Dearest Rosalind & Barbecma.

To celebrate Feb. 6 1889,
I sent hereby, with Aunt Florence's much love,
the 7 last Vols. of Gardiner.
You appeared to wish to begin with Cromwell - But the first 3 Vols (James) are really among the best, where all is best, for the 'higher Criticism', the drawing out of the spirit of facts. I need only mention
Vol III p.p. 73,
152,
240 - - - Churches.

the opening Chapter of Vol I especially p. 17. Calvinism & Catholicism

So I shall send you these three Vols to Sunbury, with great interest in your interest, my 'commères'.

I also send F. Harrison's Cromwell believing that Cromwell interests you particularly;

Dearest Rosy

Thanks very many for your valuable pamphlet "English Labour".

& for what is coming.

I send you Longfellow, but ~~Longfellow~~ are your Kensington Commères at all worthy of it?

The highest success to you all at Embley, in every sense of the word, is Aunt Florence's loving wish.
