Council Learns of Scheme to Locate Flour Mill in Nelson—An Evening of Routine.

The city council devoted most of the time of last night's meeting which lasted about two hours t odetailed consideration of a report from City Engineer Lawrence on the small but necessary tasks of his department.

Incidentally the council learned that the death of C. E. Miller was a public as well as private loss in that it prevented the fruition of an important enterprise, the conversion of the city's old power plant on Cottonwood Creek into a flour mill.

The council met at 8 o'clock with all the members present. The minutes of the last meeting were read and adopted.

The fire, water and light committee reported recommending that the chief of the fire department be empowered to have such changes made in all public meeting places as he may judge necessary to ensure safe egress in case of fire.

The report was adopted.

The tramway and health committee reported recommending the purchase of an extra team for the fire department one of the present teams to be turned over to the scavenging department, the purchase of a wagon for the latter department at a cost of $123, the attachment of a brake on the sprinkler, the painting and roofing with canvas of the larger tramcar. All the recommendations were adopted, Ald. Steed dissenting from the first.

R. F. Lawrence reported the widening and grading of Park and Front streets and the rough metalling of others. He has a reserve of metalling material for other work. The park pavilion is in place, cost $209.20. The contract for painting was let A new roof house is completed at a cost of $126. The trustees of the Methodist church asked for a site on which to deposit material excavated from the site of their church, and also for the grading of Josephine street. He recommended the granting of permission to deposit material in the gulley of Josephine street, and that the grading be done. There had also been a lot of repairing work done.

The report was taken up section by section. On the moving of the park pavilion the mayor asked:

"Has all borrowed plant been paid for?"

Ald. Procter—"No, it was loaned us by the C. P. R., by Mr. Burns and by Mr. Gillett for nothing."

The Mayor—Well, since we have decided not to lend we shouldn't borrow. It is inconsistent and it is not business."

It was agreed that payment be made, of acounts if they can be secured, otherwise at the city engineer's valuation.

Mr. Lawrence also reported that the crusher would be covered in a short time. It is again in good condition.

The matter of grading Josephine and Silica streets was deferred until it should be necessary. Permission was given to the contractor of the Methodist church to dump rock and soil excavation on Josephine street and on Silica between Josephine and Ward.

The city engineer estimated the soil to be removed on the east side of Josephine street at 160 feet by ten by six.

Crossings and sidewalks were authorized on Willow, Silica, Stanley, Vernon and Park streets.

A petition for sewer connection in an alley between Baker and Vernon streets, extending from Hall to Cedar, was referred to the city engineer for a report and estimate.

It was resolved that a telephone be installed in the city engineer's residence.

Referring back to the fire, water and light committee, it was resolved at the mayor's suggestion, that $1,000 be added to the estimates.

J. Oginsky asked that a box drain be built across Hoover street to avert damage to his lots between Hall and Josephine streets.

H. C. Cummins made an application to purchase a part of the machinery of the city's old power plant on Cottonwood creek.

The mayor said—"In this connection I particularly regret the sudden death of Mr. C. E. Miller, who had a deal almost floated for the building of a flour mill with a capacity of 200 barrels a day on that site. I am afraid it will fall through now."

On the suggestion of Ald. Procter it was ordered that the site, power and plant be advertised for sale in the Winnipeg papers.

An inventory was ordered of the city's machinery at the old plant.

A letter from McDermid & McHardy on behalf of J. Bannerman, complaining of damage to his lots on Vernon street by a defective sewer connection, was referred to the public works committee.

Ald. McMorris presented a legal opinion from R. S. Lennie that Judge Wilson is entitled to his costs in the city's legislation with the West Kootenay Power and Light company. On motion of Aldermen McMorris and Patenaude payment of $500 was ordered.

W. Shackleton reported on the work at the plant. He said that they were within two days of the completion of the work on the draught tube. He especially recommended the securing of an overhanging rock weighing about six tons, which threatens the penstock.

The possibility of supporting the rock in its present position was discussed. Mr. Shackleton thought it probably impracticable and certainly costly. The matter was referred to the fire, water and light committee, to which Mr. Shackleton will make a further report by telephone today.

Mr. Shackleton said removal of the rock was impracticable, but it could be secured by encasing the penstock with cement.

On the suggestion of Ald Hale it was resolved that hereafter all tenders of over $25 be opened by the city clerk and the head of the department, and laid before the council at its next meeting.

The council then adjourned to Monday, April 6th.

HAS LASTED SIXTY YEARS.

Anniversary of First Spiritualistic Demonstrations at Hydesville.

Rochester, N. Y., March 31.—Followers of modern American Spiritualism all over the world are today celebrating the sixtieth anniversary of the event which is considered the foundation of that cult. It was on March 31, 1841, that the Fox sisters are alleged to have first communicated with the spirits at their home in Hydesville, near this city, At the time of the memorable occurrence there were three of the Fox sisters, the eldest not yet 16 and the youngest still a mere child. From the date of the discovery of "spiritualism" the cult spread rapidly.

The first public appearance of the Fox sisters was in Rochester, where many of the prominent people of the city made many investigations in an effort to solve the "mystery." After Rochester came Albany and Troy. Next came New York City. Here, it is said, there were great demonstrations, the manifestations having been witnesses for nearly three years. Noted men among them William Cullen Bryant and other literary celebrities, attended seances and were puzzled. Physicians sought to explain the phenomena by scientific theories, but not even they, according to quotations from New York papers, failed.

Rochester again became the scene of action, and here the sisters had some wonderful experiences with physicians and editors. But it remained for Buffalo to give them the roughest reception. The newspapers of that city sought in every possible way to discredit them. Members of the faculty of the University of Buffalo and leading physicians of the city issued a long statement in which they asserted the rappings were made by a movement of the knee joint. Numerous other cities were visited and finally came Boston, where the Harvard professors and Unitarian ministers are declared to have tried in vain to solve the "mystery."

From its obscure birthplace in Hydesville the cult has spread throughout a large part of the civilized world. In this country there is a National Spiritualistists' Association, with headquarters at Washington, D. C., of which Harrison D. Barrett of Seattle, Wash., is the head. In addition to the national association there are numemrous State and local organizations of believers in spiritualism.

Probably in Consequence of Recent Trouble at London—Canada from Ocean to Ocean.

London, March 31.—One hundred and thirty of the soldiers at Wolseley barracks here have been ordered to Halifax where they will fill vacancies made by soldiers whose time has expired or who have been transferred elsewhere.

London, March 31.—The remains of a female child, a few days old, was found in an outhouse in the rear of 605 Richmond street. The body bore no signs of violence.

London, March 31.—Thirteen Chinamen, charged with gambling, appeared before the police magistrate yesterday and were remanded for a week. Each man gave bail for $100.

London, March 31.—Confirmation is received of a story to the effect that Private Thomas Kirby, recently stationed at Wolseley barracks, had fallen heir to a fortune of $175,000 through the death of his father in England.

Toronto, March 31.—By prying loose an iron bar in a large cell of No. 3 police station, Esther Stree, early this morning, Edward Brazeau, one of the prisoners, escaped and is not yet captured. There were ten other men in the cell with Brazeau, but the latter's escape was discovered in time to prevent others from getting away.

Winnipeg, March 31.—The council committee today began negotiations under the board of control for the purchase of the Winnipeg Street Railway company's property. It is worth several millions of dollars. The franchise has still twenty years to run.

Lonodon, March 31.—The Presbytery of London has unanimously carried a motion in favor of the nomination of Mr. Duval of Winnipeg as moderator of the next general assembly.

St. Catherines, March 31.—Peter Cronin, former tax collector of Thorold, who some time ago was found to be short in his cash, has been arrested at Renfrew and will be brought back for trial. The shortage is said to amount to about $2,500.

Oshawa, March 31.—Samuel Smith, editor and proprietor of the Oshawa Vindicator, died suddenly yesterday, aged 53 years.

Calgary, March 31.—Baldwin Fraser, a young man 16 years or age, escaped from the R. N. W M. P. barracks last night. Young Fraser was a Chicago newsboy who came west for advancement. He got into the toils of the R. N. W. M. P. last week, when, it is understood, without any provocation he plunged a knife into the interior of a C. P. R. engineer at Laggan. He was committed for trial and brought to Calgary. While confined here he had been very quiet but yesterday afternoon when the matron asked him to throw out the ashes from the stove he made a sudden get-away, taking to the C. P. R. tracks. He was recaptured this morning on the Macleod trail.

A. Severes, for four years the manager of the Calgary branch of the Bank of B. N. A., is to leave Calgary. His next positions is not yet known.

About one hundred families of immigrants are arriving and settling in the irrigated tract near Strathmore.

TWO YEARS IN OFFICE

Chief Deasy of City Fire Department Speaks of Experiences and Present Prospects.

In an interview held with Chief Deasy this morning, the following brief history of his connection with the fire service was elicited and is published in his terse way of responding to inquiries regarding the vocation followed from childhood until reaching the half century mark:

"Celebrating, today, my second year as chief of your fire department, it is certainly worth while making manifest the fact that one has put in thirty-three years in the fire departments of British Columbia, working up and holding every office from carrying a lantern to having charge of two of the most important fire departments in the province. Is it not worth while feeling a little elated at the fact that we never had a serious fire during sixteen years in charge of fire departments? 'Why you haven't had a roof tumble in during the two years in Nelson,' as an ex-alderman remarked a few days ago. With all our boasted water pressure, is it not a fact that we didn't break one length of hose at a fire? Then look at our losses. Less than $3,000 in two years, and that is putting it high. Is there another city of the same size on the continent that can show such a record? But, remember, it is not only on account of Nelson's fire record that I feel just a little proud. During my fourteen years, while in charge of Victoria's fire department, the losses averaged $26,000 annually. Since then they have averaged $80,000. Of course, comparisons are odious; but when you remember that we have had but twenty-four hours off duty in two years it must be patent that we are paying a price for safety. When we resigned in Victoria, the intention was to leave fire fighting forever; but you have read a book called "The Call of the Wild." That's it. Maybe a man cannot avoid his vocation. Who knows? Then you have a fine lot of young fellows in the fire department. They are all imbued with one spirit and work harmoniously together. The great trouble in this growing country is to keep men. They see so many opportunities. And you have the proper system in conducting a fire department. The two mayors and councils we have acted under place confidence confidence in their officials in the fire department—we try to merit that confidence—and there is no trouble like they have when people try to make political machines of their servants. There are many things we require; but Nelson is young and, for its size, is doing all that we can expect in furnishing fire fighting appliances. Some day we will give details of our experience; but self-praise is no recommendation."

Attell To Meet Nelson.

San Francisco, March 31.—A 15-round go between Abe Attell and Battling Nelson is the magnet that is expected to attract a large number of fight followers to Sam Berger's club tonight. Joe Gans was originally slated as Attell's opponent, but he was unable to keep the match and Battling Nelson was substituted. Attell and Nelson are looked upon as two of the speediest fighters in the business and are expected to put up as lively a bout as has been seen here in a long time. Nelson will have quite an advantage in weight, but in all other respects Attell is considered the equal of the Dane. Nelson must make 132 pounds at 6 o'clock. Attell will enter the ring weighing about 123 pounds.

T. G. Procter, was as president of the 20,000 club still holds office, is assisting in the work. He stated today that he is confident that when the committee presents its report to the association, it will be in a position to guarantee an income of over $200 a month in regular monthly payments, as well as a considerable amount in miscellaneous donations.

The canvassers have found a general approval of the work as now planned and a willingness to contribute to the cost of maintaining and even extending it.

The work will be continued tomorrow and it is likely that only a partial report can be presented tomorrow night to the adjourned meeting of the association.

Up to 3 p. m. today the following promises had been given in writing: Strathcona and Hume hotels, each $10 per month; Imperial Bank, Hudson's Bay Co., P. Burns & Co., W. G. Gillett. W. G. No Disorder at Treadwell.

Washington, March 31.—The imminence of violence by the striking miners at the Treadwell, Alaska, mines seems to have been averted by the arrival of the troops ordered there last week. The war department today received a despatch from Captain Bayliss, commanding company "F" of the Tenth infantry, reporting his arrival with his men and adding that everything was all right.

WILL BE NICE TO HILL.

Message to Roosevelt—Commenting on Kaiser's Diplomacy.

London, March 31.—All the London papers are now in possession of the latest phase of the Hill incident, but for the most part they refrain from comment.

The Daily Mail in an editorial says that the emperor's whisper carries farther than the shout of hundreds of other men. "It all goes to show," says the papers, "that the emperor ought neither to write to his friends nor talk freely with his dinner table guests. He is a man of impulsive temperament, and is singularly unfitted for a role where discretion is the supreme virtue."

The Daily Express says: "The new diplomacy of the dinner table and ball room is a palpable anchronism. To have it recognized that a man is unfitted to be ambassador unless he is wealthy and consumed with a desire to spend on lavish entertainments is to put back the hands of the clock of history."

Berlin, March 31.—The advices received at the foreign office from Washington indicate that in the American capital as well as in Berlin the Hill episode is regarded as having been happily adjusted. The best diplomatic opinion is that if Mr. Hill comes to Berlin he will find his position not only agreeable but more important than if the incident had never happened. Charlemagne Tower, the United States ambassador in fulfillment of his intimation to President Roosevelt last September, in which he said that he would ask leave to resign early next summer, has now fixed the date at June and has so informed the president.

Burned to Death.

Miles' Chances Are Poor.

New York, March 31.—Eustace Miles, the former court tennis champion, who came here recently from England in the hope of regaining his lost title, played his first practice match in this city yesterday. He met Peter Latham, the world's professional champion at the racquet and tennis club, and Latham won two sets to one.

Finland's Diet at Deadlock.

Helsingfors, March 31.—The Finnish seate has decided to resign at the outcome of the vote of lack of confidence in it carried on March 28. This vote passed the diet by 71 to 45 and was the work of Socialists. They formerly censured the Finnish administration for the delivery of Russian terrorist political agitators to the Russian authorities and they demanded the retirement of the senate as incapable of defending the autonomy and liberties of Finland against the present reactionary campaign in Russia.

Accounts Committee will Present Report.

WESTERN TIMBER LAND

Many Railway Charters Granted—Laurier Promises that G. T. P. Will Go to Montreal.

Ottawa, March 31.—The commons railway committee this morning passed the Fort William and Terminal company's bill which has engaged the attention of the committee for the last fortnight.

The committee also adopted Turiff's bill providing that, where charters are granted for the construction of railways less than 250 miles in length, the promoters must build ten per cent. of their lines within two years or forfeit their rights, and five per cent. in cash of lines over 250 miles in length.

The charter rights of the Quebec and New Brunswick railway were renewed. The promoters of this railway propose to build a line form Chaudiere Junction, near the city of Quebec, to Connors, N. B., passing through the state of Maine, the object of which is to establish more direct connection to central New Brunswick in connection with the Temiscouata railway and the Canadian Pacific railway. By this line, with the completion of the Quebec bridge, the Canadian Pacific would have a second outlet to St. John and Halifax.

A deputation of about one hundred leading business men of Montreal waited on Laurier, Graham, Brodeur and Fisher this afternoon, urging the necessity of the immediate construction of a branch line connecting that city with the eastern division of the Grand Trunk Pacific. Laurier told the deputation that the Transcontinental would not be complete until it connected with the city of Montreal.

The commons public accounts committee this morning decided to report to the house the evidence which ahs been taken in connection with the government's disposal of western timber limits.

The committee then turned its attention to the question of payments made by the marine department for the rental of the tug Victor for towing purposes on the St. Lawrence at the rate of $25 per day, which the opposition claimed was excessive.

Billiard Scores.

Philadelphia, Pa., March 31.—Willie Hoppe made a lead of more than three hundred over Jake Schaeffer in the game of 400 points each played here yesterday in a 12.00 exhibition match at 18.2 balk line billiards. The afternoon game Hoppe made four hundred points to Sschaeffer's 240 and last night he ran out his string of four hundred, when the champion had 250. Hoppe's highest run was 73 and Schaeffer's 47. The latter is in poor condition.

Murdered by Mistake.

Wilmington, March 31.—John Cook, Jr., aged 13 years while sitting in Sergeant Lacey's cigar store near Fort Dupont last night was shot and instantly killed by somme one who fired through the window from the street. Cook sat next to Blackburn and it is reported that Blackburn had some trouble with some of the soldiers under him at Fort Dupon and that the bullet which killed Cook was intended for Blackburn. The bullet pierced Cook's throat severing the jugular vein.

Agreement in Michigan.

Bay City, Mich., March 31.—The coal operators and miners of Michigan opened their joint conference in this city yesterday, although the scale year ends today and it will take at least 7 or 8 days to agree on a scale. It is said by both sides that an agreement will be reached within eight days. The miners will receive a small advance in pay on certain classes of work, which will probably be accepted by both sides unchanged.

Mississippi Manners.

Tinicia, Miss., March 31.—Percy M. Houston, recently elected secretary and treasurer of the Yazoo, Mississppi, Levee board, was shot and killed last night by J. T. Lowe, a prominent citizen of this place following a demand by the latter that Houston retract certain statements he is alleged to have made derogatory to him. The latter claims Houston was endeavoring to draw a weapon when he fired.

"GAGGING" THE ELECTORATE.

One of the achievements of the Laurier government to which its votaries 'point with pride," was the abolition of the special Dominion voters' lists, and the acceptance for Dominion election purposes of the lists prepared under the authority of the provincial governments.

With the qualifications for the franchise identical no good purpose is served by double registration. The government's amendment effected a small economy and did no harm.

But the bill to amend the Election Act that has lately been introduced by Mr. Aylesworth and is now on its way through parliament, proposes to deal especially with the voters' lists of British Columbia and Manitoba. The least possible mention of this feature of the bill has been made by the Machine organs.

Among our despatches from Ottawa last Friday the mischievous features in the Aylesworth bill were detailed as follows:

"Voters' lists for the portions of the provinces of Ontario and Quebec which consist of territory not municipally organized and where there is no regular assessment or other valuation roll upon which voters' lists are based and for several electoral districts in the Provinces of Manitoba and British Columbia shall be prepared immediately after the issue of any writ for an election in any such electoral district or in any electoral district composed or partly composed of such territory, or at any time when the governor-in-counsel so directs; and for the purpose of preparing and giving effect to such voters' lists the governor-in-council may appoint all necessary officers and confer upon them all necessary nowers.'

"In the preparation of the lists the provincial law is to be followed as nearly as possible, and—

"'No person whose name is not included in the voters' lists so prepared shall be entitled to vote.'

"One notable feature of this proposition is the fact that the provincial lists are to be tampered with, although in previous elections this was not necessary. Another is the fact that the government proposes to appoint whomsoever it pleases to do this delicate work in Ontario, Quebec, Manitoba and British Columbia, without telling what sort of a person will be chosen. Still another important point is the circumstance that the government desires to give this person full powers, and does not allow parliament to say what the powers shall be."

Expressed more briefly, the government proposes to have special voters' lists made by special officers, with undefined and unlimited powers, and there is to be no court of revision or appeal.

No reason, good or bad, is assigned for this proposal to restore a system that Liberal orators used to denounce as vicious and conducive to corrupt manipulation.

It is significant that the provinces in which its application is to be general are British Columbia and Manitoba, the two western provinces in which the provincial legislatures are under Conservative control. In neither has any complaint been made by the Liberals of unfairness in the preparation of the lists, but it is to be taken out of the hands of the provincial civil servants and confided to a special band of workers appointed for that purpose only, of unspecified qualifications and beyond any control but that of the Dominion cabinet.

Now, of course it is possible that the work will be honestly done, but if that is intended why should it be done at all?

Yesterday at noon material was in for new voters' lists in British Columbia, and courts of revision will sit in May, but these lists will be worthless for other than provincial election purposes. The Aylesworth bill provides for the same work to be done in the same month, May, by special appointees.

Here is proposed an utterly unnecessary duplication of work, involving a complete reversal of Liberal doctrine and practice. If it is not proposed with a corrupt purpose, it has no purpose at all.

EDITORIAL COMMENT.

We can join our contemporary in hoping that the report of Mr. Sifton's return to the Liberal cabinet is well founded. Mr. Sifton is not an amiable or admirable public character. It is even unfortunate that he should be in a position where he may inspire the emulation of young Canadians. His cynic disregard of scruples in public and private, may be an evil influence. But he is an able man and his party sorely needs ability. The change from Sir Richard Cartwright to Mr. Sifton in the trade and commerce department will be a change from death to life.

Sir Wilfrid Laurier may courteously admire Mr. Foster's wise proposals for abolishing the middleman's profit and securing honesty and efficiency in government purchasing departments, but his reservations, in which Mr. Fielding concurred, are highly significant. It is impossible to escape the conclusion that the point of view of the party, including the ministers, was expressed by one of the Halifax members: "Mr. Roche of Halifax defended the present system. The Liberals had been 18 years in opposition and they should now be allowed to enjoy the patronage of office." To "Enjoy the the patronage of the government" is the aim and end of Canadian Liberals.

BRITISH CANADIAN WOOD PULP & PAPER CO., LTD.

313 Cordova Street, Vancouver, B. C.

We have established the townsite of Port Mellon on Howe Sound, 25 miles from Vancouver, and secured the water rights of Rainy River, which is capable of developing from 2000 to 5000 horse-power, for the location of our mammoth plant for the manufacture of newspaper, building paper, wrapping paper, etc., the plant to have a capacity of 450 tons of finished paper per week; the company hope to have the pulp plant in operation by Nov. 1, 1908.

We now offer for subscription the balance of our first allotment of Preferred Stock in blocks of 100 shares at $1.00 per share; each 100 shares entitled to a bonus of 25 shares of Preferred.

The preferred stock is entitled to a dividend of 7 per cent. commencing November 1, 1908. The 7 per cent. dividend is due and payable before any dividend is paid upon the common stock. After 7 per cent. has been paid upon preferred both stocks thereafter participate equally. There is no good reason why the preferred should not pay from 25 to 50 per cent. dividends.

The books of the corporation are open at any time for the inspection of the general public. There is no watered stock, no inflated values, no ground-floor plan, or huge promoters' profits in the enterprise. Unlike most corporations, instead of allowing 15 to 25 per cent. for advertising and sale of stock, the entire commission, literature, newspaper advertising, brokerage, office expenses, etc., is limited to 10 per cent.

The public are cordially invited to visit our demonstrating plant, 313 Cordova street, and witness the manufacture of pulp and paper from refuse material, such as slabs, discarded shingle bolts, etc., that is now being burnt at the local mills.

PSYCHOLOGY OF CRIME

London Expert on Criminology Finds Fault With Education and Penal Systems.

A remarkable address on the cause and cure of crime was given by Dr. Albert Wilson, the brain specialist, during a private debate at the Sesame Club of London, recently.

Dr. Wilson had promised to bring one of the most notorious cracksmen of the Victorian era—now a reformed character—to explain the impulses which led him to crime. To the disappointment of everyone present the ex-burglar apparently did not care to face the ordeal, for he failed to attend.

Dr. Wilson announced that in the course of a special study of the psychology of crime he had examined more than 200 criminals, including murderers, pickpockets, highwaymen, and burglars.

"Of all the causes of crime," he said, perhaps the most remarkable is that of multiple personality. I had a striking case of a girl of thirteen a few years ago.

"In one personality she became a simple child of two who could not understand words and did not know her name. In another personality she became blind and imbecile.

"I took her to Sir John Tweedy, the eye specialist, who pronounced her totally blind. Sir Thomas Barlow also declared her a hopeless imbecile, and said that she should be put in an asylum as soon as possible.

"A curious fact was that in her blind personality she could draw pictures which she could not draw normally. In a third personality she was a criminal. Once while out for a walk she stole an orange, and when rebuked replied in the typical phraseology of a criminal, 'If you can't get an orange, why, nick it.'

"On another occasion in her criminal personality she pushed her sister into the fire, and only the sudden arrival of her mother in the room prevented a dreadful tragedy."

Dr. Wilson divided criminals into two classes:—

(1) Perverts.

2()! Inverts.

"We have to thank our present system of education," Dr. Wilson said, "for the recruiting of the inverts. Poor children with starved brains and bad heredity are forced to learn a lot of stuff at school quite useless to their environment.

"The result is that by thirteen or fourteen, when they leave school, they have no pluck or stamina in them."

The four chief divisions of criminals Dr. Wilson declared to be.

(1) Insane.

(2) Unstable.

(3) Sports (in botanical sense—one varying from the normal type.)

(4) Criminals from environment or surroundings.

Unstable criminals were those who yielded to impluse, he said, and had no power of arguing out what the after-effects of their actions would be.

Sports, Dr. Wilson said, were harmless types of criminals, such as a burglar he knew who would slip the kitchen window catch, warm himself in front of the fire, and go away before morning without doing any real mischief.

"The father of this man," said Dr. Wilson, "was one of the most flourishing men in the city. He made £3,000 a year, but when he died he left nothing. That was a form of crime in itself.

"The burglar's mother was also a very neurotic woman. Of the six children of the marriage the daughter and two brothers [illegible] to the asylum.

"As regards th[illegible]ect of environment on crime, I [illegible]ted an excellent example to come [illegible] tonight. I am sorry he has not [illegible]e. I may say he was the most da[illegible] criminal of the Victorian era.

"He was so c[illegible] and intelligent that he might w[illegible]ave been Prime Minister or a [illegible] Minister. A more expert crack[illegible] never lived. He would don evening [illegible]ss to perpetrate his crimes, and, [illegible]ng himself off as a peer, would [illegible] in the best society.

"So daring and d[illegible]erate a criminal was he that the H[illegible] Office gave orders that he was never to be dealt with single handed, two policemen, heavily armed, being always commissioned for the purpose.

"His first sentence was for seven years, and his second for life. He was released when the King came to the throne, and has since reformed.

"The father of this man was a farm bailiff in Staffordshire. His parents died, and he came under the control of his grandfather, who was a drunken wretch.

"The treatmen he received was so brutal that one day he attacked his grandfather with a poker, beat him until he was nearly dead, and then made off with his grandfather's watch and £75 which he took from the safe. Thus when he was thirteen years old his career of crime began.

"It is one of the most striking cases of crime as the result of environment that I have met.

"Our system of dealing with crime is entirely wrong," Dr. Wilson concluded. "We want to make a clean sweep of our whole legal machinery and have it put in fresh. Each criminal has some peculiarity of his own which needs special consideration. At present we seem to aim at vengeance, not reform

"My burglar friend says the only cure for crime is theindeterminate sentence."

Brought to Justice.

Charles Cullin, provincial constable at Prince Rupert, has brought to Vancouver, K. Tane, a Japanese, who has been committed for trial for stabbing and wounding Nagai, another Japanese. The Japanese were working at the pulp works at Swanson Bay. Over indulgence in Chinese wine caused a quarrel, during the course of which Tane slashed the other across the stomach inflicting a seven-inch wound. He made his escape in a dory to Hartley Bay, 40 miles distant where he was held by Captain McCoskrie. He admitted the offence and was sent to Chief Constable Vickars, at Prince Rupert, and returned to Swanson Bay where he was committed for trial by Captain Locke, who held court on board the Amur. Tane was nine days in the open boat without food, water or blankets and was in a very weak state when he reached Hartly Bay.

Buckworth vs. N. and F. S. Ry.

The judgment of Mr. Justice Martin in the case of Buckworth vs. the Nelson and Fort Sheppard Railway company was received by the registrar today. The court finds in favor of the plaintiff on every contention and awards him the full amount of every commission claimed.

Mr. Fulton in Kamloops.

Hon. F. J. Fulton, chief commissioner of lands and works, has been in Kamloops upon departmental business of considerable importance. Court houses are in course of erection at both Vancouver and Kamloops, while a good deal of land is to be cleared of timber at Point Grey, and a number of other public works require his attention.

Law Against Nuisances.

In response to summonses issued by the city police to the owners of straying poultry four cases were called in the police court this morning. One was dropped for lack of evidence and one was remanded at the request of the police. In the other two fines of $5 were imposed. It is intimated that there is to be no relaxation of vigilance in the matter. Citizens who are trying to beautify their properties will be protected against the results of the selfish carelessness of their neighbors.

Woman's Suffrage Debate.

Tomorrow night at the Churchman's Club the subject of Woman's Suffrage will be debated by four ladies. The resolution is "That women are qualified to exercise the franchise and entitled to it on the same terms as men." The affirmative will be maintained by Misses McVicar and Wade, the negative by Misses Bate and McLennan. A committee of three judges will decide not on the merits of the question but of the debaters. A general discussion will follow. There will also be a musical programme. The proceedings will begin at 8 o'clock. All interested are invited to attend.

Oldest Woman in B. C.

Mrs. Margaret Hall, the oldest woman in New Westminster, and probably in British Columbia, has just celebrated her ninety-sixth birthday. Mrs. Hall is a woman of remarkable vitality, and although years have told much on her during the past few months, she still retains the full use of all her faculties, except her hearing, which was quite good until recently. Her memory is wonderfully clear, and she is able to recall many important events of the early part of the last century, including the great fire at Miramichi, N. B., which occurred about 1825, while the stirring times of the American War and the American Civil War are quite fresh in her mind. Mrs. Hall is the daughter of Scotch parents, and was born at St. John, N. B., on March 29, 1812. She had a twin brother who also lived to a ripe age, being ninety years old at the time of his death.

Back from England.

F. J. Sammons has returned from his visit to his old home in England. While absent Mr. Sammons took unto himself a wife and they are spending the day in Nelson. He has much to tell of his trip, which he enjoyed immensely. He says everyone is talking about British Columbia, and he is of the opinion that during the coming summer there will be a large number of old country people who will take up their permanent residence in this province. These people will have the capital requisite to establish themselves permanently in fruit-growing and the province will be greatly benefitted by their presence. Mr. Sammons feels that something should be done to instruct the newcomers as to the best points of location. Many of them are unacquainted with the geography of the country and it would be money well spent if the trains were supplied with literature dealing with the resources of the interior. It would be better still if someone were sent out to the main line to meet the newcomers. During his absence Mr. Sammons spoke a good word for British Columbia generally and the interior in particular wherever he visited.
