BURNS CHAMPION

Squires Knocked Out in First Round

LOSER WAS A FAVORITE

Fight Scheduled to Go 45 Rounds Came to Sudden and Unexpected End—Betting on Australian.

4 p. m.—Tommy Burns is the victor. Squires was knocked out in the first round.

San Francisco, July 4.—One of the principal events in the sporting world this year is the 45-round glove contest between Bill Squires, the Australian champion, and Tommy Burns, of Canada, for the heavyweight championship of the world, a large percentage of the gate receipts and a side bet of $5,000. The fight is one of the most important events in pugilistic circles since J. J. Jeffries'—the undefeated heavyweight champion, who will referee the contest—abdication aroused international interest in sporting circles. What adds interest to the fight is the appearance in the arena of Jeffries as referee and his declaration last night that he will reenter the ring and fight the Australian if Squires is victorious. The arena, having a seating capacity of 8,00, has been completed. The advance sales are in the neighborhood of $12,000. Promotor James Cofferil gave out a statement last night that he expected a $21,000 house.

Betting on the fight veered last night from 10 to 7 on Squires, which has stood for some time, to 10 to 9. This was caused by the appearance of considerable Burns money. The prediction is that the betting will be at even money when the men enter the ring. This, however, has been somewhat overdrawn, and the Antipodean will doubtless step into the ring a favorite.

Squires, it is stated, will have an understanding with the referee in the ring today that no one will have the right to toss up the sponge for him. He said that he never has and never will give anyone the right to stall off defeat in his behalf. Both men are in excellent condition, Squires will enter the ring at 182 pounds and Burns at 179. Besides three pounds in weight the Australian has the advantage of three and a half inches in height and half an inch in reach over the Canadian. It was announced last night by Burns that Prof. Lewis would be his chief second and that Jimmy Burns, George Memsic and George Brown, his sparring partner, will be in the corner with him. Barney Reynolds will be the chief second for Squires and will be assisted by Tim McGrath, Eddie Hanlon, Martin Murphy and Jim Russell.

The impression prevails that Burns will let Squires do the forcing for the first few rounds in the expectation that the Australian will tire himself. Jeffries finally prevailed upon Burns yesterday not to wear his pneumatic belt attachment, which has been the cause of trouble and argument before. "I look for a good fight," said Jeffries last night, "I don't see why Squires is so much of a favorite for he is an unknown quantity, Burns is better than the Pacific coast fight fans think. If Squires wins and if the public wants it, and if there is enough money in sight, I will fight him.

"I haven't fully decided on my style of fighting," said Burns, "I always select my fighting method after I have measured my man. I never felt more sure of winning in my life."

"I don't expect the fight to go over 15 rounds," was Squires' statement. "I am in perfect condition and the fight will be on the square.

Many sporting men from Los Angeles, the Nevada gold fields, and other points arrived last night and this morning.

GERMAN JOKE

Dr. Peters Only Talked of Shooting—It Never Happened.

Berlin, July 4.—There were dramatic scenes at the trial in Munich of the libel suit of Dr. Carl Peters against the Munich Post. Dr. Peters is suing the Post for accusing him of being guilty of cruelty to natives while he was German imperial commissioner in East Africa in 1891.

Dr. Bebel, the Socialist leader in the Reichstag, was on the stand and succeeded in convicting Peters of cruelty by quoting passages from a book that Peters himself wrote. Peters protested excitedly that the passages quoted were written in a spirit of humor. One of the sentences read:

"We shot them (the natives) off the trees like sparrows."

Other of the passages were of similar import.

There was a long fight between Peters and the judge about getting at the name of the person from whom Bebel got the information he used in the Reichstag in denouncing Peters. Bebel succeeded in maintaining his refusal to disclose the name.

The proceedings were constantly interrupted by noisy partizan demonstrations in the court room.

GALLANT RESCUE.

Boy of 15 Years Saved Three Men From Drowning at Niagara.

Niagara Falls, Ont., July 4.—A 15-year-old boy named Dick Carpenter was the means of saving three men from drowning in the Lower Niagara river. James Stewart, of Queenston, and James Scot and Hector Lidger, of Lewiston, all fishermen, while out on the river in a skiff, got caught in the whirlpool below Boiling Rock. Youpng Carpenter saw their plight and put out in another small boat to their aid. Scott and Lidger were able to catch the boat and climb in, but Stewart was helpless. Just as Stewart rose for the last time Lidger managed to catch him, but could not get him into the boat. Scott and Carpenter pulled the boat to the shore, Lidger dragging Stewart behind. Stewart was nearly dead, and it took some time to resuscitate him.

Assassins Punished.

Sofia, Bulgaria, July 4.—A court martial this morning sentenced Petoff, the murderer of Premier Petkoff, to death. His two accomplices were condemned respectively to life imprisonment and 15 years penal servitude.

PAY OF CIVIL SERVICE

Commissioners Receive Delegation at Ottawa—Cost of Living Makes Salaries Seem Small.

Ottawa, July 4.—Surprise was expressed by the Civil Service Commissioners over the fact that the representatives of the civil service, in their memorial to the commission, setting forth reasons why they should receive a better scale of remuneration, made no reference to the desirability of eliminating political influences in connection with appointments, promotions, etc. The members of the delegation, in reply to a question, said that it was not considered advisable that they should discuss thtis phase of the question.

Mr. Fysche, one of the commissioners, asked if there was any reason why a good appointment, such as the collectorship of customs at Montreal, should be given to an outsider for political reasons, when there were men in the service who, by their training, were specially qualified for such work.

In reply to this pointed query, the members of the delegation reiterated their desire not to express an opinion as to the political influences in appointments and promotions.

It is evident from the questions put by the commission that the report of the commissioners will deal trenchantly with political influence in the civil service of the Dominion.

A feature of the memorial presented to the commission was a comprehensive review of the increase in the cost of living during the past 10 years. It was shown that a man receiving $900 in 1897 would now require $1,200 to live in the same degree of comfort, and that the man receiving $1,500 10 years ago would require at least $1,900 at the present time.

The memorial urges that promotion examinations be abolished, and that all promotions shoud be made in each department upon the recommendation of the deputy minister; also that the government should contribute a reasonable amount to provide for the superannuation of those who have grown old in the service.

PRAISE FOR ROOSEVELT

Carnegie Says Effect of His Rule Is Good Even for Stocks.

London, July 4.—Andrew Carnegie, in an interview dealing with G. B. M. Harvey's statement in a speech at the recent Jefforson Society banquet in New York, that President Roosevelt's popularity in Europe was due to the fact that his policy had driven from France, Germany and great Britain all thoughts of American industrial or financial rivalry, says:

"The countries and their governments are not so savage as to gloat over the misfortunes of other lands. Na nation can prosper without Great Britain sharing its prosperity, and no nation can suffer reverse without Great Britain suffering also. The same applies to France and Germany.

"It is a surprising commentary on Mr. Harvey's charge that under President Roosevelt's administration our country has enjoyed the greatest season of material prosperity ever known."

Mr. Carnegit thinks the present general decline in values in the United States is in every respect a wholesome check, and that the president's declared intention to regulate corporations is only to a trifling extent a factor in the decline. He says President Roosevelt is a truly conservative man who remedies abuses. He is the best friend of the railroads, and, so far from lowering the value of bonds and shares, will enhance their value, and give to the Eupean investor an element of security hitherto lacking.

Mr. Carnegie also expressed the opinion that if the country calls Mr. Roosevelt for another term he must obey the call.

THE LACROSSE GAMES

Public Opinion Divided as to Wisdom of Importing Players.

There has been much comment locally upon the conduct of the lacrosse games in connection with the Dominion Day celebration. The unfriendly comment on the number of players imported by Nelson, and the consequent discouragement to young local players, has already been published. There is of course another side of the question, which should be given, in justice to the manager of the Nelson lacrosse team, and the chairman of the lacrosse committee of the celebration, both of which positions are held by Harry Wright, gold commissioner.

It will be admitted by all that the two lacrosse games were the best drawing card of the whole celebration programme, and contributed more than any other feature to swelling the gate receipts to the very satisfactory figures they reached.

Mr. Wright's frank statement of the case is the best answer to all criticisms. He felt that the people wanted to see good lacrosse, and would not patronize anything less. He used every available Nelson player whom he thought fast enough for the company. For the positions that could not be satisfactorily filled locally, he got the best men available outside, and did his best to give the people of Nelson and the visitors games that were worth watching.

Undoubtedly Nelson should attempt to follow the example of New Westminster and develop her own lacrosse players. But it cannot be done in a year or two, and in the meanwhile the people want to see good senior games, which they cannot see if the manager is strictly limited to Nelson players for his material.

Whatever view the majority will take of the matter, no one will deny that Mr. Wright has earned the gratitude of the public for his substantial contribution to the success of the celebration.

EARL AND SIR THOMAS.

Honors Bestowed by King of His Own Accord—Personal Favors.

London, July 4.—However his ministers and politicians may regard Lord Dundonald, the King himself clearly retains the highest regard for him. Today's honor list records his appointment as Knight Commander of the Royal Victorian Order, and rightly or wrongly, this peculiarly royal distinction is regarded as the King's personal comment on his ministry's neglect to employ Lord Dundonald, and his subsequent resignation.

The similar royal honor conferred on Sir Thomas Shaughnessy is the King's recognition of courtesies extended by the Canadian Pacific Railway to the King's nephew, Prince Arthur of Connaught, and the King's recent guest, Prince Fushimi.

One Witness Killed.

Denver, July 4.—Frank Schmelzer, of Silverton, Col., who, Tuesday, was elected a member of the executive board of the Western Federation of Minres, jumped from a moving train last night and was killed. He was on his way to Spokane for a short visit prior to going to Boise to testify in the Haywood trial. In the suburbs of the city he discovered that he was on the wrong train and jumped off, calling to the conductor to throw his grip after him.

Rumor Unconfirmed.

It was reported this afternoon that the Nelson four that won the N P. A. A. O. junior championship yesterday evening, had won the senior championship today, duplicating the performance of the Victoria four in 1902. The C. P. R. telegraph office was unable to secure confirmation.

Window Breaker Caught.

J. Perron, who broke the windows of the C. P. R. station at Slocan Junction, was caught in the city last night by Constable Young and placed in custody. He is generally believed to be of unsound mind.

MAKE NO CHANGE

Mayor Instructed to Reply to School Board

MAINTAINED STATUS QUO

Council Devoted Long Session to Routine Matters—Firemen's Uniforms Were Discussed.

The city council held a long session last night, more than an hour being devoted to consideration of the school board's reply to a communication from the mayor. Other matters discussed were the cost of firemen's uniforms, the repair of streets, mains and the city wharf, and a report from the city medical health officer on the milk supply.

The council met shortly after 8 o'clock. There were present: Mayor Gillett, in the chair, and Aldermen Selous, Annable, McMorris and Irving. Alderman Rose arrived later.

The minutes of the last meeting were read and adopted. The finance committee reported recommending miscellaneous accounts and payrolls. The report was adopted.

The chief of the fire department reported recommending an expenditure of $15 for an extra connection, and the the acceptance of J. Waixel's offer of insurance, at $10 per annum for paid men, and $4 per annum for volunteers while on duty.

The report was adopted but the question of insurance was referred to the fire, water and light committee.

Chief Deasy also forwarded a letter from J.H. Ellis in regard to his uniform as a fireman, asking $10. The chief also referred to Fireman Gregg's uniform, recommending that firemen be required to pay for their clothes unless they remain in the service for a year.

Mr. Ellis, a former fireman, had preserved his uniform and wanted $10 therefor.

Mr. Ellis' request was not considered. The chief's recommendation was then considered. He suggested that each man appointed to the permanent force be directed to buy a uniform, the cost to be repaid to him in monthly instillments of $3 each. The recommendation was adopted.

A letter from Dr. E. C. Arthur, city medical health officer, reported further examinations of milk from dairies supplying the city. Most were up to the standard, but he thought several—of the Fairview and Nelson dairies—indicated either skimming or watering.

The report was discussed, and the whole matter was referred to the city solicitor.

A letter from Dr. E. C. Arthur, secretary of the board of school trustees, was read, as already published in The Daily Canadian.

Alderman Annable asked: "Have any bids for the school debentures been received?"

The mayor: "None direct. Many inquiries."

Alderman Irving: "Do they indicate likelihood of a sale?"

The mayor: "I think so. All inquiries have been answered fully."

The city clerk: "Full information has been given to all inquiries."

Alderman Selous, admitting that his recollection on the subject was vague, denounced the school board's reply as Jesuitical and reiterated the charge of discourtesy. He said the reply was "if not untruthful, at least Jesuitical." Alderman Selous spoke at length on the subject, accusing the school board of "flim-flamming" the council. He objected to even filing the school board's reply without a protest.

Alderman Annable: "The council cannot dictate to the school board in this matter."

The mayor: "Of course not."

Alderman Annable: "Well, we should advertise the debentures and try to sell them."

The mayor: "I have taken a stand and mean to stay by it."

Alderman Annable: "What is it?"

The mayor: "That the debentures will not be sold till the school board come to their senses."

Alderman Annable: "You are exceeding your authority when you say that."

The mayor: "Well, I have that power."

The mayor further remarked that he only demanded fair play for himself and the council.

Alderman Irving agreed, stating that the council could have delayed the voting on the bylaw had the members so wished.

Alderman Annable contended for the legal rights of the school board, reminding his colleagues that the school board was an elective and responsible body, not under authority of the council, and that the ratepayers, not the council, were finding the money.

The mayor repeated that the board could not get the money without his consent.

Some further discussion took place, Alderman Annable maintaining that the council had gone beyond its right in appointing a committee to interfere with the school board.

Alderman Irving: "Well, let us advertise the debentures."

Alderman Annable then moved, seconded by Alderman Irving, that the debentures be advertised for sale.

Alderman Rose: "It will be easier to sell the debentures now than some months hence. A financial stringency is certainly coming."

The mayor: "Your advertising won't amount to much. The mayor has some authority. He can give a six months' option if he wishes. There's no use wasting money advertising."

Alderman Annable: "We have taken an oath of office to act in the city's interest. There is no use indulging in child's play."

The mayor: "I don't propose to be treated as an overgrown child."

Alderman Annable specified the Montreal Star and Toronto Globe as advertising media, the expense to come out of the proceeds of the sale of the debentures.

The city clerk stated that all financial papers had already noted the issue of debentures.

Alderman Selous: "It's only wasting money."

In reply to Alderman Annable the city clerk said he had received a request from a Toronto broker for a two weeks' option at 98.

Alderman Rose then moved as an amendment that the disposal of the debentures be left in the hands of the mayor.

Alderman Irving protested, as did Alderman Annable. Alderman Selous seconded the amendment.

The amendment was put and carried on the following division: Ayes: the mayor, Aldermen Selous and Rose; Nays: Alderman Annable and Irving. Alderman McMorris had withdrawn. The original motion was defeated on a similar division.

Ald. Selous then remembered that he had moved for the appointment of the special committee to act with the school board. He had expected that the members of that committee would have votes.

After further comments Alderman Annable emphasized the fact that the board could not give away votes.

The mayor: "I only want to know why they didn't ask us to that meeting."

Alderman Selous moved that a reply be sent to the school board, practically traversing every clause of the school board's communication, and adding a charge of deliberate discourtesy.

The mayor: "The board have evidently made up their minds on dropping the committee, even if it means dropping the school for this year."

Alderman McMorris replied that he had been personally asked to the meeting but too late to attend. He concluded that there was at least no unanimous intention of ignoring the council's committee.

Alderman Annable thought that the board should be informed that efforts are being made to sell the debentures.

Alderman Selous: "I feel disposed to leave the reply in the hands of the mayor. The letter certainly calls for a reply."

Alderman Selous' suggestion was then agreed to.

A letter from J. H. Boyes offered terms on which he would take over the power plant boarding house. The matter was referred to the mayor.

Alderman Selous reported no meeting of the fire, water and light committee. Neither he nor the city engineer had any information on the subject of A. T. Walley's application for water. The applicant was willing to put in a pipe and only wanted a rate fixed.

Alderman McMorris moved that the application be granted to the end of the year, at a yearly rate of $4 for dairies and $2.50 for other consumers. The motion was adopted.

Alderman Rose presented a request for a light at the corner of Falls and Latimer streets. The request was noted.

Alderman McMorris was told that the tramway committee had not yet met, nor had it any reply in regard to tramway expension.

For the information of aldermen the list of committees was read, and each alderman found himself in default.

City Engineer Lawrence reported that Front street is in a bad condition. He recommended filling in with gravel from the bank at the west end of Lake street. He also reported the bridge in front of the opera house as dangerous, the main on Mill street from Cedar to Hendryx as leaking, and many road beds as seriously out of repair. He also drew attention to the city wharf and recommended a pontoon at the outer end. Attention to all the matters was promised by the mayor.

As building inspector Mr. Lawrence recommended that the by-law be amended to require all chimneys to be on a solid foundation.

The council then adjourned till July 15th.

Died in Toronto.

Mrs. Melville Parry has received news of the death in Toronto yesterday of her sister, Miss Annie Pridham. Miss Pridham was in Nelson in 1898 on a visit to her sister and will be remembered by many. She was prominent in church and social circles and was greatly esteemed by a large number of friends in many Canadian cities.

WARSHIPS MOVING.

American Navy Watching Troubles in Central America.

Washington, July 4.—The possibility of serious trouble in Central America growing out of the disturbed conditions existing there incidental to the alleged ambition of President Zelaya of Nicaragua to form a union of Central American states, has caused the United States administration to dispatch the cruiser Milwaukee to that region. Orders for her to proceed forthwith from the Mare Island navy yard, California, went forward from the navy department today. The vessel is in command of Commander Charles A. Gove, and she will go to La Union, San Salvador. The collier Saturn has been directed to proceed to La Union and from this vessel the Milwaukee and the gunboat Yorkton which is now at Acjutala, will coal. The stay of the Milwaukee in Central American waters is problematical and will in a measure depend upon the conditions that develop in that part of the world. She goes ostensibly "for the protection of American interests," which are threatened because of the situation as it now exists.

The cruiser St. Louis now on her way to a Brazilian port, is en route to the Pacific coast and will arrive in Central American waters in about two months. It may be that she will relieve the Milwaukee in the event that the administration decides to have that vessel return north and it is deemed necessary to continue the presence of two vessels in that section.

ANARCHIST EDUCATORS

Preparation for Gathering in August at Amsterdam—Will Be Watched by Police.

Berlin, July 4.—Anarchist groups all over Europe have issued a secret summons to their comrades in different countries to send delegates to an international congress to be held at Amsterdam from August 26th to August 31st, to promote the attainment of anarchism among all civilized nations.

Great importance is attributed in anarchist circles to the congress. John Turner, of London, and Monatte, of Paris, will speak on the necessity of permeating trade unions with anarchist doctrines. Dr. Friedberg, of Berlin, and Malatesta, the Italian anarchist, will present reports on the organization of a simultaneous general organization in all trades of all European countries.

Two other foreign delegates, Dunios, of Paris, and Thonar, of Liege, will present reports on the international organization of anarchists, with a view to bringing about simultaneous revolutions in different European countries.

Peter Ramus, of London, and Marmanda, of Paris, will read papers on the methods which ought to be employed to propagate anarchism among the standing armies of Great Britain, Germany and other great powers.

The Russian revolutionary party has been invited to send a delegate to the Amsterdam congress to teach the anarchists of other countries such lessons as may be learned from the experiences of the Nihilists in the Czar's domains.

The Russian delegate's report will be followed by a discussion on the practicability of introducing the bloodthirsty methods widely and systematically practised in Russia into other countries, and the debates on this question are likely to be one of the most interesting features of the congress.

In spite of the secrecy which the anarchists have attempted to maintain in making the arrangements for the congress, their plans are fully known to the authorities in this country, and the necessary measures will be taken in co-operation with the Dutch police, to supervise the doings of the revolutionists at Amsterdam, where the political police of most European countries will also be represented.

AN ADMIRAL'S VIEW.

Retired American Naval Officer Says War With Japan Must Come.

Seatle, July 4.—A special to the Post-Intelligencer from North Yakima says: "Rear Admiral W. J. Thompson, United States Navy, retired, who has arrived here from a short stay in the Orient, predicts a war with Japan within five years. Admiral Thompson says that war is inevitable, but he does not believe that Great Britain will assist her ally in such a struggle, and thinks that in the end the resources of the United States must result in the defeat of the Japanese. He believes that in the event of hostilities France would give financial aid to Japan.

APPEAL OF KOREA

Wants Consideration From Hague

COMPLAIN OF JAPANESE

Government of Holland Decides That Protest Cannot Be Heard—Not Independent State.

The Hague, July 4.—While the work of the peace conference amounted to almost nothing today, interest was aroused by a protest which the Corean delegation sent to all the delegates. It was signed by Yi Sang Ful, ex-premier, Yi Tioune, ex-judge of the supreme court of Seoul, and Yo Tjongoul, ex-secretary of the Corean legation at St. Petersburg. The protest says that the Coreans regret that they were unable to attend the conference because the Japanese were violating their rights and trampling on international law which deprived them of their national independence, even resorting to violence. It adds that the Corean emperor gave them full powers, which was put at the disposal of the delegates to the conference, asking their intervention for admission to the conference.

The Corean delegates speaking to the Associated press today, said:

"The Japanese are behaving in Corea like savages. They are committing all kinds of barbarities against properties and against the people, especially against the women. M. Nelidoff's refusal to receive us was astonishing and painful, as our relations with Russia as well as with America are so good that we thought they could not refuse to assist us. We intend to go to America to appeal to that noble country to assist us. In 1905, before the treaty of peace, Corea received the first Russian communications about the present conference, called at the instigation of President Roosevelt and entrusted her minister at St. Petersburg, Prince Yi Tchine Pomma, to represent her at The Hague."

Keiroku Tsuzuki, head of the Japanese delegation, speaking to the Associated Press in regard to this matter, said: "The Dutch government officially stated that Corea was not and could not be invited to the conference, therefore, the Corean delegation cannot receive any recognition."

OLD CLAIM REVIVED.

Descendants of Marshal Munich Plead Gift of Frederick.

Berlin, July 4.—The Prussian government is considering a claim of the heirs of a great Russian statesman, the Field Marshal Count Munich. The claim is regarding a considerable sum and of great interest to two families living in France.

The Russian, Field Marshal Count Munich, received from Frederick the Great, King of Prussia, as a present, a property situated in Prussia, given to him for good services rendered to the state by the conclusion of a treaty.

The count did not accept this, but with the agreement of the Empress Anna, of Russia, it was transferred by Frederick the Great to the son of the field marshal. This son obtained afterward of Frederick William, King of Prussia, the written promise that the sum of 312,000 thalers should be given to him.

The descendants claim that this sum with interest since 1741. The descendants of the granddaughters of the field marshal (his grandson died a bachelor) are in France, on the one side, the Counts d'Allonville and on the other side Mme. David-Nolcken, wife of Mr. David, of the well-known furrier and dressmaking firm of Beckoff David. She is a born Baroness von Nolcken, descending from Axel-Gustav, Baron von Nolcken, who married in 1787 Marie Ernestine, Countess von Munich, immediate heiress of the Field Marshal Munich.

As the sum asked for amounts to a great many millions the present claim is of great interest. The Counts d'Allonville have, through the good offices of Countess von Wedel Gorman, ambassadrice in Vienna, addressed a letter to the chamberlain of Emperor William. Prince Radolin has given answer that the territorial claim cannot be admitted, but did not speak of the 312,000 thalers.

Composer Honored.

NELSON'S VICTORY.

The victory of Nelson oarsmen in the junior fours at Seattle yesterday is an event of real importance to Nelson. The victory was undoubtedly well deserved, if long, hard and self-sacrificing training without hope of individual reward, can deserve success. In all its years of membership in the North Pacific Association of Amateur Oarsmen, Nelson has never before sent out a better crew nor one half so well trained. To Del. Desbrisay, the ideal trainer, at least half the credit for the victory is due.

To all other oarsmen of the city—and who in Nelson is not an oarsmen?—the victory is an encouragement. It shows unmistakably that the West Arm of Kootenay Lake is not inferior as a training course to any smaller body of water or to an inlet of the sea. Nelson has been justified in claiming, and the executive of the association in granting, a permanent place in the meets of the N. P. A. A. O. Seattle is fairly central for the three old Coast clubs—Victoria, Vancouver and Portland—and the Sound City has now entered a club of its own. It was a tribute to the loyalty of the Nelson Boat Club to the association that one regatta in every six was awarded to Nelson, to be held on the waters of Kootenay Lake.

There is another important aspect of the case, not from a sportman's point of view, but from a business point of view. Notices of the regatta have appeared in the sporting columns of every paper in Canada and the United States. In nearly all there has been comment on the circumstance that one inland town, a "city among the mountains," has facilities for training a crew, and enterprise enough to send representatives several hundred miles to row for the honor of Nelson and for love of sport.

It is no extravagant claim to urge that yesterday's victory is a more effective advertisement than could have been secured in any other way at many times the cost. For every reason Nelson should be proud of its oarsmen and should prepare to give them a hearty reception on their return.

ELECTIONS APPROACHING.

While the Machine press still affects to laugh at all predictions of an early appeal to the constituencies by the Laurier government, the fact remains that Liberal candidates are being placed in the field in practically every constituency in the Eastern provinces, and every preparation is being made for the coming struggle. Dominion ministers also, notably Mr. Aylesworth, are touring the country trying to inspire the party organizations, and, it must be admitted to their credit, generally trying to secure the choice of clean and able men.

The Conservatives should not be behind hand. The choice of time and issues is in the hands of their opponents, but there is no good reason why they shoud not be prepared in every constituency with a strong and popular candidate and a virile organization. It seems evident, and it is matter for gratification that both parties recognize that it is not only expedient but necessary that the candidates be men with clean records and men of ability. The day of the machine politician, the tool of the party committee, is, if not passed, rapidly passing.

On this subject, the Toronto News, one of the very few really independent newspapers in Canada, says:

It may be pointed out that from the moment a candidate enters the field he becomes subject to the election law, and hence is peculiarly bound to refrain from all improper practices, and should likewise have exceptional authority to curb such practices on the part of local workers and ward committees. When a candidate has been in the field for 12 or 15 months he will find it much more difficult to evade responsibility for the work of agents, and much more necessary to carry on a contest which will bear the scrutiny of the courts. Against this is the danger that in constituencies represented by opposition members the ministerial candidates will be used as mediums of local bribes, as agencies for the distribution of patronage and public works, and generally as channels for that improper distribution of public money which Canadian governments carry on with impunity. Upon the whole, however, the early nomination of candidates should tend towards improvement in electoral methods, and to a more thorough discussion of public questions. Is it too much to hope, also, that as the years go on the influences of localism and sectionalism will steadily disappear, that the constituency will not think it worth while to inquire whether the candidate lives within its borders, whether he is a farmer, a workman, a lawyer or a doctor, whether he even belongs to the province in which the constituency is situated, but what is his character, what are his principles, and what his fitness for public service? This is the British system, and no other system gives such a high average of character and efficiency in parliament.

LABORERS ARE FEW.

C. P. R. Forced to Post Notices Asking for Competent Men.

Toronto, July 4.—The fact that the C. P. R. has been forced to put up notices on the train boards in the union station asking for applications by competent and reliable men to act as brakemen and telegraphers, reveals a situation never known to exist in a Canadian city before. Usually the sign "Men Wanted" needs no posting around a railway station for these classes of men at least.

Speaking of this question a railway official expressed the opinion that thoroughly capable and reliable trainmen and operators were few in number in comparison with requirements, owing to the construction of so many new roads and the increased number and speed of trains. Twenty men per mile is the average number required to run a railway. The explanation if the unusual demand for men may be in the necessary increase of the staff on all roads, to prosecute the large amount of construction work being carried on throughout the Dominion. Over 3,000 miles of new road are being built and it will readily be seen that an enormous number of men will be required to operate this mileage when completed.

What a Watch Will Do.

Most men who own a watch think they know all about it. They have the number fixed in their memory in case it is stolen. They could probably pick it out from 50 other watches with their eyes shut. But how many men know that their watch is a compass and will tell north from south as accurately as it will tell the time of day? Stanley, the explorer, did not know it until he had groped his way through the dark continent and met a Belgian sailor on the coast. Every watch is a compass. If you point the hour hand to the sun the south is exactly half way between the hour and figure XII on the dial. Suppose for instance, it is 4 o'clock. Point the hand indicating 4 to the sun and the II on the watch is exactly south. If it is 8 o'clock point the hand indicating 8 to the sun and the figure X on the dial is due south. No man need get lost if he carries a watch.

HONOR GARIBALDI DAY

Italian Government and People Celebrate Centenary of Birth of Great Liberator.

Rome, July 4.—In every part of the Italian kingdom today, and wherever an Italian man of war floats, the one hundredth anniversary of the birth of Guiseppe Garibaldi, the great liberator, is being celebrated. Patriotism and love of country formed the keynote of the celebration.

By act of the Senate the day was set apart as a national holiday. At a given hour this morning salutes were fired at all the Italian military and naval stations. The city of Rome was profusely decorated in honor of the occasion. Pictures of Garibaldi, and of King Victor Emmanuel, Mazzini and other patriots who were instrumental in bringing about Italian independence and unity were to be seen at every turn.

The King and other members of the royal family attended a great review of troops, which was one of the features of the celebration. Under the auspices of patriotic and other organizations exercises in memory of Garibaldi were held in all parts of Rome. Thousands of pilgrims visited the Island of Caprera and deposited handsome floral offerings at the Garibaldi tomb.

Guiseppe Garibaldi ,the patriot whom all Italy unites in honoring today, was the central figure in the fight for Italian independence. Alternately sailor and soldier for half a century when he was not a fugitive or an exile, the career of Garibaldi was crowded with adventures of the most exciting and desperate character. Yet he lived to die in his bed at the age of 75.

He began life in his father's occupation of a mariner, and his second voyage having taken him to Rome, he saw and heard there the things that started him on his revolutionary career, which early in 1834 led to his exile from Italy. He had imbided from Mazzini, the leader of the young Italy party of Republicans, the spirit of revolution, and in his exile, while following the business of a mariner, he took part in the effo rt at independence of the republic of Uruguay. He suffered great hardship, and was wounded severely during this adventure, but performed some remarkable exploits.

From South America, in 1848, he sailed for Italy, and offered the services of himself and a legion that he had organized to Charles Albert, who was at war with Austria. The King received him coldly, but Garibaldi, after the defeat of Charles, at the head of some resolute republicans, continued the resistance to the Austrians until dispersed by overwhelming numbers.

That year Garibaldi offered his services to the pope, who did not accept them, and who, a few months later, was forced to flee from Rome. Garibaldi next joined the revolutionists in 1849 and was placed in command by the new republican government. He opposed, at first successfully, the efforts of the French to restore the pope and of the Neapolitans to enter Rome. But the French, greatly reinforced, entered the holy city in due time and the republican triumvirate, headed by Mazzini, was driven out. Garibaldi, however, kept up the fight, and with two legions avoided the attempts to capture him, until, his army having surrendered or been dispersed, he fled with a few companions, and was taken and banished.

This time he resolved to go to America, and he landed in 1850 in New York, where he earned a living, first by making candles and then at his old occupation of mariner.

He returned to Nice after a few years and lived quietly, but at the beginning of the Italian war with Austria in 1859, he was ready to comply with the request of the Sardinian government, and organized the corps celebrated as the "Hunters of the Alps," with which he rendered important services to Victor Emmanuel and the French. When the insurrection in Naples broke out Garibaldi supported it. In the following year he took Sicily and became dictator. In September he entered Naples, and Victor Emmanuel followed him on Oct. 15th, 1860, with the Sardinians. Garibaldi had declared himself dictator in the name of Victor Emmanuel, King of Italy, and relinquished the title when the Sicilies were united to the Italian crown.

He did not abandon, however, the purpose to march on Rome, and while the new kingdom of Italy, despite the protests of the pope, was being recognized by European states, Garibaldi went about his preparations to capture the holy city. But the royal government denounced his conduct and sent troops against him, and he was defeated and captured. Thereafter for some years his history is the record of his attempts to capture Rome and the defeat of these plans by the royal government. But at last, Venice having been annexed to the crown of Italy, the Italian troops entered the papal territory. He retired finally to his home at Caprera, where he died peacefully on June 2nd, 1882.

LOCAL AND GENERAL

Fourth of July.

J. Langan will be the host at a Fourth of July dinner at the Hume tonight.

Independence Day.

American residents of Nelson are celebrating their national holiday in a quiet way. The principal hotels are decorated with American flags.

First Raspberries.

Ed Mason claims to have picked the first raspberries of the season. They grew in his own garden in Fairview and the bushes were exposed to the sun both morning and afternoon.

Heron-Parker.

In Nelson last evening, July 3rd, at the residence of the bride's father, Silaca street, the marriage was solemnized by Rev. F. H. Graham of William Heron and Mildred, daughter of Thomas Parker.

Court of Revision.

The annual civic court of revision has sat and considered all appeals from assessment. They were very few, and no appellant raised the question of the relation of assessment to market values, as the latest amendments to the Municipal Clauses Act permit. Practically no changes were made by the court.

Wanted, A Man.

The committe in charge of the exhibit for Winnipeg met in the office of the 20,000 Club last night and made good progress with the arrangements. No selection has yet been made of a lecturer to accompany James McPhee. Those who have been suggested as suitable men cannot spare the time. The offer of Mrs. M. S. Davys to keep the committee supplied with fresh flowers was gratefully accepted.

Baptist Meeting.

Last evening the semi-annual business meeting of the Baptist church was held. Reports show the church to be in excellent condition. Delegates to the B. C. Baptist Convention, to be held at Summerland, July 18-22, were appointed. Pastor Rev. E. H. Shanks, Rev. C. Padley, and Mr. A. N. Wolverton were appointed delegates. An effort to place the church on a self-supporting basis independent of the Home Mission board is being made.

No Quorum.

The session of the city council, the meeting of the Winnipeg exhibit committee, and the general lassitude following a two days' celebration, all combined to reduce the attendance at the fruit growers' meeting last night. In addition to the two visitors, W. J. Brandrith and H. Kipp, President Johnstone and two other members were the whole muster. The meeting adjourned to an ice cream parlor on the invitation of the chair for which a hearty vote of thanks was passed by the large and intelligent audience.

Afraid of Hold-Ups.

A. Waterer arrived from the Northwest last night bound for Spokane. He had a lot of money and, for fear some one would try to rob him, he bought a revolver and proceeded to flourish it. He was taken in charge and this morning he paid $20 and left the revolver. He expressed gratitude for being taken care of so well. He will go on to Spokane tonight.
