WEST FORK ROAD.

TO THE EDITOR: After reading a number of articles in the columns of the Miner signed Correspondence and others, with reference to the Greenwood board of trade and the West Fork wagon road, I think in justice to at least some of the members of that body that an explanation is necessary in order that an organization such as the Greenwood board of trade may not be unjustly condemed. It is a well known fact to at least a good many of the business men of Greenwood and vicinity that it has done a great deal of good and if it is used for the purpose it was organized for it would be to Greenwood what similar organizations are to other cities.

You will no doubt agree with me when I say that the Greenwood board of trade was not organized for the purpose of being used as an instrument to make capital for a few of its members who had an axe to grind or to bring water to their own mill. In this case there is no doubt in my mind but that it was made use of for the above purposes. I think that some of the members will remember when the Victoria board of trade acted in a somewhat similar manner when the people of this district were aiding Mr. Corbin to obtain the Kettle river railway charter that a meeting of the Victoria board of trade was held and a majority of the members present were C. P. R. officials, and in fact I was told by a member of that body that there were only two disinterested members present. What was the result? A resolution was passed condemning the application for the charter, and it was telegraphed to Ottawa and placed in the hands of the railway committee. It is unnecessary for me to state the amount of harm that resolution did to this section of British Columbia. I merely cite this case to show the people of the West Fork country that this is not the first instance in which a board of trade had been used for purposes other than it was organized for, and I claim that it is unfair to condemn the Greenwood board of trade as a whole because a few of the members or so-called members saw an opportunity to use it for purposes other than its organization called for.

Under these circumstances and being a member of the Greenwood board of trade since its formation, I think that I am voicing the sentiment of a majority of the members when I contend that they hold the same view as I do as regards this matter, and I can assure the public that at no time would they be a party to such a dastardly scheme (as I cannot call it by any other name at the present time.) At the same time I am satisfied had it not been for the efforts put forth by this body that the grant for the West Fork wagon road would not have been obtained at the last session of the legislature; if so then I claim the board of trade work should have ceased any more than to ask that the work be proceeded with at once and left in the hands of those that are paid by the taxpayers of British Columbia for looking after the expenditure of public moneys, and I claim as a body that they have no right to say who should squander the people's money or dictate to the government who should be in charge of the work.

Now, Mr. Editor, in order to make this communication somewhat plain we will have to go a little further and take into our confidence the gentleman who had charge of this piece of work, and there is no doubt but those who were instrumental in obtaining this position for him are proud of his ability. I do not think so. This same gentleman poses as a competent man in his profession and I have no doubt but what he is, and I have this as further proof of his ability: I heard one of those active members of the board of trade say "that had it not been for this engineer the C. P. R. would never have been built through ths mountains." Well, we will take this for granted, and if so he certainly ought to be capable of building a wagon road. I heard C. Æ Shaw say in one of the meetings when asked what the road would cost completed to Beaverton, and his answer was: "Twelve thousand dollars, bridges included," with the proviso that he was to be in charge of the work. He appeared to be thinking very seriously, for he never lifted his eyes from the floor when he answered the question, and having worked on his estimates before placed no credence in his answer. Now, I believe that amount is already spent and there is less than five miles of this road graded. Of course there is a little more of the work done—principally engineering and a little bridge building—and I have no doubt but those people interested in that part of the country and the British Columbia government have learned a lesson that they will not forget for some time if even it is a debt paid. And I might say to any one who has come into this district in the past five years that a case almost identical to this occurred when they were building the road between Penticton and Grand Prairie. A certain road superintendent worked nearly a season with a very small crew trying to fill up a lake 60 feet deep. Now I think that nearly every one will agree with me when I say that on all public works of this kind where there are any supplies to be purchased (as there always are) to give each and every merchant handling those supplies an opportunity to figure on, which I am in a position to know he did not do. There are people in that line of business in this district who donated money to cut trails into this country so that people like the above could come in without a guide

Now I challenge Mr. Shaw to produce a copy of the vouchers ond bills and compare the prices with those of other people who buy a like amount of goods of the same kind. This alone should prove to any fair thinking man that there was a "nigger in the fence," or in other words, you help me and I will help you.

Another matter I would like to draw your attention to and that of the provincial government—did Mr. Shaw or did he not draw a salary from the government while he was in Greenwood working in his own interest, or while he was in the city of Nelson working, perhaps, for a private party. I presume, if this matter was looked into, that it would be found that he was absent from the works one month during the time he had charge of ft. Now, as a taxpayer, I do not think that we should be called upon to pay a man a salary while he is working for himself and other private parties, and I certainly think the matter will have to be investigated in order to do justice to all parties concerned.

In conclusion I have, as far as possible, "hewn to the line, let the chips fall where they may." I have made mention of no names unless it was of the engineer who was supposed to be in charge of the work. Nor is it my wish to create any ill-feeling, but to point out to the people that were not in a position to know, as near as possible how and where all of this trouble came from, and if possible protect in a messure innocent people. THOS. HARDY,
Mayor.

THE CAMPAIGN.

Duncan Ross has not promised to build an elevator from the Bank of Montreal to the club rooms.

Dr. Jakes has not promised to use his influence to induce the present police magistrate to resign. For further particulars ask the hotel keepers or the Ross committee.

Neither of the candidates has promised to create the position of sleighmaker to the corporation and appoint T. B. Winnett.

The Greenwood correspondent of the Nelson Tribune must have been working his "graft" on the Ross faction.

After eloquent declamations by the two labor leaders from the North ward, the trades council still declined to endorse Mr. Ross. The members of the trades council are surely becoming unappreciative of oratory.

It is not true that W. J. Kirkwood has decided not to run in the North ward. Mr. Kirkwood is in the fight until the North ward is civilized.

CHRISTMAS PRESENTS.

Mr. J. E. Daniels, United States collector of customs of Northport, was in the city Wednesday on a business visit. He says that there seems to be a mistaken idea of some people that Christmas gifts can be sent from Canada into the United States without paying duty. This is not true, as the United States collects duty on all merchandise sent into that country from abroad. The duty on goods sent from this city must be prepaid to Mr. Daniels at Northport. Mr. J. H. Crichett, the customs house broker at Northport, will attend to clearing goods sent from here and packages consigned to him will receive proper attention and be forwarded to their destination. A good many presents were sent last Christmas from Canada to the United States soldiers fighting in the Philippines. Mr. Daniels wrote to the department at Washington asking if they could not be allowed to go through free of duty. The department replied that the customs law allowed no such exceptions and therefore the duty must be collected.—Rossland Miner.

FOR AULD LANG SYNE.

Ladies of Canada:

"Should old acquaintance be forgot?" The answer comes mechanically from every Britisher. Nor should new acquaintance be forgot. Remember that on the bloody fields of South Africa your brave soldier boys were on the firing line, flanked by loyal British subjects from Ceylon and India. In the midst of danger lasting friendships were formed, and you ladies of Canada, have it in your power to cement those bonds. The Green teas of Ceylon and India appeal to you from sentiment. By using them you not only aid your brother colonists, but you get absolutely the best tea. Those of you who drink Green Japan teas have a revelation in store if you make the change. Blue Ribbon, Salada and Monsoon packets may be had from your grocer.—Colonist.

HICKS-HUGILL.

On Wednesday evening, at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. James Palmer, the Rev. Mr. Anderson married Captain T. A. Hicks of the Thirty-Fifth regiment Canadian volunteers, and Miss Emma Hugill, both new arrivals in Greenwood, from the town of Pine Grove, York county, Ont., where until six weeks ago, Captain Hicks has been doing business as a miller and general merchant. The bridesmaid was Miss Grant of Greenwood, and the groom was ably assisted by Captain G. Gabrell, of Shelburne, Ont., a popular young officer of the same regiment who contemplates going into business with Captain Hicks in Phoenix. Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. Palmer Mrs. F. Steele, Mrs. W. F. Smith, Mr and Mrs. D. Hardy, and Messrs. Grant, M. H. Kane, T. Kane, J. F. Rodgers and Duval. The usual toasts were proposed wishing the newly married couple happiness and prosperity. Mr. and Mrs. Hicks will reside in Phoenix.

MARRIED.

On Saturday evening, the 15th inst., at the Swayne house, Harry E. Johnston of Greenwood, and Dora Palmer of Maplewood, N. B., were married, Rev. B. H. Balderston officiating.

Harry E. Roulinier and Emma C. Nelson were married by Rev. B. H. Balderston on Wednesday evening last in the Windsor hotel.

DR. JAKES MEETING.

Upward of fifty electors were present at Dr. Jakes organization meeting held last evening in the committee rooms, Copper street. Mr. Clive Pringle occupied the chair, and a central committee of seven was appointed, representing the various interests of the city. Subcommittees will be appointed this evening for the purpose of carrying the campaign to a successful conclusion. Dr. Jakes was enthusiastically received when called upon to make a speech. He said that previous to consenting to run he had received assurances from both parties in municipal politics that his acceptance would tend towards harmony in the city. He deplored the feeling that had existed during the past two years, which had resulted in serious injury to the business interests and the credit of the city He had not expected opposition from Mr. Ross or his friends, but had hoped, being first in the field, that his acceptance of the candidacy for mayor would have been received by both parties, as it was intended, as an attempt to unite all for the common good of the city. If elected he would act independently and impartially on all questions coming before the council. He was in the fight to stay, and asked those present to deny the statements being circulated that he intended to retire. Speeches were made by Messrs. Pringle, Brown, Bannerman, Sullivan, McLeod, Keith and McArthur.

UNION LABEL — TYPOGRAPHICAL — GREENWOOD

SATURDAY, DECEMBER 22. 1900.

IF THE supporters af Mr. Ross were desirous of healing up the differences between the two factions in city affairs they would drop out of the contest and allow Dr. Jakes to be elected by acclamation. It is presumed that the doctor has not become more of a Hardyite or less independent than he was a year ago. At that time Mr. J. J. Caulfield, who is now chairman of the Ross committee, together with Mr. Ralph Smailes, waited on Dr. Jakes and asked him to become a candidate for mayor. These gentlemen were delegates appointed by a meeting at which Mr. Ross was present and to which he gave his consent. At that time the doctor was considered by Mr. Ross and Mr. Caulfield sufficiently independent to handle the city's affairs without favor to either party. These gentlemen must have considered him capable then or they would not have invited him to be a candidate. If they were sincere a year ago they most certainly are insincere now. If Mr. Caulfield and Mr. Ross are sincere in the wish for a united Greenwood they are taking a very peculiar course in opposing the man whom they asked to be a candidate a year ago. These are facts which neither Mr. Caulfield nor Mr. Ross will attempt to deny.

THE municipal campaign is still running along smoothly. Both parties are hard at work and are assiduously spreading the truth. Mr. Ross' committee has passed the period of enthusiasm and will lose supporters between now and election day, although Mr. Kirkwood, the campaign manager, will probably be able to avert a stampede, as he has had large experience in ward politics in California for a number of years. In the South Ward Aldermen Cropley, Sullivan and Sutherland, and Messrs. M. H. Kane, James Kerr, J. J. Caulfield and J. W. Nelson will probably be the candidates. In the North ward Alderman Bannerman and Messrs. Thomas Miller, A. E. Ashcroft, Geo. R. Naden and W. J. Kirkwood will make the run.

THE report of the investigation committee on the charges made by T. B. Winnett against Mike Elderman, city driver, was received by the city council at Monday night's meeting. The statement of Mr Galloway, chairman of the special committee, that "Winnett's charges were not substantiated by his own witness," settled the whole matter. It is to be regretted that Mr. Winnett made the charges without more substantial foundation than a vivid imagination.

THE tin-horn promoter is again trying to work prospectors in this district. He offers a large sum for a property but does not wish to pay any cash. His scheme is to form a stock company, giving the prospector one-third of the stock, he taking one-third, and one-third placed in the treasury. Out of the sale of treasury stock he agrees to pay from one to ten thousand dollars to the prospector. So far as the owner of the claim is concerned, the game might just as well be named "shell" or "three-card."

For a good meal try the Gem Restaurant, Werner & Pittock, proprietors, Copper street.

CITY COUNCIL.

The mayor and Aldermen Bannerman, Cropley, Galloway, Sullivan and Sutherland were present at the meeting of the city council Monday night. After reading and adoption of the minutes of the three previous meetings, a communication was read from W. E. Hodges applying for the position of city auditor. On motion the application was received and filed and Mr. Hodges appointed.

Alderman Galloway, chairman of the special committee on charges against Mike Elderman, city driver, made by T. B. Winnett, reported that he and Alderman Sutherland had investigated the charges and so far as the two principals were concerned would not favor granting a certificate for veracity. However, Mr. Winnett's witness could not corroborate statements made by Mr. Winnett, and so the matter stood just where it was. In reference to the charges made against the driver of draying he knew nothing. It was moved by Alderman Bannerman, seconded by Alderman Cropley, that the sleigh committee be thanked for the very able manner in which they had investigated the matter, and that the fire and light committee investigate Mr. Winnett's charges against city officials for draying without a license.

The following accounts were ordered paid: Caulfield & Lamont, $9.60; A. Mowat, $163.75; fire department $19.00; M. S. Butler, $22.00; Leamy & Gray, $2.50.

By-law No. 55, as amended to increase hawker's licenses, was read a second and third time.

The liquor license by-law was amended, reducing license to $300 per annum.

The police commissioner was instructed to enforce the provisions of the laundry by-law.

Street committee was instructed to take up the matter of street grades and have all profiles completed before the end of the year.

RESPECTFULLY SUBMITTED

To the Freeholders, Householders, License Holders, and Others Who by Divers and Sundry Means Have Acquired the Right, Title and Interest in One Undivided Vote. Greeting:

LADIES AND GENTLEMEN, HARDYITES AND ROSSITES: I have been requested by a majority of the electors and all of the compromisites to be your mayor for the year 1901. In accepting the position I feel it my duty to outline a policy that will meet with the approval of the anti-progressive element in the city.

I will make it my constant care to see that the original intentions of nature are not interfered with by the vandals known as street graders.

When an elector, more exalted than his neighbors, has erected a mansion as high above the street as his opinion of himself is above the ordinary mortal, I will not lower him to the level of the common herd by the vulgar means of street grades.

I will procure and make permanent a corps of expert witnesses to be used in defeating actions against the city, believing that one should fight fire with fire.

Although I have previously held aloof from the laboring people, and their endeavors to improve themselves have not at all times received my outspoken approval in the past, still I was secretly in sympathy with their efforts to better their condition. Believing that such an important voting strength of the city should receive just recognition and encouragement, I will insist on the street laborers come to work after the noon hour each day in regulation evening dress.

I will submit all questions of road building or street grading to the council of the board of trade or their engineer

I will close up the streets leading to Anaconda, thus forcing purchasers to the north end of the city.

I will, of course, be guided in important questions affecting the city by my intimate friends. It is not always advisable to let the public into questions affecting the inner workings of ward politics.

I wil expect, as remuneration for my services, $100 per month in advance. This sum is necessary, owing to the demands that will constantly be made upon me by my ward heelers.

I will appoint an inspector of vehicles for the city, the appointee being a specialist in his line. It will also be the duty of the inspector of vehicles to act as spotter on other officials.

I will build tramways to all the mining camps of the district. In the selection of an engineer to take charge of this work I will be guided by the wishes of the council of the board of trade.

Yours with a graft,
HERBERT GILHOOLEY-MCSWAT,
Compromise Candidate.

MUNICIPAL ELECTIONS, 1901.

To the Electors of the Municipality of the City of Greenwood.

LADIES AND GENTLEMEN:—I am a candidate for the office of mayor at the approaching municipal election, and respectfully solicit your votes and influence During the campaign I will have opportunities of explaining my views at length. Briefly stated, I am in favor of the following:

The present state of city finances and the stringency of the money market make it impossible to enunciate a well defined policy of public improvements. An adequate system of waterworks is necessary and also some suitable plan of sewering the city, but these and other improvements must be deferred until the city is in a better financial position. I confidently believe that by the exercise of wise judgment, the finances of the city can be placed upon such a sound footing that necessary public works can be constructed without placing excessive burdens upon the present taxpayers.

The credit of the city must be restored and maintained. Litigation should be avoided, and I am in favor of an amicable settlement with those who have just claims against the corporation.

If Greenwood is to occupy the prominence to which she is entitled by natural advantage, the city must be brought into the closest touch with the surrounding mining camps. During 1901 every effort should be made to secure the construction of the tramway without imposing additional burdens on the ratepayers beyond those to which they are already pledged.

The strength of every city, particularly one situated in the heart of a mining district, lies in its workingmen and its future depends upon them. I am in favor of recognizing their claims to proper protection. I believe eight hours should constitute a legal day's work and this principle should be adopted by the municipality. Generally speaking, I am in favor of municipal work being carried on by day labor, but in the event of contract work being necessary, I would insist that contractors should pay the current wage.

I am opposed to the employment of Chinese and the encouragement of Chinese immigration and any power granted to the corporation by the Municipal Clauses Act should be exercised to the fullest extent in restricting their employment in the city.

The mayor's time should be devoted to the work of the city. I am not rich enough to do this without compensation and if elected will expect a sufficient sum to properly represent the city without loss to myself.

The first of each year estimates should be prepared giving each section of the city an equitable share of the expenditure and these estimates should be religiously followed.

I am your obedient servant,
DUNCAN ROSS.

How is Your Eyesight?

I have made arrangements with

J. C. LANNERBERG.

the Eye Specialist of Rossland, B. C., to remain with me for some weeks. People with defective eyesight should not miss this opportunity.

There are many ailments due to defective eyesight, and many people suffer through life with headache and nervousness when relief can, in nearly all cases, be received by wearing a properly fitted pair of glasses.

Some people object strenuously to the wearing of glasses, especially by children, and express their fear that "if they once begin to wear them they are afraid they can never leave them off again." To fight against the assistance which art may supply in this direction is absurd. Why should not they be worn through life, if by their aid discomfort is removed and sight preserved, while through their lack, vision is indistinct, eye-pains or headache prevail, and the tendency is toward the destruction of the eye When the eyes feel tired through overwork a pair of glasses properly fitted will give instant relief and such glasses in many cases need to be worn for only a few months, and the benefit experienced will more than pay for any imaginary discomfort from wearing glasses.

With twenty years' experience in correcting chronic eye trouble, he feels well able to give the very best of satisfaction in the work, and when no aid can be had in restoring lost vision he will truthfully say so. All work guaranteed. Consultation free.
