ask particularly how Mrs Vaughan Nash & the baby are but don't ask them to write

My dear Mr. Vaughan I am so grateful to you for writing to me.
And I trust that all is going on right & day-
And because it is probable that Little Boy ~~May~~ has expensive
tastes in drefs & in Milk,
I offer as his birth day
present ~~a fi pun-note~~,
a sordid ten-pun-note
I mean.

Doubtlefs

he keeps accounts.
I offer to his dear
mother tenderest love
Her little room looks South, I hope, & receives the Sun – that Sun
which no one can buy,
not even with a ten-pun-
note
And I am sure you are a capital Nurse &
keep her in a delightfu

(not a morose) stillness.

Yours affectionately

F.N.
