FROM NORTHPORT

New Rules Enforced by Szontagh.

SOME 50 MEN LET OUT SO FAR

Arrested for Carrying a Gun—The New Manager Talks to the Men Very Plainly.

Northport, Nov. 30.—Oscar Szontagh, the new manager of the smelter, has discharged about 50 of the Joplin men so far, and is making the balance do the same work performed by the whole number under the Kadish management. This proceeding has resulted in in considerable dissatisfaction among the men, but there has been no outbreak as yet.

Mr. Szontagh has said: "The men who are here can hold their jobs, but they must do their work right, and do as much of it as the union men did." Mr, Szontagh evidently thinks that the time is past when they were entitled to any concessions, and as a result the smelter company is likely to have another strike on its hands.

Chief of Police Deitrick arrested D. C. Fletcher yesterday morning for carrying concealed weapons. Mr. Fletcher is the proprietor of a smeltermen's boarding house on Summit avenue, and has been having some trouble with his wife of late. It was Mrs. Fletcher who suggested that Mr. Fletcher be searched for concealed weapons. This was done, and he was found to have a gun. Fletcher was released under $75 bonds.

A GREAT DEMONSTRATION

Beamish and Colistro Banquetted Last Night.

SMITH CURTIS SPEAKS FRANKLY

Miners Union Hall Crowded to the Doors With an Immense and Enthusiastic Audience--A Strong Protest.

There was an enormous attendance at the banquet given by the labor organizations of the city to Messrs. Beamish and Colistro last evening. Over 400 tickets were sold and 625 persons partook of the repast, the tables seating 245, being filled several times. At the beginning of the banquet a flash light photograph was taken by Photographer Gowman.

The chair was taken by Rupert Bulmer with Colistro and Beamish on the right and left respectively.

At the beginning of the banquet the opening ode of the Northern Mine Workers' Union was sung by the entire assemblage. The ode is as follows:

[Tune, Old Lang Syne].

Shall song and music be forgot
When workingmen combine,
With love united may they not
Have power almost divine.
Shall idle drones still live like kings
On labors not their own,
Shall true men starve while thieves and rings
Reap what they have not sown
No, by our cause eternal no.
It shall not forever be,
And union men will e'er long show
How the workers can be free.

Graham's sextette played during the banquet. At the end of the repast Mr. Beamish was introduced by the chairman and reviewed his position and the reasons of his incarceration. It was very apparent that if his enemies had hoped that his ardor would be dimmed they were badly disappointed. Beamish was heartily cheered.

The introduction of Beamish was the cause of an ovation. He was heartily cheered during his remarks, and at the close again received the applause of the assemblage.

Thomas Bettison then sang the Miners' Farewell, being assisted in the chorus by the audience. This song, an old favorite of the miners, was very heartily received.

Mr. Colistro was introduced and, although hampered by his knowledge of the English language made it thoroughly understood, where he stood on the labor question. He was cheered at the beginning and conclusion of his address.

A duet was rendered by Miss Goninan and Mrs. Bunnie, which was heartily encored.

Thomas Brownlee then responded to the toast, "Honest Labor." After ably speaking to this question he proceeded to demonstrate his versatility by singing "Will Ye No Come Back Again." He was heartily encored.

Miss Goninan and Mr. Bridgman then sang "Poor Little Joe."

At this point Smith Curtis, M. P. P. for Rossland entered the hall. He received an ovation upon entering and another on being presented to the audience by the chairman. Mr. Curtis said he had known Mr. Beamish for a good many years, and felt keenly the obloquy cast upon him by thrusting him into goal without the option of a fine—in a case too where no injury was done any one and where many people believed no offence was intended or committed. No one was more strongly in favor of the majesty of the law being upheld than he, but it should not be made oppressive, vindictive and so brought into disrepute by arousing public opinion against its unjust or unnecessarily harsh administration. Taking it for granted that the magistrate was sincere in his opinion that Mr. Beamish was guilty of a technical infraction of the statute, he contended that every good to be derived from passing sentence could and would have been got by imposing a nominal fine or suspending sentence, at the same intimating to the accused that were the law again broken. heavy sentences such as given to Mr. Beamish would be imposed. This would have been just as effectual to prevent infractions as the course actually taken. There was no premeditation on the part of Mr. Beamish and from the Miner's report of the court preceedings, he did not believe had there been a jury trial, that Mr. Beamish would have ever been found guilty. The absolute absence of offences in connection with this strike of 1200 men is without parallel any where in the world and proved to his mind, that we have the most law-abiding workingmen in Rossland to be found anywhere and that the severe sentence given Mr. Beamish could not be defended.

Mr. Curtis was repeatedly and loudly cheered during his address.

Miss Minnie Hooper gave the recitation "Jemima" at the conclusion of Mr. Curtis' remarks. Miss Hooper's recitation was very heartily received.

The Cornish boys then sang one of their Christmas carols "The Star of Bethlehem," after which James Wilks was introduced.

Mr. Wilks was heartily cheered on rising. He said he understood there had been a good deal of curiosity shown by the Rossland Miner as to when he would return from his trip to Denver. Their curiosity could now be satisfied he was back. (Cheers.)

It had been asserted that immediately upon his return the strike would be called off. Well, he was back and the strike was still on. (Applause.) He congratulated the miners on the stand they had taken and on the support they received from their wives and families during the present struggle. Mr. Wilks was cheered throughout his remarks and received an ovation at the end.

Wm. J. Richmond then sang "Sunny Tennesee," after which a vote of thanks and three hearty cheers were given the ladies for their aid and labor in preparing the banquet. After singing the national anthem the audience dispersed.

John Kelly of Burke, Idaho, a member of the executive board Western Federation of Miners for Couer d' Alene district, and James A. Baker of Slocan City, member for British Columbia, were among those present.

HURRIED AWAY

Body of Man Killed Yesterday Sent Off.

WHY WAS THIS HASTE USED?

No One Knows How the Accident Happened—Different Accounts Given.

One Missourian has gone to his long account and there is one less among the strike breakers on the hill today. The man killed at the Josie tramway yesterday afternoon is said to be John Gunaer. He was engaged in repairing the tramway and the first intimation the engineer had that anything was wrong was the stopping of the down car. Investigation followed and what was left of Gunaer was found at the head of the switch.

The mangled body was taken up to the head works and Dr. Kenning was sent for. When he arrived there was no sign of life and apparently the man had been killed instantly. His left leg was badly fractured and his head was cut and covered with blood.

It is suggested that he got out of the way of an up car and was struck and killed by the down car, which would of course be loaded with ore. This fatality happened about three o'clock in broad day light, and it is difficult to imagine how it could possibly happen to any level headed man accustomed to the work Gunaer was engaged in.

Dr. Reddick was seen at 2.30 this afternoon and asked if there would be an inquest he said he would make further enquiry from the men on the tramway and appeared astonished when informed that the body had been hurredly shipped away on the noon train. There is no question however, that this was done and as a result there can be no inquest unless the body is brought back. There is no explanation why this unusual haste was used in this instance without the consent of the coroner, who declares that he signed no papers and did know that the body had been taken away.

Mr. Lockhart said late this afternoon that he had been requested to forward the body to relatives today if possible. That he saw Dr. Reddick this morning and was informed by him that there would be no inquest and that accordingly he shipped the body today.

Hot Roast Beef served with every glass of beer at the Alhambra.

Unlooked for Pleasure.

At the opening performance at the International Music Hall on Wednesday evening a former resident of Rossland who is paying the camp a short visit just now, created quite a furore by appearing on the stage during the evening. Just what he intended to say to the audience will never be known as the frantic applause which greeted his appearance prevented any one from hearing "the speech."

A STRONG PROTEST.

No one who was present at the at the banquet in Miners' Union Hall, tendered to Messrs. Colistro and Beamish last evening, could question either the success of the affair or the evident sincerity of those who organized it.

The Horn incident and the trial and the sentences which followed are all fresh in the public mind and need not be recalled in detail now.

The banquet to the released men last evening was an earnest protest against the treatment meted out to Joseph Colistro and Thomas Beamish. It was so regarded by every one present in the crowded hall and the effect of the demonstration can neither be overlooked or underestimated.

Should occasion ever arise in Rossland again for such a trial as Colistro and Beamish experienced in August last, it is safe to prophesy that the Crown will not again be represented by one of the firm of legal advisers of the Le Roi, or any other mining company here, interested in the issue before the court to the extent which the Le Roi and allied companies were last August.

It is improbable that under existing arrangements any member of an organized labor body in Rossland will consent to be summarily tried again even for a trifling offence whenever it is possible for him to demand trial by jury.

The crowded meeting last night and the loud and continued applause with which the speakers of the evening were repeatedly greeted demonstrated beyond cavil the feeling of the people over the trial last August and its results.

When Police Magistrate Boultbee sentenced Colistro and Beamish to two months imprisonment with hard labor without the option of a fine, the WORLD declared that many people in Rossland believed the sentence unreasonably severe and altogether unwarranted by the circumstances disclosed. The meeting last night amply proved the truth of the statement originally made by the WORLD.

LAW AND ORDER.

The account of the open playing of nickle-in-the-slot-machines in the city of Rossland at the present time as detailed in another column of this issue will doubtless come as an unpleasant shock to some of the really good people of this camp, who were under the delusion that the police authorities of the city were doing their duty in such matters without "fear, favor, or affection."

Some time ago the police commissioners issued an edict that all the machines were to go, and obedient to the order they were suppressed all over town. How comes it then that for some months one establishment has been permitted to openly run two of the prohibited gambling devices?

The store in question is in the heart of the best business section of the town and on the principal street of Rossland. What have the police authorities been thinking about, to allow this favored exception to exist right under their official noses?

It is not a question of whether nickel in the slot machines are wrong or whether they should be allowed. The authorities decided that the machines should be suppressed and they cannot consistently plead any excuse for permitting the existence of the favorite two referred to. To suggest for a moment that the authorities were ignorant of the machines being run openly would be to accuse them of being entirely unfit for the position they occupy and we leave them to get out of the difficulty as best they can.

What will at once occur to the casual observer of current events here in connection with the incidisclosed is that just another case dent of glaring favoritism in the administration of the law has been discovered. People who are fondly imagining that they are on the side of law and order—the Angel side—should wake up and realize their true position.

NOTES AND COMMENTS.

"That in the Master's but a choloric word
Which in the laborer is fiat blasphemy."

The Miner says this morning that the Beamish-Colistro banquet and the great meeting in Miners' Union hall last night was "a fizzle" and the public can best test the truthfulness of all future references to labor meetings which may appear in Barney's paper, by its account of the banquet in question in today's issue.

Socialists are much interested in the platform which Ex-Mayor Andrews of Winnipeg urges the Conservative party to adopt, because it contains three cardinal planks of their own movement. Plank No. 1 has for its ultimate aim the government ownership of all pubiic utilities; No. 2 seeks the abolition of the iniquitous spoils system and the placing of the civil service on a basis of competitive examination and merit; and No. 3, direct legislation by the initiative and referendum.—Slocan Drill.

"Conciliation courts that are impotent, alien labor laws that cannot be made to exclude or deport, Chinese commissions vested with powers to lose the truth in a voluminous report, wholesale importation and naturalization of Japs and Chinks for Imperial reasons, a Slocan inquiry which reposes safely in some departmental pigeonhole, and a Crows Nest investigation which unearthed the monumental truth that the boys killed on construction by a contractor's cruelty are still dead—these are a synopsis of the Laurier government's grand stand play for the labor vote.—Sandon Paystreak.

I was a slave, chained with putrid sore throat and Asthma for ten years. I despaired of ever being cured. I saw your advertisement for the cure of this dreadful and tormenting disease, Asthma, and thought you had overspoken yourselves, but resolved to give it a trial. To my astonishment, the trial acted like a charm. Send me a full size bottle."

DR. TAFT BROS. MEDICINE CO.
Gentlemen: I write this testimonial from a sense of duty, having tested the wonderful effect of your Asthmalene, for the cure of Asthma. My wife has been afflicted with spasmodic asthma for the past 12 years. Having exhausted my own skill as well as many others, I chanced to see your sign upon your windows on 130th street, New York, I at once obtained a bottle of Asthmalene. My wife commenced taking it about the first of November. I very soon noticed a radical improvement. After using one bottle her Asthma has disappeared and she is entirely free from all symtoms. I feel that I can consistently recommend the medicine to all who are afflicted with this distressing disease.

Yours respectfully, O. D PHELPS, M. D.

DR. TAFT BROS. MEDICINE CO. Feb. 5, 1901.

STRIKE NOT SETTLED.

Whereas agents of the mining companies have circulated the report that the strike existing at this place is settled and work is to be resumed at the mines, we wish to state that this report is false and there is no probability of a settlement of the strike for some time to come. We advise all men looking for employment to keep away from Rossland, or Northport or vicinity.

FAVORED MACHINES

What Mr. Brownlee Discovered--Will They Explain?

Thomas Brownlee, of bowlin galley fame, was coming down to business this morning along Columbia avenue and strayed into Crow & Morris' well known cigar shop, opposite the postoffice.

A well known lawyer apparently had some business on the premises and passed Brownlee fn the shop going into the rear apartment. Brownlee hearing unmistakable sounds indicating that one of the nickel in the slot machines long months ago prohibited by order of the police commissioners here, was in active operation turned into the back apartment, and there discovered his learned and legal acquaintance calmly "playing" one of the condemned machines which was accommodatingly set up for the benefit of all comers.

"Why," said Mr. Brownlee, very innocently, "I thought the law and order people had banished all these machines. I was forced to close up the ones I had and here I find one working, and a friend of Judge Leamy kindly assisting in the law breaking operation. I must say I am astonished at the whole affair."

Mr. Brownlee adds that the proprietor told him that the machine was only played "occasionally," but on making further inquiry he ascertained that the two machines in place were constantly in use. He says that it is not the playing of the machines he objects to but the fact that favoritism has been shown in the matter by the police authorities and he very naturally wants any explanation that can be given.
