Chief Engineer Schreiber, and Engineer Douglas of the railway ment testified that the govern- officers did not supervise or in- the superstructure of this bridge while under construction. Mr. Douglas examined the plans but only as he supposed for the purpose of the tenders. Everything was left to the officers and advisors of the bridge company. The Government bridge expert, says now that he had suspicions before the accident respecting the chord which seems to have been defective. But he was not asked to express an opinion, and when he objected to the consulting engineer's plan, he was overruled. This show a remarkable want of vigilance on the part of the Government, seeing that the company which was allowed a free hand had not invested a quarter of a million on the enterprise while the government was assuming a liability of seven to ten millions. The Statute clearly required government approval of the plans and departmental inspection of the work.

Within a few months we have had the collapse of the lift lock structure on the Trent canal, the fall of the Laurier tower at Ottawa, and the Quebec bridge catastrophe, all in public works supposed to be under supervision of Government officers, all built according to plans approved by Government, and all paid for by the people of Canada.

KIPLING IN VANCOUVER

Text of Poet's Address to Canadian Club Has Seen Greater Problems Solved by Britons.

Vancouver, Oct. 8.—Rudyard Kipling, speaking before the Canadian Club yesterday afternoon, in referring to Vancouver, pictured an army pouring through a mountain pass, the vanguard moving on and becoming lost in the great landscape searching for transportation and shelter, and likened the immigration from the east to this simile.

He continued: "If I had not as great faith as I have in our breed and in our race, I would tremble at your responsibilities, but I have in you who have come through the mountain passes already, as I believe in the great throng that is on its way through the mountain passes here, a fertilizing stream that no power can check, though they may strive for a little time to delay it.

"You have a rightful pride in your city. My pride is in your destiny. The head of this great army has scarcely emerged through the passes. In a short time it must come through in a flood. It is you, gentlemen, who are responsible for the handling of that army, not the Dominion, but the province. You will see that great army corps coming through with their wives and children looking for homes, and perhaps it is worth while to remember that the state depends on the family and the family on the woman and the woman on the home.

"I beg you to believe that if I have not spoken on your problems it is not because I underrate the problems which confront you. I have lived too long among men overwhelmed by problems darker than those which confront you. I have seen them borne down by those problems but I have never known them to be overcome by them.

"Let us so order our affairs that our children and and our children's children may say 'Our fathers secured us a goodly heritage,' and bless our memory. Than this there is no higher reward for a nation."

Resigned Again.

(Special to The Daily Canadian.)

Grand Forks, Oct. 8.—At the regular session of the city council held last evening Mayor Jeffrey Hammar handed in his resignation as mayor, which was officially accepted by the council. This action of the mayor's was not a surprise. An election for mayor will be held at once.

Walls Were Strong.

Strathcona, Oct. 8—An accident which might have resulted in a very serious loss of life occurred yesterday afternoon. On the construction of the new Odd Fellows' temple over twenty men were at work, contractor Martin himself superintending the raising of a 1,500 lb. derrick on the third floor. He had just asked four men to assist him when a violent gust of wind blew in the third story wall. Mr. Martin called to the men on the third story to run to the rear of the building, which they did, making their escape just in time as the back wall blew out at that moment. Meanwhile twelve men engaged at the front of the building hurriedly made their escape and succeeded in getting clear before the front wall also blew in. Only the third story has suffered damage. No one was injured, and the loss confined to the third story is not heavy.

Burlington, Ia., Oct. 8.—It was rumored here today that General Manager James M. Gruber, of the Burlington, will resign to enter the service of the Great Northern railway, Mr. Gruber succeeding F. H. McGulgan, who left the service after a stormy interview with J. J. Hill.

Object to Attack.

New York, Oct. 8.—Complaints against anti-railroad legislation of various states characterize the annual reports of three railroad companies which have just been issued. The roads are the Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fe, the Wabash, and the Chesapeake and Ohio. President Edward P. Ripley, of the Atchison, says of rate reductions: "It is hoped and believed that the public will soon realize that its recent attitude towards railroad companies in general has not been just to their stockholders and bondholders, and also that unless the confidence of investors in the security and stability of railway investments is restored, it will be impossible to obtain the additional railway facilities which are necessary to the development of the country."

Bacon to Be Ambassador.

New York, Oct. 8.—A Berlin despatch to the Times states that it is reported in well informed quarters there that Assistant Secretary of State Bacon will be appointed as ambassador to succeed Mr. Tower, who has asked to be relieved as United States ambassador to Germany on account of his private business affairs.

NOTHING SETTLED

Council Divided on Issue of Police

SALARIES NOT PASSED

Mayor's Reappointment of F. A. Smith as Electrician Endorsed—Rental of Bui'ding Plant.

The city council was in session last night for about two hours and a half, most of it spent in animated discussion stimulated possibly by the presence of about 70 onlookers. All matters that have been the subject of recent disputes came up for consideration and all with rather inconclusive results. The changes in the police force were condemned to the extent of refusing to vote the salaries of the present members.The temporary reappointment of F. A. Smith as city electrician was endorsed. The rental by the mayor of the city's building plant was discussed at length and left over for further consideration and a request for a report from the late city engineer.

The council met a few minutes after eight, with Mayor Gillett in the chair, Ald. Selous, Annable, Rose and McMorris also present. The minutes of the last meeting were read and adopted.

The finance committee's report recommending several payrolls totalling $543.25, was read by the clerk.

Ald Selous asked: "Shouldn't the payroll be included in the report of the finance committee?"

After some discussion the question was waived and the payrolls passed.

The board of police commissioners reported the permanent suspension of Patrolmen McBeath and Young, the acceptance of the resignations of Chief Pitchford and Sergeant Wightman, and the appointment of P. O. Carroll as chief, and C. G. Wheeler as sergeant.

The mayor: What is your pleasure?

Ald. Rose: What do you want us to do?

The mayor: You can do nothing except file it.

Ald. Selous: Are these appointments at the same salary?

The mayor: Not quite. The sergeant is given $100 a month.

Ald. Rose: That seems extraordinary. We had a good sergeant before at $90. Why is a new man of whom we know nothing given higher pay?

The mayor: They have agreed to do the work with three men instead of four.

Ald. Selous: There is another extraordinary feature. The board at a recent meeting announced the appointment of a fourth man to an old and tried force. Now, with a new and untried force, they report that three are enough.

The discussion grew general as to the powers of the commissioners and the council, the mayor maintaining that the council had no authority over the police commissioners. The analogy of the position of the school board was used by both sides.

The reading of the Municipal Clauses Act showed that the council must pay the salaries fixed by the board subject to appeal to lieutenant-governor-in-council.

Ald. Selous moved to refuse the salaries and appeal to the lieutenant-governor.

Ald. McMorris thought they should appeal only the increase to the sergeant. As he was over-ruled he voted with Aldermen Selous and Rose, and Ald. Selous' motion was carried, Ald. Annable dissenting.

The report of the police commissioners was then filed.

Fire Chief Deasy reported recommending new hydrants on Willow, Hoover, and Silica streets. The report was referred to the fire, water and light committee.

A letter from Messrs. McDermid and McHardy offered terms for employees' liability insurance. The letter was referred to the finance committee.

Capt. Gore wrote asking for a light at the ship yard between 7 and 8 a. m. and 4 and 5 p. m. He wanted 150 candle power. It was referred to the fire, water and light committee with power to act.

William Mitchell wrote from Boundary Falls presenting a bill for his expenses in prosecuting the three confidence men, Adams, Johnson and Hatch.

Ald. Annable thought Mr. Mitchell's expenses should have been paid by the crown.

Ald. Selous thought it should not be considered.

Ald. Annable moved a reference to the city solicitor, but Ald. McMorris' motion to file was adopted.

The city engineer reported having examined the Whitewater and Cottonwood flumes, and presented tenders for the necessary repairs from A. G. Lambert & Co., and the Yale-Columbia Lumber company, and also recommended an extension of the Baker Street sewer at a cost of $230.

In reply to questions by the mayor and Ald. Selous the city engineer said there was no need of immediate repairs to the Whitewater flume but he thought the Cottonwood Lake dam should be repaired at once.

A request from G. B. Olton for the Baker Street sewer was also read.

Both recommendations were referred to the board of works.

The city clerk asked for arrangements to cover the city's overdraft at the Bank of Montreal by a note. The finance committee were authorized to sign such a note.

The mayor asked that the council reconsider the acceptance of the resignation of F. A. Smith. He also announced that with the approval of four aldermen he had reinstated Mr. Smith pending approval by the council.

To a question by Ald. Selous the mayor said he had not vetoed the resolution.

Ald. Selous pointed out that the council had appointed Leslie Steel to the charge of the plant. As the mayor had not vetoed the appointment nor suspended Mr. Steel, the latter was still legally in charge and Mr. Smith's appointment therefore illegal.

The mayor contended that he had a right to make any temporary appaointment he considered in the city's interest.

Ald. Annable explained his course and moved for reconsideration of the motion accepting F. A. Smith's resignation.

Ald. McMorris explained that he had refused to be a party to such reappointment, except temporarily and pending a permanent appointment. He was opposed to reconsideration of the motion.

Ald. Rose followed Ald. Selous in maintaining that the reinstatement of F. A. Smith was illegal.

Further discussion led to an impasse expressed by Ald. Selous, who said:

"I am trying to persuade the mayor that the council not the mayor makes these appointments, and they can be changed or varied only by the council."

A further verbal altercation followed between the mayor and Ald. Selous during which the mayor remarked:

"I wish also to inform the Daily News that this is no one man rule."

Ald. Annable's motion was still without a seconder.

Ald. Selous: The mayor seems to consider Mr. Smith the only competent man in sight. Personally I consider Steel far more competent. There was also another thoroughly competent man in sight.

Ald. Selous moved that the motion be not reconsidered. Ald. Rose seconded the motion.

An interruption from the audience led to a warning from the mayor that he would order the room cleared. Julius Reisterer asked permission to speak and also gave the version of the affair given

Ald. Selous' motion was lost by the mayor's casting vote, Aldermen McMorris and Annable also voting nay.

Ald. Annable then moved to reconsider which Ald. McMorris then seconded.

Ald. Selous then told of his investigation at the Mayor's request, last Monday, of Smith's conduct Saturday night, Sept. 28th. The then chief of police, A. Pitchford, reported that Smith was intoxicated on that occasion. Smith to the mayor and himself had admitted having a bottle of liquor in his possession. He alsogave the version of the affair given by Mr. and Mrs. Nat Reiss, that Mr. Smith was annoying a member or members of the company.

Ald. Annable: I don't think there is any doubt as to Smith's being drunk.

Further discussion followed, not all relevant.

Ald. Annable's motion was then put and carried, Aldermen Selous and Rose dissenting.

Ald. Annable moved that F. A. Smith be appointed temporarily pending permanent filling of the position.

Ald. Rose objected that there was as yet no vacancy.

The motion was then rescinded, Aldermen Selous and Rose dissenting.

Ald. Annable's motion to appoint Smith was then seconded by Ald. McMorris and carried on the same division, "from this date" as Ald. Selous stipulated.

Ald. Selous then asked for the finance committee's report.

The city clerk explained that it contained no recommendations on which action could be taken.

Ald. Rose supported Ald. Selous' contention.

The city clerk then presented it in the form in which he had it, asking for the calling of a special meeting of the city council to consider the payrolls, the appointment of F. A. Smith, and the use of the city property by the mayor, signed by Ald. Selous and Rose.

The mayor: Is it your pleasure to consider this a recommendation to council.

Ald. Rose: Why was a meeting not called?

At the mayor's request the clerk explained that he had conveyed such request to the mayor who had refused to call a meeting because he considered it unnecessary.

The mayor added that there was not a request from three members, and he was not obliged to consider anything less.

There was further inconclusive dialogue between the mayor and Ald. Selous as to the expediency of the holding of a meeting a week ago.

The city clerk then, at Ald. McMorris' request, read the resolution of March 25th authorizing the renting to him of the city's hoisting plant which stipulated that the matter should be arranged by the city engineer and the city electrician, the rent fixed, and a guarantee given by the mayor.

The city clerk could not say whether the city engineer had ever consented to the removal of the plant, or had ever fixed a rental.

The mayor added that he had asked former city engineer, A. L. McCulloch, for such a report, but had not got it.

At the mayor's request Mr. Lawrence told of the interview referred to, and that he remembered Mr. McCulloch's fixing $15 a month as the rental.

The mayor: Go into this very fully, gentlemen, if you please.

Ald. Annable: Are you using more machinery than was covered by that resolution?

The mayor: I meant my request to cover all the building material.

The clerk then read an inventory: 1 hoisting engine, 2 boilers (one of which required repairs costing $198), 1 mixer, 1 mixing engine, 1 boom, 1 bucket, 2 rock skids, and unspecified derrick fittings.

Ald Rose was told that all such machinery, except the mixer which was at the zinc works, lent by him, had been at the power plant at the time of the request.

In reply to Ald. Selous the city clerk gave the cost to the city of the machinery when purchased from D. McBeath and company, the total being $2,574.73. This figure, however, included freight and installation. The cost of bringing it from the power plant to the city was $210.

The mayor remarked that the machinery would be of no use to the city until they were ready to increase the power plant. He said that at the time when he got it was three years old, in use all that time. He estimated it worth when he got it between $1100 and $1200. He also stated that including cost of hauling, of repairs, and returning in good condition, he thought he was paying a fair rental, and assured them that he did not want anything for nothing, that he had made his bargain openly, and if it were thought that he had not paid enough, he was ready to pay more. He also advised the sale of the machinery.

It was agreed that A. L. McCulloch should be asked to make his delayed report.

The mayor also reported that he had latedy received bids for some of the machinery he had been authorized to sell.

Ald. Selous suggested that the clause of the building bylaw requiring permits be advertised. A motion to that effect was adopted.

Ald. Rose asked that the light on Railway street asked for some time ago be put in. The mayor said it would be done.

Ald. Selous asked that lights on Water street and on the wharf be rearranged and increased.

In reply to Ald. Annable the city engineer reported progress with negotiations with the railway companies for repairs to the wharf.

Other suggestions as to lights and sidewalks were made.

Council then adjourned to Monday, Oct. 21st.

CALGARY VISITED

R. L. Borden at Canadian Club Luncheon

ON THE CONSTITUTION

Urges That Public Men Must Not Use Positions for Private Gain—Was Warmly Welcomed.

Calgary, Oct. 8.—The Canadian club held their regular luncheon yesterday in the rooms of the Young Men's club, after which they were favored with an address by R. L. Borden. Mr. Borden was introduced and said:

"Ladies and gentlemen: This is the first time I have had the pleasure of addressing a Canadian Club with ladies present, and I consider it a delightful innovation. After travelling through the west, I am delightfully surprised with the progress it has undergone since I paid my last visit to this fruitful part of the Dominion.

"It seems to me that the fulfilment of the promise of the country is now readily described in the part of Holy Writ which says 'Those who went forth weeping to the fields have returned bearing precious sheaves.' I want to tell you that the east is prouder today of the west than the west is of itself. We are glad for your splendid prosperity and the future that awaits you. In my addresses throughout the country I have touched to some extent upon the relation of parties to the government, and on that point I want to talk to you today. With regard to the knowledge of constitutional government I have noticed that the men of Quebec are more familiar with it than the representatives from the other provinces. The French Canadians have always had complete confidence in British institutions. They have always relied on British justice and British fair play." Mr. Borden here traced the beginning of the constitutional government from the earliest times, particularizing on British institutions and the methods of British statesmanship.

"What was the ideal of British statesmen of the nineteenth century concerning constitutional government? It was that those directing the affairs of the country should have no emolument or enrichment while in office. Both Britain and the United States have had difficulty with this phase of government just as we have difficulty with it on a smaller scale."

AT GREAT SLAVE LAKE

Returned Missionary Describes Land as Rich in Minerals but Wild and Dreary.

Edmonton, Oct. 8.—Among those coming from the north today was one of the pioneers Anglican missionaries of that country in the person of Rev. J. T. Marsh, who has spent the past fifteen years among the Indians there. Fourteen years of that period were spent at Hay River post on Great Slave Lake, and one year at Fort Learned. Rev. Mr. Marsh says Hay River post is, roughly speaking about 1,000 miles north of Edmonton. It is four years since he was down from the north before.

"The life of the far north is a lonely one," said the pioneer. "And I am glad to get out to civilization again after fifteen years absence. We only receive three mails a year and are shut off from the outer world except by a dog train in winter, and a trip by that method for a thousand miles is not to be envied. The country around the Great Slave Lake is rich in minerals, and when they are opened up the population will rapidly increase, but until then there is not much inducement for the immigrant.

"For 360 days out of the year our continuous diet three times a day is fish and potatoes and imported luxuries, which are our necessities. To take goods to Hay River posts costs $8.75 a hundredweight, and at this rate any importation is a 'luxury.'"

Robbers Use Automobile.

Canso, N. S., Oct. 8.—The bank at Charlottes Ferry was robbed early this morning of more than $5,000 besides valuable papers. The safe was dynamited and the building is reported badly wrecked. Citizens were alarmed by the explosion and a fight ensued. The robbers escaped in an automobile and no trace of them has yet been found.

THE NEXT CAMPAIGN.

It is becoming increasingly evident that at the close of the next Dominion general campaign British Columbia will not be represented at Ottawa by seven supporters of Sir Wilfrid Laurier, whether that gentleman be then premier or leader of the opposition.

Since 1904 this province has had a solid Liberal delegation at Ottawa. It might have been thought that a phalanx so strong and so loyal to its chief might have been entitled to some consideration. The solid delegation from Nova Scotia has won for that province many material concessions, chiefly by way of public works and appointments to the Civil Service. But British Columbia's solid seven has won nothing except a public affront from the premier when he passed over all the first elected members and called Mr. Templeman from the Senate to join his cabinet.

It is a remarkable circumstance that not one of the seven considers himself bound in any degree to represent the interests or wishes of this province, or to do anything but blindly and submissively vote as he is told.

During the three years that have elapsed since the last general election British Columbia has had a definite issue with the Dominion government on the question of the financial relations of the province and the Dominion. It was not at the outset nor is it now a dividing line between the parties in provincial politics. As a matter of fact when Premier McBride went to the conference of Canadian premiers at Ottawa, he went armed with a resolution that had been unanimously adopted by the legislature of the province after a resolution offered by J. A. Macdonald, leader of the opposition, had been accepted by the premier. Since then, it is true, there have been disputes as to the premier's conduct of his case, but at the recent Liberal convention in Vancouver, at which the Solid Seven were present, the Liberal party of the province merely resolved to regret that the premier had not taken a stronger stand. That resolution may be allowed to supersede Mr. Templeman's extraordinary statement that Better Terms is a dead issue. The Liberal party stands committed to the maintenance of the province's claim for Better Terms. The position of the Conservative party on the subject is well known. The whole province then, as represented by the two parties, is agreed as to the justice of the claim. And yet of its seven representatives at Ottawa who are there for the purpose of safe-guarding the rights of this province, not one has ever raised his voice for her rights. This is, as we have said, an extraordinary position and one that will stand a lot of explanation in the press and on the platform when the Liberal candidates next appeal to the constituencies.

Another question they will certainly be required to answer is "Why has the promise made by Liberal candidates in 1904, that construction of the National Transcontinental railway would be begun from the Pacific coast as early as elsewhere, been not only violated but ignored?" It is well known that railway construction benefits and stimulates a country only in proportion as it offers labor to the people and a market to the producers. A line of railway piercing the Rocky mountains north of the inhabited part of this province, and pushing its way westward with imported labor, and with all its material and supplies purchased outside the province, will confer no benefit until it actually reaches the coast. That was certainly not what the electors of British Columbia understood by the promise made in this respect to them by their present members during the last campaign. They have been deceived in this as in many other matters, and, if we appreciate correctly the temper of British Columbians, they will want to know why, and will be at least a little harder to fool a second time.

There is another question, and it is most unfortunate that it should be a political issue at all. But the responsibility for its having been thrust into the arena of party politics, lies wholly with our representatives at Ottawa, the Solid Seven. Sir Wilfrid Laurier announced that "Chinese immigration is not an issue in the east. The wishes of British Columbia Liberals will prevail." What are the wishes of British Columbia Liberals? Have they ever been plainly expressed to Sir Wilfrid Laurier?

The fact that the influx from Asia that is feared now is not Chinese but Hindus and Japanese, doesn't really affect the question. The Hindu invasion may indeed have been unforeseen, and as the Hindus are our fellow-subjects of the Empire, they constitute an exceptional difficulty. But the Japanese immigration was foreseen. Steps to check it were promised and the country was told, were actually taken. But, since then, a treaty has been signed between Canada and Japan giving Japanese of all classes the right to enter in unlimited numbers. And this was done with the silent consent of the seven representatives of British Columbia, the only men at Ottawa specially qualified or charged to speak for this province. It is no wonder that no story is considered too silly which may conceivably help to cloud that plain issue.

Rich Prize From Egypt.

New York, Oct. 8.—The American Museum of natural history has just received from Egypt twenty-seven cases of rare fossils, about six hundred specimens in all, comprising forms new to science, exceedingly valuable fossils of the ancestral elephant, and of an extraordinary beast, the Arsinotherium, which is not closely related to any living from any extinct species.

Love to Distraction.

Montreal, Oct. 8.—Victor Hanc, a young Frenchman, 21 years old, just out from France, killed himself at his boarding house. Hanc had fallen in love with Mary Hane, the sixteen year old sister of the woman who kept the boarding house. The young woman's relatives had no objections to Hanc, who was a sturdy young fellow and employed in the Angus shops, but they objected to the marriage on account of the girl's age. Saturday afternoon Hanc endeavored to persuade the girl to marry him in six months but while she reciprocated his affection she was determined to follow the advice given her and wait for a couple of years. The decision so depressed Hanc that he shot himself in the girl's presence. Mary Hane fainted and had to be taken to the Notre Dame Hospital.

CANADIAN DESPATCHES

Montreal, Oct. 8.—The annual statement of the Molson's Bank of Canada was issued today. Net profits for the year, after deducting expenses of management, reservation for interest accrued on deposits, exchange and provision for bad and doubtful debts, amounted to $544,038 added to which is $26,937.23, balance at credit of profit and loss account on September 29, 1906, making a total for the year of $571,126,-13; of this amount $517,338.52 was appropriated for dividends and other banking expenses, leaving a surplus for the year of $43,688.61.

Toronto, Oct. 8.—The board of arbitration appointed to investigate questions in dispute between the Canadian Pacific Railway and its telegraphers which sat in Montreal last week, has failed to agree according to reports here.

Ottawa, Oct.8.—The labor department has no definite information with regard to conclusion of negotiations now in progress for settlement of the dispute between the C. P. R. and its operators, but hopes that a satisfactory solution of the problem may yet be reached.

Ottawa, Oct. 8.—Sir Wilfrid Laurier returned to the city at noon yesterday. Hon. Mr. Fielding assumed his official duties yesterday. Mr. Brodeur is expected back today. The mail from Major Moodie, at Fort Churchill, Hudson's Bay, reports all well among the little garrison charged with maintenance of law and order.

The Railway Commission is now engaged reviewing evidence of inspectors taken in investigation of railway accidents, during the past summer and it is probable that in cases where wilful neglect and abuse of rules governing the operation of trains is shown the provincial authorities will be asked to take action.

Ottawa, Oct. 8.—An important insurance case before the supreme court yesterday was that of Lamothe vs. North American Life Assurance Company. The appellant is the assignee of a policy of insurance for $5,000 on the life of C. O. Grothe Montreal, who died Jue 5th, 1905, after a few weeks' illness. The policy was applied for September 5, and issued Sept. 22, 1904, in favor of Grothe's wife and children, and transferred to Lamothe next day. On the filing of the claim for insurance, the company brought suit for cancellation of contract of insurance, and alleged in effect that the policy was fraudently obtained, was a wagering contract, that Gothe was fraudently personated by another person at the medical examination, and that false answers were given to questions in application and to the medical officer regarding family history, habits and conditions of health of deceased. In answer to questions at the trial the jury found for the plaintiffs as to wagering character of policy, and incorrect representations, and the action was maintained by Judge Doherty. The Court of King's Bench affirmed this judgment and defendant appeals on grounds of misdirection by the judge in his charge to the jury and that the verdict was against the weight of evidence and asks for judgment in his favor, or new trial.

Hamilton, Oct. 8.—A most unusual application was made before Judge Monck this morning. The assizes opened this afternoon and one of the principal cases will be the trial of Jake Sunfield for murder. Sunfield is a Pole and is quite unprepossessing, with a stubbed beard. The jail authorities refused to shave Sunfield, not wanting to take chances with the burly prisoner when his trial is so near. His lawyer, J. L. Counsel, today applied for an order to compel the jail authorities to shave him. Jake wants to be shaved too, but Judge Monck said he did not think he had authority and referred the lawyer to Chief Justice Falconbridge.

Meat Inspection.

A letter from J. G. Rutherford, Dominion veterinary inspector general and live stock commissioner, encloses for publication an article on proper killing and dressing of live stock. As that industry is not followed to any extent in this district the article is not published. The following extract contains the principal suggestion to farmers who wish to kill animals for meat packing establishments: "Provision has been made for the admission on inspection, of dressed carcases with the head, heart, lungs and liver held by their natural attachments, such carcases to be inspected before entering the establishment, and if found fit for food to be so marked and admitted for packing purposes, while if found to be deceased, to be condemned and tanked."

BUSINESS MEN'S VIEWS

Prominent Montreal Merchants on Industrial and Financial Outlook in Canada.

Montreal, Oct. 8.—Several well known wholesale and mining firms report slackening business in Canada, but the situation is generally considered intrinsically sound.

W. R. Brock, Limited, wholesale dry goods: "No doubt there is some restriction in trade in the west, the banks advising that course as they want to keep on the safe side."

Caverhill, Learmont Co., wholesale hardware: "There may be a movement to curtail business in the Northwest but people out there will not be under a cloud long. This is a great country and it behooves us all to stand by it. Anyway, it is significant of what our company thinks of the situation that we still send our men out there."

Ames-Holden, Ltd., wholesale boots and shoes: "The crop is a little short and perhaps some of the nervous ones do not want to go after business as actively as usual. Common sense will be exercised in the distribution of goods in districts were crops are poor, and retailers will be asked by their supply houses to go along slowly this year."

J. T. Bell, wholesale boots and shoes: "It is a great mistake to cry wolf. The attitude of the banks is not helping things at all. If they had taken the present stand years ago and had discouraged such rapid expansion then they would have acted wisely but the check that has been put into business now is tying everything up."

The J. C. Wilson Co., wholesale paper: "We do not look for any such drastic results of the trade situation as withdrawal of salesmen from the Northwest. Retailers may not be inclined to buy so eagerly this season, but our men are all out on their regular trips."

Air Brakes Failed.

Seattle, Oct. 8.—Two tramps were killed, Foreman Gilbert earnest of Tacoma is missing, and believed to be dead, and Engineer F. N. Myers of San Francisco, and Brakeman Thomas were seriously injured in a wreck near Amston, on the Northern Pacific, last night. The train was a freight, westbound, consisting of 18 cars of hay, grain, and live stock, a caboose and an engine. The entire train was destroyed, the wreckage catching fire soon after the smash. Trainmen declare that the failure of the air-brakes on a heavy grade caused the wreck.
