CAN'T BE BEAT.

G. T. Baker re-shipped, on Tuesday last, to S. Thompson's Livery, New Westminster, a hack which had been sent here for overhauling. The work attracted the attention of all who passed that way, and but for the wear showing on the rubber tires one could hardly tell it from a new job.

Mr. Baker has commenced building light road carts, and anyone wishing to invest in a vehicle of this description will do well to consult him first as the material and workmanship put in a cart of home manufacture is certainly more durable than the lighter factory article.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy
Cures Colds, Croup and Whooping Cough.

The Wright brothers are building a nice neat fence around their property.

The S.S. Sonoma leaves Ladner at 8 a.m. and 4 p.m.; leaves Steveston at 9 a.m. and 5 p.m. Every day except Sunday.

The ladies of the Methodist Church are arranging to hold their Strawberry and Ice Cream Social on Tuesday, 19th inst.

BRAN, SHORTS, Whole Corn, Cracked Corn, Rice Meal, Chit Rice, Chick Feed, Timothy and Clover Seeds, Sutton's Garden and Field Seeds may be obtained at Brackman-Ker Milling Co.'s warehouses, Ladner, from Mr. H. N. RICH, Local Agent.

BURGLARY AT THE POINT.

Point Roberts, Wash., May 29.—J. Johnson is the name given by a man arrested by Patrolman Beadleston, here, early this morning, charged with burglary. The officer states he captured the man in the act of looting the house of Mrs. Merkey.

D. Black, Gulfside, has already got the lumber on the ground for a large new barn and is now hauling the timbers.

Alex. Davie is building a comfortable house, on the Farrell road for the accommodation of his men; also he is putting a substantial fence around this same property.

TWELVE MONTHS.

New Westminster, May 28.—Jas. Fenton, of Boundary Bay, was found guilty of having stolen a watch and gun from William Gowdy by the Hon. W. Norman Bole in the county Court this morning, and was sentenced to serve twelve months in jail. Notwithstanding the evidence of several reputable witnesses as to the former good standing of the accused, the court expressed the opinion in pronouncing sentence, that it has not the smallest doubt of Fenton's guilt, and believed the accused has concocted his entire defence while in the box.

H. L. Edmonds appeared for the crown and J. D. Kennedy for the accused.

The first witness called was William Gowdy, who testified that on the night of November the 25th, 1905, a gun and watch and a quantity of provisions were stolen from his house near Ladner. He received several clues as to the offender from time to time, but he discredited them all until he was told early this month that Fenton had his watch. Mr. Kennedy enquired about other clues, and witness stated a neighbor had suggested that probably a man he named had turned the trick, but he did not think so himself because there was a bottle of whisky on the table near the watch the night of the theft and the gentleman in question would never have left that behind. This aspect of the case seemed to exonerate Fenton also, as the whisky had been left where it stood, and the Court, without a smile, enquired if there was any evidence as to his sanity.

Continuing his evidence, Mr. Gowdy testified that he had gone with Jos. Jordan to Fenton's house armed with a search warrant to look for his goods, and found the watch on the accused. They were told by Fenton after much intimidation, that the gun had been sold to one Edward Tinkle. Fenton stated that he bought the watch and gun from a man who came along with the articles and said that he was going to Blaine and needed the money. Fenton claims he gave the man $7 for the watch and gun. Andrew Clausen, jeweler of Ladner, identified the watch taken from Fenton as the one sold to Gowdy in 1902. Several other witnesses gave evidence for the prosecution which went to substantiate the charge.

The Court in passing sentence, stated that in view of the former good conduct of the accused it would make the term only twelve months.

ROYAL WEDDING.

Madrid, Spain, May 31.—Amid showers of bouquets, strains of sweet music and the glad shouts of thousands of subjects, King Alfonso left the church of San Jeronimo at 12.30 to-day, bearing on his arm his bride, formerly Princess Ena (or Victoria) of Battenburg.

All Madrid is holiday-making, and with royal weather the glad occasion is proving one long to be remembered.

J. K. Burns, General Agent G. N. R., Vancouver, spent Monday in Ladner and Port Guichon, gathering particulars in regard to putting on a better tariff and train service between Delta points and Vancouver.

WEDDING BELLS.

New Westminster, May 31.—St. Paul's Reformed Episcopal Church was the scene of a very pretty wedding last evening when Rev. J. Seymour united in the bonds of holy matrimony Henry A. Mitchell, of Crescent Island, and Miss Alice M. Burr, daughter of Benjamin Burr, of Columbia street, New Westminster. The church was beautifully decorated for the occasion with flowers and evergreens. A choir composed of the lady friends of the bride was present, and heralded the arrival of the wedding party with singing.

The bride, who was given away by her father, was charminly dressed in cream silk trimmed with lace, and carried a bridal bouquet of cream brides roses. Miss Bessie Burr, sister of the bride, attended her as bridesmaid, and was dressed in pale blue embroidered voile trimmed with lace. The bridemaid's bouquet was composed of pink and white carnations. Little Miss Ellen Patchell made a very charming flower girl, dressed in pink silk, and carrying a corbeille of pink sweet peas. Joseph Mahony of Vancouver was best man, and J. J. Johnston and J. W. Mahony were ushers.

After the cermony, the wedding party were entertained at the residence of the brides' parents. About fifty relatives of the bride and groom sat down to breakfast. The house was very tastily decorated for the occasion with roses, carnations, sweet peas and other flowers, while festoons of evergreens added to the beauty of the scene.

The happy couple left on the C. P. R., last night, for Shawnigan Lake, Vancouver Island, where the honeymoon will be spent.

Among the many presents given to the bride must be noted a handsome pudding dish, suitably engraved, the gift of the Royal Templars, the bride having been the first single lady to join the R. T. of T., in New Westminster. The briedgroom's gift to the bride was a pearl brooch; to the bridesmaid, a pearl brooch; flower girl, gold locket; and to the best man a gold pendant.

Mr. and Mrs. Mitchell will reside at Crescent Island when they return from Shawnigan Lake.

LACROSSE.

Through the kindness of H. N. Rich a field has been obtained, in the village, for practice, and it is hoped that the boys will turn out in full strength for practice now.

There will be a meeting of the executive committee, on Monday evening next, at the Shirley House, when a full attendance is requested.

WORK OF FIENDS

Seattle, Wash., May 31.—Elsie Mullhoff, 11-year-old daughter of Wm. Mullhoff, of Renton, was assaulted, then murdered and her body partially buried on what is known as the Old Renton Farm, Tuesday night. The body, with the throat cut, was found by searching parties yesterday.

We understand that the Ladner Band purpose changing their practice night from Wednesday to Monday and devoting Friday evenings during the summer season to concerts on the Band Stand. We hope the appreciation merited will be shown by the public by a good attendance on these occasions.

BALANCE SHEET.

EDITOR DELTA TIMES:

Sir: Enclosed herewith please find balance sheet of the Empire Day Celebration subscription. As will be seen the committee have on hand a small balance in favor of the children of $5.25, which amount remained unexpended owing to the inclemency of the weather. This amount will be applied to some future occasion, suggestions for which can be made by those interested.

Yours truly,
F. W. HARRIS,
On behalf of General Committee.

Westham Island.

Mr. and Mrs. Philpott and daughter, of New Westminster, are spending a few days with Mr. and Mrs. Albertson.

Part of the Westham Island wharf gave away on Wednesday from being overloaded with gravel resulting in considerable of the gravel finding a resting place in the river. Considerable harsh criticism of the management has been expressed for unloading two scows on such a small wharf at once without having some of it hauled away.

The people of the Island have completed arrangements for holding a picnic at Stanley Park on June 15th. Transportation arrangements have already been made and it is certain they will be more carefully carried out than was the case on the trip to Boundary Bay when only one wagon turned up at Canoe Pass and as a result a large number were compelled to walk to Ladner, and from Ladner home at night.

GARDEN PARTY.

Under the auspices of All Saints Guild, a Garden Party will be held at "Greencroft," the residence of Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Green, on Thursday afternoon, the 14th inst., commencing at 2 o'clock. Tea, strawberries and icecream will be served. Admission to the grounds free.

At the second trial of the train robbers, at Kamloops, this week, a verdict of guilty was returned, and now Edwards and Dunn are doing life sentences and Colquhoun 25 years for stealing $15.50. Desire Brothier gets a free pardon after serving only two years of a seven years' sentence for a much more serious crime against society. The former sentence may be deserved, but what about the justice of the latter? Brothier was convicted of procuring, in Vancouver, and his release is a disgrace to a Christian community.

SATURDAY, JUNE 2, 1906.

Many complaints have been received regarding the presence, on Trenant Street, immediately in the rear of the Bandstand, of a portable cabin. It would be advisable for the Council to order its removal.

The prospects for an excellent and abundant grain crop are first class. Although the rain was a little tardy in coming when it did arrive it came in sufficient quantity to carry the grains through the dry spell which usually comes on at this season of the year.

The advantage of the ditch along the Boundary Bay road is very apparent in the quality of the grain growing alongside and the material thrown out will make a great improvement to that too narrow road. It is to be hoped that the good work will be continued to the foot of the hill.

We offer the suggestion that When loading gravel at the gravel pit, all stone above two inches be raked aside. These stones, when placed on the road, are only a source of anneyance, they only float around and, therefore, are liable to lame horses. When a sufficient quantity of this rock has been gathered, the rock crusher might be sent to the pit to convert said rock into useful road material.

Although the Council consider their recent purchase of a team and outfit to be a great bargain, we would have much preferred the purchasing being done here. No doubt, just as good horses might have been purchased here, and, as to the outfit, well, our business men could very easily supply that, between them, and of excellent quality. We hope that next time the Council's needs will be supplied at home.

A number of suspicious characters have been prowling around, of late, and it would be well if the constable was to be instructed to root them out. It is such people as these that the people of Renton, Wash., are hunting for for the murder of a little girl, only eleven years of age. When a loafer puts in an appearance in this district he should be looked after at once. It is better to invest a few dollars for the board and lodging of these people than to have them committing murder or even burglary.

Mrs. P. Pearse went up to the Coal City on Thursday.

There will be a special meeting of the Ladies Aid of the Methodist Church at The Parsonage, on Tuesday next, 5th inst. A full attendance is earnestly requested.

A SERIOUS LOVE SPLIT.

A young lady sings in our choir,
Whose hair is the color of phoir.
But her charm is unique.
She has such a fair chique,
It is really a joy to be whoir.

Whenever she looks down the aisle
She gives me a beautiful smaisle.
And of all of her beaux
I am certain she sheaux
She likes me the best all the whaisle.

Last Sunday she wore a new sacque,
Low cut at the front and the bacque,
And a lovely bouquet
Worn in such a a cute wuet
As only few girls have the knacque.

Some day, ere she grows too antique.
In marriage her hand I shall siquet,
If she's not a coquette,
Which I greatly regrette,
She shall share my $6.00 a wique.

How to Break Up a Cold.

It may be a surprise to many to learn that a severe cold can be completely broken up in one or two days' time. The first symptoms of a cold are a dry, loud cough, a profuse watery discharge from the nose, and a thin, white coating on the tongue. When Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is taken every hour on the first appearance of these symptoms, it counteracts the effect of the cold and restores the system to a healthy condition within a day or two. For sale by All Druggists.

Air All Garments.

All garments should be thoroughly aired after wearing. Under no circumstances should they be hung up in closets or folded away in drawers until they have had every opportunity of drying and purifying by exposure to the open window, if nothing more. Even a bonnet or a pair of gloves should not be set away at once, after the fashion of the overfastidious, who cannot bear to see an article out of place for a moment. If the bedroom is not also a sitting room, this may be arranged by leaving a window open there all through the day and shutting the door upon this disorder, which is the highest type of neatness, because it is conducive to wholesomeness and health.

A Homemade Toy.

Buy at any toyshop a small ring or use an embroidery ring of large size. Cover it with muslin and then wind bright ribbons around it so as to completely hide the muslin. From an upholsterer get two dozen small curtain rings of polished wood. Slip these on two lengths of broad ribbon. Knot four points on the ring equal distances apart and sew the ribbon ends to these points, making a bow at each join and another in the center of the circle where the ribbons cross. To each curtain ring fasten a sleighbell with a bit of narrow ribbon, changing and varying the colors, and baby will have a charming toy.

Two Kinds of War.

In an Iowa law court an attorney was arguing with great earnestness and eloquence. In the midst of his argument he paused a moment, says the Green Bag, and said:

"I see your honor shakes his head at that statement. I desire to reaffirm it although your honor dissents."

"I have not intimated," replied the judge, "how I should construe the evidence or what my decision will be in the case, and your remark is uncalled for."

"You shook your head."

"That may be true," the court replied. "There was a fly on my ear, and I reserved the right to remove it in any manner I saw fit. Proceed with your argument."

Caleb Cushing's Dress.

Caleb Cushing's peculiar manner of dress and his eccentricities were frequently the subject of newspaper articles. Although quite a large and portly man, his clothes always seemed to be two or three sizes too large for him and of the cheapest material. He always during both summer and winter wore a large cloth cap pulled close down on his head and altogether looked anything but the brilliant jurist and diplomat. One day, after reading an unusually caustic comment upon his dress, he remarked to the writer, "I guess by the time that fool is as old as I am he will care more for comfort than fashion."

Seen on an Ostrich Farm.

It is no uncommon thing to see a male ostrich strutting about followed by three or four distinct broods, all of different sizes. When the incubating process is completed, the cock bird leads his young ones off and if he meets another proud papa engages in a terrific combat with him. The vanquished bird retires without a single chick, while the other, surrounded by the two broods, walks away triumphantly.

Gave Himself Away.

After preaching on the occasion of the reopening of a restored church the bishop thanked the churchwarden, an old farmer, for his share in the good work. "And I must thank your lordship for your sermon," was the reply, "but I could not help thinking, as you talked about sin, that your lordship must have been a little wildish yourself when you were a young man."

Contentment.

One who had tried several times to jump across a stream and had repeatedly fallen in finally succeeded, when he said to a friend, "How much better I am than you in having accomplished a difficult feat."

"Not at all," replied his friend. "I am better than you in not wishing to jump across."

The Difference.

"What a luxury a clear conscience is!" exclaimed the high minded statesman.

"Yes," answered Senator Sorghum, "it's a luxury, but it isn't a necessity."

By Way of a Lesson.

"One of our cars ran over another man last night," announced the superintendent of the street railway line.

"Well," replied the president, "after awhile the people will learn that the only safe place is aboard the car and that 5 cents is a small price to pay for safety."

Unknown Friends.

There are many people who have used Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhœa Remedy with splendid results, but who are unknown because they have hesitated about giving a testimonal of their experience for publication. These people, however, are none the less friends of this remedy. They have done much towards making it a household word by their personal recommendation to friends and neighbors. It is a good medicine to have in the home and it is widely known for its cures of diarrhœa and all forms of bowel trouble. For sale by All Druggists.

THE KISS.

SHE.

He threw me a kiss,
Mamma didn't know it.
She would take it amiss
That he threw me a kiss,
But she wouldn't dream of this
For my face didn't show it;
He threw me a kiss,
And mamma didn't know it.

HE.

Pray where was the harm
When nobody knew it?
There's no cause for alarm;
Pray where was the harm?
That kiss had a charm
No one saw that I threw it;
Then where was the harm
If nobody knew it.

MAMMA.

They think I am old—
Getting blind, I suppose.
But my heart isn't cold
If I am getting old.
I don't need to be told
Why she blushed like a rose
Though I am getting old—
Yes, and blind, I suppose!

—Harry French in Harlem Life

The Suburban Child.

They were suburbanites, and they sat at breakfast, when a letter was handed to the mother, which she read with rapidly increasing consternation. "How unspeakably dreadful!" she exclaimed. "Cecilia Rodney's entire family has been practically wiped out. Her mother has died, and her father, her brother and her cousin, all in the same month?"

Ethel (four years old, who in her brief career has experienced all the joys and woes of the suburbs)—Did the cook die, too, mamma?—Harper's Magazine.

A Convenient Conscience.

"I don't believe he has any conscience at all."

"Oh, yes, he has."

"Not much of a one."

"No; not much of a one, of course. In fact, it's of such trifling importance that when he beats some one out of $1,000 he can square things with it by contributing $1.50 to charity. Still it's a conscience."

Her Answer.

"What kind of letter did your husband write when he was away?"

"He started 'My Precious Treasure' and ended by sending 'love.'"

"How did you answer?"

"I started with 'My Precious Treasure' and ended with 'Send me $20.'"

There is less room at the top than is popularly supposed. They who are there are few but large.—Puck.

Breathing and Malaria.

The importance of guarding against aerial transmission of malaria is shown by the personal observations of Dr. Maurel. In Africa he had spent nights tramping in the marshes without suffering the least inconvenience, while his assistants suffered from chills, merely because they did not seem to be able, literally speaking, to keep their mouths shut. He absolutely refrained from talking, so as to allow none of the miasmatic air to reach his lungs through the mouth, the nasal passages, as is well known, acting as a sterilizing apparatus through the destructive action of the nasal secretions upon atmospheric organisms.—Exchange.

The Marks of Genius.

"He has the stamp of genius on his brow."

"Yes. Also the gloss of genius on his coat."

A Big Difference.

Madge—Don't you think a girl should marry an economical man?

Dolly—I suppose so, but it's just awful being engaged to one.

Barred Out Immigrants.

Uncle Sam has a black list of birds and quadrupeds which it is absolutely prohibited to introduce into this country, says the Chattanooga Times. The mongoose, the flying fox and the starling are on the list. The mongoose is a species of ferret, a native of India, where it is domesticated as a sort of animal rat trap and snake destroyer. It was introduced into Jamaica to get rid of the sugar cane rats. These exterminated, however, the mongoose went on to diet off the insect destroying birds, with the result that the crops have been devastated by insects in some sections of the island. The animal is exceedingly crafty, nocturnal in its habits and evades traps with ease. The flying fox, known also as the fruit bat, is a voracious harvester of fruits and vegetables. The starling belongs to the crow family.

King's Birthday.

All the world is going to the Races on the 26th!

The Agricultural Society's Grounds will wake once more from their annual slumber; their customary solitude will be changed to a scene made bright with summer dresses, and enlivened by hundreds of happy people.

Arrangements for the Annual Event are practically completed by the Delta Driving Park Association, and, judging from the success of previous Meets, a perfect day is to be anticipated. Many visitors will arrive from New Westminster and Vancouver, taking advantage of the special service by Steamer between Steveston and New Westminster and Ladner. The Association is to be congratulated on the perfect manner in which all details are being planned for the convenience and comfort of the spectators.

The purses are good—as good as anywhere in British Columbia, and will doubtless be an inducement for many entries. The sports and races, too, promise an unrivalled attraction, and should draw large crowds.

We cannot but wish that the well arranged programme may meet with the success it deserves, and on the 26th, we too

"Will join the glad throng,
That goes laughing along"

For like the rest, young and old, men and maidens, we will be there.

W. H Wilson spent Tuesday in the Terminal City on business bent

The dance given by the Ladies' Guild of All Saints', last evening, was a most delightful as well as successful affair. Needless to remark that under the Guild's auspices everything was most orderly and correctly carried out. The Band, who kindly volunteered their services, was at its best. At 1.30 a.m. the National Anthem closed a most enjoyable evening. The proceeds will go towards the wiring of the church and vicarage for the electric light.
