n. W. Pugsley Getting His Deserts

NISHED IN COMMONS

thes Under Challenge But Is Dumb —Documentary Approval of All That He Now Condemns.

ttawa, March 10.—Once more Mr. ley has been invited to repeat in house the statements concerning Borden which he continues to e outside. Mr. Foster referred to "knightly courage and great dar- shown by the minister, who after ly attacking Mr. Borden at 3,000 s distance, sat silent when challen- to repeat the charges with Mr. en facing him a rod and a half . "It seems to me," said Mr. Fos- that if I were to attack the prime ster on the public platform, when was a continent between us, n I met the right honorable gentle- in this house and was challenged ake good my words in his pres- , I would do it." Even this chal- e did not bring from Mr. Pugsley atement. In Mr. Foster's words minister "remained dumb in his before the challenge to make good arliament his charge against the r of the opposition, a charge ch was absolutely baseless."

t Mr. Pugsley did say something t himself. He went back to 1895 harge that the Conservative gov- ent had then dealt unjustly with Brunswick. He declared that the e then pursued "was greatly dis- oved by the people of New Bruns- and the maritime provinces gen- y." He asserted that the govern- t sent the subsidized ships to a gn port and had in 1895 refused ecognize St. John when a delega- had waited upon Mr. Foster in interest. This was all contrary e fact. The Conservative govern- t in 1895 established a winter ser- to Canadian ports, and a few ths later gave notice that subsi- would no longer be paid to steam- s sailing to Portland. It was when change of government came that notice was cancelled and the for- service was continued for a con- rable time beyond the date fixed by Conservatives.

oreover Mr. Pugsley was support- the Conservative government dur this whole period. He was nomin a Conservative candidate fo gs, N. B., early in 1895 and addres meetings in support of the Con- atives throughout the year. He in the field until April 24th, 1896, parliament dissolved, when for- g his own defeat, he retired. But he was a Conservative, for in his r of retirement he explained the ation as follows:

St. John, April 24, 1896.

es A Sinnott, Esq.,
resident of the Liberal Conserva- tive Association for Kings.

y Dear Sir,—As parliament has n dissolved the time has come when e preparations for the election paign should be made.

view of information which I have ived from many quarters it seems me desirable that the voice of the eral-Conservatives of Kings should n be heard as to who shall be their didate, and I would suggest that a eral convention of the party be im- iately called. It is upwards of a r since I was chosen as the stand- bearer. During that period the vement in the country in favor of porting a prohibition candidate has gressed so far that I cannot shut eyes to the fact that if I remain in field a great many leading Liberal- servatives, in whose ranks are in- ded the vast majority of prohibi- ists, will either be lukewarm, or be found supporting the third can- ate.

the united Liberal-Conservative nt, had been committed before Mr. coming election. If our forces are ded what reasonable hope of suc- s have we? There are quite a ber of able and popular Liberal- servatives in Kings to whom Lib- l-Conservative prohibitionists would urally turn as acceptable candi- es, and if they will take counsel in vention with their co-workers in t political contests, they can easily ect a candidate who, while he can true to the Liberal-Conservative se, will fill the idea which the pro- itionists have before them.

Permit me to say in handing back to n the nomination so kindly tendered me and of which I was proud to be e recipient, I am not animated by y other than a desire to insure the ccess of the Liberal-Conservative party, which has done so much for Canada, and whose policy upon the trade question I regard as vital to the prosperity of our country. Neither am I influenced by any misgiving as to the triumph of Liberal-Conservative principles in the coming contest. In my opinion there has been no period since confederation when the prospects of success for the party were brighter than at present.

I am yours faithfully,
WILLIAM PUGSLEY.

Mr. Pugsley was mistaken as to the prospects of his party. Two months later he was a Liberal, because two months later, lacking one day, the Conservative government had been defeated. But all the alleged wrongs to his own province and city, and all the errors of policy which Mr. Pugsley now attributes to the Conservative government, had been committer before Mr. Foster and his colleagues had received the above certificate of character from the present minister of public works.

Already this month too, we have made some very satisfactory deals."

NELSON'S CREDIT

Stands Higher Than Other Western Cities'

OFFER FOR DEBENTURES

Issue Will Probably Be Sold at 95 With Accrued Interest—Meeting of City Council.

The city council, in a comparatively short session last night, ratified the agreement recommended with the Allis-Chalmers-Bullock company for the joint performance of the necessary work to complete the present installation and prepare for the second unit.

The civic salaries bylaw and Curfew bylaw were advanced.

An important announcement was made by the mayor, to the effect that an offer has been received for the city's school debenture issue on terms more favorable than have lately been secured by any other city in Western Canada.

A point emphasized in conference with the heads of the city's engineering departments was that every man employed by the city must give a fair day's work for his wages.

A suggestion of the frontage tax for local improvements was discussed and held over for further consideration.

The council met at 8 o'clock with all the members present. The minutes of the last meeting were read and adopted.

The finance committee reported a streets payroll of $242.75, which was passed and ordered paid.

The fire, water and light committee reported recommending that an agreement with the Allis-Chalmers-Bullock company be ratified, and that $10,000 be paid the company on account; and that a red light be placed over each fire alarm box under the supervision of the city electrician and the chief of the fire department. The report was adopted.

Herbert Cox petitioned for water, light and sewer connection to his new dwelling on Park street. The petition was laid on the table.

R. A. Brown reported fair progress on the work at the power plant. There had been some trouble in the sending out of supplies. He had dismissed several men with light teams who were not taking fair loads. The cement and lumber necessary is nearly all out now.

Ald. Procter regretted that the work had not been done by contract. He thought some unearned money would have to be paid.

To the mayor, Mr. Brown said he had instructed the foreman to report any laborers who were shirking a fair day's work.

The finance committee submitted another payroll of $858.18 for power plant construction, which was passed. A cheque was ordered to be issued to Cecil B. Smith for $407, salary and expenses for his trip to Nelson and inspection.

A resolution, prepared by the mayor, provided as follows:

"Resolved that hereafter the 'stores account shall form an integral part of the book-keeping of the city, and shall be so framed as to afford complete and ready touch with all the tools, machinery, plant, supplies and materials of the city from their purchase to their consumption or other disposition.

"Full and complete accounts shall be kept of the above in the city's books, and shall be supported by a full and regular system of stocktaking, carried out at least twice in every year, and stocktaking to be carried out independently of the officer in charge of the materials; and complete statements and detail shall be laid before the council twice in each year, to wit, at its first regular meeting after each municipal election, and at its first regular meeting in July.

"The audit shall cover as thoroughly the city's property and supplies and materials as it does the city's monies. The first such audited statement in detail shall be laid before this council not later than its third meeting in the month of April next.

"A copy of this resolution shall be by the city clerk sent to the heads of all departments and to the city auditor for their information."

The mayor explained that a similar system had recently been adopted by the provincial government.

On motion of Aldermen Procter and Patenaude the resolution was adopted.

Bylay No. 183, the Curfew bylaw, was then reconsidered, finally passed and adopted.

The council then went into committee of the whole, with Ald. Hale in the chair, on Bylaw No. 182, the civic salaries bylaw.

The bylaw was then reported complete as amended, and was, by unanimous vote, read a third time.

Ald McMorris drew attention to the number of petitions for sewers already received, which the city is not in a position to grant. He suggested a frontage tax, on the local improvement plan, for putting in such sewers.

The mayor thought it might work well enough in regard to sewers but he felt that the frontage tax system was fraught with danger. It had ruined, or greatly impaired, the credit of many other cities.

A general discussion followed in the course of which Ald. Procter urged that the city go as far as possible in extending sewer connections for the sake of the health of the city. He understood that one petition already signed by 14 residents was to be renewed, with more signatures and accompanied by written guarantees of connection.

Ald. McMorris remarked that former guarantees had not been fulfilled.

R. F. Lawrence reported that 16 men are now employed on Front street and doing good work.

To. Ald. Patenaude the mayor stated that he had, after receiving many inquiries and some offers, given a ten days' option on the school debentures to Aemilius Jarvis and company of Toronto, at a figure which will net the city 95 per cent. and all accrued interest, which is better than has been secured by any other western city.

Ald. Procter has received an inquiry from an English firm for the new power plant debentures.

The city clerk has given the notice, required by the legislature, to the holders of more than half the present debentures, and is making good progress.

Ald. McMorris asked permission for the Agricultural Society directors to hold a meeting in the city hall, which was granted.

The council then adjourned to Monday, March 16th.

BLAMES THE SMELTERS

G. G. S. Lindsay Presents Report of Crow's Nest Pass Coal Company to Annual Meeting.

Toronto, March 10.—The deferred annual meeting of the Crow's Nest Pass Coal Company is being held this afternoon. The report of the directors was submitted by President G. G. S. Lindsay. The report shows that the balance at credit of the profit and loss account, brought forward from 1906, amounted to $353,592. To this has been added $382,986.28, the company's net profit for 1907, also the sum of $324,320, representing payments of premium on stock, making the aggregate $1,060,980.70. From this amount the directors paid a yearly dividend of ten per cent., amounting to $355,178.98, have transferred to the reserve fund $324,280, and have carried forward $371,399.72.

The coal mined during 1907 amounted to 981,939 tons, as against 806,901 in 1906. Production of coke amounted to 231,368 tons,, as against 213,295 in 1906. The report says that but for a strike during the month of April, and the action of the smelters in raising wages "and so depriving us of our coke oven men in midsummer, and then for the most part shutting down mines and smelters for the last two months of the year because they could not operate under the wage scale, the output would have exceeded by considerable the million ton mark for the year."

UPHEAVAL IS CERTAIN.

American Missionary's Opinion on Situation in India.

Pittsburg, March 10.—The first international convention under the auspices of the Young People's missionary movement at 11 o'clock today in the big music hall of the Pittsburg exposition. The convention will close Thursday evening.

So large is the attendance, thousands of delegates are here for the occasion, that it has been arranged to hold overflow evening meetings in the city hall and large churches throughout the city. Moving pictures, the films of which are three miles long, illustrating the work of missionaries and the life and habits of natives in all the important fields in the world, will also be exhibited at both the exposition and the old city hall.

Dr. Arthur H. Ewing, an American physician missionary, president of the Christian college at Allahabad, India, who is attending the convention, believes an uprising in India is certain. He says: "A wonderful growth of national spirit has been apparent in India lately. The educated classes are keenly alive to the situation, and have been goaded into an extreme position by ill-advised statements by English editors of prominent India newspapers. There is no danger of an immediate upheaval but a serious crisis in the business future seems inevitable. Hopes were entertained that disturbing questions would be satisfactorily settled by the Indian congress, but it disbanded."

SHALL NELSON ADVERTISE?

A public meeting is called for tonight to consider and finally decide whether Nelson will continue trying to attract tourists and settlers to this district by publishing and circulating information as to the district's resources, or give up the struggle, abandon all provision for answering inquiries, tear down the office built on Ward street, intimate to tourists that if they want to visit Nelson they must bring their own guides and expect no information here, and leave the prospective settlers to get their information from interested real estate men.

The work of the Tourist Association and the 20,000 Club has been eminently successful, but the organizations themselves have been failures. Excellent work has been done. The attractions of the district to sportsmen, holiday makers, and settlers have been published all over the American continent, in the British Islands and in the countries of Western Europe which furnish most travellers. The results, too, have been excellent. The transient summer travel has repeatedly overtaxed the hotel accommodations. The shores of the Arm and of most of the river are under cultivation and parts have changed hands more than once at constantly advancing prices. All this is the direct result of the activity of the 20,000 Club. But the club's executive has always been hampered by lack of funds. No share of the money spent by tourists nor the advance in orchard values finds its way by any chance into the club's coffers. The club has done the sowing at its own expense and gets not a grain from the harvest, abundant as it is.

History has repeated itself in Nelson several times in this respect. An organization meeting is called, it may be, generally is, well attended, a committee is appointed. Then the public thinks it has done its duty. No further interest is taken in the enterprise, and the period of its survival depends entirely on the devotion and loyalty of the few who are bearing the burden.

Of course dissolution is inevitable. No dozen men will permanently give their time and work to benefit a thousand who are just interested enough to occisionally sneer at their efforts. If Nelson collectively thinks it worth while to attempt to attract residents to the city or district, a united and whole hearted effort must be made.

We pointed out, during the last municipal elections, that the city of Nelson has acquired assets, incurred debts and laid the foundations for a city on such a scale that it can be justified only by the assured expectation of substantial and permanent growth. The burdens already accumulated will be very heavy if they are permanently to be borne by 7,000 people. The question to be answered tonight is: "Are we content with our present status or do we want to improve it" Those who ignore the meeting will be answering in the most decisive fashion: "We are content, we want no improvement."

EDITORIAL COMMENT.

The question of forest conservation is admitted to be one of the first importance at present in all countries which have any considerable forest area remaining. The policy of the government of British Columbia in reserving the remaining timber limits has been endorsed by the associated boards of the interior of the province, but it has been the subject of vehement criticism from some quarters. As an indication of impartial opinion of the policy and of the government which framed it, the following from Collier's Weekly may be of interest:

"The opponents of the national forestry policy of the United States have laid special stress upon the streams of American home builders flowing across the line to Canada. They have dwelt tearfully upon the loss of national strength caused by a cruel government, which, by forbidding its citizens to make homes on its woodlands, drives them to a more hospitable foreign land. But now the government of British Columbia has put into forest reserves at one stroke a hundred and fifty million acres—as much in that single province as all the forest reserves of the United States put together. The entire area of British Columbia is less than two hundred and forty million acres, so that the government has reserved in one block about five-eighths of all the land in the province. Yet Senator Heyburn of Idaho wails piteously because the United States government has put about two-fifths of the area of his state into National Forests.

"In British Columbia there are practically no timber lands in the market. The lumberman who wishes to cut trees must deal with the government. Lands not in the forest reserves may be leased, subject to a royalty on all timber cut. It is to be noted that the enlightened policy which gives the people control of their own timber resources is carried out by the local government of the province itself. Unlike some of our western states, British Columbia does not hang back in sullen protest while salvation is forced upon her by a distant national authority."

Liberal organs from the Toronto Globe down have lately been full of denunciation of Conservative obstruction, and wails about the expense involved in the prolonging of the session of the commons. On this point the Toronto News, whose independence will not be questioned, says: "Obstruction is necessary when a government refuses information concerning the public expenditure. The question of the cost to the country is secondary to the principle involved."

BRITISH CANADIAN WOOD PULP & PAPER CO., LTD.

313 Cordova Street, Vancouver, B. C.

We have established the townsite of Port Mellon on Howe Sound, 25 miles from Vancouver, and secured the water rights of Rainy River, which is capable of developing from 2000 to 5000 horse-power, for the location of our mammoth plant for the manufacture of newspaper, building paper, wrapping paper, etc., the plant to have a capacity of 450 tons of finished paper per week; the company hope to have the pulp plant in operation by Nov. 1, 1908.

We now offer for subscription the balance of our first allotment of Preferred Stock in blocks of 100 shares at $1.00 per share; each 100 shares entitled to a bonus of 25 shares of Preferred.

The preferred stock is entitled to a dividend of 7 per cent. commencing November 1, 1908. The 7 per cent. dividend is due and payable before any dividend is paid upon the common stock. After 7 per cent. has been paid upon preferred both stocks thereafter participate equally. There is no good reason why the preferred should not pay from 25 to 50 per cent. dividends.

The books of the corporation are open at any time for the inspection of the general public. There is no watered stock, no inflated values, no ground-floor plan, or huge promoters' profits in the enterprise. Unlike most corporations, instead of allowing 15 to 25 per cent. for advertising and sale of stock, the entire commission, literature, newspaper advertising, brokerage, office expenses, etc., is limited to 10 per cent.

The public are cordially invited to visit our demonstrating plant, 313 Cordova street, and witness the manufacture of pulp and paper from refuse material, such as slabs, discarded shingle bolts, etc., that is now being burnt at the local mills.

LOCAL AND GENERAL

Return Delayed.

Provincial Constable Devitt has not yet returned from Salt Lake with his prisoner. Cedeo is said to be quarantined on account of diphtheria breaking out in the prison in which he is detained.

More Hotel Accommodation.

There is great need in Nelson for increased hotel accommodation, and to meet the demand it is understood that the two leading hotels will be considerably enlarged the coming spring. It is understood that the enlargement to one will mean the expenditure of $40,000.

New Buildings.

Several new residences are being erected in Fairview. One of the new buildings will close up the road which has been so long in use to the Grove hotel. In a few days George Fleming will start taking out the foundation for a new store about to be erected by Fleming & Son. It will be a two storey structure.

Looking for Revenge.

A man who had been victimized by a friend the other day at one of the city hotels applied for a warrant to have the offender brought back from Spokane. He was advised not to go to that trouble, and he left the office of the justice of the peace vowing that he would leave on the next train for Spokane and shoot his false friend. No word has yet been received from Spokane to the effect that he had carried out his threat.

School Fire Escapes.

The catastrophe in the school near Cleveland has aroused the citizens of Victoria to the point of investigation and they have made the discovery that their schools are not provided with fire escapes. In other Canadian cities, notably Toronto and Vancouver, the schools have been condemned by reason of the fact that no escapes have been provided. In Victoria, according to George Jay, chairman of the school board, the schools are provided with fire alarms, but no fire escapes.

Must Have Been Dreaming.

A. Nichols, the Burton City merchant who claimed that he had been robbed of $800, appears to have been troubled with bad dreams. Just as The Canadian went to press last night Nichols confessed that his story to the chief of police was false, and that he did not lose any money at all. The yarn he told did not look altogether right from the first, which led this paper to express the belief that the thief would probably be discovered before night.

Returning to Butte.

The Phoenix Pioneer says the announcement in the press early last week that the great Amalgamated Copper mines in Montana would at once reopen with a full force of men, which employ around 20,000 at mines and smelters, had the effect of attracting quite a number of men from the Boundary, for whom there was not room at the Granby mines or other smaller properties now working. Nearly every day last week tickets were bought for Butte, and some old Butte miners left for their old working places.

C. P. R. Navigation.

During the coming season the C. P. R. will expend $250,000 on its navigation department in the Kootenays. Down at the shipyards they are preparing to build a tug and a barge, and other additions to the fleet are in contemplation. The ship carpenters are busy at Nakusp, and as a result there will be a tug and two or three barges more in commission within a few weeks. This large expenditure of money taken in connection with the money that will be spent in building operations in the city, including the completion and operation of the zinc plant, induces the belief that this will be a prosperous year in Nelson.

Promotion for Capt. Troup.

The report is current at Victoria that J. W. Troup, who left for Winnipeg a week ago to consult with the second vice-president of the C. P. R., William Whyte, with regard to proposed changes in the steamship services of the C. P. R. system, will be appointed general superintendent of the amalgomated trans-Pacific steamship and British Columbia coast services, of which he is now in charge. The statement is made that he will be transferred to Vancouver, where the head offices of the steamship company will be, and an assistant manager will be appointed who will be in charge at Victoria, which will still remain the headquarters of the British Columbia service.

A Faithful Official.

With the transfer of W. C. Bowles from the C. P. R. freight office in Nelson to the Winnipeg office, the position of general freight agent of the Kootenays becomes vacant. The Daily Canadian has no desire to dictate to the C. P. R. as to the appointments of its officials, but at the same time this paper cannot refrain from giving expression to the hope so generally expressed in Nelson that R. W. Drew, who has so long and faithfully served the company in this city, will be promoted to the vacant office. Mr. Drew has been a resident of Nelson for ten years or longer, and during that time he has firmly entrenched himself in the confidence of the business community. There are so many matters affecting local business that it will require a man thoroughly conversant with local conditions to give satisfaction, and in Mr. Drew the company has a man that may be depended upon to perform the duty not only to the satisfaction of the company but as well to the business community. His appointment would be a well-merited recognition of the services of a faithful employee and a tribute to the merit of a highly esteemed citizen.

JAMES DUNSMUIR,
Lieutenant-Governor.

CANADA.
PROVINCE OF BRITISH COLUMBIA.

Edward the Seventh, by the Grace of God, of the United Kingdom of Great Britain, and Ireland, and the British Dominions beyond the Seas King, Defender of the Faith, Emperor of India.

To all to whom these presents shall come,—Greeting.

A PROCLAMATION.

W. J. BOWSER, Attorney General.

Whereas by Section 6 of the "Game Protection Act, 1898," as re-enacted by Section 19 of the "Game Protection Act Amendment Act, 1905," it is enacted that it shall be lawful for the Lieutenant-Governor in Council, by Proclamation to be published in two successive issues of the British Columbia Gazette, to declare a close season for geese in any part of the Province for any period of time, and

Whereas our said Lieutenant-Governor, by and with the advice of his Executive Council, has been pleased to direct, by an Order in Council in that behalf, a close season for geese within the County of Kootenay, until and including the 31st day of August, one thousand nine hundred and eight.

Now Know Ye therefore, that in pursuance thereof, we do hereby proclaim a close season for geese within the County of Kootenay, until and including the 31st day of August, one thousand nine hundred and eight.

In testimony whereof, we have caused these our letters to be made patent and the Great Seal of the Province to be hereunto affixed.

Witness, His Honor James Dunsmuir, Lieutenant Governor of our said Province of British Columbia, in our City of Victoria, in our said Province, this 19th day of February, in the year of Our Lord one thousand nine hundred and eight, and in the eighth year of our reign.

By command,
HENRY ESSON YOUNG,

Assault on Chinaman.

Yesterday afternoon a fight occurred near the corner of Baker and Kootenay streets between a white man and a Chinaman, begun by the former's unprovoked attack with snowballs. The Chinaman took off his coat to meet his assailant. A crowd of school boys gathered and shouted advice to the champion of the white race. Before there was any decisive blow Chief Deasy arrived and stopped the encounter, informing the white man that he had seen the beginning and that if he had authority, he would arrest him on the spot. A crowd of Hindoos across the street were curious spectators of the display of the white man's superiority.

Salmo's Grievance.

There are now five shipping mines in Sheep Creek valley, the Queen, Mother Lode, Kootenay Belle, Nugget and Emerald, all free milling and high grade. There are a score of other claims in the valley whose promise is as good as any of those named. The point of shipment for them all is Salmo, which is also the shipping point for a shingle mill and a number of camps, as well as for a large agricultural settlement in the Salmon River valley. A man who has done and is still doing business all along the line says that Salmo furnishes more business to the Spokane Falls and Northern railway than any other three towns between Nelson and Spokane. And still it is without a railway station.

Funeral Ceremony.

Last evening the Eagles and Foresters attended the remains of George Carter to the Kuskanook, the first stage in the journey east to Amherst, N. S. Those officiating were Chaplain McKay and Past Grand Master Wm. Irvine. The pallbearers were: H. Wood, S. A. Wye, H. Fotherby, W. S. Johnson, E. Peters and J. Byers. Geo. Carter died at the Home hospital from injuries received a few day ago while at work for the C. P. R. at Kootenay Landing. The services of the Fraternal Landing. The services of the Fraternal Order of Eagles were rendered by the chaplain of the Aerie, R. Mackay, and W. Irvine, Past Worthy President. Rev. A. N. Frith, pastor of the Nelson Baptist church, delivered an address and the benediction. Two magnificent floral emblems rested upon the casket, a wreath from the Fraternal Order of Eagles, and an anchor from the Independent Order of Foresters. James L. Porter acted as marshall of the procession to and from the boat.

Publicity Bureau.

A public meeting is called for tonight at 8 o'clock in the court house building. A financial statement will be presented by the last executive committee of the 20,000 club. The statement will show total liabilities of about $800. The assets consist of the building and contents including some advertising literature. The fate of the institution will then be submitted to the meeting. It has been suggested that in spite of the financial stringency there could be no objection to the city council's advancing the cost price of the building, $750, and then renting it to an advertising club at a fair figure, nor to the city's voting a small sum monthly as payment for the handling of what is really civic correspondence, and which the staff at the city hall cannot possibly attend to. The banks, the leading hotels and the real estate men can, it is believed, be relied upon to contribute liberally, and many of the merchants are public spirited enough to assist. The board of trade will doubtless continue its assistance by way of the secretary's salary. The continuance of the work is feasible and not particularly difficult, but the question whether it is really desired by the citizens or not will be best answered by the response to the call for the meeting.
