HE ACTED FOR BOTH

Revelations Concerning the Part Lately Taken by J. M. Greenshields.

Victoria, April 3—(Special)—In the proceedings before Judge Walkem in re the accusation brought by Smith Curtis, M. L. A., against Premier Dunsmuir, the newspaper reporters stated the ministry declared that Greenshields was acting as the accredited agent of the government in the deal with the Canadian Northern. At the same time it is clear that he was acting as the representative of Mackenzie & Mann, the promoters of the same railway, thus acting in a dual capacity.

The feeling seems to be setting strongly against James Dunsmuir and it is only the more pronounced since North Victoria has not any representation in the house during the passage of the redistribution bill. There exists a feeling also that there will be some unexrevelations of policy with regard to the bill.

Sensational News Arrives From Alaska.

REMOVES RUSSIAN MONUMENT

Alleged Action Taken Lately by a Canadian Survey Official.

Buffalo, N. Y., April 3.—The Express today prints the following under Washington date: "The Alaska boundary controversy has assumed a new phase which may develop into a much more serious state of affairs between Great Britain and the United States over this important and troublesome matter. so long a cause of international friction.

Reports have reached the state department that a monument built by Russia to mark the boundary between Alaska, which until 1876 was a Russian possession, and the adjacent British territory, has been arbitrarily removed by a Canadian official surveying expedition and in view of that, Secretary Hay, by direction of the president, has ordered a personal investigation to be made by a commission of American officers to ascertain the truth of the sensational information.

RUSSIAN PRINCES.

Three Noble Cutthroats and Robbers Have Been Executed.

London, April 3.—In a dispatch from St. Petersburg, the correspondent there of the Daily Mail says that news has been received from Kutais, Trans-Caucasia, that three Russian nobles, Prince Kionaaz, Prince Valerian and Prince Culukidz were executed March 3 for the murder of over 100 persons. The trials of the princes lasted for two weeks. They were the leaders of a wide spread bandit organization which had terrorized the Caucasus by systematic robbery, arson and murder.

Five Men Burned By Monkeying With Kerosene.

GEN. DEWET UNWILLING

TRIED TO BITE OFF HIS NOSE

Peculiar Assault Charged Against one James Gillis.

James Gillis was arrested today by Chief Ingram on a charge of brutal assault laid against him last fall by Contractor Powers, of McGuigan. Powers' story is that Gillis was employed by him on a packing outfit near Three Forks, that he had some dispute with Gillis, and the next day Gillis, who is a powerful man, laid wait for him and nearly succeeded in biting off his nose.

Gillis escaped over the mountains to Republic and came into Rossland last night, thinking all danger was over, but the chief recognized him and promptly arrested him. Provincial constable Young of Nelson, will be here tonight to take him away for trial.

STEYN IN TREATY

Peace Negotiations Will be Inconclusive.

Determination Evinced to Still Continue the Long Struggle.

Pretoria, April 2.—Communications have passed between ex-President Steyn and the the Transvaal mission at Kronstadt, but nothing is yet known of the result. The majority of the military men and civilians here expect more from the continual pressure of the troops than from the present negotiations. It is pointed out that once before when hard pressed the Transvaalers showed a desire for peace, but, this was promptly overridden by ex-President Steyn Nothing in the present situation so far as known, indicates that ex-President Steyn is less irreconciliable than previously, indeed the known facts seem to point to a greater determination to continue the struggle.

FANNING ISLAND

Is to be the Midocean Station of the Pacific Cable.

New York, April 3.—Fanning island, a little coral reef in the South Pacific, is to be the resting place for the English submarine cable which will run from British Columbia to Australia, according to the Tribune's San Francisco special.

On the island, which is 1080 miles south of Hawaii, the English Cable company will establish its mid-ocean station, expending about $125,000 there for buildings and equipments. Besides the usual buildings, there will be a large reservoir for catching rainwater. The walls of these buildings will be made of coral, covered with cement.

The Removal Sale at the Crescent of their Gents' Furnishings and Clothing still continues. They are determined to reduce their stock of this class of goods.

Engineers Not Included in Agreement.

ALLEGED ACTION BY UNIONS

Mining Companies are Now Paying a Higher Scale of Wages.

Butte, April 3.—The striking hoisting engineers of the Amalgamated Copper company's properties and the Engineers's union held an exciting session last night. The action of the hoisting engineers in walking out and violating the agreement made with the company a year ago, maintaining the present wage scale for two years, it is alleged, was denounced by the union. The strikers, upon the decision of the union being given are said to have bolted the meeting and after an hour's secret session prepared a statement for the public, giving their side of the controversy. The hoisting engineers, they allege were not a party of the so-called agreement, and that further, with the exception of the Amalgamated company, the mining companies are paying a higher scale of wages.

IN GREAT DANGER

Atlantic City Threatened With Total Destruction by Fire.

Atlantic City, N. J., April 3.—Fire broke out this morning in the Tarlton hotel, at Illinois avenue and the Board Walk. A south wind is prevailing, and the flames were communicated to the Luray hotel, adjoining which is now burning. A great conflagration is expected.

At 11 o'clock a special train from Philadelphia with three engines left for the scene of the fire.

Eight hotels have been either partially or entirely destroyed.

The fire is not yet under control. The fire apparatus from Philadelphia has reached here with help. The loss is estimated at $2,000,000. There is a rumor that six lives have been lost.

At noon the chief of the Atlantic fire department notified the electrical bureau of the city that the fire was beyond his control.

At 2:20 p.m., the fire was reported as under control.

LABOR LEGISLATION.

New Zealand has become famous during the past six years because of her radical labor legislation.

New Zealand has been cursed with landlordism, trampism, millionairism, but she has been wise enough, in the past seven years, to legislate them out of existence. Six or seven years ago tramps were as numerous as they are in the United States. Today they are very scarce. the few are those who prefer to be tramps, and when they die the tramp will be no more in that nation. Time was when a few great landlords owned the greater part of the land. A land tax graduated from two to six per cent on £1, with an extra two cents for absentee landlords, proved to be so heavy that most of the great estates were offered for sale. The government had also enacted a graduated income tax. These two measures resulted in driving the great money lords from the nation. There is not today one millionaire and only one man worth half a million in New Zealand.

The land is held by actual settlers who are permitted to hold land to the value of $2500 exempt from taxation. Besides the government loans to the settlers $100 in cash, allows him a certain sum per acre for clearing land; it will also provide him with three days work per week of 8 hours per day, in building roads or other public improvements. This enables the settler to support his wife and family until he can raise corps. The government is reimbursed for all this in the increased value due to an increase of population, resulting in the larger use of the government railroads, telegraph, telephones, postal system, etc.—Ex.

OUR POSSIBILITIES.

Some exception has been taken to what is styled "that very optimistic article" on the mines in yesterday's paper. Now the WORLD has nothing to take back in this regard. It was not in the slightest degree optimistic, and it did know of that which it was talking about. It reiterates that if this city had to depend upon the "high grade" ore it would remain a small camp, ay, a smaller camp than it is today, to the end of its existence, which by the way, would not be equal to that of Methusalah! But when it gets down to appreciate, and it is thankfully recognized, that many of its chief citizens are so recognizing it, that it is a low grade camp, and try to further its interests along these lines it will make the strides which, in the opinion of several who are qualified to speak authoritatively, are possible to Rossland.

Now one of these things is cheap smelting. It was shown by the Le Roi that the cost of smelting was $4.25 per ton, and that when $11 per ton was paid for coke. Now 25 tons of coke are used to 100 tons of ore. That is to say that one ton of ore takes $2.75 worth of coke to smelt it. If the price of coke were reduced to $3.50 per ton delivered, which is considered by experts as not an unreasonable reduction, the cost of the coke per ton of ore would be no more than 82 cents, and the rate of smelting would be almost cut in two, dropping from $4.25 to $2.32. Improvements in machinery would permit of a lower percentage of coke being used. Large reductions could be made in the cost of transportation of the ore to the smelter, and the reduction of the grade of ore to be shipped would cut out the cost of ore sorting. Proper pressure brought to bear upon the government would cut out the extortionate tax upon low grade shipping mines. Now it is not unreasonable to suppose that these reductions, even leaving out others in the method of reducing the ore, which will as inevitably follow with Rossland rock as it has done with other classes of ore, will amount in the aggregate to 75 cents. In other words, the way can be pointed out whereby the cost of reducing and mining ore can be brought down $3. Now the present cost for Le Roi ore is $9, which means that $6 ore can be made to pay in this camp.

What is therefore the duty of Rossland? Is it not to enquire whether these things are as stated, and if it is found that the statements of the WORLD are substantially accurate, is it not the duty of this city to do its best to work along such lines as will bring about such reductions? It is not up to the Board of Trade, and the Trades Council, to every public body within the city to make such representations, to exert such influence and to make that roar which will gain these ends to the city.

The mines around here are not confined to those on Red Mountain, there are others, and there are many others. Along the eastern slope of Columbia mountain are situated the properties of the Big Three chock full of $6 rock. Lower down the Commander and others would be highly interested to know of such a proposition. Across the valley there are a number of properties on which much money was spent in the early days which would become shippers. Round the old crater to Deer Park mountain would find a host of claims which would experience a joyful boom and on Red mountain itself thousands of tons of ore, blocked out in many cases, now untouched, and hardly looked upon as a reserve, would be soon broken into and hoisted to the surface. This place could be thus made a veritable hive of industry no whit inferior to Johannesburg in wealth, importance or population. But its citizens have got to quit quarreling with labor and get in and rustle. Otherwise it will be up to the next generation to do what could be done now inside the next few years.

NOTES AND COMMENTS.

A Boston paper is talking about the decadence of Great Britain and the inevitable future superiority of Russia and the United States. The wish is the father of the thought. Russia is riddled with revolution, the States are being suffocated with strikes, whereas the only trouble with Great Britain is that she is bothered by pro-Boers. A little foresight will show which is likely to come out on top.

"Staggering humanity" is a favorite phase today with the pro-Boer, especially the American sympathizer. Now the total bill of mortality in South Africa war is not more than 30,000 dead, but in the great civil war a million lives are said to have been sacrificed, but humanity went on unstaggered. It cost more than that to down Napoleon, but Europe rather enjoyed it.

The Canadian Pacific railway declares a dividend of 13 per cent. Its agreement with the government says that no interference shall be made with its rates until it has earned 10 per cent in profits. To settle the matter the astute railway gets permission to increase its capitalization by $20,000,000, but nobody at Ottawa thought it worth while to say a thing about cutting the rates.

The lead on the Hamilton (the new name for the Olympia on Kennedy mountain) which was about two feet wide on the surface, has widened until the 6x8 shaft shows only one wall.

The gangue is a dioritic feldspar with some quartz, and carries besides platinum $83 in gold and copper.

How the platinum occurs it is impossible as yet to say, but it appears probable that it is associated with a magnetic iron, which is distributed in varying quantities through the ore. — Similkameen Star.

The Liquor Traffic.

The sale of malt and spirituous liquors in New Zealand is a matter of local option. The law, however, permits no saloon, but innkeepers may sell under license. If a man is once seen coming from one of these inns in a state of intoxication, the proprietor is arrested and fined; and for a second offence he forfeits his license forever. There is scarcely any drunkenness in New Zealand.

Developments Along the Whole Line.

FRENCH COMPANY AT FRANK

Five New Seams of Valuable Coal Have Been Lately Discovered.

Rowland Machin, the Canada agent of the Bennett Fuse company, of Cambourne, Cornwall, has just returned from an extended tour of the Kootenays, and as far east as Frank, Alberta. In an interview with a Victoria Times representative he said he had a very hopeful feeling and abundant evidence of tremendous development in the near future—in fact in progress—throughout the coal field belt.

The Crows Nest Coal company, he says, are producing on an average 500 tons of coke from 500 coke ovens, 350 at Fernie and 150 at Michel. The development that has been made at Frank by the Frank Coal company, which has a contract with the C. P. R. for their entire output for the next five years shows wonderful seams of coal. This company, Mr. Machin points out, has erected a number of up-to-date modern cottages for employes, and in this connection it is understood the Fernie Coal company has recently awarded contracts for the erection of 150 similar cottages for its employes.

The French coal mining syndicate operating five miles from Frank has already uncovered five seams of the very finest coking coal. The managing director, Mr. Fleutot, has just returned from Paris. Mr. Green, the consulting engineer, reports to a correspondent that the contract has been awarded by the C.P.R. for a branch railway to their property which will give them immediate access to the main line, and since there is a fairly steep grade the only thing the locomotive will have to do is to haul up the empty cars. The distance is a little over five miles. It is easy of access, Mr. Machin says, by wagon road at present.

WAITED NINETEEN YEARS.

Bobs Bahudur Did Not Like Being Fooled.

In the fourth and final volume of Mr. M'Laren Cobban's "Life and Deeds of Earl Roberts," says a contemporary, which is to be issued in a few days, will be found, among other good things, an original document as interesting as it is brief.

This is the letter in which the commander-in-chief in Ireland readily acceded to the request of Lord Lansdowne, minister of war, that he should at once proceed to South Africa, after the black Colenso-Stormberg-Magersfontein week, and restore the prestige of our arms.

"For nineteen years," wrote Lord Roberts, "I have led an abstemious life in the hope of this day." The nineteen years in question, of course, dated from Majuba, when "Bobs" was dispatched to South Africa, only to find on reaching Capetown that he had been sent on what he himself called a "wild goose chase," when he felt inclined to break his sword across his knee.

From that time forth he waited and longed for his opportunity, which Lord Lansdowne at last presented to him. How he profited thereby we all know.—Military Mail.

MINING PABULUM

With What Stuff the Coast is Regaled as to Rossland Ores.

The following mix up appears in the Victoria Times and shows how much the coast is interested in the Kootenays.

"The Josie mine under the able management of Bernard Macdonald and William Thompson, has encountered a body of ore showing values of $4 per ton in gold(!) This ledge, which is continuous, is at least three feet (!) in width and is solid ore. Mr. Machin brought down a splendid specimen of this ore taken from the working stopes and pointing out that considering the present depressed condition of mining in British Columbia from a British standpoint, this recent development of the Rossland camp must certainly inspire every confidence in the Rossland district"

The Sun Loses.

And so the rat Sun, New York, has been "shown?" It has, after one of the stiffest fights put up by a publishing company in this country, at last succumbed to the inevitable and unionized its force. This is a great victory for the typos, but we venture the prediction that the printed sentiments of Sun will be as snabby as ever.—Pueblo Courier.

THE ATLIN JAPS

Forced to Return by Public Sentiment.

THEIR FARE WAS NOT PAID

Feeling Was Too Strong for the Mine Managers of the North.

Reports of the proceedings of indignation meetings and at subsequent conferences, held with Mr. R. D. Fetherstonhaugh, manager of the Atlin Mining company, which engaged Japanese miners for its varfous operations, show that at first the mine manager asked the protestants against Japanese mine labor, to raise $1120 to indemnify his company in the matter of expenses incurred in bringing in the men, and to pay the return fares of the Japanese.

A subscription list was opened, and about $100 subscribed, but there was soon found to be no prospect of raising the $1120 by subscription. The Japanese mine workers were nevertheless induced to leave and the money raised for compensating the mining company in the matter was returned to the subscribers.

An Easter Song.

Spring has come with dancing feet,
Hail the joyful day!
For the last of winter's signs
She has raked away.

And has planted in the woods
Lilies pure and white.
They the modest heralds are
Of a season bright.

Merry birds upon the trees
Easter carols sing,
Hark! O let your heart respond,
'Tis the song of spring.

For the brightest festival,
Eastertide thou art,
Pulsing with the joys of life,
Sorrow must depart.

Days of fasting now are o'er,
Lend a thankful voice,
'Tis the time for love and song,
Let us then rejoice.

Easter day is dawning clear,
Hearken to the bells,
Deck the church with lilies white
Blooming in the dells.

Now the grand old organ peals
Forth the joyful news,
Hope in every waiting heart
Easter day has come.

DOINGS ON THE CASCADE.

The Mine Has started Shipments Once More.

Superintendent Yates of the Cascade mine was in town during the earlier part of the week and left for the mine yesterday. He brought in with him some very fine looking specimens of rock which went considerably over the shipping average of the mine which has been about $16 heretofore, with little or no sorting. Shipping will be started immediately. Behind the sleigh will be drawn a rawhide and it is thought that this will tend to keep the road packed and thus opened for the next couple of weeks. As the mine is at an elevation of some 7000 feet there should be no trouble in doing this. The ore will still be shipped to the Granby smelter.

Result of the Vote in Manitoba.

PROHIBITION IS A FAILURE

Winnipeg Has a Large Majority in Favor of Selling Liquor.

Winnipeg, April 3.—The test of the Manitoba Liquor Act by the referendum was held yesterday with the result that the measure failed to meet with the approval of the electors at the polls. The returns available last night showed that a total of 27,121 votes had been polled, and of these 16,000 were against bringing the act into force, and 10,621 were in favor. There was, therefore, the negative majority of 5979.

The total vote cast in Winnipeg was 8384, of which 2450 were in favor of the Liquor Act, and 5934 against, making the majority in the city against the act 3484.

A great many country polls still remain to be heard from, however, and although these may be cut down the adverse majority to some extent, they will not affect the main result.
