PROBABLY ELECTION BEFORE CHRISTMAS

It is the general opinion in Parliamentary circles in Ottawa that a general election will be held before Christmas. The efficient opposition put up to the reciprocity measure has convinced the government that it will be impossible to force the agreement through without an appeal to the people. Both Liberals aud Conservatives have planned important political tours with a view to educate the people as to what is involved in reciprocity.

The bride was attended by Miss M. Hunter, who was becomingly gowned in Pink mull, she was also attended by her younger sister Ora Bell, who was dressed in white silk over pink, both carried shower bouquets of white carnations. The Groom, Mr. H. G. Painter was supported by Mr. A. W. Phair. Mrs. Lederwood, organist, and Mr. J.
