WINNIPEG LAND RULES

New C. P. R. Regulations--Speculators Must Pay More.

Winnipeg, Jan. 8.—It is announced here that the C. P. R. will in future demand a one-sixth cash payment for all land sold to persons who do not propose to settle upon it, but rather who purchase for speculation. It has hitherto been the practice to charge as the first payment one-tenth of the purchase price, but this privilege, in future, will be allowed only to actual settlers.

The provincial land department has during the year just closed disposed of 151,079 acres of land. Of this 92,147 acres were Manitoba and Northwestern lands. This shows a very large increase over 1900, when only 25,642 acres were disposed of.

The remarkable fine weather continues throughout the entire west and the demand for farm lands continues unabated. Manitoba's remarkable progress is said to be attracting the attention of the Northern Pacific and it is believed to be, in certain quarters, the desire of that road to again enter the province.

The Kootenay is the only first-class hotel in the city. tf.

JOPLIN METHODS

Mr. Pettit From Missouri Is Answered.

"UNDERMINES HIS FELLOWS"

Why a Joplin Man Is Regarded With Suspicion by Everyone—Professional Strike Breakers.

In reply to the communication appearing in yesterday's Rossland Miner signed by Mr. Pettit, of Missouri, W. L. McDonald, of Rossland's Miners' Union, has handed the following letter to the WORLD:

Mr. Pettit, of Joplin, Missouri, in yesterday morning's Miner, attempts to justify the Missouri element which has been shipped in here during the past four months. In some ways I agree with Mr. Pettit. I do not believe we should cast any reflections on a man because he happens to be born in Joplin. He cannot help it. "Why is it," he says, "that when a man mentions he is from Missouri he is regarded with suspicion by the workingmen of the west?" It is from the actions of 400 or 500 men who hail from that section who show up whenever there is a labor trouble.

He admits that they cannot hold their jobs in any of the camps where union men are employed. Why is this? We all know that none of our western mine managers have any love for a man because he belongs to a union, but they do know that the first-class skilled miners are found in the ranks of the unions, and after the trouble is over the Joplin boys will find themselves gradually displaced, not from any love the managers have for the unions, but because a scab element is an ignorant element, and ignorance cannot compete with intelligence at any game. The 400 will return to Missouri, and await another opportunity to better their condition; a strike or a lock-out is declared; Oliver Lamb and his outfit rush down to Joplin; the boys are herded in the cars; a gang of deputies or a gatling gun on each car and, usually at midnight, they are unloaded inside the bull pen at the seat of trouble.

This is no exaggeration. There are Missourians on the hill here who carry the scab medal with a bar for every mining strike in the past ten years. Leadville, Cripple Creek, Coeur d' Alenes, Northport, Rossland and others.

The actions of these men have brought the State of Missouri in disrepute all over the west, not only among the workingmen, but among the employers as well. There are thousands of good union men in the State of Missouri, but they don't come out as strike-breakers. Some of the strongest members of Rossland Miners' Union are from Missouri, but the little nest of strike-breakers with its headquarters at Joplin has cast its shadow over the whole State.

Mr. Pettit says a scab is "a man that undermines his fellow-workmen." It is a good definition. It is not necessary to take lower wages to do this. Mr. Pettit boasts of the good wages he receives. What has maintained the wage scale in the western mining camps but the Miners' Union? Mr. Pettit himself is receiving a hundred benefits won for him by the union men of the west. Yet he cannot see that our interests are his. He cannot see that when he undermines his fellow-workingmen he will fall in the same hole unless the union men can prevent him from succeeding.

If there was no strike in Rossland, if there was no union in Rossland and Mr. Pettit was mucking in the Le Roi and he should go into Barney Macdonald's office and ask him to raise his wages, I believe he would come out with a new idea of the need of an organization to back him in his request.

Ignorance will lose in the end, and these men will in time come to see that there are other ways to better their condition than to pull down some other man who is attempting to better his.

There are worse scabs than the Missourians, however. The Missourian scabs though ignorance and association, but he is far ahead of a man who, having reaped the benefits of organization for years and understands the situation, deliberately turns his back on his fellow-workingmen, and for the privilege of a few days work seeks to accomplish their downfall.

There is hope left in education for the Joplinites, but the other is indeed a hopeless case.

W. L. MCDONALD.

Rossland, Jan. 8th, 1902.

ANACONDA SMELTERS

The Largest Plant in the World -- An Immense Concern Completed.

Anaconda, Mont. Jan. 7.—Something of the magnitude of the new smelting plant at Anaconda can be seen when it is understood that to build the works it took more than 10,000 carloads of material.

Of this 1000 carloads were brick. Over 25,000,000 feet of lumber were used in the buildings and flume. This flume delivers 50,000 gallons of water every minute. Fifty thousand yards of masonry were constructed in the work and more than 950,000 yards of earth were excavated for foundations.

The site occupied contains 300 acres, seven acres of which are covered by the concentrator building alone. The capacity of the works is fully 5000 tons of ore each 24 hours. It took a force of 900 men employed from June 18th to date to complete the immense plant. This is certainly the largest smelting plant in the world.

TO SETTLE THE FORM

The First Case of Mine Inspection by Adjoining Owners.

Nelson, B. C. Jan. 8.—In the case of the Star Mining company versus the Byron N. White Mining company the defendants are appealing against the order of inspection granted the plaintiff.

This appeal will settle the form of order that will be granted in every similar case, as well as the rights of a mine owner to investigate the workings of an adjoining mine when he suspects that such workings extend into his property.

This case is interesting, as it involves a question of extra lateral rights somewhat similar to that of the celebrated case of the Centre Star versus the Iron Mask.

ARE NOMINATED

The Municipal Labor Party Name Their Men.

P. J. McKICHAN FOR MAYOR

Aldermen and School Trustees Who Were Endorsed by the Meeting—A Satisfactory Start Made.

The second meeting of the Municipal Labor Party of Rossland was was held last night for the purpose of receiving the report of the committee of fifteen.

P. R. McDonald, chairman of the executive committee, presided. The report of the executive committee on the work of the past two months was received.

The question of nomination was then taken up. Angus J. McDonell and Thomas Embleton were endorsed as candidates for ward 3, James Hampton and Samuel Forteath for ward 2 and Edward King for ward I.

Peter John McKichan of ward 1 was then endorsed as candidate for Mayor amid a scene of enthusiasm.

Mr. McKichan said in response that if elected he would use his best efforts for the best interests of all classes composing the population of the city. The announcement of Mr. McKichan's candidature for mayor left a vacancy in the list of candidates for ward 1 for alderman. Several names were proposed but the convention decided to leave the selection of a candidate to the committee of fifteen.

The following candidates for the school board were chosen.

Emma L. Chisholm, P. R. McDonald, Nelson Willis, Sydney Sisley and Alexander Wilson.

Mrs. Emma L. Chisholm, the lady candidate chosen, is a heavy property owner in ward 3, and has had several years practical experience in school work.

It was decided on the recommendation of the executive committee to levy an assessment of 50 cents on all members of the party.

A committee room has been opened in the War Eagle hotel building, Columbia Ave. west, and work is actively progressing on the canvas of the city.

It was decided to hold a public meeting on Wednesday evening, Jan. 15 and that the Miners' Union hall be secured. Several short speeches were made in support of the candidates and the meeting adjourned. The meeting was enthusiastic and harmonious throughout.

FAIR MINDED.

The morning paper says today: "One thing which every fair-minded man ought to insist upon is that the laws of the country shall be obeyed. As far as the Rossland Miner is concerned, it does not matter who the offender may be—whether he be a non-union or a union man—if he offends against the laws he should be punished."

Sure, but unfortunately the Miner is on record against—violently against—the enforcement of the alien labor law, and has more than once openly rejoiced at the refusal of the authorities to enforce the statute.

More than this when the WORLD was daily demanding the running in of all gun-carrying men whoever they might be, and blaming the police authorities for their leniency in dealing with just such cases, the Miner had not a word to say on the subject.

The article in this morning's issue is based apparently on the theory that the union men are to blame for any and every disturbance which may arise, and the Miner desires in advance, as it has already done on previous occasions, to poison and prejudice the public mind against organized labor.

There have been a couple of gun incidents since New Year's day, and the bearers were not union men, about which the WORLD has purposely remained silent, but there is no difficulty whatever in describing the real character of the scab element which is rampant here at the present moment.

The "lambs" from foreign parts are simply spoiling for a row, and have done their best to provoke it. Eminent citizens who see only one side of the picture should ascertain the real facts, and the daily occurrences which are very well known to the WORLD, before they venture any hostile opinion on the situation.

The authorities should—must do their duty and if they do it without fear or favor or affection, there will be no trouble in Rossland.

REALLY LIKES IT.

Under the heading of "a falsehood exposed" this morning's Whiner charges the union with wilful deception concerning their statement about Mr. King's, recent visit.

So far as the union statement is concerned, Mr. King's reply to the spitefully worded message sent to him by "C. A. Gregg," there is nothing to object to. The true facts were stated in the WORLD days ago, and restated officially by the union a little later.

The union desired that an investigation should be held under the terms of the Dominion conciliation act and so informed the labor department at Ottawa. Mr. King came here to make the investigation but the mine managers refused to consent, naturally fearing the consequence. The union were willing to give the written consent asked for by the act, but the managers were not willing and refused. The act requires that both the parties sign a consent requesting the the department to investigate, and until this is done the department is powerless to move. This is one of the beauties of the conciliation act.

The statement made by this paper, by the union, and by Mr. King, in the matter, including the telegram from the deputy minister printed in this morning's paper reveal nothing but the facts as stated above.

Why then should the Whiner descend to lying headlines? What earthly object is gained by misrepresentation—and such very stupid misrepresentation—of fact as that indulged in?

Writing or speaking under strong pressure, under a momentary impulse, there is perhaps some excuse for a newspaper man mixing up his facts. But the case in the Miner today is not this. It is a cool, deliberate case of lying, in which the author considers the situations, sends telegrams and obtains replies and then with the evidence before him sits down and maliciously sets about this destruction of the truth by his headlines and comment.

Consideration of the articles drives home the conclusion that the author of them really likes lying, would prefer to misstate a case than not, and derives positive pleasure in the act.

Mr. King would not make the required investigation under oath—we repeat the statement—and he would not make it because—as we have already stated in the original account of the matter—the mine managers refused to give the necessary consent in writing—the union were always willing to sign the document, but their signature alone was of no avail.

This is the "falsehood exposed."

NOTES AND COMMENTS.

The feeling of bona fide Le Roi shareholders is growing very strong and if Mr. Frecheville on his return can not put matters right, a powerful agitation is likely to be directed against the new board.—London Truth.

I have received numerous letters from shareholders who are strongly in favor of asking that gentleman (Hon. Charles H. Mackintosh) to join the board, as this would give them more confidence in the straightforward management of the company. I do not think the ex-governor would accept a seat on the board, but he might feel inclined to become the local adviser if sufficient powers were given him, and that, I think, would be a help in the right direction.—London Truth.

I was a slave, chained with putrid sore throat and Asthma for ten years. I despaired of ever being cured. I saw your advertisement for the cure of this dreadful and tormenting disease, Asthma, and thought you had overspoken yourselves, but resolved to give it a trial. To my astonishment, the trial acted like a charm. Send me a full size bottle."

DR. TAFT BROS. MEDICINE CO.
Gentlemen: I write this testimonial from a sense of duty, having tested the wonderful effect of your Asthmalene, for the cure of Asthma. My wife has been afflicted with spasmodic asthma for the past 12 years. Having exhausted my own skill as well as many others, I chanced to see your sign upon your windows on 130th street, New York, I at once obtained a bottle of Asthmalene. My wife commenced taking it about the first of November. I very soon noticed a radical improvement. After using one bottle her Asthma has disappeared and she is entirely free from all symtoms. I feel that I can consistently recommend the medicine to all who are afflicted with this distressing disease.
Yours respectfully, O. D. PHELPS, M. D.

DR. TAFT BROS. MEDICINE CO. Feb. 5, 1901.
Gentlemen: I was troubled with Asthma for 22 years. I have tried numerous remedies, but they have all failed, I ran across your advertisement and started with a trial bottle. I found relief at once. I have since purchased your full size bottle, and I am ever grateful. I have a family of four children, and for six years was unable to work. I am now in the best of health and am doing business every day. This testimony you can make such use of as you see fit.

THE YEAR'S PRODUCT

Gold and Silver Returns for 1901 in the United States.

Washington, Jan. 8.—The preliminary estimates of Mr. Roberts, the director of the mint, on the production of gold and silver in United States during the calendar year 1901, indicates only a slight gain over the production of the preceding year. The yield of Alaska fell off by about $1,000,000; Colorado made a slight gain in gold, and the other producers were nearly stationary. The yield of silver exceeded that of the previous year by about 2,000 000 fine ounces. The total number of ounces of fine gold produced is shown to have been 3,880,578, of the value of $80,218,800. The number of fine ounces of silver produced was 59,653,578, having a commercial value of $35,792,200. The coinage value of the silver is approximately $76,000,000.

Some of the principal returns by States are as follows, the gold being given in values and the silver in fine ounces:

Colorado—Gold, $29,000,000; silver, 20,033,333 oz.

California — Gold, $15,730,700; silver, 1,118,830 oz.

Alaska—Gold, $6,940, 400.

Montana—Gold, $5,023,300; silver, 14,500,000 oz.

Utah—Gold, $3,824,300; silver, 10,250,000 oz.

South Dakota—Gold, $6,601,800.

Nevada—Gold, $3,000,000; silver, 4,000,000 oz.

Machinery Coming in--Work on the Jewel to Be Continued.

Greenwood, Jan. 8. — Judge Leamy held county court here today, sitting all day. The cases were of little public interest.

Two carloads of machinery, part of the big hoisting engine manufactured by the Jenckes Machine company, consigned to the Sunset mine arrived today from the manufactury at Sherbrooke, Quebec.

Advices received from Halifax intimate that John L. Meiklejohn has been appointed lance corporal and R. J. Coulter corporal. Both are Greenwood men. They joined he third contingent at Nelson.

Information from England affects the working of the Jewel Gold Mines, Limited. It is decided to continue development work on the Jewel mine at Long Lake camp.

The Rossland Amateurs had numerous attendance last night. They left on today's train.

A Magnificent Beginning.

Toronto, Jan. 8.—"Public Ownership, the New Gospel," is the caption under which W. F. MacLean, M. P., comments on Toronto mayoralty results. Mr. MacLean says he is satisfied with having introduced that question into the municipal arena and considers the nine thousand votes cast for him a magnificent beginning.

COPPER IS LOWER

New York Copper Remains Nominally Unchanged.

New York, Jan. 8.—Tin at London eased off 15s under light selling pressure and closed easy in tone, with spot quoted at £101 15s and future at £99 10s. Here the market was weak, with spot at the close quoted at $22 and $23. No business of importance took place at London. At London copper dropped £1 from Friday's close. Thus spot was quoted at £47 and futures at £47 10s, while the local market was still unsettled and nominally unchanged at $12 and $12.50 for Lake Superior, $12 for electrolytic and $11.50 for casting. Lead at New York was without change and dull, at $4, while values at London gained 5s, bringing spot up to £10 8s 9d. Spelter was dull and unchanged at home and abroad, closing at $4.30 and £16 10s 6d respectively.
