Daily British Columbian

Thursday Evening, Sept. 27, 1888.

A special from London informs us that Goldwin Smith has a long letter in the Times in which he holds up as "A Warning to Belfast," the present state of affairs in Quebec. We have enough respect for Mr. Smith to wish that we could accept his letter as the result of ignorance, but that supposition cannot, of course, be entertained. If the telegraphic synopsis is correct, his argument is, simply:—"As Quebec is now, so would Ireland be under some rule, because the Roman Catholics are in the majority in both countries." Let us see how many things must be ignored in order to the acceptance of this argument. In the first place Irish history gives it a flat contradiction. It would be unsound to ignore racial differences in any event, but the fact which we have just quoted makes it preposterous in this case. Look again at the radical differences in the nature and circumstances of the Protestant minorities. Has that in Quebec ever had the weight and influence which that in Ireland has long enjoyed? In Quebec, too, "Catholic" and "French," "Protestant" and "English," respectively, are almost synonomous terms; but in Ireland all are Irish. Then, supposing Ireland a province of Britain, as Quebec is a province of Canada, think of the difference in the central governments. Notwithstanding the degeneration of recent years, it is still true, that there is much less politics and much more statesmanship in the old country; nor would the temptation to truckle to the provincial vote be nearly so strong as in the case of Quebec and the Dominion. But we do not care to dwell upon these points. Change the stage at which they would enter the argument has not yet been reached. Quebec has home rule and Ireland asks for home rule; but it no more follows that the systems would be identical, or so nearly so that whatever was possible under one would be possible under the other, than it follows that every fish is a salmon. Ireland make it their business to speak as if it was a thing granted that the acknowledged defects of the first draft of Mr. Gladstone's home rule bill must be perpetuated in any home rule measure which could be passed. The absolute unfairness of this contention has been pointed out over and over again. Every intelligent home-ruler will tell you that the work will only be entered upon when the principle is conceded. They know well that it would be folly to take any patented system of home rule and apply it to Ireland. All the circumstances of the special case must be considered—all threatened interests safeguarded. Therefore, since the system is not yet framed, it is the merest folly to forecast the results of its operation; and it is deplorable to find a man of Goldwin Smith's ability, whose colonial experience should have cleared his mind and enabled him to regard the whole question from the point of view of an unprejudiced outsider, joining in a mere tory yelp, which is made incessant in the hope that it may drown the voice of Ireland and stifle the conscience of England.

The establishment of new direct mail service between Canada and the West Indies, which was inaugurated about the middle of the present month, promises to be an important aid to Canadian progress and general prosperity. Already, says an exchange, there is very considerable interchange of Canadian commodities for those of the West Indies, and this indeed could not fail to take place, since Canada produces almost every article that the islands wish to import in any quantity, while we require much that they can produce. There could hardly be found a better instance of the advantages of a commercial interchange of commodities, the two communities not being competitors, each being able to supplement what is wanting in the other.

Under the name of John Kenwood there has just died in the penitentiary at Nashville, Tenn., while serving three years for robbery, a man who is credibly stated to have been the younger son of an English nobleman and brother-in-law of a high Canadian official, who throughout his trial spent money like water in the endeavor to save him from punishment. His real name is only known to the governor and will not be divulged.

A lady writes: "I was enabled to remove the corns, root and branch, by the use of Holloway's Corn Cure." Others who have tried it have the same experience.

LAST NIGHT'S DESPATCHES.

NEGROES RAMPANT.

ST. LOUIS, Sept. 26.—The negro Harrison-Morton clubs of St. Louis East, St. Louis and Brooklyn, Illinois, gave a parade here last night which resulted in a serious riot. A mail wagon got mixed up in the procession and the negroes beat the driver badly. A squad of officers arrested the ringleaders and while Officer Hanlon was conducting Johnson Powell, a negro, to jail he was set upon by a mob of negroes and was forced to use his revolver. Powell was shot in the back and fatally wounded. The negroes threatened to lynch the officer and it was found necessary to call out a big force to quell the disturbance.

OTTAWA NOTES.

OTTAWA, Sept. 26.—Hon. Edgar Dewdney was sworn in as minister of the interior yesterday.

Hon. John Costigan, minister of inland revenue, has abandoned his proposed trip to British Columbia.

A shocking fatality occurred at the exhibition here to-day. W. Insley, a young butcher, was assisting some others in holding down a balloon before its ascension, and not releasing his hold he was carried up 1,000 feet and fell on a field outside of the grounds. He was of course smashed to atoms. The aeronaut descended safely in a parachute.

TO-DAY'S DESPATCHES.

EXCITEMENT IN WHEAT.

CHICAGO, Sept. 27.—From the moment the wheat market opened, at half past nine this morning to the noon hour when it closed, the wheat pit was the scene of the greatest bustle and excitement that perhaps ever existed there. September wheat opened at 104, the figure it closed at yesterday. A few sales were made at this price, and then it advanced two cents. In another half hour it had reached 110. Transactions now became larger, the "longs" commenced to unload and the "shorts" looked uneasy. October wheat also went booming, but not on quite as large a scale. 112 was bid 14, 15, 16 cents, it ran up to, and the "shorts" squirmed and looked blue and bluer. The "longs" bobbed around from place to place all eager to sell and were as eargerly taken up. On went the advance until finally when 12 o'clock was at hand the last sale was made at 125, amid tremendous excitement, the market having closed 2 cents over yesterday. October closed at 100½, an advance of 2⅝ cents.

ROUGH ON RATS.

NEW YORK, Sept. 27.—Ephraim S. Wells, of Jersey City, manufacturer of proprietary medicines, and owner of "Rough on Rats," has failed; liabilities, $50,000.

A TOUCH OF THE SHAKES.

ALBANY, N. Y., Sept. 27.—A slight shock of earthquake was felt here last evening. Mirrors were tilted, pictures shaken and crockery rattled.

U. S. JUDGE ILL.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 27.—Justice Matthews, of the U. S. supreme court, is still very ill. No callers are allowed to see him.

PROVISIONS SHORT.

JACKSONVILLE, Sept. 27.—There was a light frost at Decatur this morning. Owing to the scarcity of provisions there is much suffering here.

HURRICANE AND WRECKAGE.

PROVINCETOWN, Mass., Sept. 27.—A hurricane is causing considerable damage here, the wind blowing sixty miles an hour. A large fleet of vessels put into port for safety. A three-masted vessel is on Peaked Hill bar is rapidly breaking up, and two others display signals of distress. It is impossible to send relief, owing to the terrific sea.

SERENE ON THE RIO GRANDE.

AUSTIN, Texas, Sept. 27.—Governor Ross, who has returned from San Antonio, reports that all is quiet at Rio Grande city. He has ordered the sheriff's posses back home. United States troops remain on the scene.

WHEAT MARKET.

NEW YORK, Sept. 27.—Cash 101⅞; Oct. 102; Nov. 103¼; Dec. 104⅞; May 108.

CHICAGO, Sept. 27.—Cash 125 and Sept.; 101¼ Oct.; 99¼, Dec.

LIVERPOOL, Sept. 27.—Wheat dull; Cals. 7 shillings, 9½d.

PRAISEWORTHY DEVOTION.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 27.—Dr. Wm. Martin, surgeon of the marine recruiting corps, for some time past stationed at this port, has at his own request been ordered by the secretary of the navy to Florida, where he will devote himself to treating yellow fever patients. He left last night for New Orleans, and thence goes to Jacksonville, Florida. Dr. Martin is possessed of special skill and learning in treatment of the dread disease, having achieved a national reputation in 1878 from his successful handling of the scourge in New Orleans.

Two Chinese lepers were discovered here last night.

NO EFFECT ON THE BAY CITY.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 27.—The remarkable advance in the Chicago wheat market this morning created no little excitement among local manipulators, but, it being merely a home affair, had no effect on the San Francisco market.

NATIVES FIGHTING IN NEW ZEALAND.

AUCKLAND, New Zealand, Sept. 27.—Advices received from Samoa state that partisans of the deposed King Malitoea had an engagement with the army of King Tamasese, and totally defeated it. King Tamasese's army was commanded by a German officer named Brandeis.

SMALL-POX.

BLAINE, W.T., Sept. 27.—Six cases small-pox reported from sec. 7, British Columbia. The citizens of Blaine called a meeting to take measures to prevent its spreading.

WHITECHAPEL MURDER DISCUSSION.

LONDON, Sept. 27.—In reference to statements made yesterday by the coroner at the inquest of the last Whitechapel murder to the effect that the sub-curator of the pathological museum was approached by an American who wanted to buy specimens of uterus at £20 apiece, medical men generally are of the opinion that some medical student has been playing a hoax on the coroner. Physicians say it is easy to buy specimens of uterus for $5 in the United States, after inquests on bodies of paupers, and regarded it very unlikely that an American would come to England to purchase what they can easily procure in the United States.

FORGERY!

NEW YORK, Sept. 27.—The discovery was made to-day that the Produce Exchange Gratuity Fund was robbed by means of a bogus mortgage. The mortgage purports to have been made by a woman in Orange Co., N. Y. All the usual marks and seals are on the document, but all are forged. Nothing has been unearthed thus far to show that any other mortgages were forged. The fund will not be impaired by the forgery already discovered.

F. FOSTER MISSING.

NEW YORK, Sept. 27.—Wm. F. Foster, jr., counsel to the Produce Exchange Gratuity Fund, is missing, with $168,000 belonging to the fund. He did not appear at his desk to-day. The investigation of his accounts brought the story to light.

MINERS STRIKE.

LONDON, Sept. 27.—A conference at Manchester this morning at which 250,000 miners were represented it was decided to strike on Oct. 29 unless the demand for a general advance of 10 per cent. in wages was acceded to.

MONEY ORDER CONVENTION.

LONDON, Sept. 27.—The postmaster-general has authorized the exchange of postal revenues in order to negotiate the establishment of a money order convention for direct exchange of international money orders between Canada and Japan.

HINT TO FRANCE.

BERLIN, Sept. 27.—The North German Gazette and other papers publish semi-official hints to France to hasten the conclusion of inquiry into the shooting of the porter at the German embassy at Paris.

Late Canadian News.

QUEBEC, Sept. 21.—Four more families, fleeing from starvation in Labrador, have been brought up here by a schooner. They tell very pitiful stories of the straits to which they were reduced. One father of a family of seven children stated that he had been obliged to abandon his house which cost him $400 and all his furniture, as he could not find a local purchaser for them, though he offered to sell the house for $15 and the furniture for $1.

Hon. Edward Blake was in town yesterday on his way home from Murray Bay. The hon. gentleman looks remarkably well.

TORONTO, Sept. 21.—This year's exhibition, which closed to-day, has been the most successful of any yet held. The receipts were over $69,000, an increase of $7,500 over those of last year.

MONTREAL, Sept. 21.—The air was full of rumors to-day touching the financial position of two of the largest wholesale oil and varnish houses in the city, Brodie, Jamieson & Co., and John Jamieson & Co. During the afternoon the former suspended payment. Liabilities $40,000. It is expected the latter will follow suit.

MONTREAL, Sept. 22.—The choir of Christ church cathedral resigned in a body last night in consequence of a misunderstanding with the rector, who, they say, is continually encroaching upon their rights.

OTTAWA, Sept. 22.—The railway committee of the privy council met on October 2 to consider, amongst other matters, the application of the Red River road to cross with its Portage la Prairie branch on a level with the Manitoba southwestern railway and the Pembina branch of the Canadian Pacific.

KINGSTON, Sept. 22.—L. N. Vrooman, of Michigan, has leased the iron mine on the farm of Leonard Wager, near Tamworth, and commenced extensive operations. The ore is said to be equal to any found in Ontario, and of the quality required for Bessimer steel.

KINGSTON, Sept. 22.—Willie Shanahan, of Kingston, aged six years, found a revolver in a writing desk behind the bar in his father's hotel. He took it and pointed it at one Foley, who said, "Don't do that, I am afraid of a revolver." Willie did not change the direction of the weapon and remarked, "It is not loaded and won't go off." The boy snapped the trigger and the bullet skimmed Foley's head and entered the cheek of Joseph Reid, switchman, directly under the right eye. Dr. Sullivan probed for the bullet and found it close to the bone, which was fractured.

Children Cry for Pitcher's Castoria

Daily British Columbian

Thursday Evening, Sept. 27, 1888.

Elsewhere will be found an announcement that six cases of small-pox have been discovered in Surrey, in the vicinity of Hall's Prairie. It is stated that word reached this city privately on Monday that two cases of small-pox had developed, and the number is now said to be six. However, nothing certain is yet known, and various rumors are flying around, one account having it that the disease is cow-pox, which, it is said, some settlers in the supposed infected district are known to have had. By a despatch from Blaine, it will be seen that the people of that town (which is in close proximity to Hall's Prairie) are taking steps to guard against an epidemic of the dread small-pox. The Surrey council are moving in the matter, we believe, and it will be well for the various municipalities in the district to take at least preliminary steps in the same direction. By a notice to the public in another column it will be seen that our city council and board of health are losing no time in providing for the health and safety of the citizens, in the event of a serious epidemic transpiring. As stated in an item in another column, Mr. Bole, member for the city, has gone over to Vancouver to day, where he will interview the provincial secretary on the question. A special meeting of the city council will be held to-morrow evening to take further steps, if necessary. In the meantime definite and trustworthy information will be obtained from the scene of the reported infection, as medical men from this city are already on the ground. We are confident that every precaution will be taken by both the provincial and various municipal authorities, and the people generally cannot do less than lend a cheerful and ready co-operation. A smallpox scourge, though, however well managed, is no light affliction, and we trust that an investigation may disclose that the disease is something less serious.

The annual report of the department of fisheries of the Dominion of Canada for the year 1887 is to hand, and contains much valuable and interesting information, tabulated and otherwise. Of paramount interest to our readers, however, will be the included report of Mr. Thomas Mowat, inspector of fisheries for British Columbia, to the minister of marine and fisheries, Ottawa. This report covers, besides Mr. Mowat's own official report to the department (comprising correspondence with Prof. G. Brown Goode, of the Smithsonian Institution, Washington, D.C., and James G. Swan, Esq., Assistant U.S. Commissioner), sub-reports, addressed to the inspector of fisheries, from Mr. John McNab, fishery guardian on the Skeena and Naas Rivers; Mr. W. H. Lomas, guardian on the Cowichan and tributaries; Mr. Chas. F. Green, guardian on the Fraser River; Mr. John Buie, ditto, and numerous comprehensive and interesting tables. The various heads of subjects treated in the entire report (and in the following order) are: Salmon, sturgeon, smelts, oolachans, trout, whitefish, shad, deep sea fishing, cod, halibut, skil (black cod), toosuqua (cultus cod), rock fish or rock cod, herring, sardines, dogfish, whales, marine furs, lobsters, crabs, shrimps and prawns, oysters, clams, fish-ways, fish-culture, protection and immigration. The foregoing catalogue of sub-heads will give some idea of the extent, variety and general importance of the piscatorial resources of the province.

We shall endeavor to give as comprehensive a summary as our space will permit, embracing the more important subjects. The returns show 16 fishing establishments on the Fraser River, including two freezing concerns, the remainder, with the exception of 2 dealing principally in fresh, salt and smoked salmon, being canning establishments. All of the canneries, though, do besides an extensive fresh fish business, and nearly all of the establishments put up considerable quantities of sturgeon, fresh, smoked, and dried, while trout, herrings, and other fish are utilized by a few. On the Skeena River are 5 canning and fresh fish establishments. River's Inlet has 5 also, 3 of which deal in fresh and salt salmon, and the remaining 2 in fresh and canned. On Naas River are 2 concerns, operating in fresh and salted salmon, 1 dealing also in fresh and smoked herrings. Alert Bay has 4 establishments in all, 1 putting up canned, fresh, and salt salmon, another salt and fresh salmon, the remaining 2 operating in fish oil, to which one adds halibut and assorted fish. At Kitloupe River and Smith's Inlet is an establishment each, dealing principally in salt and fresh salmon. Victoria is credited with 7 fishing concerns operating in salmon, salt, fresh, and smoked, and in sturgeon, halibut, herrings, fresh and smoked, assorted fish (note—assorted fish consists of codfish, toosuqua, rockfish, soles, flounders, skate, smelts, whiting, shad, perch, and skil), trout, oolachans, fresh, salted, and smoked, and fish oils. Vancouver has three establishments, dealing, variously, in the same fish products as cited above for Victoria. In addition to all the foregoing, must be mentioned fish sold by hawkers at various places, oil and other products bought from Indians, and marine fur fisheries of the province. The principal markets are: For canned salmon, United Kingdom, Australia, U.S., Eastern Canada, and local; in barrels, U.K., Aus., Honolulu, and East. Can.; in ice and frozen, U.S. and Can.; for refined oils, U.S. and Can.; crude, home; furs, U.K., U.S., and Canada.

The returns for all classes of fishing in the province show an increased value, inclusive of Indian consumption, over last year, as follows: Total value 1886, $1,577,348; 1887, $1,974,887; increase for 1887, $397,539. At the same time there was a decrease for 1887 in the amount of capital invested and the number of men employed, owing chiefly, Mr. Mowat states, to the destruction of an oil factory by fire and the non-operation of several canneries on the northern coast. The amount of capital invested last year was $767,455; men employed, 6,154, being a decrease from 1886 of $104,990 and 57 men. The catch of salmon was much better in 1887 than the previous year, contrary, says the report, to the expectations of those engaged in the business, and, coupled with the high prices which ruled, making the season one of the most profitable which canners have ever enjoyed in the province. The high prices are attributed to a falling off in the American Pacific coast catch for that year. The total salmon catch by the white population for the year was 16,209,762; total number of cases canned salmon, 204,083, of which the 12 Fraser River canneries packed 128,806, and 8 coast canneries, 75,277. Referring to the red and white spring salmon, Mr. Mowat maintains that the theory that they are two distinct varieties is erroneous, and in support of his opinion quotes correspondence between himself and Prof. G. Brown Goode, of the Smithsonian Institution, Washington. Mr. Mowat's endeavors to establish the commercial value of the white salmon (which, save in the matter of color, is fully equal, and by some considered superior to the red variety) are highly commendable, and we trust that he may be successful. The shipments of fresh and frozen salmon, says the report, show an increase for 1887 of 650,000 pounds. The fish were put up in prime condition and shipped to the United States and Eastern Canada by the C.P.R. Shippers, however, complain that the freight and express charges are so high that they cannot compete successfully with Columbia River and eastern salmon. We shall further review this interesting report, as well as the report on the salmon hatchery, in a future issue.

A Sluggish Liver
Causes the Stomach and Bowels to become disordered, and the whole system to suffer from debility. In all such cases Ayer's Pills give prompt relief.
After much suffering from Liver and Stomach troubles, I have finally been cured by taking Ayer's Cathartic Pills. I always find them prompt and thorough in their action, and their occasional use keeps me in a perfectly healthy condition.—Ralph Weeman, Annapolis, Md.
Twenty-five years ago I suffered from a torpid liver, which was restored to healthy action by taking Ayer's Pills. Since that time I have never been without them. They regulate the bowels, assist digestion, and increase the appetite, more surely than any other medicine.—Paul Churchill, Haverhill, Mass.
INVIGORATED.
I know of no remedy equal to Ayer's Pills for Stomach and Liver disorders. I suffered from a Torpid Liver, and Dyspepsia, for eighteen months. My skin was yellow, and my tongue coated. I had no appetite, suffered from Headache, was pale and emaciated. A few boxes of Ayer's Pills, taken in moderate doses, restored me to perfect health.—Waldo Miles, Oberlin, Ohio.
Ayer's Pills are a superior family medicine. They strengthen and invigorate the digestive organs, create an appetite, and remove the horrible depression and despondency resulting from Liver Complaint. I have used these Pills in my family, for years, and they never fail to give entire satisfaction.—Otto Montgomery, Oshkosh, Wis. ††

THE LOGIC OF EVENTS.

"Well, well," said Mrs. Catson, putting aside a newspaper and turning to her husband, "a pair of earrings caused the Burmese war. I never heard of anything so strange."

"Oh," said Mr. Catson, "I have heard of stranger things."

"Nonsense."

"Well, I have, and I'll give you an example. One night, in Boston, a young man, meeting an acquaintance, said, 'Come, let's have a drink.' I was never in Boston, but that remark brought about our marriage."

"Why, George," exclaimed Mrs. Catson, "you are foolish. Neither of us were ever in Boston. You must be losing your mind."

"Tell you what I'll do—I'll promise to get you a new cloak, didn't I?"

"Yes."

"Well, now I'll bet you the cloak that I can prove my assertion."

"All right."

"If I succeed you don't get the cloak."

"I understand."

"Well, one night in Boston, about ten years ago, a young man, meeting a friend, asked him to come and have a drink. The friend, a drug clerk, did so. He took several drinks and got drunk. That settled it."

"Settled what?"

"The fact of our marriage."

"How can you be so foolish?"

"Never mind, I'll explain. The drug clerk got drunk and went to the store. Shortly afterward, a servant girl entered and handed him a prescription. In putting it up, he used morphine instead of quinine. The girl went away, and delivered the medicine to Mrs. Potter, who took it and died."

"Oh, what's the use of prolonging this foolishness?"

"Hold on. The death of that woman drew you and me closer together than we ever were before."

"We were not acquainted with each other ten years ago."

"That is very true, but still. Mr. Potter, the lady's husband, was almost crazed by grief. He could stay in Boston no longer, so he came down to Kentucky and after awhile went into business. Don't see any light yet, do you?"

"Oh, hush."

"Wait a minute. He had not been in business long until I met him. He took a fancy to me, and gave me employment. After I had been with him several years, he sent me to Arkansaw. I had been in this state but a short time until I met you.

"Summary: If the friend had not asked the drug clerk to drink on one certain occasion he would not have got drunk, if he hadn't been drunk he would not have made a mistake in filling the prescription, and had he not made a mistake, Mrs. Potter would not have been killed, and had she not died, Potter would not have left Boston, and had he not left that city I should not have met him, and had I not gone into business with him—"

"Oh, for goodness sake, hush. You are enough to drive anybody crazy."

She arose and left the room. Her husband mused:

"I'll make her another bet. I'll bet she doesn't get that cloak. I have always thought that the logic of events failed to meet with proper appreciation in this country."—[Arkansaw Traveler.

Mock Auction of Cigars.

The good old system of swindling by means of mock auction sales of cigars is still carried on successfully in New York.

The other day a well-known Southern man entered a little place where cigars were being sold by an auctioneer. There were apparently three or four men who were bidding briskly, and as the cigars seemed to be fine, the stranger competed for a choice box, which was knocked down to him for $5. Immediately afterward the sale was declared closed.

The Southerner stepped up to the counter, where apparent customers were receiving parcels, and asked for his box, at the same time tendering a $5 bill.

"You owe $60," said the cashier severely.

"For what?"

"These cigars are sold in lots, not by the box."

"But I distinctly bid for one box."

"You are mistaken."

"We all bid for box," declared the customers in unison.

The Southerner concluded he had a bargain anyway, and that his friends would be glad to take such cigars off his hands. He thought that he might, after all, have been bidding under a misapprehension.

He wrote an order on a prominent hotel where he was staying for $60, and directed that the cigars be sent there. Then he went down town and forgot all about the matter until evening.

When he returned to the hotel the clerk said:

"We paid your order, but we know that you have been swindled."

"Oh, no! the cigars are worth double the money."

"Look at them and see!"

The package was untied, and twelve boxes of the commonest kind of cabbage-leaf cigars were exposed to view. The Southerner turned away in intense disgust.

"Don't give me away," he begged. "Rather give the cigars away—to the porters—anybody."

The next day he took a policeman to the auction store, vowing vengeance. The place was empty, and he invested another dollar in treats to the official, begging him also in the same disgusted manner:

"Don't give me away."—[New York Tribune.

SOME TYPOGRAPHICAL ERRORS.

Dreadful Things Printers Have To Answer For.

Shortly after the invention of printing the wife of a printer in Germany, while an edition of the Bible was in the press, on one occasion made a small but important change in the types.

The sentence in Genesis in which it is declared that Eve shall be subject to her husband runs thus: "He shall be thy lord." (Herr.) This was altered to, "He shall be thy fool." (Narr.)

Many copies of the book got into circulation before the substitution of the one word for the other was discovered, for in black letter Herr and Narr much resemble each other. It is said that the practical joke cost the unfortunate woman her life, she having been condemned to the stake by the ecclesiastical authorities.

During the latter part of the last century an awkward mistake occurred in this country in printing the Bible. In this edition the word "not" was omitted in the seventh commandment. For this piece of carelessness the then Archbishop of Canterbury imposed a heavy penalty. The edition, so far as practicable, was called in and destroyed, and a fine of £20,000 was inflicted upon the printers.

The Roman Catholic Missal issued in France was once the subject of a ludicrous blunder. By the accidental substitution of a "u" for an "a" the word "calotte" (an ecclesiastical cap or mitre) was printed "culotte" (breeches). The error occurred in the directions for conducting the service, and the sentence as altered read:

"Mass, the priest will take off his culotte."—Combill Magazine.

Scrofula

Is one of the most fatal scourges which afflict mankind. It is often inherited, but may be the result of improper vaccination, mercurial poison, uncleanliness, and various other causes. Chronic Sores, Ulcers, Abscesses, Cancerous Humors, and, in some cases, Emaciation and Consumption, result from a scrofulous condition of the blood. This disease can be cured by the use of Ayer's Sarsaparilla.

I inherited a scrofulous condition of the blood, which caused a derangement of my whole system. After taking less than four bottles of Ayer's Sarsaparilla I am and, for the past year, have not found it necessary to use any medicine whatever. I am now in better health, and stronger, than ever before.—O. A. Willard, 211 Tremont st., Boston, Mass.

I was troubled with Scrofulous Sores for five years; but after using a few bottles of Ayer's Sarsaparilla, the sores healed, and I have now good health.—Elizabeth Warnock, 54 Appleton street, Lowell, Mass.

Some months ago I was troubled with Scrofulous Sores on my leg. The limb was badly swollen and inflamed, and the sores discharged large quantities of offensive matter. Every remedy failed until I used Ayer's Sarsaparilla. By taking three bottles of this medicine the sores have been healed, and my health is restored. I am grateful for the good it has done me.—Mrs. Ann O'Brian, 158 Sullivan st., New York.

Ayer's Sarsaparilla,

Prepared by Dr. J. C. Ayer & Co., Lowell, Mass. Sold by all Druggists. Price $1, six bottles, $5.

Worms derange the whole system. Mother Graves's Worm Exterminator deranges worms, and gives rest to the sufferer. It only costs twenty-five cents to try it and be convinced.

Frank Forest was at work with his men to-day taking the planking off Richard street in order to have the street built up with waste lumber and sawdust, preparatory to the coming of the rains. When symptoms of malaria appear, in any form, take Ayer's Ague Cure. It will prevent a development of the germs of disease, and eradicate them from the system. A cure is warranted in every instance.

The new park was opened to-day at Vancouver amid rejoicings and a great flourish of trumpets, and named "Stanley Park." The demonstrations terminates with a grand ball in the opera house this evening.

The str. Gladys came down from Chilliwhack yesterday afternoon with a cargo of general farm produce and 35 passengers. She cleared again at 7 o'clock this morning for Chilliwhack and way ports with freight and passengers.

The fall exhibition of the Surrey agricultural association takes place at the town hall, Surrey Centre, to-morrow. With such charming weather and good roads, the attendance ought to be large; just a nice drive from this city.

The funeral of the late John H. McInnes took place this afternoon. The procession left the residence of Dr. L. R. McInnes about 2 o'clock and wended its way to the Masonic cemetery at Sapperton. The Rev. Thomas Scouler officiated at the grave.

On account of the large number of persons not being able to obtain an interview with Mrs. Samson, the business and test medium, she has decided to remain for a few days longer. Sittings on Sundays from 11 a. m. to 5 p. m. Reception Room 40 Colonial Hotel. *

The sale is announced of what was known as the Irvine estate at Santa Ana, including the San Joaquin ranch, Lower California. The purchase was made by Chicago capitalists for the sum of $1,500,000. Mr. P. Fry, the well known contractor, late of the Royal City, was one of the parties interested in the San Joaquin ranch.

The city band, under Prof. Wilson, discoursed sweet music from the balcony of the Hyack Hall on Monday evening and rendered the several selections in a very creditable manner. This organization deserves the substantial sympathy and support of our citizens, which it is hoped will be extended whenever opportunity offers.

R. Benson, who has charge of the wood work on the Matsqui dyke is at work with a force of men pushing the work with all possible speed in order to have it completed before the rainy weather commences. The str. Belle went up yesterday with a supply of lumber for the works. The dyke is expected to be finished in five or six weeks.

The Hyacks were out practising this afternoon. Most people thought the bell was ringing a fire alarm, and in the excitement that followed, as the hose-cart came rattling along Columbia street, a horse of Mr. Jas. Cunningham's, attached to a carriage, took fright and smashed the shaft and spilled some merchandise. More care must be exercised in future.

The ceremony of laying the corner stone of the new Methodist church at Vancouver took place yesterday afternoon in the presence of a large number of people. The service was read by the pastor, Rev. E. Robson, Revs. Dr. Young and T. G. Thompson and J. V. Pedley taking part, and the stone being laid by Rev. A. Sutherland, D. D., general sec. of the Methodist missionary society.

The Body of an Indian.

Officer Calbick discovered the remains at Point Grey, which he found in an advanced stage of decomposition, to be those of an Indian, who had apparently died a natural death. The body was clothed in a new suit of clothes, and in a pocket was a bill from a Westminster store, dated August 26. It is supposed that the man was going north with a party of Indians in a canoe, and being taken sick, had been put ashore to die. No inquest was considered necessary. The remains were brought to Vancouver and interred.

Small-Pox in Surrey.

There are six cases reported in the settlement that lies between the Yale road and Hall's prairie. Some of the residents between Brownsville and the American frontier are becoming alarmed in consequence of this dangerous epidemic, and have applied to the authorities to have the cases quarrantined. The provincial secretary being communicated with on the subject, replied that the municipal authorities should attend to it. Mr. Bole, M. P. P., went over to Vancouver this afternoon in order to meet the Hon. John Robson there and have an interview with him respecting the matter.

The Half-Holiday Movement.

A movement in favor of the Saturday half-holiday has been started by several of the plumbers of Victoria, who, at a meeting on Tuesday, framed the following sensible resolution: "Believing that the citizens of Victoria favor the shortening of the hours of labor, we, the undersigned plumbers of Victoria, have resolved that our employers be requested on and after Sept. 28th, to grant us a half-holiday on Saturdays, so as to allow us to share in the benefits of recreation and the pleasures of association, believing that the same will add to our intellectual, moral and social faculties, and to a better observance of the Sabbath, as under the present arrangements our only spare time for recreation is on Sundays. We are willing to lose the half-day's pay on Saturdays, as we do not think it would be fair for the employers to be the losers."

Drowned.

Yesterday morning a man named Zateque Rochon, an employee of the Pioneer Sawmill Co., Port Moody, while walking on logs in the company's boom, suddenly dropped into the water and was drowned. The foreman of the mill missed the deceased only a few moments from his work, but, suspecting that something was wrong, immediately gave the alarm. The body was soon afterwards discovered in the water and fished out by means of a long pole. The general impression among his co-laborers is that Rochon sustained severe injury by falling on the logs, and was therefore unable to render himself any assistance when in the water. The deceased was of French extraction, and born in Montreal. Coroner Ferris, who was notified of the occurrence, went over in the afternoon and held an inquest on the body. After some deliberation the jury returned a verdict of accidental death.

Y. M. C. A. Reception.

The reception given by the Y. M. C. A. at their rooms last evening was largely attended. The Rev. Mr. Baldwin occupied the chair, and, after devotional exercises entertained the audience with a short address. The following programme was then very nicely carried out: Instrumental music, Miss DeBeck; Scotch song, "Scotts wha hae," Geo. Lyal; address, Dr. C. E. C. Brown; song, H. Cunningham; address, Rev. Mr. White; address, secretary of Vancouver association. Messrs. A. E. Rand and H. Cunningham, on being called, made very creditable speeches, giving an account of the proceedings of the Seattle convention and their mission thereto. A service of tea, coffee and cake, which was furnished by Mrs. Hill, Mrs. Turner, Mrs. Dickinson and a few others, brought the proceedings to a close. The Rev. Mr. Scouler pronounced the benediction and the company dispersed well pleased with the evening's entertainment.

Surprised all Around.

Last week the wife of a prominent Whatcom business man went visiting for a few days and left her husband at home alone to rough it as best he could. In order to surprise her and discourage any more visits, he hit upon a plan that worked like a charm. He went to the store and bought a fine night robe of the feminine gender, mussed it up as if it had recently been occupied, then placed it under the pillow of his bachelor bed to await discovery by his wife on her return. She returned, went to make the bed, and there beheld that garment—a robe not her own; how could it have been left there. Her jealousy naturally suggested that her husband had not been alone in her absence. With eyes flashing fire she tore that garment into a thousand pieces, smashed a china set and kicked a hole through the mirror, then awaited the appearance of her husband. He soon went home smiling, but a surprise awaited him, also. She pulled his scalp lock out, twisted his ear three inches out of place and blacked his eye before he could explain the joke. Hereafter she will not go visiting and he will not play jokes on her, even if she stays for a month.—Whatcom Reveille.

Special to the Columbian.

Chilliwhack, Sept. 27.—The saddle-horse competition, with lady riders, yesterday afternoon, was the attraction of the day, and a greater amount of interest centered in it than in any subsequent event. Over a dozen entries were made, and each lady was really an accomplished equestrienne, and it was no wonder the judges found it difficult to name winners. The successful trio were Miss McKeever, Miss Gertie Kipp, and Miss Sarah McCutcheon, all graceful and pretty young ladies, who well deserve the distinction gained. Fred Webb took first prize for best boy rider under fifteen years and W. McCutcheon took second. There were 61 entries in roadsters, the largest in the history of the society, and even greater than at the last provincial exhibition. The total number of entries in the various competitions will reach almost 900, which, considering the lateness of the harvest, was many more than was expected. Entries in field produce competition were not so numerous as usual, owing to the fact that only a few farmers have threshed, and that many farmers were unable to attend the fair, having much grain unharvested, which requires immediate attention. This is to be regretted, as it is generally supposed this year's samples of grains would have eclipsed any previous showing. In dairy produce, Mr. James McCutcheon, Mrs. Knight and Mrs. B. W. Chadsey carried off first prizes, and they were well deserved. Mr. A. C. Wells' samples of cheese were the only ones on exhibition, but had they been in competition with the best eastern makers they would not have suffered by comparison. Mr. D. Greyell shows some splendid samples of dried prunes and some five varieties of fine grapes; the prunes are especially worthy of mention. The peaches exhibited by Mr. A. C. Wells, and which took first prize, are the finest I ever saw, and the same is said by many who have lived in peach-growing countries. R. Stevenson makes a fine display of plums, and Mr. A. S. Vedder captured the first prize in tomatoes. Mr. Colebeck exhibits a sample of American oats, which are of a very fine quality and exceedingly prolific. From three pounds sown he threshed 450 pounds, and from the 450 pounds he this year threshed 450 bushels, which figures speak for themselves. Mr. D. S. Wildon has a magnificent tobacco plant on exhibition; the leaves are over two feet in length and give promise of fine quality. A prodigy in the shape of a sunflower is also to be seen among the floral display. It stands 14 feet high with a flower 22 inches across and a stalk 3 inches thick. Such prolific growth is unknown in the Dominion outside of B. C. In ladies' plain and fancy work the entries are numerous, and many are worthy of mention, but time forbids an extensive notice. The floral display is very fine, but not up to that of last year. Tom Reid, of Westminster, shows a large and well selected assortment of guns, revolvers and jewelry. The most exciting event to-day was a horse race for a purse of $300, between horses belonging to Mr. George Black, of Hastings, and Mr. Luke Gibson, of Chilliwhack. After an exciting race Mr. Gibson's horse won by two lengths. The grounds are crowded with visitors today, and the village is alive with teams and horsemen. The Westminster band is in attendance and enlivens the proceeding to a great extent. Among the notable visitors are D. Chisholm, M. P., Mayor Dickinson, Jas. Orr, M. P. P., W. H. Ladner, M. P. P., Mr. J. S. Clute. The officials of the society have carried out all the arrangements to the satisfaction of everyone.

DENOMINATIONAL SCHOOLS AGITATION.

LONDON, Sept, 25.—The Daily News has become alarmed at the evident intention of the advocates of governmental endowment of denominational schools to pursue a vigorous policy in behalf of their cause when parliament reassembles, and implores the liberals to begin an agitation against it. The strongest argument brought by the liberals in opposition to denominational endowments is an appeal to the ratepayers showing that the already enormously increased burdens which they are compelled to bear are heavier than many of them can stagger under and that the additional taxation, as involved in the proposed scheme would simply crush them. The situation, the News says, is one of extreme danger, since it is undeniable that there is a large sectarian majority in the house of commons and the question has no political features. The Parnellites will obviously join hands with the Tories in pushing the measure through unless the liberals at once make it plain to them that if they persist in supporting an education measure the support of the liberal party to the home rule cause will be withdrawn.

TERRIFIC STORM.

GLOUCESTER, Mass., Sept. 26.—A furious northeast rain and thunder storm commenced early this morning and is still raging unabated, at Nantucket Beach. Many pleasure boats have been sunk and others are ashore. At Whiteman, Abingdon, and Donkers the storm was most severe, great damage being done fruit trees, telegraph poles, etc.

AUCTION

PROVINCIAL

Government Lands

—ON—

NORTH ARM OF FRASER RIVER, AND ADJACENT LANDS, NEW WESTMINSTER DISTRICT.

TUESDAY, 23rd OCTOBER

AT 11 O'CLOCK, A. M.

I have been instructed by the Chief Commissioner of Lands and Works to sell by Auction

AT VANCOUVER, B. C.

Several parcels of fine agricultural lands, situate on or near the North Arm of Fraser River, being sub-divisions of Lots 325, 326, 329, 330, 331, 332 to 339, 149, 150, 156, 175, 166, 155. The subdivisions of these Lots contain from 27 to 172 acres each; the location of these lots is shown on the present maps of the District.

The farms in the immediate vicinity of these Lots are considered the finest agricultural properties in British Columbia. Some of the lots front on the North Arm, and others are in the immediate vicinity of the same.

Steamers run daily from New Westminster and Vancouver, past these valuable properties.

ALSO,

Lots 622 to 679, and Lots 750 to 754.

All situate between the North Arm of Fraser River and Vancouver City. The North Arm Road from Vancouver runs through these Lots, and there are other roads laid out that will give access to each of them. This property commences about 2½ miles south of Vancouver City and is bounded on the west by the C. P. Railway Land Grant, and is surveyed into lots containing from 6 to 56 acres each, maps of which will shortly be ready for distribution.

All the lands to be sold are well adapted for agricultural, dairy or orchard purposes, and on account of their close proximity to the markets of Vancouver and New Westminster cities, will be desirable properties for families seeking a home or for investment.

The C. P. Railway are now constructing a fine wagon road from Vancouver to the North Arm of Fraser River and Lulu Island. They are also surveying a line of railway through these properties with a view of connecting with the United States system of railways at Seattle.

These lands may fairly be considered as the finest valuable ever offered for sale by auction in British Columbia.
