in a year.

—The "Inter-Ocean," gives its seventy thousand subscribers the sensible article of T. W. Higginson in "Harper's Bazar," which advises that there should be "a moral equivalence of married partners." Not one will, but two, and equal rights as in other partnerships.

—The women of Indianapolis are trying to purify the city. They have secured a large number of indictments against owners and keepers of disorderly houses. It has been decided in some states that the owner or a building let to a person who maintains it for immoral purposes is himself, legally, the keeper of the house.

—Woman suffragists believe that women are going to be an important factor for good in solving the great problem of "human rights." Women admit themselves human also, and that, therefore, human rights applies to them as much as men. Women suffrage is but the on going of Christian civilization, and no power on earth can stay its progress.

—Mrs. Florence Kelley Wischenewetsky read a paper upon "The Need of Special Training in Philanthropic Work," at a recent meeting of the Collegiate alumnæ of New York. Miss Grace H. Dodge; Dr. Hall, of Vassar; Miss Woodward, of Smith College; Miss Edgerton, of Wellesly; Mrs. Frances Fisher Wood, and others, participated in the discussion.

—Mrs. Layah Barakat, a talented Syrian lady, has been in Chicago lately, interesting large audiences, as she does everywhere. She never fails to speak for temperance when opportunity offers. She has just been appointed Vice-President of the World's W. C. T. U. for Syria, and upon her return to her native land will carry on temperance work among the women of her people.

—The Women's Educational and Industrial Union, of Buffalo, N. Y., are trying to have two women appointed to fill the vacancies in the Board of Trustees of the Buffalo State Insane Asylum. The last annual report of the asylum that two hundred and ten out of three hundred and ninety-eight patients are women. In Massachusetts, Maine and Iowa, women have been made trustees of insane asylums, and in every case with good results.

—The ladies have done well in Cambridge and Dublin. At the English University eleven of the superior sex have succeeded in taking mathematical honors, while in Ireland the degree of bachelor of arts has been conferred on nine women, of whom four took honors. In Trinity was capped master of arts, and another lady who obtained the first place on the list in modern literature, was awarded a valuable scholarship. Seventy-eight women presented themselves for the matriculation examination, and of these seventy-one passed, twenty-seven obtaining honors.

Mrs. Crawford, the well-known Paris correspondent of the "London Daily News" and Mr. Labouchere's "Truth," is the only lady member of the celebrated Cobden Club, and one of the most prominent characters of contemporary Parisian history. When the husband of Mrs. Crawford died the proprietors of the "London Daily News" showed their appreciation of the fact that she had acted as coadjutor, secretary, reporter, nurse and wife to their regular correspondent by appointing her to act in his place at a yearly salary of about seven thousand dollars. Nor does it seem as if they have had any reason to regret her nomination, since they have recently leased a private wire from Paris to London, at a yearly cost of forty thousand dollars.

Bird Legends.

Following are a few of the many bird legends that people with bright imaginations and ready inventions have connected with feathered musicians:

The poor cuckoo, whose mournful cry sounds so desolate in the quiet wood, is always mourning for the death of a beloved brother. The cuckoo was originally a beautiful young maiden. She caused her brother's death unintentionally, and was changed into the bird whose sad cry is an expression of her bitter grief.

The owl was also once a beautiful young girl. She was a baker's daughter. One day a good man, passing by, asked for a piece of bread. She refused it, and as a punishment was changed into an owl. In Germany the swallow and the lark are sacred birds, and their morning song is considered a hymn.

The nightingale, you know, only sings at night. This was not so formerly. One night a nightingale fell fast asleep, and the tendrils of the vine it sat upon grew round its feet, so that it could not get away, and finally it died. Since then the other nigtingales never dared sleep at night.

PRUNES. Use only the best selected prunes. Put them into warm water to clean them; let them stand a few minutes, rubbing gently between the hands to be sure that all dust and dirt is removed; rinse, and if rather dry and hard, put them into three parts of water to one of prunes; cover closely, and let them simmer for several hours. If the prunes are quite easily cooked tender, less water may be used, but they should be simmered slowly as before. A slice of lemon, added just before the prunes are done, is thought by some to be an improvement. Cooked in this way, they will be soft and sweet, with a thick juice, and need no sugar whatever. Many persons who cannot eat fruit cooked with sugar, can safely partake of prunes cooked in this way.

A Creaking Hinge

Is dry and turns hard, until oil is applied, after which it moves easily. When the joints, or hinges, of the body are stiffened and inflamed by Rheumatism, they cannot be moved without causing the most excruciating pains. Ayer's Sarsaparilla, by its action on the blood, relieves this condition, and restores the joints to good working order.

Ayer's Sarsaparilla has effected, in our city, many most remarkable cures, in cases which baffled the efforts of the most experienced physicians. Were it necessary, I could give the names of many individuals who have been cured by taking this medicine. In my case it has worked wonders, relieving me of after being troubled with it for years. In this, and all other diseases arising from impure blood, there is no remedy with which I am acquainted, that affords such relief as Ayer's Sarsaparilla.—R. H. Lawrence, M. D., Baltimore, Md.

Ayer's Sarsaparilla cured me of Gout and Rheumatism, when nothing else would. It has eradicated every trace of disease from my system.—R. H. Short, Manager Hotel Belmont, Lowell, Mass.

I was, during many months, a sufferer from chronic Rheumatism. The disease afflicted me grievously, in spite of all the remedies I could find, until I commenced using Ayer's Sarsaparilla. I took several bottles of this preparation, and was speedily restored to health.—J. Fream, Independence, Va. ††

Prepared by Dr. J. C. Ayer & Co., Lowell, Mass. Sold by all Druggists. Price $1; six bottles, $5.

WHAT PHYSICIANS SAY ABOUT THE

STARR KIDNEY PAD.

"Treatment by Absorption has for some time been recognized by Medical Men to be the most simple and effectual means of conveying to Diseased Organs, "Curatives," but in cases of Kidney Disease and Complaints attendant thereon, successful treatment was practicably impossible until the introduction of the Starr Kidney Pad. It costs less than a single prescription and is immeasurably more decisive and effective than any quantity of internal Medicinal dosing. Worn immediately over the seat of Disease, its curative properties become absorbed by the diseased and enfeebled Organs, continuously and directly, as required to insure in return their healthy action and original vigour. It is comfortable to the patient and pleasant in its effects, and cures when nothing else can. The Starr Kidney Pad accomplishes positive, decisive results. A more valuable discovery as a true remedy for Kidney Diseases was never made.—Medical Gazette

The Starr Kidney Pad, manufactured in Toronto, is a permanent sure cure for diseases, disorders and aliments of the Kidneys, Bladder and urinary secretive system, or attendant complaints, causing pain in the small of the back, sides, etc., producing urinary disorders, such as too frequent, scanty, difficult, painful or copious micturition, inability of retention and sedimentary urine, dropsical symptoms etc., denoting the presence in the system of diseases common to the urinary secretive organs—known as gravel, catarrh of the bladder and passages, Bright's disease, diabetes, dropsy, piles, nervous debility, etc. Send for pamphlet to LANGLEY & CO., Wholesale Agents, Victoria. Daily British Columbian

Wednesday Evening, Nov. 2, 1887.

The police court showed a clear sheet to-day.

The N. W. Rifles will parade in the Drill Shed to-night at 8 o'clock.

Ten carloads of freight arrived yesterday and one carload went out.

The salmon managed to evade the nets entirely last night as not one was caught.

The stock of W. Prothero will be sold by the sheriff at 10 o'clock on Monday morning.

Game is very plentiful at present and every steamer from up-river brings down large quantities.

The county court opened at eleven o'clock this morning and up to the hour of going to press only a few unimportant cases had been disposed of.

The str. Yosemite left for Victoria this morning at the usual hour with 100 tons merchandise, 20 tons hides, and 3000 cases of salmon, besides a large number of passengers.

The str. Gladys arrived from up-river ports last night with a full cargo of freight and 30 passengers. On her up trip this morning she took 25 tons of freight and a few passengers.

The customs receipts at Victoria for the month of October amounted to $63,986, a decrease of $6,026 compared with the same month of last year, and $12,792 less than for October, 1885.

The Irving left for Hope this morning at 4 o'clock with 60 tons of freight and a number of passengers. On her return trip she will bring a band of cattle from the Similkameen country.

Mr. Moresby has received instructions to the effect that the sentence of death against Ah Chow for murder is to be carried out on the 18th inst. He will probably be hanged in Lytton.

The WEEKLY COLUMBIAN was issued this morning, and is an excellent number to send to friends at a distance. Subscribers paying $2 for 1888 will receive the paper free for the balance of this year.

The str. Rainbow arrived over from Victoria last evening shortly after 5 o'clock, bringing 25 tons of freight and a few passengers. She cleared for Victoria this morning with 50 bales of hay and a large quantity of other farm produce.

Skin diseases cannot be successfully treated by external applications. The proper way to cure such complaints is to purify the blood with Ayer's Sarsaparilla. Under the vitalizing influences of this medicine all the functions of the body are brought into healthy action.

The pie social comes off to-night in the Baptist Church and everyone should go as a good time is anticipated. One of the pies has not been laid on our table but, even so, we can safely say they will be toothsome enough to tickle the palate of the greatest gourmand present.

The str. Belle left for Nanaimo to-day with a scow, containing 200 bales of hay, in tow. She also took a quantity of merchandise and several passengers. The Belle is taking the Dunsmuir's trip for this week as the latter steamer is laid up for a few necessary repairs.

John Murray met with good luck again yesterday in his deer shooting operations. A fine buck and doe were the results of the days hunting, which, considering the proximity of the runways to the city, is pretty good work. Murray is shooting for W. H. Vianen, who takes all the game off his hands.

The Mainland Transfer Co. has been handed over to Messrs. Gilley Bros., who have purchased the stock consisting of horses, carriages, stages, etc., formerly the property of the company. The business will be carried on under the same name, and the new proprietors will conduct a general livery, staging and teaming business. They will also deal extensively in cordwood, of which they have a large stock. The stables will be open day and night for the convenience of the public and management hopes to give entire satisfaction to all who patronizes the company.

Fogs and Steamers.

Notwithstanding the fogs that have enshrouded the gulf and river for the past week, making navigation dangerous and difficult, the steamers have all passed through the ordeal without mishap or accident of any kind. Now that the foggy weather seems to be over the steamers will commence running on schedule time again. The steamer Yosemite will in future leave for Victoria on Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays, and returning will arrive on Tuesdays, Thursdays and Saturdays.

A Good Move.

When the Royal Engineers were stationed at Sapperton many years ago the imperial government, among other stores, sent out four complete sets of artillery harness, which were kept under the care of the storekeeper, Mr. John Murray. The Dominion government took over the stores some years ago and Mr. Murray held the above mentioned harness for wages, as storekeeper, which had not been paid. It is now proposed to buy these harness by a citizens' subscription for the artillery, and a list will be sent round in a few days for those to sign who wish to contribute to this worthy object. The artillery are a fine corps and should be supported in every way by our citizens; the city council also should contribute to this fund and aid in keeping the battery not only the best drilled but the best appointed in the province.

The Kamloops Murder.

Conductor Trodden, of the C.P.R., was in Kamloops on the night of the Indian shooting affray during which Potsa killed one man and mortally wounding another. Mr. Trodden says it was supposed to be the chief of the tribe who shot Potsa after the latter had killed the watchman. Potsa's horse was also killed and both bodies were riddled with bullets. The affair caused much excitement and the Indians were considerably agitated over it. After the shooting was known in Kamloops several people went over to the reservation; they found the wife of the dead Indian, with her husband's corpse in her arms, wailing and moaning in a pitiful manner. It is thought this affair will have a wholesome effect on some of the Indians who are inclined to overlook the law entirely and think they can commit depredations and behave at will without punishment.

The China Steamer.

The steamer Parthia arrived in Vancouver last night at 6 o'clock, 14 days out from Yokohama. Head winds and very stormy weather were met with during the latter part of the voyage, which spoiled what at first promised to be the fastest trip on record to that port. The Parthia took on a pilot at 8 o'clock yesterday morning at Esquimalt, and after landing two second class passengers and thirteen Chinese proceeded to the terminal city. Strange as it may seem, no mails were landed at Esquimalt, but that was probably an oversight. The Parthia brought a full passenger list, and had her cabin accommodations been more extensive she would have brought many more.

Her manifest, which is a very large one, is made up as follows: 34,125 pkgs tea, 4,302 mdse, 3,482 rice, 412 silk, 409 tapioca, 264 Japanese goods, 202 curios, 150 oil, 150 wine, 145 rattan goods, 75 opium, 69 sundries, 52 gambier, 50 pepper, 21 porcelain, 67 parcels. They are consigned to almost all the principal cities on the continent.

The Parthia will sail on the 9th inst. for Yokohama and Hong Kong.

Don't forget the pie social in the Baptist Church on Wednesday night at 8 o'clock, sharp. Admission 25 cts. doct31t3

The Medical Council.

The Medical Council of British Columbia have been holding their regular meeting to-day and yesterday at the Colonial Hotel, Dr. Powell, acting president, in the chair. Three gentlemen, viz., Drs. Bodington, Fagan and Samson, having passed the examination and complied with the requirements of the act, have been admitted to the register of the province. There is no doubt that the act as carried out by the council is productive not only of keeping up a high standard among the medical practitioners, but also of giving greater confidence to those who may require medical attendance. Dr. W. A. DeWolf Smith, of this city, was unanimously elected to fill the vacancy in the council caused by the death of Dr Trew. The examinations were conducted by Drs. Powell, Milne, Hannington McGuigan, and Tunstall, all of whom will leave the city this evening.

The next meeting of the council will be held in Victoria on the first Monday in May, 1888.

The Medical Council of British Columbia has learned with profound regret of the death of their late president, Dr. C. N. Trew, of New Westminster.

The Medical Council now assembled, in lamenting the loss of their late friend and companion, and deploring the demise of a most valued officer, whose earnest efforts were always exerted in upholding the highest standard of the profession in this province, and to whose efforts the establishment of the medical council was mainly due, are only reflecting the feeling of sorrow which is experienced by the members of the profession throughout the province, by whom the late Dr. Trew was so universally and deservedly esteemed.

To his bereaved widow and children, whose loss of a loving husband and affectionate father is irreparable, we join in tendering the heartfelt sympathy experienced generally by the entire community, who feel that an old and faithful citizen has been unexpectedly taken from our midst.

Holloway's Corn Cure is the medicine to remove all kinds of corns and warts, *and only costs the small sum of twenty-*five cents.

A Murderous Bird.

Yesterday a hawk swooped down upon a canary bird, whose cage hung on Mr. J. S. Clute's verandah, grabbed the bird by the head and attempted to pull it through the wires of the cage. The little songster's head was pulled off, and carried away by the hawk. Two small children were playing near the cage at the time, but the hawk was bound to secure his prey. The canary was a very valuable one.

From Cassiar.

Mr. John Grant, M.P.P., arrived down from Cassiar by the Ancon yesterday. H reports that mining district to have secured about the same quantity of gold as last year. Little prospecting had been done, and as a consequence no new fields were discovered. No definite reports had been received from Lorne Creek, but it was understood that in several claims a fair yield had been secured.—Colonist.

Hundreds of persons who have used Ayer's Hair Vigor attest its value, as a stimulant and tonic, for preventing and curing baldness, cleansing the scalp, and restoring the youthful color to faded and gray hair.

Personal.

Dr. Tunstall, of Kamloops, returned home to-day.

G. R. Ashwell of Chiliwhack came down on the Gladys last night on a business visit.

Chester Chadsey, of Chilliwhack is in the city to-day. Mr. Chadsey, who has just returned from a trip to Ontario, says the weather east of the Mountains is very severe. At Port Arthur he was surprised to see skaters on the bay, and along the north shore of Lake Superior there were several inches of snow on the ground.

A DILAPIDATED PHYSIQUE may be built up and fortified against disease by that incomparable promoter of digestion and fertilizer of the blood, Northrop & Lyman's Vegetable Discovery and Dyspeptic Cure. It counteracts Biliousness and Kidney complaints, overcomes bodily ailments special with the feebler sex, causes the bowels to act like clockwork, and is a safeguard against malaria and rheumatism.

From Ladners.

LADNERS, Oct. 31.—The steamer Falcon arrived to-day with a scow of lumber from Port Moody, the first shipment of the 150,000 feet ordered from there by different parties here, they being able to get it for $2 a thousand less than at the Westminster mills. The Falcon also brought a raft of piles for Mr. McNeely's new wharf. Capt. Cowper reports a "dirty" trip, but his staunch craft gave him every satisfaction.—Harvest is finished, and farmers are busy storing their roots, &c., for winter feed. The yield of all crops has been disappointing. Hay is selling readily at $20 a ton here, notwithstanding that Victoria parties claim they can get it from Manitoba for $16 a ton, freight paid to Victoria. Apropos of the Manitoba produce, a better known than respected dealer in Victoria shipped about 2 tons of his refuse, thistle, sorrel and weed seed, up here last week, a sample of which I send you, but a number of our leading farmers clubbed together and bought the stuff and intend to burn it in order that it may not be propagated in this settlement. It is a disgrace and should be a criminal act for any man to ship such a collection of weed seeds here. It is what was fanned out of "Manitoba oats"—The proposed concert in aid of the Royal Columbian Hospital has fallen through, one or two mercenary females objecting to getting up a concert for such an object, as they do not like to see the money go out of the place.—A meeting is shortly to be held to establish an agricultural society here.—The Delta quadrille club opens the season on Friday next with a ball, and a very pleasant party is expected, the arrangements being carried out by a strong committee.—We were pleased to have the Ven. Archdeacon Woods amongst us: he came down to conduct the harvest thanksgiving services in All Saints' Church, and it was a pleasure to see the church filled at both services.—Willie McKee was around to-day looking well, although still carrying his crutches along.—The canneries have all closed down, having had a successful season.—[The stuff sent by our correspondent is a paper bag of seeds and refuse sufficient to propogate weeds over a whole farm. We agree with the remark that there ought to be a law to prevent such dangerous stuff coming into the country, and we commend the public spirit of the Delta farmers who promptly took measures to destroy the first consignment. —ED.]

Miss Mary Campbell, Elm, writes:—"After taking four bottles of Northrop & Lyman's Vegetable Discovery and Dyspeptic Cure, I feel as if I were a new person. I had been troubled with Dyspepsia for a number of years, and tried many remedies, but of no avail, until I used this celebrated Dyspeptic Cure" For all impurities of the Blood, Sick Headache, Liver and Kidney Complaints, Costiveness, etc., it is the best medicine known.
