CANADA'S CASE SETTLED

Hayashi's Clear Statement to Diet of Japan—Has Written Definition of Reasonable Limit.

Tokio, Jan. 28.—Replying to interpellations in the lower house of the diet this evening, Foreign Minister Viscount Hayashi spoke at length on the foreign policy of the government including the negotiations with the United States and Canada.

He announced that the Canadian question has been definitely settled and read the correspondence with Rodolphe Lemieux, the Canadian commissioner of labor, wherein Japan has agreed to restrict emigration to Canada within reasonable limits. He said that a memorandum attached thereto defined what is considered reasonable limits, but insisted that Japan had not conceded any of her treaty rights nor had her prestige suffered. Viscount Hayashi said further that certain negotiations with China were unsettled. Referring to the Sinmintum-Fakoui railroad regarding which a protest had been presented to China, regarding the Kantoa boundary dispute in Korea, he said that Japan occupied the position of arbitrator and would decide according to the merits of the evidence.

Viscount Hayashi, continuing, said it was the duty of the central government to conserve the interests of the Japanese subjects resident in other countries by preventing a further exodus of their countrymen which might be prejudicial to those already abroad, and the restrictions therefore could be extremely rigid.

One speaker in reply said that if China refused to listen to reason, Japan should send a military force and compel her to do so.

Viscount Hayashi laughingly turned the tables on the speaker by asking him if he would guarantee the result of the expedition.

Good humored throughout, Viscount Hayashi raised considerable laughter by his ready response to the opposition which did not develop any antagonism to the government's policy toward emigration.

EVIDENCE IS CONCLUDED

Second Trial of Harry Thaw All Over Except Argument of Counsel—Issue is Insanity.

New York, Jan. 28.—The Thaw case progressed to within a few hours of its close today. By the time noon recess was taken the state had practically concluded its case in rebuttal and the defence had only a few witnesses to call in sur rebuttal. The summing up of the attorneys will begin tomorrow.

District Attorney Jerome cause a distinct surprise by announcing that he would call no expert witnesses to rebut the testimony of the alienists introduced by the defense.

New York, Jan. 28.—Before the opening of the state's case in rebuttal in the Thaw case today, there was a conference of counsel having as its object the arrangement of a compromise as to admitting certain evidence, principally the copy of the Evelyn Nesbitt affidavit supposed to have been made in Abraham Hummel's office. District Attorney Jerome offered to let in Harry Thaw's will by consent if Mr. Littleton would admit the affidavit. This arrangement would do away with the necessity of taking Hummel's testimony on Blackwell's Island and would also hasten the conclusion of the case. No arrangement had been announced, however, when the morning proceedings were taken up. The state began by calling several eye witnesses to the tragedy who declared that Thaw's conduct impressed them as rational. One of the witnesses was Warner Paxson, engineer of Madison Square Garden. He said that just before the killing of Stanford White one of the performers on the stage made a remark about challenging somebody in duel.

"Was the performer who passed the remark Harry Hudson?" asked Assistant District Attorney Garvin.

"I don't know. Harry Thaw's shouts followed the remark so quickly I thought at first they were part of the play."

"that's all." Mr. Littleton caused a smile by saying he could not think of any questions to ask the witness.

"With the exception of the testimony of Mr. Hummel, this is all the evidence the state will have to offer," said Mr. Jerome. It has been rumored for some time that the district attorney would not call any insanity experts on rebuttal.

Dr. Francis Maguire, the Tombs physician, was called by Mr. Jerome to testify as to Thaw's conduct in jail, but his testimony was barred out when Mr. Littleton raised the objection as to professional privilege between physician and patient.

Here Mrs. Jerome sprang a surprise by calling Roger O'Meara, former chief o detectives of Pittsburg, to the stand. O'Meara has been a prominent figure in the Thaw defense work. Mr. Jerome asked him if he had been connected with the Pittsbug detective force and upon receiving an affirmative reply said and this statement confirmed it.

It was reported Mr. Jerome would contend in his summing up to the jury that no competent case of mental irresponsibility under the law had been made out by the defense.

Another conference of attorneys followed Mr. Jerome's announcement. It was finally agreed that Hummel's testimony at the last trial should be read to the jury and that the Thaw will also should be read. Hummel is now confined in the penitentiary on Blackwell's Island, serving a sentence for subordination of perjury. The reading of Hummel's testimony was still in progress when the luncheon adjournment was ordered.

Both prosecution and defense in the Thaw case finally rested at 3.16 o'clock this afternoon.

Neglected in Death.

Florence, Jan. 28.—The funeral of "Ouida" yesterday was a most pitiful epilogue to her pitiful end as she died amid squalor and poverty and her body was followed to the grave only by a dozen dogs she had starved herself to feed, and her faithful maid to whom she left her last manuscripts. The body was buried in the English cemetery at Bagni di Lucca, and the spot is marked only by a wooden cross.

From His Grandfather's Table.

Brockton, Mass., Jan. 28.—A violin, which is the property of King Edward of England, has just been completed by Archibald McIntosh, a violin maker of Brocton. The instrument is made of curly maple, the wood having been taken from an ancient table once the property of the Duke of Kent.

Turkey's Old Game.

Constantinople, Jan. 28.—The Porte has made its reply to the representations made by the Russian ambassador here to the effect that Turkey has permitted her troops to invade and occupy the town of Sunjbulak in Persia. In its answer the government of the Sultan denies that there has been any violation of Persian territory by the Turkish troops. The Russian and British ambassadors have counselled the Porte to avoid a conflict in Persia.

Calm at Buenos Ayres.

Buenos Ayres, Jan. 28.—Following the promulgation of an executive decree closing the congress, large forces of police yesterday occupied the conressional building to prevent the senators and deputies from attempting to take possession. The troops were still confined to barracks, it is stated to be largely as a measure of precaution. At present there are no indications of disturbances anywhere.

FORGET QUARREL

City and West Kootenay Company

AIMING AT AGREEMENT

L. A. Campbell Addresses Council—Zinc Company's Request—Proposal to Stop Street Cars.

The beginning of negotiations between the city and the West Kootenay Power and Light Co., looking to insurance of the city against accidents to its own plant, was made last night, and was not auspicious. Manager L. A. Campbell resents the treatment accorded himself and his company for many years by a part of Nelson, and hints that he may prefer to break off all business relations. There is still a prospect of Mr. Campbell's acceding to the Mayor's suggestion that the past should be ignored and business relations continued.

The mayor made an important suggestion regarding the tramway, that the service be discontinued.

Many important matters were dealt with, and, of necessity, left unfinished. The meeting lasted over three hours.

The council met at 8 o'clock with Mayor Taylor in the chair, and Aldermen Procter, Kerr, Hale, Patenaude, Steed and McMorris present. The minutes of the last meeting were read and adopted.

The fire, water and light committee reported recommending that the city install a high voltage transmission line through the city along a route to be approved by the city electrician, at a cost not to exceed $3,500, the Canada Zinc company to pay ten per cent. of the cost of construction annually, give the city the light and motor load at their plant, and to give also their smelter load when the city is in a position to furnish them.

The report was taken up clause by clause.

R. S. Lennie, who appeared for the Canada Zinc company, could not accept the conditions. The company could not at present afford to divide its patronage. The city cannot now supply it with electric power. Their only available source is the West Kootenay Power and Light company. They ask only for franchise to lead their transmission line through the city. They are willing to build that at their own expense or to pay a reasonable rental if the city prefers to build, own and operate the line. He could assent to no stipulation as to future patronage in the matter of power. He dwelt on the future advantage to be derived by the city from the operation of the plant, and urged that no onerous conditions should be attached to the concession asked.

The mayor thought that, as it was likely that the city must shortly install another unit, the council must safeguard every available market by guarantees.

Ald. Hale informed the mayor that these matters had not arisen in conference with the committee.

Ald. Procter asked if the city could not in the meanwhile purchase surplus power and be in the position of vendor to the Zinc company.

Mr. Lennie replied that all their negotiations had been based upon the assumption that the city could not, during the present year at least, supply the power required.

The mayor repeated that the city could not give away its natural adjacent markets, and recommended another conference between Mr. Lennie and the committee.

Mr. Lennie urged that the city agree to the company's request for the present, the agreement to terminate at the end of the year. He said that further delay would be most unsatisfactory and begged for a decision.

The mayor thought the suggestion was excellent but thought it should be referred back to the committee.

Ald. Hale, chairman, could not see anything to be gained by a further reference without concessions by the company on one or both of the points in dispute, who should incur the original cost of building the line, and, whether there should be any condition attached as to future patronage.

On the mayor's suggestion, the matter was referred back to the committee.

The second clause of the report recommended that the Kootenay Engineering Works be required to connect their motor with the electric system within ten days. This was adopted.

The mayor reported for the special committee that it was tentatively agreed that the Allis-Chalmers-Bullock company should restore the draught tube and attach it, and the city attend to the bracing. Other matters are not yet settled.

Mr. Lennie—Without prejudice to either company or city.

The mayor's report of progress was adopted, and instructions were continued.

The questions between the city and the West Kootenay Power and Light company were then by resolution referred back from the fire, water and light committee to the full council.

L. A. Campbell, by request, addressed the council on the subject of the retainer. First he asked what was to be done about his verbal agreement with Mayor Gillett for the payment of the retainer.

The mayor—Personally, I am in favor of paying all our just debts whether acknowledged in writing or not.

Mr. Campbell—My understanding is that the agreement dated from the expiry of the substation agreement, about Jan. 21st.

While the ciy clerk looked up the agreement the mayor asked Mr. Campbell if his company were willing to continue the arrangement.

Mr. Campbell replied that he did not think that Nelson wanted his company in the city. He was not anxious to do business in the city. They had never seen any sign of welcome, and had now completed arrangements for removing their apparatus from the substation.

The mayor remarked that matters of history need not be revived. The present council was prepared to talk business without prejudice.

Mr. Campbell thought the circulation of "The Campaigner" indicated the survival of all the prejudice.

The mayor and Ald. Procter disclaimed any responsibility for the paper mentioned.

Mr. Campbell explained that the fee of $1,000 retainer was agreed upon when the company was also supplying the Hall Mines smelter.

Asked for a proposition he suggested taking over the city's lighting on a rental or percentage basis.

The mayor assured him that such an offer could not be considered.

Mr. Campbell further explained that for the past year he had kept prepared to supply Nelson. The business in the Boundary as well as at Trail and Rossland was so extensive that he feared the cost to Nelson of reserving power and keeping it regulated, would be considered excessive.

At the mayor's request Mr. Campbell promised to submit a proposition in one week. He remarked on the benefits conferred upon Kootenay and Boundary by the operation of the Bonnington plant. He regretted that all interests in Kootenay had not cooperated from the beginning. If the company had not been hampered by the city of Nelson they would furnish the zinc plant with power free for a year.

Mr. Campbell agreed in the interval to leave his plant at the substation in working order, pending the submission of his proposition. He agreed also to meet the fire, water and light committee within a week.

Mr. Lennie arranged to meet the fire, water and light committee tonight at 8 o'clock in the city hall.

A letter was read from ex-Mayor Gillett in reference to the power plant machinery, asking for a written request and reasons. He pointed out the injustice to him of so sudden a notice in view of the arrangements he had made. He also offered to purchase the second boiler which was valueless until he had it repaired.

Ald. Procter thought if the machinery were not needed Mr. Gillett should be allowed to retain it as long as he needed it. Of course if it were required by the city, there could be no delay.

The mayor explained that the machinery is absolutely needed at the plant at once. He regretted the street gossip which represented the move as deliberately unfriendly to ex-Mayor Gillette. If an assurance to the contrary were desired he would gladly favor such being given. He saw no reason for refusing Mr. Gillett's offer for the boiler.

The mayor's suggestion was unanimously agreed to, and the city clerk was so instructed on motion of Aldermen Steed and Hale, the latter suggesting that the immediate need was "the only reason" for the request.

The finance committee reported progress on the school board estimates. Ald. McMorris stating that they had asked the board for some details.

The committee also recommended a number of accounts aggregating $4,721.21, and a payroll of $95.95.

The report was adopted and accounts ordered paid.

The city clerk then reported that the boiler Mr. Gillett wanted had cost $297.50, but was useless at the time it had passed to him.

Ald. Kerr questioned the expediency of selling it till sure of the efficiency of the city's other boiler.

It was agreed to leave it with Mr. Gillett in the meantime, and give him a definite reply as soon as possible.

The tramway and health committee reported, recommending the purchase of a wagon for the scavenging department, and the connecting of Baker street buildings with a sewer through the alley between Baker and Victoria streets from Hall to Stanley, and the extension of the Baker street sewer from Hendryx to Cedar street.

Ald. Patenaude suggested that the engineer estimate the cost of work proposed, and that the report be considered at the next meeting.

Ald. Steed drew attention to several instances of failure to comply with the sewer bylaw.

A letter from J. H. Boyes complained of a shortage in his November time cheque, and asked for a hearing on his dismissal by R. A. Brown.

The clerk explained the dismissal of the matter at the council meeting of Dec. 16th.

Ald. McMorris thought the matter had been fully dealt with before.

The mayor added that they must leave certain discretion to the heads of departments.

Ald. Patenaude thought sufficient had been heard of it. The letter was filed.

A letter from the Canadian Municipal Journal asking for lantern views of Nelson, was referred to the 20,000 club.

A letter from the Union of British Columbia Municipalities invited delegates and recommendations to the annual meeting to be held in Nanaimo on Feb. 3rrd.

The letter was filed.

The statement of school expenditure, audited, for 1907 was received and read, as follows:

Publis School, salaries.....
Public School, salaries.....	$ 9,949.25
High School, salaries.....	3,475.00

Estimated	$16,550.00

The statement was filed.

The finance committee's estimates for different committees and departments were referred to them, without being read, to be reported back at the next meeting.

The council then informally discussed several matters, including the future installation of a second unit of the power plant, and financial preparation for it.

Copies of the Municipal Clauses Act for the use of the council were ordered.

The mayor directed attention to the increasing deficits on the operation of the tramway. He thought it far greater than the city could afford, and that the advertisement is too dearly bought. He favored protecting the Tramway company's charter and suspending operations. Even making a liberal allowance for preventable waste, the loss this year must be estimated at about $5,600.

R. A. Brown reported the track in good condition but all other parts of the system in very bad condition.

Ald. Patenaude favored discontinuance. The question was referred to the tramway committee.

It was resolved to restrict coasting to Silica street.

At the mayor's request Ald. McMorris was appointed acting mayor during the mayor's absences from the city.

Warden Jarvis' offer to employ the gaol gang in the recreation grounds was granted, the work to be done under the direction of the city engineer after conference with the Agricultural society.

The council then adjourned to Feb. 3rd after passing January salaries.

CZAR'S SUIT IN CANADA

Russian Emperor is Plaintiff in High Court Action at Winnipeg—Governor Absconded.

Winnipeg, Jan. 28.—One of the most extraordinary lawsuits that was ever heard in the court of King's Bench for Manitoba was instituted today. The plaintiff is Czar Nicholas of Russia and he is suing for a large sum of money invested in Winnipeg real estate by his absconding treasurer of the department of the interior of Turkestan, who ran away with 340,000 roubles some time ago, and who has since been living quietly in this city. Stefan Proskmachoff is his name and with him is a lady of high degree, Countess Annie Zeman, who accompanied him when he fled from Turkestan. Since arriving in Winnipeg Proskmachoff has invested heavily in city property in the name of the woman. It is in order to get this property turned over to His Imperial Majesty that the present suit is instituted. The defense will put up a vigorous fight and the case will excite great interest on account of the high interests involved.

THE CITY TRAMWAY.

With every respect for the motives that inspired Mayor Taylor in recommending investigation of the financial results of the operation of the tramway system, with a view to its possible discontinuance, we dissent in toto from his opinions as to its expediency.

The question whether the original investment of money in a tramway system for Nelson was wise or unwise is now irrelevant. Whether the council of 1904 was well advised or not in taking over the operation of the system, is also irrevelant. The only thing to be considered now is the present situation as it confronts the council, the taxpayers and the citizens in general.

Nelson is the only city in Canada between New Westminster and Winnipeg which has an electric street car system. The New Westminster system is an adjunct of the Vancouver system. It was operated for years at a loss, but the company never thought of so retrogressive a step as suspending operation. The service is now paying a profit.

The fact that Nelson has a street car system is well known and has a value as an advertisement which is hard to estimate. We believe that on this ground alone an excellent case could be made out for the continued maintenance of the service even at a very great financial sacrifice.

If the question of installing an electric car system were presented to the citizens now for the first time there would be room for argument as to whether the ultimate benefits would be proportionate to the cost. But the system has been in operation now for seven years. The question now is: "What will it cost Nelson to abandon it?"

Everyone knows that the company which built the line seven years ago, did not expect that it would earn profits from the beginning. It was an heroic enterprise for a small town of between 3,000 and 4,000 inhabitants. It was built and its operation begun in hope and confidence that the future held good things in store for Nelson, and that ultimately the courage and faith of the investors would meet with substantial reward.

Are we prepared now to advertise to the world that we have lost that hope and that confidence?

We are in the money markets now trying to sell $60,000 worth of school debentures. Very soon we must face another issue of debentures to install a second unit of our power plant, to which we are now so heavily pledged. Can anyone conceive of a more deadly blow to our credit than an acknowledgment that we can not now, and never expect to be able to maintain a street car system, which the Nelson of 1899 and 1900 considered a fair enterprise?

The name "Progressive Party," has figured in Nelson's municipal politics for five years. A majority, if not all, of the members of the present council have at different times been connected with that party. They have asserted that, in contradistinction to other municipal parties in Nelson, they stood for progress, for confidence in the future, such confidence as launched the city power plant enterprise which is only justified by the great expectations of Nelson's future which we all profess to share. Is it consistent with the professions of men who call themselves Progressives to advocate the first retrograde step in the city's history?

This is the first and greatest consideration. But there are many others.

The operation of the tramway system has encouraged the growth of the city. We have a populous and growing suburb to the east, and to the south of the city, up the hill in every direction, citizens have built homes, easy of access by means of street cars, very inconvenient without. It is quite true that many of the residents of such suburbs do not at present contribute directly to the city's revenue. That is only a matter of time. Even now they are all working in and for Nelson. Further even within the city limits proximity to the car line is an important factor in fixing the value of residential property.

Other cities, notably San Diego, have faltered in their course as it is now proposed that Nelson should do, have abandoned enterprises begun in hope and attempted a policy of so called retrenchment. In every case the result has been disastrous, and such cities have later, at greater cost, been compelled by their own business men to reverse the retrograde policy and face the front again.

There are scores of other arguments that might be urged—the loss of business to Nelson merchants if suburban customers lose their means of access to the city, the enjoyment by the citizens and their families of the recently acquired Lake Park which will be hardly used at all in the summer if young children have to be carried all the way, the inevitable discontinuance of the Sunday afternoon concerts which are a delight to the summer traveller who has so far always chosen Nelson as his week end resting place.

We trust that before the tramway committee presents any recommendation to the council on the subject there will be so strong and so general an expression of opinion as will convince all concerned that Nelson has not yet lost hope and faith, that this is one economy she will never practise, and so give an unfortunate proposal its final quietus.

NAVAL OFFICERS RETIRE.

Rear Admiral Berry and Captain Colby Reach Age Limit.

Washington, D. C., Jan. 28.—Seldom does it happen that two of the highest ranking officers of the navy are retired for age on the same day, but this was the case with Rear Admiral Robert M. Berry and Captain G. O. Colby, who were placed on the retired list today on account of having reached the age of 62 years. Captain Colby, by special act of the president and senate, was retired with the rank of rear admiral, the grade to which he would have been promoted in the regular course of events by the retirement of Rear Admiral Berry, had the dates for their retirements not fallen on the same day.

Both officers have had long and active carreers in the navy. Rear Admiral Berry comes from Kentucky and was graduated from the naval academy in 1866. Since that time he has served in all the various duties of a naval officer. During the war with Spain he commanded the United States steamship Castine. In recent years he has been in command of the navy yards at Charleston, Pensacola and Norfolk.

Rear Admiral Colby is a native of New Bedford, Mass. There he learned to love the sea, his grandfather being the owner of a large whaling fleet that sailed from that port in the palmy days of the whaling industry. He was appointed to the naval academy in 1863 and graduated in time to see some active service during the closing days of the civil war. In 1904, when only a captain, he was sent to Europe to bring the European squadron home, and flying his senior officer's flag from Dewey's flagship, the Olympia, he piloted the vessels successfully to the Caribbean, where the whole North Atlantic fleet was engaged in maneuvers. Later he took a special service squadron to Havana. Recently he has been in command of the New England recruiting station.

New Archbishop.

Boston, Jan. 28.—Arrangements have been completed for one of the most notable Roman Catholic ceremonies that has ever taken place here, when Archbishop O'Connell will be invested with the pallium tomorrow. The ceremony will take place in the Cathedral of the Holy Cross and will be attended by scores of prelates and priests from all over New England. Archbishop O'Connell will receive the symbol of full archiepiscopal authority from the hands of Cardinal Gibbons. The sermon will be preached by the Very Reverend L. F. Kearney, O. P., of Washington, D. C.

The pallium is the official insignia of an archbishop and before its investiture it receives the blessing of the Holy Father at Rome. It consists of a woolen stole and is worn about the neck. The bestowal of the pallium is always a ceremony of much magnificence and splendor.

Nelson and Scaler Ready.

Los Angeles, Cal., Jan. 28.—Battling Nelson and "Kid" scaler have completed their work of preparation and are ready to step into the ring at Tom McCarey's club tonight. Nelson is confident of carrying off the honors. The result means much to him in view of his plans to fight his way to the top again in order to be in a position todemand a return fight with Joe Gans for the championship.

PECULIAR LAW SUIT.

Repudiated Wife Sues Estates for Widow's Rights.

Ottawa, Jan. 28.—A local sensation has been caused by the return of Mrs. J. Warnock to the capital and her announcement that she will start a legal fight to legitimatize her four children. The case is unique in Canada. James Warnock, one of the several sons who each inherited a fortune upon the death of their father some years ago, recently left his wife and four grown-up children and married a young woman named McCallum. He stated that he was not married to the woman known as his wife and with whom he had lived for fourteen years. He went to Brockville about two months ago after disposing of his property here, and about ten days ago died suddenly, leaving an estate of nearly $100,000. His former wife now appears with a claim that the dead man married her in Ogdensburg in 1891 and says she has the marriage certificate. She announces her determination to fight the case. A big legal battle is looked for. The will of the deceased leaves $5,000 to each of the above four children, but the residue of the estate is given to the woman who he married two months ago.

Irish Problems Lead.

London, Jan. 28.—Keen interest is manifested in the opening of Parliament tomorrow, as the session promises to be one of the most important since the Campbell-Bannerman ministry came into power. If all the legislation promised for the coming session is forecasted in the speech from the throne, the members of the House of Commons will have a stupendous task before them, and the usual session of six months will have to be supplemented by an autumn session. Irish affairs are expected to have the foremost place on the agenda, though just what turn the proceedings will take in relation to this ever-present problem is uncertain. After Ireland, in point of public interest, will come an education bill and a drastic licensing bill.

Court-Martial of Navy Paymaster.

Washington, D. C., Jan. 28.—The trial by court-martial of Paymaster Walter L. Wilson, U. S. N., was begun at the Washington navy yard today, Pay Inspector Samuel McGowan acting as judge advocate. Paymaster Wilson is charged with alleged inefficiency in the performance of duty.

False Pretenses.

Y. P. S.

Fire Water and Light Committee.

The fire, water and light committee of the city council will meet at 8 p. m. tonight in the city hall to further consider the application of the Canada Zinc company for the privilege of building a transmission line through the city, and conferring with R. S. Lennie, solicitor for the company. The members of the committee are Aldermen Hale, McMorris and Patenaude.

Not Ignoring City.

On account of an evident misunderstanding in some quarters of the attitude of the Canada Zinc company, it may be explained that it was not until authoritatively informed that the city could not supply them with power at present that the company began negotiations with the West Kootenay Power and Light company, and then with the full approval of the late council.

Church Indebtedness Cleared.

At the Sunday Service in the Church of Mary Immaculate, the Rev. Father Althoff announced the clearing off of the sacred edifice. Some time ago the mortgage was redeemed and handed to His Lordship Bishop Dontenwell; but a small balance of the original cost of the church, some $8,000, remained. The recent socials and contributions aided materially to paying off the small debt, and the Father, who has been so energetic in the work, congratulated the congregation on the ownership of this valuable structure. When he took charge of the parish the debt was large, but with infomitable self-sacrifice he undertook and carried out the collection and payment of the balance due.
