THE SEWER QUESTION NOW FINALLY SETTLED

City Council, After Protracted Meeting, Resolve to Pass Bye-Law and Readjust Schedule to Provide for Overdraft in Connection with Sewer Account in Accordance with Legal Advice.

A special meeting of the City Council was held in the city hall, on Friday evening the 12eh July. Mayor Sutherland took the chair, and Aldermen Abrahamson, Bourne, Barber, McSorley, McKinnon, were also present.

SEWERS

The meeting was called primarily to consider and arrive at some decision regarding the sewer deadlock and the councilors at once proceeded to discuss this matter.

City Clerk Lawson read a written opinion from Mr. G. S. McCarter, outlining the legal position of the city as the affair stood to date.

Ald. McKinnon—Mr. McCarter has given his opinion that the sewer is a unit within itself, and that the only manner in which this deficit can be raised, is by raising the frontage tax to $4.27 for a 25 foot frontage. I think gentlemen, there is nothing else we can do. We have estimated this year on ten thousand dollars coming in from these sewer arrears, and and which we expected to work thru on the fifty year basis. If we do not do something, we will be left going out, with a overdraft of between $11,500 and 12,000. The citizens of the town know that $10,000 in excess of the estimated cost, was spent in connection with the drainage and sewers, whether judiciously or otherwise is not a matter for us to decide, also that there is owing to unforeseen causes, an annual shortage on the existing frontage tax of about $1700 per annum. The people who spent this money were elected by the people and it is up to the people to pay for what they have done. $4f27 will be high, but it is not worse than other things, which have been done, and there seems no other way. The procedure would be to borrow $10,000 on the strength of this new by-law; the $4.27 would be payable for this year and for twenty years, being a re assessment increase of $1.07 per lot, or to be exact $1.06¼ per lot. The schedule would be changed from $3.16 to $4.26½. The bylaw will have to be advertised, I think this is the only channel which is left. The $10,000 over spent, has been estimated among the receipts for this year and we have just got to provide for it. We find that it would be impossible to make up the deficiency from the general rate, as this would be illegal Alderman McSorley—We have the legal opinion that this is the only way.

Alderman Barber—I think this matter will have to be considerably discussed.

Ald. Bourne—Would it be possible repay same out of the general fund. to borrow $12,000 from the bank and Mayor Sutherland, we have an opinion already that this would be illegal

Alderman Abrahamson—I have been thinking about this a long time, a certain percentage of the money expended for sewers was really spent on other work such as drains and they will have to show me where the city cannot pay a certain percentage of this, and show me where it would be illegal.

Ald. McKinnon—I regret having to do this, I thought we might be able to get away from it, I feel that we have come to the bridge, andwe must cross it. The people who spent this money were the representatives of the people, and we have got to repay the money that the representatives of the people spent. The people voted for the parties who put this sewer in, we have to repay this money. I positively refuse to go out with an overdraft We have had the opinion of everyone We have spent piles of money on schedules trying to fit in with these opinions, and we have failed to make these opinions and suggestions good, they have been turned down by the authorities.

Mayor Sutherland— I will put Mr. McKinnon's idea in the form of a motion, to test the feeling of the meeting.

Result of test vote—For, two; against, three.

Ald. Bourne—Why should we be in such a hurry to make good the mistakes of past councils.

Ald. McKinnon—We have to leave office without an overdraft and we must arrange some means of covering this sewer deficit. I ask those three councilors who voted against my proposal to kindly say how we are to meet this sum we are short, which has been spent or paid out rather, partly by this council.

The Mayor telephoned for Mr. McCarter, and on his arrival, the weary council again turned to their problem

After a long discussion, and after Mr. McCarter in a few terse words, had re iterated the legal aspects of the case, the following resolution was proposed by Alderman Bourne, and seconded by Alderman Barber: ——

That a bylaw be submitted to cover the amount of the deficiency caused in the general fund owing to the cost of sewers, drainage, etc., having exceeded the estimates, such bylaw amounting to approximately $10,000.

The motion was carried.

Moved by Alderman McKinnon, seconded by Alderman Abrahamson, that after the voting on the $10,000 by-law referred to in the foregoing resolution, the council proceed to reaa-justment of the schedule of the sewer bylaw, to enable same to be raised to make up the amounts of the annual shortages. —Carried.

The council then adjourned at 11:15 p. m.

ORANGE CELEBRATION AT NEW WESTMINSTER

Local Lodge and City Band well Received in the Big Parade

Over 15,000 Orangemen, their families and friends, gathered in the Royal City on Friday last, July 12th, to celebrate the fiftyeth anniversary of the Foundation of their order in British Columbia. The pioneer lodge of the province was L.O.L. 1150 New Westminster, formed in March 1861, among the charter members of that historic lodge being our respected old time citizen Mr. John Sanderson.

Revelstoke Lodge, No. 1658, and friends to the number 50, including four banner boys, the members of the Revelstoke City Band, left for the coast at 6:30 a.m. on the morning of the 11th, reaching New Westminster that same evening at 10:30, where they were met by a delegation of Orangemen and escorted to their hotel. On the morning of the glorious 12th, by street car, train and steam boat, thousands were arriving, by noon it was estimated over fifteen thousand Orangemen and their friends were gathered at New Westminster. Never before in the history of the city, had such a large crowd been seen. At 12:45 the parade started from Library Hill to Queens Park, 5,000 Orangemen with fifteen bands and innumerable banners representing the various provincial lodges, were in that long procession. Revelstoke Lodge was augmented by members who are living at the Coast although still affiliated with the organization here, and showed some forty members strong in the parade, headed by the Revelstoke City Band, and all along the line of waiting thousands of spectators, stretching for three miles, the local band and lodge, were received with volleys of cheers. It was well known that the Revelstoke lodge in that parade, achieved the world's record for long distance travelling as a body, to attend an Orange celebration, having come a distance of 380 miles; the marching of the lodge, and the music provided by the Band, caught the eyes and ears of the crowds, the Revelstoke Band were given credit for being the best musical artists which took part in the parade, and their efforts were enthusiastically cheered by watching thousands, who lined the streets. Brother W. J. Whitely, Grand Lecturer of British America, during his speech at the grounds, made special reference to the attendance at that celebration, of the lodge from distant Revelstoke.

The brethren returned on Monday morning, after having a splendid time during the entire trip.

WEDNESDAY, JULY 17, 1912.

Some weeks ago, through these columns, attention was directed to the approaching western tour of Their Royal Highnesses, Duke and Duchess of Connaught, and a suggestion was thrown out, that something might be done by the Civic authorities and the public bodies, to mark this occasion in a manner which would alike pay a fitting tribute of respect to our Royal visitors and be worthy of the position occupied by Revelstoke as the principle main line city in the interior of British Columbia.

It is a fact that other cities, less naturally endowed for the entertaining of guests than Revelstoke, have made most elaborate preparations in connection with this Western Tour of the Governor-General of Canada, and by adopting a policy of energetic pushfulness, have succeeded in obtaining large appropriations from the Provincial government, said in one instance to amount to $2,000, which can be expended in a series of fetes and sports, etc., to the great benefit of the cities so assisted.

Perhaps it is not yet too late for Revelstoke to secure at least some share of the widespread publicity and other obvious rewards, which might be expected if proper advantage were taken of this golden opportunity.

Y. M. C. A. Notes

The days are very well filled for the boys of the Y.M.C.A. Things have been moving since the holidays started. In spite of the rain, the boys have been out on several good hikes with plenty of swimming at Williamson's lake, with a nice spring-board to dive from.

On Friday about twelve boys journed up the Big Bend to come home loaded with berries, that is judging from the number of pails they took, but some got tired (and some lazy) but in spite of these draw-backs there was a nice lot of berries brought home.

These outdoor hikes are an ideal thing for keeping boys out of the city and incidently, out of mischief. The only chance for complaint on the part of the parents is the large amount of dinner that the boys take, and also the amount they eat when they come home. Parents whose boys are members of the Association would do well to let their boys out on these hikes, as they are more beneficial than can be told on paper.

Preserving Pointers

(By a local housewife.)

Has your preserving spoon that mean habit of slipping down to the bottom of the boiling jam whenever you are not looking? Try this plan: Take a strong new hairpin, pass it through the hole in the handle of the spoon, give it a twist and bend the ends downward. There you have a strong hook to catch on the side of the pot and it has the advantage of not costing anything in time or money even though you have to make a new one every time.

A box of parowax will save dollars worth of canned fruit from working. Keep it in a large cup and it will always be ready to slip on the back of the stove to melt. Stand the gems on their heads on a clean newspaper, until cold. Pick them up, being careful not to turn them right end up until you have dipped them over the ring in the melted wax. The wax will freeze immediately and the gem is made perfectly airtight.

In preserving time buy sugar by the 100 pound sack, you save 50c., and you always have sugar on hand when berries arrive unexpectedly. Besides the 20lb sacks are no good for dish towels anyway.

To make raspberry jelly, add one pound of red currants to every four pounds of raspberries.

Orangemen at Church

Ne Temere decree, what is required of him? That he sever his connection with the church, no, no; the only consistent course open to the church of Rome is to excommunicate him, instead of going into the home and doing the Christlike (?) work of breaking up the home and branding the children as illegitimate.

We admit the right of any church or religious body to make and enforce such laws, by the imposition of such spiritual penalties as they wish so long as they do not interfere with the civil status of the parties.

We do not challenge the right of the Roman Catholic, to make laws to govern its members, they are at perfect liberty to do with them as they see fit, except when they interfere with the duties which these people owe to the state, as citizens living on British soil, and in this enlightened 20th century.

There are objections we raise to the enforcement of this decree. It teaches—1st, by implication, what is elsewhere proclaimed by this body,—that the church of Rome is superior to all other churches, in fact is the only true church, out of which there is no salvation, will they deny this?

This question we discussed a year ago, and from Scripture and history showed that the so called Roman church is a great political organization under the guise of a religious body and is apostatical rather than apostolical.

2nd.—This decree challenges the supremacy of British law, again the claims of the hierarchy for centuries, that ecclesiastical law is not subordinate to civil law. There is a real conflict between this church and the state. Roman ecclesiastics would seek to lead you to think otherwise, but look—The church says mixed marriages by a Protestant minister are invalid. The state says they are valid. One says no, the other says yes and the Catholic Register says—"To say that in a conflict between church and state that the civil law prevails is heresy."

3rd—From the enforcement of this decree one is led to the conclusion, that the Roman Catholic church will lead the people under certain circumstances to break the most solemn and sacred pledges.

The Catholic Record says:— "Between two Catholics a betrothal is not binding upon either party unless made in writing and signed before a priest." We confess that this would stagger us, such a declaration that neither party is bound by the most sacred pledges—A Roman Catholic not bound by his pledged word. Every instinct of honesty and decency rises in rebellion.

This is no trifle. This is a serious matter, when is a Roman Catholic bound by any pledge? For if a man will deliberately violate his solemn public pledge to a trusting woman, he is not fit company for any man and any church which will advise such a course of conduct can scarcely complain if men hesitate to accept her pledged word. Canadian law will prosecute for breaking an engagement, but the priest will tell a man to even break his marriage vow and hopes to go unpunished.

A most inconsistent position is taken in Canon 8 of the decree, under certain circumstances a Roman Catholic couple may be married without a priest, but if a protestant minister happens to be present, the service is thereby rendered null and void in the eyes of the church.

Here a wide open door is presented for the immorally inclined.

It is doing a grave injustice to those who have left the Roman church, and to the Protestant party in the marriage. It is enough to make one smile. Non Catholics whether baptized or unbaptized, who contract among themselves, are nowhere bound to observe the marriage form of sponsalia or marriage. I should say not! but my what condescension, what a boon granted, very kind indeed.

This decree in its final analysis will be found to teach:

1—That marriage is a sacrament.

2—Only a priest of the Roman church can perform the ceremony.

Father Minehan says:—That a marriage outside of the Roman Catholic church is not better than a deal on a cattle market, a mere mating of animals.

The conclusion for Protestants from their standpoint is:—Were you married before a priest? If not what condition are Protestants living in? It is a nasty conclusion.

Canada must have a uniform marriage law. Those whom God hath joined together let no man put asunder.

Just a word or two in conclusion as to Father Vaughan's attack on our faith, not satisfied with the liberty of the exercise of the Roman Catholic religion, he makes an unwarranted statement.

"That Protestantism is a soulless religion without the mass etc."

Mr. McIntyre here read from the Roman catechism at length as to the Eucharist and Mass. The priest takes flour and water and makes a wafer, out of which he makes Christ, body, blood, soul and divinity of Jesus Christ, whole and entire true God and true man, and in the Mass, it is said to be in substance in reality the same sacrifice of the Cross. Then, said he, there are thousands of them at one and the same moment. There have been millions of them, don't lose sight of the fact that they are each a real Christ, body and soul, etc What has become of them, sunk into nothingness or annihilated?

What of the wafers left, have they shown any sign of intelligence?

A case is reported of where one was eaten by a rat. How can corruption be avoided?

Note, the priest claims the power to create the infinite God out of dough, a greater work than God performed in creation.

No necessity for a repetition of the sacrifice of Christ. In the Old Testament the Sacrifice was offered once a year, but the Roman church offers them by the million. In the Epistle to the Hebrews, we read of the Sacrifice once offered. Nor yet that he should offer himself often, etc. The mass is a shameful parody of the most solemn scene in our Christianity. A fearful act of idolatry, Paganism has nothing to equal it. Its blasphemy and absurdity are only equalled by the audacity of its actors What a contrast all this to the Communion of the primitive church. It is refreshing to turn back and read Brethren, it is not church or creed or sect, but simple faith in Jesus Christ the Saviour of the World, neither is there salvation in any other. No other name under Heaven given among men whereby we must be saved but the name of Jesus. Seek to know the truth and be made free.

ORANGEMEN AT CHURCH

The following is a synopsis of the sermon delivered by Rev. R. J. McIntyre to the officers and members of L.O.L. No. 1658 at the Methodist church, Sunday evening, July 7th:

The text selected for the occasion was from the Epistle of Jude, 3rd verse. "It was needful for me to write unto you and exhort you that ye should earnestly contend for the faith which was once delivered unto the Saints." The lesson read from the Scriptures was from Daniel's prophecy, 7th chapter. Emphasis was laid upon the passages referring to the "little horn," which had eyes and a mouth speaking great things against the most high, making war with the Saints, changing times and laws, and which shall eventually be consumed and destroyed, a prophecy which surely has reference to Papal Rome.

The 2nd chapter was also read, where it refers to the "man of sin," being revealed, "the son of perdition" who opposeth and exalteth above all that is called God, so that he as God sitteth in the temple of God, shewing himself that he is God.

1 Timothy, part of 4th chapter. "In the latter times some shall depart from the faith, etc., forbidding to marry and commanding to abstain from meats, etc., do you know of any institution which does these things.

Now said he, let me read to you side by side with these passages, Some extracts from an accredited Roman Catholic writer "Promepta Bibliotheca" the latest edition of which comes from Rome in 1890.

"The Pope is of so great dignity, and so exalted that he is not a mere man, but as it were God and the Vicar of God. The Pope is called most holy because he is rightfully presumed to be such.

"The Pope is crowned with a triple crown, as King of Heaven and of Earth and of the lower regions . . . . is more over even over angels, than whom he is greater.

"He forms one and the same tribunal with Christ.

"The Pope is as it were God on Earth. He is of so great authority and power that he can modify, explain or interpret divine laws.

"Whatever the Lord God himself and the Redeemer is said to do, that his vicar does, provided that he does nothing contrary to the faith."

Now judge for yourselves to whom prophecy refers, as exalting himself to be as God.

In opening the sermon, Mr. McIntyre said he did not wish to be misunderstood. He had no bitter feelings toward Roman Catholic friends and had no desire to say offensive things, but he would be frank in his statements. It was a system we object to a heirarchy which deprives of liberty and undermines the foundations of the nation.

Orangemen as I understand it are not organized to teach religion, or are they primarily concerned with doctrine, but are the professed defenders of liberty, civil and religious so that each individual, be he Roman Catholic, Protestant, Mahommedan, or Buddhist, may worship God according to the dictates of conscience, Your society opposes the temporal claims of the papacy and seeks equal rights for all and special privilges for none.

Need I refer to the necessity for the existence of some such organization? In the United States recently was organized "The Guardians of Liberty." The secret, insidious, encroachments of the church of Rome, has made this necessary.

In Canada events of recent years have set protestants thinking. The Eucharistic Congress in 1910 in Montreal. The whole affair seems to have been conceived and carried out for the purpose of magnifying and glorifying the Roman Catholic religion, and at the same time disparaging the Protestant religion in the eye of the masses. There may have been a necessity within the Roman church for this spectacular display. A government steamer was flying the Papal flag, a body guard was provided for the representative of the Pope. The administrator of government, Judge Girouard, acting as Governor-General, wired the Popes representative his "homage." A gross violation of the dignity of the British Crown. Mr. C. Marcil, the speaker of the House of Commons was in the great procession wearing the robes of his office; also Judge Wuglin in his official costume. We cannot, and do not object to the actions of these men as individuals, but as representing the people we must emphatically raise our protest.

The speaker referred to the separate school question. Separate schools said he, breed division, discord, misunderstanding and are never intended to weld the people into one harmonous whole.

The Papacy cries out against religious instruction in the public school and then cries out against the Godless school system. Recently in Quebec, an act of the Quebec parliament provided for uniform text books, but it was not allowed. The Toronto Globe is responsible for the statement "that the Pope vetoed the bill and instructed the legislative council to kill it."

The battle is waging educationally over bilingualism in the schools in the province of Ontario. Manitoba seems in difficulty over the change in the school system in order to secure extension of boundaries. But perhaps that which has aroused the people more than anything else is the Ne Temere.

About the 16th century a council was held at Trent. It aimed first at faults of administration and morals but with the crash of the Reformation, a fundamental change took place necessitating a review of its whole theology.

There were 24 sessions of the council extending from 1546-1564

In the 24th session was promulgated this decree on matrimony now commonly known as the Ne Temere decree. Thus it will be seen to be about 350 years old and smells of the middle ages, of the intolerance and bigotry of that age, and is utterly contrary to the spirit of our British institutions, of the 256 signatures attached to it, there were 189 Italians, 31 Spaniard, 26 French, etc., etc. 8 Irishmen and one Englishman. It remained a dead letter so far as British dominions are concerned until Easter 1908, since when it has been looked upon by Roman Catholics as being in force.

It was not acceptable in Germany, the Emperor would stand for no such interference, and in that country — where the Roman Catholic church has to walk warily lest its share in the national grant for religious worship be withdrawn, a mixed marriage celebrated by a Protestant minister is a good marriage in the eyes of the church and of God—The same holds true in Hungary.

In Italy, the home of the Pope, where the interference of clericals was endured for centuries, the criminal law provides for dealing with priests who disturb the peace of families. He renders himself liable to fine, imprisonment and temporal or perpetual suspension from office.

In Quebec, it appeared at one time as though the provincial law took cognizance of ecclesiastical legislation but we are indebted to the Supreme Court for a ruling on the question, which came before them in connection with the Lancaster bill, in so far as the Ne Temere decree is concerned

We are in sympathy with the Roman church in emphasizing the sacredness of marriage, if this it does. Our service so states that it is not to be taken in hand inadvisedly, but advisedly, discreetly and in the fear of God, but has the Church of Rome shown any great concern on this question. An article has come to hand from Pittsburg, U.S., of a year ago, stating that a business men's committee of the Catholic church (a certain church) have announced as a feature of their coming orphan's pic nic the raffle of a young woman of 20 years, who has consented to marry the bachelor holding the lucky ticket Tickets will be 10 cents each. The couple will get a free marriage license, will be married free of charge and get a free honeymoon trip and a house completely furnished. And yet this church will talk about the sacredness of marriage.

The Council of Trent, we are told, which adopted the canon upon which the Ne Temere decree is based, debated for days whether women had souls and decided in the affirmative by only two votes. We also are opposed to mixed marriages. An Orange man obligates himself not to marry a Roman Catholic, and if he does, he must sever his connection with the Association. But if a Roman Catholic marries a Protestant under certain conditions in violation of the

KOOTENAY AGENCIES LIMITED

THE CITY IN BRIEF

Two splendid lots on north side of Sixth Street, $750 cash for both.—H. N. Coursier.

Mr. David Moore died in the hospital last Saturday morning. His remains were taken to Calgary for interment.

Rev. W. Kenner, father of Mrs. H. Cooke, and her brother, H.R.H. Kenner, B.A., head master of Peterboro college, are visiting here.

Mrs. J. Armstrong left on Tuesday last for Salmon Arm where she will act as chaperone at a young peoples camping excursion.

Another new business has just started up in town. Mr. Albert Abrahamson has embarked in the transfer business. See his display ad elsewhere in this issue.

Among prominent visitors to call at the Mail-Herald office this week, was Mr. R.L. Guernsey, an American newspaper man of some note. He is now on a trip to Vancouver, and is travelling most of the way on foot in order to get a closer insight into the conditions at the principal towns along his way. He walked from Field to Revelstoke and is most enthusiastic over the mountain scenery, especially between here and Rogers Pass which he describes as magnificent. Mr. Guernsey has lately been connected with the magazine known as Canada Progress and only very recently was one of the many reporters at the Panama Canal conference at Calgary. He believes that this conference is the beginning of greater things in years to come in the line of transportation of the vast tonnage of grain from the middle provinces. Mr. Guernsey will remain in town a few days and then proceed to points west of here.

We regret to announce the death of the infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Sherman of McKenzie avenue. The funeral was held yesterday (Tuesday) afternoon.

Miss E.M. Cooke, left on the morning of the 11th on a trip to Victoria

Mrs. B. A. Lawson will receive tomorrow at her home on Third street west.

Mr. R. Tapping reports that the Macdonald banquet on Saturday night was a huge success.

The report of the funeral of the late Edward McGaghran, of Arrowhead, will appear in Saturday's issue

Mrs. W. Thwaites Williams, of Victoria (nee Miss Jean Orr) is visiting at th' home of Mr. and Mrs. B. A. Lawson.

Mr. Ralph Simpson, was in the city yesterday en route for home, after attending the Orange celebration at New Westminster.

Mr. W. Tomlinson and family leave this week on a visit to friends in Oregon, where they will remain for a month.

Come to the lawn social on the Methodist church lawn tomorrow (Thursday) afternoon and evening. Band in attendance in evening.

Mrs. R. Tapping reports, that her daughter who has been under expert care at Vancouver, suffering from eye strain, is now recovering rapidly.

The parties who removed a boy's wooden box express wagon from the Palace Livery stable are requested to return same to R. Tapping, to save further trouble.

The Independent Order of Foresters are holding a social evening on Monday evening, July 22nd. All members and friends are invited to attend commencing at 9 p.m.

Don't forget the lawn social on the Methodist church lawn on Thursday, July 18th (weather permitting), afternoon and evening. Band in attendance in the evening.

Mr. Chas. Taylor, one time a well known trapper in this district, and now a millionaire mining man of Nevada, was in the city on Sunday renewing old acquaintances.

Miss Annie McLean, entertained her Sunday school class and teacher with a few intimate friends, at a party on Monday evening last. The time was pleasantly spent with music, games and refreshments.

Whilst en route to New Westminster last week, the Revelstoke City Band played at Kamloops and North Bend during the half hour train wait, to the enjoyment of the natives and of the travellers on board.

Inasmuch as St. Peter's church lawn social, announced for this evening, may conflict with an event advertised for 18th inst. and cause misunderstandings, it is indifinitely postponed.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Shuttlewood paid a visit to their ranch on the Shuswap lake last week end, and found everything in the way of crops in the surrounding neighborhood looking good. Fruit and hay will be splendid crops this year, they noticed a phenominal sight on Messrs Reids land near Mr. Shuttlewood's ranch, being a tract of land not even cleared on May 24th last, which now has alfalfa, clover and timothy over 8 inches in height. There are also crops of potatoes, beans, peas, tomato plants, etc. Mr. Reid had some acorns and chesnuts sent out from Scotland this spring, and are now about a foot high and look as large as though they will mature very quickly in the Shuswap district.

Mrs. Ralph Lawrence entertained twenty little guests on Friday afternoon in honor of her daughter Marion's twelfth birthday. After the birthday supper, the party all went to the Star theatre, and afterwards enjoyed ice cream at Manning's ice cream parlor. The first prize in the peainut hunt went Donna Hume.

The Editor has received a sample of the nineteenth crop of red currants, and of the crop of new potatoes, grown on the Old Plantation Ranch by Mr. R. Tapping. They are samples which are a credit to the growers and the ranch upon which they were produced, and a sufficient proof of the capacity of the soil and climate of this district to furnish the best fruit and vegetables.

The Revelstoke Messenger Service, organized and doing business from the commencement of this week, with headquarters on McKenzie avenue, and telephone No. 299, is a new business undertaking, but one which we are convinced will fill a long felt want. The company consists of our old friends, Jack McCarty and Sunny Jim; they announce that they are prepared to answer calls day or night to execute commissions, collect and deliver packages, engage hacks, etc., and a prompt service is guaranteed. They are the original and only firm who have shown sufficient enterprise to cater to these needs, and are therefore entitled to the entire support of the business community and the public-

The line up of the C.P.R. team is as follows:

Estridge, pitcher; Bruce, catcher; Houser, 1st base; Hutchison, 2nd base; Wright, short stop; Wilson 3rd base; Rice, left field; McInenry, centre field; Warner, right field.

Everyone should made a point of cancelling all other engagements for Wednesday afternoon next.

Newspaper Law

1—A postmaster is required to give notice by letter (returning the paper does not answer the law) when a subscriber does not take his paper out of the Office and state the reason for its not being taken. Any neglect to do so makes the postmaster responsible to the publisher for payments.

2—If any person orders his paper discontinued he must pay all arrearages, or the publisher may continue to send it until payment is made and collect the whole amount whether the paper is taken from the office or not. There can be no legal discontinuance until payment is made.

3—Any person who takes a paper out of the Post Office, whether directed to his name or not, or whether he has subscribed or not, is responsible for the pay.

4—If a subscriber orders his paper stopped and the publisher continues to send, the subscriber is bound to pay for it if he takes it out of the Post Office. This proceeds upon the ground that a man must pay for what he uses.

5—The courts have decided that refusing to take newspapers or periodicals from the Post Office or removing them, leaving them uncalled for, is prima facie evidence of intentional fraud.

Ladies' Smoker

Can you beat this in the form of a surprise? Hardly. This is what the Foresters and their friends can expect on Monday evening, July 22, at I.O.O.F. Hall.

The companions of the Independent Order of Foresters under whose direction the "smoker" will be given, promise something entirely new in the vast array of socials promised for the season.

While it is denied that any 'copying after" the male sex and their smokers, it is known that during the evening cards, refreshments and a musical program has been arranged.

Other pleasing surprises are promised and in all, those anticipating a pleasant evening will not be disappointed.

A small admission will be charged. All Foresters and their friends are cordially invited.

Dominion Conference

According to statistics gleaned from the 1911 Census of Canada, the total value of the fruit growing industry in British Columbia, Ontario, Quebec and the Maritime provinces is in round numbers $12,000,00. This is the estimate worked out by the Chief of the Markets Division of the Dairy and Cold Storage Branch of the Department of Agriculture, and published in the printed report of the proceedings of the third conference of fruit growers of Canada, held in Ottawa last February. This conference, which lasted three days, was a very important one from many standpoints, as it was busily engaged durits six sessions with matters of the greatest moment to the great and growing industry represented. Among the subjects deaft with were, co-operation, new fruits, refrigeration, fruit packages, amendments to the Inspection and Sale Act, transportation, crop and market reports, etc. In addition a number of addresses were delivered by such notable men as the Prime Minister, the Hon. Martin Burrell, Minister of Agriculture, himself a large fruit grower, and Dr. James W. Robertson. In order to give the fruit growers and others interested in the industry in all parts of Canada the benefit of this conference, the Hon. Mr. Burrell, Minister of Agriculture, has authorized the printing of several thousand copies of the report which will be sent free while the supply lasts to those who apply for it to the Publication Branch, Department of Agriculture, Ottawa.
