HEAD OFFICE, TORONTO, CANADA

A HOME COMPANY.

This Association merits the confidence the Public is reposing in it from the following FACTS:—

The Security offered to policy holders is unsurpassed by any Company doing business in Canada.

It has no schemes of insurance, but the well-established lines, hence the policy holders cannot be misled as to their contracts.

Its statements to the public can be readily understood, its cash statement showing every item of income and how expended.

Its position is ascertained annually from a detailed valuation in which every item of liability is included.

Its progress has been unexampled in the history of insurance in Canada.

Its policies are indisputable after three years, and non-forfeitable after two years' existence.

Its profits are distributed upon an equitable basis. The profits to one class of policy holders are not lessened to give larger profits to any other class, which method affords superior advantages over the uniform bonus plan of distribution.

NOTES AND COMMENTS.

The Pall Mall Gazette's criticism of Parnell's recent action in suing the Times is evidently the outcome of anxiety lest he should injure his own case. Certainly it is not the result of hostile feeling. The Pall Mall is a thorough going Home Ruler.

The wire says that plans have been prepared at Ottawa for the fortification of Esquimalt harbor. The arrangement is such that a hostile fleet trying to enter would meet a raking cross fire. But suppose it didn't want to enter, but simply lay off and pounded the plan at its leisure. How then?

Countess Chendon de Brialless, known in Paris as a clever amateur actress, has got herself talked about by a recent balloon trip she made with her husband. The cars were too slow to suit this couple, and so they started in a balloon from Paris to their country seat at Epernay. What is more, they got there safely, and descended in the grounds of their chateau before their servants and furniture had arrived.

There is a chance in the Balkan States for lovers of the bold brigand to gratify their tastes. They may have to pay for their fun, but that contingency must be counted in as part of the programme. The outlaws operate in that part of the country where there are neither railways nor telegraph, and of course easily manage to be where the police or soldiers are not. All the corners of the old world are not civilized yet.

The editor of the Cinsley, La., Mercury, is a Republican, but he has a Democratic wife. A few days since he attended a base ball game in an adjoining town, and while he was away his wife managed the paper. As a result the Mercury appeared with the following at the head of the local column: "Cleveland will be re-elected President in November by an overwhelming majority. The Democratic party will win because it is right. Cleveland has made the best President the country has ever had and if every state in the Union would elect none but Democrats there would be less stealing and meanness going on." What occurred when the editor returned home has not been disclosed, but it may be assumed on general principles that the woman holds the fort.

The managers of the Central fair, which opens in Toronto on the 24th inst., have inadvertently got themselves into a little trouble. They procured a colored lithograph for their posters from a well-known firm of lithographic printers in Buffalo. On the apex of each building which appears in the lithograph a flag staff with the stars and stripes flying from it, is engraved. The loyal people of Toronto are greatly offended at this, and the explanation offered by the Conservative organ, that the managers of the fair were merely consulting economy when they procured their cut at Buffalo, fails to satisfy them. The bills have been sadly abused and disfigured wherever shown in hotel corridors or other public places. The people of Toronto evidently don't fancy being annexed before their time.

The milk dealers in the vicinity of Ottawa have formed a combine and raised the price of milk to 8 cents a quart. People are inclined to rebel, and the warfare has got into the columns of the newspapers. The milkmen are are reminded that milk in Toronto is only 5 cents a quart, and to this the combiners retort that the cattle of the Toronto milk dealers are fed on distillery slops instead of good succulent grass, hay, and roots, as are the cattle on the farms surrounding Ottawa. It is probable that the abundant rain of the past few days will go a great way towards breaking up the ring.—Mail. There is quite a suspicious "ring" about this last sentence. It will not surprise anybody to hear about a "combine" in milk. The time-honored custom of "combining" water with the lacteal fluid is familiar to everyone.

Chronic derangements of the Stomach, Liver, and Blood, are speedily removed by the active principle of the ingredients entering into the composition of Parmelee's Vegetable Pills. These Pills act specifically on the deranged organs, stimulating to action the dormant energies of the system, thereby removing disease and renewing life and vitality to the afflicted. In this lies the great secret of the popularity of Parmelee's Vegetable Pills.

LAST NIGHT'S DESPATCHES.

OTTAWA NOTES.

OTTAWA, Aug. 15.—Hon. John Haggart, Postmaster-General, was re-elected by acclamation to-day.

The Newfoundland delegates to discuss the terms of union are expected here on September 10th.

PROBABLY DROWNED.

KINGSTON, Aug. 15.—Leo Rushford, aged 36, left Howe island on Saturday in a skiff for Wolfe island. The skiff returned on Tuesday, but no news has been received of Rushford.

DENOUNCING DANCING.

MONTREAL, Aug. 15.—Some excitement has been caused at La Prairie by Cure Bourgeault denouncing dancing and forbidding his flock to participate in the weekly dances got up by the summer residents, but the dances still continue.

BOLD BRIGANDS.

LONDON, Aug. 15.—A large portion of Turkey and the Balkan States are infested with brigands, and their number is rapidly growing. These outlaws are taking advantage of the absence of railway and telegraphic communication to become bolder daily, and the consternation of the better class of inhabitants is increasing to such an extent that many of them are leaving their homes and taking refuge in the larger towns. Recently a band of brigands invaded St. Roumania, a small town, and captured the daughter of a peasant, a young girl, famed in that locality for her beauty. The chief of the band, wishing to make the girl his wife, had a mock marriage ceremony performed, one of the band personating a priest. He sent a messenger to the village authorities informing them of the marriage and demanding that it be formally registered on the books, a proceeding which would render the ceremony valid. The authorities refused to comply with the demand and the chief sent messengers back with his ultimatum, which was that he would sack the village if his demands were not immediately acceded to. The officials are endeavoring to gain time by parleying with the chief, hoping meanwhile to be able to recover the girl by stealth.

THE PARNELL COMMISSION.

LONDON, Aug. 15.—Sir James Hannel, Sir John Day and Sir Archibald Smith, who compose the commission appointed to investigate the charges against Mr. Parnell and other members of parliament have decided to open the commission October 16th. They have notified Mr. George Lewis, solicitor for the Parnellites, and Mr. George Soames, solicitor for the Times, that all intermidiary applications must be made before September 17.

MAY FALL THROUGH.

LONDON, Aug. 15.—It is rumored that the action brought by Mr. Parnell against the Times in the Scotch courts may collapse on a technicality. It is said the Times counsel will assert that, as the Times neither owns property nor resides in Scotland, the Scotch courts have no jurisdiction.

ON THE WAY.

OTTAWA, Aug. 15.—Hon. Mackenzie Bowell, who has been brought into prominence lately by his love affairs leaves Ottawa for British Columbia to-day, accompanied by Mr. James Johnston, editor of the Ottawa Citizen, and party.

A GOOD COLLECTION.

QUEBEC, Aug. 15.—The Bishop of Algoma arrived by the Sarmatian on his return from the Pan-Anglican Synod. Considering that other colonial missionary bishops appealed for aid on behalf of their respective dioceses, his lordship has been remarkably successful, having collected the handsome sum of $1,500 for his diocese.

C. P. R. CONNECTIONS.

WINDSOR, Aug. 15.—James F. Joy, the well-known railway magnate in an interview yesterday said he was striving to get the Canadian Pacific Railway to make a western connection in Detroit and that the Grand Trunk Railway were holding out strong inducements to the company to use the line to Sarnia and form connections at that place using the proposed Grand Trunk tunnel under the river.

TO-DAY'S DESPATCHES.

AN EARTHQUAKE SHOCK.

WINSBORO, Ga., Aug. 16.—A pronounced shock of earthquake was felt here early this morning. Neighboring towns also report experiencing a slight quake.

TEEMER TO ROW O'CONNOR.

NEW YORK, Aug. 16.—Teemer, the champion oarsman, has received an order from his backer Keenan to begin training at once. He has probably been matched against William O'Connor of Toronto for the championship.

WILL TAKE HIS TIME.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 16.—The president said to a democratic congressman who called on him this morning that he does not intend to write his letter of acceptance until the republican tariff bill is made public. He does not feel that there is any especial haste about making the letter public.

KILLED BY SUNSTROKE.

JACKSON, Cal. Aug. 16. — Giovanni Govesglini, a miner, while rolling logs yesterday, was sunstruck and died in a few hours. The thermometer registered 120 degrees in the sun.

FEMALE SUFFRAGE.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 16.—The Chronicle this morning says editorially: "The persistence with which the woman suffrage advocates in Washington Territory have fought for the right to vote, is worthy of a better cause. Twice the legislature has passed a law declaring that women have a right to the ballot, and twice the supreme court of the territory has declared the law unconstitutional. Now the believers in woman suffrage propose to appeal the case to the United States supreme court. If they get knocked out there they will probably have to wait until next century for the evolution of public sentiment to meet their advanced ideas."

QUARANTINED.

DELEWARE BREAKWATER, Aug. 16.—The steamer LaGrande, from Havana, has been quarantined on account of a suspicious death before her arrival, supposed to be from yellow fever.

FUMIGATING AGAINST CHOLERA.

JACKSONVILLE, Fla., Aug. 16.—The work of fumigation is slowly proceeding this morning. Coal tar and pine tar fires are burning in all sections of the city.

A FLOURISHING BOODLER.

CHICAGO, Aug. 16.—C. F. Gunther of this city who has just returned from a trip to Alaska, says that on his return he stopped at the Banff Springs on the Canadian National Park Reservation. There he met the famous Chicago boodler, McGarigle, who is now proprietor of the Banff Springs hotel.

STRANGE SHOOTING AFFAIR.

MINNEAPOLIS, Aug. 16.—Pearl Wilson, of St. Paul, yesterday fatally shot James Scanlon, a young man well connected at St. Paul, and then killed herself. The couple were to leave for California to-day and the cause of the tragedy will probably remain a mystery.

TROUBLE WITH METLAKAHTLA INDIANS.

OTTAWA, Aug. 16.—Advices from British Columbia indicate trouble between the United States authorities and the Metlakahtla Indians, under a man named Duncan. The Indians removed from British Columbia last year to an island off the southwest coast of Alaska, after receiving permission from Washington to do so. Duncan, who visited Washington, deceived the Indians, inducing them to emigrate to Alaska by promising them that the United States government would give them Annette and other adjacent islands off the southwest coast of Alaska. They have just discovered the fraud, but Duncan, they allege, throws the responsibility on the United States authorities.

MORMONS IN CANADA.

OTTAWA, Aug. 16.—Senator Cochrane, who has just returned from a visit to the Mormon settlement near Ft. McLeod, Northwest Territory, reports that already 5,000 people have come over from Salt Lake City and settled in the new Canadian colony.

RAILWAY ACCIDENT.

CHICAGO, Aug. 16.—At 5 o'clock this morning the Cincinnati passenger train of the Illinois central ran into a freight train on the Grand Trunk at South Haven, 28 miles from the city. Three passengers on the Cincinnati train were injured, not seriously, three postal clerks badly burned and a fireman injured.

SAD CASUALTY.

CLARKSON, Ky., Aug. 16.—William Johnson and Alice Sylvester started Tuesday night to drive to a minister's in the neighboring town to get married. Last night their bodies were found at the bottom of the ravine through which Rocky Creek runs. Investigation showed they had driven off an embankment in the dark.

BUSH FIRES.

KINGSTON, Ont., Aug. 16.—Bush fires are raging fiercely in the townships of Clarendon and Brand. Already the damage done amounts to $50,000. The whole section is destroyed; many settlers have lost everything. The government has been appealed to for aid.

SHOT BY A YOUNG MEXICAN.

FRESNO, Aug. 16.—Yesterday afternoon Mrs. Murphy, who lives in the western part of the town, sent her 12-year-old son to stake out a cow near the house. The boy not returning, toward night his mother went out in search and found him a short distance from home, lying on his face insensible, and suffering from a gun shot wound through the head. This morning the boy rallied sufficiently to charge the shooting on a Mexican boy about 14 years old, named Jose Enos. Enos has been arrested. Murphy's wound is fatal.

FORTIFICATION BILL PASSED.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 16.—The fortification appropriation bill was passed by the house this morning without division.

TEEMER-O'CONNER RACE.

TORONTO, Aug. 16.—The Teemer-O'Conner race, for $1,000 and championship of America, will be rowed Sept. 20th. Either Geo. F. or E. B. Rankin, of Boston, will be referee.

TALL TALK.

FRANKFORT, Aug. 16. — Emperor William attended the unveiling here to-day of a monument erected to the memory of Prince Frederick Charles Nicholas (the red prince), and at a dinner which followed the ceremony, offered the toast "German unity." He said there were forty-six million Germans who would die rather than deliver a single stone of Alsace-Lorraine to France.

RESOLUTION DEFEATED.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 16.—In the senate at noon to-day a vote was taken on Senator Morgan's resolution to postpone consideration of the fisheries treaty to December. The resolution was defeated by a strict party vote.

LEAVE NOT GRANTED.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 16.—An official bulletin from Jacksonville, Florida, says there have been no new yellow fever cases in the past twenty-four hours. Surgeon General Hamilton has informed a surgeon in the marine hospital service, who applied for leave of absence, that no more leave will be approved at present, as all officers on service are needed at their respective stations in view of emergencies which may arise.

TOO MUCH PEPPER.

LONDON, Aug. 16.—Advices from Cayenne, French Guiana, state that the business portion of that city has just been burned. Loss $2,000,000.

Daily British Columbian

Thursday Evening, Aug. 16, 1888.

The Monetary Times, of Toronto, Ont., in a recent issue, makes the following remarks about the sea fisheries of this province: "A trial of our Pacific coast fisheries, by eastern fishermen, was resolved upon last year, but was only partially made. A trip to the black-cod banks had to be postponed for want of a suitable vessel, a deficiency that will soon be supplied. The experiment proved the richness of the halibut fishery, 50,000 lbs. of that fish having been taken by the schooner Mollie Adams. The coast line of the northern part of British Columbia, back to the mountains, having been adjudged to Russia, when she was the owner of Alaska, now belongs to the United States. There, our fishermen will have to observe the three-mile limit; but on the southern part of British Columbia and around Vancouver and Queen Charlotte's islands, we have an extensive and valuable shore-fishery, which is likely to prove a rich mine of wealth."

In another column we publish an extract from the Victoria Times of the 14th inst., under the heading "A Little Explanation." The heading is ours. The Times published the alleged interview with Senator Canfield without any explanation. There is a little sequel to the rather tardy publication by the Times of this interview, which occurred in the Driard hotel at Victoria a full week ago. The readers of THE COLUMBIAN need hardly be told what it is. A cursory perusal of the interview in question shows that this is the suppressed and truthful account of the interview between the Times representative and the "promoters of the Westminster Southern Railway," for which the Times substituted the other day a slightly garbled editorial comment, reflecting on THE COLUMBIAN. This departure from the path of rectitude on the part of the Times led astray our rather susceptible friend of the News, and made it necessary for THE COLUMBIAN to take both papers to task, which was done in a recent issue. We congratulate our Victoria contemporary upon possessing a conscience, which, if it is a little sluggish, appears to work all right when the proper stimulus is applied. The interview as published at length confirms the statements made editorially the other day in this paper, concerning the misrepresentation of the Times and the News to the effect that the "promoters of the Westminster Southern Railway" had stated that "THE COLUMBIAN had of late shown great hostility the C. P. R." A fine opportunity is now offered, which the News should not miss, of doing the graceful thing and taking back what it said on the strength of the Times' faux pas.

The question of education is one which is agitating the whole civilized and semi-civilized world. According to an exchange, while many thoughtful men in the United States are advocating a return to the voluntary system of private schools as a means of escape from the evils that have resulted from the combination of politics and education, the government of India has adopted a resolution of the very opposite character, from which the most desirable results are expected to accrue to the cause of education in Hindustan. From time immemorial every native Indian village has had its private school, though not even the most devout believer in Aryan superiority could honestly claim a high place for the kind and extent of the instruction received by the pupils in these primitive seminaries. However, like so many other features of the old civilization of India, the private school seems likely soon to become a thing of the past; the resolution adopted by the government recommends that government schools be established instead of private ones, wherever it may be found possible to do so—which means, of course, that they shall be established as rapidly as possible in every nook and corner of the vast peninsula. It is further recommended that the education staff be greatly increased and strengthened by the importation of specialists from Great Britain, whose principal duties, it may be assumed, would be to give instruction in their special departments to the new government teachers. The question of technical education is fully dealt with, and it is strongly urged that a beginning should be made in this direction by entering at once on an industrial survey of each province. Nor is the subject of moral training omitted, the report proposing that it should be provided for by a moral text-book founded on natural religion. India, as well as China and Japan, which a very short time time ago were considered as among the "dark places of the earth," are speedily opening their windows to the light.

G. A. Dixon, Frankville, Ont., says: "I was cured of chronic bronchitis, that troubled me for seventeen years, by the use of Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil." See that the signature of Northrop & Lyman is on the back of the wrapper, and you will get the genuine Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil.

Talk about holding the fort, daring heroism, thrilling bravery, &c.! The following case of resolute and enduring courage on the part of a woman, reported from Colorado, double discounts them all. A widow, with three little children, says an exchange, the oldest but ten years of age, took up 100 acres of mountain land. A man (?) tried to take her claim from her, and by intimidating her he hoped to drive her off. He commanded her to leave, but she quietly went to work to build her little house by getting together a few logs and covering them with her wagon sheet. And there, in her improvised cabin, with no protection but God's watchful care, she slept with her three little ones. And while she slept the man built a better cabin than hers, and in the morning came with a team and ploughed around her cabin. She resolutely walked after him and planted the ground as he ploughed. Again he left, declaring he "would come back and get her out of that." She then, with the help of her oldest boy, dragged poles and branches from the mountain side and built a fence around the ploughed ground. True to his word her persecutor came back, bringing with him a mob of men of his own type to help him, as against this one lone woman and her babes. She, with all the dignity of a major of an army, commanded a halt and ordered the men not to come within her enclosure. They looked on in amazement; evidently she was not the kind of woman they had been in the habit of dealing with. They saw in her face an assurance of the justice of her cause that could not be shaken—a spirit that could not be broken—a resolution as steadfast as the mountains of her chosen home. And they left and troubled her no more. And there, by unspeakable labor, in the seclusion of her home for which she fought so bravely, she holds her land and supports her little family.

Ayer's Sarsaparilla has prevented the usual course of Boils, which have pained and distressed me every season for several years.—G. Scales, Plainville, Mich.

THE CONSULAR-BUREAU.

Some Chapters of Mystery From the State Department at Washington.

A correspondent writing from Washington to the Pittsburg Leader says few would imagine that there was anything under the roof of the State Department that could excite the softer emotions of humanity.

One of its branches is commonly associated with awesome international secrets, diplomatic dignity and primeval silence; the other with consular reports and monotonous mercantile transactions.

But in the room of Dr. St. Clair, chief of Consular Bureau, there is a cabinet the contents of which suggest tears and sorrow, deaths in strange lands, man's waywardness and woman's devotion. The collection is simply that of the effects, trinkets and papers of American citizens who have died abroad, their abode and relatives in this country being unknown.

The United States consuls send these records to the Consular Bureau. It institutes searches for heirs or friends of the mysterious deceased.

Some curious cases have been developed in the endeavor to establish the identity of Americans who have died at consular stations without removing the veil of mystery enveloping their past careers.

Some years ago Mark Hamilton died at Nice, France. He had lived there in the opulence of a retired life, in questionable intimacy with a woman. His name was presumed to be an alias.

After his demise and the usual effort had been made to trace his heirs, the public administrator of New York came to the State Department and demanded effects which the Nicene consul had sent over.

The gold coin, gold watch and personal papers were turned over to him after proper authentication of his official position. He had himself secured in New York city $12,000 belonging to the estate of Mark Hamilton.

Afterward letters came from persons in Pennsylvania, Illinois and Ohio claiming kinship with him. They were all transmitted to the public administrator.

Here was a man whose papers disclosed the fact that he had extensive stock dealings with brokers in New York, Chicago and St. Louis. He had even had his orders for the purchase of $25,000 worth of stocks honored, and yet his death had been a complete extinguishment of self, either as a memory or an ever existent fact.

It is not known whether any distribution was ever made among those who asserted heirship.

In one corner of this cabinet is a small package, which comprehends the entire estate, "devised and residuary," of S. Sanders, alias Isaac Landers, of the British ship Robert Pearce.

This seaman died at Havana in 1881. In the Package are $25, a Testament and some letters. Upon the fly leaf of the Testament is written: "Presented to Isaac Landers to commemorate a solemn vow—Hattie!!!!!!"

Who could not guess that that vow was abstinence from grog?

The letters are from his sister, Hattie Landers, who writes from Bradford street, Lawrence, Mass., and also from Boston. And yet she has never been found by advertisement.

In the common wooden box are some of the "estates" of unknown Americans who died at Shanghai.

The handwriting upon most of the packages is that of Burg Rawie Lewis, whose tragic fate was as sad as that of these fellow-countrymen whom in death he sought to befriend.

Lewis was summoned to this city from China as a witness in the George F. Seward investigation. When he was sent back he was penniless.

Though the orders were explicit for his reinstatement it was delayed. Finally poor Lewis was restored to his place, but the debts contracted during enforced idleness so preyed upon his mind that he ended an oppressive life by a bullet in his brain.

In this box is an ordinary black muslin-covered portfolio. In it is an envelope with no enclosure.

Upon it is written in a plain, bold hand, suggesting high intelligence: "My mother's address is Mrs. Nathaniel Ruggles, care of Mrs. H. D. Taylor, Evanston, Cook county, Illinois. I leave this so that should sudden accident overtake me some kind soul may write my mother."

The writer of this pathetic memorandum was Jonathan Ruggles, who died at Shanghai, Dec. 19, 1869. Sixteen years have passed; years, may be, of alternate hope and despair in a mother's breast brooding over a son's waywardness.

In a pasteboard box are some trinkets that indicate feminine ownership. A velvet case encloses the daguerreotype of a man whose features suggest the libertine.

There are more of these personal effects of wanderers and fugitives. They are not relics of the saints, rather souvenirs of mysterious sinners.

When the work of tracing personal histories is begun by the Department officials it proceeds almost invariably through details of liaisons, aliases, flights from justice, dispositions to roam, and all the shadows that fall upon human life.

A Baby Gallant.

Over on Dayton's bluff is a schoolhouse.

The school is presided over by a very pretty and interesting young lady teacher, who is a great favorite with the juveniles intrusted to her care, and the boy scholars are constantly in a turmoil as to which shall have the privilege of escorting her home after the close of school.

Recently one sagacious six-year old man determined to be ahead of his competitors, and during the afternoon he raised his hand to attract the teacher's attention.

When asked what he desired, he arose and, in a polite manner, asked the teacher if "he might have the pleasure of escorting her to her home after school?"

The girls laughed, the boys looked cross, and the teacher accepted.—[St. Paul Globe.

Popcorn.

A large part of the popcorn used in the world comes from Bloomington, Ill., where the farmers' wives and children used to consider it their perquisite.

Chemists declare popcorn to contain more albuminoids than most of the other cereals, making it good diet.

THE PRETTY BABY!

One Not Look For This World.

"Isn't he a pretty baby, John? See, just look at him," and the mother holds up the tiny creature to papa, who kisses and fondles him lovingly.

"Yes, Kate, he is a pretty baby, but Tom was a pretty baby, too, you remember."

"Yes, Tom was a pretty baby—everybody said so," and she glances across the room at a sunny-faced four-year old, "but Willie is not like Tom. Willie's hair is light, and his eyes," looking wistfully into the baby's face, "are dark, and so deep, that when I look in them I am almost afraid, they have such a far-away light, they seem to see something we cannot."

"Oh, nonsense! don't think that. He'll grow up to be a fine fellow. But, Kate, I wouldn't think so much about him, he's a dear, good, little fellow, but I wouldn't worship him; it isn't right."

"As if I could help it," the mother says, reproachfully pressing the slight form closer and looking into the dark eyes yearningly.

A month passes away, and one day they stand beside a small, white casket, within which the pretty baby is sleeping. Ah, the mother's eyes were sharp, and when friends said, "What beautiful bright eyes he has," she saw the far-away look and knew it as the light that never was on land or sea.

"Oh, John, John!" she moaned, "I knew he wasn't long for this world. I could see it in his eyes. Oh, my pretty baby!"

"Yes, dear, you were right," says papa, and there is a quiver in the firm voice; "if it had pleased God to have left him with us we would have cared for him the best we could, but we must give him up, for it is His will, and He knows what is best for us."

"Yes, I know it," and she stoops and cuts a tiny wisp of hair from the baby's head.

"Oh, John, you said I worshiped him. I did, oh, I did, and, God forgive me, I can't be sorry for it now, he was such a dear, pretty baby."

Years pass on. Other babies are born. They are all pretty babies, every one who sees them says that, but none are like the baby with the far-away look. As they grow up they love to gather around mother's chair, and she never tires of telling of the dark-eyed baby who went to live with God.

And, when with childish curiosity they open the Bible to look at the pictures, and find between the leaves a tiny wisp of hair tied with a white satin ribbon, they touch it reverently and whisper beneath their breath, "The pretty baby."

Years still pass on. The children grow to be sturdy men and women, and as the mother watches them she sometimes thinks, "If he had lived he would have been such a beautiful man," and then she smiles and is glad that in Heaven there is no time, and no matter how the others may change he is still the pretty baby.

One day they gather around her bed, and looking in each other's face mournfully whisper:

"She is dying."

She stretches her thin hand toward the table on which the old Bible rests, and they say:

"The baby's hair."

They place it in her hand. She kisses it tenderly, and a bright light comes into the dim old eyes, and they say:

"What does she see?"

She smiles and whispers, "The pretty baby."

They place the wisp of hair on her breast, and fold the wrinkled hands upon it, and tenderly lay her by the side of the pretty baby.—[Detroit Free Press.

TRIFLES SWEET.

THE JAY BIRD.

A leanin' on the bar-post, an' a thinkin' for a minit,
An' shellin' fer the chickins a ear'n corn er so,
The air es dry es fodder an' the wind with winter in it,
The cracks atween the shingles plugg'd up with early snow—
I hear the jays a hollerin', a jokin' an' a laffin',
A ridin' of each other with their braggy, sassy chaffin',

Not a pee-wee ner a tide-bird kin be seen aroun' the diggins,
An' the catbird up n sneaked away a month ago,
An' the killdeer in the stubble with dandy frills and triggins,
Has sifted away along the rest fer fear of snow—
But the jay-bird stays right by yo-s once, an' so they keep on staylin',
Jest es perk and jest as sassy's it 'twas only hayin',

Ther robbings, so like humans, when yer posies stop a blowin',
An' the berries that they like air all gobbled down—
Strike out'n leave ye lonesome, with the days a shorter growin'
An' the sun but faintly smilin' et ye through a frown:
But the jay-bird stays right by yo-s onces shows a likin'
Strongest for yo when the rest hes got yo cornered an' a stickin',

When I cut for the cornfiel' for a lonesome day a huskin',
I scarcely git a shock throw'd down fairly ter begin,
Foro the jay-birds cum a-learin' 's if they's jest a bustin'
For ter help me out 'n quick like frum the hurry I am in.
An' they holler et each other—keep whoopin' an' a yelpin'
An' make me chirk an' cheerful, which is good a-most as helpin'.

Et I c'u'd write sum verses handy, like I've seen them printers,
An' make a tune as nice for them as Mrs. Jinny Lind,
They sh'u'd both be 'bout the jay-bird, a loafing through the winters,
An' mixin' up their yawpin' with snow an' froozin' wind.
It's easy 'nough in summer when the sky is blue an' glowin'
Ter be singin'—but it's deferent when the same is black an' snowin'.

A Sluggish Liver

Causes the Stomach and Bowels to become disordered, and the whole system to suffer from debility. In all such cases Ayer's Pills give prompt relief.

After much suffering from Liver and Stomach troubles, I have finally been cured by taking Ayer's Cathartic Pills. I always find them prompt and thorough in their action, and their occasional use keeps me in a perfectly healthy condition.—Ralph Weeman, Annapolis, Md.

Twenty-five years ago I suffered from a torpid liver, which was restored to healthy action by taking Ayer's Pills. Since that time I have never been without them. They regulate the bowels, assist digestion, and increase the appetite, more surely than any other medicine.—Paul Churchill, Haverhill, Mass.

INVIGORATED.

I know of no remedy equal to Ayer's Pills for Stomach and Liver disorders. I suffered from a Torpid Liver, and Dyspepsia, for eighteen months. My skin was yellow, and my tongue coated. I had no appetite, suffered from Headache, was pale and emaciated. A few boxes of Ayer's Pills, taken in moderate doses, restored me to perfect health.—Waldo Miles, Oberlin, Ohio.

Ayer's Pills are a superior family medicine. They strengthen and invigorate the digestive organs, create an appetite, and remove the horrible depression and despondency resulting from Liver Complaint. I have used these Pills in my family, for years, and they never fail to give entire satisfaction.—Otto Montgomery, Oshkosh, Wis. ††

The list is comprehensive, and the amount of money appropriated for prizes considerable. The fair is sure to be a success, as Chilliwhack has established an enviable reputation for that sort of thing.

Cricket Matches.

The return match between Gifford's and Armstrong's teams will be played on Saturday next. The team to represent Westminster against Vancouver will be chosen after the game. The interest in cricket and other commendable outdoor games is being well sustained this season. The above matches promise to be well contested and interesting.

Another Railroad.

Articles of incorporation have been filed at Seattle for the purpose of building a direct line between that city and Portland. The proposed line will be known as the Seattle & Southern Railroad, and will be about 180 miles in length. The capital stock of the company will be $7,000,000, in one hundred thousand shares of $70 each. The number of trustees are five, namely: Wm. E. Brown, Thos. Ewing, John P. Hoyt, Leigh S. J. Hunt and Henry G Struve.—Colonist.

Doubling the Service.

In another column will be found an advertisement calling for tenders for stretching a wire from Westminster to Vancouver for the N.W. & B.I. Telephone Co. Mr. Armstrong, president of the company, says the business has been increasing so rapidly of late that a double service has become necessary. No. 10 wire will be used on the new line which is the standard number in vogue with all large companies. It is satisfactory to note that the company is in a very prosperous condition and its outlook is particularly bright.

Ice Cream Social.

The Methodist social last evening at the W.C.T.U. quarters was a most successful affair. Shortly before 8 o'clock the city band marched down Columbia street playing a lively march, which had the effect of attracting a large number of people in the direction of the hall and finally inside. A well-selected programme was successfully rendered and much enjoyed by the audience. The ice-cream and other refreshments, provided by the ladies, were the chief centre of attraction, which was probably owing to the warm weather and the attractive young ladies who looked after the dispensing counter. The social netted a larger profit than was expected.

Confidence Men.

It behooves Victorians to be on the lookout for confidence men and sharpers who will be in the city to-day. A crowd of such gentry usually follow in the train of circuses, and the gang travelling with Sells' circus are said to be an unusually hard lot, whose business it is to fleece the unwary, and who generally carry a supply of counterfeit money. They have no connection with the circus, and a word in season may serve to warn our readers to be prepared for their advances.—Colonist. The readers of THE COLUMBIAN are probably too wide-awake to be "taken in" by anybody, and we publish the above merely to give them a chance to prepare for "scooping" the "confidence men" after they have "fleeced" the unwary Victorians.

The Columbia Milling Co. Assign.

Messrs. Rashdell and Lawer, doing business as the Columbia Milling Co., Enderby, Spallumcheen, have assigned for the benefit of their creditors, to Messrs. John Nicholles and A. C. Flummerfelt, representing Goldie & McCullough, of Galt, Ont. For some time it has been known that the Milling Company were in difficulties, but hopes were entertained that they would be able to tide over the trouble. Various causes are assigned for the suspension, but it certainly does not arise from any inferiority in the article of flour produced by the company, as it is pronounced to be fully equal to the best in this market. Those who profess to know maintain that under ordinary circumstances the concern may be made to pay a handsome profit, but there can be no doubt but that the late management have all along labored under great disadvantages, and have the sympathies of all in their present misfortune. The mill is a most complete one in every respect, the machinery throughout being of the very latest pattern and is capable of a daily output of one hundred and forty barrels.—Colonist.

Sooner Than Expected.

John Chinaman is getting to be "heap smart; all samee Mellican man." When he wishes to take a run across the line now he takes the precaution to secure from the genial customs officials here a certificate to his standing as a British subject, &c. A few days ago three blooming celestials, Ah Soon, and two others, thus equipped, started on an international jaunt. The customs official who filled out their blanks remarked prophetically and sadly, "Ah, soon will you be back again!" And sure enough, the good-natured and long-suffering Officer Grant was disturbed in his "beauty sleep" last night by a deputy U. S. marshall, who had in charge the Mongolian with the "previous" name, and his two crestfallen companions. They had been nabbed near the boundary by the U. S. customs officials, taken to Seattle, delivered to the marshall, and brought to Vancouver on the Premier, from whence they were hustled over to this city. Their certificates were found to be all right, their identity was established, and the troublesome celestials were released after costing Uncle Sam about $50 and considerable loss of sleep to Customs Officer Grant.

Writing Up the Country.

To-day a COLUMBIAN representative, Mr. Anson Wilson, lately from eastern Canada, starts on a tour of this dirtrict in the interest of THE COLUMBIAN. Mr. Wilson is a young man of experience and ability, and in addition to writing up the various settlements through which he passes, is authorised to receive subscriptions, advertising and job orders for THE COLUMBIAN newspaper and printing establishment. We shall deem it a favor if our readers and others throughout the district will furnish Mr. Wilson with any information he may desire and otherwise assist him in his work. Our representative begins at the North Arm settlement, and will gradually work up river, occupying several months, and probably extending his tour, later, into other sections of the province. Those wishing their friends abroad to have the advantage of accurate and detailed information concerning this district and other parts of the province cannot do better than send them either the daily or weekly COLUMBIAN for a few months.

Typical Tented Show.

Sells Brother's Three Ring Circus, Elevated Stage, Royal Roman Hippodrome and Five Continent Menagerie. It is not alone the oldest of our readers who can remember the "Circus and Menagerie" as periodically exhibited not so many years back. A company of fifty or, at the most, sixty people was considered as being a phenomenally large one, and if the diameter of the canvas reached one hundred feet, "the wonder was and still the wonder grew." There are more people employed as advertisers, agents, billposters, etc., ahead of the show of the present day than constituted the entire company—performers, grooms, hostlers, canvasmen and agents of the not very remote period of which we are speaking. Yet the tented exhibitions of the present day are graded in their dimensions as well as in their merits and attractions. Among the largest, as well as the best, shows now travelling is that of the Sells Brothers, which is announced to exhibit in this city at an early date. It presents in combination a circus of three rings, in which are simultaneously presented sensational and attractive gymanastic, equestrian and athletic feats and features and an elevated stage for exclusive specialties. The main pavilion is an enormous clipse, two hundred by one hundred feet in dimension, inside of which is an immense track devoted to the sports and perils of the hippodrome, consisting of Roman chariot races, liberty races, standing races, steeple chases and jockey races. Attached to and connected with this huge tent is another of equally formidable dimensions, which enclose perhaps the largest, as well as the most interesting, collection of living wild animals ever exhibited. The show will be in New Westminster to morrow, Friday, Aug. 17.

A Little Explanation.

Senator Canfield, of Whatcom, the original promotor and the life and soul of the New Westminster Southern & Belingham Bay railway enterprise, was interviewed by a representative of the Times while in the city. The scribe asked for a short interview, which request was cheerfully complied with by the genial and business like senator.

Reporter—Is there really anything in the report that you are going to bring a libel suit against THE COLUMBIAN?

Senator Canfield—The report about the libel suit is all a mistake. THE COLUMBIAN has been the constant friend of our enterprise from the very beginning, and no such suit has ever been contemplated for a moment. An anonymous writer, "Civis," got a letter inserted in its issue of the 7th inst., which insinuated rather than reflected against the financial standing of the firm of C. M. Sheafe & Co., of which I am a member. At the public meeting at New Westminster that evening my attention was called to the letter in such a way that I felt compelled to notice it, and the next edition of the paper contained a retraction from "Civis," and a very severe editorial comment upon the libellous letter. So there the matter rests. I see no occasion for any lawsuit, and none for any combination of newspapers on your or any other side of the line for the purpose of defense against libel suits. In my business experience of thirty years I have never had occasion to quarrel with your fraternity and I hope none will arise.

Reporter—The public would like to know your attitude to the C.P.R.

Senator Canfield—I note that in one of your editorials a remark that the tendency of the new movement seemed to be antagonistic to the Canadian Pacific Railway, and the further conclusion that the new line could not "long remain independent of either one or the other of the two great transcontinental railways." The first part of this statement is incorrect. There is no hostility on our part, and no engagement anywhere which is hostile to your Canadian railway. We are building a line to do business on business principles. If the Canadian Pacific wishes to exchange traffic on fair terms, we shall certainly meet it in the same spirit. There is no hostile alliance, or, indeed, any at all, with any other line by our company.

But I beg your pardon as to the last part of the prediction of this paragraph. A man who only owns two horses or a team, need not always be swallowed up by the man who owns a hundred, or fifty teams. Is not that so? The Victoria Times need not necessarily be swallowed and digested by its London namesake.

After conversing with the senator on a few other points which have already been referred to in the Times the scribe took his leave carrying with him the impression that the New Westminster Southern had the right man at the head of it.—Times.

Sherrod Williams Dead.

A Former Resident of New Westminster Breathes His Last in a Berlin Insane Asylum.

We clip the following from the Oakland (Cal.) Evening Tribune. Sherrod Williams was well known in this city a few years ago, when he was prominently connected with the salmon canning business here:

The news comes from Berlin of the death of Sherrod Williams, eldest son of the late General Thomas H. Williams. The information was received in a letter from Mrs. Frank Johnson, his sister, who was with him, but friends in this city received letters from Mrs. Johnson some time since, announcing that Sherrod was confined in an asylum for the insane, restraint being necessary because of excessive use of liquor. The life of Sherrod Williams was full of event. He was married to Miss Mollie Marston, the beautiful daughter of the late Samuel I. Marston, who was at one time Public Administrator of this county. He was for a while the manager of one of W. T. Coleman's canneries on the Columbia river. He was a writer of considerable ability, and contributed to the Argonaut and News Letter. His stories were weird and gruesome. When General Williams died he left a will in which he specifically disinherited Sherrod. However, by a compromise, the other heirs, the brothers and the sister of Sherrod, gave him a part of the estate in order to prevent a contest of the will. The will left to each of the children an equal amount, except Mary (Mrs. Johnson), the only daughter, who received more, and Sherrod, who received nothing. The heirs agreed that Sherrod should receive his pro rata, and $100 per month for three years, which the administrator, General Williams's brother, paid. At one time he was an inordinate user of opium. He went to South America, and by sheer exercise of will followed the course of De Quincey, and when he returned to this state he was entirely cured of the habit. Some time ago he started on a European tour with his sister, Mrs. Frank Johnson, wife of Frank Johnson, junior member of the firm of W. T. Coleman & Co., and it was during this trip that he died. The remains will probably be brought to this city for burial. His widow resides in this county, usually at Sunol. Three brothers survive him—Thomas H., who conducts the ranch of his father's estate on Union Island, Percy, who is in Europe with his sister; and Bryant, who is on this coast. Sherrod Williams had abundant ability, and when he lived in Oakland many good friends tried earnestly to direct it in the proper course. His relinquishment of the opium habit indicated the force of his will.

Late Canadian News.

QUEBEC, Aug. 7.—The barque Harding, Capt. Beck, from London, arrived in port this morning, being the first vessel of the Quebec timber fleet on her second voyage here this season.

HALIFAX, Aug. 8.—Wm. Miller, a prominent baker, has absconded, leaving creditors for nearly $40,000. He had a contract for supplying the army and navy with bread. His bondsmen were H. F. Worrall and Thomas Byrne. Worrall is also a creditor for $12,000.

MONTREAL, Aug. 11.—This morning McLaren, Lee & Smith took the necessary papers for the seizure of the s.s. Danish King, Captain Jones. The seizure was taken on behalf of G. Childs & Co., and the complaint is that a quantity of goods consigned to the firm were, while coming out in the cargo of the steamer, contaminated by the sprinkling of a quantity of Paris green which had broken from packages in which it was contained.

GASPE BASIN, Aug. 11.—A fisherman returned from fishing at Anticosti reports that about two weeks ago a fishing schooner from Portland, on the south side of the island of Anticosti, at one cast of the trawl, caught 5,000 lbs. of halibut, and finished her cargo in three days, and left laughing at the Canadian protecting steamers and cruisers.

REGINA, Aug. 13.—The Hon. E. Dewdney was waited upon on Saturday by a deputation of the board of trade and congratulated on his appointment. He will be banquetted on Sept. 7th. It is thought the reformers will offer no opposition to his election in eastern Assinaboia.

OTTAWA, Aug. 13. The government has asked for tenders for the construction of the Sault Ste. Marie canal and for the enlargement of the St Lawrence canals. The advertisement calls for the construction of the canal on the Canadian side of the river, through the island of St. Mary.

It is understood that as a result of Sir Adolphe Caron's visit to Kingston tenders will shortly be called for the erection of an additional wing, which would afford much needed accommodation. There are 80 cadets now on the college books, but 104 would be provided with room by the change.

The will of the late John Hamilton was admitted to probate at L'Orignal on Saturday. The personalty in Ontario is placed at $619,000. The legal fees for putting the will through amount to $032. The deceased bequeathes $20,000 to the general hospital in Montreal, and $2,500 to Trinity College, Toronto. He gives to Mr. Gilder, his manager, $1,000 a year until the estate is wound up, and 1 per cent. on the sale of limits and 10 per cent. on all other sales.

EDITOR COLUMBIAN.—As you speak so often in the interests of humanity, would you speak to the city fathers once more in the interests of humanity and the brute creation combined. It would be a good idea for the city fathers to come down to Douglas street hill, and see the toiling horses and their drivers, sympathetic or not so, painfully making their way up that steep grade, which is in a very bad way with cobble stones. This is the most important cross street in town. The chaingang raked it up last year, but it is very much in need of being cleaned up again, and it is to be hoped this will be done at once.

BY-LAW NO. --

A By-law to Provide for an Adequate Ferry Boat Service.

WHEREAS IT IS DESIRABLE TO provide for the operation of the Ferry for which a license was granted to the Corporation of the City of New Westminster and the Corporation of the District of Surrey by letters patent bearing date the Seventh day of October, 1883.

AND WHEREAS for the purpose aforesaid it is expedient to raise by way of loan the sum of $75,000 upon the credit of the said City.

AND WHEREAS it will require the sum of $6,000.00 to be raised annually by special rate for paying the debt intended to be hereby created and the interest thereon,

AND WHEREAS the amount of the whole ratable property of the said Corporation according to the last revised Assessment Roll is $862,511.00.

AND WHEREAS for paying the interest and creating an equal yearly sinking fund for paying the principal of the said debt intended to be hereby created according to the "Municipality Act, 1881," an annual special rate of seven mills on the dollar will be required,

BE IT THEREFORE ENACTED by the Mayor and Council of the Corporation of the City of New Westminster, as follows:

1. It shall be lawful for the Mayor of the said City to raise by way of loan from any person or persons or body or bodies corporate who may be willing to advance the same upon the credit of the Debentures hereinafter mentioned a sum of money not exceeding in the whole the sum of $75,000.00, and to cause the same to be paid into the hands of the Clerk of of the said Corporation for the purpose and with the object hereinbefore recited.

2. It shall be lawful for the said Mayor to cause any number of Debentures to be made for such sums of money as may be be required, not less than $500.00, and each and all such Debentures shall be sealed with the Common Seal of the said Corporation, and signed by the Mayor.

3. The said Debentures shall be made payable in 50 years from the date hereinafter mentioned, for this by-law to take effect at the office of the Clerk of the said Corporation at the City Hall, New Westminster, and shall have attached to them coupons for the payment of the interest.

4. The said Debentures shall bear interest at the rate of six per cent. per annum from the date thereof, which interest shall be payable half-yearly at the office of the said Clerk.

5. For the purpose of forming a sinking fund for the payment of the said Debentures and the interest to become due thereon an equal special rate of seven mills on the dollar shall, in addition to all other rates, be raised, levied and collected in each year upon all ratable property within the said City of New Westminster during the continuance of the said Debentures, or any of them.

6. The said moneys shall be expended in providing for the construction of an efficient Steam Ferry suitable for transferring the rolling stock of any Railway Company which now is or hereafter during the term for which the said license was granted or any extension thereof may be constructed within the Province of British Columbia, and also passengers, horses, wagons, cattle and heavy freight across the Fraser River within the boundaries mentioned in the said letters patent, and in securing the operation of the said Ferry adequately and sufficiently for the requirements of the public service in such manner and upon such terms and conditions as the Council of the said Corporation may by resolution at any time or from time to time direct.

7. It shall be lawful for the said Corporation from time to time to re-purchase any of the said Debentures at such price as shall in each case be mutually agreed upon, and all Debentures so re-purchased shall be forthwith cancelled and no re-issue of Debentures or any Debentures shall be made in consequence of such re-purchase.

8. This By-law shall before the final passage thereof receive the assent of the Electors of the said corporation in manner provided by the "Municipality Act, 1881," and shall take effect and come into force the Thirtieth day of August, 1888.

This By law may be cited as the "Ferry Service By-law, 1888."

Bylaw read a third time and passed by the Municipal Council on the 9th of August, A.D., 1888.

Reconsidered, finally passed and the seal of the corporation appended hereto this thirteenth day of August, A.D., 1888.
