WISE SUGGESTION

Ald. Annable Proposes Frontage Tax

FOR CITY IMPROVEMENT

Matters Discussed at Last Night's Council Meeting—School Debentures Unsold.

Although the city council sat for early two hours last night the matters alt with were not of first class importance. The agreement with J. W. ughes for stree numbering was revised, and the council agreed to pay for e work. Several minor improvements commended by the city engineer were proved.

Two important subjects were broached but no definite action was taken on ther. The preservation of the city harf is a matter of urgent importance d must be provided for soon. Ald. nnable's suggestion that a campaign city improvements, including cleaning of streets, concrete or granolithic dewalks and boulevards, by means of nds raised by a frontage tax, is orthy of every attention and will cerinly be raised again and more definely.

The council met last night at 8 clock. There were present Aldermen Selous, Annable, McMorris, Irving d Rose. Ald. Selous was elected to chair. The minutes were read and opted.

The city engineer reported recommending drawing attention of the provincial authorities to the fact that the iderson creek flume had broken, reatening property; that surface aining be employed near the Burns ock; that the north wall of the fire ll be repaired, and that the Baker reet bridge be partly filled in. The port was adopted with a few amendents, the filling in of the Baker street idge being left to the city engineer do as circumstances permit.

A delegation from the northeast end the city was present, W. Cutler as okesman, asked for the opening of a ad and a side walk up Cedar to Latier street. He explained that a road rmerly used by them was now sold d no longer available.

The request was referred to the city gineer for a report.

John Burns, on behalf of Charles urt, asked that the earth be removed rm in front of his property on the rner of Victoria and Josephine streets, rmerly Tom Ward's residence. The quest was not granted.

A request for a sidewalk on the east de of Hendryx street from Silica to rbonate, was referred to the board of orks.

A numerously signed petition asked at the city pay for the street numbering. Mr. Hughes, the agent of the hiladelphia system, explained that he d met with a general refusal to acept without a guarantee that the work ould be finished, which he could not ive.

Ald. McMorris moved, seconded by ld. Rose, that the petition be granted. Aldermen Irving and Selous opposed e motion, but it was carried by the otes of Aldermen Annable, McMorris nd Rose, the mayor having arrived and aken the chair.

The subject of repairs to the city harf was then discussed but the mayor ad no definite report.

Ald. Rose referred to the council rom the finance committee several tems, some of which were connected vith the building of the 20,000 club offices. Others, of transfer company accounts, were considered excessive and ed to the adoption of a motion instructing the city clerk to consult the city solicitor as to the city's right to egulate cab fares.

A letter from the city medical health officer drew attention to an offensive open sewer at the rear of the No Place inn. The matter was referred to the city engineer.

The street numbering bylaw, and the report of the electrical engineer on the cost of an electric light and telephone line to Procter were left over.

Ald. McMorris suggested the posting of notices on the street cars warning against getting on or off the cars while in motion.

Ald. McMorris also asked that overhanging brush be removed from streets.

Ald. Annable suggested that a frontage tax to meet the cost of street cleaning, concrete sidewalks and boulevards be considered.

Ald. McMorris was told that efforts were being continued to sell the school debentures. Inquiries are still being received but no definite offers.

The city pay roll for August was passed, and the council adjourned to Sept. 9th.

F. A. Smith, city electrician, has prepared his estimate of the cost of construction of an electric light and telephone line to Procter to serve the residents of the shores of the Arm. It has been given roughly to the Fruit Growers' Association, the body representing those chiefly interested. Copies were laid on the table at the counsel meeting last night, but consideration was deferred owing to the absence of Ald. Hume who had asked for the estimate.

The estimate of Mr. Smith is as follows:

50 miles telephone wire at 4c	$ 464.00
36 miles aluminum wire....	3,000.00
75 miles copper wire at 30c.	5,940.00
875 cross arms at 60c.....	525.00
6,600 insulators at 7c.....	462.00
6,600 pins at 3c.....	198.00
1,800 braces at 20c.....	360.00
1,800 bolts at 1½c.....	27.00
900 lags	16.00
3 transformers at $500.....	1,500.00
Linemen, 3 men for 50 days, at $4.00	600.00
Laborers, 50 days at $3.00...	150.00
Total	$13,242.00

Approximate cost of building line to Procter, without poles or pile setting, supplying 2,200 volts.

UNDESIRABLE DEPORTED

Prisoner in Nelson Gaol Leaves for England in Charge of Dominion Immigration Officer.

The first case of deportation of an undesirable under the Canadian Immigration law as lately amended occurred in Nelson this morning.

Thomas Robinson, a comparatively young man, and a South African veteran, sailed from Liverpool for Canada early Last March, and came straight to Cranbrook. There he received employment in a restaurant. In a few days he was arrested on a charge of stealing $150, was convicted and sentenced to six months in the provincial gaol at Nelson, his term beginning on March 27th.

The immigration department was immediately notified. Robinson's record was investigated and it was found that he had served two terms of imprisonment for similar offences in England.

By the remission of one month from his term for good conduct in prison Robinson was entitled to his release this morning.

William B. Ross, of Winnipeg, Dominion immigration officer, arrived in the city several days ago, and left this morning on the Crow boat with Robinson in charge. He will be escorted to Montreal and from there deported back to Liverpool at the expense of the steamship company which brought him to Canada.

On his way east Mr. Ross will gather up many more undesirables for deportation. While in Nelson he stated that there are about 150 of the class referred to suffering terms of imprisonment, at the expiration of which they will be shipped back to the countries whence they came. Robinson, however, his the distinction of being the first to go under such auspices.

Mr. Ross states that preparations have been made for vigorous enforcement of the law against criminals, the professionally vicious, and also against those who seem likely, if allowed to remain, to become a permanent charge upon the public of any Canadian community.

Long on Prayers.

St. Petersburg, Aug. 27.—In telegraphing congratulations to Premier Stolypin, on the anniversary of the attempt to blow up the villa of the premier with bombs, the czar said "I offer a thankful prayer to God who saved your life, that He may crown your work with success."

Improved New Service.

A local train from Vancouver to Kamloops may be placed in operation by the C. P. R. during the coming winter when the double transcontinental express service is discontinued. The service would be daily each way.

COLONIAL STAFF

British Department's New Organization

MAKE THREE DIVISIONS

Lord Elgin, Secretary of State for Colonies, Explains System—One Office for Dominions.

London, Aug. 27.—In the House of Lords today Lord Elgin announced that it is proposed to divide the colonial office into three departments instead of four, as now: one to be the Dominion department, exclusively for business of self-governing colonies; the second for crown colonies; the third for legal, financial and general business, the last to have seven assistant under-secretaries of state. Lucas is head. For duties arising out of the work of the Imperial conference, Mr. Just, joint secretary of the late conference will be appointed.

In connection with the colonial office reorganization, Lord Elgin pointed out that Mr. Lucas has written works of merit on colonial, especially Canadian, history. It is certain the task of recommending the new department to brethren beyond the seas, could safely be trusted to him. Lord Elgin emphasized the fact that the civil service was open to all fellow-subjects who chose to qualify themselves. The colonial office is only too happy to give these a glad welcome, and added that the conference limited him definitely. The line of advance to be pursued carried out the mandate fully, without reserve, though not without sympathy for those who thought there were more advanced posts, which might be occupied at some future time. He thought they had taken possession of the most advanced posts they could safely occupy now.

DOWNEY FOR THE CABINET.

Changes in Ontario Ministry Follow Retirement of Foy.

Toronto, Aug. 27.—There is a rumor that Attorney General Foy will retire from the Whitney government, that W. J. Hanna will become attorney general and J. P. Downey, of Guelph, will succeed him as provincial secretary.

Joseph P. Downey was in Nelson early this year visiting his brother-in-law, T. McAstocker, and made the acquaintance of many Nelsonites. He is admittedly one of the most brilliant speakers in the Ontario legislature, and is recognized in his native province as a public man of great promise.

BIGGEST SKY SCRAPER.

Monstrous Building in New York Will Overtop all Others.

New York, Aug. 26.—Piercing the skyline of New York, far above all the other sky scrapers of the down town district, the lofty Singer building, nearing completion, will within the coming week exceed in height the Washington monument whose solid shaft of granite rises 555 feet above the ground. When the structural steel workers riveted home the last steel beams Saturday before ending their day's work, the steel frame of thirty-six floors of the buildinghad been completed. Eleven more stories remain to be built and when the towering pile of steel and masonry is finished it will be 47 stories high and 612 feet from the sidewalk on Broadway to the pinacle. This giant sky scraper will be the highest occupied building in the world and will overtop all other existing structures except the Eiffel tower in Paris. When completed a time ball will drop every hour from a pole on top of the building and at night the falling hour globe will be illuminated by three lights which will play upon it constantly. The foundation of this colossal building is set in solid bedrock 90 feet below the level of the sidewalk. On the bedrock were built caissons of cement. A heavy steel body laid over the caissons forms the underbody of the structure, 14 floors of which comprises the main section of the building, from which rises the tower of 47 stories with its scores of office rooms. The engineers say the total weight of steel and masonry in the tower is 18,365 tons, while nearly 10,000 tons of steel has been used in the frame work. Eighteen elevators will carry the 2,500 tenants to their offices. Fifteen hundreed incandescent lights sufficient, the engineers say to light a town of 2,500 inhabitants will illuminate the rooms and hallways for late workers. Fifteen miles of pipe will be required for steam and water purposes. An immense copper lantern will form the pinnacle of the building from which at night a powerful search light will flash forth, furnishing a beacon to mariners and will be visible for many miles.

Ottawa's Chateau Laurier.

Ottawa, Aug. 27.—As a result of the conference yesterday with Sir Wilfrid, Mr. C. M. Hays and W. Wainwright, of the Grand Trunk, and D. McNicoll, C. P. Drinkwater and A. R. Creelman, K. C., of the C. P. R., arangements were practically completed for the erection of a million dollar station and hotel, later to fact Major Hill Park and connect with the station by underground passages. The Grand Trunk authorities have decided to name the hotel Chateau Laurier, in honor of Sir Wilfrid.

GOT QUARTER MILLION

Thieves Abstracted Three Money Bags From United States Mails Near Omaha.

Omaha, Neb., Aug. 27.—The biggest robbery of the United States mails ever pulled off occurred between Denver and Omaha last Thursday night, when three through registered pouches, two of which contained $250,000, were stolen from the Burlington Railroad fast mail train between Denver and Chicago. Although the robbery occurred on Thursday night, the news only leaked out today.

Today every postal inspector and secret service man in the entire west is working on the case.

Thursday night seven through registered pouches were sent from the Denver post-office to the depot for the Burlington fast mail train. These were receipted for by the mail clerk. When the train reached M'Cook, Neb., it was found that three of the pouches were missing. One of the missing pouches was destined to Omaha, another to Chicago, and the third was empty for Lincoln. The shipment is said to aggregate more than $250,000.

As soon as the loss was discovered the inspectors were notified and a search begun. Yesterday a dozen secret service men, who were in Omaha, were working on the case. The mail crew handling the missing pouches were examined but exonerated themselves.

It is the opinion of the inspectors that the mail employes in collusion with the thieves simply dropped the missing sacks when they were being transferred from the wagons to the train, got on the opposite side and sneaked away with the mail sacks. The fast trains leave Denver at night and in the darkness they could easily escape with their booty. It is the biggest robbery the United States mail has ever sustained.

The Knight of Pythias will meet in their hall tonight at 8 o'clock. Visiting members are invited to attend.

Not a Hard Guess.

Rome, Aug. 27.—It it stated that the pope will hold a consistory in the autumn to confer the red hat on several Italian and foreign bishops.

Many Complaints.

Washington ,Aug. 27.—More than 100 complaints were filed with the interstate commerce commission today, asking reparation from various railroads in the southeastern territory on account of the yellow pine decision of the supreme court of the United States. Under the law it is necessary that the claims shall be filed within a year of the time the rate law became effective. This year, it is generally said, will expire tomorrow.

Turk in New Role.

Constantinople, Aug. 27.—The Persian legation, having protested against the continued occupation of Persian territory by Turkish troops and the atrocities committed by Kurds in the disputed frontier districts, the Porte has decided to send a commission to the frontier with instructions to make an enquiry conjointly with Persian delegates, and to order the withdrawal of the Turks immediately if it is found that they are on Persian territory. The decision seems to promise a satisfactory solution of the difficulty.

IRISH TROUBLES

Nationalist Member Is Arrested

FOR INCITING TO RIOT

North Longford Enjoys Exciting Times—Militant Sinn Feiners at War with Old Party.

Longford, Ireland, Aug. 27.—James P. Farrell, Irish Nationalist member of parliament for North Longford, and forty others, were arrested early today and are now being tried by a special court conveney for the purpose, on the charge of taking part in "An unlawful assemblage, likely to cause a riot."

Mr. Farrell has been holding meetings throughout his constituency, at which exciting scenes occurred between Nationalists and members of the Sinn Fein society. In addition many cattle have been driven from the grazing lands districts, which the prosecution alleges was encouraged by Mr. Farrell and other speakers. Large forces of police are being dispatched here, trouble being anticipated.

Mr. Farrell is the editor and proprietor of the Longford Leader, a Nationalist newspaper circulating in the counties of Longford, Westmeat, Roscommon and Leitrim, and is the author of "A History of the County of Longford." At the general election of 1900 Mr. Farrell was returned unopposed from North Longford, succeeding Justin McCarthy who resigned.

Dublin, Aug. 27.—Tonight's issue of the official Gazette will contain proclamations by the lord lieutenant-in-council declaring that certain counties and districts are in a state of disturbance, and empowering the lord lieutenant to order extra forces of police to those parts of the country.

CANADIAN DESPATCHES.

Goderich, Aug. 27.—The opening of the Guelph and Goderich branch of the C. P. R. took place yesterday.

Brantford, Aug 27.—William J. Nobel was killed near Brantford yesterday. He working on the electric line, slipped and touched two live wires.

Caledonia, Aug. 27.—Walter Whitlaw, employed by Jno. Barrington, a farmer, committed suicide yesterday by hanging himself in his employer's barn.

Toronto, Aug. 27.—Rev. Dr. Ralph Breckin, formerly one of the best known Methodist ministers of the Maritime provinces, died in the general hospital here yesterday.

Port Arthur, Aug. 27.—Engineer John Chapman, aged 58 years, employed for the past twenty-five years on the tug Hector, was accidentally drowned yesterday afternoon.

Port Arthur, Aug. 27.—The largest local deal in many years was put through yesterday when E. Ringer disposed of all his interests in the Pigeon River Lumber company.

Toronto, Aug. 27.—Parham village was saved from destruction by bush fires by rain yesterday. The people had fought the fire continuously for forty-eight hours and were exhausted.

Toronto, Aug. 27.—The Toronto exhibition was opened this afternoon by Earl Grey, who pressed the button and set the machinery in motion. Heavy rain interfered somewhat with the proceedings.

Toronto, Aug. 27.—The Port Stanley Elevator company, with a capital of $100,000, has been incorporated and will erect elevators at Winnipeg, Fort William and other places as well as materially enlarging the present elevators at Port Stanley. Their purpose is to handle all the grain for Erie mills.

Fort Erie, Aug. 27.—The nine book makers doing business at the Fort Erie race track against whom information was laid before Chief Mains, of Niagara Falls, charging them with keeping a common gambling house, appeared before Police Magistrate Cruikshank this morning, but were remanded until Thursday, August 29.

Valleyfield, Aug. 27.—The strike of Montreal cotton mill employees is over. After being out on a "holiday" for seven days the twenty-five hundred employees returned to work this morning at the company's conditions. The looms are clattering today just as busily as ever, the spinners are hard at work and the town has once again assumed its wonted appearance.

Chatham, Aug. 27.—Charlie Lee, local Chink, last year won a lawsuit against a rival who later disappeared. Lee has just received news from China that a band of pirates massacred his parents, their children and grand children, in fact wiped out the entire family. This he believes is because of his being a former member of a rival Tong, which in this manner revenged itself for being beaten in the local courts.

Brockville, Aug. 27.—In the death of Rev. Dr. Crombie at Smith's Falls there passed away a man who for nearly two score years had filled a large and influential place in the social and religious life of the locality. On March 4th, 1869, he was inducted to the charge of what was then called the Union (Presbyterian) church, now St. Paul's, and continued as pastor until 1887, when he resigned. Fifty-two years ago, at the age of 24, he was ordained. By the people of Smith Falls he was greatly beloved. Dr. Crombie was a bachelor, and a native of Scotland.

STILL NOTHING DOING

New Ministers Will Be Sworn in Before Names Are Announced—No Chance for Sifton.

Ottawa. Aug. 27.—There will be no official announcement of the cabinet appointments until they have been made and the new ministers sworn in officially. The belief in reliable circles is that as soon as Earl Grey returns from Toronto on Thursday or Friday, Sir Wilfrid will be able to present to him the names of his two new colleagues which, according to the most reliable information obtainable, will be Hon. G. P. Graham, minister of public works, and Hon. Wm. Pugsley as minister of railways. The name of Hon. Clifford Sifton has been mentioned as a likely minister, but he is so engrossed in business matters that there is little likelihood, it is said, of his re-entering the cabinet at present.

Himself und Gott.

Berlin, Aug. 27.—Emperor William in address replying to an address of welcome by the Burgomstmer of Hanover yesterday, said in part: "We have to thank the gracious dispensation of Heaven and also the swords of our trusty troops that it has been possible to maintain peace so long."

Wagon's Owner Arrested?

Hanover, Prussia, Aug. 27.—Crown Prince William, while riding in an automobile near Brunswick today, collided with an empty wagon, slightly damaging the prince's car. No one, however, was hurt.

Learned Easily.

London, Aug. 27.—The members of the United States immigration commission, of which Wm. Dillingham, of Vermont, is the head, after spending a few days in England, most of the time sight seeing and gathering data regarding the working of the new English alien immigration law, today went to Liverpool, when they sail for New York, August 29th.

All the Big Powers.

Rio de Janeiro, Aug. 27.—It is officially announced here that Belgium, Switzerland, Roumania, Greece, Denmark, Servia, China, Persia, Chili, Colombia, Bolivia, Ecuador, Paraguay, Argentina and Uruaguay will support the Brazilian proposition regarding the organization of the international high court of justice.

Incident of Strike.

Chicago, Aug. 27.—The telegraphers' strike developed another pathetic feature last night. George E.Purtington, 81 years old, for half a century identified with the business and religious life of Chicago, lies dead in his residence, while his daughter, one of two surviving children, is enjoying herself in Northern Michigan with the possibility of not knowing of her father's death for several days, because of the wire tie up. Her relatives dispatched a letter, trusting for a speedy delivery. Mr. Purtington dropped dead of heart disease yesterday in his home.

Quiet at the Ports.

Paris, Aug. 27.—Vice Admiral Phillbert cables from Casablanca, under yesterday's date, that all the Moroccan ports remain calm, that there has been no further fightin at Casablanca, and that the French scouting parties are not encountering any resistance.

EFFORT RENEWED

Another Attempt To End Old Disputes

ENVOY SENT TO OTTAWA

Hon. Esme Howard, Representing Bryce, Reopens Canadian-American Questions.

Montreal, Aug. 27.—Hon. Esme Howard, one of the chiefs of the British embassy at Washington, is in Montreal on a visit to Canada which is understood to be partly diplomatic or official and partly social. He was met by Sir Charles Fitzpatrick, administrator of the government. It was stated that Mr. Howard would remain here for a day or two and then go to Ottawa where he will confer with the members and leading officials of the government on the questions which are now the subject of negotiations between Great Britain, Canada and the United States. The negotiations, which it is understood, were formally opened by Secretary Root and assumed more definite shape during the visit to Ottawa of Hon. James Bryce, were interrupted while the prime minister was absent at the colonial conference. They will be resumed again practically at once. Mr. Howard's services are said to be in a sense intermediary between the embassy and the Canadian government in any agreement that may be reached between Great Britain and the United States concerning the various questions, commerical. military and industrial which are at issue.

D. R. A. Matches.

British Columbia Marksmen Not in Good Form.

Ottawa, Aug. 27.—Shooting conditions at the D. A. R. matches were splendid today when the Dominion match was the first on the programme. The first was Private S. Rowe, 46th, with 68, and next Private Molton, Australia, with 67. Private W. Nicol, 13th, won the running competition of $5 for each individual day's score.

The first possible in the Gibson match was that of Sergt. Major Dimond, R. C. R., now quartered at Ottawa. The men from all over are holding their own, but the men from British Columbia are so far not showing up to their record.

WEST INDIAN TIMBER.

About Forty Species of Trees Likely to Be Heard of.

There are about forty species of trees in the West Indies, says the United States Consular and Trade Reports, which are likely to be heard of in the future. Yet few of the West Indian woods, other than mahogany, cedar fustic and logwood are of much commercial importance in the United States and Canada, seems practicable in the West Indies. It is very expensive to haul timber from the forests to the coasts, and it is not possible to use river transport , because many of the timbers are too heavy to float. Another obstacle is to be found in the fact that the forests in the West Indies do not have one or two useful species, such as is the case with the forests of the northwestern States. As a rule the individuals of any one useful species generally exist in an isolated state, closely surrounded by single trees of many other species, perhaps more or less useless. Such conditions stand in the way of steady supply of any particular timber, without which it is almost impossible to establish a market. The difficulty in finding a good market for a new kind of wood is that the bulk of the timber trade is limited to a few kinds of wood which he can stock largely, and thus buy to a better advantage, than to use a large number of woods which must be purchased in small lots. Hence, fresh arrivals stand little chance of obtaining a footing unless they show peculiar merits. Any wood which resembles in some way the staple timber and will pass under the same name, will be bought readily on trial and if useful probably adopted. Thus various similar -looking woods are sold as cedars, mahoganies, or ebonies and their sole claim on their trade names is often their resemblance in color and grain to better-known woods.

APPEAL FOR PURE ELECTIONS.

No part of Mr. Borden's remarkable campaign will find a more general and hearty response throughout the Dominion than his unmistakably sincere and earnest plea for the cleansing of the politics of the country from the hideous corruption that has defaced it, and which, it cannot be denied, has grown worse in the last ten years.

Debauching the eletorate by bribery of individuals and of constituencies, cheating of the electors, by personation, by ballot-box stuffing, ballot-switching and other means that have been exposed, are crimes that cannot be palliated by any degree of national prosperity, even if it could be proved that all the prosperity is solely due to the action of the government of the day. They constitute not only a crime against the electors whose intentions are defeated, but also a sin against democracy. Unless the rulers and their policy are endorsed by the honest, unbought, unthreatened, uninfluenced expression of the popular will, representative government becomes a mockery and a lie.

It is easy to retort that the other party has been guilty, "that the devil must be fought with fire," that "politics are not made with prayer," that there must always be a little corruption in democratic elections. Such answers may satisfy the degraded professional corruptionists who stole the seats in London, Prince Albert, Elgin, Huron, Brockville and many other constituencies in 1904. But they have been indignantly condemned by every religious organization in Canada, by every independent public man, and by every head of a university whose position makes his opinion respected. Neither will they be accepted by the great body of electors whose consciences are not the slaves of party prejudice.

If any claim to fame can be pleaded at the bar of history on behalf of Sir Wilfrid Laurier his advocates will have a heavy task in answering for the awful series of political crimes that he permitted and deliberately left unpunished. Not only are the criminals unpunished, the very worst of them have been appointed to the public service. Their deeds—foul as every right thinking man must judge them to be—have been accepted as services to the Liberal party and valid claims to such rewards as the government has in its gift. It is a shameless acknowledgement that the administration owes its life to the acts of a band of criminals.

There is no way now in which Sir Wilfrid Laurier can clear his name. He knew the record of W. T. R. Preston before he employed him. He knew all the crimes that have been committed for his benefit of the vulgar agents of the machine. He knew the corrupt appeals by which Mr. Fielding swept Nova Scotia in 1904. He has given solemn promises of punishment and future prevention, and has broken them with a cynic deliberation that has surprised even those who knew the shameless hypocrisy of his campaign of 1896, when he appealed for tolerance in Ontario while he inflamed the race prejudice of Quebec.

Sir John Macdonald never posed as a saint. He stooped frequently to devices that he loathed. But Sir Wilfrid Laurier, the "stainless knight," has been an accomplice before the fact in crimes that Macdonald would never have forgiven in the meanest campfollower of his host.

How deeply the cancer of corruption has eaten into the Canadian body politic may be appreciated from the general expression of doubt as to the possibility of Mr. Borden's noble appeal being heard with favor. It seems to be feared that the call, which after all is only for common honesty, is too high to win any response from this generation.

It may be so. The electors today may turn with a sigh from the invitation to be clean and wallow again in the trough of Grit corruption. If Mr. Borden's political career should end within the year, he will be forever remembered with gratitude as the man who revived in Canada at the hour of her deepest degradation the conceptions of civic duty and national honor.

EDITORIAL COMMENT.

The Toronto Globe has lately made a comparison of the careers of Sir John Thompson and Mr. Aylesworth and contrasted the treatment of the two by political opponents, of course to the disadvantage of the Tories. It describes both as eminent lawyers and both entering Dominion politics comparatively late in life and at great personal sacrifice. There, however, the comparison ends. Mr. Aylesworth's ability is not denied, nor is his personal disinterestedness. On his entry into political life he was treated with every respect. But he has not followed in the footsteps of the great statesman with whom the Globe compares him. Sir John Thompson did not become a violent and abusive partizan, he was never the apologist of "graft" and corruption, nor did he ever procure the manufacture of material to defame a political opponent under the pretence of investigating a public institution.

It must be evident now to everyone in British Columbia that the Japanese immigration question has been played with for political purposes by the province's representatives at Ottawa. The belligerent Mr. McPherson can indulge in melodramatic imbecility on the wharf at Vancouver, but he could not utter one word of protest while the act which permits the immigration was passed through the House of Commons. Hon. Frank Oliver, minister of the interior, may in the course of a year or two develop some clear ideas on the subject, but his utterances to date are decidedly confused.

It will be a relief to the citizens of Nelson to learn, from the report of last night's council meeting that the delay in selling the school debentures is not due to a quarrel between the council and the school trustees, but to a circumstance over which no one in Nelson has any control, namely the stringency of the Canadian money market. The result however, in none the less regrettable. The children of Nelson must be kept for at least another winter in school quarters of which no one can think with any degree of complacency.

SHORT STORIES.

James Hanny, once a member of the staff of the Pall Mall Gazette, was a typical man of letters. And Huxley, as everybody knows, was a typical scientific man.

Hanny had been a midshipman when Huxley was a naval surgeon. Years after the two met each other on the steps of the British Museum. "Huxley," said Hanny, "I care nothing for man except as a creature of historical tradition."

"Nor I," answered Huxley, "for him except as a compound of gas and water.

"But," he added, "if we were each of us better educated men than we are, we should know how to respect each other's studies more."

Apropos of Gounod, a story is told which shows the difference between the French and the English stye of regarding things. A music-mad young English lady was introduced to a great musician, and, overwhelmed by the happiness of standing in the presence of the composer of "Faust," she addressed him thus:

"O, I am lost for words to express my admiration. Inspired musician, genius, mighty master, what shall I call you ?"

Gounod here interrupted her by patting her on the head and saying:

"Throw your arms around my neck and call me your little rabbit !"

On a certain ship the mate was too fond of the cup that cheers. The captain did his utmost to break him of this habit, and, everything else failing, told him that the next time he was drunk he would write it in the log. For a long time after this the mate stopped drinking, but one day he fell into his old habit. Thereupon the captain wrote the following entry in the log:

"August 12, 19—; 60 deg. north longtitude, 70 deg. west latitude. Mate Jones is drunk today."

The mate begged him to take this off, saying that it would spoil his chances of ever being made captain of a ship. But the captais said, "It's true, isn't it?"

"Yes; but——" replied the mate.

"Well," said the captain, "the record stands."

A few days later the mate had to write the entry. On looking over the log the amazed captain saw this entry:

"August 15, 19—; 80 deg. north longtitude, 67 deg. west latitude. Captain Smith is sober today."

He sent for the mate and demanded what he meant by such an entry, ordering him to take it off.

"Well," said the mate, "it's true, isn't it ?"

"Of course it's true!" roared the captain.

"Then the record stands," replied the mate.

CONSERVATIVE REFORM

R. L. Borden's Appeal for Honesty in Elections and Appointments to the Civil Service.

The part of Mr. Borden's Halifax address which deals with electoral and civil service reform is as follows:

"If I am right in asserting that untainted elections are essential to the success of democracy, am I not right in believing that the Conservative party has today an opportunity of performing a service to the country greater than any which it has rendered in the past? That service will include a determined and vigorous effort to reform and enforce our electoral laws, but it will chiefly consist in the future conduct and management of electoral campaigns. Fight the ballot thief and the briber of the Liberal machine. Strike not only at them but expose and send to the penitentiary if possible the respectable men who supply the funds and superintend the work from a safe distance. Fight also any influences within your own party which favor corrupt methods. Let there be no party fund the details of which may not be known and the expenditure of which cannot be made public. Let your elections be conducted according to honorable, decent and clean methods.

"A campaign of education to this end should be begun and persisted in. But above all these there should be an unflinching determination to pursue by every punishment known to the law the respectable conspirators, and not alone their infamous instruments employed and paid to subvert the will of the people by bribery and ballot switching and every other fraudulent and corrupt practice. At the opening of the last session the Government pledged themselves in the speech from the throne to introduce a bill amending the electoral laws. No such bill was introduced. I criticized their inaction and moved a resolution which was voted down by the usual Government majority. The substance of that motion which I submit to you as an essential article of Conservative policy is as follows:

"More effective provision to punish bribery and fraud at elections, to ensure thorough publicity as to expenditures by political organizations, to prevent the accumulation of campaign funds for corrupt purposes, and to prohibit contributions thereto by corporations, contractors and promoters, to expedite the hearing of election petitions and to prevent collusive arrangements for the withdrawal or compromise thereof, to provide for a thorough investigation of corrupt practices, and if necessary to appoint an independent prosecuting officer charged with that duty, to simplify the procedure therfor, and to enforce the laws so amended.

"What I have said concernig appointments to public office leads me to submit to you another article which should find a place in the Conservative policy, and it is this:

"A thorough and complete reformation of the laws relating to the civil service so that future appointments shall be made by an independent commission acting upon the report of examiners after competitive examination.

Of this feature of Mr. Borden's policy and the difficulty of carrying it out, the Toronto News says:

"Civil service reform is advocated by Mr. Borden. He suggests that appointments should be made by an independent commission, acting upon the report of examiners, after competitive examination. That is a wise and sane policy. It recognizes the evil influence of the spoils system. It admits that men are appointed to office for no reason but the flimsy one of political service. The policy is wholly admirable. But the practical politician is not likely to become enthusiastic over it. How many members of the Opposition in the House of Commons would be willing to sit on the Treasury Benches without dabbling in patronag eand other petty methods of vote catching? Is there one of them who has not, in his constituency, a little band of committee men who, since 1896, have labored and and have not fainted in the hope that a time will come? Is there one of these committeemen who would not expect, if the Conservatives came into power, a public office for which he might be unqualified. The way to secure civil reform is not alone by the academic utterance of a party leader. That is valuable as far as it goes. But it should be backed by the enthusiastic support of the leader's followers in Parliament. When Col. Sam Hughes and Mr. Bergeron are so convinced of the vote-getting capabilities of the Civil Service Reform policy, that they can gaily dash to earth the cherished hopes of some of their most ardent workers, then reform will be within measurable distance. But Mr. Borden's declaration may aid in the good work of stirring public opinion. It is only by causing a popular demand for an independent public service that Civil Service Reform can become a definite political issue. Unfortunately, patronage has been the handmaid of power in Canada for so long that the public is habituated to its shortcomings. Still it is encouraging when the leader of one of the great parties takes so definite a position on so important a question."

Members of the executive committee of the Nelson Liberal Conservative Association will meet in Lennie & Wragge's office tonight at 8 o'clock. All members are requested to attend promptly as there is important business to be transacted.

Bid Ham Goodbye.

At the banquet on the evening previous to their departure from Montreal, a handsome travelling case was presented to George Ham, as a token of the appreciation of the visiting newspapermen of the way in which he had taken care of them during their tour of the country.

From Auld Scotia.

Peter McGregor, of Kaslo, is the proud possessor of a rose tree that grew a few yards from the grave of Robert Bruce. The tree was planted in Kaslo in April and bore an abundant crop of roses. Only Scots or those of Scottish ancestry are favored with roses from Mr. McGregor's tree.

Deputy Minister Arrives.

R. F. Tolme, deputy minister of mines arrived from Trail this morning. He goes to Kaslo tomorrow, returning to Nelson at night, and will leave for East Kootenay Thursday morning. Mr. Tolmie says there is certainly a shortage of coke at Granby and Trail. Beyond that he has no statement to make. He is here to gather information and report to the provincial executive council by whom alone action can be taken.

A Hindu Abductor.

An Indian maiden, twelve years of age, had been abducted from the fishing camp at the St. Mungo, cannery, and Hurla Singh, a Hindu, is charged with the crime. The Hindu was seen by a white man carrying off the girl, but her people have been unable to find any trace of her and have nearly all ceased fishing and gone on a hunt for the girl and her captor, and are threatening body harm on the big East Indian if he is caught. The police have been notified and are endeavoring to locate the pair, but so far have met with no success. The Indians have been unable to give any clue as to which way they went, but it is supposed that the Hindu took his prisoner off in a boat.

Fruit Land Transfers.

D. D. Fraser and A. M. Fraser, who have been in the city for several days, have acquired two valuable properties, those of George Alexander, at Kaslo, and of J. Lang Stocks on the north shore of the Arm, opposite the city. Messrs. Fraser left for England this morning, and will not return until next spring. The properties will be managed for them by James Johnstone, who will be represented at Kaslo by J. G. Palmer. Mr. Alexander's disposal of his residence will not, he says, be followed by the disposal of his mining interests in Kootenay. D. D. Fraser has spent many years in Java, and he thinks many other owners of East Indian plantations will follow him to Kootenay to engage in fruit growing.

Novel Sport.

Nelson has not seen much this year of lacrosse, football or baseball. Three prominent citizens devoted several hours yesterday afternoon to perfecting a new game to replace these obsolete forms of amusement. Catching a number of diminutive toads which are now travelling in myriads up the hill, they improvised a race course on the sidewalk on Ward street in front of the Hume hotel and enjoyed a period of keenly interesting sport. If a toad fell through a crack in the sidewalk the race was promptly called off and a substitute procured. The originators of the new game that promises to be exceedingly popular during the toad season, are a local physician, a mine manager and a well known commercial traveller.

BARGAINS

During the next two or three weeks we propose to offer you The BARGAIN OPPORTUNITY of the year. We have bought freely this year of goods for Fall and Holiday trade, and we begin to realize that we will have to take measures to make room for the new stock. To this end we are overhauling our stock and laying out a lot of odds and ends—lines of which we no longer have sufficient quantities to make a showing. Most of them articles of practical use and value, and marking them at merely nominal prices to clear them out.

TODAY WE ARE PUTTING OUT TOYS

We are putting them in our window with price tickets on them. Look in our window and see what you can get NOW for 10c, 15c or 25c

Remember always, when we say bargains we mean bargains in the truest and fullest sense of the word.
