Natural Resources Maverick Branded With the Letter L

The following was published in the Vancouver Saturday Sunset, of November 26, at the instigation of its townsite-promoting clients, in order to discredit the Northern Development Co., and those forming the directorate, of which Mr. Cooke is a member:

BY THE MAVERICK "BRUCE."

"Everyone remembers the almost tragic death of John Houston last winter, how the veteran pioneer newspaperman, sick and down, started on the long journey at the end of which he met his death, over a hundred miles of wintry trail, camping in the snow at night, through the forest to Quesnel, where he hoped to get medical attendance. He was accompanied by Cooke. Cooke went as his friend, a good Samaritan. When John Houston died Cooke rendered a bill running into hundreds of dollars for his time and expenses in helping John Houston out. Whether the bill, which was an exorbitant one in any event was ever paid by the estate I do not know, but that Cooke TRIED TO COLLECT it I do know. And this is one of the men associated with Nick Clarke in the exploitation of the South Fort George wildcat townsite which has been advertised far and wide to the public as a desirable investment."

Now read the other side. It is a copy of a letter forwarded from Nelson to the Sunset by H. Houston, J. Houston's heir:

BY THE BRANDER HOUSTON.

NELSON, B.C., Dec. 15, 1910.

Editor Saturday Sunset, Vancouver.

Dear Sir: My attention has just been called to an article which appeared in a recent issue of your paper, in which you state that Wm. F. Cooke of South Fort George tried to take advantage of the death of John Houston, by rendering his estate an exorbitant bill for services rendered in bringing out the late Mr. Houston from South Fort George to Quesnel at the time of his fatal sickness last winter.

As the executor of my late Uncle John Houston's estate, I simply state that your article is untruthful.

Cooke disbursed some money which was given to him by my uucle before his death, in paying transportation, medical attendance and other necessary expenses, but for his own time and expenses, he received nothing, excepting my thanks; and when I offered to try and compensate him, he refused, saying that he liked the old man and was only too glad that he had been of some service.

If there ever was a good Samaritan it surely was Billy Cooke on the trail with John Houston last winter.

Cooke sent me a statement, itemized and with all receipts attached, in which he gave me an account for the money which he had spent for my late uncle, and as I have said before, not one dollar went to W. F. Cooke.

You have done Mr. Cooke a great injustice, and I hope you will publish this letter to make amends, as far as you can. Yours truly,

HARRY HOUSTON.

There is little need to further emphasize the too glaring fact that the Vancouver Sunset is a liar. The public can do that without much hesitation. Upon that point there is no discussion. In mathematics once a proposition has been demonstrated it is never after contested.

"Bruce," the imp or the pimp—(both terms fit admirably)—of the Natural Resouces Co., limited liability townsite promoters, who have townsites in red strewn all over British Columbia, from the geographical centre of the province to the distant Massett, in the Pacific ocean, is waxing fat and bold from the proceeds of advertising nauseous literature for fugitives from American justice who are circulating their wares in every village and hamlet on both of the continents — North and South American. But that makes "Bruce" none the less a princely liar. On no point does he attempt the truth, with respect to South Fort George or any other section of the province. He was kicked out of the Similkameen and driven off a public platform in the same place for being too drunk for utterance. He takes alms from promoters, and during his last summer's tour through the district carried St. Hammond's staff perched high above the "multitude" of twenty employees in the double-barrelled townsite of Central-Fort George.

"Bruce" worships the Natural Resurces Co. because it helps him to pay for the red ink he uses in his empty picture paper. He kisses the slimy hand of a law-breaker because he needs the money with which to liquidate his drink bill. The Natural Resources are no philanthropists. Not much. They are not possessed of love for mankind, and never yet have shown a readiness to do a manly act. They get measure for measure, pound for pound, and the flesh is "bled white" before they eschew it.

Why this white-livered ass should have fallen into the error that he could resuscitate the Un-Natural Resources townsite on the Nechaco, is incredible, for he is a jest in journlism, a veritable Boccaccio, who never had a red cent till he straddled the ford of matrimony. Poor fool. Go back to your new kennel in the Bower block. You were too long in the hospitable quarters of the Winch building.

AN ASSET FOR THE NEXT ELECTION

G. H. Barnard, M. P., Victoria, introduced a bill in the federal house to amend the Fisheries act, by providing that no gill net licenses be issued on the Pacific coast to anyone not physically qualified for service in the Canadian naval service. Mr. Barnard said 85 per cent. of the licenses are now held by Orientals, and the bill is designed to preserve the fisheries for Canadian citizens. The bill was given its first reading.

LOCAL OPTION

Chilliwack and Prince Rupert, on the 13th, voted down the local option bylaw, which was, under the Dominion government act, submitted to the electorate in British Columbia for the first time.

At Prince Rupert local option was defeated by 272 to 169, the smallness of the vote being due to the fact that the old Dominion voters' list was utilized.

At Chilliwack local option went down before a vote of 132 to 107. The total vote was 246, seven ballots being spoilt.

IN TORONTO THE HOLY.

Incensed at the installation of pay-as-you-enter cars in Toronto The Orderly, fifteen thousand people gathered in Massey hall, recently, adjourned to the street and wrecked the objectionable cars. The police were powerless. Eighteen persons were injured.

WANT INDIAN QUESTION TAKEN INTO COURT.

A conference between the friends of the Indians of British Columbia and the Provincial government was held in Victoria on the 15th instant. The deputation consisted of His Lordship Bishop Perrin, Rev. Canon A. E. Omeara, Rev. T. W. Gladstone, Arthur Hinder, Edward Coventry, Arthur Lee and F. C. Wade, K. C. They were met by the Premier and Hon. Mr. Bowser and Hon. Wm. Ross.

The deputation presented a memorial in which they asked the Provincial government to consent to a reference to the Supreme court and the privy council in order to determine just what, if any, are the rights of the Indians of British Columbia in unserrendered lands. Also the deputation asked that in the event of such reference being agreed to the Indians should be represented by independent counsel. The premier promised a reply in writing at an early date.

Provincial Land Surveyor Landry is at the Chilaco Gardens for a week

CITY AND DISTRICT

The winter weekly mail came in at 5:15 Monday — three-quarters of an hour earlier than is usually the case. It was a heavy mail. The South Fort George mail was distributed before the village bags were removed from the postoffice. They were returned from the woods, however, in good order, about nine o'clock. This is considered good time, even in a holiday week.

F. O'Flaherty believes in the simple life, and accordingly spent his Christmas holidays in Chilaco Gardens, away from tumultuous, bubbling and trying times of Christmas in a busy spot like South Fort George.

Wm. Kennedy, the merchant, left on Monday's stage for the coast.

The Natural Resources "corn starch" Tribune says American and Vancouver capitalists are going to build one dozen new stores on Fraser avenue. They will not if they see the place first. They may dig graves for promoters, instead. The $10-baiters are playing up strongly for the second and third payments, and since the Natural Resources' northern advertising organ circulates solely among the duped dupes, it is necessary to publish from time to time stimulating whiffs of never-to-be consummated activity. And the government allows these vandals an open hand in their pocket-picking. Awful state of morals.

The surveying party in charge of W. K. Gwyer completed work on the survey revision between Popkin and Hope, on the Canadian Northern last week. This was the last link between Lytton and Vancouver. The contract on the twenty miles between Popkin and Hope will be let in the spring, by which time other contracts will also be able to be awarded, as the revised surveys from Lytton to Kamloops and on up the North Thompson will then be completed.

Among the communications received by the Quesnel Conservative association last week, was one from Martin Burrell, which stated that the twice-a-week winter mail service to Quesnel from Ashcroft, was being taken up with the government officials at Ottawa.

W. H. Seward, of the Board of Education of Alberta, is in Ireland the troubled, chasing up one thousand school teachers for Alberta. He should bring over one thousand and one, and send the odd one over to the promoting school—at Central.

A Savona hotel proprietor sold liquor in an old beer bottle a week or so ago, and it cost him $100. The new liquor act says that old bottles must have new labels when refilled.

The display of fresh made candy in the windows of Wm. Blair & Co., the past fortnight, has been a source of relief to those who in the past have been accustomed to whet their appetites with outside productions with no other merit than old age to recommend them. The exhibit occupied the entire front of the store, and included all known varieties. This new line in South Fort George is the product and prelude to the establishment of a wholesale candy manufacturing company, which Mr. W. Thorne is now perfecting and which will be established in his premises on Fourth street, constructed specially for the purpose. The ovens and all the necessary paraphernalia have been ordered from the coast. By April, Mr. Thorne expects to be occupying his new wholesale and retail premises.

The last shot in the Fort George Canyon for 1910 was blown off yesterday and Foreman Neden leaves today for his home in Revelstoke after three months spent at that point.

The New Year's dance and supper given in the McGaghren-Thorne hall last evening by Messrs. W. F. Cooke and P. Landry, to a large number of their friends, was an unqualified success. At midnight an adjournment was made to the Northern hotel, where the company sat down to supper, and after ample justice had been done to the inner man, a retreat was made to the hall, where dancing was resumed till a late hour.

Father Cocola is expected to arrive here Monday on his annual visit to Fort George. Three Indians left for Stuart lake the middle of the week to convey the priest here.

Malcolm McNiven, the government road superintendent, came in from Barkerville on Saturday, and is figuring on building a ferry across the Nechaco river, at the most suitable point, to connect with the Giscombe Portage trail or wagon road. Speaking about the possibility of construction of the new road from Quesnel to South Fort George, next spring, on the east side of the Fraser, he believes it can be made forty miles shorter than the present Blackwater road, and the grades will be lighter than those on the latter one. Once construction begins there will be labor for about two hundred able-bodied politicians.

Fort George Commercial Club and its Baited Hook

Here is the pink of bait—fresh golden salmon row — for the myriads of "suckers" in the east and elsewhere. It is taken from the American Review of Reviews for December. Read it carefully and you will observe the absence of any reference being made to the Natural Resources who evidently are ashamed of their name, and have substituted in its stead "Commercial Club of Fort George." The Commercial Club is a myth. It is made up of twelve employees of the Natural Resources, stationed at their townsite in the woods, exactly four miles from where the business of the district is carried on. If this should drop on any wavering optic, we repeat a dear old refrain: "Don't buy on paper. Come and see the country, and if you want to gaze on an ideal site for a graveyard, we will drive you to Central Fort George."

"It is all good, clean money, too," would make an old wintered-out Fort George horse laugh.

The little dummy of the N. R. C. reads:

MONEY is being made by those who invest in town lots at the beginning of Western Canada's future industrial and commercial centre, than in any other way. It is estimated that was made in the year ending July 1, 1910, by those who had the foresight and courage to make such investments.

IT IS ALL GOOD, CLEAN MONEY, TOO

You can invest as little as $10 per month and get your share of it. Let us tell you about Fort George, the last great metropolis of North America, and other opportunities for investment in lands, business openings, etc., in British Columbia.

Extend Areas of Game Reserves

A considerable addition has been made by the government to the areas set apart in the province as game preserves. An order-in-council adds a large tract to the preserve at Lillooet and to the preserve at Fort George. It also sets apart permanently the district east of the Kootenay river, from which, for the past four years, hunters have been excluded by annual proclamation.

The extension of the already existing game preserve at Lillooet is described as follows:

Commencing at a point at the foot of the mountain on the south side of the North Fork of the Bridge River opposite the mouth of Four-Mile creek; thence in a northeasterly direction, following Four-Mile creek to its headwaters; thence westerly to the headwaters of the Yalakon creek to the North Fork of the Bridge; thence across the North Fork of the Bridge river to the foot of the mountain; thence in a southeasterly direction following the foot of the mountain to the point of commencement.

The extension of the Fort George reserve is thus described:

Commencing at a point at the forks of the Fraser river; thence in an easterly direction following the summit of the range to the mouth of the Clearwater river; thence following the south fork of the Fraser river to Ptarmigan creek; thence southerly following Ptarmigan creek to the summit of the range; thence easterly following the summit of the range to Goat creek, to its junction with the south fork of the Fraser river; thence following the south fork of the Fraser river to the mouth of McLaughlin creek; thence following McLaughlin creek in a northerly direction to its headwaters; thence from the headwaters of McLaughlin creek an unnamed creek running into the south fork of the north fork of the Fraser river; thence in a westerly direction following the south fork of the north fork of the Fraser river to the point of commencement.

Nominated for Cariboo Sheriff

E. S. Peters was nominated at the meeting of the Conservative association Thursday night for recommendation to the government for the appointment as sheriff of the Cariboo district to fill the vacancy created by the resignation of John Stevenson, of Barkerville, who has held this office, together with the assessorship, for a number of years, says the Observer of Dec. 17. The other candidate was McGavin Andrews. Two votes were taken, the first resulting in a tie, 14 to 14. Under ordinary practice the president would, at this point, cast the decidiug vote, but upon looking up the constitution this was not provided for in the rules of procedure laid down there. This was, therefore, left to those present to decide, and on a show of hands, it was determined that another vote be taken. On the counting of this ballot Peters was elected 15 to 13.

Mr. Peters has but recently come to Quesnel from Fraser lake and is employed at the John A. Fraser store. He has been in the Cariboo country for a great many years, having been in the service of the Hudson's Bay company until quite recently. He has had charge of the Hudson's Bay posts at Fort Fraser, Fort George, Stoney Creek and other points. It is his intention to bring his family, a wife and five children to Quesnel at an early date, making this his future home.

Gambling in Potatoes Now

Gambling in potatoes in dear old London is the latest, and the humble potato is coming into its own. In South Fort George gambling in potatoes is an old game, and the edges of excitement have worn themselves threadbare. In the spring and summer time potatoes sell from six cents up. At the present time they retail anywhere from 12½ to 25c per pound. One feature adding to the joy of the consumer is the freight toll on the succulent Irish commodity exacted by the kings of the road—the freighters—who charge six cents per pound from Quesnel to Fort George, a distance of 105 miles. We are certain the Maverick on the Saturday Sunset, in company with other politicians, would say that there is a measure of truth in the fact that the cost of living is going up.

For the benefit of those who deal in potatoes here we publish a late London despatch:

"It is now possible to gamble in potatoes just as easily as in rubber, wheat or cotton. During the past three weeks potatoes have gone up $1 a ton, though they are smaller in size than they have been for two or three years past. In a few cases potatoes last week reached the high price of $20, and, in one case—that of the Longworthy variety — $22 a ton.

"One reason why potatoes are dear this year is that large quantities are going to France, and that fewer acres of land have been devoted to growing them.

"'In Lincolnshire in 1909, 71,800 acres of land were growing potatoes,' said a well-known dealer. 'This year there are only 64,400 acres Eight tons of potatoes go to the acre, so it will be seen there is considerably less supply. Not a few potato growers and buyers have, during the past few weeks, made little fortunes by speculating in potatoes. Several men in Lincolnshire have made a few hundred dollars apiece in two or three weeks.'

"Potato buyers who bought up potato crops a month ago at, say, $10 a ton, or $80 an acre, sold them at a good profit during the past week."

Constable with no Official Residence

The paternal provincial government gave us an early Christmas present last month in the shape of a constable. But the small details of providing suitable quarters for the conduct of the extensive government business here was not provided for by the attorney-general. Sending a constable from Victoria to South Fort George, a distance of six hundred miles, without providing a tent or quarters, or making provision of any kind in which to dispense the initial in the justice mill, is like a hunter out after game with an empty ammunition pouch.

It is hardly the correct thing to have to go to an hotel in order to lay a complaint, but there is no alternative in South Fort George, unless the constable is waylaid on the streets.

The government is evidently too poor to even rent a cabin, buy a tent or erect a mansion. And prosperity reigns everywhere.
