EXPECT REVOLT

Situation in Portugal Is Acute

MAY BECOME REPUBLIC

King's Open Endorsement of Premier's Dictatorship Drives Opponents to Extreme Steps.

Paris, Nov. 25.—Reports representing that Portugal is on the eve of a revolution are received here with caution, as despatches coming directly from that country have been censored and those indirectly from across the frontier are held more or less under suspicion. Both reports on the banishment of the Crown Prince and the mutiny of the fleet are denied by the Portugese embassy here. Nevertheless arrests, the suspension of newspapers, and other repressive measures taken by what Premier Franco's terms an administrative dictatorship, seems to show conclusively that affairs in Portugal have entered a critical phase.

This condition undoubtedly has been precipitated by an interview with King Carlos, published last week, announcing his absolute faith in Premier Franco and his intention to allow the Premier to choose the time for the holding of the election to the cortez. The parliamentary opposition which has been stirring up the country for months past, expected, by a gigantic demonstration planned for January next, to force the King to dismiss Premier Franco but His Majesty's bold endorsement of the dictatorship removes this hope abruptly consolidating the entire opposition in the direction of republicanism. Senor Lima of Lisbon proprietor of the newspaper Vanguardiz, which was suppressed, is now in Paris and considers that a republic is inevitable. The people are hostile to a dynasty and the army is disaffected, he says.

A correspondent of the Temps who has returned after an investigation of affairs in Portugal and who had interviews with King Carlos, Premier Franco and ex-Premier Castro, ex-Minister of Justice and Worship Dalpoimand, Senor Vilhena, counsellor of state, and other opposition leaders, makes it clear that the situation is the outgrowth of scandalous political ends and affairs which have been endorsed for years.

London, Nov. 25.—The Daily Mail prints a telegram from Premier Franco of Portugal, denying absolutely the rumors of the banishment of Crown Prince Louis and of dissatisfaction in the navy.

NATIONAL DRAINAGE.

Conference on Land Reclamation Held in Baltimore.

Baltimore, Md., Nov. 25.—The large and representative attendance today at the opening of the National Drainage Association convention in this city afforded evidence of the importance attached to this movement for the reclamation of the swampy lands of the country. A majority of the states have sent delegates to the conference and among them are numerous men of wide prominence. In addition to the delegates appointed by the Governors the attendance includes representatives of numerous local drainage associations and also agricultural colleges in various parts of the country.

The opening of the convention took place in McCoy Hall of Johns Hopkins University, where the sessions will continue during the next two days. The congress will be addressed by Governor Warfield, Attorney-General Bonaparte, Secretary of Agriculture Wilson, Secretary of the Interior Garfield, Gifford Pinchot, chief of the forestry service; Otis Smith, chief of the geological department; H. F. Newell, chief of the reclamation service; C. G. Elliott, chief of the drainage and irrigation surveys; Senator Flint of California, author of the general drainage bill; Senators Clapp of Minnesota and Newlands of Nevada, and Representatives Bede and Steenerson of Minnesota, Small of North Carolina, Calderhead of Kansas, and Gaines of Tennessee.

C. P. R. CHANGES IN CALGARY.

Former Nelsonite Becomes District Passenger Agent.

Calgary, Nov. 25.—The recent changes in the organization of the C. P. R. will mean very much to this part of the country.

In addition to the extension of the division and the organization of a paymaster's department, which has already been announced, a passenger department will be established in this division.

J. E. Procter, who has been travelling passenger agent, has been promoted to the position of district passenger agent with headquarters at Calgary. An office and staff will be established here at an early date. This will mean much to the district, and matters which in the past had to be referred to Winnipeg, in future will be settled here.

Important as this is, however, that which is more important is the fact that a pay office will be opened here. That means less delay in payments, for instead of waiting until accounts are sent to Winnipeg, they will be checked and paid in Calgary.

To Free Philippines.

Boston, Mass., Nov. 25.—Historic Faneuil Hall will tonight be the scene of a notable meeting in support of a plan for a pledge of independence to the Philippine Islands accompanied by neutralization of the territory. Among those scheduled to address the meeting are Congressman James L. Slayden of Texas, James H. Blount, formerly judge of the first instance in the Philippines, and Congressman Samuel W. McCall of Massachusetts, the mover of the resolution in Congress embodying the plan for Philippine independence.

STEVE ADAMS' LETTERS

Acknowledged Crimes in Writing to Relatives—Admitted in Court as Evidence.

Rathdrum, Nov. 25.—A decided sensation was created in the district court when Mr. Hawley, attorney for the state in the case of Steve Adams, on trial for the murder of Frank Tyler, read to the jury two letters written by Steve Adams while in the penitentiary at Boise Mr. Darrow endeavored to prevent the introduction of the letters, but was overruled by the court. They are as follows:

Leter to His Uncle.

"State Prison, Idaho, March 3, 1906.—Mr. and Mrs. Oliver—My Dear Aunt and Uncle: I received your most welcome letter and was glad to hear from you all and of your belief in my innocence. I wish to God that I was, but I fell in with bad company and was led to commit a number of most vile sins, breaking the law of both man and God. Had I stayed with my church and with the raising of my poor parents, who are, I believe, in heaven, I would be a free man today, but I allowed myself to be led into sin most damnable. I am going to try to undo what I have done and sin no more. I expect when my friends find out the real truth they will disown me, but God knows I could not help it. I hope you will all pray for me and for my forgiveness. I am just going to tell the facts in this case and others, and put my trust in God to guide me through it. If I can do some good the rest of my life, I am willing to try. I think that is all the poor sinner can do when he has sinned so bad.

"As to your basket, it will be very thankfully received. The warden treats me very kindly. I have plenty to eat and a good place to sleep. I have a little baby boy almost three months old, named after my poor father, David. Auntie, don't forget to pray for me. I feel the disgrace of my sins very sharply. I have 480 acres of land in Oregon, aunt. I had my wife and babies put with my friends, so people would not bother them to death. She feels very bad. I am sure I asked her to pray for me too. She is the best woman in the world. It nearly kills me to think of the misery I have caused her, which I will never cause again. Excuse a short letter. When people find out all the facts in these cases I hope they will forgive me. Hoping to hear from you all soon, I will close, with love to you all.

Your nephew, STEPHEN ADAMS.

Letter to His Brother.

"Boise, Idaho, March 5, 1906.—Mr. W. T. Adams—My Dear Brother: I received your most welcome letter. Was very glad to hear from you and sis, and of your kind offer to help me out of my trouble, which I do not deserve in the least. Brother, I have been living under a clouded sky as long as I can stand it. I am going to do the best I can to undo what has been done, as near as I can, by doing what I think is just to my brothers, my wife and family and friends, and what is just in the sight of God. I am going to tell the whole truth as near as I can remember it and let the blame fall where it may. I am going to begin a new life right now. You can help a sinner like me lots by praying for me, and, although I advise you to stay with your family, for they need you, and you can help just as much there as here. The life I have lived is not worth living. It is hell on earth. I tried it thoroughly. I look back with horror on the last few years of my life, but hope to be forgiven.

"If I could think it is right, I would never see a trial, but I know it is not right to do that and add another sin as bad to the rest of many. I know lots of people who will look with scorn on me, but when they know the truth it may be different. I can't go to my grave with this load of sins on my soul and think of my father and mother praying for me. Oh! Such a sinner.

"Brother, pick your company and commence right now; be sure to pick the best and you will never fall, like your brother. Ask my friends to forgive me, and also you and Joe must do the same. Give sis and all the little ones my best regards and love. Write right away, for a good letter helps me, especially from my brothers. Don't forget to pray for me, the sinner of sinners. Direct in the care of the warden, Boise, Idaho. Your Brother,

"STEPHEN ADAMS."

NEW CAR WORKS

Big Establishment for Fort William

RAILWAYS CHOSE SITE

Important Industry for Lake Town—News of Canada From Ocean to Ocean.

Fort William, Nov. 25.—The Fort William Car Company, Ltd., which has been promoted by C. E. W. Smith of the Carnegie Trust Company of New York, has about completed the sale of the company's bond issue of $1,200,000 to a goreign syndicate, which will be fully organized in a few days and work on the plant will be begun here. A. H. Sysson, the new general manager of the St. Louis Car Works will have charge of the concern, and with him will be associated as sales agent R. W. Morrison of the same concern, who sold to the Argentine Republic last years cars to the value of $1,500,00. Mr. Smith says Fort William was selected because the three big railways advised it. Operations will begin next September with an output of 25 freight cars daily but passenger coaches will also be turned out after the first year's operations and General Manager Sysson is authority for the statement that from one to two thousand men will be employed, all of whom will be skilled mechanics.

Wetaskiwin, Sask., Nov. 25.—Sergt. Williams returned yesterday after an absence of two days, bringing with him a prisoner from Duck Lake, a distance of 60 miles west of this city. The prisoner whose, name is Steel Murdock, had a quarrel with a friend, Inston, while they were working in a lumber camp. It appears the quarrel started by Inston using strong language, when Murdock struck him with an axe, making a deep gash in Inston's shoulder. The preliminary hearing came up before a justice of the peace today when Murdock was remanded for trial and released on bail being given.

Dryden, Ont., Nov. 25.—Those killed Friday at Webster's camp were: Jas. Forbes, teamster of Poule, Perthshire, Scotland; D. Galovitch, Pete Khezovic, Mike Kosard, Frank Cocilit, Joe Fournan, and Tony Ouelavitch. The injured were: Connell, Geo. Varlovic, and Mike Marco. Cannell will be out of the hospital within a few days but it will be several weeks before the other two will be out of the doctor's care. The force of the premature dynamite shock threw out such a tremendous amount of rock that all the men in reach were crushed. The men who were killed were working in the cut beneath the blast taking out the loose rock. It would take a couple of hours to charge the holes and they would not have been forced until all the men had left the work. Unconscious of the impending doom they were calmly at work when the rock fell. There were probably two or three hundred tons of rock thrown into the excavation by the explosion and that any of them escaped is miraculous. At Webster's headquarters camp there is a well equipped hospital and the injured men were at once removed there.

Maidstone, Sask., Nov. 25.—Richard Thornton, aged 27, employed on the farm of J. Baxter near here, was found dead on the trail one mile from town Saturday. Thornton came to town with a team for supplies and it is supposed that when returning home the team ran away throwing him under the wagon which passed over his body killing him almost instantly.

Maidstone, Sask., Nov. 25.—Rev. J. Parrin, an Anglican minister stationed here, died Wednesday night last of typhoid fever after an illness of five days. Deceased was formerly an Anglican minister at Fort William, Ont., and came west only last year.

Calgary, Nov. 25.—Fire which started Sunday did considerable damage to a block near the corner of 8th avenue and 1st street occupied by Gurney and company, Bradley and Tuck and Miss Leeson. The fire started in the rear of the Gurney dry goods establishment and had obtained considerable headway before an alarm was sent in. The flames spread overhead to the millinery store of Miss Leeson and in both these establishments there is great loss from fire and water.

Grenfell, Nov. 25.—An inquest into the cause of the death of Robert Braithwaite, who was shot by Corporal Dann while resisting arrest was opened by the coroner today. The post mortem examination which was made by Dr. Coughlin showed that death resulted from internal hemorrhage caused by the bullet wound. T. W. Wright, a neighbor examined as to Braithwaithe's disposition and corroborative evidence as to the shooting was given by Constables Moses and Wilson. The jury were only out a few minutes and they returned a verdict that Robt. Braithwaite came to his death by a bullet fired from a revolver in the hands of Corporal Dann in self defense while performing his duty. It is not likely that an action will be taken against the corporal.

Winnipeg, Nov. 25.—400 cars of wheat were shipped Saturday by the C. P. R. and forwarded to terminal points. The amount of wheat which is now being shipped by the company daily is largely in excess of the amount now being marketed. This comprises one of the largest day's shippings of the year.

SLOCAN PIONEER DEAD.

Charles Garrity Succumbs to Stroke of Paralysis.

Another pioneer of the west has started on his "last, long trail." Charles Garriety who has been in the Slocan since 1892 died at Silverton Saturday night, it is supposed, from a stroke of paralysis.

In response to a telegram from J. T. Black, provincial constable at New Denver, Dr. Arthur, district coroner, left for Silverton this morning.

(Special to The Daily Canadian.)

New Denver, Nov. 25.—Charles Garrity, aged sixty-three, who has been here since 1892, and is well known throughout the district, died at the Windsor Hotel, Silverton, Saturday, at 8 p. m. He was just down from the Neepawa mine. He had been there all summer. It is supposed that he died of paralysis. He was taken ill Friday. Deceased was in Winnipeg in 1872 and has been in the west ever since.

Sir Harry Colville Killed.

London, Nov. 25.—General Sir Henry Edward Colville came to his death yesterday, as a result of an automobile accident. The general last evening was riding a motor cycle down a country lane in a hurry. Upon turning a sharp corner he collided violently with an automobile driven by his old friend and battle field comrade, General Sir Henry Seymour Rawlinson. General Colville was thrown to the ground striking his head and died from his injuries during the night. General Colville was born in 1852. He was one of the generals who were recalled from South Africa during the Boer war owing to the disasters sustained by the troops of his command.

PRAISE OF STRATHCONA

Presentation by Duke of Argyll and Canadians in London to the High Commissioner.

London, Nov. 25.—The Duke of Argyll, who was governor-general of Canada in 1878-83, in behalf of the Anglo-Canadians of London has presented Lord Strathcona and Mount Royal, the Canadian high commissioned, with a large silver centre piece, illustrative of the various phases of Lord Strathcona's life. Replying to the presentation addresses, the high commissioner said he hoped to soon resign his office to younger hands, but before doing so he desired to see the proposed All Red route by way of Canada to the far east an accomplished fact.

The Duke of Argyll is having a busy Anglo-Canadian time. Hhe presided at the inaugural luncheon of the French-British exhibition at Shepherd's Bush, in which Canada has decided to take the foremost colonial place with 120,000 feet of exhibits, and what is officially described as a palace of unequalled magnificence, for the display of Canadian products and manufactures.

At luncheon T. P. O'Connor warmly eulogized Canada's enterprise in a project so well calculated to make closer ties between France and the British empire. Canada's promised magnificent display would be a fitting sequel to the newly completed Franco-Canadian treaty. The Duke of Argyll and Lord Strathcona conducted the party.

Lord Strathcona conducted the party over the grounds and showed them the progress being made with the foundations of the Canadian and other pavilions. The exhibition will be opened in May, 1908.

This afternoon the duke went to Lord Strathcona's house in Grosvenor Square to present him with a handsome silver centre piece from the Anglo-Canadian community. The centre pieces were emblematic of some of many phases of Canadian life, with which Lord Strathcona has been associated.

IRISH ARE UNITED

O'Brien and Healy Back in the Fold

REDMOND STILL CHIEF

Will Support Birrell's University Bill, Worry Landlords and Then Work for Home Rule.

London, Nov. 25.—Nationalists unity appears to be on the eve of accomplishment. Communications have been passing between the leaders of the party and William O'Brien, member of parliament for Cork, speaking at Ball Yeaullen, Wexford, today, expressed the belief that all Nationalist representatives soon would be brought under the same flag.

Timothy Healy, Nationalist member of the parliament for the north division of Louth, wrote also expressing his approval of the suggested terms of the agreement but requesting that the question of his readmission into the party should be deferred. It is understood that the terms of the proposed agreement are that the chief work of the coming session of the parliament should be Chief Secretary Birrell's new university bill, that the agarian agitation in Ireland should be to a great extent suspended and the efforts of the party devoted to securing an amendment to the lands acts through further concessions by the landlords, while preparations should be made to raise the home rule question on Gladstonian lines at the next general elections.

BLAZE IN NEW YORK.

Italians perish in Tenement Fire—Incandiarism Suspected.

Thirteen persons lost their lives and several others were injured early today in a tenement house fire at 109th st. and 2nd avenue. All the dead were Italians. Seven of the thirteen were children. The bodies were found huddled together in rooms on the top floor of the four storey building where the stricken people had been driven by the flames which rushed up from the lower floors. They had been caught and doomed to death before they succeeded in reaching the windows which led to the fire escapes and safety. Some had been involved in the flames and burned alive. Others, overcome by smoke were spared the agony of death in the flames. That the fatal fire was the work of incendiaries who sought revenge, is the opinion of the police and firemen who made the first hasty examination. Three weeks ago three Italians were caught in the attempt to rob a safe in the saloon of Guiseppe Cudano, on the ground floor. The safe contained over $2,000 which the saloon keeper's friends had drawn from banks during the money panic. The would-be robbers were arrested and are now awaiting trial. The fire of today started in Cudano's saloon and the police believe that it may have been the work of friends of the prisoners who took this means of squaring the account with the saloon keeper. Cudano first discovered the fire when he went to open his place of business this morning. As he opened the door he was met by a ruch of flames and without waiting a moment to investigate, dashed up the stairs to the tenements above, crying out to the occupants that the building was on fire and to run for their lives. When he reached the rooms occupied by his own family he burst in the door and seizing his young son in his arms told Mrs. Cudano and other members of the family to follow. Cudano and the boy managed to find their way down the stairs to the street but before the women could get through the flames had cut off exit. It is supposed that Mrs. Cudano and the other children sought safety in the upper part of the building. So quickly did the flames spread that almost before the firemen arrived the whole building was aflame. Even the cries of the women and the shildren were drowned by the roar and crackling of the flames, the hissing engines and the frantic crowd which pressed as closely as possible to the fire lines. Not a single person was seen to appear at any of the windows of the building.

FIGHT FOR TWO-CENT RATE.

Railway Companies Before Commission—Restrictions Must Go.

Albany, Nov. 25.—The efforts of the railroads operating in New York state to override the demand for 2-cent mileage are to form a subject of investigation by the public service commission. Representatives of all the roads have been summoned to appear before the commission today to show cause why they should not be directed by the commission to issue interchangeable mileage books of 1,000 and 500 miles at a uniform rate of 2 cents and without many of the restrictions now placed upon the sale of mileage books by some of the larger companies. A special effort will be made to abolish the practice of some of the roads of issuing mileage books at a higher rate than 2 cents and afterward giving rebates.

The commission has already conducted a thorough investigation of fares and mileage throughout the state from which it appears that while seven-eighths of the roads issue 1'000-mile books the practice is hedged about with restrictions that prove both costly and inconvenient to the public. At present 500-mile books are issued over only a little more than half the total mileage of the state.

Freak Race.

Paris, Nov. 25.—Following the recent auto race from Pekin to Paris, the Martin has decided to organize a race from New York to Paris via Chicago, Alaska, across the Behring straits, Siberia and Russia.

EPILEPTIC DIES IN GAOL

Karl Stephanie Succumbs After 14 Hours Suffering—Within 3 Weeks of Release.

Karl Stephanie, a German, aged 35 years, died in the provincial gaol last night at 10.30, as the result of a succession of epileptic fits.

Stephanie was committed on July 13th last from Arrowhead for vagrancy and theft and arrived at the gaol on July 17th. He was a well-behaved prisoner and the reduction of his sentence by the usual remission for good conduct would have entitled him to his freedom on the morning of December 14th.

Twice before since his incarceration Stephanie has suffered from similar attacks, the first, on Aug. 29th, nearly proving fatal.

Yesterday morning he appeared quite well, ate a hearty breakfast, swept out a corridor, and sat down in his cell to read the Salvation Army War Cry.

At 8.30 he collapsed in an epileptic fit. The gaol physician, Dr. Rose, was sent for but could not be found at once. Dr. Willson was summoned. Dr. Rose arrived later, and either he or Dr. Hartin was in constant attendance till the end which came at 10.30 p. m.

Apart from the recurring attacks of epilepsy Stephanie appeared to enjoy good health and had gained 20 pounds since his arrival at the gaol.

He is believed to have a wife and child living in Winnipeg.

Dr. Arthur, coroner, was notified at once, and will hold an inquest on his return from Silverton tonight. The body has meanwhile been removed to the Standard Furniture Company's undertaking establishment.

LOCAL AND GENERAL.

Pauline Johnston.

The concert by Pauline Johnston and Walter McRaye under Hockey Club auspices will be given in the opera house this evening,and is certain to be largely attended. All who enjoy elocution of the highest class and are interested in tales of the Habitants or the Indians of Canada will thoroughly enjoy the programme.

Friday Night's Ball.

The sale of tickets for the ball in aid of the sanatorium has already beaten all records. All that remains now by way of preparation is the decorations and refreshments. The former will be attended to on Friday. It has been decided to ask for contributions for the supper and Mrs. Arthur, secretary of the Nelson branch of the society, will undertake that task this week. Citizens are reminded that the proceeds of the ball will be made Nelson's first contribution in any form toward the maintenance of the sanatorium.

Methodist Anniversary.

The Methodist Church was crowded at both services yesterday on the occasion of the anniversary. The evening service was especially well attended. The singing by a choir of 20 voices was excellent, "Lord of Heaven" being splendidly rendered, as was also Sullivan's "Lost Chord" by the double quartette, consisting of Misses Annanle and Tollington, sopranos, Mrs. Thurman and Miss Deinstadt, altos, Messrs. Benedict and Emory, tenors, and Messrs. Sullivan and Shaw, bass. The pastor's sermon, "An Old Fashioned Description of Going to Church," was a discussion of the present relations of church and people, what the individual had a right to expect from his church and what he owed to the church. An anniversary social will be held this evening for which an excellent musical programme has been prepared.

Kaiser Enjoying England.

London, Nov. 25.—Emperor William continues to improve in health and enjoys daily walks and drives about the neighborhood of High Cliffe. He has decided to prolong his stay for a week or two beyond the fortnight originally contemplated and is planning short motor drives. The Emperor yesterday attended the village church joining heartily in the singing of the hymns. A despatch from Athens states that the Emperor expected to visit Corfu in February to inspect the Castle Achilleion, which he recently acquired.

PERFECT ACCORD

Roosevelt and Bryan Have No Differences

SIMILARITY OF PURPOSE

New York Herald's Discovery of Exact Parallel on All Subjects of Present Importance.

New York, Nov. 25.—The New York Herald presents Mr. Rooosevelt and Mr. Bryan as Siamese twins. In support of this characterization it produces various extracts from the speeches of the President and the Democratic leadrr. For example, on the subject of labor, Mr. Roosevelt has said: "So far as it is in our power it should be our aim steadily to reduce the number of hours of labor with, as a goal, the introduction of an eight-hour law. Both the state and federal governments should provide the machinery for what may be called the compulsory investigation of controversies between employers and employees when they arise. Neither should be left completely at the mercy of the stronger party to the dispute, regardless of the righteousness of their claims." On the same subject Mr. Bryan has said: "I believe one of the most important things we have to consider is whether it is time to establish a Board of Arbitration that will bring peace between capital and labor."

Mr. Roosevelt thus attacks plutocracy: "There exists no more sordid and unlovely type of social development than a plutocracy, for there is a peculiar unwholesomeness in a social and governmental ideal where wealth by and of itself is held up as the greatest good. There is no objection in the minds of the people to any man earning any amount of money if he does it honestly and fairly. But there is a growing determination that no man shall amass a great fortune by chicanery and wrongdoing so far as it is in the power of legislation to prevent." Mr. Bryan says: "Plutocracy is abhorrent to a republic. It is more despotic than monarchy, more heartless than aristocracy. The Democratic party does not menace a single dollar honestly accumulated; it desires to protect the rich and poor alike in the enjoyment of the proceeds of labor."

Dealing with campaign contributions the President thus declares himself: "Let individuals contribute to the campaign expenses of any party, but let us prohibit in effective fashion all corporations from making contributions for any political purposes, directly or indirectly." Mr. Bryan says substantially the same thing in fewer words: "Contributions for a campaign fund ought not to be corporate—they ought to be individual."

On the vexed subject of railway rates the President says: "The immediate and most pressing need is the enactment into law of some scheme to secure to the agents of the government such supervision and regulation of rates charged by the railroads of the country as shall summarily and effectively prevent the imposition of unjust or unreasonable rates." Mr. Bryan's position is thus stated: "The Democratic party is pledged to legislation which will empower the commission to protect individuals and communities from discriminations and the public at large from unjust and unfair transportation rates."

There is no doubt that under Roosevelt the Republican party has greatly changed its character. It has become almost as radical as the Democratic party under Mr. Bryan's leadership. The chances are, however, that with the disappearance of Roosevelt the Republican party will again become conservative and the natural refuge of the substantial business interests of the country, while the normal restless and radical elements will resume their normal and natural connection with the Democratic party.

THE COMING SESSION.

Forecasts are already being made of the measures to be laid before the Dominion parliament during the session which is soon to convene.

It is gratifying to learn from despatches that there will be many applications for charters for new railway lines, especially in the west. Even with one transcontinental line built, and two more being built, there will still be plenty of room for more. Practically all of Canada's roads run east and west. It is time that some roads were built to open up our northern territories. In the west, with the exception of the Yukon, Edmonton is still the northern limit of railway service. But Edmonton is very far from being the northern limit of habitation and of profitable cultivation. Every year new knowledge is being acquired of the farther northwest and the area of known habitable land is extending steadily farther into the Mackenzie valley.

But railway charters will not be the chief business to be dealt with at the coming session, and they are certain not to be the most interesting either to the house or to the country.

In the last session before a general election, and that this will be the last of the present parliament is generally admitted, members are apt to forget their colleagues and even their leaders and to address their constituencies through the medium of Hansard and the press gallery.

British Columbia's representatives especially will have a lot of explaining to do. It is inevitable that the Oriental immigration question should come up for discussion, and eastern members will naturally inquire of their western colleagues why they silently acquiesced in the ratification of the treaty with Japan if its terms were so unfavorable to British Columbia as recent developments indicate. What will our Solid Seven say? Will they pretend that conditions have changed in the interval, or will they plead that they were misled by the assurances of the Hon. Mr. Fisher, the Dominion's last special envoy to Japan? The first alternative will be too transparent to deceive anyone in British Columbia; the second will be fatal to the government.

But perhaps the most interesting feature of the session will be the changes in the cabinet, those already effected and those that are inevitable. That august body is partially cleansed but some rather highly colored stains remain. Messrs. Graham and Pugsley will face the Dominion parliament for the first time; the former will have to explain the juggling with figures in the financial report of the Intercolonial railway, and the latter will have to substantiate or withdraw his charge delayed for four years, that R. L. Borden was a party to a conspiracy in the campaign of 1904. Then, according to the Toronto World, which always claims and occasionally has, inside information Sir Fred. Borden is at last to relieve the country by retiring, and a general shuffle of portfolios is contemplated.

Whether any measures of real importance will be submitted or not is not yet known, but certainly the coming session should be without a dull moment.

Dates of Consistories.

Rome, Nov. 25.—It has been decided definitely to hold the next secret consistory on December 16, when Mgr. Gasparri will be appointed secretary of the congregation of ecclesiastical affairs, and the Archbishop of Rheims and Mgr. Andruia, Archbishop of Marseilles, will be appointed cardinals. A public consistory will be held on December 19th. On this date the red hat will be placed on Cardinal Rinaldini, ex-papal nuncio to Spain, and Cardinal Augirre, Archbishop of Burgos, Spain, who were raised to the cardinalate at the last consistory.

Football Gates.

New Haven, Nov. 25.—It is announced that the football receipts for the season for Yale will reach approximately $80,000. While this is not a record breaking amount, it is unusually high. Yale and Harvard shared equally $68,000 after Saturday's game, and the receipts of the Yale-Princeton game, also split between the teams, amounted to $66,000.

FOR COPPER CURRENCY

Seattle About To Lead the Way on Pacific Coast in Use of Despised Coins.

Seattle, Nov. 25.—After being in general contempt in Seattle and the entire northwest for over 50 years, the humble penny, the smallest coin in the United States currency, may shortly come into its own here, if the plans now being worked out by various interests is materialized. For over 50 years the penny has been scorned by most tradesmen in the northwest as being too small to be worthy of consideration. It was not long ago that street car conductors felt insulted if given pennies. Gradually however, the use of the penny has become more general. Eastern methods with hair breadth profits have come more and more into vogue, especially in the big department stores, so that in some lines of business trade is done on the penny basis. The small tradesmen, the grocers, the butchers and the wholesalers have been the last to stand out against the entrance of the penny into their business. The objections raised by these interests are not so much that profits will be less as that the use of pennies will be a nuisance and will be of no particular benefit to either merchant and consumer.

The penny has a champion in Seattle in J. J. Higgins, secretary of the Retail Grocers' association, the largest association of tradesmen in the city. Mr. Higgins has already discussed the advisability of doing business on a penny basis with the members of the association. He says, however, that he is soon to take the first long step in that direction by the preparation of a bulletin reviewing the history of the penny and answering the objections that are raised to its introduction into general business in Seattle.

Speaking of the advisability of bringing the penny into full possession of its own, Mr. Higgins said:

"The time has come on the coast when the penny system must be introduced into all kinds of business. There is no valid reason why retailers of all classes should not use the penny in the west. Many articles would be sold higher and many would be sold cheaper. I do not consider this feature of the question important, for the losses would be about offset by the advances.

"I believe that both the interests of consumers and retailers would be greatly furthered by the penny system of business and business transactions would be facilitated. Dry goods and department stores are already working successfully along that line. The retailers may as well make up their minds now that they must face it. Now is as good a time as any. This country if full of eastern people who do not take kindly to our even-money system, and those who have been here the longest cling most tenaciously to the old method. It would put business on a systematic basis, where full benefit of small declines and advances could be had. The retailer, under the present system, must now either wrong himself or the consumer all the time. Pennies were made for a purpose and we should use them. I believe that wholesalers would fall in, as they usually line up their business with the retailers."
