NOT SO FRIENDLY

Consul-General Nosse on Japanese Feeling

MR. LEMIEUX' PROBLEM

Dominion Minister of Labor Will Study Causes of Migration of Asiatics to Canada.

Ottawa, Oct. 4.—Consul Nosse today said that he had intended giving a series of demonstrations in Japanese cities regarding Canadian trade with Japan when he returned there, but since the trouble on the coast he is in doubt as to how his countrymen might receive them. He explained that by demonstration he meant addresses in reference to Canadian-Japanese trade. He thinks that they might or might not care to hear them now. He is planning to take his family with him when he sails on the same vessel that the Canadian envoy will go on. While lately he said that he was on a six months leave of absence, today he laughingly said he was not absolutely positive and added: "Perhaps I might see something I like better." However, it is expected here that he will be back some six months from now. He had intended going back to Japan on a visit early in the summer but had been delayed. He had heard nothing new in the way of developments regarding the situation at Vancouver.

Ottawa, Oct. 4.—Today it was found that Hon. Randolph Lemieux' absence from parliament during part of the coming session will not seriously interfere with the legislative programme affecting the post office and labor departments. It is probable that he will be the minister selected by the government to go to Tokio on October 20th and confer with the Japanese government in respect to immigration and trade relations between the two countries. Mr. Lemieux is especially well equipped for the task. He was in close touch with Prince Fushimi during the visit of that member of the Japanese royal family in Ottawa, and as minister of labor would naturally be entrusted with a mission which so intimately concerns the interests of the laboring classes in British Columbia. It is also not improbable that the minister will be accompanied by an official of the government who would supplement the formal diplomatic effects by collecting first hand informations as to the economic and social aspect of the question of Oriental immigration for the benefit of the government in formulating a wise immigration policy in regard to the populations of Japan, China and India.

ROOSEVELT AND SOUTH

President Welcomed at Memphis—Agitation for Improvement of Inland Waterways.

Memphis, Tenn., Oct. 4.—One hundred thousand citizens of Memphis and vicinity today welcomed President Roosevelt to the Deep Waters Convention. The enthusiasm of the greeting was worthy of the great south and the President of the republic. President Roosevelt was profoundly impressed with the magnitude of the demonstration. He said as much in words and more in actions, for he made no effort to conceal his pleasure. From the time the Steamboat Mississippi bearing the distinguished guest came into sight of the city until the President concluded his address before the waterways convention he received a continual ovation. His route to and from the Auditorium was through an ocean of human faces and the vast throng stretched out into the side streets as far as the eye could see. The landing was at the foot of Union avenue, from which point the procession made its way throuhg Jefferson avenue, Main street, Beale avenue and other leading thoroughfares, to the Auditorium.

All idea of confining the delighted people to the curbstones was abandoned before the Presidential party landed, and as it proceeded through the streets in vehicles the acclaiming multitude touched the very wheels of the carriages and good-naturedly elbowed for room in which to raise and wave flags and other emblems of a national nature. The picturesqueness of the scene was enhanced by the thousands of flags, banners and other decorative designs which lined the route of travel.

Arriving at the Auditorium the President found awaiting him there an assemblage the like of which has seldom been seen before in this part of the country. In every sense of the word the gathering was truly representative of all those states that are directly or indirectly interested in the project of a deep waterway from the great lakes to the Gulf of Mexico. Included among those present were the governors of a score of commonwealths, almost sufficient members of Congress to constitute a quorum, and hundreds of bankers, manufacturers, transportation officials and other representatives of the business interests of the middle west and south. The great Auditorium, spacious though it is, was taxed to accomodate the crowd that sought admittance.

Though the address of President Roosevelt was naturally the big feature of the day, much important business was accomplished by the convention before the President's arrival. The gathering was called to order shortly after 10 o'clock this morning for its first session. President W. K. Kavanaugh of the Lakes-to-the-Gulf Deep Waterway Association read the official call and made a few remarks. Permanent organization was then effected and the necessary committees on credentials and resolutions appointed.

Three set addresses were delivered during the forenoon, as follows: "The Necessity of United Action by the Friends of River Improvement," Hon. Joseph E. Ransdell, president of the National Rivers and Harbors Congress; "The Lakes-to-the-Gulf Deep Waterway," Lyman E. Cooley, engineer of the Chicago drainage canal; "The Ohio and Mississippi Rivers as Transportation Factors," Hon. J. L. Vance, president of the Ohio Valley Improvement Association.

In addition to the address of President Roosevelt and the greeting by Governor Patterson of Tennessee the programme for the afternoon session included addresses by Governor Joseph W. Folk of Missouri and Hon. Theodore E. Burton, chairman of the Inland Waterways Commission and probably the best-informed man in America on the subject of inland waterways. Tonight Governor Deneen of Illinois and Governor Cummins of Iowa are to be heard.

The roll call showed the attendance of the governors of twenty-five states and it is possible that several more will put in an appearance before the close of the convention. It is expected that all of these will be called upon to address the sessions. Among the number, in addition to those already mentioned, are Governors Coe I. Crawford of South Dakota, Henry A. Buchtel of Colorado, Newton C. Blanchard of Louisiana, Edward W. Hoch of Kansas, Bryant B. Brooks of Wyoming, George E. Chamberlain of Oregon, X. O. Pindall of Arkansas, John Burke of North Dakota, and Napoleon B. Broward of Florida. Several prominent members of Congress, among them John Sharp Williams of Mississippi, will also be heard, and the other speakers will include prominent representatives of business men's organizations and river improvement associations in all parts of the Mississippi valley.

ITALIAN DESPERADOES.

Four Men Held Up 15, Murdered One, and Robbed All.

Lancaster, Pa., Oct. 4.—The crime for which A Delro, Stephen Carlui, S. Redelli and Jos. Celione were charged here today was the murder of Plato Alhamaza and was the culmination of a daring robbery. On the night of August 30, 1906, they entered a shanty Gap, Pa., occupied by fifteen Italians who were asleep. One of the quartette was stationed as a guard at the door while the other three awakened the sleeping inmates and with drawn revolvers and knives demanded their savings. The amount secured lwas smal because the men had only a few days before sent away their money. Plato Alhamaza, one of the laborers, had thirty dollars on his person which it seemed was known to the robbers and they demanded it. He denied he had any money whereupon they proceeded to search him by force. Resisting, he seized a razor and fought desperately. In the melee Alahamaza was shot and stabbed more than twenty times. The tour made their escape and fled towards Philadelphia. The wounds about the heads and faces were the means of their arrest soon after. After the trial and conviction, Delro and Celione made a statement by which they endeavored to save the lives of the other two. The Italian consul at New York interested himself in their behalf and saw that the trial was properly conducted.

French Doctors' Union.

Paris, Oct. 3.—The members of the medical society of Charenton, a large suburb of Paris, at a recent meeting, decided to raise their rates to patients owing to the rise in the cost of living. The decision has caused widespread excitement in the community and a call for a meeting of protest has been issued.

Prizes for Kootenay.

(Special to The Daily Canadian.)

Spokane, Oct. 4.—In the mineral department of the Spokane Fair British Columbia exhibits have won many awards. They include the $100 silver cup for the best mineral display, two out of eight $25 cups for individual displays, won by the Whitewater Mines and the B. C. Copper company, and special diplomas to the exhibits from the Trail and Granby smelters.

BROOKS' ANSWER

President of Immigration Society

CLAIMS HE KEPT FAITH

Statement of Excuse for Sending Out Men to Positions That Have Never Existed.

The following statement by Rev. J. L. Brooks, arrived in Nelson last night under cover from a Liverpool solicitor, Mr. H. H. Bell, addressed to The Daily Chronicle, Nelson. As there is no paper of that name published in Nelson, and as The Canadian has had occasion to refer to Mr. Brooks before, his statement of defence is given publicity.

As president of the British E. T. & C. (Emigration, Tourist & Colonization) Socitey, Limited, i went out to Canada in the month of May last with a party of settlers, and after these were happily fixed up, went on to Western Canada with a view to satisfy myself as to the wisdom of encouraging immigrants to go to Alberta and British Columbia.

Having already had some correspondence with gentlemen interested in fruit ranches, I visited at my own expense the Kootenay district, and was favorably impressed with the location and quality of the soil, upon which point I was well able to form an opinion (having had large practical experience as a farmer and fruit grower) being born on a farm and having spent the last ten years as director of the Christian Union Social Service Farm Colony at Lingfield, where we have been training men for agricultural work and fruit growing.

I have an untainted public record of 30 years and am proud of having a very wide circle of friends whose confidence and esteem I naturally value.

While in B. C. I met what seemed to be representative men all of whom spoke of the scarcity of labor of all kinds and the high price paid for it, both to whites and to yellow men, (even Chinese could not be had under $35 to $40 per month and all found.)

Among others I met Mr. F. L. Hammond, with whom I had the most frank and interesting conversations on all issues connected with fruit growing and with whom I made certain engagements which I afterwards put in the form of an agreement and sent for his approval and as to which he cabled later: "Agreement substantially correct."

I went with Mr. Hammond to one of his estates, forty miles from Nelson, and got to understand the nature of the work before the forest could become a fruit ranch. While there and in going and coming Mr. Hammond told me unasked that he would build a hotel where he would, for a day or two while prospecting, board and lodge his enquirers, also that he would receive would-be purchasers in Nelson and show them the needful attention. When I asked him what he paid his people he told me the Chinamen cook $35 a month and his board, and laborers $3 a day and board, saying nothing about special skill.

When I asked him whether in the case of a man buying a ranch and not having money to live on it, could labor be found either with him or in the near neighborhood, he said that in some cases he would find labor, and in others be quite willing to indicate where it could be found. He also said that his rough carpenters then employed building log houses received $5 per day and board.

It is true Mr. Hammond came to my Hotel on Sunday and said he had been considering some of his statements to me, made while (as he put it) he was very tired and sleepy, and some of the things he modified and some restated, but nothing qualifying what I have here written.

I would add that in Nelson I saw on the street boards advertisements for men at $2.75 to $3 per day, and was told that for lumbermen it was usual to add food and camp to make up for the absence from home and civilization; moreover it came to me everywhere the scarcity of labor and the price paid for it.

I was also given a Nelson board of trade folder which quotes the wages current there as follows: Carpenters, $3.50 to $4.00; stonemasons, $5.00; bricklayers, $6.00; plasterers, $6.00; tinsmiths, $6.00; lathers, ..4.00 to $4.50; laborers, $2.50 to $3.00; painters, $3.50 to $4.00; plumbers, $4.00 to $4.50; machinists, $4.00; blacksmiths, $4.00 to $4.50; teamsters, $2.50 to $2.75.

This demand for labor was evident on every hand, and I therefore decided that our society could wisely encourage strong, healthy men who were willing to do heavy work such as clearing the forest or anything else necessary, to go through to Nelson for employment.

After very thoroughly discussing the fruit ranching proposition with Mr. Hammond he distinctly agreed to reserve thirty of these 10-acre ranches for our society to sell to British emigrants at $75 per acre, payable $10 per month without interest, and as our society would have the expense of advertising and finding these suitable men there was an agreed commission to be paid to cover the same, the first instalments collected in Britain before sailing to be retained for this purpose and the balance to be remitted to our society from the subsequent instalments paid in Canada. These ranches were in the country at a place called Fruitvale. But as this place could not be easily located and the men sent direct there, it was agreed that they should be sent to Nelson and should there meet Mr. Hammond and then, as I fully understood, he promised to send them to the country, and put them at his own ranch for a day or two so that they may see how to go to work to clear their ranches and farm them successfully.

I quite understood that those coming out at the start who had not sufficient capital to pay their monthly deposits and finance their own undertaking would either be given work by Mr. Hammond near by or put into touch with other employers somewhere in the district where they could get suitable and satisfactory employment. This, it was said, was easy of attainment.

I quite understood that the sale of the ranches was to be clear and distinct from the question of labor. I cannot think that Mr. Hammond will deny that he gave me every encouragement to send along suitable young men who would make creditable settlers in a British community, who had not capital, with an introduction to him for work; as a matter of fact on my return to Winnipeg in consequence of that undertaking I strongly advised a young friend who had recently arrived from England to give up a position he had secured in Winnipeg, with the help of our society, and go through to Mr. Hammond for this work, and upon his arrival there the only question Mr. Hammond seems to have raised was that of wages. This young man had not been accustomed to manual labor although strong and healthy and willing to work, and was therefore started on Mr. Hammond's ranch, as I quite expected he would be, but was not paid as much as $3 per day with free board and lodging as I expected he would be. Mr. Hammond acknowledged his arrival to me, explained this question of wages but certainly did not discourage any more similar men being sent out.

Before returning from Western Canada I prepared a memorandum of agreement between Mr. Hammond (as I did not then know the name of Mr. Hammond's association under which he was trading) of the first part, and myself, acting for our society, of the other part, covering the terms upon which our society was to sell the 30 ranches that Mr. Hammond had distinctly agreed to reserve for a definite period for this purpose, in which the following paragraphs appear:

(1) That the said parties of the second part shall be and are hereby appointed agents in Great Britain for the party of the first part upon the following terms and for a period of three years from the date hereof, thereafter terminable upon six months notice from either side.

(a.) The parties of the second part shall be and are hereby appointed and authorized to select colonists for these lands upon the terms herein defined, and their introductions shall entitle the said colonists to preference for any portion of a block of 30 ranches of ten acres each to be reserved by the party of the first part for a period of one year, from the first of July next, and for any land near by unsold for which they can pay to the satisfaction of the party of the first part.

b.) The party of the first part shall supply the parties of the second part with photographs for lantern slides, maps, blocks and first class literature for distribution illustrating and describing these lands, and the literature to be issued under their names as agents, and the parties of the second part agree to spend as much more than the cost of the said literature in advertising and lecturing.

(c.) The price and terms charged by the party of the first part to clients of the parties of the second part shall always be as liberal as any others both wholesale and retail, and the price for the first year, from July 1st, 1907, to July 1st, 1908, shall be $75 say (seventy-five dollars) per acre, inclusive of a Torrens or equally good title to be transferred free to the purchaser and the land survey fee, and to be free of interest, the buyers to pay for the land and all costs included by seventy-five payments of $10 each monthly in advance, to commence the day of signing

TRY RIOT CASES

Vancouver Grand Jury Find True Bills

SEVENTEEN INDICTMENTS

C. P. R. President and Party Start on Western Tour—News of Canada From Ocean to Ocean.

Vancouver, Oct. 4.—The first of the seventeen riot cases which will be heard at the assizes will be against Harry Varlee and Marino Call, true bills having been returned to the grand jury in these cases. No date has been named by the attorney general for their hearing, but it is likely to be before the latter part of next week.

While entering the Vancouver opera house last night with the crowd Hubert R. Morton on reaching the inner steps lost his balance and reeling to the outer or front stone steps, fell heavily to the street pavement. By the strangest chance, though just for a moment, there was left a space in the crowd, and although Mr. Morton several times sought to save himself, and others held out a helping hand, he fell backward the whole distance striking his head with such violence as to fracture the skull and he may not recover. Mr. Morton recently came here from Australia, where his family reside, and having made some investments was about to return to Australia with the object of bringing his family here. He is a man of forty years of age and recently came into a rich legacy by the will of a relative in England.

E. Burgess, a small boy, was run over by an engine today and killed.

W. Anderson, laborer, fell from a scaffold and sustained serious injuries.

Ottawa, Oct. 4.—Patience Young, of Hintenburg, Ottawa's suburb, was found dead in bed. Coroner Baptie is investigating, but there sems no cause to suspect foul play. The woman was quite old.

Winnipeg, Oct. 4.—Plans for the trip of Sir Thomas Shaughnessy and the board of directors of the C. P. R., through the west are announced today. The special train of the president pulled out of the Windsor station, Montreal, this afternoon. The journey through the east will be made slowly, the trip being one of general inspection. On the ordinary schedule the party should arrive in this city on Saturday but it is not probable that Winnipeg will be reached before Monday morning. A full day or more will be spent here and the train will leave for the west on Tuesday afternoon.

The fourth vice president of the company, G. M. Bosworth, was expected to arrive in the ciy today but did not come.

Edmonton, Oct. 4.—As a result of the bettering of the financial conditions of the city by the sale of $679,000 worth of bonds, and the consequent supply of money, work will be resumed on the most important municipal works and if fine weather continues for the next month or two, a great deal will be done on civic improvements upon which operations were suspended some time ago.

Winnipeg, Oct. 4.—According to the figures of the city assessment cimmissioner's office there are 19,190 names on the 1907 municipal voters' list as against 24,919 for 1906.

Ottawa, Oct. 4.—In attendance at the convention of Roman Catholic archbishops, and accompanying Archbishop Langevin of St. Boniface, is Father Lacasse, O. M. I., one of the most noted missionary priests of the church in the Northwest. Archbishop Orth, of Vancouver, wired that he could not attend on account of illness.

Berlin, Oct. 4—H. L. Janesen, a prominent citizen and ex-mayor of this town, was probably fatally injured. He was removing some store fixtures when his horse ran away and he was thrown off.

Ottawa, Oct. 4.—Sir Wilfrid Laurier has gone to Quebec and it is thought will attend a banquet to be given at St. Hilda in honor of Messrs. Fielding and Brodeur, who arrived from England today.

Toronto, Oct. 4.—A transaction has been completed by which Hampton McLean, publisher of the Commercial of Winnipeg and British Columbia Lumbermen, bought out the Mortimer Publishing company of Toronto and Montreal. This company publishes Architect and Builder, Electrical News, Contract Record, Canadian Lumbermen, and Western Canada Contractor, of Winnipeg. Mr. McLean will conduct the Mortimer company as a distinct business. He will continue with headquarters in Winnipeg.

Ottawa, Oct. 4.—A report has reached the department of trade and commerce from Mr. Ross, Canadian agent at Melbourne, in which he says that proposals made by Canada for reciprocal trade agreement with Australia were submitted to the acting premier of the commonwealth on August 29, with a request that negotiations should be entered upon at the earliest moment. As to progress made Canada would be advised by cable. So far no advice of any progress has been received. Ross complains that orders to Canadian manufacturers are in some cases not being attended to and in others cancelled after having been received because of a change in the price of goods.

Minden, Oct. 4.—Traces of graphite in Haliburton county are being investigated by Eugene McSwetney, president of the United States Graphite company, at Saginaw, Michigan.

Halifax, Oct. 4.—A proposal was set on foot yesterday and has taken definite shape to tender Hon. W. S. Fielding a demonstration on his return to Canada, after the successful result of the mission he has been engaged in in Paris. It is expected that he will land from the Victorian on Friday at Quebec. A strong committee of Halifax Liberals has been organized to act in conjunction with Liberals throughout the province. Wireless messages have been sent to Mr. Fielding, and if agreeable to him the demonstration will be held next week. Other members of the cabinet will be invited to attend the demonstration which promises to be one of the most enthusiastic ever held in Nova Scotia. Hon. Mr. Fielding is immensely popular in this city and throughout the province, and it is an assured fact that if he is willing for the demonstration to take place it will prove a most significant event. The movement will be strongly backed by leading Liberals at every point throughout the province, and the greeting to the finance minister will be practically a provincial ovation.

Edmonton, Oct. 4.—Inquiries have been brough before the city commissioner form a large number of corporations and individuals with reference to the proposed selling of the street railway, and making inquiries as to terms. The only reply given is that nothing definite has been decided upon with reference to the disposal of the franchise, and a concrete proposal has not been received from any of the financiers.

Toronto, Oct. 4.—Premier Whitney today denied the story tha R. A. Pringle, M. P., was to be the government representative on the Lake Superior consolidated. No recommendation has been made nor will be made in that direction. The government does not wish to interfere with the details of the company. Beyond this no statement was forthcoming in reference to the subject.

Toronto, Oct. 4—An importunate band of seekers after the vacant registrarship of Russell county are making things embarrassing for Mr. Whitney. Among the claimants for the position are J. L. Rolston of Metcalfe, who opposed Mr. Racine at the last provincial elections, Archibald Carson, W. H. Lowry of Russell, and N. J. Marion of Ottawa.

Cobalt, Oct. 4.—The Nipissing Mines has issued orders to thirteen squatters at the north end of the town to remove their possessions. The company intends to mine the Meyer vein, with which three houses interfere.

Winnipeg, Oct. 4.—The book binders' strike was settled today, the union mens' demands for increased wages and recognition of their union and an eight hour day have been accepted by all but two of the companies involved, but the latter only employ four binders.

Winnipeg, Oct. 4.—Mrs. Emma Caswell and Ven. Archdeacon Harding were married in St. Peter's cathedral, Qu'Appelle on Wednesday.

Winnipeg, Oct. 4.—Mr. McInnis, provincial secretary, has returned from British Columbia where he had been attending a session of the Dominion Dental Association, of which he is president. "The people of Vancouver are of the opinion that Vancouver will be the terminal point of all Canadian transcontinental lines, and I am inclined to agre with them," he said. The meeting of Mr. Borden in both Vancouver and Victoria were remarkable for their enthusiasm. It will not be surprising if British Columbia should every one of its representatives at the next election to Ottawa in support of Mr. Borden. The Conservative party in British Columbia is entrenched, enthusiastic and united."

Toronto, Oct. 4.—The home and augmentation committee of the Presbyterian church appeals for young men capable of doing missionary work and who would be willing to accept appointments to some of the many stations now lying vacant for want of men. Several vacant charges in northern Ontario are waiting for missionaries.

London, Oct. 4.—The trades and labor council decided last night to suspend the meeting and open under the auspices of the Canadian Labor party. Every member enrolled himself a a member of the party with the distinct undertaking that every person who was a member of any other political party must sever his connection with it before being eligible for membership in the labor party.

Americans Entertain Root.

FALSE PRETENCES

Alleged Confidence Men on Trial

LAST CASE ON DOCKET

McKian Case Will Probably Not Be Proceeded With—End of Fall Assizes in Sight.

After the disposal of the Bouchard case yesterday, next came the case of W. H. Beckett, charged with sending threatening letters to W. C. E. Koch. Mr. Macdonald appeared for the crown, Mr. Taylor for the defence. The following jury was empanelled: I. G. Nelson, foreman, G. C. Egg, S. H. Seaney, B. B. Mighton, E. E. Robinson, N. Hoover, W. Walmsley, W. A. Ward, J. Bell, M. Scully, D. J. Elvery, W. Rutherford.

F. C. Moffatt testified as to the receipt at the Daily News office of the letter, which was produced.

A. M. Johnson, solicitor for Mr. Koch, testified as to Beckett's handwriting which he identified.

Mr. Taylor moved for dismissal on the ground that the sending of the letter was not proved.

His Lordship granted the motion remarking that the accused was evidently an illiterate man and need not be seriously considered, at the same time commending Mr. Moffatt's action in handing the letter to the authorities.

The case of Maurice J. O'Connor, charged with assault and resisting the police, was then called, Mr. Macdonald appearing for the crown, the accused undertaking his own defence. The following jury was sworn: S. A. J. Kelly, foreman, J. Fraser, P. G. Ebbutt, R. A. Weir, T. Madden, M. Scully, W. A. Ward, A. P. Hebden, D. J. Elvery, S. H. Seaney, W. N. Poole L. K. Larsen.

Evidence as to O'Connor's disturbances, of his brandishing a knife and threatening to kill Chief of Police Savage, and of his arrest by the chief assisted by A. Erskine Smith, was given by A. Waugh, F. A. Magee, A. E. Smith, Chief Savage, J. Snievely.

The court commended the action of Chief Savage and Mr. Smith but thought the case was not a serious one, being entirely due to the influence of liquor on O'Connor, who was normally a respectable citizen. He directed the jury to bring in a verdict of not guilty, which was done.

This morning the grand jury returned true bills in the cases of Arthur Adams Harry Hatch and John Johnson, charged with obtaining money under false pretences. A. M. Johnson appeared for the prisoners, entered a plea of Not Guilty and asked for adjournment till 2 p. m., which was granted.

Before adjournment the jury was empanelled.

S. S. Taylor, K. C., asked what course was to be followed in the case of McKian, charged with defamatory libel. W. A. Macdonald, K. C., replied that he was still uninstructed and suggested that the matter might stand over till the next assizes as private prosecutors were at liberty to take action any time. McKian is out on his own recognizance.

Later it was learned that the city police do not intend to press for prosecution.

The first witness this afternoon was William Mitchell the complainant. He told his story, not always connectedly, but quite positively. He first met Adams who seemed to know him and his business. Adams met Mitchell and his wife on their way to the station to take the Boundary train. He accompanied them and carried a grip for Mr. Mitchell. He then sat down with them in the car. They were joined by Hatch who, Adams told him, was a C. P. R. agent. Hatch demanded "fees" from Adams, threatening that "the corpse" could not go on unless they were paid.

Adams then appealed to Mitchell for the loan of $14 saying that he had $400 in the mail car which would be released as soon as he paid the "fees" for the carrying of the corpse, and he would then refuud the money at once. Mitchell lent the money and awaited his return. When the car began to move slowly he grew suspicious.

Mr. Mitchell is still on the stand as The Canadian goes to press.

THE LIBERAL RESOLUTIONS.

Yesterday we commented on the first day's proceedings of the provincial Liberal convention which provoked rather amusement than any other feeling. The second day's proceedings are of a slightly different kind and call for censure.

We are informed that F. C. Peters, ex-premier of Prince Edward Island argued that constitutionally Premier McBride must accept responsibility for Lieut. Governor Dunsmuir's acts in reserving assent to the Natal Act, and that Mr. Templeman demonstrated that the Ottawa Government was in no way responsible. That is making an extraordinary draft on the credulity of the public. As we have pointed out before, the constitution has been violated not by Premier McBride but by the Dominion government which has converted provincial lieutenant-governors from representatives of the crown into Dominion civil servants. As to Ottawa's responsibility, it is only necessary to recall the language of Senator Scott's telegram to Lieut.-Gov. Dunsmuir, referring to the information given him by Premier McBride as to his, the lieutenant-governor's, avowed intention, and asking "Can I rely on that assurance?" How can any candid man argue, in these circumstances that Ottawa did not interfere? The reservation was not the act of the representative of the crown on the advice of his ministers, but of a Dominion civil servant obeying the well-known wishes of his masters.

Another resolution deprecates the acts of Premier McBride on the "better terms" issue instead of the "strong stand" taken by the Liberals of this province. That will deceive no one. The strong stand is presumably Mr. Templeman's declaration that "Better Terms is a dead issue." Until the Liberals of British Columbia repudiate that declaration, they can not expect their protestations to be treated with respect.

It is hard to avoid the conclusion that the resolutions constitute a deliberate attempt to deceive the people of British Columbia on both of these important questions. It is inconceivable that any body of intelligent men should not recognize the misrepresentation contained in both the resolutions referred to, and their unanimous adoption is decidedly discreditable to the party.

MR. BROOKS' REPLY.

In our news columns today we publish a lengthy statement from Rev. J. L. Brooks, president of the British Emigration, Tourist and Colonization Society, which is responsible for the coming to Nelson of three parties of young Englishmen and Scotsmen who understood that they were coming to guaranteed positions. We are also in receipt of a similar letter from W. A. Stark, managing director of the same company, which we shall publish tomorrow, and of a letter from a Liverpool solicitor demanding immediate and unconditional apology as the only alternative to an action for libel.

We are quite willing to apologize to any one whom we may have injured or misrepresented, but after careful study of the replies of Messrs. Brooks and Stark, we can feel no regret for anything we have said of their conduct. In a mass of correspondence in the possession of the solicitor of the Kootenay Orchard Association, there are repeated acknowledgements of misrepresentation by Messrs. Stark and Brooks, due, they assert, to misunderstanding, but subsequent to such acknowledgements, they persisted in sending out men with guarantees of immediate employment. One such acknowledgement is in Mr. Brook's own hand, dated Liverpool, July 31st, and yet a party left Liverpool on Aug. 3, with a guarantee of employment. It is no reply to the charge of an unjustified guarantee to plead that as a matter of fact the wages mentioned are paid. Neither does the fact that most of the men who have come out from Britain have obtained employment by their own efforts absolve the company from the charge of false pretences.

We have published Mr. Brooks' defence. We are prepared to leave to the public of Kootenay, and if necessary to the courts, whether our remarks have not been justified out of Mr. Brooks' own mouth.

Valuable Loot.

San Francisco, Oct. 4.—Seventy thousand dollars is the value placed by A. E. Chamot upon a collection of curios acquired by him at Pekin, China, about the time that the allied troops entered the Chinese capital to protect the foreign residents. This came out before bankruptcy referee Green yesterday during the examination of Chamot by the attorney for the creditors of the Peters Machine Company, of which Chamot is President, and which failed for $100,000, to ascertain something concerning Chamot's assets.

REPLY OF MR. BROOKS

the contract, such payment to be made to the parties of the second part at their head offices in Liverpool, England, while the purchaser remains in the United Kingdom, and to the party of the first part when the purchaser settles in Canada.

(d.) The land shall be sold in ten acre lots or ranches which may be exchanged if desired on arrival by arrangement with the party of the first part.

(2) Clause as to commission to be allowed on all sales effected by the parties of the second part.

(3) And it is further agreed that the said clients of the parties of the second part shall be cared for by the party of the first part on arrival at Nelson, and be given free accommodation for three days on the fruit ranch by the party of the first part, and shall have access to the demonstration ranch and instructions in clearing, style of building most suitable, and guidance in the selection of the most suitable plants and trees and how to cultivate them, as well as directions as to obtaining the most suitable and economical camping outfit, and assistance or advic epossible as to employment when necessary for them to work for wages, and the party of the first part agrees to keep the parties of the second part duly advised as to the demand for labor and current rate of wages from time to time for the guidance of settlers.

That memorandum was sent to Mr. Hammond for perusal and was with him for weeks before he replied. We took it for granted all was in order, but cabled asking him for confirmation although I had full confidence in his honor in the matter. On the 2nd July he cabled to me in England: "Agreement substantially correct."

Before reciving any communication from him limiting the full wage of $3 per day to strictly experienced lumbermen, our society had booked a few apparently suitable men for Nelson, all of whom expressed themselves willing to do the necessary work in the forest or elsewhere, and we had given them introductions to Mr. Hammond. Those who had purchased ranches were given receipts for their deposit on account of the Kootenay Orchard Association by the society in Liverpool in accordance with our agreement, Mr. Hammond having in the meantime given us this name in correspondence, and we stand firm upon that agreement as regards these sales.

Considerable correspondence was passing, but no communication reached us that there was any doubt about the immigrants being found work until over 20 ranches had been sold and a few others had booked for Nelson, intending to buy them there if satisfied, and these young men had given up positions and paid their passage money and could not therefore be stopped without serious loss and inconvenience to them, and as we knew the ranches were excellent value, and there was abundance of work in the district, and that of these young men were going to Canada, especially at this time of the year, they could not do better than go to British Columbia, we would not have been justified in advising them to go. But as soon as we had carefully considered Mr. Hammond's desire not to be troubled about the question of labor, and fully realized that he only wanted us to sell ranches or send men who either had sufficient capital to finance their own scheme and depend upon themselves or had experience at forest work, we made this clear to all who had booked to the best of ability, and our society will stand by those who have purchased ranches through them.

On the 17th August I was very much amazed to receive Mr. Hammond's cable reading as follows:

"Consider your statements misleading, arrangements absolutely cease, send no settlers."

A similar cable was also sent to Liverpool, to which the society replied as follows:

"Altered attitude perplexes Brooks, sold 22 ranches desirable men terms you agreed, received deposits, explained about work, passage booked, part sailed. Cannot cancel, must protect us, agree second terms remaining eight, trying arrange wholesale deal, Confirm."

And later in reply to a further message from him we cabled him as follows:

"Indignantly repudiate false charges, initiating defence.,, And wrote him as follows:

August 21st, 1907.

F. L. Hammond, Kootenay Orchard Association, Nelson, B. C.

Dear Sir,—We are surprised, aggrieved, and even indignant at the contents of your cable just received, for which there is no justification whatever, as on this side we acted on discussion with yourself and upon the agreement of the 19th of June based on those discussions, and all that we have done was honorably conducted in the light thereof.

We are, of course, very sorry for any misunderstandings that have arisen. These would not have occurred, however, but for the long delay in your writing reply to our memo of agreement, about which you cabled "Agreement substantially correct."

The situation is very perplexing, as both you and we are under obligation to keep faith with those who have purchased these ranches. In the meantime we must hold you responsible for the sales made and our commission thereon, as per agreement, as well as the consequences of your repudiation, but sincerely hope some way may soon be found to adjust the matter satisfactorily to all parties. (Sgd.) J. L. BROOKS, President.

Had Mr. Hammond when cabling said "Agreement substantially correct except so and so., or Wait Letter all the trouble could have been avoided, but he did not and it was months before I heard that Mr. Hammond wanted to vary the proposed agreement and the verbal arrangements made with me and in the meantime everything done by our society was in good fatih.

Men of Leisure

The crowds that have been in attendance at the court house during the whole assizes indicate that there are a great many men in Nelson whose hours of labor are not excessive.

Revelstoke Growing.

The Revelstoke school report for September shows an enrollment of 417 in public and high schools, which the Mail-Herald says is 100 years greater than the enrollment last year.

Houston Prospering.

The issue of the Prince Rupert Empire of Sept. 21st contains many land notices, timber notices, notices of application for certificates and several display advertisements, a very fair patronage.

Investigating Frauds.

A. M. Johnson, solicitor for the Kootenay Orchard Association, received a letter today from J. A. Turner, of the provincial agent general's office in London stating that the matter of false promises to intending emigrants made by the British Emigration Tourist and Colonization Society was being taken up by that office and the Dominion immigration department, and that unless an early and satisfactory reply were forthcoming from the society the matter would be placed in the hands of the Scotland Yard authorities. Mr. Turner advises those who have been deceived to send a statement of their case to W. B. Scott, Dominion immigration agent, at Ottawa.

PERSONAL.

W. Haig-Smellie, of Procter, has just returned from a visit to the coast, extending over three weeks.

Miss Winnifred Crowley is a member of the Boston Ideal company, which is now playing in Winnipeg.

Consumers on Strike.

New York, Oct. 4.—A novel effect of the rise in the price of foodstuffs, particularly of meat, is reported from Augusta, Maine. Nearly 1200 of the people of Kennebec county are reported in open revolt against the high prices demanded for meat, and have pledged themselves to abstain from all meat for ten days. It is hoped by this method to force prices down. The fasting will begin in Augusta, Gardner, Hallowell, Winthrop and several towns of the county at the same time.

Foreign Epidemic.

Orangeville, Oct. 4.—With two men in jail here convicted of forgery, a tall dark stranger again worked the same game on the Bank of Commerce and Sterling bank yesterday, obtaining $300 from the former, and $100 from the latter. So easily was the money obtained that the forger tried to discount a note at the Bank of Hamilton, but the officials there insisted on identification. The man went away and not coming back the manager became suspicious and warned the other banking houses, but it was too late. They had already been victimized. Bank clerks and police immediately started out to find the criminal but were unsuccessful. The forger impersonated Patrick Garrity, a rich farmer of Caledon township, whom he in no way resembles.

More Hindu Baiting.

Spokane, Oct. 4.—At Danville, Wash., last night an angry mob drove a small party of Hindus across the line into Canada, sending a shower of missiles after them. A few shots were discharged at the trespassers but none wer injured, it is believed. The Hindus had found shelter in a cabin at Danville, following their escape from Canada.

Mikado's Mother Dead.

Tokio, Oct. 4.—It was reported this morning that the real mother of the Emperor of Japan, named Nakayama, who has held the highest rank at the royal court, was seriously ill. It is believed, however, that she died early today. The emperor is officially supposed to be the son of the deceased empress, Asako, but the son of Nakayama was adopted as heir to the throne by the late empress, Komei Tenno, who died in 1867. The Empress Asako died in 1897.

No Grain Certificates.

Hamburg, Oct. 4.—The International European committee organized for the purpose of drawing up a grain certificate for American acceptance, decided today to adjourn the meeting of the committee called for the beginning of October at Hamburg, owing to the unfavorable prospects of the committee's proposition being accepted by the American shippers, owing to the present position of the market. A conference will be held later either here or in London.
