LYNN VALLEY NOTES

(Express special correspondent)

Ross road is raising itself from out of the awful condition it was in. The council has done the wisest ever, a plank road means a good road for 5 years. Westover road needs the same medicine, next and quick at that.

The many friends are relieved to know that Mrs. Kirkland is on the road to recovery.

Building is still brisk in the valley houses springing up everywhere.

Something very much needed is a trunk road extending along the upper portion of Lynn Valley. As it is now a person wishing to drive across from the top of Centre to Hoskin must go down to Frederick road, over to Hoskin and then climb the hill again, causing a lot of extra runabout driving and a great loss of time.

The new pulpit presented to the Methodist church by the Ladies' Aid was used for the first time last Sunday evening. All are cordially invited and sure of hearing a good sermon by the pastor, C. E. Fakeley, who will be glad to meet them after service.

St. Clement's church has been presented with a pair of handsome brass candle sticks by Mr. J. Barker, and a sanctuary carpet by Mr. Callihronas. The church has been further promised a complete installation of the electric light by Mr. E. V. Stewart.

Mrs. Percy King and young daughter were the guests of Mrs. Snyder on Thursday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Green have moved to their new home in Lynn View.

Mr. H. Douglas spent last Wednesday afternoon with Mr. J. McIntyre, who will be moving to his new house on Centre road the first of next month.

The Presbyterian Ladies' Aid met at the home of Mrs. Fromme, on Ross road on Wednesday afternoon.

WON FIRST GAME

The North Vancouver hockey club had no difficulty in disposing of a weak Vancouver team on Saturday in the first round of the Dick cup by a score of 5 to 1. The Vancouver team was unfortunately handicapped by being a man short, as however, were North Vancouver during the second half, Montgomery having the misfortune to strain a tendon in his leg. The score hardly represents the game, as the local team were raining shots upon the Vancouver goal practically the whole of the playing period, and but for the excellent defence of the Vancouver goal-keeper and some bad shooting by the forwards, the score might easily have been doubled. The weather as usual, was wretched, rain pouring the whole of the time. The next contest in which North Vancouver participates is on December 3rd on the Boulevard Park when James Bay come here to play a game in the B. C. championship series. James Bay is a Victoria aggregation, and have so far drawn the only match they have played in their series to date, as Vancouver were their opponents on that occasion so the Victoria boys must be exceptionally strong this season and a good game will surely result when the locals bump against them. A practice will be held on the Boulevard Park on Saturday next at 3 p.m., when a full attendance is requested.

BASCULE BRIDGE FOR SECOND NARROWS

At a joint meeting of the directors of the Burrard Inlet Tunnel and Bridge Company and the mayors and reeves of the cities and municipalities interested in the construction of the Second Narrows bridge held recently, it was decided to adopt the bascule type of bridge. There were three types of bridge under consideration, the vertical, bascule and the rolling bascule. The one decided upon is after the type of the tower bridge over the Thames in London, England with the exception that there will be only one life, thus affording accommodation for the passing to and fro of any ship that may be expected to enter the harbor.

A resolution was passed at the meeting to be forwarded to the Governor-General in council requesting that substantial assistance be given to the bridge and railway company in their undertaking. The petition is to be signed by the directors and the representatives of the municipalities.

COMMUNICATION

Editor Express:

Dear Sir,—It is not often that I indulge in letter writing to the papers, but the circumstances appear to me to warrant some notice being taken of an item which appears in your last Friday's paper re ferry matters. In that item it is stated the directors had decided to do away with the monthly ticket and to substitute therefor 70 tickets for two dollars ($2.00). It is possible that the ferry directors had not looked at this matter from the traveller's point of view, but only for the convenience, or inconvenience, of running the ferry service. Looking at this from a traveller's point of view, it seems to me that the directors are taking away the just rights of the residents. At the present we pay two dollars ($2.00) for a piece of cardboard which takes up very little room in one's pocket. It gives the right to the holder of travelling as many times as he desires during the term it has been issued. It also gives the traveller the right, if he loses that ticket he can demand the duplicate or transportation for the full length of time for which the money was paid. (This has been proved in the courts.) On the other hand, the Directors give you, on their proposed new inauguration, a bulky book of tickets, which, in the first place, is inconvenient, and in the next place demands that you shall only ride 70 trips in the month, and the traveller is placed in the position that if he lose these tickets he is forced to buy fresh ones, and can not demand the same free right of a duplication in the way in which he can on the monthly. It is possible that the directors have not had the matter placed before them in this manner, however, I would like to bring their attention to the fact that the $2.00 season ticket has been a bone of contention in all negotiations from the inauguration of the first ferry service and a right the ratepayers have always demanded, and it seems strange that that right should be taken away from them by the very gentlemen that they have themselves put in control. Rather would it have been wiser in my opinion and from a resident ratepayer's point of view if the directors, instead of increasing the cost of transportation would reduce it to say $1.50 or even $1.00 a month. I am not the one to object to a mile round cheap transportation, but I certainly do object when the transportation is made for the benefit of the visitor and the casual traveller rather than for the regular daily resident traveller, whether it is for business or pleasure. I do not for a moment object to 70 tickets for $2, but I do object that the advantage of a season ticket should be taken away from those who desire it. The excuse of a transient travel cannot be taken seriously when we take into consideration the thousands that travel every day in large towns on season tickets.

Yours faithfully,
ARNOLD E. KEALY

Ed. Peers, a member of the McMillan hunting party, returned on Saturday from Lund where he was put off by the launch "Winnifred". He reported that the party during the past week had enjoyed good hunting, Mr. McMillan having changed the order of things by bagging a fine mountain goat. Several deer were also shot. Messrs. McMillan and Evans, the balance of the party, intend remaining another week in quest of the elusive deer and goat.

EX-MAYOR KEALY FOR MAYOR

A meeting of representative citizens numbering about thirty was held in the Salvation Army hall last evening to decide on a candidate for mayor of the city for 1911. The proceedings were of a private nature with the exception of the following resolution, which was given out for publication: "At a meeting of representative citizens held in the Salvation Army hall on November 21st, Mr. A. E. Kealy was by a unanimous vote endorsed as a candidate for mayor for 1911."

This declaration almost ensures a three-cornered contest for the mayor's seat in the forthcoming elections in January.

MR. KEALY ACCEPTS ENDORSATION

Seen this morning by a representative of the Express in respect to his endorsation for mayor at a representative meeting of citizens last evening, Mr. Kealy said that the fact had been intimated to him by the chairman of the meeting, Mr. Bridgman, late last night that the meeting was desirous of him allowing his name to be placed in nomination for mayor for 1911. He stated that he had expressed his willingness to comply with the requests of the representative citizens. The official notification of the action of last night's meeting is to be conveyed by a committee today.

There is now in circulation in the city a petition requesting Mr. Kealy to stand and pledging the support of the signers.

The next regular meeting of the North Vancouver school board will be held on Friday evening.

Deep sympathy has been expressed on all sides for Mr. Wm. Ward of the North Vancouver School of Music in the death of his two-months' old child which occurred on Wednesday of last week.

Mr. Harry Dick and bride returned on Saturday from their honeymoon trip which was spent touring the coast cities and Vancouver Island. In the meantime they intend occupying the residence of Mr. Dick's father at the corner of 1st street and St. Andrew's Avenue.

A special meeting of the district council will be held in the municipal hall on Thursday. At five o'clock the council have invited a deputation to meet them in reference to the improvement of certain streets under local improvement. Several matters that were laid over from last Thursday's meeting will be dealt with.

FULL REPORT NEXT ISSUE

On account of alterations being made in the mechanical department of the Express, the report of the city council proceedings has been held over till next issue.

SUCCESSFUL DEER HUNT

Messrs. H. E. Kruger, W. Braim and two friends returned early Saturday morning from a two weeks' deer hunt up the coast in the vicinity of Bottom Sound and Thunder Bay. It was the unfortunate experience of some of the members of the party to wander too far from camp one night and the result was that they got turned around and it was noon the next day before they got in. However the trip was most successful from the point of view of game getting, as seven fine deer adorned the camp pole after the first few days' hunt. Mr. Kruger shot an especially fine specimen of a buck that had a head of horns out of the usual for size and regularity. He regrets, however, that he tried to shoot it in the eye as the bullet went a little high and took one of the antlers off.

TO OUR READERS

The comparatively light run of reading matter in this issue of the Express is due to the fact that since our last issue almost the entire plant has been moved and re-arranged in order to accommodate the increased facilities which are continually being added to the equipment of the Express. Although a large staff has been engaged day and night it was found absolutely impossible to prevent some disarrangement of the regular order of things and we therefore crave the indulgence of our readers for any superadded imperfections which may be noted in today's edition.

STUNG!

"We Told You So"

To the Ratepayers of North Vancouver :

Do you remember what we said in these columns some time ago about what would happen if competition were eliminated and CONCRETE sewer pipe were not allowed a chance in the city bids ? Well, it has happened just as we said.

DOMINION GLAZED CEMENT SEWER PIPE was arbitrarily restricted from the bids for North Vancouver's small sized sewers----on a Purely Technichal Pretext.

STUDY THE RESULTS

Although the last number of the Express gives the impression that Dominion Cement Glazed Pipe was admitted to the bidding for the city's sewer pipe—SUCH IS NOT THE CASE.

If you will study the figures which follow and realize that the clay pipe called for must be reinforced with cement until it is of triple thickness while the prices quoted are for cement pipe of thickness fifty per cent. more than clay, you will understand the apparent discrepancy in cost.

The cost of satisfactorily re-inforcing clay pipe is about 50 cents for each 18 inch pipe and 42½ cents for 15 inch pipe.

Vancouver Prices

CONCRETE Dominion Glazed Cement Pipe Co.		CLAY Evans, Colman & Evans
18 inch	$1.20	18 inch	80½c. plus 50c=$1.30½
14 "	0.81	14 "	55c " 40c= .95
16 "	1.06	16 "	68c " 45c= 1.13

North Vancouver Prices

CONCRETE Dom. Glazed Cement Pipe Co.	CLAY C. F. Jackson & Co.	CLAY Evans, Coleman & Evans
Restricted from Bids	18 in. - $1.25 plus 50c=$1.75	18 in. - $1.50 plus 50c=$2.00
	15 " - 90c " 42½c=1.32½	15 " - 1.06 " 42½c=1.46½

NOTE:--The added charges are for the cost of re-inforcement and are conservative.

Furthermore, the total of Messrs. Jackson & Co's. bid ($3119.10) was considerably less than that of Evans, Coleman & Evans, who wanted $3,664.60, showing how the temptation to jump prices with the restraining influence of competition removed had proved too strong.

By this time we believe that the ratepayers of North Vancouver must be convinced that we are animated in this controversy fully as much by the principle involved as by the hope of financial return. We believe right down deep from the bottom of our hearts that our pipe represents better value than what the city is getting.

ALL THAT WE ASK OF ANY MAN IS EQUAL CONSIDERATION ON A FAIR, COMPETITIVE BASIS.

FREIGHT RATES UNDER CONSIDERATION

Considerable interest is evinced by the householders of Nelson in the move made by the Board of Trade in the direction of securing a reduction in the freight tariff on coal.

As pointed out at the Board of Trade meeting, the railway commission, in response to a complaint by the coal town of Lundbreck, on the Alberta side of the Crow's Nest Pass, that the rate from Lundbreck was too high in comparison with the rate from Lethbridge, recently lowered with the Lundbreck rate five cents, and raised the Lethbridge rate 20 cents, in respect to Nelson. Inasmuch as Lethbridge is the headquarters of the domestic coal supply at present for the Kootenay, this increase works out as a direct tax.

According to figures supplied by F. A. Starkey, president of the Board of Trade, it would not be reasonable to expect the Nelson dealers to charge less than they are charging at present so long as this higher rate remains in force, but it is understood that a reduction rate would be followed by a reduction in the retail prices. Galt coal costs the dealers $3.55 at the mine, and adding $3.10 freight and 35 cents for hauling, the actual cost at the bunkers at Nelson is $7 per ton. Retailed in less than carload lots at $8.25 per ton delivered, there is a margin of $1.25, out of which comes the cost of delivery and the profit. In the case of coal from the Ashcroft mine at Lethbridge, the original cost is $3.75 per ton and the other charges being the same, the dealer has $1.05 for delivery and profit when retailing it at the same price as the Galt. Coal from Bankhead, on the main line in Alberta foothills, retails at Nelson for $10.50. But it costs at the mine $5.50, and the freight rate being $3.50, and handling charges as usual, there remains $1.15 to cover cost of delivery and profit. It is, therefore, apparent, that so long as the high freight rate remains in force, no reduction in the retail price of coal can be expected here.

Another point raised at the board meeting was that this rate from Lethbridge bore no relation whatever to the competitive rate from Princeton, for under the present tariff, when Princeton coal beginning to come in by the Great Northern, it will be car- for $2.50 a ton.

ALMOST COMPLETED

Another section of the Grey canal, the great irrigation system of the White Valley Irrigation and Power Company, has been completed and water is now flowing freely through the great siphon across the head of Swan lake at the rate of six hundred cubic feet per minute. This siphon is eleven thousand feet long and twenty-two inches in diameter. For several thousand feet of its length it sustains a pressure of 200 pounds to the square inch. These three features taken together constitute a record for a wooden pipe.

WESTERN IDEALS FOR THE WEST

A gathering whose import is of the greatest significance to the future development of the Pacific slope convened in San Francisco last week, when at the call of Governor J. N. Gillett of California representatives of the ten states of the Pacific slope met in the first sessions of the Pacific Coast Congress, to consider the problems confronting the westernmost states.

The company that assembled included many of the most representative men of the states concerned, both in public and in business life. The prestige which characterized this congress may be estimated from the personnel of those who were active in its formation, namely, Governor J. N. Gillett, Brig.-Gen. T. H. Bliss, Rear Admirals Barry, Phelps, Osterhaus and Milton, Senator Geof Perkins, all of the California representatives, Benjamin Ide Wheeler, and David Starr Jordan, president of California and Stanford Universities, respectively, Hon. Victor Metcalfe and others. Participating in the deliberations of the Congress were men of extended influence and outstanding ability such as W. W. Bates, former Commissioner of Navigation, Hon. Lewis Nixon of New York, Hon. W. E. Humphreys of Seattle, Gov. Richard E. Sloan of Arizona, Hon. Chas. W. Fulton of Astoria, Acting Governor Jay Bowerman of Oregon, Hon. W. H. Andrews of New Mexico, Hon. William Spry of Utah and many others.

Among the topics which were under discussion were "The Lack of a United States Merchant Marine on the Pacific Ocean", "Coast Defence", "California's Expositions", "The Advisability of Maintaining a Permanent Pacific Coact Congress", etc.

There is every reason to conclude that the convening of this first Congress marked a notable departure in the history of the Pacific slope and one whose effects will extend beyond the imaginery lines which will denote the north and south boundaries of the United States sea coast.

This idea of united action upon the part of the west with reference to those matters which are distinctive to western interests is by no means new, but now that it has taken concrete form in the hands of the western portion of the United States, the feasibility of a kindred organization for the purpose of deliberating upon matters of common interest to the western provinces of Canada is brought prominently to the front. The establishing of some means whereby the several portions of the Canadian west may be enabled to better understand the requirements, the one of the other, whereby bonds of mutual understanding and helpfulness may be built up between them and whereby their united strength may be brought to bear when required, in order to accomplish that which is needful for the satisfactory development of the whole western portion of the Dominion is a project whose growing need is becoming more and more apparent as time progresses. It is doubtless desirable that this movement should be carried out on non-political lines and likewise that it should be made perfectly clear that the movement is not designed in any sense to marshall the west against the east, but that with the best of good will for all portions of the Dominion, its purpose is to specialize upon matters pertaining to the Canadian west. An annual clearing house of ideas relative to the west such as is indicated would prove helpful in procuring the best legislation and in promoting progress all along the line in the development of the magnificent resources and the overtaking of the splendid possibilities which characterize the western portion of the Dominion.

CANADA'S FINANCES

The report of the Minister of Finance with the public accounts of the Dominion for the year ending March 31st, 1910, is just to hand. The balance sheet shows assets totalling $555,603,479.29 and liabilities aggregating $470,663,045.99, leaving a balance in favor of the Consolidated Fund amounting to $84,940,433.30.

The receipts on account of Consolidated Fund for the year amounted to $101,503,710.93, and the expenditure under the same head totalled $79,411,747.12, giving a surplus of receipts over expenses of $22,091,963f81.

In addition to expenditures under Consolidated Fund the following disbursements were made and charged to capital: Railways $21,505,913.36, canals $41,650,706.64, public works (including buildings, harbor improvements, the mint, etc.) $4,514,605.59, Dominion lands $785,157.52, militia $1,299,970.27, making a total capital expenditure of $29,756,353,38.

Railway subsidies were paid to the amount of $2,048,097.05, of which the Canadian Northern received $164,172.29, the Grand Trunk Pacific $550,551,96, the Canadian Pacific $334,160.00 and other railways varying sums.

The sum of $2,414,171.15 was paid on account of bounties, apportioned as follows: Iron and steel, $1,808,533.33; lead, $340,542.19; binder twine, $61,506.83; crude petroleum, $203,588.80.

The balance at the credit of depositors in the post office savings bank at the close of the fiscal year was $458,264,229.90.

The net debt of the Dominion as at March 31st, 1910, was $336,268,546.33, or an increase of $12,338,267.16 over the previous year. This increase is accounted for by various expenditures amounting to $35,971,911f94, from which sum is deducted a total of receipts $23,633,644.78. The chief item in the expenditures is that of $19,968,064.31, expended on the Grand Trunk Pacific railway and the chief item under receipts is the surplus of $22,091,936.81, reported under the Consolidated Fund.

The circulation of Dominion notes has advanced to $87,134,068,50, showing an increase of $7,782,988 over the previous year.

During the year the sum of $11,915,343.35 was paid to retire a loan of 1885 which matured while two new loans aggregating £9,000,000 were floated in London, bearing 3½ per cent. interest.

BRITISH COLUMBIA TO THE FORE

After an absence of three weeks on a semi-pleasure tour through Washington and Oregon, W. B. Deane of this city returned on Sunday with the firm conviction that British Columbia was just starting to develop. "Everything is British Columbia down through those states," he states and during his trip he was continually providing B. C. information to the numerous inquiries. That the provincial government should establish a branch information bureau in Seattle is a policy which he believes would reap much good for the province and be the incentive for a large immigration to this side of the border. In speaking of the conditions on the other side, he declared that they were flat and from what he could learn Vancouver was overshadowing the other coast cities to the south. He claimed that Vancouver lacked proper hotel accommodation. Not the licensed hotels but the non-licensed places in every manner and style a hotel. In many of the smaller towns in the south the success of these establishments was particularly noticeable and it was his firm conviction that Vancouver would benefit in this way ere long by the influx of settlement that is expected from the two states mentioned. Mr. Deane expects to return to Fort George, where he has considerable interests, in the near future.

The other features of the program will be boxing bouts and wrestling matches by first class performers. NOTICE is hereby given that an application will be made to the Legislative Assembly of the Province of British Columbia, at its next session, for an Act to incorporate a company with power to construct, equip, maintain, and operate a line of railway by steam, cable, electric or other power from a point on the Capilano river, in the Municipality of North Vancouver, at or near District Lot 589, Group 1, New Westminster District; thence following a most convenient route to a point in District Lot 1526, Group 1, New Westminster District, together with the necessary powers for the use, aperation, ownership and maintenance of such railway as are usually granted in that behalf.

The Canadian-Sunsets's Next Door Neighbor--The La Blanc In Action

Herewith you see one of the most realistic snapshots ever taken of a California oil gusher. The well is shown shooting 2500 bbls. per day from a 4-inch pipe. It is located on Sec. 6-11-23, Sunset-Maricopa district, Kern Co., Calif., and is within a few hundred feet of the Canadian-Sunset wells, No. 1 and No. 2

This well, maintaining the speed here exhibited, would net its owners more than $1,200 per day, or (approximately $36,000 per month). Big figures, you say! Ordinarily so; but not in the oil business.

Now here is the problem; solve it yourself. It was finished with a 4½ inch casing (pipe). The dip of the oil sand in this field is as well defined as though it were a chalk-mark on the surface. Logs of neighboring mills, like a sentry in the night, are there to guide us. In the field where we are drilling there are no blanks. The oil is there; the thing is to get it out. We will do that.

The Canadian-Sunset Oil Co., a British Columbia, or home company, has been at work in this field, drilling two wells, since March. It has spent upwards of a hundred thousand in cold, hard cash (approximately) for camp equipment, horses and wagons, drills, derricks, pipe-engines and boilers, and a hundred and one other accessories before the fact of production, and what we have to show for our time and money is this:—(a) Well No. 1, 2190 feet in the ground, with eight-inch casing, as perfect a hole as anywhere in the state of California; (b) Well No. 2, more than 2,200 feet deep, with six-inch casing NOW PRODUCING OIL IN SUFFICIENT QUANTITIES to supply this company with fuel for its engines, thus effecting a fuel bill saving of upwards of $500 per month. This well is being drilled to a greater depth to encounter the gusher sand which other wells in the neighborhood have already penetrated.

For the past four weeks things have been at a dead standstill with us at Well No. 1, awaiting the arrival of 6-inch pipe. This pipe having been shipped from outside Pittsburg on the 23rd ult., is in the freignt yards at Maricopa today. It will be unloaded forthwith, hauled to the lease, the fires will be lighted and work will then be resumed at full blast. Goheen, the superintendent in charge, says he will "put her down at the rate of 10 feet a day." At his outside calculations, the big oil is 200 feet away. Now figure this out yourself. How long will it take ta bring a well in?

This company has 80 acres in this district; 80 acres in the Midway field; 80 acres in the McKittrick Front and 640 acres northwest of Coalinga—enough land to make the city of Vancouver rich, when drilled. The biggest and hardest part of our work—the bringing in of our first well—is about over. It is merely a question of days now, with no setbacks, when we should get a gusher. When we do—look out! These shares will skyrocket.

The time to make money in the oil business is when the game is young—before the wells come in. As the wells come in the stock goes up. This is the history of the field. These shares have been selling at 50 cents since they were first marketed. There has been no advance.

Now, however, by unanimous vote of the directors, an additional block of 50,000 treasury shares are being offered for immediate sale to acquire funds to begin another well. The more wells we have producing the greater our earning capacity, and the greater the earnings the more dividends to be disbursed among shareholders. So, it is to the common interest of all shareholders that extensive operations as the treasury will permit be immediately undertaken; and it is for this reason that this final allotment of 50c shares are being offered.

To Canadian-Sunset Oil Shareholders:

The Directors of this corporation at a specially called meeting, held at the head office, 319 Pender West, November 16, unanimously adopted the following resolution:

"Resolved, that to further develop our holdings, a block of 50,000
"shares be placed on the market for immediate sale at 50 cents and
"that if any more be sold, they shall sell at $1.00."

To shareholders of record November 1st, 1910, preference will be given in allotting these securities and the following unusual terms will obtain:

One-quarter cash with application, one-quarter in 30 days, one-quarter in 60 days and one-quarter in 90 days.

The big values in oil shares come when the company's well comes in. Don't wait and pay several dollars per share for what you can buy now at 50 cents! The boom is on; get aboard before the big well comes thundering in.

NOTICE TO INVESTORS!—While this offer is meant particularly for shareholders, and they will naturally be given the preference, both as to share-allotment and terms of purchase, the general public are also invited to subscribe on these conditions: Terms, half cash, 30 and 60 days deferred payments.

Now let's see whether you know a good thing or not! Make yourself a Christmas present!

THE HUNTER'S PARODY

The following is from the pen of one of North Vancouver's popular sportsmen, Mr. Oswald Peers, and is a verse descriptive of the recent trip up coast on the annual fall deer hunt on the launch Nezko, in company with seven jolly companions. During this trip they brought back a bag of fifteen deer, several goat and a fine black bear.

'Twas on an October morning,
The day was bright and clear
When Billie and his party
Started for bear and deer.

Eight lads were in the party
Billie Braim and Percy Booth,
The latter was a captair
Although but still a youth.

When passing through the Narrows
The wind began to blow,
And a question was arising
Will we stay or will we go?

When up spoke our worthy captain
I'll sail her through or die
And Billie he responded
Well, Percy, we will try.

Doc Morrison, he was sleeping
Upon his blankets spread
When thro' an open window
He quickly put his head.

He knew the sea was rolling
And this is what he said:
There's one good consolation,
The fishes must be fed.

Onward went the Nezko,
We passed the lighthouse rock,
Tht sad-eyed gulls were following
For they dearly loved the Doc.

A. Grant was on the upper deck
The waves were rolling high
Said he, I'm going down below
Or know the reason why.

The Prime's were meditating
About the weather bad
For George was getting very sick
And Tommy sure looked sad.

Charlis Young was very useful
When passing thro the gale
He helped the sick and needy
By holding on the pail.

Welcome Pass was passed in safety
Powell river reached at dark
We landed four of our party
Then onward sailed the bark.

Lund, it was reached in safety
And the Captain told the mate
Get ready for a landing
For 'tis getting rather late.

The night was spent in comfort,
When morn was drawing near
We raised the Nezko's anchor
And soon did disappear.

We ran right thro' the channels
Right up past Salmon Bay
And into Toba Inlet
We anchored then to stay.

GOOD REPORTS OF FIELD CROPS

The census office bulletin on the crops of Canada as prepared from reports made up to the end of October says:

Potatoes alone indicate partial failure, and in all the provinces there are complaints of rot in the fields and in heaps for winter storage. The area is 503,262 acres and the estimated yield is 74,048,000 bushels, being an average of about 147 bushels per acre. Hay and clover are computed for 8,515,400 acres and a yield per acre of 1.82 tons. The quality is 90.45 per cent. and the total yield 15,497,000 tons. Fodder corn has an estimated yield per acre of 9.58 tons, which upon an area of 271,968 acres gives a product of 2,551,000 tons. Sugar beets are grown most extensively in Ontario and Alberta, where they supply roots for three sugar factories. The area in crop this year is 16,000 acres, which is a substantial increase upon last year. The yield per acre is 9.69 tons, the total yield 155,000 tons, and the quality 93.15 per cent. Computed at average local prices the market value of potatoes this year is $33,446,000, turnips and other roots, $21,444,000; hay and clover, $149,716,000; fodder corn, $11,957,000; sugar beets, $887,000. The report on fall wheat sown this year shows an area of 790,300 acres, whereof 682,500 acres are in Ontario, and 107,800 acres in Alberta. Last year's area was 69,200 acres in Ontario, and 98,000 in Alberta. Conditions of the crop is reported at 98.40 per cent., as compared with 93.60 last year. The percentage of fall ploughing this year compared with the area planned for is less than last year, but the report is made for a period of one month earlier. The percentage of summer fallowing compared in the same way is somewhat lighter but increases are shown for Saskatchewan and Alberta.
