Special Session of City Council

The city council met in special session Thursday afternoon. The chief item of business was the consideration of the request of the Wallace Shipyards Limited that a bylaw be submitted to the electors authorizing certain concessions to their firm. Mr. Wallace and Mr. Devine were present on behalf of the company. As previously outlined at the regular session of the council the Company requests exemption from taxes and from water rates for a term of ten years in consideration of which they agree to spend $60,000, $30,000 of which will be expended in 1911 and $30,000 in 1912, in the extension of their works and business. They propose to increase their wharfage accommodation, enlarge their machine shop, instal a foundry and embark in salvage operations as well as the increasing of their marine ways capacity. They undertake that their average pay roll shall be at least $40,000 per year.

In reply to a question whether partial exemption would be considered Mr. Wallace stated that if the firm could not get total exemption it would pay them better to sell their local property and to remove to Vancouver. Under present conditions competing firms in Vancouver were getting the cream of the business and the interests of his business demanded enlargement. The exemptions were asked for in order to assist his company in making those extensions.

A bylaw was accordingly drawn and read a first and second time in order to submit the proposition to the electors for their opinion on January 12th.

The architect was instructed to call for tenders for building the new fire hall on Thirteenth street.

The tender of Brouse Mitchell & Co for the $12,000 and the $13,000 debenture loan at 100.55 was accepted.

Mayoralty Candidates Heard

The ratepayers turned out in force to attend the Mayoralty meeting called in the interests of Alderman William McNeish, in Larson's Pavilion on Wednesday evening. Mr. D. W. Reeve, President of the Ratepayers' Association, occupied the chair.

The chairman first called on Mayor May, who created somewhat of a sensation in his opening sentences by declaring "If you had asked me yesterday whether I was a candidate for the mayoralty for 1911 I would have told you that I was a candidate, but tonight I have to tell you that I am not a candidate." Following this announcement of his withdrawal from the contest Mayor May gave a lucid explanation of how it came about that he had announced himself as a candidate after having declared immediately after his election last year that he would not run again. His friends who had urged him to run had at his request finally consented to his withdrawal and he was accordingly out of the running. Mayor May fell into reminiscent vein and reviewed the progress of North Vancouver from the early days to the present time and was pleased to know that he had had part in the great development that had taken place. In relinquishing his place in the public life of the city and district he did so with the consciousness that throughout his eighteen years of service he had always done the best he could. He then proceeded to refer to the several departments which went to make up the prosperity of the community such as commerce and industries and in forceful language placed the major emphasis upon the necessity of safeguarding the homes and building up happy homes. In closing he issued a warning to the effect that it was necessary to the general welfare that affairs of public moment be not controlled by any little company or section, but that by the people in the broad sense. This warning was prompted from the fact that he had been given to understand that steps were contemplated in a certain quarter to oppose the granting of the applications now before the provincial house for a charter to build a scenic railway to the top of Grouse Mountain.

Following Mayor May the chairman in a few well chosen remarks gave expression to the general sense of regret that will be experienced at the retirement of Mayor May from participation in the public affairs of the city.

Alderman William McNeish, candidate for the Mayoralty, then addressed the electors. In opening he stated that he considered himself qualified to discharge the duties of mayor because of his intimate knowledge of the requirements of the city and of the state of the city at present. He placed stress upon the necessity of procuring capable men for public positions at the present juncture. Next year there would be much important work to be done as sewers, waterworks, conservation of water supply, building new roads and maintaining existing roads and streets. If elected he would make it his personal business to be out upon the ground and to supervise the progress of the work as well as to personally attend the several meetings of committees. He realized that in helping his fellow citizens he would be helping himself. Mr. McNeish then covered the several departments of civic interests seriatim. The sewerage contract would be awarded during the life of the present council and if elected he would make it his first duty to see that work commenced and finished before winter. He would exact the penalty clause in the contract in case of undue delay. Local improvement operations required attention and he would go over the ground with the council and map out a comprehensive program of work to be done either by initiative or by requisition. He was not in favor of doing street grading during the winter months. A waterworks bylaw was now before the people for extensive improvements. He considered iron pipes the right article to instal. The professional fire department was justified by the city's position and should be made thoroughly efficient. The work of the Health committee would be minimized by the sewerage system but would receive adequate attention. Under the head of the finance department Mr. McNeish paid a warm tribute to the worth of Ald. G. W. McRae and strongly advocated his re-election. All the works of the council depended on the finances of the city being kept in first class shape. As for street clearing out of general revenue this policy had proven very popular and was now generally agreed to, but it was initiated by himself and Mr. H. W. Young of the council.

This year $25,000 had been judiciously used for this purpose and if his candidature was a success a similar bylaw would be submitted next year. As for the laws of the city he would see that the laws governing the city were duly enforced. He did not want a wide open town, neither did he want a town with a fence around it. One thing, there would be no Sunday baseball. All candidates were now in accord with policy with respect to street construction now in force, but they were not so in 1909. During the past year 11½ miles of sidewalk had been laid. The same policy should be continued to give like facilities to all residents. The work done on rounding up the roads last year should be followed by putting crushed rock on them this year. A road roller had been bought and a rock crusher is now under negotiation for this purpose

The mayoralty was no path of roses. The chief executive would require time and knowledge and he had both. There would be no dragging if he were in charge. "If what I have said appeals to you," said the speaker, "it is a square deal to all and special favors to none suits you, then vote for me. I have been your hewer of wood and drawer of water for the past two years. If there is any recompense honor me with your votes on January 12th."

The chairman next called upon Mr. A. E. Kealy to address the audience. Mr. Kealy began by thanking Mr. McNeish for giving him the opportunity to speak to the electors and promised that a like courtesy would be extended to Mr. McNeish at a meeting which Mr. Kealy would hold in the near future. He complimented Mr. McNeish on his record as chairman of the Board of Works, declaring that he had proven capable, wise and judicious. He did not agree with the position taken by Mr. McNeish relative to the mayor supervising the actual work being done throughout the city inasmuch as the mayor's duties were rather administrative. It was quite in order, however, for the mayor to interest himself in all the meetings of committees. Mr. Kealy proceeded to call attention to some defects which had developed in the administration of affairs by the council of the past year. At the last elections the need of road machinery was a very strong plea. The entire year had passed, however, and no machinery was on the ground although a bylaw had been passed and the sum of $10,000 had been lying in the bank since May for the purchase of the same. That was not good business. Again, in 1908, the chief plank of the successful party at the elections was the construction of a sewerage system. The years 1909 and 1910 had gone and not a pipe was yet in the ground. The sum of $40,000 had been lying in the bank since May 1910 for this purpose and was yet unused. That was not good business. As for the roads of the city. Much was made of the necessity of having a thoroughly efficient fire department, but where were the roads which were in fit condition for such a department to make fast time to a fire? There was not a single trunk road in the city which could be used in such a contingency. With reference to the waterworks, in December 1907, a bylaw was framed by the council and subsequently ratified by the ratepayers, for the purpose of constructing a reservoir which was essential to the efficiency of the system, but this money, instead of being used for the purpose for which it was borrowed had been spent in pipe extensions, with the result that the water was still liable to be shut off at any time because of difficulty at the intake.

In 1907, when the city was incorporated, a financial crisis was on throughout the world. It was impossible to borrow money on civic debentures and North Vancouver had been retarded in common with Vancouver and other cities. Since that time the market had recovered and was now on a good basis, so that all civic debentures brought good prices. This was due, however, to the change in the market. In 1908 the city bonded indebtedness was, general $267,000, local improvement $17,000, today it stood as follows: General $820,000, local improvement $73,000, ferry bonds guaranteed $128,000. He did not hold that this was too much, but why was the city able to borrow at this rate? Because of general prosperity and of increased local assessment. The city assessment was now four times as great as in 1908 and the statutory borrowing power was now $2,900,000, whereas it was then $700,000. With reference to local improvement. This principle was a good one. It had been inaugurated in the city in 1908. He agreed that there was much work of this nature that should be done by initiative but in 1908 the people objected to this procedure. It remained to be seen whether they would accept it now. He believed that while good in principle the local improvement idea might be carried too far. Personally he acknowledged his mistake in formerly favoring the construction of new roads and sidewalks on that plan.

He had been honored with five terms in the municipal chair, three as reeve and two as mayor, but had been defeated in 1908. He believed himself to be capable of the position and had conceded to the request of a committee to run again for the mayoralty. He was a poor electioneer but wanted every ratepayer to feel that he wanted his vote. He would hold a meeting of his own later and further explain his policy.

The chairman then called for questions.

C. Stuart asked each candidate whether he was in favor of ordinary workmen being paid a minimum wage of $2.50 for eight hours' work with four on Saturday, with the standard wage for mechanics and whether he was in favor of insertion of clauses to that effect in all city contracts. Mr. McNeish replied that the scale of wages named already prevailed in the city and he was in favor of protecting the standard. Mr. Kealy was likewise favorable but considered that the minimum wage should be the minimum wage prevailing in adjacent communities inasmuch as it might be say $2.75 instead of $2.50.

Ald. Irwin brought up the question of the effect of the insertion of such clauses on the contracts for public works for which tenders would be opened in a few days. It was agreed that the candidates should deal with this phase of the question at a future meeting.

The meeting then adjourned.

KINDERGARTEN

The North Vancouver preparatory and kindergarten will reopen for the Easter term on Thursday, January 4th. See card elsewhere.

HOTEL LICENSES INCREASED

The city council of the city of Chilliwack has increased the license fee in that city from $400 to $800 per annum. The current license term ends January 15, and in order to make the amendment to the bylaw providing for the increase effective on that date it was necessary that the present council should take action before its term of office closes on January 12. This increase will not be a surprise to the hotelmen as it has been expected for some time. The question of increasing the number of licences in the city will be left for the new council to decide. A city bylaw, now in force, limits the number of licences to two until such time as the population of the city passes 2000; but there has been considerable agitation for an amendment providing for the granting of at least one additional license at once.

FERRY DIRECTORS

The Board of Ferry Directors met Thursday afternoon. A resolution was passed ordering the final payment to be made to Messrs. Tuck and Brewer on the contract price for the new ferry offices and a second resolution authorizing the employment of an assistant for the secretary of the Company.

City Sewerage System Begun

The proceedings were very brief at the formal commencement of the work of constructing the city sewerage system yesterday (Thursday). Mayor May turned the first sod and his example was followed by Ald. McNeish, chairman of the Board of Works, Ald. Smith, chairman of the Board of Health, City Engineer Hanes and Superintendent Fox of the Waterworks department. Ald. Irwin and McRae having mistaken the arrangements as to the point at which the proceedings were to be held, arrived somewhat late to participate. The heavy rainstorm which was descending at the time precluded any lengthy ceremony.

SCHOOL BOARD MEETING

The regular meeting of the Board of School Trustees for December was held Thursday evening. Trustees McDowell Howell and Hay were present. A letter was received from J. Elmer Brown accepting the appointment of assistant principal and from Miss Black accepting a position on the staff. Several other letters were read and laid over for action later. The statements of account for the month were read and the amounts were ordered paid.

BYLAWS PASS FINAL READING

At a special meeting of the district council held Tuesday evening the following bylaws were given a final reading and passed subject to the assent of the electors. Lynn Valley Road Local Improvement bylaw for $8,000, Lynn Valley Road bylaw for $8,000, Dudley Road Local Improvement Loan bylaw for $10,000, Municipal Hall bylaw for $10,000, Streets Loan bylaw for $35,000, Sidewalk Loan bylaw for $15,000 and Keith Road West Loan bylaw for $50,000. The latter bylaw is in connection with the proposed improvement of Keith Road west under the local improvement plan. The government has promised to assist in this work to the extent of $50,000 and $100,000 is to be raised by a local improvement loan. Owing, however, to the requirements of the Municipal Clauses Act regarding the necessary petition it has been found impossible to get the requisite number of signatures in addition to a majority in value. The Attorney-General is being approached with a view to obtaining a special enabling Act. Signatures have been obtained from the owners of nearly three-quarters in value of the land effected by the loan. Meantime the council thought it well to pass the general loan of $50,000, so that they would be in a position to ask the government for their portion and get ahead with the work.

Lynn Valley Notes

An entertainment is to be held in St. Clement's church Thursday evening.

A Christmas tree will be held this evening in Institute Hall, Lynn Valley for the children. All are cordially invited.

The carol singers of Lynn Valley went their rounds on Christmas eve entertaining a number of the Valleytes with their singing of carols.

Mr. and Mrs. Percy King entertained a large number of friends Monday evening. Covers were laid for about twenty-five.

Last Friday night the executive of the Institute held a business meeting. The next meeting is on the 6th of January.

A number of parties were given by the residents of the Valley on Christmas Day, the cars making it very convenient for their city friends.

Now the Christmas rush is over the people are settling down to the general routine again. Everyone seems to be satisfied with Santa Claus and his gifts.

HIRSUTE ADORNMENT AT A DISCOUNT

The Portland Oregonian of December 26th contains a news item that should cause the "hope perennial" to spring like a gushet within the breasts of the fortunate members of the bald headed fraternity to whom the facts refer. The article is as follows:

ELI, Neb., Dec. 25—(Special)—There is now hope for the bald-headed man, and the balder the greater is his hope. The Associated Women's Clubs of Eli have resolved in his favor.

It all came about at a regular club meeting, when Mrs. J. N. Rossou, a matron who has been married less than six weeks, hinted that, no matter what she might do, she would "never marry a bald-headed man." This was treading on the toes of the president, Mrs. E. E. Richmond, and, as it developed later, it was treading on the toes of 18 members of the Club. Hardly had Mrs. Rossou made her remark, when Mrs. P. C. McElroy, offered a resolution which set forth:

"That sensible women, especially those of the Eli Women's Club, look upon bald-headed men as being thoughtful and kind, trustworthy and confiding, past the follies and frivolities of youth, usually successful and men of property, not given to running around nights and, moreover, the bald head looks so clean, white and pretty that one could kiss it without a feeling of disgust."

The resolution was adopted unanimously and Mrs. Rossou has resigned her membership.

ACT EFFECTING HUNTERS

An Act has just been introduced and read a first time in the House of Commons at Ottawa which has an important bearing on British Columbia from a hunter's point of view. It reads: Chapter 146 of the Criminal Code of the Revised Statutes of 1906 is amended by inserting, "Every one is guilty of an indictable offence and liable to two years' imprisonment who injures by shooting any person although the person charged believed the object he was aiming at was a deer, moose or other animal."

This step on the part of the law makers of the Dominion is brought about by the too frequent occurrence of mistaking another person in the bush for a deer and failing to give the human being the benefit of the doubt although the mind of the person shooting doubtless is reasonably sure that the object at which he is aiming has every appearance of the animal he is in quest of. The general opinion amongst experienced hunters is that there is absolutely no excuse for shooting another unless the bullet travels wide or beyond the mark for which it was intended, or the presence of another hunter in the immediate vicinity unknown to the party shooting. In justice to those of less experience it may be urged that wrought up perhaps by bad luck in comparison to their more fortunate comrades they take a chance on a moving object or perchance a deer has been sighted. The next instant it disappears and the bushes are seen to move a short distance off. In that case a fatal shot is often the result to a companion who may be close at hand. In any case the new law will no doubt have the effect of forcing the axiom "look before you leap" upon the mind of every hunter.

WIRELESS TELEGRAPHY

In recognition of the growing popularity of wireless telegraphy and its importance commercially and especially as a life saver with sea-going vessels the House of Commons has lately introduced and passed a first reading an Act requiring that "Every sea-going vessel and coasting passenger ship over 400 tons gross tonnage, registered in Canada, and every sea-going and coast freighter over 1200 gross tonnage, registered in Canada, shall be equipped with apparatus for wireless telegraphy; (2) every owner of any such ship who neglects to equip it with the said apparatus shall be liable to prosecution for said offence, punishable on summary conviction or on indictment, and be liable to a penalty of not less than one hundred dollars and not exceeding one thousand dollars or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding twelve months, or to both fine and imprisonment."

CIVIC MAYORALTY ELECTIONS

The retirement of Mayor May from the mayoralty contest in the approaching civic elections, as definitely announced by him at the meeting of electors held Wednesday evening, leaves the other two competitors, namely Alderman William McNeish and Mr. Arnold E. Kealy in full possession of the field. The tone of the speeches made at the meeting showed clearly that as for themselves the greatest cordiality exists between these two candidates personally and likewise assured the fact that this election will be conducted in an amicable spirit. Indeed the hearty goodwill existing between the candidate justifies the conclusion that next to capturing the mayoralty himself, that which would best please each, is that the other should win the honor. That a mayoralty contest should be characterized by such conditions is a circumstance as happy as it is rare and the ratepayers of the city will doubtless find an added interest in watching the progress of the campaign and the result of the poll from the knowledge of the fact that although both candidates cannot secure the desired prize, yet the unsuccessful competitor while regretting his candidature did not meet with the approval of a majority of his fellow citizens, will, in either case, strive to be the first man to extend sincere and hearty congratulations to the other upon his success. The unique situation was well expressed in few words by a prominent citizen when he said to the candidates "the goodwill existing between you two men is so gratifying that it makes a fellow feel sorry that he cannot vote for you both." The ratepayers can afford to view the situation with equanimity inasmuch as whether victory ultimately perch on the banners of the one camp or the other, the city has the assurance of a capable and faithful occupant in the Mayor's chair and of a worthy successor to Mayor May.

WATERWORKS BY-LAW

The by-law to raise the sum of $100,000 for general waterworks purposes, which among others, goes to the electors of the city on January 12th, provides for extensions and improvements to the waterworks system which are of prime importance. One of the most notable of the several features included in the purposes for which the sum named is required, is the installation of a high pressure fire main along Lonsdale avenue together with extensions. This plan contemplates the laying of an iron main on Lonsdale avenue which will be used for fire protection purposes exclusively, no house or other connections whatever being allowed upon it. This iron main will enable the fire department at any moment to throw the unimpeded force of the entire head of water from the intake into the pipe at any point, with the result that a pressure of two hundred and fifty pounds will be developed.

The significance and the value of this provision becomes apparent when the facts are considered. The pressure named is fully equal to that developed by the most expensive and powerful fire engines manufactured which is from two hundred to two hundred and fifty pounds. North Vancouver will, therefore, be able to procure a system that will give the immediate service of the most expensive equipment at any point in the city, simply by opening a hydrant, and the very heavy cost of such an equipment will be saved to the city. Further than this, the only apparatus which will be required in hurrying to a fire will be a hose wagon, which being light and speedy will procure the quickest possible service.

The value of a high pressure water main is placed at the highest standard by authorities in the matter of fire fighting and those cities which are able to avail themselves of its advantages are recognized as occupying a most enviable position. It is recognized as providing practically ideal facilities for the prevention and for extinction of fires. This high class service, wherever it is in vogue result not only in the protection of property owners from loss by fire, but has, likewise the effect of reducing fire insurance rates to the lowest possible point, thus affording a great saving to the community in money and likewise providing a strong incentive for industrial and other concerns to locate where such advantages are available.

The whole scheme, of which the Lonsdale avenue main will be the trunk line, includes the laying of laterals from this main throughout the city, as expeditiously as possible so that the entire city will reap the benefit of one of the best fire protection systems known to exist anywhere. It is greatly to the advantage of North Vancouver that the stage of development has now arrived at which the city is in position to avail itself of this valuable asset and to reap its benefits. The amount included in the $100,000 for this purpose is $17,000.

DISASTROUS FOREST FIRES

The history of forestry contains records of many tremendous forest fires which have caused harrowing devastation including not only the loss of immense values in standing timber but likewise deplorable loss of life. A few of these great fires may be mentioned as follows:

The Miramichi fire of 1825. This fire occurred near New Castle, on the Miramichi River, New Brunswick. In nine hours it had destroyed a belt of forest eighty miles long and twenty-five miles wide and almost every living thing was killed on that area, even the fish were destroyed in the smaller lakes and streams. It is estimated that the loss from this fire, not including the value of timber burnt, which was immense and to the value of $300,000. One hundred and sixty persons lost their lives and nearly 1,000 head of stock was killed.

The Peshtigo fire in the state of Wisconsin, occurred in October 1871, and burned an area of over 2000 sq. miles. Between 1,100 and 1,500 persons lost their lives and property to the amount of many millions of dollars was destroyed.

The great Hinckley fire occurred on September 1st, 1894, and was the most destructive fire of recent years. Hinckley, Minnesota and several other towns were destroyed about 500 lives being lost and more than 2000 people were left destitute. It is estimated that the loss in property amounted to about $25,000,000, the loss of life from the fire would have been much more than stated had it not been for the fact that the railroad companies ran special trains to carry the settlers away from the flames. This fire could have been extinguished easily. It had been burning in small places in swamps about Hinckley and was allowed to go until a hot south wind carried it beyond control.

If Canada and the United States had the value of timber in the treasury that has been burnt in the past they would be able to pay off their national debt.

Facts such as these serve to emphasize the superlative importance of the fire fighting system which is being built up by the government for the protection of the vast forest areas of British Columbia.

LARGE LAND DEAL

The alleged large land purchase by the C.P.R. in the Coquitlam municipality is revealed through the discovery of the registration in New Westminster of some fifty properties by John Langan of Vancouver, who is reported to be acting for the Railway Company.

The land registered aggregates in value about $1,500,000, and covers properties in Coquitlam, which have been held under option or obtained by the purchase of agreements of sale extending from a few miles west of Port Hammond to Westminster Junction. In all the deal covers some 3,000 acres of land, including at least two miles of the finest waterfrontage on the Fraser river. Of this land some 1,200 acres are, it is understood for the use of the C. P. R. railway company and the remainder for other companies. The latter, it is learned, on good authority by the British Columbian, include the Alberta Pacific Elevator Company who propose to erect large elevators on the river for the handling of grain to the ports of the world as soon as the opening of the Panama canal permits the economical use of the Pacific coast route.

CITY COUNCIL

Official Commencement of Construction of Sewerage System—Money By-Laws at Municipal Elections

Mayor May presided and all the aldermen were present at the regular session of the city council held Tuesday evening.

The following communications were received:

From the Secretary of the School Board with thanks for co-operation of the council re new school site; from the department of Indian Affairs to the effect that a surrender had been forwarded re Third street roadway through the reserve for signature by the Indians and when this was completed and the proper undertakings provided by the city, the transfer would be made; from the city engineer advising that first sod would be turned in the construction of the city sewerage system on Thursday. Council decided to assemble on the ground at one o'clock p.m. on that day; from Wallace Shipyards Limited asking that council prepare and submit a by-law to the electors at the coming municipal elections authorizing exemption from taxation and water rates to that company for a period of ten years in order that the will of the people in this matter may be clearly ascertained. The Company agreed to defray a share of the expense of submitting the bylaw and also undertaking to expend $60,000 within two years in extensions to their plant. Mr. Devine addressed the council in support of the Company.

Ald. McNeish was of the opinion that the Company was submitting a business proposition and it was only reasonable that the people should be given an ouportunity to accept it or to reject it.

Ald. Irwin thought that in submitting a bylaw to the electors the council should itself be in favor of the bylaw. He did not favor total exemption but partial exemption from taxation.

Ald. McRae was in favor of passing the proposition on to the electors.

Ald. Smith was likewise of the opinion that an arrangement should be arrived at to that effect.

Ald. Schultz was unqualifiedly in favor of extending municipal assistance to incoming industries. Other cities followed this method and benefitted very largely from it and North Vancouver should do likewise.

Ald. Fowler was not in favor of total exemption from taxation. The fact that improvements are already exempt should prove a sufficient incentive to industries. Further exemption would conflict with the principle of single tax upon which the city assessment is based. If the entire waterfront was to be exempt from taxation, other property must pay for it and where was the burden to be placed?

On motion it was decided to hold a special meeting on Thursday at two o'clock p.m. to finally arrange the matter. The representatives of the Company will be present.

The city clerk reported that certain local improvement bylaws had been regularly advertised.

The city clerk read the financial statement of North Vancouver City Ferries Limited for November.

The city clerk reported that the deeds had been received for the property recently purchased at Rice Lake.

Itemized accounts from the district council for repairs to Lynn Valley road and to the cemetery road were referred to the waterworks committee and the Board of Works respectively.

A representative of the wood pipe company made application for a further payment on purchase price. It was decided to pay a sum equal to 90 per cent. of the remaining portion of the price without prejudice to the rights of the city under the contract.

Ald. McNeish, chairman of Board of Works, reported that his committee had called for tenders for hauling and distributing the vitrified clay pipe for the sewers, which has now arrived. Tenders were read as follows: B. Coburn $200, B. Anson $250, H. Fogg $100. The tender of H. Fogg was accepted.

Tenders were opened for the $12,000 waterworks loan and for the $13,000 local improvement loan as follows: Annaway and Champion $11,764 and and $12,743.25 respectively; May and James, $24,513.00 for both; Acmelin Jarvis & Co. rate of 99.23 per cent.; J. G. MacIntosh, rate of 96.04 for the former and rate of 95.96 for the latter; Wood, Gundy & Co., $25,070 for both; J. F. Helliwell for the Dominion Securities Corporation rate of 113 per cent.; Campbell Thomas & Co. sum of $11,881 and $12,7.9 respectively; Ontario Securities Co., $11,941 and $12,936 respectively; H. O'Hara & Co., $11,771 and $12,7.2 respectively; C. H. Burgess & Co., $25,083 for both; William Godfrey, for Brouse Mitchell & Co., rate of 100.55; Geo. A. Stimson & Co., 12,006 and $13,007 respectively. The tender of the Dominion Securities Corporation at rate of 113 per cent. was accepted.

A plan of subdivision of lot 1, block 8, D. L. 616 was referred back to provide for a lane 20 feet in width. A plan of subdivision of lots 1 and 2, block 3, D. L. 547, was not approved.

Representatives of the B. C. Telephone Company conferred with council with respect to change of location for the poles from Upper Keith road to the city limits. It was thought that poles might be placed in the lanes or that some arrangement might be made such as would remove the large wooden poles from the main thoroughfare. It was decided that the engineer and the Board of Works communicate with the B. C. Telephone Co. and the B. C. El. Co. in the matter.

Accounts as follows were ordered paid: Finance committee $704.00, police $412.50, Board of Works $416.50, $722.22 and Local Improvement $27.50, Waterworks $11,806.36, Fire and Light $752.20 and Board of Health $58.90. Smith Bros. on account of alterations to city hall $368.39.

The waterworks committee reported, recommending that a by-law be submitted to the electors providing for $100,000 for general waterworks purposes for 1911 and that $5,000 be provided out of general revenue for replacing old mains. The report was discussed at length and the clerk was instructed to prepare the bylaw.

Ald. Fowler, chairman of the fire and light committee recommended that a street light be placed at the corner of Seventh street and St. David's Ave. and at the corner of 14th street and Forbes Ave. Carried.

On motion of Ald. Irwin it was resolved that the matter of taking over the lanes and of widening 18th street be proceeded with.

The clerk was instructed to notify the B. C. El. Ry. Co. that council intends to block pave Lonsdale Avenue from Upper Keith road to 18th street and to macadamize the same from that street to the city limits.

On motion of Ald. Irwin the engineer will submit a report showing what lanes are required by the city throughout D. L. 271, 548 and 549.

The following bylaws were finally passed: Hawkers' bylaw, a bylaw to amend bylaw to. 137 and the Ferry Shares Purchase Loan bylaw for $80,000.

Those that were introduced and passed three readings were Parks bylaw for $8,000; Fire bylaw for $8,000, Streets Clearing and Sidewalk Construction bylaw for $25,000 and the General Waterworks Loan Bylaw for $100,000.

Owing to the fact that the city has approximately $500,000 of work in hand the engineer was authorized to engage another assistant.

Superintendent Fox of the waterworks department was appointed inspector of sewers temporarily.

Every lady longs to have wavy hair. It is now within the reach of everyone. For some years cut hair has been permanently waved, but the process it had to undergo was too severe for it to be applied to hair on the head, but now science has discovered a method by which the hair can be waved without injury to hair or scalp. The wave will not wash out and damp weather will not affect it. The process leaves the hair soft and wavy. It has become the rage in Paris, London and all the large cities of the States. There are still a few specially fine lots for sale in this sub-division, most of them 65x132 feet, some larger. The most westerly part of the property recently put on the market includes 16 waterfront lots with a waterfrontage of 59 feet and an average depth of 220 feet. The lots have a pleasant slope to a gravelly beach, and there are many fine old trees which add greatly to their beauty. We have the verdict of many who have bought there that nowhere on the whole Pacific Coast is there a more beautiful spot than "DUNDARAVE" and most people who look over the property buy some of it. There are several summer houses already built on the beach lots, and others will be built in the spring.

Call in and get a price list and make an appointment with us to take you out and show you the property. You will enjoy a visit to "DUNDARAVE".

The prices are from $325 to $825 per lot, and the terms are easy, one-fifth cash, and the balance over two years. The waterfront lots are $4,500.

Election Notices

To the Electors of the City of North Vancouver:

Ladies and Gentlemen,—At the request of numerous friends I have decided to offer myself as a candidate for the office of alderman for the year 1911.

CITY OF NORTH VANCOUVER

NOTICE is hereby given that in pursuance of the power vested in me by Section (17) of the "Municipal Elections Act", I will hold a court at the City Hall, North Vancouver, on Tuesday, the 3rd day of January, 1911 at the hour of 9.30 o'clock in the forenoon to hear and determine cases where it is alleged that any person's name has been improperly omitted from or placed on the Voters' List for the year 1911.

ARNOLD E. KEALY,

TO THE ELECTORS OF NORTH VANCOUVER

Ladies and Gentlemen:

I beg to offer myself as candidate for School Trustee and should you do me the honor of electing me, I assure you I will use my best endeavors to secure for you the very best school houses available for the money expended. I have been interested and associated closely with educational matters, school and college buildings for the past 23 years. In England I was complimented by the Board of Education, London, on several occasions for my school planning. On September 13th last I had the honor of reading a paper before the school convention at Kelowna, B. C.

It is well known to some of you that grave mistakes have been made lately, North Lonsdale school for instance, which commenced at a cost of $12,000, I am informed has now passed the $28,000 stage and is likely to go beyond $30,000.

I am not against spending money on well equipped, sanitary and ventilated schools if we get our money's worth, but we have not done so in the past. If I am elected I will make a special effort to see that our children are educated under the most perfect conditions available.

Thanking you I beg to remain

Yours truly,
HENRY B. WATSON.

CITY FERRIES

To the Electors of North Vancouver:

I have decided to run for the Ferry Board for 1911 and take this opportunity of asking for the favor of your votes.

My policy includes

(1) The retention of the present cheap book of tickets.

(2) The reduction of the price of monthly tickets in proportion with the above.

(3) Full provisions for the comfort and convenience of travellers both on the wharves and boats.

(4) Rigorous prosecution of any persons who take advantage of these privileges in order to defraud the company.

(5) The employment of good men at good wages and with, so far as practicable, one day's holiday in seven in all departments of the service.

COLIN H. JACKSON.

To the Electors of the City of North Vancouver:

Ladies and Gentlemen,—I have been repeatedly asked to become a candidate for alderman. For personal reasons I have been reluctant, but it has been urged that my experience would be of value to our young city and I have agreed to allow my name to go forward.

I am well enough known and my past eight years of work among you speaks for itself. I am not out to serve any personal or sectional interest but to help to promote the upbuilding of a great city on the North Shore.

Drainage and good streets are the urgent needs of our city and by business like methods these should soon be met. Economy, fair dealing and social order are always essentials in civic life.

If elected I will diligently work to obtain the best for our city that is possible of attainment.

I am, ladies and gentlemen,

Yours faithfully,
ALEX. PHILIP.

THE "GOOD OLD TIMES"

In the early days one of the first inventions which men found it necessary to adopt for their own health and comfort was the sewer system. With the exception of the work of the ancient Greeks and Romans, who rivalled in many of their structural achievements the best work of today and laid down those principles which in many instances are followed by the leading exponents of the modern builders' art, the first sewers were crude and homely ditches. The Romans built their sewers of concrete from a natural cement. Portions of many of these sewers are in existence today showing that properly-mixed concrete is practically indestructible. Since that time various other materials have been tried in place of concrete but all of them have had their drawbacks. In fact, whenever sewer pipes have been made of concrete, properly mixed with a well washed aggregate, evenly tamped, and given a reasonable amount of time to mature, they have proved most satisfactory.

CAREFUL TAMPING ONE OF THE SECRETS

In the course of the discussion of a paper presented before the Concrete Institute of London last April by Mr. Herbert E. Brooks who was commenting on Mr. Sidney H. Chambers' paper upon the effects of sewage and sewage gases on the Portland cement concrete this fact was very well brought out. Referring to a book recently issued by Max Gary, the well known chief of the Royal Testing Station for building materials in Berlin, Mr. Brooks said that he was surprised to find a number of towns in Germany where the officials reported the existence of concrete pipe sewers forty years of age and over. The Concrete Union of Germany, in discussing this question, he said, had laid great emphasis upon the necessity of careful tamping which would greatly minimize, if not altogether resist, the dangers of chemical action.

THE DOMINION GLAZED CEMENT PIPE for sewers is machine-tamped—not a question of the spasmodic energy of human muscle. Every blow a seventy pound one and 400 of them to the minute guarantees the densest tamping possible.

After the tamping the "green" pipes are removed from the molds and put aside to set. When they have been allowed the proper length of time to mature they become absolutely fitted for sewerage service.

WILL EXTEND WATERWORKS

The directors of the Elk Creek Waterworks Co. Ltd. of New Westminster are preparing to expend about $40,000 towards improving and extending the waterworks system in the valley. It is the intention of the company to put in another main, ten inches in diameter, from the intake and carry it down from Elk Creek to the reservoir on Shannon Mountain. This new main will not parallel the eight-inch main already in service, but will be brought down by way of Rosedale, that that enterprising and growing village share in the advantages of a waterworks as well as other parts of the valley. From Rosedale the water will be brought along the Yale Road to Shannon mountain and help to supply the needs of New Westminster.

A rowing and aquatic club with a club house at some point at the eastern portion of the city on Hope River is the latest sporting circle movement at Chilliwack.

GOOD ROADS

The Oregon Good Roads State Association held a remarkable representative meeting at Portland recently. Dr. Andrew C. Smith, president of the Good Roads, presided. More than two hundred supervisors responded to the invitation of the meeting and eight or ten county judges from the leading counties. Among those especially active in the meeting from among the county judges were: John F. Hall, of Coos County; J. C. Henry, of Union; and H. W. Thompson of Lane. Among the delegates were Frank M. Fretwell of Seattle, secretary of the Pacific Highway Association, and Ernest McGaffey, representing the Victoria branch of the Vancouver Island Development of Vancouver Island, B. C., and Board of Trade of Victoria.

Five laws were taken up, section by section, and argued thoroughly, but without any noticeable friction in the debate. The main feature of the meeting was the appointment of a Board of Highway Commissioners and a State Highway Board, to carry on the work. One resolution introduced took up the question of the taxation of automobiles and it was significant that this resolution was introduced by the automobile people themselves. Quite a spirited discussion took place on this resolution, but there was no disposition on the part of any automobile owner present, nor indeed, on the part of any manufacturer or agent present, to evade a reasonable tax upon automobiles, provided such tax was made reasonable and the proceeds used entirely for the maintenance and oiling of roads. A great deal of interest was taken in the question of a line of permanent travelled highways and the manner of locating the roads under the section relating thereto considered, was left entirely to the county courts of the respective courts.

COMMUNICATIONS

RE SCHOOL

Editor Express:

Allow me to reply briefly to what I consider to be a misleading statement in Mr. Wilson's notice to the electors in your Christmas number of the Express, i.e. * * *grave mistakes have been made lately, North Lonsdale school * * commenced at a cost of $12,000 * * * now passed the $28,000 stage and is likely to go beyond $30,000.

Now, there is absolutely no foundation for any of these figures except it might be the first, which I understand to be an out-of-date idea of the school board as to what they would build. Where did the other figures come from? There has been one price on the school from the start. This has not been altered to date, one dollar up or down, unless the new school board should decide to make additions or finish the upper story, there can be no extra cost to the building.

The Board, however, on the suggestion of the architects in charge, did take advantage of adding, I consider, at least $1,000 to the worth of the building by seizing the opportunity which the situation alone offered, of building a 24-ft. solid stone basement wall in place of the brick when they discovered that enough stone could be found near the grounds and only required a little extra time in which to build it in without extra cost to the city.

It has been my experience, Mr. Editor, in the education of children, that one of the most essential and yet as a rule one of the most difficult things to impress on a child's mind is to SPEAK AND ACT THE TRUTH and it is sad to think that even some of our clever business men have not been so impressed during the years of preparation. Am I right in saying that those at the head of the educational department at least should be an example for our children.

H. W. YOUNG

ELECTION QUERIES

Editor Express:

*Permit me, sir, the privilege of re*plying through your columns to the questions asked of civic candidates by our Ratepayers' Association.

1. I will gladly encourage the installment of a gas producing plant when a feasible proposition is submitted. I strongly favor municipal ownership of all franchises that require a measure of control of our streets, but we must first be able to finance those works that are absolutely necessary.

2. My view has always been that the general revenue should provide the necessities of good wagon roads and at least 4-ft. sidewalks and keep existing roads in good repairs. Beyond that the local improvement plan will be found the most equitable.

3. The registered grades call for most careful reconsideration by a strong joint committee to be assembled as early as possible. As the plans now stand they satisfy no one and were not the results of deliberate judgment. I have no sectional feeling in the matter.

4, 5 and 7. I would oppose dividing the present small city area into wards. I strongly favor the extension of the city boundaries at an early date and as the doing of that may create a certain conflict of interest within the city ward divisions may become a necessity.

In my opinion the ideal future for the North Shore is that it become soon one great city under the care of a council and an executive. The executive might consist of the Mayor and two heads of departments to be elected biennially from each of four, five or six wards.

6. By all means let us levy no taxes on any industry here that is in any way handicapped by being here in their competition with other places. I do not favor cash bonuses.

8. Certainly householders should be enfranchised. They actually pay the taxes in their rents and they are building up our city by their energy and capital.

9. The Indian Act provides that streets can be opened up through Indian Reserves by municipal bylaw with consent of the Governor-General-in-Council. That course was first tried regarding Third street but the consent could not be had as the Indians would not approve. Regarding the sale of all *the Indian reserves here we must con*tinue to agitate till such an arrangement is made.

10. The present cemetery site is as suitable as can be found on the North Shore and any attempt to remove it now would be actively opposed wherever a location was sought.

11. The liquor license fee should not be less. If you make it more the liquor consumer will have to pay for it.

12. Clearly definable work should all be done by contract for many reasons. Other work should be done by day labor and it is an advantage to the city to have always in their pay a fair number of good reliable workmen.

I am,
ALEX. PHILIP.

BY-LAW NO. 146

A BY-LAW to enable the Corporation of the City of North Vancouver to grant aid to the Wallace Shipyards Limited, by exemption from Municipal taxation and water rates.

WHEREAS the Wallace Shipyards Limited, an industry established within the Municipal limits has represented to the Council of the City of North Vancouver that it proposes to enlarge its plant by building larger and longer wharves, extending its machine shops, installing a foundry plant and to enter into the salvage business and for that purpose to build or purchase a suitable steamer equipped with the latest and most powerful pumps, etc.

AND WHEREAS the said Company has requested the Council to submit for the assent of the Electors a By-Law to enable the City to grant aid to the Company by exemption from municipal taxation and water rates for a period not exceeding ten years.

AND WHEREAS the said Company agreed to enter into an agreement with the city providing inter alia for enlarging their plant as above set out and for that purpose for expending during the year 1911 the sum of at least Thirty Thousand ($30,000.00) Dollars, and a further sum of at least Thirty Thousand ($30,000.00) Dollars during the year 1912, and to continuously carry on the business of shipbuilding exclusively within the City of North Vancouver during the said period of ten years; the minimum annual pay roll of the Company to be at least Forty Thousand ($40,000.00) Dollars during the continuance of the period for which such aid may be given;

AND WHEREAS the business carried on by the said Company does not and is not intended to compete with any manufacturing industry or enterprise already established and carrying on its operations within the Municipal limits;

AND WHEREAS the Council has consented to submit the said By-Law as requested,

THEREFORE the Mayor and Aldermen of the City of North Vancouver in open meeting assembled (with the consent of the Electors of the said City duly obtained) enacts as follows:

1. The Council of the City of North Vancouver doth hereby, subject to the conditions and terms herein set out, grant aid to the Wallace Shipyards, Ltd., an industry established within the Municipal limits of the City of North Vancouver, by exempting the said industry from the payment of municipal taxes and water rates for a period not exceeding ten years.

2. Before the exemption mentioned and set out in the foregoing paragraph shall take effect or be in force the Wallace Shipyards Ltd. shall enter into an agreement with the City of North Vancouver, the terms of which shall be satisfactory to the Council of the said city by which the said Wallace Shipyards, Ltd. shall agree forthwith to enlarge their plant by building larger and longer wharves extending their machine shops, installing a foundry plant and purchasing a suitable steamer to engage and carry on salvage business and in carrying out such purposes to expend during the year 1911 the sum of at least Thirty Thousand ($30,000.00) Dollars and a further sum of at least Thirty Thousand ($30,000.00) Dollars during the year 1912 and to carry on continuously during the said period of exemption the business of shipbuilding exclusively at the City of North Vancouver, B. C., and to employ during said year sufficient employees in the conduct of said business so that the minimum annual pay roll of the Company shall be at least Forty Thousand ($40,000.00) Dollars in each and every year.

3. The time for the commencement of the exemption hereby granted by way of aid shall be the 1st day of January, 1911, and the expiry of the same shall be the 31st day of December, 1920. The water exempt from the payment of water rates under this By-law is only to be used by the Company on its premises in carrying on the business of shipbuilding and shall not exceed 35,000 cubic feet in any one month.

4. Failure on the part of the Wallace Shipyards, Ltd. to observe and comply with each and every of the conditions expressed in this By-law or in the contract to be made hereunder shall render this By-law null and void and any exemption hereby granted shall thereupon cease and determine.

5. All expenses, legal and otherwise in connection with this By-law including the costs of submission to the electors shall be paid by the Company to the City of North Vancouver on demand.

6. The books of the Company shall be open at all reasonable times to the inspection of an auditor to be appointed by the City for that purpose.

7. The property of the Company herein exempted from taxation are Lots Seven (7), Eight (8), Nine (9), Ten (10), Eleven (11), and Twelve (12) in Block One Hundred and Seventy-six (176) District Lot Two Hundred and Seventy-four (274) together with the waterfront and foreshore rights appertaining thereto,

8. This By-law shall come into effect on the 17th day of January, 1911.

9. This By-Law may be cited for all purposes as the "Wallace Shipyards, Limited Aid By-Law, 1911."
