NOTES AND COMMENTS.

A Liverpool, Eng., boy of eleven years of age committed suicide by hanging himself in his bedroom. He had refused to go to school, and in order to bring him to reason his father had locked him up. In a fit of rage and disappointment the lad fastened a cord to a ventilator in the wall and hanged himself. With refractory pupils there is a better mode than simply locking them up. Their reasons for not wanting to go to school might be heard, and their objections given some consideration. It is not often, however, that a boy carries his hatred of school to the length of putting an end to his life. It is usually the teachers who are brought to the verge of despair by the boys.

An exchange says: The theory that the horrible murders which are terrifying London have been committed by hired assassins of a medical publicist could only be based on the workings of a disordered brain. Whole subjects do not cost anything like the price said to be offered for a single organ, which price is absurdly high in view of the proposed purpose. Moreover, the enquiries made in intelligent quarters, when compared with the condition of the bodies of the victims, would be certain to fix the guilt and make the public use of the trophies impossible. The easiest theory would seem to be that the crimes had been committed by some crazy Dr. Jekyll while under his maniac condition as Mr. Hyde.

We ran across a story lately which illustrates very forcibly the folly of those people who insist upon making their own intelligence the measure of all things. A man may persuade himself, and even some of his cotemporaries that he "knows it all"; but how will the next generation look at it? Sir Isaac Newton, in his work on the prophecies of the books of Daniel and the Revelation, said that if the predictions of these books were true, as he well knew they were, then it would be necessary that some new modes of traveling should be invented and brought into use. And he further said, that the knowledge of mankind would be so increased before a certain date or time alluded to in the prophecy (namely the 1,260 years, which most commentators agree in fixing not far from A. D. 1860), that men would be able to travel at the rate of some fifty miles an hour. Voltaire, seeing this statement of Newton's, in the sneering spirit of scepticism, said, "Now look at the mighty mind of Newton, the great philosopher who discovered the law of gravitation. When he became an old man and reached the time of his dotage, he began to study the book called the Bible, and in order to give credit to its fabulous non sense he would have us believe that the knowledge of mankind will yet be so increased, that by-and-by we shall be able to travel fifty miles an hour! Poor dotard!"

About the middle of the last century a young cadet named Maskeleyne went to India, where he became acquainted with Lord Clive. The acquaintance ripened into intimate friendship and led to constant association. There hung up in Maskelyne's room several portraits, among others a minatu e which attracted Clive's attention. One day after the English mail had arrived Clive asked Maskeleyne if he had received any English letters, adding: "We have been very much misunderstood at home and much censured in English circles." Maskeleyne replied that he had, and read to his friend a letter he then held in his hand. A day or two afterward Clive came back to ask to have the letter read to him again. "Who is the writer?" inquired Clive. "My sister," was the reply; "my sister whose minature hangs there." "Is it a faithful representation?" further asked Clive. "It is," replied Maskeleyne, "of her face and form; but it is unequal to represent the excellence of her mind and character." "Well, Maskeleyne," said Clive, taking him by the hand, "you know me well, and can speak of me as I really am. Do you think that girl could be induced to come to India and marry me? In the present state of affairs I dare not hope to be able to go to England." Maskeleyne wrote home and so recommended Clive's suit that the lady acquiesced, went to India, and in 1754 was married at Madras to Clive, then rising to the highest distinction.

LAST NIGHT'S DESPATCHES.

GERMAN ABUSES.

LONDON, Oct. 9.—The Zanzibar natives have informed the British agents that their quarrels with the Germans is due to unnecessary interferences on the part of the latter with natives customs. Their hostility is directed against the German Africa Company alone, and the German government is held in the highest respect. The agents remark that Germany would best promote her interests by stopping the company's abuses.

THE WHITECHAPEL MURDERS.

LONDON, Oct. 9.—At the Whitechapel inquest to-day several surgeons deposed that the body found in White chapel is that of a woman of unusually fine appearance and evidently of good social standing. In reference to the general desire that blood hounds should be used in the search for the Whitechapel murderer, the police have purchased several of these animals and put them in training. They are not stationed at Whitechapel district, however, but are located in stalls in out of way places so that no nobody will know from what quarter to expect them.

WILLIAM'S VISIT TO ROME.

ROME, Oct. 10.—Extensive preparations are being made to receive the Emperor William to-morrow. The magnificient silver throne, a jubilee gift to the pope by the people of Barcelona, which has been placed beside the pope's chair will be occupied by the emperor.

A SCHOONER RUN DOWN.

NEW YORK, Oct. 10.—The National line steamer, Queen, arrived to-day. It collided with the fishing schooner Madeline off the Newfoundland coast last Friday evening, during a fog, cutting the schooner in two. Twenty of the schooner's crew were drowned. Four saved. The schooner Madeline sailed from Granville, France, and was on the return voyage to Havre after a successful fishing season when run down by the Queen. The captain, two mates and cook of the schooner were saved by the Queen's boats and landed here this morning. The twenty men drowned were all below when the collision occurred and as the schooner sank immediately after being cut in two it was impossible to save them. Captain Healy, master of the Queen, said this afternoon that at the time of the collision First Officer Jackson had charge of the Queen. A white light was seen by him off the port bow and he thought the vessel was at anchor. The Queen was making ten knots per hour Had Jackson's supposition been correct, the Queen would have passed the Madeline safely. The accident is due to the display of a wrong signal on the Madeline. After the collision the Queen was at once backed to clear the wreckage, and only 4 persons in all were seen from deck. Much to the officers' astonishment the passengers on the Queen felt the shock and many rushed on deck. Fourth Mate Taylor re-assured the passengers by telling them the steamer had only dropped anchor.

THE MIDDLEPARK PLATE.

LONDON, Oct. 10.—The Middlepark plate was won by Donovon.

SHOOTING AFFRAY.

PENDLETON, Or., Oct. 10.—News has just been received here that a shooting scrape occurred on Thursday in the mountains forty miles east of here, between Enoch Bowley, a sheep herder, and Ed. and Len Campbell, sheep owners. A band of sheep which Bowley was herding became mixed with Campbell's sheep, and in separating them a dispute arose. Bowley drew his pistol and emptied it at the Campbells. Two bullets struck Len Campbell, but Ed. escaped unhurt. The latter drew his revolver and fired one shot just as Bowley vanished in the bushes, and it took effect. Len Campbell has died from his injuries, and Bowley is not expected to live.

THE PARNELL LIBEL SUIT.

DUBLIN, Oct. 10.—The Freeman's Journal states that the London Times has subpoenaed Timothy Harrington to produce minutes, cash, banking, letter and check books and the ledgers of the national league, ladies' national league and labor and industrial union, from 1879 to 1888 for examination. In the libel suit brought against the Times by Parnell. It also says that the Times will suppoena Messrs. McCarthy, Biggar, Campbell, Sexton, Nolan, Quint, Cox, Kenny and T. P. O'Connor for the defense.

ANOTHER PRIZE FIGHT.

DOVER, N. J., Oct. 10.—The light weight championship fight between Jack McAuliff and Bill Dacy for a $1,000 purse and the Police Gazette diamond belt, took place this morning, in a barn near here. Eleven fierce and desperate rounds were fought, McAuliffe finally knocking his opponent out. Dacy evidently was over-matched. McAuliffe was seconded by Jack Dempsey and Dooney Harris, while Dacey was looked after by Tommy Barnes. Mike Cleary, the well-known sporting man, was referee. The winners weight was 131½ lbs; while Dacey scaled 130.

THE STREET CAR STRIKE.

CHICAGO, Oct. 10.—No effort was made this morning by the west side street company to run cars, and a tie up of the road is more complete than yesterday. All stock men in the western avenue car barns were notified this morning that their services will not be required until the strike was over.

TURKISH DEFENCES.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Oct. 10.—The Turkish government has decided to establish an arsenal, dockyard and harbor works at Jeddah and a flotilla at Servia on the Red Sea.

THE PRICE OF BREAD.

NEW YORK, Oct. 10.—The bakers of this city meet to-night to discuss the advisability of raising the price of bread. This action is the result of the steady advance in the wholesale prices of flour, consequent upon the wheat rise.

WHEAT.

CHICAGO, Oct. 10.—The wheat market opened weak this morning, but quickly rallied, and closed strong at noon. Oct., 110⅝; Nov., 111½; Dec., 113¼ asked. Prices stiffened again in the afternoon, October closing at 110⅞; Nov., 112⅞; Dec., 114⅞.

NEW YORK, Oct. 10.—There was little activity in the wheat market this morning. Transactions were confined to December, which closed steady at 113 asked. Prices were as follows at the afternoon close: Oct., 111; Nov., 112; Dec., 113⅛.

LIVERPOOL, Oct. 10.—Wheat quiet but steady. Cals., 8s. 1d.

QUEBEC, Oct. 8.—The Protestants complain of discrimination by the corporation in favor of Catholic churches, all of which have from one to four electric lamps outside, while not one Protestant church has as much as a single lamp.

MONTREAL, Oct. 8.—McKay, one of the heroes of the mock marriage case, has been seen in the city from Winnipeg. He beat his way to St. Paul, and thence to Chicago and Montreal, having to tramp many miles through swamps and bushes. He presents a pitable sight. He has no money, and it is not known where he is stopping or where he will go next.

Daily British Columbian

Wednesday Evening, Oct. 10, 1888.

Some of our readers may, perhaps, think that THE COLUMBIAN is a little premature in agitating on account of next year's agricultural and industrial exhibition to be held in this city. But, one of the greatest mistakes made in connection with these shows is the practice which has obtained in this country of relegating the matter to the oblivion of forgetfulness until within a short time of the holding of the show. Such a policy can contribute to but one result. Examples of this we have already seen. There are many things that the agriculturist, especially, can do, six, ten, and even twelve months in advance, to promote the success of the next year's fall show, by preparing to excel in his own exhibit. If the farmers and other exhibitors throughout the province are assured in advance that the next exhibition is to be made the banner show of the province—as well in the monetary encouragement offered exhibitors, the extent and variety of the exhibits, the stimulating competition and rivalry induced by all sections of the province being represented, the large number of visitors present, the tone and proportions of the whole affair, and the universal interest manifested—the natural result will be that each will take a special pride and ambition in preparing for a choice and extensive exhibit of his own, and thus will the grand result be all that could be desired. The same forehanded policy will insure, too, a large number of visitors, and these will not only contribute to the success of the show, but will be a direct benefit to the city. Looking at the question in the most selfish, and least patriotic, way, Westminster, besides advertising herself extensively and securing enviable fame, can make considerable capital in a financial sense by managing the next annual exhibition in a spirit of liberality and progress. In proposing a fund to be raised by public subscription, we do not mean for the citizens to shoulder the whole thing. A certain amount of government aid we are entitled to, and the more we can get the better; but there is a great deal to be done, when we take into account, too, the preparing of ample grounds and buildings in this city, and if we depend altogether upon governmental assistance and the ordinary revenue of the association, we must be content with an exhibition something after the usual sort, which is not worthy of the Royal City. There are other considerations which we have not mentioned as yet. Westminster, it is true, has made a creditable effort and has secured the holding of the next show at this place. So far so good. But, unless we bestir ourselves, we shall find that this apparent acquisition is a mere hollow bauble in our hands—a shadow, while others have the substance. Indications are not wanting which warrant us in predicting that both Victoria and Vancouver will hold exhibitions of their own next year, got up and carried through principally by private enterprise. We know enough of our sister cities to be convinced that these shows will be no "small pumpkins," and will cast the provincial show altogether into the shade unless it be very much in advance of the ordinary affair. We trust that our citizens and prominent and wealthy men throughout the district will "come up to the scratch" and "encourage home industry." Let us have such a show next year in the Royal City as will astonish the natives. If any of our capitalists do not approve of the plan of THE COLUMBIAN, our columns are open to suggestions, but our money is there just the same.

Quite a furor is being raised these days on account of the attitude and expressions of American politicians—principally the mumblers and ranters of the U. S. Republican senate—towards Canada. Senator Sherman is doing a good deal of talking in a top-lofty style just now about annexing Canada. The noble senator is not exactly a blusterer of the Riddleberger stamp, and therefore his utterances gain more respect than, considering the matter of them, they deserve. One of our despatches published the other day reads as follows: "Sherman's statement on the relations of the United States with Canada is accepted by Canadian statesmen generally, irrespective of parties, throughout the Dominion, as an intimation that leading Republicans have decided that Canada must be annexed or fight for her independent national existence. Annexation clubs will probably be started in Ontario and Quebec and the maritime provinces. Leading imperial federationists are hastily pushing an extension of the league against annexation." Now, in spite of the above, no one believes anything of the sort. It is a little too strong to down, that "the leading Republicans have decided that Canada must be annexed or fight for her independent national existence." If Canada is true to herself, it is perfectly safe to wager that she will neither have to "fight" nor will she be "annexed." The redoubtable Republican senators are probably merely trying to offset President Cleveland's "retaliation" dodge and make capital for their party in the eyes of the Anglo-phobist electors. When this cruel (presidential) war is over, things will settle down into a normal groove again, and reason and common sense will have an innings for a change. And a delightful change it will be, too.

The commercial unionists, of whom Erastus Wiman is the leader and oracle, have been showing their hand rather indiscreetly, according to an article in a late number of the Toronto Empire under the striking heading, "The Scheme Laid Bare." On Sept. 29th last, Erastus Wiman sent, by the telegraph line controlled by him—the Great Northwest Telegraph—the following telegram, from New York, to the Toronto newspaper offices, including the Empire: "New York, Sept. 29.—I deem it my duty to say that information from Washington reaches me of a reliable character to the effect that the senate committee of foreign affairs have, during the past few days, in furtherance of the views of its chairman, Senator Sherman, been discussing the question of inviting the Dominion of Canada to join the United States. So far have matters progressed that it is not at all unlikely that a resolution will be reported for the concurrent action of both houses, declaring it to be the duty of the president to open negotiations with Great Britain looking to a political union between the English speaking nations on this continent. The condition attending the invitation of Canada is understood to be that the United States would assume the entire debt of the Dominion, estimated at three hundred millions of dollars. Commercial union was urged as the basis of the proposed negotiation, on the ground that while a large majority might be secured for it, only a small minority favored political union, but the sentiment of the committee was so strong in favor of proposing at first political union that it was impossible to contend with it.—ERASTUS WIMAN." Very shortly afterwards the same newspapers received the following telegram: "We are now requested by Erastus Wiman to withdraw his communication in reference to the doings of the foreign affairs committee of the American senate. Will you please do this and greatly oblige, G. N. W. TELEGRAPH CO." The Empire, rightly enough, refused to suppress the first telegram, but gave it to the public through its columns. The whole transaction, coupled with the tenor of the first despatch and the insight which it gives into the workings and the designs of commercial unionists and annexationists on both sides of the line, is well fitted to throw discredit and suspicion upon the entire so-called "commercial union" movement. Absolute commercial union with the United States, at the expense of our relations with the empire at large, we do not want anyway. A measure of reciprocity with our American neighbors would be desirable, leaving us free to adjust our own trade relations with the mother country and with the rest of the world. But the eager and misdirected zeal of the Wimanites and Shermanites to tie us up into an inextricable knot with the United States will, we believe, meet with a well-deserved rebuke from every true Canadian. Miss Canada is perfectly willing to be a "sister" to Uncle Sam, but his spouse, never!

The Proprietors of Parmelee's Pills are constantly receiving letters similar to the following, which explains itself. Mr. John A. Beam, Waterloo, Ont., writes: "I never used any medicine that can equal Parmelee's Pills for Dyspepsia or Liver and Kidney Complaints. The relief experienced after using them was wonderful." As a safe family medicine Parmelee's Vegetable Pills can be given in all cases requiring a Cathartic.

GREAT

Real Estate Sale!

I HAVE RECEIVED INSTRUCTIONS to sell by Public Auction at the Colonial Hotel, on Saturday, October 13th,

AT 8 O'CLOCK, P.M.

THAT VALUABLE HOUSE AND LOT on Agnes street west, and known as Lot 9, Block XXXIII, New Westminster City. This is a full size lot with good six-room House, stabling for four horses, an excellent garden (of bearing Fruit Trees, and a never failing supply of pure spring water. Terms, $200 cash, balance at 8 per cent.

THE S. W. QUARTER OF SECTION 80, Group 2, 3¼ miles from New Westminster, with half a mile frontage on the Scott Road leading to Ladners Landing. This is an excellent chance to secure a good ranch within easy reach of the city. The growth is principally light timber, and the soil is of excellent quality. Terms, 25 per cent. cash, balance at 8 per cent.

THAT VERY ELIGIBLE LOT ON Agnes street, next the residence of Mr. Phillips, and Matsos as Lot 36, Victoria Gardens; the size of the lot is 66 x 132 feet. This is one of the best situated lots on this street, and should meet with ready sale.

ANNAOIS ISLAND.

ALSO THAT VERY DESIRABLE PROperty known as "Annaois Island." This island is situated about three-quarters of a mile below New Westminster City on the Fraser River. It contains 303 acres, a great part of which is prairie with a heavy growth of timber around the outer edge of the island, forming an excellent shelter and making it emluently adapted for a stock ranch. Some of the land has been cultivated, and it is upon this island that the beet sugar industry was established. This property will be found worthy the attention of capitalists, as in the hands of competent parties this island could be conveniently cut up into small farms of say 50 acres each, and would bring in a handsome return for the investment. And parties locating here would be within easy reach of the city, and have the advantages of a ready and constant market for all they could produce.

ALSO SEVERAL CHOICE LOTS 66 x 132 in Lot 19, Block XIII, New Westminster suburbs; and in Lot 9, Block X, New Westminster suburbs, facing on the Douglas Road. Terms, one-third cash, balance in three and six months, at 8 per cent. interest.

Public Notice

THE ATTENTION OF THE PUBLIC is hereby directed to the "Provincial Health (small-pox) By-Laws, 1888," issued by His Honour the Lieutenant-Governor in Council, under authority of the "Health Ordinance, 1869."

Having been appointed Provincial Health Officer for Districts lying south of Fraser River, I hereby give notice that the provisions of said By-Laws will be strictly enforced, and all persons are required to govern themselves accordingly.

R. I. BENTLEY, M. B., Provincial Health Officer.
New West., Oct. 6, 1888. doc8ml

BY-LAWS ISSUED BY HIS HONOUR THE LIEUTENANT-GOVERNOR-IN COUNCIL,

UNDER THE AUTHORITY OF THE "HEALTH ORDINANCE, 1869."

HIS HONOUR THE LIEUTENANT-Governor of British Columbia, by and with the advice of the Executive Council of British Columbia, acting under and by virtue of the provisions of the "Health Ordinance, 1869," enacts as follows:—

1. Whenever small-pox is present in any locality without the boundaries of any Municipality, the Provincial Health Officer nearest to such locality shall at once cause the patient to be removed to an isolated hospital, tent or other suitable place, or cause such person to be otherwise sufficiently isolated, and shall see that he is properly cared for, and shall take proper measures for the disinfection, or, if necessary, the destruction of all clothing which may have been exposed to the contagion, and for the disinfection and purification of every conveyance, rail-car, steamboat, railway, vessel, carriage, or other vehicle which may have been exposed to the contagion.

2. Such Health Officer shall have, in his discretion, full power to place in another building or tent all persons who may have been exposed to the contagion, and shall cause them to be supplied with all necessaries until the period of incubation of the disease shall have elapsed, and no such person shall go, or be permitted to go, abroad, until he or she has given satisfactory proof of successful vaccination within the preceding seven years, or shall have obtained a medical certificate of insusceptibility to the specific disease, nor until the clothing or effects worn or carried by or with him or her have been properly disinfected, if the same have been exposed to contagion.

3. To assist the Health Officer, he shall have full power to employ persons to be nurses, sanitary policemen, and other wise to aid in the prevention of the spread of the disease, and may himself give and enforce such reasonable directions for the same purpose as to him may seem expedient, and the nearest Government Agent shall see that all articles and necessaries required by the Health Officer are furnished.

4. It shall be the duty of every medical practitioner who shall attend upon, or give medical or surgical advice, to or about any person suffering from small-pox, to give notice forthwith after he shall have commenced so to attend or give such advice, to the nearest Provincial Health Officer. When a householder knows that a person within the house occupied by him is taken sick of small-pox, he shall immediately give notice thereof to the nearest Provincial Health Officer.

5. The Provincial Health Officer before mentioned is and includes any person appointed Health Officer under the "Health Ordinance, 1869," by the Lieutenant-Governor in Council.

6. The foregoing provisions shall have no effect within the limits of any Municipality, save as hereinafter mentioned.

7. In case the Council of any Municipality, whenever small-pox is present, or likely to occur therein, shall fail to make or carry out proper provisions to prevent the invasion or spread of small-pox within the Municipality, and complaint thereof shall be made to the Lieutenant-Governor by the Council of any adjacent Municipality, it shall be lawful for the Lieutenant-Governor in Council, acting upon such complaint or in his discretion upon other information, to order that these regulations shall, until otherwise ordered, apply to and be in force within the Municipality in which such neglect occurs, and thereupon any Provincial Health Officer shall have, within and in respect of such Municipality all the authority with which he is clothed in respect of localities without Municipalities, and in such case all disbursements and expenses paid by the Province, in the carrying out within such Municipality of the foregoing regulations, shall be paid by such Municipality.

8. These regulations may be cited as the "Provincial Health (small-pox) By-Laws, 1888."

Dated at Victoria, this 3rd day of October, 1888.

JNO. ROBSON, Provincial Secretary.

COMFORT ONE ANOTHER.

Comfort one another:
The way is growing dreary,
The feet go often weary,
And the heart is very sad.
There is heavy burden-bearing,
Where it seems that none are caring
And we half forget that ever we were glad.

Comfort one another:
With the hand-clasp close and tender,
With the sweetness love can render,
And looks of friendly eyes.
Do not wait with grace unspoken,
While life's daily bread is broken;
Gentle speech is oft like manna from the skies.

Comfort one another:
There are words of music ringing
Down the ages, sweet as singing
Of the happy choirs above.
Seasoned notes and mighty angel
[illegible] they are pealing the eternal
[illegible] love.

Comfort one another:
By the story of [illegible] as it
[illegible] to comfort us,
Paying with his precious blood,
By the faith that will not alter,
Trusting strength that will not falter,
Leaning on the One Divinely good.

Comfort one another:
Let the grave gloom lie beyond you
While the Spirit's words remind you
Of the home beyond the tomb;
Where no more is pain or parting,
Fever's flush to tear-drop starting,
But the presence of the Lord, and for all his people room. —Independent.

"TOO THIN."

The Expression Not Necessarily Slangy—Good Authority for Its Use.

Though the phrase "too thin" as ordinarily used by school boys and others, may now be styled vulgar, the words may be used in a perfectly orthodox manner.

"Thin" is equivalent to "transparent," easily seen through, and as a metaphor, seems to involve the idea of a veil (such as the ancients call rentus textilis, or woven wind, which served to display as much as to conceal the person.

It is in this sense evidently that Shakespeare used the words in "King Henry VIII," act V., s. 2, where the king says:

"You were ever good at sudden commendations,
Bishop Winchester. But know I come not
To hear such flattery now, and in my presence
They are too thin and bare to hide offenses."

That is "your commendations are too transparent to hide your offenses."

Another instance of the use of the words may be found in Smollett's novel of "Peregrine Pickle," published in 1751

When the hero suddenly informs his lady-love, Amelia, that he is going abroad, the tears gushed into her eyes, and she was at great pains to conceal the cause of her grief by observing that the tea was so scalding hot as to make her eyes water.

"This pretext," says Smollet, "was too thin to impose on her lover, or to deceive the observation of her friend Sophy"

There is nothing vulgar in saying that a pretext is "too thin," and this is what is meant by the modern elliptical phrase.

GOOD MANNERS.

Some Golden Rules Worth Memorizing.

Never try to outshine, but to please.

Never press a favor where it seems undesired.

Never intrude ill-health, pains, losses or misfortunes.

Never unavoidably wound the feelings of a human being.

Never talk or laugh aloud in public places or upon the street.

Never forget that vulgarity has its origin in ignorance or selfishness.

Never urge another to do anything against his desire unless you see danger before him.

Do not ask another to do what you would not be glad to do under similar circumstances.

Never omit to perform a kind act when it can be done with any reasonable amount of exertion.

Never needlessly wound the vanity of another or dilate unnecessarily upon disagreeable subjects.

Do not make witticism at the expense of others which you would not wish to have made upon yourselves.

Remember that good manners are thoughts filled with kindness and refinement and then translated into behaviour.

Be not ostentatious in dress or deportment; nothing can be more vulgar. See that costumes fit the time and occasion.

Be rude to none; rudeness harms not only the humblest and poorest, to whom it is directed, but it injures the exhibitor.

Never treat superiors with servility or inferiors with arrogance. Speak as kindly to a day laborer as to one occupying a high position.

Always give precedence to elders, visitors and superiors. Offer them the best seat at the table, the best place by the fire and the first of everything. Go farther than mere form and see that they are comfortable and happy.

SINGULAR CURE OF RHEUMATISM.

A New Use for the Mexican Hairless Dog.

Dr. Price, of Oconee county, Georgia, suffered for years the pangs of rheumatism, vainly trying all remedies.

Six years ago one of his sons in Texas heard that a hairless Mexican dog, if allowed to sleep at the feet of the sufferer from rheumatism, was a sure cure.

He procured a dog and took it home to his father. The old gentlemen laughed at the idea of such a cure, but to please his son tried the dog.

The account says that as the doctor lay down in bed the dog sprang in and coiled itself around his feet. In less than an hour the dog gave him evident relief, and in a short time effected a cure.

Wherever the pain struck him he made the dog lie against the place, and the heat from the animal's body drew it out like a mustard plaster.

Every night for six years the Doctor has slept with his hairless bedfellow, who now begins to show the effects of age, and Dr. Price says that after its death, if the rheumatic pains return, he will at once send off for another Mexican dog.

What Took to the Discovery.

"Talking about swindlers," said old Dennis Bikkard, "about two years ago a book peddler came along, and as we had no Bible in the house I bought one with a pretty red cover and 'Holy Bible' in gilt letters on the back and clasps on to it, and I'm pledged if we didn't discover last week that the book was a volume of census reports with a bogus back.

"Maybe we'd never found out we'd been cheated if my wife's sister, who had come to visit us, hadn't gone rummaging through the book looking for a receipt for mince pies, which Amanda said she had mislaid somewhere."—Troy Times.

Conscience Makes Cowards of Us All.

"Have you no conscience?" exclaimed a judge to a prisoner who had been arrested for cruelly beating his wife.

"Humbug, your worship," said the prisoner; "if I have, it has made a coward of me anyway."—[National Weekly.

Constipation

is a universal and most troublesome disorder. It causes Headache, Mental Depression, impairs the Sight and Hearing, destroys the Appetite, and, when long continued, causes Enlargement of the Liver, Inflammation of the Bowels, and Piles. Constipation is speedily cured by Ayer's Pills.

For a number of months I was troubled with Costiveness, in consequence of which I suffered from Loss of Appetite, Dyspepsia, and a disordered liver. My eyes also troubled me. I was compelled to wear a shade over them, and, at times, was unable to bear exposure to the light. I was entirely three boxes of Ayer's Pills. I have no hesitation in pronouncing this medicine to be the best cathartic ever made.—James Eccles, Poland, Ohio.

I suffered from Constipation, and, consequently, from Headache, Indigestion, and Piles, for years. Ayer's Pills, which I took at the suggestion of a friend, have given me effectual relief. I commenced taking this remedy two months ago, and am now free from Constipation, the removal of which has caused my other troubles to disappear, and greatly improved my general health.—W. Keeler, Amherst, Mass.

I suffered from Constipation, which assumed such an obstinate form that I feared a stoppage of the bowels. Two boxes of Ayer's Pills cured me, completely.—D. Burke, Saco, Me. ††

PROVINCIAL

Government Lands

—ON—

NORTH ARM OF FRASER RIVER, AND ADJACENT LANDS, NEW WESTMINSTER DISTRICT.

TUESDAY, 23rd OCTOBER

AT 11 O'CLOCK, A. M.

I have been instructed by the Chief Commissioner of Lands and Works to sell by Auction

AT VANCOUVER, B. C.

Several parcels of fine agricultural lands, situate on or near the North Arm of Fraser River, being sub-divisions of Lots 325, 326, 329, 330, 331, 332 to 339, 149, 150, 156, 175, 168, 155, 162, 163. The subdivisions of these Lots contain from 27 to 172 acres each; the location of these lots is shown on the present maps of the District.

The farms in the immediate vicinity of these Lots are considered the finest agricultural properties in British Columbia. Some of the lots front on the North Arm, and others are in the immediate vicinity of the same.

Steamers run daily from New Westminster and Vancouver, past these valuable properties.

ALSO,

Lots 668 to 670, and Lots 755 to 756.

All situate between the North Arm of Fraser River and Vancouver City. The North Arm Road from Vancouver runs through these Lots, and there are other roads laid out that will give access to each of them. This property commences about 2½ miles south of Vancouver City and is bounded on the west by the C. P. Railway Land Grant, and is surveyed into lots containing from 5 to 35 acres each, maps of which will shortly be ready for distribution.

All the lands to be sold are well adapted for agricultural, dairy or orchard purposes, and on account of their close proximity to the markets of Vancouver and New Westminster cities, will be desirable properties for families seeking a home or for investment.

The C. P. Railway are now constructing a fine wagon road from Vancouver to the North Arm of Fraser River and Lulu Island. They are also surveying a line of railway through these properties with a view of connecting with the United States system of railways at Seattle.

These lands may fairly be considered as the most valuable ever offered for sale by auction in British Columbia.

The str. Western Slope left for Nanaimo this morning with a number of passengers and a fair freight.

The str. Gladys returned from Chilliwhack this afternoon with a number of passengers and a full load of farm produce.

Rand Bros. are calling for tenders for the construction of a sluice and dam across Beaver creek, opposite Warnock station.

The str. Rithet cleared for Victoria this morning with 20 passengers, 40 tons of merchandise and a large consignment of cattle.

Don't forget the young people's social this evening in connection with the Baptist Sunday school. The entertainment commences at 8 o'clock, sharp. ON HAND.

The next meeting of the New Westminster Teachers' Institute will be held on Thursday and Friday, Jan. 3rd and 4th. A public meeting will be held on Friday evening.

The Juvenile Opera Co., last night, in the "Chimes of Normandy," played to a large audience in Herring's Opera House. The parts were all well taken, and the entertainment was appreciated by those present.

The Fleming cup will be shot for on Saturday afternoon on the Brownsville range. Ranges, 300 and 600 yards, 7 shots at each range. None but active members of the militia can take part in this competition.

Another half million salmon ova were placed in the hatchery this week. Fish are reported to be very plentiful in Harrison river, but the water being higher than usual this fall makes the fish trapping more tedious.

We were shown some fine watermelons the other day in Mr. C. J. Robson's store. The melons came from Mr. Jno. Murray's farm, Spence's Bridge, the largest weighing 28 lbs. and measuring 40 inches in circumference.

"For years I suffered from loss of appetite and indigestion, but failed to find relief until I began taking Ayer's Sarsaparilla. This medicine entirely cured me. My appetite and digestion are now perfect."—Fred. G. Bower, 496 Seventh st., South Boston, Mass.

To-day's Colonist has an Ottawa despatch from its own correspondent which states: "It is understood the militia department is considering the advisability of moving "C" Battery from Victoria to Vancouver." The Colonist urges Victoria to protest at once and in unmistakable terms.

In another column will be found Mr. Wm. Johnston's advertisement announcing the opening of his new boot and shoe store. The stock has been made expressly for him by the Ames Holden Boot and Shoe Co., of Montreal, for which he has paid in cash and is therefore able to sell at a reasonable profit. Mr. Johnston says a call at his store will satisfy all that he is in a position to make good his promises.

Jack and Tom, a couple of Westminster boys, were bitten with the "show" mania, and determined to hold an exhibition of live stock, said live stock consisting of the pictures of horses, etc., cut from illustrated papers. A junior, Bill, was spectator. Shortly there was a row—each owner claimed the prize for his own stock; so Jack appealed to mamma. "You must have a judge; the owner can't judge his own horses." "All right," said Jack, as a smile curled up the corner of his mouth, "I'll say that mine belong to Bill, and then I can be judge." That boy will surely develop into a politician.

General Sir Frederick Middleton, K. C. M. G., and Lady Middleton left on the east-bound train to-day. They will be joined at Calgary by Capt. H. E. Wise, aide-de-camp to General Middleton, he having preceded them as far as that point. The General and Lady Middleton, before leaving, both expressed the deep impression their brief visit to Vancouver and other parts of the coast had made upon them. Just as the train was about to leave the depot Lady Middleton was presented with a beautiful bouquet of flowers on the part of Mayor Oppenheimer, who, with a large number of other prominent citizens, was present to see our distinguished visitors safely off.—Vancouver World

W. C. T. U. Convention.

The fifth annual convenion of the provincial W.C.T.U. of British Columbia held its opening session in Temperance Hall, Victoria, Monday morning, a large number of those interested being present. Morning, afternoon, and evening sessions were held. The convention was continued yesterday, when interesting sessions were also held and various important topics discussed.

Fine Fruit.

We have received from Mr. James Grimmer a fine sample of fruit—apples and pears—grown in his garden in this city. Two of the apples, Greenings, measure about 12 inches in circumference and weigh over a pound each; some others are nearly as large. One pear measures 11 inches around. In quality, as in size, the fruit needs a closer acquaintauce to be properly appreciated.

The Islander.

Letters received from Glasgow by private parties here state that the steamship Islander will open the eyes of the people on the Pacific coast. They describe the vessel as a very handsome one, and luxuriously fitted in every respect. Officers and crew of the Islander will be clothed in uniforms, those for the former being the best that can be procured from one of the fashionable tailors of London.—Colonist.

Sir John Macdonald's Bust.

Now, we don't wish to convey the impression by this heading that the veteran and genial premier has been on another "tear," but merely to announce that the Toronto weekly Empire, an excellent paper, by the way, has made arrangements to furnish every subscriber with a handsome clay bust of the Conservative chief. The bust is well executed and is said to be a faithful representation of Sir John. It will be just the thing for a mantel ornament. The price of the Empire for one year, with the bust, is one dollar.

Evangelist Moody Coming.

This world-renowned evangelist is on his way to Victoria. Dr. Reid has received a telegram stating that Mr. Moody may be looked for in Victoria on Thursday evening and is expected to conduct a number of special services, of which due notice will be given to the public when settled plans are made out. Mr. Moody will remain over Sunday in Victoria. As it is understood that the renowned evangelist will remain in Oregon, Washington Territory, and British Columbia about two months, it is quite likely that we may have the pleasure of hearing him in this city.

A Painful Accident.

Yesterday afternoon while the baggage of the Juvenile Opera troupe was being taken into Herring's Opera House a number of boys congregated round the door. A number of them climbed up on the gate which suddenly fell, knocking down Ernie, the 8-year-old son of Mr. James French. The gate was instantly removed and the injured boy tenderly carried home by his youthful comrades. Dr. Cooper was summoned and found on examination that the thigh was broken. The fracture was set and the doctor thinks Ernie will be able to move around again in the course of a month or five weeks.

A Strange Fatality.

The statement in yesterday's paper to the effect that one of the original owners of the Cariboo Fly was killed by the blowing up of the boiler on one of her first trips, was only partially correct. Both her owners, the Jamieson brothers, were killed by that accident. The body of one was found, but the other was never seen. The accident occurred just at the entrance to this harbor. A strange fatality seems to have followed the family to which the two men referred to belonged. There are said to have been five brothers in the family, all engineers, and all five came to their end in much the same way. Two, as stated, met their death in Victoria, one was killed by the explosion of a boiler at Yale, and the others were killed on the Columbia River.—Times

Registration Statistics.

We received the following interesting statistics from R. W. Armstrong, deputy registrar, of this city, some time ago, but owing to pressure on our space have been unable to publish them before: For the six months ending 31st of last December, there were registered in the New Westminster land registry office 544 instruments of absolute conveyances, averaging 90.6 per month; mortgages, leases, etc., 297, average, per month, 49.3; bills of sale and chattel mortgages, 98, average, 16.5; mechanics' liens, 17, average, 3 per month. The total revenue for the period named amounted to $4,582.80, equal to $763.80 per month. For the first seven months of the present year the conveyances registered amounted to 815, or an average of 102 per month; the chattel mortgages and bills of sale, 141, average. 17.8 per month; the mechanics' liens, 15, being two per month. The fees for the seven months amounted to $6,454.51, equal to $806.82 per month. This is a very gratifying result, as indicating in the most unmistakable manner the vast strides the district is making in its onward march to greatness and fortune.

What Toronto's well-known Good Samaritan says: "I have been troubled with Dyspepsia and Liver Complaint for over 20 years, and have tried many remedies, but never found an article that has done me as much good as Northrop & Lyman's Vegetable Discovery and Dyspeptic Cure." CLARA E. PORTER.

Job printing of all kinds neatly done at the COLUMBIAN office. Prices will be found as low as at any other office in the province.—Adv.

Illecillewaet Notes.

Mr. F. Fooks returned from Illecillewaet yesterday, where he went for the purpose of inspecting the progress being made on the works in connection with the Illecillewaet Silver Mining Co. He reports that the work of following the main lead from the surface down has given splendid results, the ore being much richer than was anticipated. The lead widens as it goes down and gives promise of attaining very large dimensions. From the drift of the vein it is expected the tunnel, which is now 120 feet deep, will strike the lead at the end of another 50 feet. Operations have been discontinued for this season, but with the opening of spring work on the tunnel will be resumed.

Mr. Farwell, for the provincial government, has a large gang of men working on the wagon road up the north fork of the Illecillewaet river, from Albert canyon to the east fork of the river. This road will prove of immense benefit to the miners, as it will tap the trails leading to all the mines on the north fork. At present the miners are unable to ship their ores or get in provisions, except at a ruinous expense. The road will be completed in time for spring operations.

The Lanark mine has put on a gang of men to drive another tunnel to tap the ledge on the 400 foot level. The tunnel will be in the neighborhood of 400 feet in length and work will be kept up on it all winter.

Corbin, Kennedy & Woods will import a concentrator as soon as the north fork road is completed.

The majority of the mines are closing down for the winter, but many would have continued operations but for the want of a road.

Coroner's Inquest.

Following was the evidence adduced yesterday at the inquest on the body of Edwin Durant: Frank Bruneau, sworn, said: Am a farmer and knew deceased. I saw the body of deceased to-day and am satisfied it was the body of Edwin Durant. I last saw him alive on Saturday between 4 and 5 o'clock in the afternoon. Jones' house is situated about 5 miles below the mission. I visited the house as a neighbor. Deceased and Jones had some words about a kloochman kept by Jones. Durant went to Jones' and said to him "you have an old grudge against me about your kloochman, but I never had anything to do with her." Jones said "I'll kill you, you son of a b——. Durant then walked out of the front door and Jones again repeated the threat to him. The last expression was a common saying among us and I did not pay any attention to it. I went round to the back of the house to look at some cattle and while there heard a shot from the direction of the front of the house. I heard Durant cry "Frank come to me, for I'm dying." I went to the front of the house and saw Jones standing with a gun in his hand and Durant lying on the beach 20 feet away. I said to Jones "What have you done" and he answered "I have shot the bastard." I knew he meant Durant. I then went out on the railway track for assistance and saw Preston coming and told him Jones had shot Durant and all that had happened. We went to Jones' house and tied Jones up. We did the best we could to stop the flow of blood from Durant's leg.

Cross-examined by Mr. Moresby: While we were dressing his leg Durant said Jones had shot him. I was digging potatoes with deceased in the afternoon and he said "Let us go to Jones' house and get a drink of whisky." We went to the house; all I heard Durant say to Jones was "You accuse me wrongfully of having anything to do with Agnes." Jones replied "You are a lying son of a b——" and Durant slapped him on the face; no more blows were struck in my presence; I was out about half a minute when I heard the shot; there was only one shot fired; I did not leave the house by the same door as Durant; the gun that I saw in Jones' hand was a single barreled one, known as a Hudson's Bay musket. There was no one in the house at the time the shot was fired except an Indian woman named Sophie, who was in the bed-room. Jones had been drinking, but neither he or Durant were drunk; I heard Jones make threats against Durant previous to this occurrence and on several occasions he said "If I could kill the son of a b—, Eddie, I would be happy to die." We were only a few minutes in the house that afternoon. I did not think that Jones would carry out the threat he had made; I was not afraid he would kill me; I did not know of any previous quarrel between them; I had several drinks during the day and only one in Jones' house.

Dr. DeWolf Smith, sworn said:—I am a physician and surgeon, practicing in the city of Westminster. On Sunday morning last about 6 o'clock I was called to attend to a wounded man named Edwin Durant. I found he had a severe gun shot wound below the knee and took the necessary steps to save the man's life. I have no hesitation in saying the wound was the cause of Durant's death.

This closed the evidence for the night and the inquest was adjourned until 3 p. m. to-day, awaiting the arrival of witnesses from up-river.

At 3 o'clock, when Mr. Ferris reopened the inquest, the str. Gladys, by which the witnesses were expected, had not arrived, and the inquest was further adjourned.

The inquest was resumed at 4 o'clock but no further evidence was taken and the jury retired. At the end of 30 minutes the jury returned and rendered the following verdict:—

We, the jury appointed to inquire into the cause of the death of Edward Durant, find that the said Edward Durant came to his death by a gun shot wound received at the hands of W. H. Jones.

Interior Lumber Rates.

There are five saw mills between the summit of the Rocky mountains and Revelstroke, B. C., a distance of 150 miles. The mill men complain that they are unable to run their mills to advantage, owing to the excessive freight rates charged on the C. P. R. The rate is $125 per car to points east of Regina, which is about the same rate as is given the coast mills, though the haul in the latter case is much longer. West of Regina the country is not largely settled, and there is not much demand for lumber. In time as the western part of the territories get settled up, the mountain mill men will have a good market for their lumber closer to the mill, but in the meantime the timber is undergoing great destruction every year from forest fires. The railway company has lately made a reduction in rates from the mountain mills to Calgary, but this will not greatly improve the position of the mill men.—Winnipeg Commercial.

It is not generally known, says an exchange, that Canadians, especially those who live in Nova Scotia, have a particular interest in the fate of the Stanley expedition, since one of their number is amongst the party. The Digby Courier says that Stanley's second in command is "Lieut. W. E. Stairs, of the Royal Engineers, a son of the late John Stairs, of Halifax. Lieut. Stairs is about 26 years of age; he was educated at the military college at Kingston, Ont., and was selected for the position from over 250 applicants.
