All Red Route Is to Be War Cry

DOMINION DAY SPEECH

Sir Wilfrid Laurier's Address to Gathering in London—Belated Zeal for Closer Relations.

London, July 2.—At the 23rd Dominion Day dinner held in the Grand Hall of the Hotel Cecil there was a record assemblage in point of numbers and for the 12th consecutive time Lord Strathcona and Mount Royal presided, having Sir Wilfrid Laurier on his right and the Duke of Argyle on his left. Among those present were : Right Hon. Augustine Birrell, Lord Tweedmouth, D. Macnamara, the masters of several of the city companies, a number of members of parliament, the agents general of many of the colonies, Sir Rivers Wilson and the Lord Mayors of London, and Bristol. The guests in all numbered 400. An enthusiastic reception was given the toast to the Dominion of Canada and the governor general, proposed by the chairman, Lord Strathcona, who traced the growth of the Dominion and indicated the strength of the Imperial connection in interchange of visits of the residents, expressing the further hope that ministers also might snatch a brief period in their busy lives to familiarize themselves with the conditions and circumstances of the great Dominion across the Atlantic.

Sir Wilfrid Laurier received an enthusiastic reception and in response made an eloquent appeal for the "All-Red" route.

After paying tribute to the fathers of of the Confederation, those far-sighted statesmen, who builded better than even they knew, and remarking that the Confederation, which in 1867 was a bond on paper, is now a union of hearts ,the premier directed attention to the growth so ably directed and assisted by Lord Strathcona of the Canadian railways.

"The next step to which we shall devote our enterprise is not alone a Canadian enterprise, it is truly an Imperial scheme. The time has come when an "All-Red" line must encircle the earth. For that scheme the people of Canada are ready. The people of Australia are ready.

"I ask myself if the people of England are ready. It is not for us to suggest, still less to insist, what shall be the policy of the English people, but it is not out of place if I remind you British people that five years ago you undertook heavy financial responsibility to assist a line of steamers running between Liverpool and New York. I am not here to blame them for that policy. On the contrary I might approve of it if I were an Englishman, but may I not ask the British people and the British parliament whether what has been done for foreigners cannot be done for people who fly the British flag?" (Loud Applause.)

Continuing, Sir Wilfrid urged that the British parliament should not hesitate to adopt means of getting into better communciation with the Dominion. Referring to the governors general, he said Canada had been most fortunate in all its viceroys.

In a loyal peroration he declared that, while he loved the British Isles, one place took first place in his heart, Canada, covered by the British flag. (Loud cheers.)

Augustine Birrell, responding to the toast "Our Guests," proposed by Donald McMaster, expressed the hope that Ireland, which lay across the path of the Empire, might not be left out of any scheme for its advancement. It was not for him to express any opinion, but if the county of Mayo, for instance, could be brought within three and one half days of the glorious Dominion across the Atlantic it would be a great thing for Ireland, a great thing for the Empire.

T. P. O'Connor also responded to the toast and indulged in a dream of a great central parliament with the basic principle that the greatest security for the unity of the empire was the fullest liberty of its component parts.

The toast list closed with the health of the chairman, eloquently proposed by Lord Tweedmouth. After the dinner Lady Strathcona held a reception.

Chinese Buy Rice Mill.

Victoria, July 4.—The British Columbia rice mills, formerly operated by James Townsley and for a while in operation, have been purchased by Gim Fook Yuen, and are now in full operation manufacturing broken rice, flour and meal, and cleaning rice for the trade. The mill is equipped throughout with special machines for the treatment of rice, and operated by Chinese workmen, who are skilled in the various processes of the business.

DISGUSTED WITH FIGHT

Spectators Who Travelled Hundreds of Miles Angry at Poor Show.

San Francisco, July 5.—Many of the followers of the fistic game whom it cost from $5 to $20 in addition to their railroad fare to see Tommy Burns, the Canadian, solve Bill Squires, the "Australian Mystery," in the first round at Colma, left today for their homes. There were general expressions of disappointment and disgust among those who had come hundreds of miles to see what they believed would be a finish fight. The morning papers declare that the public was sold again, and call the fight a fiasco, and the greatly overrated and widely heralded champion from the Antipodes is cartooned as a "lemon" and "sizzer"; of this amount Burns' share was $8,000, which he was to receive win or lose, as he refused to accept percentage. Squires' share as loser was $4,960.24, and Jeffries received $1,000 as referee. Tom Corbett, who handled the pool room at Colma, estimated that $72,000 changed hands on the fight. Barney Reynolds, Squires' manager, announced that the Australian lost $15,000. Jeffries has announced that since the title remains in America he will not re-enter the ring.

CASUALTY LIST HEAVY

Killed and Wounded in Fourth of July Demonstrations—Total Less Than Last Year.

Chicago, July 5.—The Tribune today says: Thirty-seven men, women and children are dead, and 2,153 are maimed, lacerated or burned as a result of yesterday's excess of patriotism in the United States. The roster of the dead is four more than last year's mortality. A year ago 33 persons were dead on the morning after the Fourth. Unfortunately the deaths will increase day by day and even the last days of August will witness additions to the list. Tetanus, that grim aftermath of gun powder wounds, claims its victims by scores and even by hundreds for weeks after the Fourth.

New York leads all cities of the United States in the number injured, with Pittsburg a close second in the grim race. The total number of injured, 2,153, is under last year's figures, which were 2,789. The figures show that this year, at least, the most of the casualties were due to carelessness in handling firecrackers and other forms of harmless explosives. Victims of gunpowder this year stand second in number but show a marked decrease from last year's figures. The crusade against the deadly toy pistol seems to be bearing fruit, as this year only 205 victims are reported, as against 304 last year.

Fruit Exchange.

There is some agitation among fruit-growers to organize an exchange. The experience of the present year seems to demand a change in the arrangement of marketing the fruit crop. The *fruit men are undergoing the same ex*perience as the California fruit-growers did in the early development of the industry. For years the lack of proper facilities for the shipment of oranges resulted in great loss to the growers. However, they learned by experience, and with the aid of the railways the trouble was settled satisfactorily. Just now the difficulty appears that there is not fruit enough grown to make it worth while for the railway companies to establish a refrigerator car service, and as a consequence much of the fruit is ruined in shipment. Some believe that the solution of the problem would be the establishment of a fruit-canning factory. By this means the fruit that is the most likely to suffer in shipment could be utilized to advantage. The matter is one that should receive early consideration. There is not the slightest reason to believe that there would be any difficulty in securing subscribers to stock to successfully carry on a canning factory. One has already been established in Kelowna.

Buying Land.

John A. and Wm. Muir, of Lethbridge, have purchased 200 acres of land from F. L. Hammond and will subdivide it into 10-acre blocks. They have returned to Lethbridge, and will come back to the Kootenays again in a month with a number of men who will start clearing two acres of each block and planting fruit trees.

Prices of Metals.

RESULT OF VISIT

Premier's Mission Viewed in London

PROVINCE GAINS MUCH

English Paper's Summary of Dispute Over Canadian Subsidies and the Two Appe. ,

The Canadian Gazette, o London, in its issue of June 20th, cont ns the following summary of Richard McBride's mission to England and its results:

British Columbia may well feel satisfied with the result of the mission to England of her prime minister. It has its sequel in Mr. Winston Churchill's statement in the house of commons last Thursday and in the Bill for the readjustment of the Federal subsidies to the Canadian provinces which is now before the British parliament. We may indeed expect that this Imperial legislation will mark the beginning of the end of a dispute between the Dominion and the provinces which has been the subject of keen political feeling. It was the supreme issue in the recent general election in British Columbia, when Mr. McBride was returned to power by a largely increased majority.

The main facts of the situation can be stated in a few sentences. At the 1906 conference of the provincial premiers held at Ottawa the Dominion government assented to a readjustment of the allowances made to the provinces out of the Federal treasury in view of the heavy demands of the various services of administration—roads, streets and bridges, education, administration of justice, hospitals, charities, and so on. The scheme as agreed upon between the Dominion and the governments (British Columbia alone dissenting), and now embodied in the Bill before the Imperial parliament, grants increases in the specific and per capita Federal subsidies to the provinces amounting in all to $2,372,000, distributed as follows:

Ontario	$789,484
Quebec	599,865
Nova Scotia	177,659
New Brunswick	130,000
Manitoba	130,000
Price Edward Island	70,000
Alberta	130,000
Saskatchewan	130,000
British Columbia	215,000

Of this $215,000 to British Columbia $100,000 is a special annual grant made to British Columbia for 10 years on account of her exceptional claims.

As we say, each province was a consenting party to the arrangement ex*cept alone British Columbia.* At Ottawa Mr. McBride stoutly maintained—and the principle of his contention found general support—that the exceptional demands made upon his province called for exceptional favorable treatment. Thus he urged that "the charges against the province through customs and excise revenues, to which may properly be added heavy freight bills, arising out of long distance from centres of supply in the east, are several times greater than in the other provinces, and thus to that extent lessen the ability to maintain the cost of local administration." Moreover, "the responsibilities of population involved in the increase of population in British Columbia, as will be shown, are several times greater than elsewhere in Canada by reason of a combination of disadvantageous conditions, mainly physical in their nature. The contentions that increased subsidies to the provinces to permit of their still further development would bring increased revenues to the Dominion as a compensation apply with peculiar force to the particular case of British Columbia. This province has, admittedly great sources of wealth. Obviously, however, owing to the physical obstacles to overcome, to make these sources available by development an expenditure very much larger than in other provinces is required; but, as British Columbia has in the past contributed, and in the future must continue to contribute, in an excessive ratio to the Federal treasury, as compared with the rest of Canada, so the Dominion for relatively increased subsidies to this province will reap a corresponding increase in revenue to the treasury." So ran a part of the contention of British Columbia. Sir Wilfrid Laurier and his colleagues in the Dominion cabinet, were not prepared to go further than the proposal for an annual payment to British Columbia of $100,000 for ten years over and above what the other provinces received. This concession Mr. McBride considered inadequate, and on the adoption of this resolution he withdrew from the conference. The sequel is found in his present mission in London.

It has been contended that the Dominion government need not have come to the Imperial parliament for a confirmation of an arrangement already embodied upon the Canadian statute book. Canada, it was suggested, being mistress of her own revenues, could dispose of them as she pleased. But Sir Wilfrid Laurier and his colleagues, desiring as far as possible to give finality to the readjustment and to relieve Canada from further provincial demands, decided to have recourse to Imperial legislation, and with this end in view the resolutions to the Dominion parliament declared the readjustment to be "final and unalterable."

Since he came to London Mr. McBride has had prolonged conferences at the Colonial office, and especially with the under-secretary, Mr. Winston Churchill, with results of the highest importance to his province. In the first place, Mr. Churchill, when introducing the bill to the house of commons, made it clear that while British ministers and the British parliament do not know enough about the relative interests concerned to judge on which side the merits of the claim lie, yet it must not be assumed that in a case of this kind his majesty's government "will always be prepared necessarily to accept the Federal point of view as against the provincial point of view," and he added:

"Such a deduction would be of too sweeping a character. The question we have to ask ourselves is, do the constitutional amendments which are now demanded, do they command the support of the great majority of the people of Canada? And about that I think there can be no doubt whatever. The Federal government in which British Columbia is represented has before expressed its opinion, and all the provinces are in favor of the arrangement embodied in this Bill with the exception of one of the smallest provinces. Five millions of the population of Canada are represented in support of the measure, as against 176,000, the population of British Columbia. We have therefore decided that we shall introduce a Bill to give effect to the wishes of the great majority of the Canadian people. Several Canadian statesmen who have been in this country have urged very strongly upon us the importance of proceeding with this legislation. The prime minister of Quebec, also Sir Wilfrid Laurier and Mr. Fielding, the finance minister of the Dominion, all have made personal application to my noble friend Lord Elgin or to myself upon this question."

The Bill therefore must go through; but it goes through with an important modification conceived in the interests of British Columbia. What Mr. Winston Churchill went on to say was most inadequately reported in the English journals. It was as follows:

"Mr. McBride, the prime minister of British Columbia, has also stated his case very fully to us. He has with great frankness and much force placed us in possession of the views and grievances of British Columbia. We have endeavored so far as possible—while we are unable to adopt his opinions entirely—to make the legislation agreeable to him, and we have not introduced into the legislation the words 'final and unalterable' which it had been proposed to introduce, and which would have prejudiced British Columbia's chance of making some other friendly arrangement in the future with the Dominion and with the other provinces."

This, then, is one result of Mr. McBride's mission—he has kept the door open for negotiations with the Dominion government. Indeed, a clause in the Imperial measure specifically declares that "nothing in this Act shall affect the obligation of the government of Canada to pay to any province any grant which is payable to that province, other than the existing grant for which the grant under this Act is substituted."

Mr. McBride, having seen the Imperial measure through its second reading, expects to sail for British Columbia on June 28 in company with Mr. Laurence Macrae, who, in his capacity as private secretary, has been able to be of material assistance to Mr. McBride in his mission.

Off for Winnipeg.

The committee in charge of the exhibit for Winnipeg has secured the services of John Hyslop to accompany James McPhee in charge of the Nelson entry. Both are practical and successful fruit-growers. They will leave here next Monday morning. Only tomorrow remains for the citizens of Nelson to contribute articles still required to make the exhibit a success.

The managers request gifts of clover, grasses and anything special in vegetables, such as early potatoes.

Any good views of the district taken by professionals or amateurs, will be gratefully received, well cared for and promptly returned.

P. G. Ebbutt will take charge of the forwarding of fresh supplies from day to day.

The task of the committee is now finished as far is it is within their control. The degree of success that will be achieved by the enterprise depends now on the nature of the response to this final appeal.

Let Nelson for once prove false the frequent charge that its population is composed of a few workers and a swarm of drones. There are very few who will not benefit by the enterprise. Everyone should therefore do something to assist and not be an undeserving participant in profits.

FIGHTING BEGUN

Bloodshed in Alaska Over Right of Way

"GO-DEVIL" IS CAPTURED

First Conflict Results in Victory for Guggenheim Forces—Appeals to Governor for Troops.

Seattle, July 5.—A despatch to the Post-Intelligencer from Valdez, Alaska, says that one man is dead, another is fatally injured, and nine are seriously wounded as the result of the first conflict between the Guggenheim and the Bruner interests at Katalla on Wednesday. The fight is over the right of way which the Bruner forces are protecting. The Guggenheim interests stationed detachments of armed men at points commanding the disputed ground early in the day. Tony Depascal, in charge of a party of laborers, started out to lay track over the Bruner right of way under cover of a fire from these camps.

A brisk fire was opened from the other camp but Depascal succeeded in capturing the steel "go devil" on which the Bruner camp had relied to destroy the work done by their opponents. Representatives of the Bruner interests are making every endeavor to have Governor Hoggatt order troops to the scene of hostilities.

ALBERTA CROP REPORT

Record Product Expected This Year in Foot Hills Province.

Winnipeg, July 5.—N. Bawlf, president of the Northern Elevator Co., returned from a trip through North and South Alberta, says that between Winnipeg and Moose Jaw, the crops are looking well, but are a week or more later than usual. From Calgary to Edmonton the spring wheat is just the same as it was last year, and is looking exceedingly well and some of it is 12 to 13 inches high.

In Southern Alberta, from Calgary to Macleod, the spring wheat is looking fine, and is just as early as it was last year. The fall wheat is looking exceedingly well and is from 15 to 18 inches high at the present time, with an increase of acreage of 25 per cent. over last year.

"In fact, all of Alberta, north and south, has an air of prosperity this season. In Calgary business is very good; large industries are opening up in the jobbing line; wholesale houses, flour mills, oatmeal mills and a terminal elevator are being constructed.

"I have been travelling through North and South Alberta for the last 15 years and I never saw the country looking so well at this season of the year. They are getting a large number of the very best settlers, who are breaking up a lot of land in both North and South Alberta."

Despite the backward spring many districts can boast of well developed crops. A. Haacke, of Strathclair, Man., sends samples of wheat grown on his farm. The stalks are 16 to 18 inches long. He says: "This wheat was grown on my farm, nine miles north of Strathclair in the section commonly known as Egypt."

Fire Losses.

At the meeting of the city council, held on Monday night, the fire chief reported 13 alarms during the first six months of the year, with losses estimated at $2,000. The principal fires were Taylor & McQuarrie's store and the residence owned by Blake Wilson on Victoria street. The insurance on property at risk was $50,000. The chief reports that the total destruction of a building has not occurred since he assumed office on March 31st, 1906.

Real Estate Men Meet.

There was a meeting of real estate men this morning, and several matters which concerned their interests were discussed. Among other things it was decided to send John Hyslop to Winnipeg with the exhibit. Some matters in connection with fruit shipments were taken up, and it was decided to make certain recommendations to the fruit-growers' association in the hope of being able to remedy the evils complained of.

British Prisoner.

London, July 5.—The British government has communicated with the Moroccan government demanding that prompt steps be taken to insure the release of General Sir Harry McLean, commander of the Sultan's body guard, who was captured by Raisuli, the bandit chief, and is being held a prisoner pending the granting of Raisuli's terms for his surrender.

TRIAL RESUMED.

Guessing at Plans of Counsel for Defence—May Call Moyer.

Boise, July 5.—The Haywood trial will proceed today, when the defence expects to clear up most of its remaining minor witnesses. William D. Haywood or Charles H. Moyer will be called to the stand Saturday if the present plans are carried out, and the climax of the defence wil lthen be reached. It is probable that Haywood will be the last upon the stand and his examination and cross-examination should run well into the middle or latter part of next week.

Lumbermen Drowned.

Bangor, Maine, July 4.—By the capsizing of their canoe in St. Croix Lake, near Howebrook, Aroostook county yesterday, three employees of the Fish River Lumber company were drowned. The victims were Fred Logan and Thomas Hill, of St. John, N. B., and Charles Gough, of Fredericton, N. B.

Tramway Receipts.

The total receips of the city tramway service for the six months ending June 30th were $3,275.75. The receipts for the corresponding period of last year were $2,493.90.

JAPAN'S WORK IN KOREA

Marquis Ito's Administration Successful—Rulers Disgusted at Recent Appeal to Hague.

Seoul, July 5.—Inquiry shows that general disgust is the main effect among Japanese here as a result of the conspiracy in sending a Korean deputation to The Hague, the telegraphic disclosures of which interrupted the Korean Emperor's profuse assurance to Marquis Ito of his confidence in him and his reform plans and especially his *supposed ardent desire for a sincere or*ganization of the cabinet. Marquis Ito is much disappointed, and now must proceed in the face of the Emperor's intrigues, which have falsely elated a large section of the upper classes who are anticipating a miracle in Korea. Measures intended to rid the palace of foreign and native mischief makers and adventurers were introduced by the Japanese in the cabinet last Monday, but Marquis Ito despairs of saving the Emperor himself and the administration is disposed to confine its appeal to the people. Although Ito's administrative machinery is incapable of ministering justice to the Korean people, Japan ahs executively and in the matter of creating a base of operations and establishing a highway to Manchuria, been strikingly successful in Korea.

Marquis Ito declared that it would require 10 years to produce a modern government in Korea, while local governors say that it will take three years to dispose of the abuses and outrages resulting from the contact of the Koreans with the Japanese. The latter are estimated to be now 100,000 strong in Korea.

No Ground for Complaint.

The complaint that the Kootenay mattress factory, which is making the fruit boxes, is not supplying the growers with boxes fast enough, should be somewhat modified. The difficulty has been caused on account of the unusually large crop of strawberries. It was not anticipated that the crop would be as large as it is, and preparations were not made to supply the increased demand. Besides, some of the growers did not send in their orders until the last hour, and, unreasonably so, expected to have their orders filled at once. When it is considered that this is the first year the Kootenay Mattress factory has engaged in this work, and that the preparations to be made for handling it were very extensive, it must be admitted that as much has been accomplished as could be reasonably expected.

Last Mail From North.

Ottawa, July 5.—A last winter's mail has been received by Comptroller White of the Northwest Mounted Police, from the police posts on the shores of Hudson bay. One is from Fullerton, dated January last, and the other from Major Moody, who wintered at Churchill. It was written in February at both of these outposts, where the men passed an uneventful winter experience. There were no deaths, no sickness and no suffering. The neighboring natives are reported to have been in good health. The mail was sent to York House, and was brought down by Hudson's Bay company carriers when the navigation on the streams opened.

BAD NEWS AGAIN

Indian Unrest Far From Being Allayed

LAWLESSNESS SPREADS

All Classes in Bengal Join Movement Against British—Assaults Frequent—Students Are Defiant.

New York, July 5.—A London despatch to the Sun says that Indian despatches represent the trouble in India as increasing. A correspondent who has returned to Calcutta from three tours of the most disaffected districts in Bengal, telegraphs that the seriousness of the situation is hardly realized by the European in India or at home. The discontent has spread among the land holders and the Bengal aristocracy as well as among the peasants and coolies. An active organization known as the National Volunteers, which has branches in almost every town and village, is being trained in archery and sword exercises by well-paid instructors. They preach everywhere against the British and actively push the boycott of British goods. Men who cannot be threatened and who still maintain relations with English officials are punished by a social boycott, the deadliest weapon that can be employed against a Hindu.

Hundreds of tales or lawlessness and oppression by the National Volunteers come from every district. The rural police are too weak or too disaffected to take action. The people are gradually losing respect for order and authority. Several land owners have usurped executive and administrative powers by imprisoning tenants. In the Barial district committees of public safety have been formed. These committees hold judicial inquiries, summon witnesses and punish offenders. The government has exhausted its reserve of police from other provinces. These are posted in small batches about the country but are unable to prevent the persecution of loyalists.

The feature of the situation is the growing number of assaults on Europeans. Europeans go about armed with revolvers. European passengers carry shotguns on trains. Ladies are afraid to travel on the Assam-Bengal railway. A traffic officer said there was danger of certain sections of the line being closed owing to the reluctance of guards and drivers to take the trains out.

The impression is gaining strength that firearms are filtering into eastern Bengal. All over Bengal national schools, financed entirely by Bengalis, and disclaiming all connection with the government, are springing up. The students in the government-aided colleges in Calcutta are openly defying the recent government circular prohibiting students froom attending political meetings. The students not only address the meetings but implore the reporters to mention their names in the newspapers.

Hungary's Chronic Trouble.

Budapest, July 5.—After a final protest against the provision in the government's railroad bill requiring the extensive use of the Hungarian language in the railroad service of Hungary, 40 Croatin deputies today left the lower *houseof parliament in a body and re*fused to further participate in its work. The Croatians say that the language provision is in violation of the Hungarian-Austrian compromise, and they obstructed the measure for weeks until finally the Hungarian government promulgated the bill by decree, causing a further embitterment of the relations between Croatia and Hungary.

Taft's Holiday.

Millbury, Mass., July 15.—Secretary Taft, of the war department, who came here to visit his mother, left yesterday for Manchester, by the sea. From Manchester he will go to Murray Lake, Canada, to join his family.

G. N. R. Delayed.

The breakdown of an engine on the Red Mountain branch yesterday delayed the Rossland connection with the S. F. & N. railway, and delayed the northbound train, which did not reach Nelson till a late hour this morning.

Friday, July 5th, 1907.

NELSON'S GROWING YEAR.

Nelson has now celebrated Dominion Day in her usual enthusiastic way. Our American residents with the assistance of their many friends, have duly observed the big republic's independence Day. The next excitement, the annual fruit fair, is nearly three months away. An interval is now afforded for taking stock of the situation and measuring the gains made by the city and district during the first half of 1907.

To take the mining industry first, as the earliest and still the greatest resource of Kootenay, while no sensational strikes have been reported in the immediate vicinity of Nelson, it is affirmed by those in the best position to know, that the output is greater and the net profits greater now than in any former year. The wages of the miners and smelter men, and the conditions under which they work are also more satisfactory than ever before, and there is at present no sign of industrial trouble. It is true that some properties in the district, from which much was hoped, have not yet fulfilled anticipations, but on the whole mining is in a healthy condition, with appearances of permanency that are evidently satisfactory to investors.

The lumbering industry is still enjoying the high prices obtaining for the last two years and there is no indication of any contraction of the market.

But, naturally, it is in the newest industry, fruit growing, that the most marked progress has been achieved. The active dealing in fruit land and the transfer of large blocks at prices that many consider merely speculative, are of interest only to those concerned in them, but what is of importance to the whole community is the fact that the number of actual settlers and producers has increased by nearly a hundred per cent., that there is a far larger area under cultivation and more trees in bearing than last year, and that the experience of all is fairly successful. In spite of pessimistic forebodings there is no room for doubt that the industry is permanent and will be a steadily growing factor in the prosperity of Kootenay.

The city is not experiencing a real estate boom but such transfers of city property as have occurred, and they are fairly numerous, have shown a substantial increase in values. There is a growing demand for residential property, which is being gradually met, and there is no danger of over-building.

The financial stringency which is being experienced in Eastern Canada, and which, it is generally feared, may cause a period of industrial depression by preventing the carrying out of many undertakings and so reducing the demand for labor, is unlikely to injure Kootenay to any extent. Money invested in Kootenay has, as a rule, been put into properties that will be immediately productive, and the demand for labor remains far in excess of the supply. Money for future development should be steadily available from profits from investments already made.

Meanwhile the influx of new settlers shows no sign of reduction. The majority are men with ample means to develop the property they acquire. The growth of the Nelson district is on the whole of the most satisfactory kind, it is healthy, substantial and permanent.

EDITORIAL COMMENT.

Theodore Roosevelt and his work are the subject of comment and speculation in many quarters, from the statesmen of Europe to Mr. Dooley. He has stated positively that he will not again be a candidate for the presidency. As he is a man that knows his own mind and usually means what he says, there is no reason to doubt the sincerity of that statement. But, though he will not again be a candidate, it seems fairly certain that he will exercise a powerful influence on the choice of his successor. The names of eligible candidates are already being canvassed. The majority of American electors will probably wish for their new president a man who will continue Theodore Roosevelt's policy of peaceful and dignified relations with foreign powers, and justice and cleanness in domestic administration.

R. L. Borden's Dominion Day speech has been the subject of comment in all part of the country. It is generally regarded as a political manifesto to the electors of Canada, and its extremely moderate tone, the evidence of profound thought, and the earnest plea for an organized effort for electoral purity, have made a favorable impression even among the supporters of the present government.

From despatches received to date it appears that the Fourth of July casualty lists have been much smaller this year than usual. This does not indicate any cooling of American loyalty and patriotism, but only that our neighbors are getting used to their independence and power and able to regard them as matters of course.

HAMMER STILL MAYOR

Grand Forks' Chief Magistrate Thinks Better —Triple Camp Boom.

(Special to The Daily Canadian.)

Jeffrey Hammer is still mayor of Grand Forks, he having, at a regular meeting of the city council held last evening stated that "in view of the fact that several important contracts with the city were pending he had decided to withdraw his resignation as mayor which he had handed to the city clerk a few days ago." The matter of the obnoxious salary bylaw was not brought up at this meeting of the council. A general feeling of satisfaction exists here as to the outcome of this civic muddle.

Word reached here last evening from Triple camp, on the west fork of Kettle river, that there is great activity in that camp, the Carmi, Duncan, Sally and about half a dozen other properties starting development work. Prospectors are having a second innings in the camp as well as the mining man, who is strongly in evidence, and the camp generally is assuming a most prosperous appearance.

Japanese Pouring In.

Mexico City, July 5.—Two hundred and sevenety-five Japanese landed at Salina Cruz Wednesday. They are headed for the coal mines in the district of Las Esperanzas. Joseph Strand, a Chinese immigration inspector stationed at El Paso, who arrived in this city yesterday, stated that Japanese are flocking to the border in great numbers and buying tickets from Juarez through to Canada to enter the Unitde States. In stead of going to Canada, it is stated that many stop at convenient points in the United States

Shot From the Street.

New York, July 4.—While combing her hair at the window of her room, Nimiha Grezzanti, 19 years of age, an Italian girl, was killed today by a bullet through the head, which the police are convinced was fired by some one who sought to conceal the source of the fatal shot in the noise of Fourth of July fireworks. Another shot buried itself in the wall of the room. The tragedy occurred on Elizabeth street. The police have so far been unable to find any motive for the shooting as she was not known to have any enemies.

DR. SPROULE PERSISTS

Reiterates Opposition to Negotiations Between Sir Wilfrid Laurier and Vatican Authorities.

Winnipeg, July 5.—Dr. T. S. Sproule, M. P., Most Worshipful Master and Sovereign of the Loyal Orange association of British America, and president of the Triennial Orange Council of the World, is the guest of his nephew, W. H. Sproule, of Fort Rouge, during his visit of 10 days to Winnipeg, and will be in frequent conference with the local officials of the association. Dr. Sproule will attend the special meeting of the local lodge in Orange hall this evening, which is expected to be crowded with members in expectation of important statements from the worshipful grand master on subjects directly connected with the order, and more especially as regards the result of proceedings and the action of the National Canference recently held in Vancouver, when a speech delivered by Dr. Sproule stirred the French Catholics and the members of the Liberal party and the Laurier cabinet to a high pitch of indignation by the imputation in Dr. Sproule's Vancouver speech that Sir Wilfrid Laurier never failed to visit the vatican at Rome just prior to an approaching general election.

Dr. Sproule, although somewhat averse to continuing the controversy, in what might seem a vindictive manner, reiterated the statement that the entire Orange association of approximately 400,000 members, in Canada, was unalterably opposed to vatican control of Canadian national affairs.

"While I was, to a certain extent, misquoted," said Dr. Sproule this morning, "yet it does not materially affect our position in the matter. The statement I made in my address to the con*vention at Vancouver, that the prime* minister of Canada made a periodical visit to the pope, at Rome, just prior to a general election, was not original with me, but was a quotation from *Bereshoff's journal, a reliable publica*tion and one I have good faith in whatever it prints.

"Nevertheless, the fact that the statement was not original with me and merely a quotation, does not in the least alter the fact that Sir Wilfrid Laurier visited Rome previous to the last two general elections, and realizing his uncompromising attitude on the separate school question, the members of the Orange association do not intend to sit supinely by while papal influence is allowed to permeate the principle of our national government as it affects our *system and methods of public educa*tion.

"The Orange association has no quarrel with Sir Wilfrid Laurier or with his religion, but we do vigorously oppose any policy of government that is either suggested or dominated by the Catholic church of Rome. We shall continue to fight bitterly Sir Wilfrid Laurier or any other Canadian minister who plans to place the school system on any other basis than that of absolute secular publicity. The Orange association is not in politics, nor any particular religion, but where the broad scope of national welfare is menaced by special legislation or policy, for the benefit of any religious body or association, either Catholic or Protestant, then we are in politics and religion too, to a finish."

"Is it a fact, Dr. Sproule, that when a Liberal member of the Orange association is elected to parliament, or to the cabinet, he generally forsakes the Orange principles?"

"I regret to say that in many cases that is true. They are not always as good Liberal Orangemen after election either in parliament or position as they were before. Emmerson is a notable *example. He was the highest dignity*ary in the order, in his province, and was a true Orangeman until he became a member of parliament and later a cabinet minister. Now, I don't suppose he ever thinks of the order, or if he does, he doesn't make much noise about it. For Emmerson to be a good Orangeman and a member of Laurier's cabinet at the same time would be utterly in*consistent to one or the other.*"

"What is the status of the separate school question now, in the West, so far as you have observed?"

"In Saskatchewan it is not so encour*aging as we had been led to believe by* speeches in the provincial and Dominion parliaments. We understood that Saskatchewan had only two separate schools, but we learned sometime prior to the Vancouver convention that there were many in that proveince, though all of them were not in operation. There has been a sort of an insidious growth of the separate schools between here and British Columbia. It has not been of large dimensions, but enough to show the members of the Orange association that if they intend, by the weight and influence of their rapidly incressing numbers, to keep out the practise of any particular creed or orthodox faith from the public schools, they must exercise a constant vigil and meet that kind of a policy with its own weapons. It is a dangerous controversy and one doesn't like to precipitate this question into a vortex of public recriminations, but the Orange association will do its duty, nevertheless."

Dr. Sproule had not decided what will be the subject of his address to the Manitoba Orangemen on July 12, when it is expected that every lodge will send its delegates to Winnipeg to take advantage to fair week. The occasion will be of special import to local Orangemen and the vexed question of separate schools will again be threshed over for possibly the thousandth time in Orange meetings.

H. C. Hocker, editor of the Orange Sentinel, which has so relentlessly assailed the Laurier administration and the Catholic church, on the separate school question, was to have met Dr. Sproule at Regina, and was supposed to be in Winnipeg, but it was found that he had gone to his home in Toronto.

Sons of England.

At the regular meeting of the local lodge of the Sons of England last evening there were two initiations. G. Sanders, district deputy of the Winnipeg district, was present and addressed the members.

Will Return Tonight.

Dr. and Mrs. McLean, of Edmonton, will reach Nelson this evening, after spending a three-months' honeymoon in Australia. Mrs. McLean is a sister of Mrs. S. S. Taylor, and the wedding took place in Nelson last March.

Potatoe Famine.

Grocers report a great scarcity of potatoes at present. At this time of year no one wishes to lay in a stock of old potatoes and the new ones are not reaching the markets very rapidly. The late spring all over the continent has probably delayed the maturing of the crop by several weeks.

More Settlers.

Fred England and George A. Gessell, two farmers of Neudorf, Sask., with their families, have arrived and gone to work on their fruit ranches at Fruitvale, 40 miles south of Nelson. They brought with them a carload of settlers' effects and a yoke of oxen. Utilizing oxen in fruit-growing in British Columbia will be something of a novelty.

Fourth of July Dinner.

J. F. Langan, a native of Ontario, for many years a citizen of Chicago, later of Winnipeg and Nelson, was the host at a very pleasant gathering in the Hume dining room last evening, in honor of American Independence Day. After an excellent dinner had been disposed of, C. V. Hall acted as toast master and an impromptu and informal programme was given. Toasts were drunk to the King and the President, "Our Cousins," "Our City," "The Fruit Growing Industry," and the "Ladies." Speeches were made by the host, by W. C. Wells, the mayor, Dr. LaBau, Dr. Willson, Ald. Selous and others. An orchestra furnished instrumental music and J. Waixel contributed a song. Shortly after 11, the banquetters organized a torch light procession.

With Another Company.

Miss Lucia Nola, formerly prima donna of the Roscian Opera company, in writing to a Rossland friend, says she is now the prima donna of the Beggar Prince Opera company. The Beggar Prince opera company is playing at the Arkansas Hot Springs at present. Miss Nola states that she sang "Sunshine and Shadow" as a solo in the Imperial theatre the evening before and the audience was so pleased with it that she had to give the second verse in response to the encore. The song is becoming a favorite one with her audiences. The song is the production of two Rosslanders.
