SCIENTIFIC MISCELLANY.

In the ordinary 16 candle power incandescent lamp, according to Prof. Ernest Moertt, only from 4 to 6 per cent of the energy actually expended is available as light, the remainder being wasted as heat. To lesson this waste is one of the greatest electrical problems now awaiting solution.

Collating all known observations, Dr. E. von Martens, of Berlin, finds that of 27 species of molluscs found in the Suex Canal 9 came from the Mediterranean and 18 from the Red Sea; and that of 16 species of fishes reported from the canal, 6 were from the Mediterranean and 10 from the Red Sea side. Tables of the distribution of these species in the canal show that the admixture of animal life of the two seas is far from complete.

A NEW GERMAN INDUSTRY.—At Halle, the skeleton-like, fibrous covering of a species of tropical cucumber is now being converted into a substitute for sponge, and is already being exported in immense quantities to England and other countries. The curious substance is known as loofah. It is not only valuable as an adjunct of the bath, but is found useful for making inside soles for shoes, and is being applied to the under side of saddles to keep the horse's back cool.

WEATHER STATIONS ABOVE THE CLOUDS.—The highest point at which regular meteorological observations are made appears to be in Andes, in Peru, a taheight of 14,297 feet. Harvard College has a weather observatory on Mount Lincoln, in Colorado, at a height of 14,297 feet; and part way up the mountain is another station, 13, 500 feet above sea-level. The station on Pike's Peak is at an alititude of 14,1000 feet. In Europe there are but two stations at any considerable height, those being at about 11,000 feet and 10,000 feet respectively.

A NOVEL RAILWAY.—A Swiss engineering novelty—hitherto considered an impossibility—is an inclined railway on which the cars are drawn by cable round a curve. From the Lake of Lucerne the track curves upon an angle of 112° to the summit of the Burgenstock—1330 feet above the lake, and 2860 feet above sea-level. The line is 3050 feet long, and commences with a gradient of 32 per cent, which increases to 58 per cent for more than half of the distance. The motive power is electricity, generated by two 25-horse-power dynamos, worked by a water-wheel three miles away.

WHO WERE THE SKILLED BUILDERS?—One of the mysterious ruined cities of Southern North America is that of Gran Guivera, near the western point of Texas. This was known to the early Spanish explorers, but, being at present 40 miles from water, it has seldom been visited. A late surveying party found the ruins to be of gigantic and substantial stone buildings, one of which was four acres in extent. The indications point to the former existence of a dense population. To the southward is a stream of lava from one to ten miles wide and forty miles long, and the surrounding country is most arid and desolate. No inscription, no legend tells the tale of the great city or of its fate.

A MISPLACED MINE.—How might the stock of the Panama Canal have risen if the French engineers could have invoked to their aid the energy of the terrific explosion that swept away the Japanese peak of Little Bandai-san on July 15th. A visitor who spent four days in examining the spot estimates that this last great mine of Nature's firing uplifted and widely distributed no less than 700,000,000 tons of earth, rocks and other ponderous material, the calculation being based on the very moderate assumption that the debris covers the buried area of 30 square miles to an average depth of 15 feet. The denuded base of the mountain seems to be between three and four square miles in area.

HOMES OF ALL AGES.—An interesting feature of the Paris Exhibition of next year will be a group of 49 structures intended to give a history of the human dwelling. The different types of dwellings represented will include those of the prehistoric period—under rocks, in caves, on water, and on land; and in later times those of early historic civilization, of Aryan civilization, of Roman civilization in the east and in the west, and of rude civilizations disconnected from the general progress of humanity—such as the Chinese, Japanese, Eskimo, African, Aztec, etc. The interiors and surroundings will be those of the different epochs studied, and it is intended to people the dwellings with figures in representative costumes.

LAST NIGHT'S DESPATCHES.

A FREAK.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 19.—Mrs. Martha Scott, a young colored woman, was yesterday delivered of a remarkable freak, consisting of 2 heads, 2 necks, 3 arms, 4 hands, 3 legs and 4 feet. The freak was dead when delivered.

FILLING UP.

LONDON, Oct. 19.—Westminster Abbey is so filled now with monuments and tablets erected to the memory of the notable dead, that a movement is being talked of to provide a new building adjoining the Abbey in which to place any monuments in future.

FRIGHTFUL SUICIDE.

SAN LUIS, Opispo, California, Oct. 19.—Cyrus Saunders suicided yesterday, putting a gun under his chin, firing it, and blowing off his jaws and nose. He then with a pocket knife cut his throat. He was 40 years old and had been drinking heavily of late.

AN AMERICAN RUMOR.

LONDON, Oct. 19.—The Times' Philadelphia correspondent asserts that Sir John A Macdonald will shortly visit England to consult the imperial government on the fisheries question with a view to a modification of the Canadian position, the Dominion coming nearer to the view held in the United States. Nothing is known in official circles here of any such intention, and it is well understood that the British, like the Canadian policy, is to calmly await the outcome of the presidential election.

W. C. T. U.

NEW HORK, Oct. 19.—The fifteenth annual meeting of the Women's Christian Temperance Union began this morning in the Metropolitan Opera House. About 400 delegates, representing every state in the union, were present. The hall and stage were handsomely decorated. Mrs. Francis E. Willard, the president of the W. C. T. U., delivered a short speech stating the object of the convention and concluded by introducing General Neal Dow, saying that as Mr. Gladstone is the grand old man of England, so Gen. Neal Dow is the grand old man of America. Gen. Dow said that the only way to settle the liquor question was by the ballot and hoped with the assistance of the W.C.T.U. the liquor traffic would be suppressed. The delegates from Iowa, it is said, will present a memorial asking that the W. C. T. U. should refrain from meddling with politics. At the evening session Mayor Hewitt welcomed the ladies to the city. General Clinton B. Fisk, the prohibition candidate for president, made a strong speech although ill. Ex-Governor St. John also spoke. The last and best speeck of the evening was made by Mrs. Mary T. Lothrop, president of the W. C. T. U. of Michigan, whose beauty, eloquence and logic captured the audience which adjourned until to-morrow.

OTTAWA NOTES.

OTTAWA, Oct. 19.—The government is considering the question of a faster trans-Atlantic steamship service. Sir John Macdonald is in receipt of the draft of the proposed arrangement with the Canadian Pacific Railway for the service between Vancouver and China and Japan. Both matters will be referred to the committee of the privy council.

Mr. Frank S. Barnard has been chosen as the government candidate for Cariboo. His election by acclamation is expected.

The talk of the city is the amazing success of the banquet to Mr. Chapleau last evening. The attendance, it now appears, exceeded 750. The affair concluded at 3 o'clock this morning. Sir John's outspoken utterances outlining Canada's future policy on the fisheries question, receives the endorsation of the eastern press. There will be no back down on Canada's part.

TO-DAY'S DESPATCHES.

A GOOD MOVE.

LONDON, Oct. 20.—The North Wales coal owners association has granted the workmen a raise of 10 per cent. in their wages. The danger of universal strike is now over.

A FIGHT EXPECTED.

WINNIPEG, Oct. 20.—The Manitoba railway people have its force removed, so that track-laying may go on peaceably. The Canadian Pacific has placed a force to guard its engine and will resist the local government employees if they attempt to cross its line. A conflict is expected, as a gang is talking about going out and dynamiting the engine. The Dominion government's reply is to the effect that they have no control over the Canadian Pacific railway company. An injunction was granted yesterday at the instance of the C.P.R.Co. to restrain the Northern Pacific railway from crossing the Canadian Pacific track.

MEXICAN POLITICS.

CITY OF MEXICO, Oct. 20.—A crisis is imminent in Pres't Diaze's cabinet. Gen. Pacheco, minister of public works, has resigned. It is generally believed that Senor Dublin, minister of finance, has also resigned.

A NATIVE RISING.

ZANZIBAR, Oct. 20.—The natives have risen against the British at Mombosa. There has been desperate fighting at Mombosa, the point of departure of the proposed caravan of the British African associations for Wadelia.

EXTENDING THE EMPIRE.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 20.—H. M. S. Caroline, which arrived in port yesterday, reports haven taken possession of Fanning, Christmas, and Prenryn Islands in the South Pacific in the name of England, the object being to utilize them as stations for the proposed cable to be laid by British capitalists from Esquimalt to New Zealand, via the Sandwich Islands.

SHOT BY A TRAMP.

ST. PAUL, Minn., Oct. 20.—At Crookston last night Chief of Police Hayes was shot and killed by a tramp whom he had arrested the day before for drunkness. The tramp was jailed.

SOUNDED.

DRESDEN, Oct. 20.—Two French officers, who were found studying the defenses have been expelled from the country.

CONGRESS ADJOURNED.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 20.—Congress adjourned sine die at 1 p.m. to-day. When the house adjourned correspondents in the press gallery sang, "Praise God from whom all blessings flow," amid applause and other demonstrations of approval. The president to-day accepted the invitation of a committee representing Cleveland-Thurman business men's clubs of New York to review a parade of their organizations next Saturday afternoon.

GAMBLING ON LEAD.

NEW YORK, Oct. 20.—The lead market seems to have struck bottom, and the scare is over at least for the present. Saturday is practically a holiday on the metal exchange, but to-day rather a larger crowd than usual was present. Many brokers who stood on the brink of failure last night wore a smile of confidence to-day. It was said that aid had reached the struggling bulls from the interior of the state. The lead call opened at about yesterday's closing with a sale of 200 tons of October in two parcels, under rules of the exchange. This was presumably for "Lead King" Corwith's account, and was at once bought by one of the biggest lead operators on change. For the first one hundred tons four cents was paid and 3.97½ for the second. No other lead was offered and the market closed considerably firmer than yesterday, and with comparatively an easy feeling prevailing.

WHEAT.

LIVERPOOL, Oct. 20.—Wheat very dull. Cals., 8s. 1d.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 20.—Wheat firm, at 109½; Nov. 109.

NEW YORK, Oct. 20.—Wheat was a trifle stronger to-day. Oct. 109¾; Nov. 109⅞; Dec. 111⅛; May 116⅜.

CHICAGO, Oct. 20.—Wheat took a spurt upwards to-day and closed nearly four cents higher. Nov. 114⅜; Dec. 116⅛; May 113¾.

A NATIONAL INSULT.

PARIS, Oct. 20.—The escutcheon on the German consulate at Havre was torn from its station last night and thrown into the street. The prefect at Havre has tendered profuse apology to the consul, and M. Goblet, minister of foreign affairs, likewise apologized to the German embassador here for the outrage. There is no clue to the persons who committed the act.

PAINTING THE TOWN.

MADRID, Oct. 20. — Republican rioters mobbed Senor Canovas Del Castillo at Saragossa last night and stoned his house. The rioting continued for several hours and Gend'armes were powerless to quell the disturbance.

A CLEAN SWEEP.

FELTON, Cal., Oct. 20.—A fire early this morning destroyed almost the entire business portion of this town. Losses aggregate $50,000, insurance about $20,000.

CRAWLED THROUGH A LOOPHOLE.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 20.—A charge of grand larceny against Max Rosenstein, who secured nearly ten thousand dollars from various people here on pretense that he had inherited a large estate in Germany, was dismissed to-day, his offense being barred by statute of limitations.

A DESTRUCTIVE FIRE.

BOSTON, Oct. 20.—Fire this morning destroyed the Lewis Wharf Company's storage building. A quantity of cordage, jute and hemp, to the value of $30,000, was destroyed. A large quantity of cotton owned by Barry, Shayer & Co., on second and third floors, was burned. Other firms lose property valued at over $250,000. The fire was still raging fiercely at noon. Total loss unestimated.

LAND SLIDE IN ITALY.

ROME, Oct. 20.—A land slide has occurred at Latensa, Italy. A railway train was buried in the debris and a number of persons killed. Six bodies have been recovered and ten wounded rescued.

NO CHINESE NEED APPLY.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 20.—The president to-day approved an act appropriating $50,000 to carry into effect the provisions of the Chinese exclusion act.

A FEARFUL LEAP.

NEW YORK, Oct. 20.—Sister Mary Peter, a nun, committed suicide this morning by leaping from a third-story window of St. Joseph's home in this city.

R. C. Bruce, druggist, Tara, says: I have no medicine on my shelves that sells faster or gives better satisfaction than Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil, and the sale is constantly increasing, the past year being the largest I have ever had. One of my customers was cured of catarrh by using three bottles. Another was raised out of bed, where he had been laid up a long time with a lame back, by using two bottles. I have lots of customers, who would not be without it over night.

Children Cry for Pitcher's Castoria

Daily British Columbian

Saturday Evening, Oct. 20, 1888.

Although the discussion on the subject of marriage has been closed in the columns of the London Daily Telegraph, it is said that the controversy which has been excited has by no means ceased. Some one is about to publish a new work in England on the present marriage laws, which, judging from the ground that the author lays down as the basis of his arguments, is likely to create considerable talk. It is surmised from certain indications that the author is a woman, although posing as a man. He says: "I am prepared to express a very strong opinion that some relaxation of the bond of marriage, even beyond that which is conceded by the present laws of England, is required in the interests of justice, social expediency, and true morality, and is not inconsistent with the declaration of revealed religion. With regard to polygamy, as a matter of principle, it is not condemned or prohibited in the pages of the Bible—neither in the Old Testament nor in the New. This fact is plain and unquestionable; and the inference is inevitable that polygamy is not essentially opposed to the law of God, nor to the fundamental principles of marriage; it is not opposed to the law of Christ. There is room for the opinion which has been expressed by many thoughtful and earnest men, that, in some particular cases, a limited form of polygamy might be desirable and permissable; that, under certain circumstances, a man might be properly allowed to take a second wife, even while the first was still living, and not formally divorced from him. There is this very serious question to be answered, Do we really practice anything like strict monogamy among ourselves? How much polygamy in its worst form really prevails among all classes of society?" This latter clause, particularly, is a direct argumentum ad invidiam, a miserable acknowledgment and an attempted palliation of the weaknesses and vices of humanity. A Mormon proselytizer could not more distort the truth nor make a more dangerous thrust at the foundations of society than the proclamation of such sentiments is calculated to do. No elaborate argument is needed to show that, despite the abuses of the present social system, it is sound both in theory and practice, and any attempt to lower the ideal to the level of the failures to comply with it, merely gauges the moral level of the shameless apologist of vice, and must be promptly frowned [illegible] sets of mankind at heart. Just let any one imagine an enlightened community, in this age of the world, implicitly accepting and deliberately proposing to carry out the theories enunciated by the "social reformer" above mentioned; then picture the result in the family, in society, in public and private morals, in religion—and a sufficient answer will be obtained to the question—Would a modified system of sanctioned polygamy be superior to the present system of publicly enforced monogamy?

Wit and humor are not generally dissociated from each other in the mind of the average reasoner. The following rather broad and interesting distinctions are drawn by an editorial writer in the New York Graphic: When one talks of the wit and the humor of different peoples he has a large subject. A humorist is very seldom a wit, and in most cases a wit is so far from a humorist that any coarse satire against himself strikes him like the broad end of a wedge. A humorist is not sensitive. He has a large mouth, and he shows his teeth to the throat if he is the man who is worsted in good stories one against another. A wit has a keen knife, and it cuts without regard to the quick, suffering attending its work; but he is the most sensitive of men. Let the knife come back to him and he is apt to whine like a child over his wound, forgetting altogether the trivial menace that invited the retaliation. For he meant nothing in his sharp words but a bit of rhetoric that had a nice sound and seemed to meet the situation better than other words might; and though the words went to the heart of the other man, why should that man be so mean as to send back the same kind of playful bitterness? Your wit and your humorist are as different as the articles they deal in. There is a popular impression that a humorist is a wit, and a wit a humorist. They are as far apart as a coarse clown and a very respectable undertaker. While each appreciates the other and gives him the benefit of a sad trade smile, like the subdued recognition of worth that prevails at a decent funeral between the remotely connected mourners for the corpse, all the winds of heaven blow between them, and they do not come together after the services until the next corpse comes on. A wit is a good fellow for an hour. You love him for his brightness and hate him for his apparent malice—he being as ignorant of injury as if there was nothing of that kind in any of his pretty stings—and he hates you if you give him thrust for thrust, the offence lying in the fact that you haven't brains enough to see innocence of motive in the keenness of his words; but your man of laughter, who does absurdity for the love of it; your good fellow, whose loudness smacks your cheeks, roofs your upper jaw as with old ale, gently boxes your ears and slaps your knees, that man is with you as long as you can keep him, and when he goes he takes with him half your heart. For that humorist—who is not a wit; who is as dumb as an egg before it learns to chirp as to every cute thing which is said in a few syllables; that best of all good fellows—has between his humor and his heart but the brief tissue that amounts to nothing. He has great tears as he has great laughter. His nature is controlled by incidents, as a violin gives to the sweep of the bow. His fun and his pathos are so closely connected at times that you can't tell which from which, and he dosen't know the difference himself. The wit has thin lips and a cold smile with a good deal of speculation in it. The humorist has fat cheeks, and laughter rolls from his lips as water bubbles at the spring, without thought, or cost, or calculation as to results. The fun is for those who like it, and if nobody likes it it is just as well. The humorist has puffed his countenance with his loud absurdity, and, having satisfied himself, he is as well satisfied if the thing goes no higher than his own ears. The ideas of wit and humor that prevail in different countries afford a curious study. A Scotchman is the most appreciative of all men of a joke or an absurdity after it has been knocked into his head with a club, but the club must be very heavy. An Irishman catches a thing of that kind on the fly, and sends it back with something better. The best wit has been English wit, because it has been the conservative article needing more or less serious reflection before the small and genteel article of smile. But there is no natural humor in the Scotch or the English. There is nothing of that kind with them that is not pumped and unnatural. They never had an Abe Lincoln, whose common sense was illuminated by the best of all broad humor, and an English Josh Billings with his quaint philosophy would appear to them to be a crank.

Do not delay in getting relief for the little folks. Mother Graves' Worm Exterminator is a pleasant and sure cure. If you love your child why do you let it suffer when a remedy is so near at hand?

Perfect Hair
Indicates a natural and healthy condition of the scalp, and of the glands through which nourishment is obtained. When, in consequence of age and disease, the hair becomes weak, thin, and gray, Ayer's Hair Vigor will strengthen it, restore its original color, promote its rapid and vigorous growth, and impart to it the lustre and freshness of youth.

I have used Ayer's Hair Vigor for a long time, and am convinced of its value. When I was 17 years of age my hair began to turn gray. I commenced using the Vigor, and was surprised at the good effects it produced. It not only restored the color to my hair, but so stimulated its growth, that I have now more hair than ever before.—J. W. Edwards, Coldwater, Miss.

Ayer's Hair Vigor,
Sold by all Druggists and Perfumers.

IF YOU ARE SUFFERING from debility and loss of appetite; if your stomach is out of order, or your mind confused; take Ayer's Sarsaparilla. This medicine will restore physical force and elasticity to the system, more surely and speedily than any tonic yet discovered.

For six months I suffered from liver and stomach troubles. My food did not nourish me, and I became weak and very much emaciated. I took six bottles of Ayer's Sarsaparilla, and was cured.—J. M. Palmer, Springfield, Mass. ††

Public Notice

THE ATTENTION OF THE PUBLIC is hereby directed to the "Provincial Health (small-pox) By-Laws, 1888," issued by His Honour the Lieutenant-Governor in Council, under authority of the "Health Ordinance, 1869."

Having been appointed Provincial Health Officer for Districts lying south of Fraser River, I hereby give notice that the provisions of said By-laws will be strictly enforced, and all persons are required to govern themselves accordingly.

BY-LAWS ISSUED BY HIS HONOUR THE LIEUTENANT-GOVERNOR IN COUNCIL,

UNDER THE AUTHORITY OF THE "HEALTH ORDINANCE, 1869."

HIS HONOUR THE LIEUTENANT-Governor of British Columbia, by and with the advice of the Executive Council of British Columbia, acting under and by virtue of the provisions of the "Health Ordinance, 1869," enacts as follows:—

1. Whenever small-pox is present in any locality without the boundaries of any Municipality, the Provincial Health Officer, or such Health Officer shall at once cause the patient to be removed to an isolated hospital, tent or other suitable place, or cause such person to be otherwise sufficiently isolated, and shall see that he is properly cared for, and shall take proper measures for the disinfection, or, if necessary, the destruction of all clothing which may have been exposed to the contagion, and for the disinfection and purification of every conveyance, rail-car, steamboat, railway, vessel, carriage or other vehicle which may have been exposed to the contagion.

2. Such Health Officer shall have, in his discretion, full power to place in another building or treat all persons who may have been exposed to the contagion, and shall cause them to be supplied with all necessaries until the period of incubation of the disease shall have elapsed, and no such person shall go, or be permitted to go, abroad, until he or she has given satisfactory proof of successful vaccination within the preceding seven years, or shall have obtained a medical certificate of insusceptibility to the vaccine disease, nor until the clothing or effects worn or carried by or with him or her have been properly disinfected, if the same have been exposed to contagion.

3. To assist the Health Officer, he shall have full power to employ persons to be nurses, sanitary policemen, and otherwise to aid in the prevention of the spread of the disease, and may himself give and enforce such reasonable directions for the same purpose as to him may seem expedient, and the nearest Government Agent shall see that all articles and necessaries required by the Health Officer are furnished.

4. It shall be the duty of every medical practitioner who shall attend upon, or give medical or surgical advice, to or about any person suffering from small-pox, forthwith to give notice thereof, if he shall have commenced so to attend or give such advice, to the nearest Provincial Health Officer. When a householder knows that a person within the house occupied by him is taken sick of small-pox, he shall immediately give notice thereof to the nearest Provincial Health Officer.

5. The Provincial Health Officer before mentioned is and includes any person appointed Health Officer under the "Health Ordinance, 1869," by the Lieutenant-Governor in Council.

6. The foregoing provisions shall have no effect within the limits of any Municipality, save as hereinafter mentioned.

7. In case the Council of any Municipality, whenever small-pox is present, or likely to occur therein, shall fail to make or carry out proper provisions to prevent the invasion or spread of small-pox within the Municipality, and complaint thereof shall be made to the Lieutenant-Governor by the Council of any adjacent Municipality, it shall be lawful for the Lieutenant-Governor in Council, acting upon such complaint or in his discretion upon other information, to order that these regulations shall, until otherwise ordered, apply to and be in force within the Municipality in which such default occurs, and thereupon any Provincial Health Officer shall have, within and in respect of such Municipality all the authority with which he is clothed in respect of localities without Municipalities, and in such case all disbursements and expenses paid by the Province in the carrying out within such Municipality of the foregoing regulations, shall be paid by such Municipality.

8. These regulations may be cited as the "Provincial Health (small-pox) By-Laws, 1888."

Dated at Victoria, this 3rd day of October, 1888.

By Command,
THOS. ROBSON,
Provincial Secretary.

ONE VERY YOUNG CRANK.

A One-Year-Old Boy Makes His Troubles Known to the World.

Tommy Cole, aged 1, having suffered as long as he can stand it, writes to me in order that his grievances, being known to the public, may immediately be cured.

I object, he says, in the first place, to being forced to adopt Farmer Jones' brindle cow for a foster mother.

I object also to the existence of a like relationship between myself and the condensed milk factory or the cornstarch mill.

I object to having my stomach stuffed as a remedy for a mosquito bite on my little toe or a pretty pin in my back.

I object to personating a churn. I prefer to churn my butter after the churning process is completed.

I object to being kissed by all the women, old and young, who come near me. I prefer to wait a few years, or at least until I shall be old enough to make my own selections.

I object to having people ask about my age. It is an impertinence. Besides, grown people sometimes remember, and of ages they are apt in keeping a record.

I object to going hungry until company is served. For my part, I don't see what people want company for. Company is a nuisance. Mamma and papa have said so hundreds of times in my hearing.

I object to being obliged to go about with my neck and arms bare. When it is hot the flies and mosquitoes bother me awfully, and when the air is chilly I feel as though I were freezing to death.

I object, when I go out to ride in my perambulator, to having myself left alone in the sun while my maid sports with that long-legged chap with the yellow mustache and ready-made clothing.

I object to being sent to bed when I am not sleepy, and to having a nasty rubber tube stuck into my mouth every time I turn over in the night.

I object to having strangers make faces at me. They give me an awful start sometimes when they think they are amusing me.

I object to being spoken to by people with whom I am not acquainted. Why don't they wait for an introduction?

I object to being the only child in the family. It's awfully lonesome not to have any brothers or sisters. I wish I had been born when it was fashionable to have large families.

I object to being called Tom, just because my papa was called Tom when he was a boy. Because his papa gave him a name he didn't like was no reason for giving me a name I detest. I should think a boy ought to be allowed to choose his own name.

I object to wearing dresses and having my hair curled. Half the folks think I'm a girl.

I object to being bossed by women. A man ought to be his own master. I'm just sick of petticoat government.

I object to being taught baby talk. What good does it do me? After I have become proficient in it I have to go to work and unlearn it and learn grown folks' language. Why don't they teach me that in the first place?

I object to having folks bore me with their silly stories which I have heard so many times that they are veritable chestnuts.

I object to having people humbug me all the time. They tell me what I should do and what I should not do. I notice that they are not given to taking their own medicine. What dunces they are not to know that I learn more from what I see than from what they tell me.

There's lots of other things to which I object, but this will do for a starter.—Boston Transcript.

"HOME, SWEET HOME."

The Late Sir Henry Bishop Composed the Music of This Most Popular Song.

Some time ago, when the late Mr. Corcoran's touching tribute to John Howard Payne's memory was a topic of fresh interest to Americans, I was drawn into a short controversy relating to the authorship of the music of "Home, Sweet Home," whose popular words have immortalized the name of Payne as their author.

It was maintained by me at that time that the composer of the music was the late Sir Henry Bishop, but quite a formidable array of writers appeared in opposition to my assertion, and not having anything stronger than my memory to fortify my statement, I was quite overwhelmed by the "cloud of witnesses" for the opposition who maintained that the melody was a "Sicilian air adapted by Bishop."

Perhaps you will not deny me the justice, even at this late day, of publicly asserting that I have now, right here in London, come into possession of the report of a legal verdict in favor of the claims of Mr. Bishop as the composer of "Home, Sweet Home," and thus vindicating my own humble character for accuracy of statement where musical history is concerned.—Jerome Hopkins in New York Sun.

Women Smokers of Russia.

All Russians smoke cigarettes and delight to hold a gallon of carbon in their lungs and then roll it out like steam from a 'scape pipe. In Southern Russia and the Caucasus the women—matrons, and even some unmarried ones—smoke almost as universally as the men.

I have had, two or three times, nicely dressed ladies stop up to me in a railroad station or on the platform and beg of me a light. I suppose this sprang from my having a cigar, from which a better light could be had than from the cigarette of another.

In Northern Russia and at St. Petersburg I have seen but two women with cigarettes, and think they were travelers. I am told comparatively few here smoke.—St. Petersburg Letter to Chicago Mail.

Good Reasoning.

"Ma," remonstrated Bobby, "when I was at grandma's she let me have two pieces of pie."

"Well, she ought not to have done so, Bobby," said his mother. "I think two pieces of pie are too much for little boys. The older you grow, Bobby, the more wisdom you will gain."

Bobby was silent, but only for a moment.

"Well, ma," he said, "grandma is a good deal older than you are."—Christian Advocate.

Religion and Economy.

Husband (on his way to church)—"I'll just skip on ahead, my dear, and get some change. I've nothing less than $1, and that's too much to give."

Wife (on his overtaking her)—"Did you get the bill changed?"

Husband—"Yes."

Wife—"You will contribute half a dollar, John?"

Husband—"I can't very well now. I [illegible] and I'm only got a quarter left."—New York Sun.

Scrofula

Is one of the most fatal scourges which afflict mankind. It is often inherited, but may be the result of improper vaccination, mercurial poison, uncleanliness, and various other causes. Chronic Sores, Ulcers, Abscesses, Cancerous Humors, and, in some cases, Emaciation and Consumption, result from a scrofulous condition of the blood. This disease can be cured by the use of Ayer's Sarsaparilla.

I inherited a scrofulous condition of the blood, which caused a derangement of my whole system. After taking less than four bottles of Ayer's Sarsaparilla I am

Entirely Cured

I was troubled with Scrofulous Sores for five years; but, after using a few bottles of Ayer's Sarsaparilla, the sores healed, and I have now good health.—Elizabeth Warnock, 5½ Appleton street, Lowell, Mass.

Some months ago I was troubled with Scrofulous Sores on my leg. The limb was badly swollen and inflamed, and the sores discharged large quantities of offensive matter. Every remedy failed until I used Ayer's Sarsaparilla. By taking three bottles of this medicine the sores have been healed, and my health is restored. I am grateful for the good it has done me.—Mrs. Ann O'Brian, 158 Sullivan st., New York. ††

PROVINCIAL

Government Lands

—ON—

NORTH ARM OF FRASER RIVER, AND ADJACENT LANDS, NEW WESTMINSTER DISTRICT.

TUESDAY, 23rd OCTOBER

AT 11 O'CLOCK, A. M.

I have been instructed by the Chief Commissioner of Lands and Works to sell by Auction

AT VANCOUVER, B. C.

Several parcels of fine agricultural lands, situate on or near the North Arm of Fraser River, being sub-divisions of Lots 325, 326, 329, 330, 331, 332 to 330, 149, 150, 156, 175, 166, 155, 162, 163. The subdivisions of these Lots contain from 27 to 172 acres each; the location of these lots is shown on the present maps of the District.

The farms in the immediate vicinity of these lots are considered the finest Agricultural properties in British Columbia. Some of the lots front on the North Arm, and others are in the immediate vicinity of the same.

Steamers run daily from New Westminster and Vancouver, past these valuable properties.

ALSO,

Lots 628 to 670, and Lots 700 to 756.

All situate between the North Arm of Fraser River and Vancouver City. The North Arm Road from Vancouver runs through these Lots, and there are other roads laid out that will give access to each of them. This property commences about 2½ miles south of Vancouver City and is bounded on the west by the C. P. Railway Land Grant, and is surveyed into lots containing from 6 to 56 acres each, maps of which will shortly be ready for distribution.

All the lands to be sold are well adapted for agricultural, dairy or orchard purposes, and on account of their close proximity to the towns of Vancouver and New Westminster will be desirable properties for families seeking a home or for investment.

The C. P. Railway are now constructing a fine wagon road from Vancouver to the North Arm of Fraser River and Lulu Island. They are also surveying a line of railway through these properties with a view of connecting with the United States system of railways at Seattle.

These lands may fairly be considered as the most valuable ever offered for sale by auction in British Columbia.

TERMS OF SALE.—One-third cash; one-third six months; the balance in twelve months with interest at rate of five per cent. per annum. Deeds, five dollars.

The lots that have improvements on them, as per catalogue, are sold subject to the valuations, which amounts will have to be paid in full with the first payment of lands.

Why suffer with that aching head when you may be cured with Ayer's Cathartic Pills? Send a 2-cent stamp to Dr. J. C. Ayer & Co., Lowell, Mass., for a set of their attractive album cards.

Summonses were served upon the proprietors of the Colonist yesterday, at the instance of Mayor Grant, charging them with criminal libel. The case will come up on Monday morning next in the police court.

The Brockville, Ont., Recorder prints the following:—"The Vancouver (British Columbia) News-Democrat—a conservative journal—enjoys whatever notoriety there is in being the first Canadian paper to issue a Sunday edition."

There would appear to be no doubt of the fact that the Rev. Joseph Parker, one of the most gifted of English dissenters, and who was talked of as Beecher's successor, on the death of the brilliant Brooklyn divine, has become insane.

The British Columbia Packing Co. closed to-day for the season. The Indians have all been paid off and are leaving for their homes up-river. Although the packers have not had a very profitable season the Indians have made good wages.

Every wife and mother in the country should know the great value of Ayer's Sarsaparilla, as a blood purifier. It gives tone, health and strength to the vital organs, corrects all irregularities, and expels impurities from the system. Young and old use it. Price $1.

An adjourned meeting of the licensing board was held in the court room to-day when the following transfers were granted: From Brennan & King to King & Keary; from E. J. Curran to J. R. Brennan; from the estate of Morrison to C. Lambert. The court then adjourned to meet again on Tuesday next.

The caretaker of Stanley Park reported last evening that an Indian picked up a boat going with the tide through the Narrows, having on board two men's hats, one felt and the other straw. The boat is painted yellow, having "No. 81" painted on both bows. The police are actively engaged in investigating it.—News-Advertiser.

The Lynden, W. T., Pioneer Press, a new four-page, seven-column weekly paper, has reached this office. It is independent in politics, devoted to home interests, and typographically neat. It appears to be a good local paper, and should be appreciated by the citizens of the romantically named little Washington Territory town.

No family living in a bilious country should be without Parmelee's Vegetable Pills. A few doses taken now and then will keep the Liver active, cleanse the stomach and bowels from all bilious matter and prevent Ague. Mr. J. L. Price, Shoals, Martin Co., Ind., writes: "I have tried a box of Parmelee's Pills and find them the best medicine for Fever and Ague I have ever used."

This afternoon Mr. W. D. Ferris laid on the sanctum table of THE COLUMBIAN three most beautiful pears which were grown in his garden in this city. They are of the Winter Nellis variety and turn the scales at an average of 1 lb. each. One of them has a circumference of 13 inches one way and 12 the other. Mr. Ferris states that he has a tree in his garden that has yielded 500 lbs. weight of these pears this season.

THERE IS A WIDE DIFFERENCE between medicines which affect merely the symptoms of disease and those which affect its cause. The first are useful as palliatives, the second, if of genuine efficacy, produce a radical cure. To the latter class belongs Northrop & Lyman's Vegetable Discovery and Dyspeptic Cure. Thoroughness of operation is its special attribute in all cases of Biliousness, Costiveness, Indigestion, Kidney Complaints, and Female Weakness.

Children Cry for Pitcher's Castoria

Desperate Women.

A late despatch from Grand Forks, Dakota, says that a dozen women were brought there under arrest from a place called Thompson the other day. All attempts to close the saloons there having failed, the ladies took a hand themselves, gutting the saloons and spilling the liquor on the ground, for which they were arrested. They all wear white badges, and spent the time on the train singing temperance songs. Great interest is manifested in the trial. There is much bitter feeling.

Sale of Lands.

On Tuesday next a large sale of government property in this district will take place in Vancouver conducted by Mr. Geo. Byrnes. Many of the lots offered have valuable improvements thereon which the purchasers will be obliged to pay for over and above the price of the land. The terms of purchase are one-third cash, one third in 6 mos., and balance in 12 months with interest at 5 per cent. per annum. Catalogues of the land to be sold can be had from Mr. C. Warwick, government agent.

The First Denver Baby.

When the first baby born in Denver was announced by her father, Lish Harvey, twenty-eight years ago, a public meeting was held in the town, and among the other presents a lot of land was donated. The piece went out of Harvey's hands by his refusal to pay its taxes. To-day the girl sings in a concert garden at Denver, and the lot that was given her is worth $2,000,000. Flour, in those days was worth $100 per barrel.—Tacoma Ledger. Have not some people got left similarly in this country?

Peculiar Mississippi Editors.

Mr. Ed. King, of the railway mail service, who recently tried to take a trip through Mississippi, said yesterday: "The editors at Jackson are enigmas. I can't understand them at all. They will walk out on the street and shoot at each other with forty-four calibre pistols with the greatest non-chalance, and yet when the yellow-fever first appeared there the editors were among the first who fled the city. As between a forty-four calibre bullet and a case of yellow fever, I should certainly prefer the latter."—Washington Critic. The editors at Vancouver are just now emulating the Mississippi scribes—in their minds.

Unsatisfied.

A correspondent of the Victoria Times in Friday's issue says:

An extract from THE COLUMBIAN in your last stated that the squatters on land to be sold by auction on 23rd inst., at Vancouver, were satisfied with valuations put on their improvements, I think none of us knew till the 12th of October what the amount was, so how could THE COLUMBIAN know. I don't think that any of them told that paper they were satisfied. As we have only been allowed about one-third of the actual cash spent, how could we be satisfied? Be careful of COLUMBIAN statements. Is it quite fair and safe that an appraiser should also be the auctioneer? UNSATISFIED.

The correspondent above says: "I don't think that any of them told that paper they were satisfied." Mr. "Unsatisfied" should not be satisfied with "thinking." He ought to know, before limping into print. As a matter of fact, what he "thinks" did not happen actually did occur.

C. P. R. Discrimination.

The C. P. R. steamship Parthia arrived at Vancouver from China and Japan on the 7th inst., amongst her freight being about fifty tons for Victoria consignees. This freight, not being landed at its destination at the time of the vessel's arrival, should at once have been forwarded from Vancouver. But the company retained it there awaiting an opportunity to ship it to this port by their own steamer the Danube. When the latter vessel left Vancouver on Tuesday last, she had to make all speed in returning to Portland, where another cargo of flour was awaiting shipment, so the Parthia's Victoria freight still remained at Vancouver. Under these circumstances the company at length decided to forward the freight by the C.P.N.Co.'s steamer Yosemite, which was accordingly done, and it arrived here on Wednesday evening, exactly ten days after it had reached Vancouver.—Colonist.

From Walworth's.

Dr. Bentley, provincial health officer, received a report yesterday afternoon from Dr. D. McLean, physician in charge of the smallpox patients in the Walworth settlement. In case timid people might become alarmed for their safety by the receipt of letters from the infected locality, a short explanation of the mode of transmission will not be out of place. Mr. James Ellard takes the doctor's report and proceeds to Mr. H. T. Thrift's ranch, and, when within 100 yards of the house, sends forth a yell that some people aver to have been heard as far away as Brownsville. This shout naturally arouses the inmates of the house and soon a window is opened and Mr. Thrift appears with pen and paper. Mr. Ellard then reads in a clear and distinct voice the doctor's report, which is faithfully copied by Mr. Thrift and later on forwarded to Dr. Bentley.

Dr. D. McLean's last report says that all the patients are doing well and out of danger, with the exception of Mrs. Van Luren, who has confluent smallpox and is very sick. There are are no new cases and no indications of those who have escaped so far taking it. On the whole the report is very cheering and adds to the hope that the disease will be finally stamped out within a few weeks. As soon as the patients are all convalescent and the chances of infection removed the house and its contents will be burned down.

There are are a number of varieties of corns. Holloway's Corn Cure will remove any of them. Call on your druggist and get a bottle at once.

Methodist Church Re-Opening.

The addition and repairs to the Methodist church are completed and that edifice was formally re-opened last evening by a soiree. About 250 people were present, including representatives from other denominations in this city. A magnificent spread was prepared by the ladies of the congregation in the basement of the building to which all present sat down. After replenishing the inner man the company adjourned to the auditorium where the intellectual portion of the programme was carried out. The Rev. Mr. White occupied the chair and was supported on the platform by the Rev. E. Robson and Rev. Mr. Baldwin. After prayers by the Rev. Mr. Baldwin and the singing of an anthem by the choir, the Rev. Mr. Robson on being called gave a very interesting address, contrasting the worldly comforts which God's people enjoyed here at the present time to the privations to which they were subjected in the earlier days of the province. Mr. Pearson, secretary of the building committee, read a statement of their financial liabilities, which was followed by an address from the Rev. Mr. White making a strong appeal to his congregation to wipe out as soon as possible the debt of the church. Rev. Mr. Thompson, of the North Arm, was then called and gave a short humorous address. The choir, which was composed of 15 voices, gave several selections of sacred music, at intervals during the evening, which was greatly appreciated by the audience. The solos by Mr. and Mrs. Middlebrook, of Vancouver, and Mrs. Major were very nicely rendered and added greatly to the evening's entertainment. The proceeds of the entertainment will add $113 to the building fund. The general appearance of the church is a very creditable one. It is nicely finished, both inside and out, and has a comfortable seating capacity for 450 people. The total cost of the addition and repairs will amount to about $7,000.

Rifle Shooting.

Annual Prize-Meeting of the N.W.B.A.

About 35 members of the New Westminster Rifle Association went over to Brownsville to take part at the annual meeting. The weather threatened rain and for a time a slight drizzle fell, but shortly before 10 o'clock the sky brightened and the shooting steadily improved. As will be seen by the scores the shooting was better than the average in the first match. The 300 yard range in the second match was a puzzle to most of the marksmen and no good scores were made—18 being the highest recorded. After leaving the 300 yard range the best match was commenced and the target began to receive more attention. At this range Lister and Wilson each made 22 points. The shooting at the ranges following was not brilliant, but, at the same time very good considering the many disadvantages under which the marksmen labored. As will be seen by the annexed list of winners Messrs. Cotton and McColl carried off the honors.

Adam Brown, M. P., and A. McKay, M. P., both of Hamilton, Ont., came over from Vancouver in Abbott's private car this afternoon.

Two rising young men, well known in Elgin and vicinity, J. C. McLennan and J. T. Cunningham, left for the east by the one o'clock train to-day. The former goes to Michigan to study law, and the latter to Tara, Ont., to visit friends.

OTTAWA, Oct. 15.—C. M. Acer, the great cattle exporter of Montreal, is here. He says the export trade this year is better than the last few seasons, and expects Northwest cattle to bring higher prices in the English markets next year.

The working men of Ottawa banquetted Chapleau to-night for his efforts in assisting the return of Lepine, the labor representative, to parliament. The affair was a magnificent success.
