NOTES AND COMMENTS.

A corporation has been described as a thing that has no soul to be saved or body to be kicked. Judge Dandurand, of Montreal, decides judicially that a corporation has no body that can be imprisoned. The corporation was of Le Monde newspaper, the offence was against the lottery act, publishing an advertisement of the Louisiana state lottery. All journalists who want to escape imprisonment will hasten to incorporate.—Monetary Times.

American girls who desire to marry titled Europeans should not neglect their French. Ex-Minister Lothrop's daughter, who married a Russian baron a few days ago, was courted in French, as she could not speak Russian and her lover was unskilled in English. Miss Virginia Knox, of Pittsburg, Pa., who married Count di Montercole, of Italy, on Thursday, had a like experience. She was unable to speak Italian and the Count couldn't count on his English. French thus became the language of last resort. But why shouldn't Volapuk be used in such cases? Volapuk has some startling terms of endearment.

The big Joggins' raft (the first and unsuccessful one) which was lost at sea last December, and whose whereabouts since has been a source of anxiety to many watchful skippers, has left its traces behind it, according to a Philadelphia paper. It is stated that residents of the Azores and Madeira islands report their shores lined with the trunks of huge trees, believed to be part of the great raft now supposed to be on its way to Gibraltar or some other point of interest in that locality. The skipper of a barque recently returned from a voyage over the Atlantic further asserts that he was five days amongst these logs, an indication either that the skipper's ideas are large and generous or that the raft still retains respectable proportions despite the repeated onslaughts of wind and wave.

There was reported from Springhill, N. S., not long ago a fatality around which clung a good deal of mystery. Joseph Ackles was found dead in a ditch, and from marks upon his head it looked as though a murder had been committed. An enquiry was held, but no elucidation of the tragedy resulted, although the local papers appear to resent the imputation of murder in the case. The verdict of the jury being a neat thing in its way, and quite in keeping with the inexplicable features of the occurrence, we give it. Ackles, from this declaration, came to his death "from some influence brought to bear upon the brain and spinal chord, the exact nature of which was not definitely determined, so far as the evidence obtained bears on the case." It is something new to call a blow from a weapon an "influence."

A New York despatch in a recent number of the Philadelphia Times, alluding to Cleveland's retaliation message, throws some new and rather startling light upon the subject, as follows:—The president has not slept upon this important matter. What he uttered in his famous and positive message upon the subject he meant. Those who thought his words at the time were idle emanations of the moment do not know the man. His convictions upon any subject are not only intense but tenacious. This was abundantly proven by his giving his party new life and new policy, while practically endangering his ensured re-election. When he pronounced his great dictum upon tariff reform he was none the less serious, although he has not received the credit for it. When he declared that Canada must be made to suffer for any injuries done to American commerce or to American fishermen he meant what he said. But the Republican senate in its partisanship and the Republican leaders, blinded by bigotry, saw in Mr. Cleveland's retaliation message nothing but a bid for votes, and thought the best way to dispose of it was to ignore it. They reckoned without their host. They knew not that with him conviction is a command, but they will find it out should the joint congressional committee wait upon him before November 6.

Mr. R. A. Harrison, Chemist and Druggist, Dunnville, Ont., writes: "I can with confidence recommend Northrop and Lyman's Vegetable Discovery and Dyspeptic Cure for Dyspepsia, Impure Blood, Pimples on the Face, Biliousness and Constipation — such cases having come under my personal observation."

LAST NIGHT'S DESPATCHES.

IT EQUALS WESTMINSTER.

PARIS, Oct. 25.—A lunch was given to-day at Cherbourg to the officers of Russian squadron at that port. The mayor offered a toast to the union of the French and Russian people, and the maritime prefect proposed a toast to the Russian navy. The commander of the Russian man-of-war Nachimoff, responded, and toasted President Carnot and the French army and navy. A band played the Russian anthem, and the Russian officers received an ovation on their way back to the ship.

THE PARNELL AFFAIR.

It is asserted by the Freeman's Journal that 200 Irish policemen, upon whom no subpœnas have been served, are held in readiness to testify before the Parnell commission against the Parnellites. The Journal also states that the papers seized at Matthew Harris' house have been turned over to the Times.

TO-DAY'S DESPATCHES.

TO BE RECALLED.

NEW YORK, Oct. 26.—The Washington correspondent of the Herald telegraphs this morning that it is understood that Lord Sackville West, British minister, will be recalled because of his letter on American politics.

RESCINDED.

BERLIN, Oct. 26.—The decree forbidding the sale of Dr. Mackenzie's book in Germany has been rescinded.

TALMAGE FOUND GUILTY.

KANSAS CITY, Oct. 26.—James Talmage, son of the late general manager of the Wabash railway, was found guilty at Keytesville, Mo., last night, of murder in the second degree, for killing C. P. Tidd, telegraph operator, last January during a quarrel over orders for the train of which Talmage was conductor. He was sentenced to twenty-one years in the penitentiary.

HIS NAME IS SMITH.

OTTAWA, Oct. 26.—Salon Smith, ex-member of the Dominion parliament, in his speech last night came out squarely for annexation as Canada's only salvation. "As regards the terms" he said "the American people should take us just as we are, allow us to retain our local governments, local codes, and school systems. All these privileges of local government we now enjoy."

DITCHED.

EVANSTON, Wyo., Oct. 26.—Early this morning about a mile and a half from here the west-bound train on the Union Pacific was ditched by running into a band of steers. Fireman Kelly was killed and Engineer Hankins had his right leg broken.

PASSENGER LIST.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 26.—Passengers per s.s. Mexico, for Victoria:—G Vary, Miss L Manners, Mr Denwell, Mrs A Weeks and child, Miss J Murray, Mary McLeod.

THE PARNELL COMMISSION.

LONDON, Oct. 26.—Attorney-General Webster continued his address before the Parnell committee to-day. In the opening remarks he intimated it was his intention to deal at length with the violent orations delivered by the members of the National league in County Clare during the years 1885, 1886 and 1887. Mr. Hannen, the presiding judge, asked Webster if he did not think he had already sufficiently indicated the line of argument he intended to adopt. Webster replied that he must deal with all counties picked out as affording the most clear character of the league's agitation. He, however, quite understood Judge Hannen's hint and was desirous of adopting any precaution suggested which might assist him in shortening his remarks.

SCIENTIFIC OUTCASTS.

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., Oct. 26.—Professor James, secretary of the philosophical deputation of the university of Pennsylvania, received news last night that the Babylonian expedition of the university, which left this city for the Orient early last summer, has been shipwrecked in the Mediterranean sea. The expedition was to reach Palestine about the beginning of October, proceeding thence to the site of Babylon and Nineyah, in order to begin archæologic excavations. The members of the expedition are outcasts on an island in the Mediterraneon sea, with most of their baggage and scientific apparatus lost or seriously damaged. There is little prospect of their being conveyed to the point of their destination.

WHEAT.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 26—Wheat firm, at 109⅛; November, 102¼.

CHICAGO, Oct. 26.—Wheat is again higher to-day, November 115¼; December 116⅞; May 117¼.

LIVERPOOL, Oct. 26.—Wheat steady. Cals., 8s. ½d.

NEW YORK, Oct. 26.—Wheat firm to-day. Oct. 112½; Nov., 113; Dec., 115½.

TO REVIEW A PARADE.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 26.—The president went to New York on the 4 o'clock train this afternoon to review the business men's parade there to-morrow. Colonel Lamont accompanies him and he will be met there by Secretarys Whitney, Dickinson and Fairchild, and Assistant Secretary Maynard.

DENOUNCING KING MILAN.

ST. PETERSBURG, Oct. 26.—The papers here express indignation at the manner in which King Milan of Servia secured his divroce from Queen Natalie, and denounce the divorce as illegal. The Ivet urges Queen Natalie to appeal to the patriarch of Constantinople and other chiefs of the orthodox church to annul the action of the metropolitan Theodoseous.

A BIG FIGHT.

PIERRE, Dak., Oct. 26.—About 200 Sioux Indians, under White Ghost, from Lower Brule agency, passed up Bad river yesterday to reinforce the Standing Rock Indians in the rumored coming fight with the Crow Indians. It is expected that Charger will join them at the Cheyanne agency. The Crows are out in force and were expected to strike the blow while the Sioux chiefs were at Washington, but they were too late, as the latter have returned.

A SENSATION REVIVED.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 26.—Dr. J. M. Bowers, who is under sentence of death for poisoning his wife, made a sensational accusation in an interview to-day. He charges Mrs. Benhayon with the murder of her son Henry, whose mysterious death a year ago created such excitement throughout the coast.

FROM CHINA.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 26.—The str. Arabic arrived from Hong Kong at 1 o'clock this afternoon. She came by way of Honolulu, where most of her Chinese passengers were dropped off. The Arabic was the last steamer which left Hong Kong before the exclusion act went into effect.

A sensation was created at the health office this afternoon when a report reached there that 6 cases of smallpox had been discovered in the city and county hospital.

RAILWAY ACCIDENT.

PARIS, Ky., Oct. 26.—A train on the Kentucky Central yesterday afternoon left the track near here, and engineer Robert Black and Elmore Bryan, a passenger, were fatally injured. Jno. Ryan, brakeman, and J. J. Allen were seriously injured.

LOVED TOO WELL.

COLFAX, W. T., Oct. 26.—David Yates, a barkeeper, shot and killed his wife and then himself this morning. Yates left a letter stating his great love for his wife and that her failure to return it had driven him to desperation.

READY TO CROSS.

WINNIPEG, Oct. 26.—The railway question is hanging in an unsettled state. The injunction is being argued this afternoon before Judge Killam. If the judge dissolves the injunction the Northern Pacific will attempt a crossing almost immediately, and strong resistance from the C. P. R. is certain until the question is decided by the supreme court. The military are in readiness to prevent any conflict. If a collision occurs the Northern Pacific will be the aggressors. The C. P. R. are well prepared to offer almost formidable resistance and to thoroughly protect their rights and property. The judge's decision is expected to-morrow morning.

FIRE.

COLUSA, Cal., Oct. 26.—A fire late last evening destroyed a number of business houses. Total loss $25,000.

THE MANITOBA TROUBLES.

WINNIPEG, Oct. 26.—The excitement over the trouble between the Manitoba government and the C.P.R. continues unabated. A serious conflict between the special police on both sides was only averted yesterday by the action of the provincial courts in granting the Canadian Pacific another injunction against the government. People are loyal to provincial courts, but against the Dominion the feeling is decidedly hostile. The C. P. was outwitted by the government last night when the latter effected a crossing over another branch of the transcontinental line which had to be crossed in order to reach Portage la Prairie. The C. P. people, however, 400 strong, succeeded in tearing up the tracks. To-day the latest injunction case will be settled. R. Whyte, representing the C. P. R. here, says he can raise more men than Manitoba, and that 5,000 armed followers of the C. P. R. can be massed here in a few hours.

EXPENSIVE AFFECTIONS.

BOSTON, Oct. 26.—Migre Beal secured a verdict this morning against Dr. A. Thomson, of Lowell, for $30,000, for alienating her husband's affections. Probaby no appeal will be taken. Thompson is the proprietor of the Moxie Nerve food.

IMPROVING.

HEIDLEBERG, Oct. 26.—The condition of of J. C. Flood, of California is somewhat improved.

PARNELL COMMISSION.

LONDON, Oct. 26.—Webster has finished his address on behalf of the Times. In his concluding remarks he asserted the witnesses he proposed to call in support of his case would be persons who have been acting participators in the outrages. They would tell what moneys had been paid them for their share of the work and how the crimes were arranged. Adjourned till Tuesday.

IT IS A REMARKABLE FACT that Dr. Thomas Eclectric Oil is as good for internal as external use. For disease of the lungs and throat, and for rheumatism, neuralgia, crick in the back, wounds and sores, it is the best known remedy, and much trouble is saved by having it always on hand.

Jacob Loockman, Buffalo, says he has been using it for rheumatism. He had such a lame back that he could do nothing; but one bottle entirely cured him.

Children Cry for Pitcher's Castoria

Daily British Columbian

Friday Evening, Oct. 26, 1888.

In an article the other day touching upon the Colonist's claim for an additional half a senator—to be taken from the mainland—for Vancouver Island, we concluded by stating that really important questions had been suggested by the Colonist thus foolishly raising the question. These questions are a readjustment of representation both for the commons and for the provincial legislature. At present British Columbia has six representatives for the Dominion, divided equally between mainland and island. To the legislative assembly of the province 27 members are returned, 14 from the mainland and 13 from the island. In the commons Victoria city and district has two representatives; Westminster city and district, including the new-born but important and progressive city of Vancouver, has but one. This adjustment, obviously unequal now, promises to be a good deal more so before another Dominion general election takes place, and before that time will require to be placed upon a different basis. But, for a striking example of a really "great preponderance," the representation of Victoria city and district in the local legislature, as compared with that of Westminster city and district in the same body, demands particular notice. Victoria city, with a white population of barely 10,000—if it has that—is allowed four representatives in the local house. Westminster city, with a white population of 5,000, has but one representative, and Vancouver, with a white population of about 9,000, has no representative at all in the provincial legislature. Here's a pretty how-de-do. And the Colonist talking about a "great preponderance!" Verily there is a great preponderance; but it's the other way round. Then, Victoria district, including Esquimalt, has four representatives, while Westminster district, with considerably more population, has but three. The glaring instances we have cited will give some idea of the unsuitableness and inequality of the present distribution of representation in this province. Of course, a good deal of this inequality has arisen from the rapid development of this part of the mainland since the last adjustment. The remedy is obvious—a redistribution of representation on some fair basis of population, for the cities and populated districts of the province. For sparsely settled and outlying districts other considerations must be allowed due weight. We believe that some of these are over-represented at present, and that the number of representatives for the province is more than it should be. We shall not, however, enlarge upon this phase of the subject just now. One thing is certain, that a thorough revision and redistribution of representation for the whole province must be undertaken and carried out before the dissolution of the present provincial parliament, and as only two more sessions remain to that body, there must be some preliminary wrestling next session with what is sure to prove a knotty and discord-breeding problem—although, if carried out in a spirit of strict justice, there is no reason for any serious difficulty or trouble. Victoria, though, as standing for Vancouver Island, must cease to consider itself as a sort of demi-province—having separate and peculiar privileges—and must learn to regard Vancouver Island as a section or district of British Columbia—entitled only to such rights as its comparative proportion, in every respect, to the whole province demands. In this way, and in this way alone, can true union and amicable relations subsist between mainland and island, and equal justice be done to every part of the province.

As our climate is subject to changes at certain seasons of the year, within, however, very temperate limits, the following from the Scientific American will be of interest to housewives especially: It is stated that the sudden change of the weather recently from cold to warm and damp, observes the Philadelphia Times, has caused thousands of dollars of damage to wall paper and other articles in houses. Of course it has, and it is so simply because many people do not study the plainest common sense principles in airing their houses. One evening lately people went to bed with a hunt for extra blankets because of the sudden and severe chill in the atmosphere. When they rose in the morning their bedrooms, parlors, dining rooms, etc., were yet chilly from the cold of the previous day, while the outside atmosphere had suddenly become not only warm, but hot and oppressive with dampness. Inconsiderate people opened their windows and doors because the weather was warm, forgetting that the excessive moisture in the atmosphere would rush in with the warm air and swiftly deposit itself on the cold walls, furniture, etc., and penetrate wall papers, curtains, bedding, and everything within reach that presented a surface colder than the air that carried it into the house. Of course the moisture loosened and discolored paper; made curtains as limp as a wash rag; made beds damp and musty, and generally spoiled everything that water could spoil; but all could have been avoided by following the plain, common sense rule of not opening houses suddenly to suddenly changed atmosphere, carrying an excessive quantity of moisture. A pitcher filled with cold water and placed in a room in summer will "sweat"—at least that is what it is commonly called. The pitcher does not sweat, because it is not porous and cannot sweat; but the cold water inside of it chills the outer surface, and, as soon as the outer surface of the pitcher becomes cooler than the atmosphere in the room, the moisture of the air will be precipitated upon the pitcher in drops. This simple illustration should teach all housewives to avoid suddenly opening rooms in a house when the outside atmosphere is warmer than the temperature of the rooms and full of moisture. In all such cases the wall paper, furniture, etc., being cooler than the outside air, will speedily have the moisture of the atmosphere precipitated upon them, and it will require days to restore the house to the dry condition that is essential to health. There are no arbitrary freaks in the laws which govern the atmosphere surrounding us, and there is nothing abstruse in mastering them. Warm, damp air will ever precipitate its moisture in houses or elsewhere whenever it comes in contact with anything chilled by a cooler atmosphere, and that is the whole story. The only thing to be added is that, when people have thus ignorantly or negligently allowed their houses to become damp, they should light fires and dry them as promply as possible.

Ayer's Sarsaparilla has prevented the usual course of Boils, which have pained and distressed me every season for several years.—G. Scales, Plainville, Mich.

Public Notice

THE ATTENTION OF THE PUBLIC is hereby directed to the "Provincial Health (small-pox) By-Laws, 1888," issued by His Honour the Lieutenant-Governor in Council, under authority of the "Health Ordinance, 1869."

Having been appointed Provincial Health Officer for Districts lying south of Fraser River, I hereby give notice that the provisions of said By-Laws will be strictly enforced, and all persons are required to govern themselves accordingly.

BY-LAWS ISSUED BY HIS HONOUR THE LIEUTENANT-GOVERNOR-IN COUNCIL,

UNDER THE AUTHORITY OF THE "HEALTH ORDINANCE, 1869."

HIS HONOUR THE LIEUTENANT-Governor of British Columbia, by and with the advice of the Executive Council of British Columbia, acting under and by virtue of the provisions of the "Health Ordinance, 1869," enacts as follows:—

1. Whenever small-pox is present in any locality without the boundaries of any Municipality, the Provincial Health Officer nearest to such locality shall at once cause the patient to be removed to an isolated hospital, tent or other suitable place, or cause each person to be otherwise sufficiently isolated, and shall see that he is properly cared for, and shall take proper measures for the disinfection, or, if necessary, the destruction of all clothing which may have been exposed to the contagion, and for the disinfection and purification of every conveyance, rail-car, steamboat, railway, vessel, carriage, or other vehicle which may have been exposed to the contagion.

2. Such Health Officer shall have, in his discretion, full power to place in another building or tent all persons who may have been exposed to the contagion, and shall cause them to be supplied with all necessaries until the period of incubation of the disease shall have elapsed, and no such person shall go, or be permitted to go, abroad, until he or she has given satisfactory proof of successful vaccination within the preceding seven years, or shall have obtained a medical certificate of insusceptibility to the vaccine disease, nor until the clothing or effects worn or carried by or with him or her have been properly disinfected, if the same have been exposed to contagion.

3. To assist the Health Officer, he shall have full power to employ persons to be nurses, sanitary policemen, and otherwise to aid in the prevention of the spread of the disease, and may himself give and enforce such reasonable directions for the same purpose as to him may seem expedient, and the nearest Government Agent shall see that all articles and necessaries required by the Health Officer are furnished.

4. It shall be the duty of every medical practitioner who shall attend upon, or give medical or surgical advice, to or about any person suffering from small-pox, to give notice forthwith after he shall have commenced so to attend or give such advice, to the nearest Provincial Health Officer. When a householder knows that a person within the house occupied by him is taken sick of small-pox, he shall immediately give notice thereof to the nearest Provincial Health Officer.

5. The Provincial Health Officer before mentioned is and includes any person appointed Health Officer under the "Health Ordinance, 1869," by the Lieutenant-Governor in Council.

6. The foregoing provisions shall have no effect within the limits of any Municipality, save as hereinafter mentioned.

7. In case the Council of any Municipality, whenever small-pox is present, or likely to occur therein, shall fail to make or carry out proper provisions to prevent the invasion or spread of small-pox within the Municipality, and complaint thereof shall be made to the Lieutenant-Governor by the Council of any adjacent Municipality, it shall be lawful for the Lieutenant-Governor in Council, acting upon such complaint or in his discretion upon other information, to order that these regulations shall, until otherwise ordered, apply to and be in force within the Municipality in which such neglect occurs, and thereupon any Provincial Health Officer shall have, within and in respect of such Municipality all the authority with which he is clothed in respect of localities without Municipalities, and in such case all disbursements and expenses paid by the Province in the carrying out within such Municipality of the foregoing regulations, shall be paid by such Municipality.

8. These regulations may be cited as the "Provincial Health (small-pox) By-Laws, 1888."

Dated at Victoria, this 3rd day of October, 1888.

JNO. ROBSON,
Provincial Secretary.

"PHIL."

The Story of a Waif.

They were a bent and trembling old man, a white-haired and broken old woman, and as they sat beside the coffin the old man said:

"He was about ten years old. We found him in a basket on our door-step one night in the long ago. We were old people then, but wife she begged that we should take the little stranger in and care for him."

"Because my own children were sleeping under the sod," she explained as she wiped the tears away.

"So we made him our child," resumed the old man, "and in a little time we came to love him as if he had been born to us. He was a strange boy—quiet, gentle, thoughtful, sorrowful. There seemed to be a burden of grief weighing him down. He came to know in time, not from us, but from others—that he was no kin to us, and it troubled him much. Not that he did not love us, but that we were old and poor, and he felt himself a burden upon us. Last night a creditor came and abused us because we could not pay a debt. Little Phil had crept off to bed, but he must have been awake yet and heard every word. The man was angry because we could not pay, and he said something about our picking up paupers to feed and clothe. If it was his case, he said, he'd ship the boy off to the County House."

"I went to say good-night to him," whispered the woman, "but he had his face to the wall and seemed to be asleep. We hoped he had not heard the harsh words, for we knew how they would wound him. Why, sir, if worst came to worst, I'd have gone hungry to give that boy food. He was the bit of sunshine in our lives."

"In the morning when I got up," said the father, "I called to Phil, but he did not answer. I entered the room to find that he had put a rope over one of the clothes-hooks and strangled himself—committed suicide. He must have got up soon after he went to bed, for his body was cold and stiff."

"And—and he left this on the stand," sobbed the woman as she held out a note.

It was written on the leaf of an old memorandum book, and the writing was in pencil. It read:

"I no you wouldn't send me to the county house, but you are poore and in debt. I'd go away if I could, but I doan't no where to go. Doan't feel bad. If God lets me into Heven, I'll see you up there. PHIL."

Mrs. Leland Stanford's Diamonds.

Mrs. Senator Stanford's diamonds are valued at $1,000,000. She has four entire sets which belonged to Queen Isabella of Spain.

It will be remembered that the Queen at one time was in Paris in such needy circumstances that she had to sell her jewels. Governor Stanford bought the jewels at that time.

Each set has tiaras, necklaces, brooches, and earrings, and other ornaments. One set is very beautiful, as the rays which are emitted are of a violet hue. These are the rarest of all diamonds.

Another set gives out rose-colored flashes; another has yellow tints, and the fourth pure white. The price paid for the sets was $600,000.

Outside of these Mrs. Stanford has one necklace which cost $100,000, and the pendant $30,000.

She has also many black diamonds, and has sixty rings of great magnificence; and does not wear any.

She has many pearls and rubies in addition to these diamonds. One of her pearls is valued at $7,000, and is said by Tiffany to be the finest in the world.—[Chicago Inter-Ocean.

A MOTHER'S LOVE.

Some day,
When others braid your thick brown hair,
And drape your form in silk and lace;
When others call you "dear" and "fair,"
And hold your hand and kiss your face,
You'll not forget that far above
All others' is a mother's love.

Some day,
When you must feel love's heavy loss,
You will remember other years,
When I, too, bent beneath the cross,
And mix my memory with thy tears.
In such dark hours be not afraid;
Within their shadows I have prayed.

Some day,
A flower, a song, a word may be
A link between us, strong and sweet;
And then, dear child, remember me!
And let your heart to "mother" beat.
My love is with you everywhere;
You cannot get beyond my prayer.

Some day—
At longest it cannot be long—
I shall with glad impatience wait,
Amid the glory and the song,
For you before the golden gate,
After earth's parting and earth's pain,
Never to part! never again!

The Photographer in Love.

A photographer was in love with a G—— street girl and Saturday night he put the matter to the test.

"Dear Fannie," he said after beating around the bush for an hour or more, "I love you warmly, devotedly, earnestly and tenderly. I have loved you from the first time I met you and now I have the great question to ask, 'Will you, dearest Fannie, be my wife?'"

"No, sir," she responded emphatically.

"Ah," he replied, his artistic sense overcoming his emotional nature, "what a negative that was—clear cut, distinct in every outline, with never a blur or a shadow! I shall preserve it. Good bye."—[Washington Critic.

Society Note.

The Boston Journal relates an incident which demonstrates the admirable savoir faire of the modern society young men.

At a recent party in that city of culture one of these adornments of society claimed a dance from a young lady whom he had engaged in the beginning of the evening.

The fair partner arose with eyes bright in the prospect of the coming dance, but, to her surprise, the young man stood languidly in his place.

"Oh, I don't dance," he kindly said in explanation. "I fill up my order at the beginning of the evening, and converse instead of dancing the rest of the time."

"It Saved My Life"

Is a common expression, often heard from those who have realized, by personal use, the curative powers of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. "I cannot say enough in praise of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral, believing as I do that, but for its use, I should long since have died from lung troubles.—E. Bragdon, Palestine, Tex.

About six months ago I had a severe Hemorrhage of the Lungs, brought on by a distressing Cough, which deprived me of sleep and rest. I had used various cough balsams and expectorants, without obtaining relief. A friend advised me to try

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral.

I did so, and am happy to say that it helped me at once. By continued use this medicine cured my cough, and, I am satisfied, saved my life.—Mrs. E. Coburn, 18 Second st., Lowell, Mass.

I have used Ayer's Cherry Pectoral for over a year, and sincerely believe I should have been in my grave, had it not been for this medicine. It has cured me of a dangerous affection of the lungs, for which I had almost despaired of ever finding a remedy.—D. A. McMullen, Windsor, Province of Ontario.

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral saved my life. Two years ago I took a very severe Cold which settled on my lungs. I consulted physicians, and took the remedies they prescribed, but failed to obtain relief until I began using Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. Two bottles of this medicine completely restored my health.—Lizzie M. Allen, West Lancaster, Ohio. ††

Give Holloway's Corn Cure a trial. It removed ten corns from one pair of feet without pain. What it has done once it will do again.

The Salvation army's "big go" next week will be held on Thursday, 1st Nov., instead of Saturday, the 3rd, as stated yesterday.

Pleasant as syrup; nothing equals it as a worm medicine; the name is Mother Graves' Worm Exterminator. The greatest worm destroyer of the age.

Work was resumed at the Southfield mine of the Vancouver Coal Co. on Monday, the fire being completely extinguished, and the mine placed in its usual condition.

The str. Princess Louise did not leave Victoria till 2 p. m. to-day and will not proceed further than Plumper's Pass to-night. She will arrive at Westminster early to-morrow morning.

The salmon run last night was very light and boats only averaged about 10 each. Scarcely enough salmon is now caught to supply the local demand and shipments to the east have almost entirely stopped.

The experience of years furnishes the most convincing evidence that thousands of lives are annually saved by the use of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. It speedily cures all affections of the throat, bronchial tubes, and lungs.

Mr. H. T. Thrift is in the city, and brings the latest small-pox news from Walworths. All the patients are out of danger and doing well except the youngest boy whose case is still doubtful. There are no new cases.

At sunrise this morning the boys were out with sleds having the first slide of the season on the frosty sidewalks. Their fun only lasted for a few minutes as the warm rays of the sun soon caused the frost to disappear.

It is useless to attempt the cure of any disorder, if the blood is allowed to remain impure. Neuralgia and rheumatism are traceable to a disordered condition of the blood, and in numberless cases have been cured by taking a few bottles of Ayer's Sarsaparilla.

The str. Irving did not leave for Chilliwhack to-day owing to the non-arrival of the str. Princess Louise with which it connects. The late stormy weather has somewhat disturbed the regularity of the service, but on Sundry the regular time-table will be resumed.

A freshet on the Skagit River, W. T., carried away two telegraph poles and a few hundred yards of wire on on Tuesday. On Wednesday the water was running too strong for a boat to cross and it was not until yesterday the break was repaired. No damage of importance is reported.

The board of directors of the Royal Columbia Hospital beg to acknowledge with thanks the sum of $15 from All Saints church, Ladner's Landing, which amount was collected at the harvest thanksgiving services last Sunday; also $5.20 from St. Mary's church, Sapperton, collected at the thanksgiving services last night. Rev. C. Croucher conducted both services.

John Richardson, Illicillewaet, and D. E. Cameron, Victoria, will wrestle another match in Vancouver, the stakes being $500 a side. Deposits have been made with the News Advertiser as stake-holder, and the match will take place on Dec. 8th in Hart's Opera House. It is to be hoped a proper umpire will govern the coming match and that there will be "a fair field and no favor."

On Tuesday during the storm two stages were proceeding from Blaine to Elgin and driving a short distance apart. While passing through a heavily timbered section, four large trees suddenly fell across the road between the stages spoiling the chances of the rear vehicle reaching Elgin that night. With smiling face and many a chuckle the driver of the front stage rapidly transferred the passengers and baggage from the blockaded stage, and during this time the other Johnny gave vent to his disturbed feelings in language somewhat foreign to his early Sunday school education. When all was ready the lucky man tossed a kiss to his friend, and, with a laughing "Ta ta old boy" gathered up the reins and started. Thirty yards had scarcely been covered when down crashed a gigantic cedar directly in front of the horses, and the smiles rapidly dwindled away from the lucky man's face when he found himself unable either to advance or retreat. Strange to relate the unlucky man wore a smile when he saw the plight his confrere had fallen into. After great exertions the stages were got across the blockade and Elgin was reached without further mishap.

Children Cry for Pitcher's Castoria

A Warning.

Only one case came before the police magistrate to-day. It was a plain, ordinary drunk who laid himself down in a public alley and snoozed peacefully for four long hours, notwithstanding and utterly regardless of the sixteenth of an inch of hoar frost that settled on his nose and made that protrusion glint and glitter in the calm moonlight like a cluster of rubies and diamonds. He slept quietly, unobtrusively and soundly till rudely awakened and dragged to the civic corral by the watchful guardians of law and order. The crime was not great, and the punishment (fined $2 50) was merely imposed by the most learned and righteous judge as a reminder to the guilty man that there is danger and death in cold beds at this season of the year.

The Foot-ball Match.

The foot-ball match tomorrow promises to be favored with fine weather, and, if so, a rattling game be expected. The teams chosen to do battle on this occasion are composed as follows:—Vancouver—Boultbee, Downs, Hammersley (captain), Johnson, Robertson, Robinson, Rounsfell, Tatlow, forwards; Crickmay and Elwood, half-backs; Watson, Quick and Palmer, three-quarter backs; Holt, full-back; Springer and Mowat, reserve; C. G. Johnson, umpire. Westminster—Back, Woods; three-quarters backs, Rev. P. Woods, White and Lewis; half backs, Turner and Greame; forwards, Lister, Corbett, McMartin, Hall, Smith, Hartman, Hamber, Pickles and Mowat. Reserve, Bell, Parkes and Wilson. The Vancouverites will leave on the 11 o'clock train, arriving in this city at 12.20 o'clock. The match will commence at 2 o'clock sharp, rain or shine.

The New Company in Charge.

Last evening Mayor Dickinson, Ald. Herring and the other members of the fire committee, along with Capt. Armstrong of the Hyacks, paid a visit to the Hyack fire hall and inspected the apparatus. The condition of things was found to be far from satisfactory, several pieces of the machinery being out of repair and not fit for immediate use. The hand pump was not in working order and it took an hour's work to put it in repair. After everything had been straightened up, Mayor Dickinson, on behalf of the council, formally handed over the engine and all fire apparatus to Mr. J. C. Armstrong, captain of the Hyack fire company as reorganized. The mayor also sent a note to the old company, thanking that body for its services and announcing the transfer of the apparatus. The reorganized company is now in charge and are ready for active duty at a minute's notice. A meeting is called for to-morrow evening at the Hyack hall.

British Columbia Cranberries.

W. H. Vianen has purchased about 250 barrels of cranberries from the Indians since the season opened and expects to receive at least 50 barrels more. The crop this year is either lighter than usual or the Indians have not turned out in as large force as in other years. In seasons when the berries are plentiful Mr. Vianen usually receives from 500 to 800 barrels, all of which comes from the marshes near the mouth of the river. San Francisco is the best market found for these berries, the demand being large and prices always good. Mr. Vianen has filled one order for 50 barrels at $10 per barrel but will not sell any more at that price, which is certainly very low. The British Columbia cranberry commands the highest price on the market, being acknowledged superior to all others. The quantity of acid in our wild cranberries is something remarkable, and it is said they require double as much sweetening as any other. The more acid the cranberry contains the more superior it is in quality. Mr. Vianen will endeavor to make a shipment to Manitoba if he can get reasonable freight rates and a fair price.

Straws in the Wind.

Straws are said to indicate the direction of the wind. So certain signs, small in themselves, relatively speaking, may be taken as a fair gauge of the commercial prosperity and general progress of a community. Many of these "straws," which we shall not enumerate here, demonstrating that a most favorable trade wind has set in in our direction, are patent to the most casual observer in the Royal City. One of these indications we shall notice briefly. A COLUMBIAN representative, attracted by the appearance of improvements and additions which have lately been going on in connectiion with the New Westminster Foundry on Front street, waited on the manager, Mr. Robert Law, who kindly furnished a few facts and figures to the inquisitive news-gatherer, which we give to the public. The new addition to the foundry, nearly completed now, measures 60x25 feet, and is two stories high. The first floor will be used for a machine shop, and the second floor for a pattern room and for general wood-work. More improvements are in prospect, and it is intended to have a sale and show rooms on Columbia street, with an inclined tramway to the workshops on Front street. It is Mr. Law's intention, also, to place considerable new machinery in his establishment in the next few months. Among the specialties to be manufactured, and for which there is an increasing demand, is agricultural machinery, embracing hay-presses, revolving harrows, breaking plows, stumping machines, turnip-choppers, hay choppers, &c. The New Westminster foundry turns out superior work, and in a few months, when the present and prospective improvements are completed, will be in a position to give the utmost satisfaction in nearly all classes of work. Mr. Law will let the people of this city and province know what his foundry can do, through the columns of the daily and weekly COLUMBIAN, on the first of next month.

Job printing of all kinds neatly done at the COLUMBIAN office. Prices will be found as low as at any other office in the province.—Adv.

LILLOOET JOTTINGS.

Notes about the Bonanza and other Ledges---A Bold Scheme--Political Notes.

From Mr. H. J. Keary, of Lillooet, who is in the city on a short visit, we obtain the following interesting notes about mining and other matters in Lillooet and vicinity. Mr. H. C. Probert, a mining expert, representing the Rothschilds, Baring Brothers, and other English capitalists, and superintendent of rich mines in Nevada on behalf of English capital, inspected the Bonanza, near Lillooet, a few weeks ago, taking away several specimens of quartz. The owners of the Bonanza have called for tenders to run a tunnel 100 feet into the mountain, following the ledge. The work, it is expected, will be commenced almost immediately, and will be completed early this winter. The tunnel may be extended more than 100 feet, and should test the ledge pretty thoroughly. Rich discoveries may be looked for, as the Bonanza is considered a promising gold-bearing quartz ledge.

Mr. J. M. Jensen, representing Victoria capitalists, discovered recently, at the head of Anderson lake, about 35 miles from Lillooet, a ledge of galena ore, assaying $130 of silver to the ton. This is a valuable discovery, and will probably be worked before long.

A BOLD SCHEME.

Fader Bros., of Vancouver, sawmill owners and operators, intend, if it is ascertained to be practicable, to go into a somewhat daring phase of the lumbering business. This is none other than a scheme to bring white pine logs from Bridge river, about 30 miles above Lillooet, as the crow flies. Bridge river is a tributary of the Fraser, and runs through a district prolific in the somewhat scarce but incomparable white pine. Fader Bros. propose to fell the trees and shoot the logs down the rapids of Bridge river and through the boiling canyons of the Fraser as far as Hope, where a boom would be fixed, and the logs rafted from that point down the river to the markets. They also propose to follow the logs up in canoes and help them out of eddies and over obstructions. The experiment will prove an interesting one at any rate, and should they succeed, the results will be important.

POLITICAL NOTES.

Mr. F. S. Barnard, a candidate for the commons, to fill the vacancy created by Mr. Reid's appointment to the senate, was at Lillooet about the 1st inst., making himself "solid" with the voters (a process, by the way, which often follows the law of contraries—no insinuations in the present case—and implies the dispensing of unlimited "liquids.")

Mr. R. McLeese, another candidate for the same position, was down from Soda Creek, about a week afterwards, pulling up his opponent's stakes and making himself "solid." The contest will, it is believed, be very close at Lillooet, although the good Lillooettes naturally have a little objection to Mr. Barnard on the ground of his non-residence on the mainland.

From the Yukon.

Mr. James McCauley, who lately arrived from the Yukon country, wintered with Mr. Wm. Ogilvie, of the geological survey at Forty-Mile Creek on that river. He says that he heard from a Church of England clergyman and his wife, who had arrived at the Yukon, that Mr. Ogilvie had succeeded in safely reaching the Peel river about the 15th or 17th of July, with all well. Mr. McCauley was for nearly four years in the Yukon country, mining, and describes it as the hardest country ever visited by a white man. The placer mining would pay pretty well if worked by machinery. The quartz promises fair, but the difficulty would be that machinery could not be easily worked during the winter. The coldest last winter was 56 deg. below zero, which was considered very moderate weather. Mr. McCauley has ordered machinery through the Alaska Commercial Co. and they will deliver it up the Stewart River 1900 miles from St. Michaels. The river breaks up about the middle of May and closes up in October. The summer season is pleasant with very little vegetation growing. Game is rather scarce. The King salmon in the Yukon is the largest and finest in the world. The Yukon river is a fine large stream and navigable for over two thousand miles and in some places from ten to twelve miles wide. Mr. McCauley returns in the spring via Chilcot.—Times.

PERTH, Oct. 18.—Some time since the Very Rev. Dean O'Connor wrote Mr. Haggart, strongly urging that the Tay canal should be enlarged forty feet further south. This letter was subsequently backed up by a numerously signed petition of citizens. The engineers approve of the enlargement and the work will be done.

QUEBEC, Oct. 18.—The local government last night issued a proclamation offering a reward of $1,200 for the arrest of Donald Morrison, the Megantic outlaw.

WINNIPEG, Oct. 22.—The Canadian Pacific has issued a new grain tariff, extending the reductions recently made to a number of new points.

The tariffs of the Northern Pacific have also been issued. They show a decided reduction on merchandise between Duluth or St. Paul and Winnipeg.

WINNIPEG, Oct. 23.—The freight rates on merchandise between Winnipeg and Port Arthur and between Winnipeg and the east have been reduced by the Canadian Pacific to meet Northern Pacific competition. The Manitoba road is also making cuts.

TORONTO, Oct. 23.—A season of religious awakening similar to that which recently prevailed at Mercier reformatory has begun at the central prison. Over three hundred prisoners asked Warden Massey yesterday to sanction a convicts prayer meeting and he consented to allow them to hold one every Tuesday evening.

OTTAWA, Oct. 23.—A force of 160 mounted police will form a patrol along the boundary of southern Manitoba beginning about the middle of November. The patrol will be on the lookout for timber stealers from Dakota.

Fisheries' Inpector Mowat is here with his bride, en route to Westminster. He says it has been decided by the fisheries officials of the maritime provinces to defer the shipment of live lobsters to the Pacific coast until next spring. The lobsters will be more vigorous then, and the department will have the experience of the States experiment to go by.

Book publishers propose to interview the government against the endorsation of the Berne copyright covention for Canada on the ground that it would ruin their interests.
