BORDEN TO SUPPORT MOVE FOR GOOD ROADS

W. J. Kerr Notified That Premier Will Pay Attention to Need of Better Highways in Canada

New Westmiaster, B. C., Jaa. 18.—Private information received by W. J. Kerr, president of the Canadian Highway Association, from some of the members of parliament close to Premier R. L. Borden, forshadow, important legislation with regard to roads in the Dominion of Canada. While it is not advisable at this time to make known Mr. Borden's intentions, it is safe to predict that Canada's first Conservative administration for sixteen years will recognize the rapidly growing interest in good roads, and will make a bid for public approval by devoting time, attention and money to this worthy object.

In his speech from the throne at the opening of Parliament, in November, His Royal Highness the Duke of Connaught touched upon the question of Good Roads, intimasing that it would be one of the subjects which would receive his special attention. His Royal Highness, having travelled extensively, has long since recognized the important factor thae roads are in the material advance of a country, and while his position in a measure debars him from taking an active part in any scheme aimed at the betterment of roads, yet his sympathy is known to be wholly with this object.

The western members of Parliament will support Mr. Borden in his endeavor to give Canada better roads J. D. Taylor, member for the Westminster District, in a speech made at Langley a few days ago, told the farmers of that district that he would do all in his power to bring forward an improvement in the standard of Canada's highways. He also pointed out that the Dominion government at the time of confederation made a Canadian Highway one of the inducements offered to this province— a promise which today still stands unredeemed.

With the immense strides which Canada has made of late years, and the marked prosperity which she enjoys at this time, roads can no longer be treated as a negligible quantity. The citizen demands and must have, good roads. The day is now past when a rock strewn trail was considered good enough for the districts; the farmer is as much entitled to a first class road as is the city resident. The farmer always has been, but he has not always impressed that fact strongly enough on the politician and the statesman.

Now the time has arrived when the cry for good roads is general. It is a matter for congratulation on the part of the farmer, for those in high places recognize that if he is not given the transportation facilities to which he is entitled, they will receive their answer through the medium of the ballot box.

GOOD ROADS CONVENTION

At Victoria B.C., February 22 and 23rd, Next

Advices received from Victoria annouoce that arrangements have been made for the holding of a Good Roads Convention in that City on February 22nd and 23rd, for the purpose of discussing matters in connection with the building and maintenance of public roads throughout the province. The Hon. Thos. Taylor, Minister of Public Works, is at the head of the arrangements, which are in the immediate charge of Mr. W. W. Foster, Deputy Minister of Public Works.

The meeting will be attended by the engineering staff of the Public Works Department and by all Road and Bridge Superintendents in the province. Papers will be read by prominent engineers and men expert in the work of building roads. The following program for the meeting has been issued:

Road Location—Mr. J. P. Forde.

Material for Road Construction — Mr. D. Irvine.

Notes on Construction—Mr. G. P. Napier.

Use of Modern Road Machinery — Mr. J. E. Griffith.

Systematic Accounting Records for Road Superintendents—Mr. Hamilton Lang.

Comparison of the use of Steel, Concrete and Wooden Structures — Mr. E. Mahun.

General Road Construction and Maintenance (Illustrated by Stereoptican Views)—Mr. R. H. Thompson.

In addition to the reading of the above papers and the discussions which will take place thereon, the various officials of the Department will have an opportunity to meet and discuss other matters in connection with their work.

This meeting is another instance of the efforts being nut forth by the Minister and Deputy Minister of the Public Works Department to give the province a road system commensurate with its needs, and will doubtless help largely towards that end.

Revelstoke will be represented at the meeting by J. P. Forde, assistant engineer of the Public Works Department, and E. Trimble, district road superintendent.'

Y. M. C. A. NOTES

Any boy who has not yet received a program of the Arts and Crafts exhibition may have one for the asking The Physical Director is very anxious to have every boy in the city take part in this. Get busy and see what you can do in this line.

On Friday evening at 8:15 a basket ball game will be played between the J.B.C. and the Intermediates. These teams clashed on New Year's day, which resulted in the Intermediates being the winners. This time the J.B.C.'s are bound to win, so the basket bafl public are assured of a good fast game, also a good clean game as each team is well drilled in the rules. Birds singly could not compete in the pens.

At this poultry show their were nearly four thousand birds selected from all the western states, as well as B. C. It is therefore a high honor for the local poultrymen to capture these prizes.

Drowned in Shuswap Lake

John McGoskell of Celesta, according to a dispatch received yesterday from Shuswap, was drowned last Friday in Shuswap lake.

It appears that the late Mr. McGoskell was out skating on F*iday on the lake and as that is the general day to go with the mail and as it was noticed that he did not turn up on Friday, a neighbor started out to ascertain what was the trouble, and after searching in vain for some time, traced the deceased to Lake Shuswap and found his hat beside a large hole in the ise. This solved the mystery regarding the disappearance of the young man whose body may never be recovered, as Lake Shuswap is not noted for giving up its dead.

The deceased was about 25 years of age and unmarried. His parents reside in Scotland, but a brother of the deceased was married to a sister of Mrs. Innis of this city.

It is stated that the sudden death of this young man in the prime of life in such a tragic way, has cast a gloom over Shuswap district which will be hard to shake off.

DEPUTY MINISTER AT REVELSTOKE

W. W. Foster On Inspection Tour --Forecasts Large Appropriations for Revelstoke Riding

W. W. Foster, the Deputy Minister of Public Works, arrived in town last Sunday from Nelson and remained till Tuesday afternoon, when he took the Arrowhead sleeper for the coast at 4:30

To a Mail-Herald reporter, Mr. Foster said:—"I was over at Grand Forks inspecting the new court house building and stopped off at Nelson to look into a couple of departmental matters. I am stopping over at Revelstoke more to renew old acquaintances than anything else. While in town I looked over some of the public works, including the mattressing being done by Road Supt. Trimble, which I found in a very satisfactory state.

"Regarding the government appropriations for this district, I cannot say exactly what they are just now, but they will be greater all over the province than last year. The aim of my department is to do substantial work—make substantial roads, something that will last.

Mr. Foster stated that the bracing air of Revelstoke was very refreshing to him after the coast weather, as he always found this city to possess an admirable climate.

Everywhere he went he found a strong feeling of optimism prevailing throughout the province. The railway policy of the Hon. Richard McBride, soon to be made public, would do wonders towards opening up the rich unsettled districts of the province.

As the Deputy Minister stepped on the west bound express many citizens who had gone to the station to see him off bid him bon-voyage.

Enjoyable Social

Among the leading social events of the past week, was a most enjoyable whist and dancing party given by Mrs. E. Corning last Thursday evening, at which about 35 guests were present. Whist was played according to Hoyle, after which dancing was indulged in. The evening was more interesting from the fact that the party was given in honor of Miss Brennan of the C.B. Hume & Co. establishment, who will shortly leave for New Westminster. This young lady's departure will be much regretted by her host of friends.

Whist Party

Another pleasant time was spent last Wednesday evening at the home of Mrs. Cunningham Morris, when some twenty guests spent a most enjoyable evening. Music and cards were the chief features of the evening Dainty refreshments were also served The hostess proved herself an entertainer of a high order, which can be vouched for by each and every guest.

Revelstoke Caledonian Society

The Burns Supper and Dance, under the auspices of the Revelstoke Caledonian Society, according to the committee, promises to be one of the events of the season and will surpass anythinggiven heretofore by the Society.

The genial W. M. Lawrence will occupy the chair and give Burns' grace at the opening of the supper, and other well known exponents of the vocal and humorous art will contribute to the evening's enfoyment, afterwards the company will proceed to Selkirk Hall and trip the light fantastic too tae the wee sma' hours ayont the twal. Light refreshments will be served at midnight.

This promises to be the most successful Scottish concert of the season so don't forget tonight.

Two Years More

Toronto, Jan. 22—Sir William Mackenzie has reached Toronto on his return from a month in Europe, on what he termed a pleasure trip. Speaking of the west he said between 400 and 500 miles of branch lines would be built this year by the C.N.R. in western Canada. Sir William still adhered to the opinion that the Canadian Northern railway main line would be constructed through to the coast in 1914.

The motion adopted at the last meeting of the city council, that the Council be appointed a committee of the whole, to confer with leading ratepayers and businessmen of Revelstoke, as to the best solution of the difficulties the city fathers are endeavoring to surmount, in connection with the "sewerage system" is a very sensible step, and will meet with the unanimous approval of the citizens.

The problem of financing the sewer system, like every other problem of city government, should be tackled coolly and deliberately, Revelstoke has suffered in the past, and is suffering now, as the result of too hasty action in entering upon expensive schemes, without considering what was really involved. By all means let the council and the leading ratepayers get together; the difficulties we are facing, are only such as have had to be faced by every young city and the experience of other larger and older places should be studied, and with the intelligent co-operation of the citizens and the council, a satisfactory and practical solution of our difficulties is bound to be reached.

Among the work performed by the new government at Ottawa, in their first session, was the appointing of a commission to investigate the subject of "Government Old Age Pensions." It is understood that the scope of the inquiry will not be confined to the mere advisability of continuing or extending the present Canadian Annuity scheme, but that the commission will investigate the whole matter, also considering the recent developments in this direction, throughout Europe and the United States.

The science of insurance, applied on a national scale as a means of provision against sickness, invalidity and old age, is a new factor in the world of economics, and in our opinion constitutes one of the outstanding features of the economic history of the last twenty years.

It has recently become recognized, that by a scientific application of the laws of averages, it would be possible to strike at the root of the great causes of human want and misery, namely sickness and destitution and by the mere adaptation of the exact principles of mathematics, to bring the problem of poverty down from the clouds of heavenly speculation, into the cold daylight of facts, where the problem would be capable of diagonisis and cure.

The initiation of the great national schemes of insurances, first in Germany, and latterly on a gigantic scale by Lloyd George in Britain, constitutes in our opinion, a landmark along the road toward progress and happiness for the millions of humanity, and the Canadian government could do no better act, than appoint this commission to study this latest development of the science of human economics.

HALCYON NEWS

Amongst the guests from Revelstoke that arrived last week, were Mrs. H. McSorley, J. McSorley, Miss Mullen, Geo. Knight and Mr. Stortz.

Mr. Larson of the Kootenay Steam Laundry of Nelson, is spending a few weeks at the Hot Springs resort.

William Boyd expects any day to receive the machinery for the installing of the electric light plant which will be put in to light the hotel and villas, doing away with the gasoline light which are now in use.

The recent chinook wind has taken away most of the snow that has fallen this winter. But this morning the mercury had dropped 18 degrees.

Mrs. Blondin, from Blondin's Point is recovering rapidly from the fall which she received some 10 days ago Dr. Mossman of Nakusp, was sent for but it was found that she received only a bad sprain instead of a broken shoulder which was first feared.

Local trappers are now bringing in quite a number of skins. They say that trapping is exceptionally good this winter.

Ne Temere Decree

Dublia, Jan. 17—Mr. Justice Kenny today delivered judgment in what is known as the "Midnight Marriage Case" in which the Ne Temere decree was invoked in order to secure the annulment of a marriage between William Arland Usher of Eastwell, Loughrea county Galway and Mary Caulfield, who at the time was a domestic in nis house.

The judgmeat declares that although the marriage was invalid in the eyes of the Catholic church, yet it was capable of beiag validated at any time. It was, however, already absolutely valid according to the marriage laws of Ireland. The marriage would have been invalid, Judge Kenny continues, under the penal law up to 1870 because Usher had been a Protestant within the previous 12 months but that law was repealed in 1870. The petition would therefore be dismissed with costs.

The judge found nothing in the common law or church law nullifying a marriage between two Roman Catholics by a Roman Catholic priest because of the absence of witnesses, except the decree of the Council of Trent, which had no legal effect in Ireland.

The result of granting the petition would have been to make the child illegitimate and degrade the mother, but that was their precise condition in the eyes of the church of Rome, which enacted the Trent and the Ne Temere decrees against clandestine marriages.

King George Supporter of Choir

The movement inaugurated in Wales to enter upon an energetic campaign to suppress the white plague as a memorial to King Edward VII., has met with the hearty approval of his successor George V., and has his support and sympathy. Of the necessity for such a campaign the following figures are proof conclusive. In Wales alone the loss of lives from consumption in the last ten years totalled 37,000. One person in ten dies of tuberculosis and in some districts one in seven. In addition to this heany toll of human life there is the suffering of upwards of 15,000 disabled victims of the disease who are sinking into premature graves. The average death rate from consumption in South Wales in the ten years 1896 to 1906 was five per cent. higher than in England and Wales as a whole. This condition of affairs must not be allowed to continue and among the many who are raising funds to combat the disease is the Moelwyn Choir of Male Voices who have given its services free and are now touring Canada for the purpose of raising funds to carry on the campaign. They will be here on Monday, Jan. 29th, and the tickets are on sale at Macdonald's drug store.

Those that go to hear them will have a rare opportunity to hear the marvellous music of Wales sung by its premier vocalists.

20 Millions for Improvements

Montreal, Jan. 20—Before leaving for Winnipeg tonight, Mr. George Bury, Vice-President of the Canadian Pacific Railway and General Manager of western lines, who has been in conference with Sir Thomas Shaughnessy during the past few days, announced that no less than $20,000,000 would be spent by the company in improving the system west of the great lakes during the coming year. The rumor that the main line is to be double-tracked as soon as possible in all congested districts is confirmed. A second track will be laid along the route between Regina and Chaplin, Sask., between Hammond, B. C., and Vancouver and between Alyth and Senalta, Alberta. Considerable extensions to the terminal facilities at Vancouver, Calgary Swift Current, Moose Jaw, Outlook Regina, Broadview, Brandon, and Fort William will be made. A new terminal will also be built this summer at Coquitlan, B.C.—Ex.

Splendid Performance

The following is from the Salt Lake City (Utah) Headland:

At the Y.M.C.A. auditorium Friday night a large audience greeted the Dixie Jubilee concert company with sympathetic and sincere applause.

Salt Lake is such a cosmopolitan city that few crowds, even of small dimensions, can gather without containing one or more who can live more hours during the singing of some good old Southern song than during a whole evening of high strung selections born of a later day. "IWay Down Upon the Swanee Ribber," "Dixie," "My Old Kentucky Home," and all the others were rendered on Friday evening by artists. It would be difficult to find better material for an evening's entertainment than negro melodies, and nothing is lacking if Dixi?s sing them.

Timber Licenses

Victoria, Jan. 19—The executive of the Provincial Conservative Association waited on the government this morning and presented the resolutions passed at the New Westminster convention. The premier promised to consider all favorably.

The resolution favoring a conference with the Dominion government, with the view of appointing a commission to inquire into the advisability of establishing government telephones he considered a wise one, and promised to act upon it.

The visitors were afterwards entertained by the Premier to luncheon in the Legislative grill.

A deputation from the municipality of Point Grey, consisting of Reeve Harvey, Councillor Allen and Mr. B. A. Cunliffe, arrived here tonight and tomorrow will interview the government for the purpose of recommending some changes in the Municipal Act, such as would give the municipalities power to establish motor bus services, and also enlarge their power in dealing with electric tramways They have an appointment to meet the government tomorrow morning.

Among the changes in the Land Act, proposed by Mr. Ross' new bill is the appointment of a Provincial Forestry Board, with a Chief Forester and other officials. m

It enacts a drastic change in the method of taking out timber licenses for any areas that may possibly be opened up in future. It provides that these licenses must be tendered for on the Ontario plan. That is, that they will be issued by tender. The royalties will remain the same, but the tenderer who offers the largest bonus per thousand feet of timber to be cut will be given the license, or if the minister so decides the bonus may be for a lump sum on the whole limit. This does not affect land under license at the present time.

The law enacts rigid restrictions on railways for the prevention of fire and also on loggers. It compels the latter to clear up debris around their engines and along the roads.

The only provision contained for hand loggers' licenses is that the Minister of Lands may issue them at his discretion in districts where no injury to crown lands or other property is likely to result. Except to Indians, these licenses can only be issued to voters on provincial lists.

Penalties for the infringement of the act are made more severe.

Royalties in future will be changed according to the grade of the lumber cut from the timber, the grades being divided into number 1, 2 and 3. These royalties will show a material increase over old rates.

Alderman Williamson and Mr. Walter Leek have been appointed police commissioners for Vancouver. License commissioners not yet appointed.

Two Eminent Endorsements

Robert McIntyre, the noted lecturer—"I have been at the Chautauqua at Devil's Lake, N.D., two days and nights with the Dixie Jubilee Singers and have enjoyed their singing immensely. They are a fine company of artists. Their deportment both on and off the platform is worthy of commendation. I recommend them.

Bishop McCabe—I have heard the Jubilee Singers with the greatest pleasure. At the Colfax, Iowa, Assembly they were greeted with great enthusiasm whenever they appeared on the platform. No one will be disappointed who engages them for a concert.

The Bible

London, Jan. 20.—Educational authorities are again at wordy warfare over the religious instruction of British youths. Although the subject has been worn almost threadbare, some novelty was imported into the discussion at a conference at Sherborne, attended by fifty presidents of British schools for the wealthy classes.

Many of these highbrows opened their eyes when in introducing the subject of bible teaching in schools the Rev. Lionel Ford argued that the bible is not a suitable book to put into the hands of boys. His recommendation amounted to a plea for a bowderized bible, and it was announced that a text book, called the schools bible, had been prepared for the use of young students, in which "certain alterations in the text" had been made. Mr. Ford's suggestion was unanimously rejected, however, all agreeing in thinking it "no harm that a boy should know there were some things he could not understand."

Smallpox in Jail

Nelson, Jan. 20—Dr. Smitz of Victoria, who was sent in by the Provincial government to investigate the outbreak of smallpox at the Vanrol mine, near Silverton, left on Wednesday, having lifted the quarantine at the mine and leaving Provincial Constable Moore of Nelson to complete the fumigating process of the buildings.

The cases were very light and are supposed to have originated through the receipt of a letter sent to one of the miners from Prince Edward Island, where there were some cases.

A case of smallpox has been discovered here among the thirty-six prisoners received from the coast and the jail is again quarantined.

Kenneth MacDonald of Kamloops is the present smallpox patient. He was recently sent here to relieve overcrowding at Kamloops and had not been vaccinated until a few days ago The case is not severe.

Must Be Incorporated

Ottawa, Jan. 18—Race meets held by associations that do not boast incorporation by acts of parliament are to be no more.

The Minister of Justice will bring in a bill to amend the criminal code making the holding of such meets illegal. A racing association hereafter will have to get its authority by an act of the federal as well as provincial legislature, instead of merely obtaining letters patent.

The object of the amendment is to lessen the number of gambling meets.

DRUNKENNESS CAN BE CURED.

Old Fallacy That Drunkenness Cannot Be Cured Exploded.

Many men drink who desire to stop the habit. Whisky, however, has undermined the constitution and created a craving that is not to be denied, and the man must have whisky or something that will remove the craving and build up the system and restore the nerves.

Samaria Prescription stops the craving, steadies the nerves, builds up the general health and makes drink actually distasteful and nauseous. It is tasteless and odorless, and can be given with or without the patient's knowledge, in tea, coffee or food. It is used regularly by Physicians and Hospitals. It has cured thousands in Canada, and restored happiness to hundreds of homes.

Read what Mrs. G——, of Hull, says of it and what it did for her:

"It is four months to-day since I started to use your Remedy I followed the directions, and had the best of results. One week after I started using your Remedy the patient stopped drinking, and has not drunk a glass of liquor since. I hope you will accept my heartfelt thanks. Hoping God will bless your Remedy whenever tried, I remain,

Mrs. G——, Hull, Que.
(Name withheld by request.)

Now, if there is anyone in your town who needs this Remedy, tell them of it. Practical philanthropy can take no better form. If you have a husband, father, brother or friend who drinks, help them help themselves. Write to-day.

A FREE TRIAL PACKAGE of Samaria, with Booklet giving full particulars, directions, testimonials, price, etc., will be sent in a plain sealed package to anyone mentioning this paper. MALAKWA NOTES

As a result of the recent good showing that the "Garden of Eden Birds" made at the Revelstoke Poultry show more of our ranchers will hereafter make a specialty of raising pure bred birds and in a few years this valley can be expected to make its mark in the prize lists at the various poultry shows. The fact that this valley is so well watered with numerous creeks and springs, and has a still atmosphere, with very little wind, makes it an attractive spot for the poultry man. Added to this the easy access to various markets to the east and west insure a ready sale of all the eggs that can be produced.

Visitors to Malakwa or the Garden of Eden, in order to see for themselves the beauty of the valley and the great advantages it offers to the prospective fruit grower should arrange to remain over a couple of days, so as to give themselves time to take in the major portion of the valley. A hurried visit is unsatisfactory at any time, and especially here where the really best fruit growing sections are some little distance from Malakwa station. At the Garden of Eden the visitor can see land ready for cultivation after light cleaning has been done, that will produce the best of hay, grain, vegetables of phenomenal growths, strawberries, large and lucious, and all kinds of both large and small fruits. Tobacco can also be grown with profusion at the Garden of Eden, which fact is enough to worrant the statement that it is a fruit valley, for when tobacco plants will thrive, fruit trees will also prosper.

LAND VALUES.

Another attractive feature about the Garden of Eden is that as yet land values are normal owing to the fact that this fair valley has never been boomed. You can buy ideal fruit land at the Garden of Eden at considerably cheaper prices than at any other equally good fruit section in B. C.

It is with pleasure we sit and cast our eyes out over this beautiful valley of the Garden of Eden these soft balmy days and wonder what some of our neighbors to the east of us would give for one day of this weather of ours. Soft and still, so still a lighted candle could be carried in the open air for any distance without the fear of its being blown out. With fuel and building material in unlimited quantities, free for the gathering, pure sparkling water rushing by the very doors, go to make this a garden of Eden even in mid-winter, and with the bountiful fall of moisture to stimulate the confidence and encourage the planting of the land the coming spring, that it may bloom and become more and more be fittingly called the Garden of Eden valley. Every day we get news of the coming of strangers, home seekers that are preparing to inspect our fair valley with the view of making a home with us and enjoying the blessings of a pure and healthful climate and a rich productive soil.

Mr. Campbell, homestead inspector has been touring the valley of the Garden of Eden for the past two days.

The teachers employment agency has been doing a rushing business of late.

J. H. Johnson paid a visit to Craigellachie Sunday.

The dance at the hall in Malakwa, on the 13th inst, came off on schedule time and was enjoyed by about thirty people.

J. Allen shipped a bunch of furs to Calgary a few days ago receiving as high as $15 for one fine martin. Jack is there when it comes to handling furs.

Mr. G. W. Hall is reported a little under the weather these days, we trust it is nothing setious.

Miss Lena Somerville, who has beea teaching near the coast, is visiting with her parents Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Somerville, the past week.

The Landing of Columbus

William Robertson, in "The History of America," describing the landing of Columbus in the discovery of America in 1492, writes: As soon as the sun azose, all their boats were manned and armed. They rowed towards the island, with their colors displayed, with warlike music and other martial pomp. As they approached the coast they saw it covered with a multitude of people, whom the novelty of the spectacle had drawn together, whose attitudes and gestures expressed wonder and astonishment at the strange objects which presented themselves to their view.

Columbus was the first European who set foot on the new world which he had discovered. He landed in a rich dress and with a naked sword in his hand. His men followed, and, kneeling down, they all kissed the ground which they had so long desired to see. They next erected a crucifix, and prostrating themselves before it, returned thanks to God for conducting their voyage to such a happy issue. They then took solemn possession of the country for the Crown of Castile and Leon, with all the formalities which the Portuguese were accustomed to observe in acts of this kind in their new discoveries

The Spaniards, while thus employed, were surrounded by many of the natives, who gazed in silent admiration upon actions which they could not comprehend, and of which they did not see the consequences. The dress of the Spaniards, the whiteness of their skins, their beards, their arms, appeared strange and surprising. The vast machines in which they traversed the ocean, that seemed to move under the waters with wings, and uttered a dreadful sound resembling thunder, accompanied with lightning and smoke struck them with such terror that they began to respect their new guests as a superior order of beings, and concluded that they were children of the sun who had descended to visit the earth.

The Europeans were hardly less amazed at the scene now before them. Every herb and shrub and tree was nifferent from those that flourished in Europe. The soil seemed to be eich, but bore few marks of cultivation. The climate, even to the Spaniards, felt warm, though extremely delightful. The inhabitants appeared in the simple innocence of nature, entirely naked. Their black hair long and uncurled, floated on their shoulders, or was bound in tresses on their heads. They had no beards and every part of their bodies was perfectly smooth. Their complexion was of a dusky copper color; their features singular rather than disagreeable; their aspect gentle and timid. Though not tall, they were well shaped and active. Their faces and several parts of theit bodies were fantastically painted with glaring colors. They were shy at first, through fear, but soon became familiar with the Spaniards and with transport received from them hawk bells, glass beads, or other baubles; in return for which they gave such provisions as they had, and some cotton yarn — the only commodity of value which they could produce.

Towards evening Columbus returned to his ship, accompanied by many of the islanders in their boats, which they called canoes; and though rudely formed out of the trunk of a single tree, they rowed them with surprising dexterity.—Ex.

Lumbermen Meet

Nelson, B. C., Jan. 20—The Mountain Lumber Manufacturers' association at its annual convention yesterday urged the Dominion government to revise the tariff upward for further protection of lumber, mining and fruit growing industries of British Columbia. That mountain mills cannot operate without loss unless protection is given against American dumping of low grade lumber on the prairies is the declaration made in a strong resolution passed at the meeting.

Lumber men went on record favoring provincial owned telephones saying that the present system has proved inadequate of private ownership, and inability of companies to meet the growing requirements of the country.

Another resolution asks the provincial government to take further steps to minimize the loss from forest fires

The railways are asked to make immediate provision to relieve the car shortage which is tying up the grain shipments in the prairie provinces.

Condemnation of heavily subsidized railroads which accept money of the people of Canada and purchase lumber and other supplies in the United States is made in a resolution which demands that companies shall support home industries.

Strong opposition was expressed to the reported proposal to abolish the dumping clause in the Canadian customs act of 1907, the association declaring that the dumping of provisions should be strengthened by being made applicable to all articles imported from foreign countries, which are invoiced at less than cost of production.

To work in unison with associated boards of trade inan attempt to better conditions of industry was determined.

Officers: President, Otto Lachmund, Arrowhead; vice president, F. W. Adolph, Baynes, B.C.; secretary-treasurer and manager, William A. Anstie, Calgary; executive, B.W. Sawyer, Chase, B.C.;E.S. Howe, Jaffray, B. C.; A. E. Watts, Wattsburg; W. MarkDecew, Paulson, B.C.—Ex.
