NOTES AND COMMENTS.

Lord Dufferin is now Marquis of Dufferin and Earl of Ava. The latter title is taken from the name of the chief city of Burmah, which was once designated the "kingdom of Ava." The addition of Burmah to the British Empire during the term of his viceroyalty will thus be suitably commemorated.

The inhabitants of Victoria, B. C., have petitioned the Governor-General for an improved service between that city and San Francisco. As Victoria has postal communication with the city of the Golden Gates by both rail and steam boat, the officials of the Post-office Department are wondering if a balloon service is wanted.—Toronto Mail. We protest that the good people of Victoria are not so unreasonable as that.

Mr. F. Baden Benger, the president of the British Pharmaceutical Conference, adopts and recommends the following plan for the "happy dispatch" of poultry. A large wide-mouthed stoppered bottle is kept charged with an ounce of chloroform. When a chicken has received sentence of death, it is held firmly under the left arm and its head slipped into the mouth of the bottle. A few deep inspirations follow, and the bird without a struggle becomes unconscious. Then, holding it by the legs, its neck is dislocated by a quick stretch. The plan is so simple that it might be generally adopted.

The Kamloops Sentinel says:—The Victoria Colonist advocates the claims of Vancouver Island to a greater share of British Columbia's representation in the senate. The island has now one senator and the mainland two. The Colonist thinks that one of the latter should be appointed alternately from the island, instead of from the mainland continuously. With the Colonist it is Vancouver Island first, last and all the time, apparently. A certain amount of that spirit is all very well, but this last proposition shows really too much. The mainland is not only entitled to the present proportion of representation at Ottawa, but in the near future will demand and undoubtedly obtain a larger and fairer proportion of representation in the provincial legislature.

The Republicans found their hopes of carrying New York for Harrison on a fierce quarrel which divides the Democratic party in that State. Governor Hill is being run for a second term by the b'hoys, Tammany, the saloons, the boodlers and the Sun, in opposition to the wishes of decent Democrats and the Mugwumps. Much to his credit, President Cleveland has refused to write a letter endorsing Hill's candidature, though strongly urged to do so by the Tammany gang. It is supposed that this refusal will cost Mr. Cleveland thousands of votes, though, on the other hand, he would probably be deserted by the Mugwumps if he did endorse Hill. Should the forecast of the Democratic heelers prove to be correct, and Mr. Cleveland lose by his admirable firmness in this matter, the occurrence will be excessively discreditable to New York State and to the electorate of the whole United States.—Exchange.

The Richmond Religious Herald, in an article on Christian separateness, laments over the tendency of modern Christianity to become worldly and of the world. It says: "Christian men and women thoroughly practise the ways of the world as to life, pleasure, desire, and morality in business. They think that it is doing an honour to religion by liberalizing it and putting it on a worldly footing; that they help religion by being as popular in society as possible. Thus the aggressive power of Christianity is checked. 'Why are so few from the world joining the Church?' was asked the other day. 'Because so many from the Church are ajoining the world,' was the answer. Our power is in our separateness from the world, not in our affiliation with it. We cannot carry the conviction of religion to the world by standing on the world's own level and asking approbation of it. When the salt loses its saltness it is good for nothing. The power of religion in the world is a life separated unto God by its free instincts."

LAST NIGHT'S DESPATCHES.

LUNCHED WITH GLADSTONE.

LONDON, Oct. 30.—Mr. Thomas Power O'Connor took a long walk and afterwards had luncheon with Mr. Gladstone at Hawarden to-day. Mr. Gladstone expressed himself filled with hope and confidence and yearning for the occurrence of a general election, which he believes he will soon be able to compel.

The Emin Bay Relief Commission is in receipt of advices which leave no doubt that Stanley is the "White Pasha" seen in the Bahere Gazelle country. It is believed that he joined Emin Bay at Wadeiai in December.

PARNELL VS. TIMES.

LONDON, Oct. 30.—The fact that Mr. Parnell's disclaimer of having sent the alleged cheque for £100 to Frank Byrnes has not been included in the Irish leader's case against the Times in the Scotch courts, has excited a great deal of comment and will militate more against popular sympathy here in England than anything the Times has embodied in its charge. Concerning the omission, Mr. Frank Lewis, Mr. Parnell's solicitor, said to-day that the neglect to include his client's denial in the affidavits comprising his case was a complete surprise to himself as well as to Mr. Parnell, who had written to his legal advisers in Edinburgh and was impatiently awaiting their explanation of the course they had taken. If the commission finds in favor of Mr. Parnell, little harm can be done by the omission since the decision of the three judges will practically establish a final verdict. But it is assumed that the strongest possible care should be made out in view of the possibility, not to say probability, that testimony may be forthcoming, the character of which neither party at the present moment has any knowledge. Michael Davitt disputes Attorney-General Webster's publication of his speeches at various meetings in 1885, and appeals through the Freeman's Journal to the chairman of those meetings to furnish rebutting testimony. He is at present actively engaged in securing such testimony and will offer to the commission evidence so completely at variance with the statements of Sir Richard Webster as to time, place, circumstance, etc., that the misinformation of the Attorney-General will be glaringly apparent.

TO-DAY'S DESPATCHES.

WOULDN'T CONSULT HIM.

LONDON, Oct. 31.—Phelps the American minister said last night that he knew nothing of the reported appointment of Sir Charles Tupper, of Canada, to succeed Minister West at Washington. It was not likely that he would be consulted in the matter.

INCENSED BRITISHERS.

BOSTON, Oct. 31.—The British American societies here are very much exercised. They number some 14,000 members in this state and all are much incensed at the treatment the British minister has met.

BOWELL'S OPINION.

OTTAWA, Oct. 31.—The minister of customs, who has just returned from the Pacific coast, where he had been looking into the Chinese question, says no matter how stringent the U.S. laws may be this channel will always be used by Chinese for that purpose. There is no work for them now in British Columbia and no inducements for them to emigrate there. Their real object in leaving China is apparent. That the friendly relations existing between China and Great Britain may not be disturbed, the British government has requested that no more stringent legislation than is now in force may be enacted in Canada against the Chinese.

TO BE OVERHAULED.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 31.—The str. Queen of the Pacific will sail for Tacoma, Seattle and Victoria on Friday in place of the Umatilla which will lay up for several trips to be thoroughly overhauled.

THE MANITOBA TROUBLES.

WINNIPEG, Oct. 31.—A gang of about 200 men have proceeded to the disputed railroad crossing and it is thought that an attempt will be made to force the right of way. The Canadian Pacific people are prepared to offer active resistance and the militia are under orders.

AMONG THE BREAKERS.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 31. — The bark C. R. Bishop, from Honolulu, has been brought to port by a tug from Point Reyes, where she was discovered in the breakers in distress yesterday afternoon. The vessel was about to drift on the rocks when the tug arrived.

A ROYAL TOUR.

LONDON, Oct. 31.—The Empress of Austria, who is suffering from acute rheumatism, contemplates a voyage to the West Indies followed by a tour of the United States.

THANKSGIVING.

FINED.

GETTING FRIGHTENED.

NEW YORK, Oct. 31.—The Journal this morning says that England is quietly arming Canada against us. New forts for Kingston, new forts for Halifax, and a system of forts for the Pacific coast are not merely talked of but already under way. The Canadian transcontinental railroads are to be a hostile line drawn to the north of the U.S. The Journal believes that the retaliation law, incomplete as it is, should be enforced.

WHALE CATCH.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 31.—The whaling bark Cape Horn Pigeon arrived from Okhotsh sea this morning and reports the catch of the Okhotsh whaling fleet of seven vessels, twenty-nine whales.

A GIGANTIC HAUL.

DUNSMUIR, Cal., Oct. 31.—The safe in Wells, Fargo & Co.'s office was blown open last night. Three hundred dollars were taken.

LIVERPOOL, Oct. 31.—Wheat firm. Cals. 8s. 2d.

CHICAGO, Oct. 31.—Wheat steady to-day. November, 117⅞; December, 119½; May 121¼.

NEW YORK, Oct. 31.—Wheat dropped a cent to-day. Nov., 113¾; Dec., 115¼; May, 121¼.

PRIZE FIGHT.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 31. — Patrick Duffy, of Boston, and Dan McMillan, of this city, fought a 17-round prize fight fight near here this morning for a $500 purse. Duffy won and McMillan is said to be in a serious condition. He claims poisoned water was given him.

DANGEROUSLY ILL.

NEW YORK, Oct. 31.—Mrs. Jas. G. Blaine, Jr., had a relapse last night and was for a time delirious. Towards morning she was quieter and slept soundly. The physicians say she will not be out of danger for a day or two.

THE EVILS OF OPIUM.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 31.—A Chinese cigar maker, named Wah Ging, while delirious from opium-smoking, disemboweled himself this morning with a knife.

TRAIN ROBBED.

PASO DEL NORTE, Oct. 31.—The report reaches here that the north-bound passenger train on the Mexican Central has been held up by three men who are supposed to have crossed into the United States. No particulars.

SALISBURY NOTIFIED.

LONDON, Oct. 31.—Salisbury to day received dispatches from Bayard, notifying him of the action taken by the United States government in handing Sackville his passports.

DETACHED FROM DUTY.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 31.—The acting secretary of the navy has detached Commander Allen D. Brown from duty at Laval Academy and ordered him to the command of the U.S. str. Kearsage. She will be put in commission as soon as possible and sent to protect American interests in Hayti.

NO APPARENT REASON.

TERRE HAUTE, Ind., Oct. 31.—During the parade last night Dollie Phillips, aged twenty, was murdered on the street. She was standing watching the parade when a man approached and pointing a revolver at her pulled the trigger saying "There, take that." She fell to the sidewalk with a bullet in her head and died in a few minutes. The murderer, who escaped, is named Galloway. The cause of shooting is unknown.

THE OLD ROMAN.

WHEELING, W. Va., Oct. 31.—Judge Thurman and party left here this morning for Newark, Ohio, where the judge will speak this afternoon. He will then go to his home at Columbus. After the Newark speech he will speak only once more in this campaign.

THE ICEBOUND WHALERS.

NEW BEDFORD, Mass., Oct. 31.—Latest advices from the Arctic whaling fleet state that the whaling vessels, reported in the Arctic, are together, fifteen miles south from Herald Island, instead of twenty miles north, as before reported.

IN A CHILD'S HAND.

MARYSVILLE, Cals., Oct. 31.—At a camp of Idaho immigrants at Live Oak, last night, a young married woman, named Jones, found a five-year-old boy playing with a loaded revolver. He was told to put it down, when the weapon was accidentally discharged, the ball penetrating the woman's body. She died during the night from the wound, leaving a baby a few months old.

PARNELL COMMISSION.

LONDON, Oct. 31.—The Parnell commission resumed this morning. Webster called Captain O'Shea, who stated that at Parnell's request he conferred with Gladstone in June, 1881. The interview was accomplished without the knowledge of Parnell's colleagues. After Gladstone's speech, made in the commons on May 16, 1882, Parnell spoke of the awkwardness of the speech and how it annoyed Egan, and other negotiations were discontinued. After Parnell's return from Paris he conferred with the witness at the latter's house, and the conferences were always alone. Parnell desired to release Davitt from prison but not Brennan. Parnell also authorized the witness to confer with the government and said if the question regarding arrears in rent was settled satisfactorily he would advise the tenants to pay rents and would himself denounce as an outrage all resistance to the law. Parnell said he had power to carry out this guarantee.

The following, as a testimonial to the value of fish hatcheries in increasing the supply of fish by artificial propagation, will be of particular interest to our readers. Says a late Detroit despatch: Mr. Geo. D. Mussey, secretary of the Michigan fish commission, has just returned from a trip along the American shores of Lake Erie. The trip was ordered by the commission for the purpose of finding out the size of the catch of whitefish in the lakes. Mr. Mussey says: "The dealers told me it was the largest catch they had taken for fifteen years. The catch is due, according to them, almost entirely to state propagation and planting of whitefish. The catch from Lake Erie is the largest taken from any lake in the United States, and we say it is so because there are more fish planted there. Pennsylvania plants there from her hatchery at Erie; Ohio from Sandusky, the United States from Northville hatchery, and Michigan from the Detroit hatchery. To show the value of propagation by the hatcheries, a gentleman at Erie gave me a few figures. The fishing industry is valued at $400,000 a year in that part, and one-fourth of that is whitefish. About $15,000 is expended on whitefish by the fish commission of Pennsylvania for the whole state (three hatcheries), and they say the whole industry is due to artificial propagation, or at an expenditure of $7,000 they create a business of $100,000 a year."

Victoria has recently passed a "By-Law Relating to Public Morals." The Standard criticises the measure severely, and, it would appear, with good cause. It says: "Notwithstanding the fact that this city has perhaps less excuses than almost any other on this coast to offer for breaking the Sabbath, the only clause bearing upon this question in the by-law just passed is that prohibiting the holding of any theatrical performance, or other public exhibition or entertainment, etc., between the hours of 12 o'clock on Saturday night and 12 o'clock on Sunday night." The Standard adds: "Now, this, while necessary as a part of a whole law for preventing a desecration of the Sabbath, is, as it stands at present, not only an absurdity, but self-condemnatory of the council on the face of it. If the Sabbath is to be protected at all, why not protect it entirely? If it is thought that theatrical or other performances are not consistent with the due observance of the Christian Sabbath, can it be urged that public labor, public games, drinking, billiard playing, and all the other every-day acts now permitted are any more consistent with its respectful observance?" Our cotemporary goes on to say that the clause in question will "simply prevent the Chinese from taking an occasional indulgence (in their theatricals) that is consistent with their religion, and still permit all sorts of gaming and drinking to Chinese and whites alike. Not only this, but the clause as it stands is just as efficacious for preventing any religious celebration or exhibition as ordinary theatrical performances, and the members of the salvation army or our troops marching to church are just as liable to the penalties of the act as those taking part in a wild beast exhibition or a theatrical performance." According to this, the gentlemen composing the Victoria civic board must be woefully lacking in the faculty of discrimination. We append the Standard's concluding remarks, and they may very well be adapted to our own case also: "But it is certain that much more must be accomplished before we can rid ourselves of the stigma now attached to the license permitted here for the desecration of the Sabbath. We want a by-law that will close the saloons and drinking places the whole or the better part of Sunday, and forbid the playing of games and the performance of unnecessary labor, and while not interfering with the religious liberties or scruples of any part of our citizens, will compel that due observance of the Sunday consistent with a Christian country."

Rev. J. McLaurin, Canadian Baptist Missionary to India, writes: "During our stay in Canada, we have used Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil with very great satisfaction. We are now returning to India, and would like very much to take some with us, for our own use and to give to the diseased heathen."

Children Cry for Pitcher's Castoria

There is considerable talk these days about electricity eventually superceding steam altogether as a motive power, when our railway trains, ships, street cars, etc., will be whisked to their destination by the harnessed lightning, and the factories, mills, and countless machinery of the busy world noiselessly run by the same subtle fluid. As it is, the actual sphere of the electric motor is constantly being widened, and experiments are continually being made to test the practicability of the all but invincible agent being applied to new uses. A late number of the Scientific American says: The project of a large sleeping car company to have built for them a four-mile electrical railroad, for illustrating the advantages of each type of motor, will be the first really practical attempt to compare the various systems on the same line and under similar conditions. If the avowed purpose of the company may be accepted in good faith, and the projectors of the various systems will readily assent to such comparative trials, we are likely to get at more cold facts concerning electro-motors than we have had for many a day. The advantages and defects of the overhead trolley system and the underground conduit plan will be exposed before critics eager to make them known. There is the curve on the plane and on grade, the straight line on grade, starting and stopping, unexpected weights and hauls, and the like. Which system can most quickly accede to the requirements, most readily overcome the various difficulties, and bear the handicapping? What are the relative advantages of taking the current from a wire overhead, and from a third rail, and from a sunken main? The projectors of the third-rail system say that the trolley system is uncertain; the trolleys snap from their propelling wires or fly off at slight impediments, relying on the climbing capacity of the passengers in the car below to keep them in their places. On the other hand, the overhead people—we do not refer to celestial folk, who would not, of course, prevaricate about such small things as electro-motors—we say these overhead people declare the trolley system to be the only reliable one; the transmission of the electrical energy being wholly removed from contact with the ground, which, as is well known, is the worst of insulation, and carried through the air, which is the best. In the use of high tension currents, they aver, and it would seem with reason, that it is difficult to protect the public, and with low tension currents slight leakages often occur to reduce the available energy below the amount required to operate the road. Those who may have watched unprejudiced the progress of the various systems of electrical locomotion will doubtless agree that each seems to have some special virtue in the way of economy or certainty of operation. And so it is to be hoped this wealthy manufactnring company is sincere in its promise to give each a fair trial. A four-mile line would seem to be adequate for the purpose, and the neighborhood of large stationary engines a most convenient starting point.

NOTICE.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN, THAT application will be made at the next session of the parliament of Canada for an act to incorporate a company for the purpose of constructing, equipping, maintaining and operating a line of railway from the City of Victoria, British Columbia, to some point or points at or near Shoal Harbor and Swartz Bay, North Saanich, Vancouver Island, and of extending the said railway by ferry communications from the said points to all or any of the following points on the mainland of British Columbia, viz: To some point or place at or near Garry Point, Lulu Island, as well as to some other point on the south side of Fraser River at or near Canoe Pass and to some other point at or near Point Roberts and also of constructing, maintaining and operating one or more lines of railway from any or all of the aforesaid points on the said mainland to the cities of Vancouver and New Westminster and to the International Boundary line so as to connect with the Canadian Pacific Railway or any branch thereof and with the railway system of the United States with the usual powers to build, own and operate a telegraph or telephone line, or both in connection with the above mentioned lines and ferry, and all necessary bridges and ferries and to build own and operate steam and other vessels and to take and acquire lands for the right of way, station grounds and other necessities and to acquire lands or other bonuses or aids from the Government of the Dominion of Canada or any Local Government or Municipality Corporation or person to assist in the construction of the said railway and ferries and to make traffic and other arrangements with other railway or other companies and for all other usual and necessary powers, rights and privileges. A Sluggish Liver

Causes the Stomach and Bowels to become disordered, and the whole system to suffer from debility. In all such cases Ayer's Pills give prompt relief.

After much suffering from Liver and Stomach troubles, I have finally been cured by taking Ayer's Cathartic Pills. I always find them prompt and thorough in their action, and their occasional use keeps me in a perfectly healthy condition.—Ralph Weeman, Annapolis, Md.

Twenty-five years ago I suffered from a torpid liver, which was restored to healthy action by taking Ayer's Pills. Since that time I have never been without them. They regulate the bowels, assist digestion, and increase the appetite, more surely than any other medicine.—Paul Churchill, Haverhill, Mass.

INVIGORATED.

I know of no remedy equal to Ayer's Pills for Stomach and Liver disorders. I suffered from a Torpid Liver, and Dyspepsia, for eighteen months. My skin was yellow, and my tongue coated. I had no appetite, suffered from Headache, was pale and emaciated. A few boxes of Ayer's Pills, taken in moderate doses, restored me to perfect health.—Waldo Miles, Oberlin, Ohio.

Ayer's Pills are a superior family medicine. They strengthen and invigorate the digestive organs, create an appetite, and remove the horrible depression and despondency resulting from Liver Complaint. I have used these Pills in my family, for years, and they never fail to give entire satisfaction.—Otto Montgomery, Oshkosh, Wis. ††

Public Notice

THE ATTENTION OF THE PUBLIC is hereby directed to the "Provincial Health (small-pox) By-Laws, 1888," issued by His Honour the Lieutenant-Governor in Council, under authority of the "Health Ordinance, 1869."

Having been appointed Provincial Health Officer for Districts lying south of Fraser River, I hereby give notice that the provisions of said By-Laws will be strictly enforced, and all persons are required to govern themselves accordingly.

BY-LAWS ISSUED BY HIS HONOUR THE LIEUTENANT-GOVERNOR-IN COUNCIL,

UNDER THE AUTHORITY OF THE "HEALTH ORDINANCE, 1869."

HIS HONOUR THE LIEUTENANT-Governor of British Columbia, by and with the advice of the Executive Council of British Columbia, acting under and by virtue of the provisions of the "Health Ordinance, 1869," enacts as follows:—

1. Whenever small-pox is present in any locality without the boundaries of any Municipality, the Provincial Health Officer nearest to such locality shall at once cause the patient to be removed to an isolated hospital, tent or other suitable place, or cause such person to be otherwise sufficiently isolated, and shall see that he is properly cared for, and shall take proper measures for the disinfection, or, if necessary, the destruction of all clothing which may have been exposed to the contagion, and for the disinfection and purification of every conveyance, rail-car, steamboat, railway, vessel, carriage, or other vehicle which may have been exposed to the contagion.

2. Such Health Officer shall have, in his discretion, full power to place in another building or tent all persons who may have been exposed to the contagion, and shall cause them to be supplied with all necessaries until the period of incubation of the disease shall have elapsed, and no such person shall go, or be permitted to go, abroad, until he or she has given satisfactory proof of successful vaccination within the preceding seven years, or shall have obtained a medical certificate of insusceptibility to the vaccine disease, nor until the clothing or effects worn or carried by or with him or her have been properly disinfected, if the same have been exposed to contagion.

3. To assist the Health Officer, he shall have full power to employ persons to be nurses, sanitary policemen, and otherwise to aid in the prevention of the spread of the disease, and may himself give and enforce such reasonable directions for the same purpose as to him may seem expedient, and the nearest Government Agent shall see that all articles and necessaries required by the Health Officer are furnished.

4. It shall be the duty of every medical practitioner who shall attend upon, or give medical or surgical advice, to or about any person suffering from small-pox, to give notice forthwith after he shall have commenced so to attend or give such advice, to the nearest Provincial Health Officer. When a householder knows that a person within the house occupied by him is taken sick of small-pox, he shall immediately give notice thereof to the nearest Provincial Health Officer.

5. The Provincial Health Officer before mentioned is and includes any person appointed Health Officer under the "Health Ordinance, 1869," by the Lieutenant-Governor in Council.

6. The foregoing provisions shall have no effect within the limits of any Municipality, save as hereinafter mentioned.

7. In case the Council of any Municipality, whenever small-pox is present, or likely to occur therein, shall fail to make or carry out proper provisions to prevent the invasion or spread of small-pox within the Municipality, and complaint thereof shall be made to the Lieutenant-Governor by the Council of any adjacent Municipality, it shall be lawful for the Lieutenant-Governor in Council, acting upon such complaint or in his discretion upon other information, to order that these regulations shall, until otherwise ordered, apply to and be in force within the Municipality in which such neglect occurs, and thereupon any Provincial Health Officer shall have, within and in respect of such Municipality all the authority with which he is clothed in respect of localities without Municipalities, and in such case all disbursements and expenses paid by the Province, in the carrying out within such Municipality of the foregoing regulations, shall be paid by such Municipality.

8. These regulations may be cited as the "Provincial Health (small-pox) By-Laws, 1888."

Dated at Victoria, this 3rd day of October, 1888.

JNO. ROBSON, Provincial Secretary.

THE BELLE OF LIMA.

Lima from the earliest times has been noted for its beautiful women; not merely for symmetrical features, but elegance of physique and graceful movement.

In speaking of the women of Lima reference is made to the superior class of Spanish descendants, the genealogies of Pizarro and his followers, who, as Prescott states, shod their horses with silver shoes and gambled away in one night the accumulated wealth of centuries.

A typical Lima belle is of greater stature than the North American model of beauty, possessing a well-rounded, graceful form, small and elegantly moulded feet, and pearly teeth.

The eyes are dark, large, and so bewitching in their expression as to drive care from the skipper's mind as he whirls his ideal beauty through the long hallway, his soul keeping time with the spirited waltzes, until gathered into the folds of the same manta with his senorita. The essentiality of the life of a Liman belle is pleasure.

The young ladies (senoritas) of the family either accompany their parents in the evening ramble or are attended by their personal servants; usually two young ladies walk together, followed by their attendants. Should they meet a gentleman of their acquaintance, they cordially invite him to join them in their passo.

If he be a Peruvian he takes his place behind the ladies and chats over their shoulders as they pass along. Should he happen to be a grengo, as foreigners are termed, he would be politely asked to walk in the rear, and would suffer from solid indifference unless he should sufficiently compensate the attendants—which is no difficult matter—to remain in some alley until the return of the ladies.

If this arrangement is consented to by all, the young people seek secluded streets, where they are not liable to meet with parents and friends and where all formality is thrown aside.

If it should transpire that this gentleman calls upon these young ladies the following evening, the coolness of his reception would indicate that they had never before met; but he would be ushered into the parlor and hospitably received by the family.

Young ladies are not allowed to receive gentlemen callers in private. One of the parents, a sister or an attendant, assists in entertaining, and at times the whole family.

The mother, knowing the passionate disposition of her race, constantly endeavors to screen her daughter from secluded male company until her marriage. After marriage she is free to invite to her house all her lovers and to there entertain them, whether her husband is there or not.

This newly gained freedom extends further—to the extent that she is now at liberty to indulge in flirtations upon the streets or in the gardens, with her bewitching glances luring her admirers to her home.

However, many daughters are exasperated beyond patience from observing the flirtations of a married sister or other relative, and devote their evenings upon the balcony passing notes to their lovers.

Perhaps he, a stranger, first attracted her attention as she leaned over the baluster by passing several times beneath the balcony. If she desires his acquaintance he receives some signal which emboldens him to bow or pass a card to the lady.

The initiatory being over, evenings are passed in this manner until the acquaintance has ripened into friendship, when the gentleman is free to call or stroll through the plaza or garden. These balcony scenes being clandestine, they are not enacted until a late hour, when the mother is unconscious of her daughter's whereabouts, as she has been carefully watched until she is safely lodged in her bedroom, with its barred windows.—San Francisco Chronicle.

DEMOCRATIC ENGLISH WOMEN.

The Kitchen and Drawing-room Dancing together at Christmas and Other Festival Times.

English women are in many things more democratic than American women dare to be, particularly in their intercourse with servants and women in a lower social sphere. Perhaps it is because the line of demarcation is more clearly marked there than here, and women dare to be more familiar because they know it will be understood and no advantage taken of it.

For example, at the Christmas ball given to the servants in English country houses it is customary for the family to go down in the servants' hall, and while the father and mother look on the son of the house treads a measure with the pleased and smiling housekeeper, while the daughter not infrequently allows the blushing and grinning coachman to walk through a lanciers with her.

Young women in America have been known to run off with coachmen, but they never dare, even on Christmas Eve, dance the lanciers with them.

The gulf is quite as wide between society women and the shop-girls, but it is not so in London, where a society of aristocratic women give an annual "fete and masque" to the working girls of the English capital.

This society has been in existence for five years, and every season they exert themselves to give the hard-working women, whose play days are all too few, one evening of unalloyed pleasure.

The last annual ball was more than ever beautiful and enjoyable. The members of the society invited a lot of the titled Americans, the new Duchess of Marlborough and Lady Randolph Churchill among them, and had a gay crowd of fashionable people to mingle with the shop-girls.

The Inevitable Interviewer.

The day after the wedding, her husband had no sooner gone out when who should briskly enter her sitting-room, after a row and argument with the servant, but a total stranger, who saluted her impressively.

She looked at him in speechless amazement.

"Was it not yesterday that you were married to Mr. B.?"

"Yes, but——"

"I am an interviewer," and he pulled out a note-book.

Her Useful Small Brother.

Willie—"What makes you come to our house so often, Mr. Hankinson? Do you want to marry our Irene?"

Miss Irene (taken by surprise, but realizing with rare presence of mind that Mr. Hankinson has got to say something now) —"Willie, you impertinent boy, leave the room!"

A Creaking Hinge

Is dry and turns hard, until oil is applied, after which it moves easily. When the joints, or hinges of the body are stiffened and inflamed by Rheumatism, they cannot be moved without causing the most excruciating pains. Ayer's Sarsaparilla, by its action on the blood, relieves this condition, and restores the joints to good working order.

Ayer's Sarsaparilla has effected, in our city, many remarkable cures, in cases which baffled the efforts of the most experienced physicians. Were it necessary, I could give the names of many individuals who have been cured by taking this medicine. In my case it has worked wonders, relieving me of after being troubled with it for years. In this, and all other diseases arising from impure blood, there is no remedy with which I am acquainted, that affords such relief as Ayer's Sarsaparilla.—R. H. Lawrence, M. D., Baltimore, Md.

Ayer's Sarsaparilla cured me of Gout and Rheumatism, when nothing else would. It has eradicated every trace of disease from my system.—R. H. Short, Manager Hotel Belmont, Lowell, Mass.

I was, during many months, a sufferer from chronic Rheumatism. The disease afflicted me grievously, in spite of all the remedies I could find, until I commenced using Ayer's Sarsaparilla. I took several bottles of this preparation, and was speedily restored to health.—J. Fream, Independence, Va. ††

Fresh Eastern and Native Oysters, served in every style, at the Club. *

The str. Irving cleared for Hope this morning with 25 passengers and 80 tons of freight.

The str. Western Slope went over to Vancouver to-day with a full load of farm produce and live stock.

The str. Dunsmuir cleared for Nanaimo this morning with a number of passengers and a full load of merchandise.

The str. Princess Louise cleared for Victoria this morning with 86 head of cattle, 85 tons produce and 30 passengers.

The half-yearly examinations of the medical council of British Columbia will take place in Vancouver on Tuesday next.

Don't forget that Ogle, Campbell & Co. keep the largest assortment of Men's, Women's and Children's Rubber Overshoes in town. All fresh goods, at popular prices. doc29w1

A fine constitution may be ruined by simple neglect. Many bodily ills result from habitual constipation. There is no medicine equal to Ayer's Pills for restoring the system to natural and healthy action.

The various temperance societies are uniting to bring Mr. George Woodford, a well-known temperance orator, to this city to give a course of lectures. If the negotiations result satisfactorily the lectures will be delivered about the middle of November.

Chronic catarrh usually indicates a scrofulous condition of the system, and should be treated, like chronic ulcers and eruptions, through the blood. This disease has been cured, in hundreds of cases, by the use of Ayer's Sarsaparilla. Price $1. Six bottles, $5.

On November 19th the electors of Seattle will decide by ballot whether or not that city shall spend $765,000 for a system of water-works. The mayor and special committee appointed to investigate the feasibility of the project have reported in favor of the plan.

The Whatcom Reveille says:—For a long time Victoria encouraged the growth of Vancouver to hurt New Westminster, but now there is danger of Vancouver sapping the life blood out of Victoria, and the latter city is sorry for having raised such an ungrateful child.

The Junior football clubs, the "White Diamond" and "West End" played a match yesterday which was won by the former club by a score of a goal to nothing. The "White Diamonds" chose their name, probably, from the fact the none of the members will wear the blue tinted diamond.

At the police court this morning Wm. Reidt was arraigned on the charge of assaulting S. H. Webb. Remanded till to-morrow. Mr. McColl for Mr. Reidt and Mr. T. O. Townley for Mr. Webb. Henry Mowatt, charged with stealing a gold finger ring from the Eickhoff House. Mr. Bole, Q.C., for prosecution. Remanded till to-morrow.

The Vancouver papers wont admit that their foot-ball club was beaten on an even footing. The case is simply this:—Vancouver brought over the best team that could be mustered, and Westminster put the best team possible on the field—result, Vancouver was so completely outplayed that even if the "three best players" were added to the 15 that played the result would have been very much the same.

To-night is Halloween and no doubt the good old custom of ducking for apples, roasting nuts, tearing down buildings, stealing gates, personating ghosts, turning cattle into flower gardens and many other innocent amusements will be indulged in by the young throughout the city. We were young ourselves many years ago and can thoroughly appreciate the jokes when perpetrated on our next door neighbors.

Injured by a Wounded Buck.

Yesterday a young man named McDonald met with a painful accident while hunting near Goldstream. He had shot a fine buck, which was kicking and struggling on the ground, when he approached the wounded animal, intending to cut its throat. Just as he was about to use the knife, however, the dying buck made a plunge, and with one of its horns badly gashed McDonald's hand. The wound bled profusely, but the young man managed to get to the city, where the wound was dressed by Dr. Jackson. The injury, although not very serious, is of a painful character, and will prevent the use of the hand for some time.—Colonist.

Life of the "Local."

Truly the lot of a local editor is a hard one. If he omits anything, he is accused of laziness; if he reports things as they are, somebody is sure to get red-headed; if he smooths down the rough points, he is bribed; if he does not feed his readers on hunks of juicy wit, he is a blockhead; if he does he is a rattlebrain or plagiarist; if he condemns the wrong, they say the principle is right, but he was indiscreet in his method; if he lets wrong go unmentioned, he is a coward. Thus it is in all the channels of his miserable existence; he needs the patience of Job, the fasting qualities of Dr. Tanner, and the leading attributes of an angel. —Brownsburg Modern Era.

RESTLESSNESS, MORBID ANXIETY, and a fretful disposition, are usually met with in the dyspeptic. These mental indicia show how close is the connection between brain and stomach. Their most prolific cause, dyspepsia, is a complaint for which Northrop & Lyman's Vegetable Discovery and Blood Purifier is used with unvarying success. It also remedies Biliousness, Constipation and Impurity of the Blood.

Children Cry for Pitcher's Castoria

$10,000 Damages.

J. F. McIntyre, special correspondent of the Post-Intelligencer for Port Townsend, filed a petition against the Seattle Daily Times for $10,000, for defamation of character, etc. The trouble grows out of an article in Thursday's Times, relative to the prize fight that recently occurred at Port Discovery, the Times implicating Mr. McIntyre as stakeholder.

Evangelist Moody at Vancouver.

Mr. D. L. Moody commenced his evangelical work at Vancouver on Sunday evening. He will remain in that city for one week, and will then spend a week in Westminster, after which he will visit Washington Territory. Mr. Moody said he was very much pleased with his experience in Victoria. Speaking generally, he found no diminution of the interest in evangelical work now as compared with when he started, and as an an instance, at Victoria, in proportion to the population, the attendance and interest were as great as ever he knew. He liked the people of Victoria very much, and was well satisfied with his visit to the province. —Colonist.

Another Constable Wanted.

Three different raids were made on Mr. F. Fooks' chicken house last night by Chinamen, but the thieves were repelled every time by the dogs. It is evident an organized band of robbers exists in the city, having for their purpose the robbing of hen roosts and other petty thieving, but which, however, is liable to blossom into a large burglaries, if they do not receive a decided check. A special constable should be appointed to patrol the upper portion of the city, which at present is without police protection of any kind. Constable Dominy was selected for this duty last year and from the date of his appointment the robberies almost entirely ceased.

Republican Rot.

"In British Columbia shingles are made by Chinese. Yet the democratic Mills bill proposes to repeal the duty of 35 per cent. and compel our shingle makers to compete with British Columbia Chinese in the shingle markets. The republicans say no. How will you vote?" The above is a sample of the nonsense the Whatcom Reveille treats its readers to every week, evidently with the idea that it will be swallowed whole. It is quite evident the Reveille man knows as little about shingle-making in British Columbia as he does about truth, but anyway decency and honesty do not count among republicans while a presidential contest is on the boards.

The Salvation Banquet.

To-morrow evening the Salvation army will give their first grand banquet at the army barracks on Columbia street. The banquet will be a substantial meal well worth the price charged, and some extras, in the shape of army drill, will be thrown in free. The big feed begins at 5 o'clock and ends at 8 o'clock, and then will follow a great torchlight procession headed by the Vancouver brass band. A grand jubilee and welcome meeting will be held at Herring's opera house, Major Young conducting the programme. A large number of visiting officers will be present and intend making the meeting one that will live for a long time in the memory of the people of Westminster.

"School for Scandal."

Mr. and Mrs. Jack, (Annie Firmin), gave great enjoyment in the rendition of the "School for Scandal." Annie Firmin, besides showing herself a superb actress rendered a finely executed piano recital. The lady is an accomplished musician. Her several ballads displayed a soprana voice of excellent culture, capable of much feeling and inspiration. Mr. Jack in the "Rivals" and "Falstaff" proved him the talented actor for which he has gained a world-wide renown. Little Arthur Firmin Jack got a loud recall for his 'Rose Song.'—Winnipeg Siftings. On Friday and Saturday evenings Annie Firmin will appear at Herring's Opera House, and her recognized talent will, without doubt, induce a large house.

Our Little Bell.

We observe by little posters that Wm. Clarke Bell, chairman of what purports to be a prohibition party, calls a convention for Oct. 27th, at the court house in Whatcom. Few of our readers know who Mr. Bell is, or what his object. Mr. Bell came here from British Columbia about two months ago and jumped into public notice by bidding on 13th street grade work and then throwing up the contract, after putting the city to expense and the public to inconvenience. He is not a property owner and never paid a cent of taxes in our country. We simply call attention of the public to the leader of this prohibition movement in order that those who wish to follow him may do so with their eyes open wide. —Revielle.

Election of Officers.

A meeting of the St. Andrew's and Caledonian society was held last night for the election of officers for the ensuing year. Chief Bonson occupied the chair. The annual sports committee submitted their report which was received and adopted. One new member was balloted for and elected. The election of officers was then proceeded with and resulted as follows: Chief, Alex. Ewen; 1st chieftain, Jas. Punch; 2nd chieftain, W. G. Fraser; secretary, John Buie; treasurer, D. McPhaden; warden, Sergt-Major McMurphy; chaplain, D. McGregor. Directors, Messrs. D. Chisholm, M.P., L. F. Bonson, James Laidlaw, James Stephens and J. McLeod. It was resolved to hold the annual dinner on St. Andrew's night, and a committee, consisting of Messrs. Peter Grant, John Buie and W. G. Fraser, were appointed to carry out the arrangements. The meeting then adjourned.

Senator Canfield.

Senator Canfield, president of the New Westminster, Bellingham Bay & Seattle Railway, arrived in the city this afternoon on business in connection with the road. He is looking better than when last here and seems to be in excellent spirits. A representative of of THE COLUMBIAN had a few minutes chat with him on general topics, more particularly concerning the Southern road. South of the boundary, the senator says, the locating engineers have been forced to suspend active operations at several points, owing to great freshets in streams and rivers running through the low lying lands. The chance of a repetition of these freshets may make it necessary to change the line from the original route intended. Grading operations will greatly depend on the weather between now and the end of the year, but should the season prove too stormy and inclement for satisfactory construction the first sign of good weather after new year will be the signal for the active resumption of work. The senator has many business matters to attend to while in the city, and further information concerning the company's intentions will be published in a day or two.

In speaking of the possibility of the retaliation bill being put in force, Senator Canfield said there was no chance of any such thing happening. After the presidential election the retaliation bill, now being used as a handle by politicians, would drop completely from sight and nothing more be heard of it.

A Land of Plenty.

The Montreal Witness, in commenting on the letters of its correspondent who accompanied the recent expedition to the Skeena river, says he describes arms of the sea whose waters are black with the back and dorsal fins of the salmon, which are so crowded together that they cannot escape being seized by the hands. A man with a hooked pike pole drew them out of the water at the rate of a dozen a minute by actual count. Shell fish crawl about the sands of the shore in countless numbers. There are great flocks of water fowls, and our correspondent with his canoe crew go ashore to camp at the point where they are overtaken by storm and fatigue, and dine off venison cut from a fat buck shot on the spot. Our correspondent paddles for days amidst the lonely solitudes where food and game are so plentiful, and yet there are whole fishing communities on the Atlantic coast of Canada who are never out of sight of want and who periodically, as at present, suffer from absolute famine if not relieved by charity. Why cannot these people and the fisher folks of the north of Scotland be induced to move to scenes which must be almost a duplicate of those they live among at home, with the addition of peace and plenty. The following is a portion of the letter: "Tongass Narrows is confessed by the people engaged in fishing to be exceptional in the number of salmon yearly visiting it. In the creek at this place the fish are so crowded that the surface is in many places literally blackened with their backs and dorsal fins, so crowded are they that they cannot escape and may be picked up by the hand from the bank. I timed an Indian who was taking them with a hooked pole and found he averaged 12 a minute. At the cannery I saw a mass of about 3,500 awaiting treatment by their Chinese surgeons; and the bringing in of a seine containing 2,500 was like nothing so much as the miraculous draught as recorded in the New Testament. Until white men come and catch all who attempt to ascend the streams the salmon will not be discouraged, and with proper treatment this great provision of nature in the coast between the Columbia and Yukon rivers might be preserved to our use for centuries.

Late Canadian News.

MORLEY, N. W. T., Oct. 27.—On Monday, while eight lodges of Stoney Indians, under Chief Chiniki, were hunting between Sop Creek and High River, Hector Chiniki was stopped by Bloods and asked to smoke. Upon refusing he was fired upon. He returned the fire with a rifle, firing several times. He was shot in the thigh and upon being wounded he retreated to the band. The same night, Susie, another Stoney of the same band, was herding horses and was suddenly fired upon and shot in the breast by Bloods. The Stoneys thereupon returned the fire, but were unable to ascertain what damage they inflicted. It is supposed to be severe as the Stoneys are deadly shots with a rifle.
