B. 17

India Office Feby 2d 1877.

My dear Miss Nightingale

Will there be any chance of my finding you disengaged, & able to give me a few minutes on Thursday about 3 P.M.? I have been so battered about in different directions that I have been unable to ask you to let me see you - & it is now uncertain

whether I may not be spirited away in some unforeseen
direction between this & next week -
But if there were a chance of finding
you disengaged, either

Thursday, or any other day after Tuesday next week, I should like to try & have the pleasure of telling you some of the many things I have to tell you, if possible, before I go.

Believe me ever
Dear Miss Nightingale
yours very sincerely &
faithfully
W M Teare